*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 28, 1864.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Washington, enclosing copies of a joint resolution of the United States Congress, for continuing the temporary 50 per cent. increase of Customs dues; and of an Act of Congress permanently increasing the duties on Imports and for other purposes.

Joint Resolution to continue in force the joint resolution entitled "Joint resolution to increase temporarily the Duties on Imports," approved April 29th, 1864.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that the joint resolution increasing the Duties on Imports, approved 29th April, 1864, be and is hereby continued in force until the first day of July next.

[Approved, 17 June, 1864.]

An Act to increase duties on imports and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that on and after the first day of July, anno Domini eighteen hundred and sixty-four, in lieu of the duties heretofore imposed by law on the articles hereinafter mentioned, there shall be levied, collected, and paid on goods, wares, and merchandize herein enumerated and provided for, imported from foreign countries, the following duties and rates of duty, that is to say:

First. On teas of all kinds, twenty-five cents per pound.

Second. On all sugar not above number twelve, Dutch standard in colour, three cents per pound.

On all sugar above number twelve, and not above number fifteen, Dutch standard in colour, three cents and a half per pound.

On all sugar above number fifteen, not stove-dried, and not above number twenty, Dutch standard in colour, four cents per pound.

On all refined sugar in form of loaf, lump, crushed, powdered, pulverised, or granulated, and all stove-dried or other sugar above number twenty, Dutch standard in colour, five cents per pound: Provided, That the standard by which the colour and grades of sugar are to be regulated shall be selected and furnished to the collectors of such ports of entry as may be necessary by the Secretary of the Treasury, from time to time, and in such manner as he may deem expedient.

On sugar candy, not coloured, ten cents per pound. On all other confectionery, not otherwise provided for, made wholly or in part of sugar, and on sugars after being refined when tintured, coloured, or in any way adulterated, valued at thirty cents per pound, or less fifteen cents per pound. On all confectionery valued above thirty cents per pound, or when sold by the box, package, or otherwise than by the pound, fifty per centum ad valorem.

Third. On molasses from sugar-cane, eight cents per gallon. On syrup of sugar-cane juice, melado, concentrated melado, or concentrated molasses, two cents and a half per pound: Provided, That all syrups of sugar or sugar-cane, cane juice, concentrated molasses or concentrated melado, entered under the name of molasses, or any other name than syrup of sugar, or of sugar-cane, cane juice, concentrated molasses, or concentrated melado, shall be liable to forfeiture to the United States, and the same shall be forfeited.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That on and after the day and year aforesaid, in lieu of the duties heretofore imposed by law on the articles hereinafter mentioned, there shall be levied, collected, and paid, on the goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and provided for in this section, imported from foreign countries, the following duties and rates of duty, that is to say:

First. On brandy, for first proof, two dollars and fifty cents per gallon.

Sec. 14. And be it further enacted, That on the entry of any vessel, or of any goods, wares, or merchandize, the decision of the collector of customs at the port of importation and entry, as to the rate and amount of duties to be paid on the tonnage of such vessel or on such goods, wares, or merchandise, and the dutiable costs and charges thereon shall be final and conclusive against all persons interested therein, unless the owner, master, commander, or consignee, of such vessel, in the case of duties levied on tonnage, or the owner, importer, consignee, or agent of the merchandize, in the case of duties levied on goods, wares, or merchandise, or the costs and charges thereon, shall, within ten days after the ascertainment and liquidation of the duties by the proper officers of the customs, as well in cases of merchandize entered in bond, as for consumption, give notice in writing to the collector on each entry, if dissatisfied with his decision, setting forth therein, distinctly and specifically, the grounds of his objection thereto, and shall, within thirty days after the date of such ascertainment and liquidation, appeal therefrom, to the Secretary of the Treasury, who is decision on such appeal shall be final and conclusive, and such vessel, goods, wares, or merchandize, or costs and charges, shall be liable to duty accordingly, any act of Congress to the contrary notwithstanding, unless suit shall be brought within ninety days after the decision of the Secretary of the Treasury on such appeal for any duties which shall have been paid before the date of such decision on such vessel, or on such goods, wares, or merchandize, or costs or charges, or within ninety days after the payment of duties paid after the decision of the Secretary. And no suit shall be maintained in any court for the recovery of any duties alleged to have been erroneously or illegally exacted, until the decision of the Secretary of the Treasury shall have been first had on such appeal, unless said decision of the Secretary shall be delayed more than ninety days from the date of such appeal in case of an entry at any port east of the Rocky mountains, or more than five months in case of an entry west of those mountains.

