AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the better government of Her Majesty's subjects resorting to China," power was given to Her Majesty to authorise the Superintendent of the Trade of Her Majesty's subjects in China (so long as such Superintendent should be also the Governor of the island of Hong Kong) to enact, with the advice of the Legislative Council of the said island of Hong Kong, all such laws and ordinances as might from time to time be required for the peace, order, and good government of Her Majesty's subjects, being within the dominions of the Emperor of China, or being within any ship or vessel at a distance of not more than one hundred miles from the coast of China, and to enforce the execution of such laws and ordinances by such penalties and forfeitures as to him, by the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and it was (amongst other things) enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty to disallow, in the whole or in part, any laws or ordinances so to be enacted as aforesaid, and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council to alter the same, or any of them, as to Her Majesty in Council should seem meet; and that it should also be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order or Orders made, with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, to ordain for the government of Her Majesty's subjects, being within the dominions of the Emperor of China, or being within any ship or vessel at a distance of not more than one hundred miles from the coast of China, any law or ordinance which to Her Majesty in Council might seem meet, as fully and effectually as any such law or ordinance could be made by Her Majesty in Council for the government of Her Majesty's subjects, being within the said island of Hong Kong;

And whereas under and by virtue of the said Act, and of a certain other Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," Her Majesty was pleased by an Order in Council bearing date the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, to make provision for the good government of Her Majesty's subjects resorting to China, and for certain other purposes therein mentioned; and thereby (amongst other things) Her Majesty's Superintendent of British Trade in China, for the time being, was authorised and empowered to make and enforce, by fine and imprisonment, rules and regulations for the observance of the stipulations of treaties, and for the peace, order, and good government of Her Majesty's subjects, being within the dominions of the Emperor of China, or being within any British ship or vessel at a distance of not more than one hundred miles from the coast of China; And Her Majesty was thereby further pleased (among other things) to give authority to any of Her Majesty's Consuls within the dominions of the Emperor of China, to cause any British subject, who, after having been twice convicted of and punished for any crime or offence, should not be able to find good and sufficient security for his good behaviour, or who might be convicted before such Consul of any of certain particular crimes therein enumerated, to be sent out of the dominions of the Emperor of China, in the manner therein mentioned;

And whereas by another Order in Council, passed on the twelfth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, Her Majesty was pleased to order, that it should not be lawful for any person who should thereafter be sent out of the dominions of the Emperor of China, by any of Her Majesty's Consuls, under and by virtue of the said Order of the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and of another Order, dated the second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, respectively, or under and by virtue of the said Order now in recital, afterwards to return to and again take up his abode within any part of the said dominions, without Her Majesty's permission, to be signified as therein mentioned; and any such person so returning to, and taking up his abode within any part of the said dominions, was thereby made punishable, by fine or imprisonment, and liable to be again sent out of the dominions of the Emperor of China, at any time afterwards, in default of finding good and sufficient security for his future good behaviour, in the manner therein particularly mentioned;

And whereas by a certain Ordinance made and passed on the seventeenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, by His Excellency Sir John Bowring, Kt., then Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the said Colony of Hong Kong and its dependencies, and Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary and Chief Superintendent of the Trade of British Subjects in China, with the advice of the Legislative Council of Hong Kong, it was enacted, that it should be a misdemeanour, punishable by not more than two years' imprisonment, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars (such punishment to be accumulative or not, at the discretion of the adjudicating tribunal), for any British subject, within any part of China, to assist either the existing Chinese Government, or any or either of the different factions then engaged, or who might be thereafter engaged, in opposition to the Government, by personal enlistment in the service of either of the said several parties, or by procuring other persons to enlist in such service, or by furnishing, selling, or procuring warlike stores of any description, or by fitting out vessels, or by knowingly and purposely doing any other act to assist either party, by which neutrality might be violated; and that the tribunal for adjudicating on offences, of the description intended to be thereby dealt with, should consist of a Consular Officer in charge of a Consulate, and two Assessors of Her Majesty, resident within the Consulate;

And whereas it is expedient that the said Ordinance of the seventeenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, should be explained and amended, and that further provisions should be made to prevent the participation of British subjects within the dominions of the Emperor of China, in acts of war or rebellion against the authority of the said Emperor;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of all powers enabling Her in this behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Nothing in the said Ordinance made and passed on the seventeenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, shall extend or apply, or be deemed to have extended, or to have been applicable, to any British subject, who, at any time heretofore may have assisted, or may hereafter assist, the Government of the Emperor of China, by the means in the same Ordinance mentioned, or otherwise howsoever, by or under the leave or licence of Her Majesty, or by or under the authority of any Order of Her Majesty in Council, at any time heretofore made, or to be hereafter made.

2. If any subject of Her Majesty, within any part of the dominions of the Emperor of China, shall, at any time after the publication of this present Order, in Her Majesty's Colony of Hong Kong, levy war, or take part in any operations of war, against the Emperor of China, or aid or abet any persons who are or who may be engaged in carrying on war or rebellion or insurrection against the said Emperor, in carrying on such war or rebellion, or insurrection, such person shall be liable to the several penalties mentioned in the said Ordinance of the seventeenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and shall further be liable to be sent out of the dominions of the Emperor of China; and, in case of his afterwards returning within the same, shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished, and to be again sent out of the said dominions, and so from time to time, in the same manner, in all respects, as is provided by the said Orders in Council of the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and the twelfth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, respectively, concerning the persons liable to be sent out of the said dominions, under those respective Orders.

3. Every person offending against this present Order may be proceeded against in the same manner, in all respects, as is provided by the said Order of the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, concerning persons offending against any rules or regulations duly made, under and by virtue thereof, by Her Majesty's Superintendent of British Trade in China for the time being.

And the Right Honourable Earl Russell, and the Right Honourable Edward Cardwell, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, made on the tenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, by virtue of a certain Act of Parliament passed in the session holden in the third and fourth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intitled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of assizes in England and Wales," it was, amongst other things, ordered that the assizes and sessions holden under commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business for the county of York, theretofore holden at York, should thereafter be holden on the same circuit at York and Leeds, in the said county, and that the said county should be divided, for the purposes of carrying the said Act and that Order into execution, into two divisions, which should respectively be called "the North and East Riding Division," and "the West Riding Division," and that the said "North and East Riding Division" should include and consist of the whole of the North and East Ridings of the said county; and the said "West Riding Division" should include and consist of the whole of the West Riding of the said county:

And whereas, by the fifth section of the said Order in Council, it is provided as follows:

"In all cases of commitment for trial, or of recognizances to appear and prosecute, or give evidence or answer at the assizes for any offence suffered to have been committed in the said North and East Riding Division, such commitments shall be to the Castle of York, and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute or give evidence or to appear and answer at the assizes at York, as heretofore, and for any offence suffered to have been committed in the said 'West Riding Division,' the commitment shall be to the borough gaol of Leeds, and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute or give evidence, or to appear and answer, at the assizes at Leeds, unless the Justice or Justices of the Peace, making any such commitment or taking such recognizances, shall, under the special circumstances of the case, think fit to make such commitment for trial or recognizance to appear and prosecute, or to give evidence, or to appear and answer, at the assizes to be holden in either of the said Divisions, other than that in which the offence shall be suffered to have been committed, in which case such commitment shall be made and recognizances taken, and such trial shall take place accordingly." And whereas, under and by virtue of certain Orders duly made, pursuant to another Act passed in the session of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to the expences of prosecutions, and to make further provision for the apprehension and trial of offenders, in certain cases," three several gaols or houses of correction, at Northallerton, in the North Riding, at Beverley, in the East Riding, and at Wakefield, in the West Riding, of the said county of York, respectively, have been declared to be, and have been duly constituted, fit prisons for persons committed for trial at the assizes for the said county; and it is expedient to make further provision with respect to the commitment and trial of prisoners who have been, or may hereafter be, committed to the said three several gaols or houses of correction, respectively, and for that purpose to alter and amend the said fifth section of the said Order in Council of the tenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four:

It is therefore ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of all powers vested in Her Majesty by the said first recited Act of Parliament, or otherwise enabling Her Majesty in that behalf.

I. The said fifth section of the said Order in Council shall be amended and altered, and the same is hereby amended and altered as follows:—

"In all cases of commitment for trial, or of recognizances to appear and prosecute, or give evidence or answer, at the assizes for any offence supposed to have been committed in the said 'North and East Riding Division,' such commitment shall be either to the Castle of York, or to the gaol or house of correction in Northallerton, or to the gaol or house of correction in Beverley, and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute, or give evidence or to appear and answer, at the assizes at York, as heretofore, and for any offence supposed to have been committed in the 'said West Riding Division,' the commitment shall be either to the borough gaol in Leeds, or to the gaol or house of correction in Wakefield; and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute or give evidence, or to appear and answer, at the assizes at Leeds; unless the Justice or Justices of the Peace, making any such commitment, or taking such recognizance, shall, under the special circumstances of the case, think fit to make such commitment for trial or recognizance to appear and prosecute or give evidence, or to appear and answer, at the assizes to be holden in either of the said Divisions other than that in which the offence shall be supposed to have been committed, in which case such commitment shall be made and recognizances taken, and such trial shall take place accordingly."