Sec. 15. And be it further enacted, That the decision of the respective collectors of customs as to all fees, charges, and exactions of whatever character, other than those mentioned in the next preceding section, claimed by them, or by any of the officers under them, in the performance of their official duty, shall be final and conclusive against all persons interested in such fees, charges, or exactions, unless the like notice that an appeal will be taken from such decision to the Secretary of the Treasury shall be given within ten days from the making of such decision, and unless such appeal shall actually be taken within thirty days from the making of such decision; and the decision of the Secretary of the Treasury shall be final and conclusive upon the matter so appealed, unless suit shall be brought for the recovery of such fees, charges, or exactions, within the period as provided for in the next preceding section in regard to duties. And no suit shall be maintained in any court for the recovery of any such fees, costs, and charges, alleged to have been erroneously or illegally exacted, until the decision of the Secretary of the Treasury shall have been first had on such appeal, unless such decision of the Secretary shall be delayed more than ninety days from the date of such appeal in case of an entry at any port east of the Rocky mountains, nor more than five months in case of an entry west of those mountains.

Sec. 16. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury that, in any case of unascertained duties, or duties or other moneys paid under protest and appeal, as hereinbefore provided, more money has been paid to the collector, or person acting as such, than the law requires should have been paid, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to draw his warrant upon the Treasury in favour of the person or persons entitled to the over payment, directing the said Treasurer to refund the same out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 17. And be it further enacted, That a discriminating duty of ten per centum ad valorem, in addition to the duties imposed by law, shall be levied, collected, and paid on all goods, wares, and merchandize which, on and after the day this Act shall take effect, shall be imported in ships or vessels not of the United States: provided that this discriminating duty shall not apply to goods, wares, and merchandize which shall be imported, on and after the day this Act takes effect, in ships or vessels not of the United States, entitled, by treaty or any Act or Acts of Congress, to be entered in the ports of the United States on payment of the same duties as shall then be paid on goods, wares, and merchandize imported in ships or vessels of the United States.

Sec. 18. And be it further enacted, That on and after the day and year this Act shall take effect there shall be levied, collected, and paid on all good, wares, and merchandize of the growth or produce of countries east of the Cape of Good Hope (except raw cotton), when imported from places west of the Cape of Good Hope, a duty of ten per centum ad valorem, in addition to the duties imposed on any such articles when imported directly from the place or places of their growth or production: provided, that section three of the Act approved August five, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, entitled "An Act to provide increased revenue from imports, to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," and section fourteen of the Act approved July fourteen, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, entitled "An Act increasing temporarily the rates of duties on imports, and for other purposes," be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 19. And be it further enacted, That all goods, wares, and merchandize which may be in the public stores or bonded warehouses on the day and year this Act shall take effect shall be subjected to no other duty upon the entry thereof for consumption than if the same were imported respectively after that day, and so much of the Act of August sixth, eighteen hundred and forty-six, or any other Act, as requires the sale of fire-crackers, or prohibits their deposit in bonded warehouse, is hereby repealed.

Sec. 20. And be it further enacted, That the joint resolution "to increase temporarily the duties on imports," approved April twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, shall not be deemed to have taken effect until after the thirtieth day of April, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and shall be and remain in force until and including the thirtieth day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and any duties which shall have been exacted and received, contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be refunded by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Sec. 21. And be it further enacted, That, during the period of one year from the passage of this Act, there may be imported into the United States, free of duty, any machinery designed for and adapted to the manufacture of woven fabrics from the fibre of flax or hemp, including all the preliminary processes requisite therefor; and that steam agricultural machinery and implements may be imported free from duty for one year from the passage of this Act.