II. All prisoners now or hereafter in custody in the said gaol or house of correction in Wakefield, for trial at the next ensuing assizes to be holden at York, after the date of this Order, for offences appearing by their respective commitments to have been committed within the said "West Riding Division" (other than such prisoners, if any, as may have been committed by any Justice or Justices in such special case as in the said fifth section aforesaid), shall be tried at the said next assizes to be holden at Leeds, and the Sheriff of the said county shall, ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at the said next assizes at Leeds, cause to be inserted in one or more of the newspapers published in the said county a list of the names of such prisoners who are to be tried at Leeds (so far as the same list can then be made out), with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, together with a notice that all persons bound by recognizance to appear and prosecute or give evidence against such prisoners, so to be tried at Leeds, shall appear and give evidence at the said next assizes to be holden at Leeds; and the persons so bound shall so appear and prosecute and give evidence accordingly; and all such prisoners, so to be tried at Leeds, shall be removed from the said Gaol or House of Correction to the said Borough Gaol at Leeds, for the purposes of such trial, and shall there be kept in custody, in the same manner, in all respects, as they would have been liable to be removed to and kept in custody at York, if this Order and the said Order of the tenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, had not been made.

III. This Order and the said Order of the tenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, shall henceforth be in force and take effect, in the same manner, as if the fifth section of the said Order of the tenth day of June had been originally contained therein in the terms of the said fifth section, as hereby amended: and in all other respects, save as they are hereby amended and altered, the provisions of the said Order of the tenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, shall remain and be in full force and effect.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the Poll at County Elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the Justices of any county, riding, parts, or division, in England or Wales, in Quarter Sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the Justices of the Peace for the county, riding, parts, or division, in Quarter Sessions or some Special Sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and describe the divisions of Counties, and the limits of Cities and Boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the Election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place;

And whereas the Justices of the Peace of the North Riding of Yorkshire, in Quarter Sessions assembled, on the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty four, have presented a petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places at present existing in the North Riding of Yorkshire is insufficient, and praying that the town of Helmsley, in the said North Riding, should be made an additional polling place for the said Riding;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, order, and direct, and it is hereby declared, ordered, and directed, that the said town of Helmsley shall be an additional polling place for the North Riding of Yorkshire; and that the Justices of the Peace of the said Riding, in Quarter Sessions, or some Special Sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act, passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said Act, divide such North Riding of Yorkshire into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, four, and seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following: that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, four, and seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as the endowment of the See of Norwich.

"Whereas the Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of Norwich, succeeded to the See of Norwich on an avoidance which happened before the passing of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, and is in receipt of the amount named by Act of Parliament as the income of the Bishop of Norwich, videlicet, four thousand and five hundred pounds per annum; and the said Bishop of Norwich has signified to us his willingness to accept an endowment for his See in lands and hereditaments in lieu of his said income, and that the arrangement hereinafter set forth should be made for that purpose.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments specified and described in the schedule hereto annexed, now belong to and are vested in the said Bishop and his successors in the said See, and are, in the opinion of our Estates Committee, convenient to be held as the endowment of the said See of Norwich, and are calculated to secure to the holder thereof, as nearly as may be (after deducting costs of management), a net annual income of four thousand and five hundred pounds and no more.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John Thomas, Bishop of Norwich, testified by his having signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his Episcopal seal, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than such duly published Order, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, shall be assigned and remain as the endowment for the said See of Norwich, absolutely freed and discharged from all right, title, interest, claim or demand of or from us, other than such as is created or allowed by the said Act, and shall as from the twenty-fifth day of March last be and remain the endowment for the said See of Norwich, as contemplated by the said Act, subject always and nevertheless to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments are now specifically liable, to the end that all the lands, hereditaments, and emoluments of or belonging to the said See of Norwich, except such as are so specified and described in the schedule aforesaid, and except also all rights of patronage and presentation and the residence of the Bishop may become vested absolutely in us, under and by virtue of, and subject to, the provisions of the said hereinbefore mentioned Act.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the district chapelry of Saint George, Old Brentford, sometime part of the parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and out of the said parish of Saint Mary, Ealing.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the portions of the said district chapelry of Saint George, Old Brentford, and of the said parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, which are hereinafter mentioned and described, such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said district chapelry of Saint George, Old Brentford, and of the said parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes; and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Paul, Old Brentford.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of two hundred pounds, and that so soon as a church shall have been built within such district, and shall have been duly approved by us and consecrated as the church of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish the further sum of one hundred pounds, making together the annual sum of three hundred pounds, and that the said sums of two hundred pounds and one hundred pounds respectively shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first of each of such respective payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the license of such minister, or of the approval and consecration of such church as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or incumbency of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish. Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or, instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

SCHEDULE.

"The District of Saint Paul, Old Brentford, being:—

"All that portion of the district chapelry of Saint George, Old Brentford, sometime part of the parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and also all that portion of the said parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, which are respectively situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing upon the southern boundary of the said district chapelry at a point in the middle of the River Thames opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the alley or passage called 'Smith Hill,' and extending thence in a direct line north-westward to and along the middle of such alley or passage to its north-western extremity; and continuing thence still north-westward and in a direct line across the High-street of Old Brentford to a point in the middle of the south-eastern end of Drum-lane; and continuing thence still north-westward along the middle of the said lane, passing over the loop line of the London and South Western Railway, to the junction of such lane with Ealing-lane; and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the last-named lane as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'O. B., St. P. D., 1864, No. 1,' and placed on the western side of the said lane, at a point opposite to the south-western corner of the Ealing New Parish Burial Ground:—And all which said portions of the district chapelry of Saint George, Old Brentford, and of the parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, aforesaid, are also situate to the south of another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point in the middle of Ealing-lane opposite to the said boundary stone; and extending thence south-westward to the same boundary stone; and continuing thence, still south-westward and in a direct line for a distance of six hundred and sixty-seven yards, or thereabouts, across Ealing Park, to another boundary stone inscribed 'O. B., St. P. D., 1864, No. 2,' and placed on the eastern side of Windmill-lane opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of a bridle road called 'The Ride;' and extending thence still south-westward across Windmill-lane aforesaid to and along the middle of the said bridle road called 'The Ride' to a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary, Ealing, from the parochial chapelry or parish of Saint Lawrence, New Brentford, in the county and diocese aforesaid, such point being situate in the middle of Boston-lane opposite to the middle of the south-western end of the bridle road called 'The Ride' aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the said district chapelry of Saint George, Old Brentford, and of the said parish of Saint Mary, Ealing (out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and the said incumbents and patrons have severally consented to the constitution of such district.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Gateshead aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Gateshead.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, which is comprised within, and is bounded by, an imaginary line, commencing at a point upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, from the parish of Saint John, Gateshead Fell, in the same county and diocese, such point being situate in the middle of High-street, Gateshead, opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the Sunderland-road, and also opposite to the middle of the south-western end of a certain lane, leading from High-street aforesaid to Leazes-street; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the said lane to its junction with Leazes-street aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Peareth-street; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Park-lane; and continuing thence, still north-westward, across such last-named lane to and along the middle of Trinity-street, and of East-street, as far as a point in the middle of the last-named street, opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the footway on the southern side of Easton-street; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the said footway and of the footway and stairs known as 'Crutched Tom's Stairs,' which connect Easton-street with High-street to the western extremity of the said footway and stairs; and continuing thence, still south-westward, diagonally, across High-street aforesaid to a point in the middle of the north-eastern end of Nelson-street; and continuing thence, still south-westward, along the middle of the last-named street to its western extremity; and extending thence, first south-eastward, and then south-westward, along the middle of the roadway which leads from Nelson-street aforesaid past the eastern and southern sides of the building known as the Dispensary, to the junction of the said roadway with West-street; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with the turnpike-road leading from Gateshead to Hexham; and continuing thence still south-eastward across the said turnpike-road to and along the middle of High West-street, as far as a point in the last-named street, opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Ann-street; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with High-street aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street as far as the point (opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the Sunderland-road) at which the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter fifty, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of certain benefices between the Bishop of London and the Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose, in the University of Oxford.