Sec. 22. And be it further enacted, That all Acts and part of Acts repugnant to the provisions of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided, That the existing laws shall extend to and be in force for the collection of the duties imposed by this Act for the prosecution and punishment of all offences, and for the recovery, collection, distribution, and remission of all fines, penalties, and forfeitures, as fully and effectually as if every regulation, penalty, forfeiture, provision, clause, matter, and thing to that effect in the existing laws contained, had been inserted in and re-enacted by this Act: And provided, further, That the duties upon all goods, wares, and merchandize imported from foreign countries not provided for in this Act shall be and remain as they were, according to existing laws prior to the twenty-ninth of April, eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

Sec. 23. And be it further enacted, That, on and after the day and year this Act shall take effect, it shall be lawful for the owner, consignee, or agent of any goods, wares, or merchandize which shall have been actually purchased, or procured otherwise than by purchase, at the time when he shall produce his original invoice, or invoices, to the collector, and make and verify his written entry of his goods, wares, and merchandize, as provided by section thirty-six of the Act of March two, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, entitled "An Act to regulate the collection of duties on imports and tonnage," and not afterwards, to make such addition in the entry to the cost or value given in the invoice as, in his opinion, may raise the same to the true market value of such goods, wares, and merchandize in the principal markets of the country whence they shall have been imported, and to add thereto all costs and charges which, under existing laws, would form part of the true value at the port where the same may be entered, upon which the duties should be assessed. And it shall be the duty of the collector, within whose district the same may be imported, or entered, to cause the dutiable value of such goods, wares, and merchandize to be appraised, estimated, and ascertained, in accordance with the provisions of existing laws. And if the appraised value thereof shall exceed, by ten per centum, or more, the value so declared on the entry, then, in addition to the duties imposed by law on the same, there shall be levied, collected, and paid, a duty of twenty per centum ad valorem on such appraised value: Provided, That the duty shall not be assessed upon an amount less than the invoice or entered value, any law of Congress to the contrary notwithstanding: And provided, further, That on and after the day and year aforesaid, the eighth section of the Act entitled "An Act reducing the duty on imports, and for other purposes," approved July thirty, eighteen hundred and forty-six, and the Act amendatory thereof, approved March three, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

Sec. 24. And be it further enacted, That in determining the valuation of goods imported into the United States from foreign countries, except as hereinbefore provided, upon which duties imposed by any existing laws are to be assessed, the actual value of such goods on shipboard at the last place of shipment to the United States shall be deemed the dutiable value. And such value shall be ascertained by adding to the value of such goods at the place of growth, production, or manufacture the cost of transportation, shipment, and transshipment, with all the expenses included, from the place of growth, production, or manufacture, whether by land or water, to the vessel in which shipment is made to the United States, the value of the sack, box, or covering of any kind, in which such goods are contained, commission at the usual rate, in no case less than two and one half per centum, brokerage, and all export duties, together with all costs and charges, paid or incurred for placing said goods on shipboard, and all other proper charges specified by law.

Sec. 25. And be it further enacted, That so much of section twenty-three of the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the payment of outstanding Treasury notes, to authorize a loan, to regulate and fix the duties on imports, and for other purposes," approved March two, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, as exempts from duty all philosophical apparatus and instruments imported for the use of any society incorporated for philosophical, literary, or religious purposes, or for the encouragement of the fine arts, or for the use, or by the order of any college, academy, school, or seminary of learning in the United States, is hereby repealed. And the same shall be subject to a duty of fifteen per centum ad valorem.

Sec. 26. And be it further enacted, That when any cask, barrel, carboy, or other vessel of American manufacture, exported or sent out of the country, filled with the products of the United States, shall be returned to the United States empty, the same shall be admitted free of duty, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Sec. 27. And be it further enacted, That on and after January first, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, the invoices of all goods, wares, and merchandize imported into the United States, shall be made out in the weights or measures of the country or place from which the importations shall be made, and shall contain a true statement of the actual weights or measures of such goods, wares, and merchandize, without any respect to the weights or measures of the United States.

Sec. 28. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where officers of the Customs or other salaried officers of the United States shall be, or shall have been, appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury, to carry into effect the licences, rules and regulations provided for by the fifth section of the Act of the thirteenth of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, entitled "An Act further to provide for the collection of duties on imports, and for other purposes," such officer of the United States shall be entitled to receive one thousand dollars per annum for his services, under the Act aforesaid, in addition to his salary or compensation under any other law: Provided, That the aggregate compensation of any such officer shall not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars in any one year.