"Whereas the said Bishop of London is seized in fee, in right of his See of the patronage of, or perpetual right of nomination to, the several benefices specified in the first part of the schedule hereto annexed.

"And whereas the said Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose, in the University of Oxford, are seized in fee of the patronage of, or perpetual right of nomination to, the several benefices specified in the second part of the said schedule; and have also the right to nominate and present fit clerks to officiate in all churches or chapels which now are, or which shall be, built within the limits of the said several benefices specified in the said second part of the said schedule.

"And whereas by the third section of the above-recited Act, it is enacted that the word 'person' shall include any corporation, and the master, provost, warden, or head of any college or collegiate establishment, and the master, guardian, or head of any hospital, and the governing body respectively entitled in his or their corporate capacity to any such patronage; and shall also extend to and include the Queen's Majesty, as well in respect of patronage vested, or to be vested in, or exercised by, Her Majesty in right of the Crown, as in right of the Duchy of Lancaster or of the Duchy of Cornwall; and in every case of exchange in right of the Crown, where the benefice is above the yearly value of twenty pounds in the Queen's books, the assent of Her Majesty shall be testified by the signature of the Lord High Treasurer or First Commissioner of the Treasury for the time being; and when such yearly value shall be twenty pounds or under, such assent shall be testified by the signature of the Lord High Chancellor, and the assent of Her Majesty; when the patronage is in respect of the Duchy of Lancaster, shall be testified by the signature of the Chancellor of the Duchy; and when the patronage is in respect of the Duchy of Cornwall, such assent shall be testified by two or more of the principal officers of the said Duchy, to be appointed in manner provided for appointment of officers to grant leases under the provisions of an Act passed in the session held in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter five, which assent they are hereby authorized and empowered to give; and in every case of exchange in right of the Duchy of Cornwall, when there is a Duke of Cornwall, the assent of the said Duke shall be testified in writing, under the Privy Seal of the said Duke, first had and obtained for that purpose.

"And whereas the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and the Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose aforesaid, have signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said several benefices, and the right of nomination to all the churches or chapels hereinbefore mentioned, may be exchanged, as hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances of the proposed exchange, and the relative values of the said benefices and patronage; and we do hereby certify to your Majesty, that after making all proper deductions and allowances, the values of the said benefices, respectively, are as set forth in the two parts of the schedule hereunto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the assent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, as patron in right of his See of the several benefices set forth in the first part of the said schedule, and of the said Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose, as patrons of the several benefices set forth in the second part of the said schedule, in testimony whereof the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, has signed and sealed, and the said Principal and Scholars of the said King's Hall and College of Brasenose have sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the patronage of, or perpetual right of nomination to, the said several benefices specified in the said first part of the schedule hereto annexed, shall be assigned and transferred from the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London and his successors in the said See, and shall become and be vested in, and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose and their successors for ever; and that in exchange for the same the patronage of, or perpetual right of nomination to, the benelices specified in the second part of the said schedule hereto annexed, and the right of nomination and presentation to all churches and chapels which now are, or shall hereafter be, built within the limits of the said benefices specified in the said second part of the said schedule, shall be assigned and transferred from the said Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose and their successors, and shall in like manner become and be vested in, and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and his successors in the said See for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"Whereas the several benefactions, consisting of sums of cash or stock, which are mentioned in the fourth column of the schedule hereunto annexed, have been paid over or transferred to us in favour of the several benefices set forth in the first column of the same schedule respectively, upon condition that certain annual sums hereinafter mentioned shall be paid by us out of our common fund, created by the herein firstly mentioned Act, to the incumbents for the time being of the said several benefices respectively; and upon further condition that, in respect of the said benefactions, or such part or parts thereof as shall from time to time remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the incumbents for the time being of the said benefices respectively, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, the yearly sums respectively specified and set forth in the fifth column of the same schedule, or a proportionate part of each of such annual sums.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Kentish Town, sometime part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and out of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, also sometime part of the said parish of Saint Pancras.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parishes hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine Worship), should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Pancras have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

"And whereas a sum of four thousand two hundred pounds New Three Pounds per Centum Annuities has been contributed and transferred to our account and into our name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by John Derby Allcroft, of Porchester-terrace, Bayswater, in the said county of Middlesex, Esquire, in aid of the maintenance of the minister for the time being of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted; and we have, in respect thereof, agreed with the said John Derby Allcroft, and have undertaken to provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister as aforesaid, when duly licensed, the yearly sum of one hundred and twenty-six pounds.

"And whereas the said sum of four thousand two hundred pounds New Three Pounds per Centum Annuities was so contributed and transferred to our account, as aforesaid, upon the understanding that the annual sum of twenty-four pounds should be granted and paid by us out of our Common Fund in further augmentation of the maintenance of the minister for the time being of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that, in consideration of the transfer of the said sum of four thousand two hundred pounds New Three Pounds per Centum Annuities as aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned to the said John Derby Allcroft, his heirs and assigns, in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all that portion of the said new parish of Kentish Town, and also all that portion of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, which are respectively mentioned and described in the Schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Martin, Kentish Town.'

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed as aforesaid, the sum of twenty-four pounds, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the license of such minister as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that, instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister of the said district, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and become absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said John Derby Allcroft, his heirs and assigns, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Martin, Kentish Town, being:—

"All that portion of the new parish of Kentish Town, sometime part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and also all that portion of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, also sometime part of the said parish of Saint Pancras, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parishes at a point in the middle of Weedington-road; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such road to its north-western extremity; and continuing thence still north-westward and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the fence which forms the southern boundary of the close known as 'the Church lands,' belonging to the trustees of the said parish of Saint Pancras, and which is also the northern boundary of a certain brickfield belonging to, and in the occupation of, George Bassett, of Southampton-street, Fitzroy-square, in the said county of Middlesex, at which said point a boundary stone inscribed 'K. T. St. M. D., 1864, No. 1,' has been placed; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said fence, to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. T. St. M. D., 1864, No. 2,' and placed at or near to the junction of the said fence, with the wall or fence which forms the western boundary of the said close, and which is also the eastern boundary of the gardens at the back of Oakfield Terrace; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described wall or fence, to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. T. St. M. D., 1864, No. 3,' and placed at or near to the junction of the said last-mentioned wall or fence, with the fence which forms the northern boundary of the same close; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence, as far as a point in the middle of the gateway at the south-eastern end of a certain road leading from the said close to Lismore Circus; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said road to a point in the middle of its north-western extremity, such point being opposite to the north-eastern angle of the house and garden called 'Ventnor House,' and known also as 'No. 1. Lismore Circus;' and extending thence in a direct line north-westward across the open space which is designed to form the centre of the said circus to a point in the middle of the southern end of the road leading to Heriot-place; and continuing thence still north-westward along the middle of the last-described road to its north-western extremity, and continuing thence in the same direction and in a straight line across Mansfield-road, to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. T. St. M. D., 1864, No. 4,' and placed on the northern side of the last-named road; and extending thence in a straight line, and in a direction due north across a certain close of pasture land belonging to the Earl of Mansfield, to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. T. St. M. D., 1864, No. 5,' and placed on the southern side of the line of the Hampstead and North London Junction Railway; and continuing thence still in the last-mentioned direction across the said line of railway to the fence which forms the northern and eastern boundary thereof; and extending thence first-eastward, then south-eastward, and then southward, along the middle of the last-described wall or fence (crossing the boundary which divides the new parish of Kentish Town from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, as aforesaid), as far as a point in the middle of the Prince of Wales'-road; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Weedington-road aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the road last referred to, as far as the point on the boundary which divides the said new parish of Kentish Town from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, as aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbents, and to the patrons of the said new parish of Kentish Town, and of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, out of which new parishes it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbents and patrons have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorised and empowered to appropriate out of the common fund, created by the herein firstly mentioned Act, to each of the several benefices specified in the first column of the said schedule hereunto annexed respectively, the capital sum set against the name of each such benefice in the fifth column of the same schedule, and that such capital sums respectively, or any part or parts thereof, may be paid and applied by us towards the purchase or acquisition for such livings respectively, or any one or more of them, of any land, tithe, or other hereditaments which may appear to us to be suitable for annexation to such benefices respectively, or towards defraying the cost of providing suitable parsonage houses for the same.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the new parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate, in the city of London and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas the Bishop of the said diocese of London, for the time being, is in right of his See patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate, and is also in the same right patron of the rectory of the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, of which last-named parish the said new parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate, heretofore formed part.