Sec. 29. And be it further enacted, That any baggage or personal effects arriving in the United States in transit to any foreign country, may be delivered by the parties having it in charge to the collector of customs, to be by him retained, without the payment or exaction of any import duty, and to be delivered to such parties on their departure for their foreign destination, under such rules, regulations, and fees as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ADOPTION OF ACT BY SPENNIMOOR, IN THE COUNTY OF DURHAM.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted, on the 8th day of June, 1864, by the district of Spennymoor, in the township of Whitworth, in the county of Durham, within the boundaries of the aforesaid district, or portion of such township of Whitworth, in which the Watching and Lighting Act is now in force; and notice of such adoption has been duly given, in writing, to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act; and the other requirements of that Act have been duly complied with, and no appeal has been made against such adoption within the time specified by the said Act; and whereas, although the said district of Spennymoor is a place with a population of less than 3,000 by the last census, it has appeared to me that by reason of special circumstances, it is expedient that the said district should be allowed to adopt the said Act.

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as aforesaid, do hereby give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted within the said district of Spennymoor; I do further approve of such adoption, and order that the said Act shall, at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the aforesaid resolution, have the force of law within the district of Spennymoor aforesaid.

Given under my hand this 26th day of July, 1864.

(Signed) G. Grey.

Home Office, Whitehall.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ADOPTION OF ACT BY PART OF IDLE, YORKSHIRE.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was, on the 14th day of June, 1864, duly adopted by all that part of the township of Idle, in the county of York, not included within the district of the Windhill Local Board of Health; and whereas notice of such adoption was duly given in writing to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act; and it has now been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been duly advertised and affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such place to which notices are usually affixed, and no appeal has been made against such adoption.

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly adopted within the aforesaid part of the said township of Idle, in the county of York, and that, in accordance with the provisions thereof, the said Act will, at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the aforesaid resolution, have the force of law within all that part of such township of Idle, not included within the district of the Windhill Local Board of Health.

Given under my hand this 28th day of July, 1864.

(Signed) G. Grey.

THIS is to give notice, that the Court acting in the prosecution of a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed in the Birmingham District Court of Bankruptcy, at Birmingham, on the 25th day of April, 1864, by James Edwards, of Stoke-upon-Trent, in the county of Stafford, Grocer and Provision Dealer, did, on the 17th day of June, 1864, grant the Discharge of the said James Edwards; and that such Discharge will be delivered to the bankrupt, unless an appeal be duly entered against the judgment of the Court, and notice thereof be given to the Court.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

In the County Court of Kent, holden at Tonbridge, 14th July, 1864.

In the Matter of Edward Tooth, late of Tonbridge, in the county of Kent, Boot and Shoemaker, a Bankrupt, now deceased.

MEMORANDUM.—Whereas by an affidavit made in the matter of this bankruptcy, on the 9th day of June, 1864, and filed with the proceedings, it appeared that the said bankrupt had died since the date of the adjudication against him; and whereas upon application made on the said 9th day of June, 1864, on behalf of the representatives of the said deceased bankrupt, the Court, in pursuance of the 116th section of the Bankruptcy Act, 1861, directed that a public sitting should be appointed for passing the Last Examination of the said bankrupt, and also for making application for his Order of Discharge; and whereas this day was appointed for the said bankrupt to pass his Last Examination, and also to make application for his Order of Discharge, under the Bankruptcy Act, 1861) whereof, and of the purport whereof, the notice required in that behalf was duly given). Now, upon reading the statement of accounts filed with the proceedings, verified by the certificate of the Official Assignee, to be, in his opinion, the only account that could, in consequence of the bankrupt's death, be furnished of the said bankrupt's dealings and transactions; and upon reading and reference being had to the 116th section of the Bankruptcy Law Consolidation Act, 1849, and also upon hearing what was alleged by Mr. Joseph Rogers, Attorney for the representatives of the said bankrupt, and the Creditors' Assignee consenting to the Last Examination of the said bankrupt being taken as passed, I do order and direct that the Last Examination of the bankrupt shall be deemed and taken to have been passed; and upon the like application and consent, and upon examination of proceedings under the said petition, and having regard to the manner and circumstances in and under which the debts of the said bankrupt have been contracted, I do adjudge that the said bankrupt is entitled to an Order of Discharge, which is hereby allowed and granted accordingly.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the said Court, this 14th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1864,
JAMES ESPINASSE, Judge.