"And whereas by an Act passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and entitled 'An Act for extinguishing tithes and customary payments in lieu of tithes within the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, in the liberties of the city of London, and for making compensation to the rector for the time being in lieu thereof,' it is enacted, that the churchwardens of the said parish for the time being shall from time to time for ever thereafter pay or cause to be paid to the rector for the time being of the said parish, or to such person as he shall appoint to receive the same, the annual sum of money in the said Act mentioned, in lieu satisfaction and discharge of all tithes or payment in lieu of tithes to which such rector is entitled, or might by law claim as such rector as aforesaid within the same parish.

"And whereas by the same last-mentioned Act it is further enacted, that if at any time after the passing thereof an additional church shall be erected in and for the said parish, then and in such case the rector for the time being of the said parish shall by and out of the said annual sum by the same Act directed to be paid to him as aforesaid, when and as the same shall from time to time be received by him, pay or cause to be paid to the officiating minister for the time being of such additional church, or to such person as he shall appoint to receive the same, the annual sum of three hundred pounds of lawful money of Great Britain, by equal quarterly payments, as in the same Act is mentioned.

"And whereas by the same last-mentioned Act the said annual sum so directed to be paid to the rector for the time being of the said parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, is subject to revision every ten years, in manner provided by such Act.

"And whereas since the passing of the said last-mentioned Act, an additional church has been erected in the said parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, to wit, the church of All Saints, Bishopsgate, and the incumbent for the time being of the said new parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate is accordingly, as the officiating minister for the time being of the said church, entitled to and he receives the said annual sum of three hundred pounds under the hereinbefore recited provisions of the said last-mentioned Act.

"And whereas the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, the present Bishop of the said diocese of London, has, as such patron as aforesaid of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, and of the said new parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate, proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the present or remaining income of the rector for the time being of the said parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, should be apportioned between such rector and the incumbent for the time being of the said new parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate, in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honorable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the Reverend William Rogers, clerk, the now rector of the said parish of St. Botolph Without, Bishopsgate (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that the said William Rogers, the present rector of the said parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, and his successors, rectors of the same parish for ever, shall, by and out of such annual sum as may from time to time be payable to him and them under and by virtue of the said hereinbefore-mentioned Act of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and when and as the same shall from time to time be received by him and them, respectively, pay or cause to be paid unto the Reverend Thomas Hugo, clerk, the now incumbent of the said new parish of All Saints, Bishopsgate, and to his successors, incumbents of the same new parish for ever, or to such person as he and they shall from time to time appoint to receive the same, the annual sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, part and parcel of such annual sum as may for the time being be payable under and by virtue of the said last-mentioned Act as aforesaid, in addition to and independently of the annual sum of three hundred pounds which is now payable by virtue of the same Act, to the said Thomas Hugo, as the officiating minister for the time being of the said church of All Saints, Bishopsgate, such annual sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, to be payable and paid by equal quarterly payments on the twenty-fifth day of March, the twenty-fourth day of June, the twenty-ninth day of September, and the twenty-fifth day of December in each and every year, or within twenty-one days next after each quarterly payment of such annual sum as aforesaid shall have been paid to the rector for the time being of the said parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, the same annual payment of two hundred and fifty pounds, to accrue and be calculated as from the fourth day of March now last past, being the day upon which the Order of your Majesty in Council assigning a separate district to the said Church of All Saints, Bishopsgate, was published in the London Gazette.

"And, with the same consents, so testified as aforesaid, we further recommend and propose that all powers and provisos relating to the said herein before-mentioned annual sum of three hundred pounds, which are contained in the said Act of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, shall (mutatis mutandis) be held to apply to the said annual sum of two hundred and fifty pounds hereinafter proposed to be made payable, and shall be of the same force and validity with respect to such last-named sum and every portion thereof as if the same last-named sum had been mentioned in such Act, instead of or in addition to the said sum of three hundred pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or, any of them in accordance with the provisions of the three hereinbefore first-mentioned acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"Whereas the several benefactions, consisting of sums of cash or stock, or of land, tithe, rent charges, or other hereditaments, which are mentioned in the fourth column of the schedule hereunto annexed, have been paid over to us in favour of, or have been otherwise secured to, the several benefices set forth in the first column of the same schedule respectively, upon condition that certain capital sums hereinafter mentioned should be appropriated by us to the said several benefices respectively, and upon further condition that in respect of such of the said benefactions as consist of cash, or of Government stock, or such part or parts thereof as shall from time to time remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the incumbents for the time being of the said benefices respectively, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, the yearly sums respectively specified and set forth in the sixth column of the same schedule, or a proportionate part of each of such annual sums.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered to appropriate out of the common fund, created by the herein firstly mentioned Act, to each of the several benefices specified in the first column of the said schedule hereunto annexed respectively, the capital sum set against the name of each such benefice in the fifth column of the same schedule, and that such capital sums respectively, or any part or parts thereof, may be paid and applied by us towards the purchase or acquisition for such livings respectively, or any one or more of them, of any land, tithe, or other hereditaments which may appear to us to be suitable for annexation to such benefices respectively, or towards defraying the cost of providing suitable parsonage houses for the same, and that in the meantime there shall be allowed and paid by us, by equal half yearly payments, on the first day of May, and the first day of November in each year, to the incumbents for the time being of the said several benefices respectively, in respect of such capital sums, or of such part or parts thereof as shall remain from time to time unapplied towards such purposes as aforesaid, the several yearly sums specified in the seventh column of the said Schedule, and therein set against the names of the said several benefices respectively, or such parts of the said several yearly sums respectively as shall bear a proportion to the parts of the said several capital sums last-mentioned, so remaining unapplied as aforesaid, corresponding with the proportion or proportions which the amounts of the said several yearly payments respectively bear to the amounts of the said respective capital sums so specified in the fifth column as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Archdeaconry of Dorset, in the diocese of Salisbury, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and another Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council made under the provisions of the same Acts, and bearing date the seventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; and duly published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of the same month, all lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, then belonging to the said Archdeaconry of Dorset (except rights of patronage), became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time, to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said Archdeaconry of Dorset, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and enquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the lands and hereditaments described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Brixworth, in the county of Northampton and diocese of Peterborough, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the Chancellorship of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Brixworth.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the lands and hereditaments described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, situate within the parish of Godalming, in the county of Surrey, and diocese of Winchester, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in, the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Farncombe, in the same county and diocese.

“ And whereas it appears to us, after duly considering the circumstances of the cases under-mentioned, to be expedient that the grants respectively recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Saint Luke, Nutford-place, London, and Salcombe, should commence and take effect from the dates hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Luke, Nutford-place, London, from the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four; and in the case of the perpetual curacy of Salcombe, from the twenty-sixth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the several grants hereinbefore recommended by us to be made to the said last-mentioned benefices respectively, shall commence and take effect from the said dates hereinbefore in that behalf mentioned respectively.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that if at any time it shall appear desirable to us that any lands, tithe, or other hereditaments should be substituted for the annual sums hereinbefore mentioned, or any of them, or any part thereof, nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such substitution, or any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Town Council of the borough of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the county of Lancaster, have, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis," presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that Orders in Council have been issued, whereby "several burial grounds in the borough of Ashton-under-Lyne have been entirely closed, one of such burial grounds being connected with the parish church of Ashton-under-Lyne, and limitations have been placed on another burial ground within the said borough;" and representing that there is difficulty and inconvenience in providing the requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, and particularly for the inhabitants of such part of the parish of Ashton-under-Lyne as is within the borough of Ashton-under-Lyne, under the powers and provisions of the Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," and praying that powers may be vested in the said Town Council for providing a burial ground or burial grounds, under the provisions of the various Acts of Parliament relating to burials, for the said borough of Ashton-under-Lyne;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-second of August next;

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the borough of Ashton-under-Lyne, one month at least before the said twenty-second day of August.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows; viz.:

In the churchyard of the parish of Carshalton to the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

In the churchyard of Gildersome to the twenty-seventh December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

And whereas an Order in Council, bearing date the tenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, has been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard of Ellesmere, from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the said Order be varied:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued in the said churchyard from the date specified in the said Order, except in now existing vaults and walled graves in the part of the churchyard which is to the south-west of the church tower,—each coffin buried in which shall be embedded in charcoal and separately enclosed by stone or brickwork properly cemented.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications; viz.:

BALDERTON, NEAR NEWARK.—Forthwith in the parish church, and from and after the first August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and family graves; and also the reserved grave spaces.

CHALFONT ST. GILES, BUCKS.—Forthwith in the church and all that part of the churchyard which lies on the south of a line drawn along the south side of the church, with the exception of now existing family graves, which can be opened without disturbing human remains; and also in the remainder of the churchyard, with the exception of ground in which no burials have taken place for the last twenty years.

OUTWELL, WISBEACH.—Forthwith in the church; and also in the church yard, with the exception of ground which has not been used for twenty years, and also with the exception of now existing family graves.
