

now pay a Contribution to the Turks; the same being his next exactor of the Villages as far almost as the Gates of Riab and Com-Fribi. We have had all along hopeful News from Agga and Mogara; but however they are still in the Enemies hands. We are told there was a discovery lately made of a design to deliver up Mogara, and that some were executed for it: But yet the Prince's Rajah was not out of danger, for since there were those in the place that had begun to hearken to Conditions, it did not prevent them by Tromping her self, they would soon grow weary of an endless piece of patience, without any possibility left of being relieved. The Elector of Bavaria parted from hence yesterday in order to his return to Munich; but the Elector's days here yet some few days to recover of an indisposition he is under.

Piema, Octob. 23. There are now Letters from the Duke of Lorraine of the 12th Instant, which give the Emperor an Account. That the Transylvanian Deputies sent from Harmansia, had been heard as to what they had to propose; which consisted in general Expressions of Respect and Submission to the Emperor, and of an esteem for his Highness: And that the Prince had taken Care for Provisions and Refreshments of all sorts to be sent them, (which indeed were there in abundance) but being asked what they had to offer concerning the Assignments of Quarters, which was the chief thing expected from them; they waived all that matter, pretending they had no Instructions therein: Whereupon the Duke had thought fit to dispatch to Prince Abassi, the Lieutenant-General Count Sceffenberg, and the Commisary Falkenheimb, to intimate to him, That they were not come to for an Entertainment: That this was not a time, nor an Affair to be dallied in; that what was so necessary for the Emperor's Service, the Duke was desirous to see as Late to them as might be; and if it were otherwise it must be their own fault: The Prince might therefore wonder of it as he pleased; In the mean time the Imperial Army was advancing into that Country, and they must either find Quarters or make them. The Sir S. Smith, who had been sent by the Duke of Lorraine with a Party of Horse, to discover whether there were any Troops assembling about Temeswar, or elsewhere, to smother to the Assistance of the Transylvanians, was returned, having been almost as low as the Mouth of the Theiss, over-against Begrade; who reports, that he saw no appearance of any Force to give diversion, on that side. Here arrived yesterday a Courier from General Dinnwaldt, with an Account, that though he had repulsed the Draves, in order to his march to Sygetz, which he undertook upon a suspicion he had that the Enemy was still at Petr Mordun; yet having since received more certain Information, that they had blown up their Works there, and destroyed their Bridges; and that they had all passed the Sava, being strengthened by all the Garison Soldiers between the two Rivers uniting themselves to them, who by content, had burnt or forsaken every place they had the charge of; and that they were on their march towards Adrianople, giving out, that they would follow the Grand Viceroy to Constantinople, and since their Pay had not been sent them they would fetch it; and if they found the Grand Signior to have no more Consideration for them than the Grand Vicer had shewn, they would pay him no more Respect than they did the other; He then upon return'd to take Possession of the abandoned Towns, and having put 1000 Men into Pest, from whence these Letters were written, he was then marching to Grandis. He is to be the Sava to do the like there. We are told, that there is an Express just now arrived with the News that Palmer is Capitulated, and was Surrendered at the Imperialists.

W. repall Octob. 27. This day the Count of Vallassine, General of Batavia, and Lieutenant-General of Dragoons, Envoy from the Governor of Flender, had his Audience of Leave of His Majesty, being conducted by Sir Charles Cottrell Master of the Ceremonies.

London, Octob. 30. Yesterday being the Anniversary Festival of the Inauguration of the New Lord Mayor upon his Office, Sir John St. John, the present Lord Mayor, went to Westminster by Coach, with the Pomp and Splendor that is Customary on these Occasions; And being Sworn there before the Barons of the Exchequer, he returned in the same manner to Black-Fryers Church, from whence he began his Cavalcade to Guildhall, with the usual Solemnities observed in doing Honour to so great a Magistrate. The Pageants, which make a great part of the Pageant, were chiefly designed to express the Benefits the City enjoys of Peace and Plenty under His Majesties Happy Government, and particularly, the many Advantages of that Liberty which His Majesty has been pleased to Graciously to indulge to his Subjects, tho' of different Persuasions: But that which gave the Lustre to that Day, and satisfied the Expectations of that infinite Multitude that attended, was His Majesties Presence in the City, who, in Condescension to their humble Desires, was pleased to have driven at Guildhall, whither He went, accompanied by the Royal Highness Prince George of Drumark, and attended by the Chief Officers of the Court, the Lords of the Council, the Peers of the Nobility; The Queen, who intended them the Grace and Favour, was prevented, by being indisposed: It can scarce be properly said, that His Majesty was received by the repeated Acclamations of his People, since it seemed to be but one continued Cry, which lasted from his Entrance into the City at Temple-Bar, (where He was met by the Two Sheriffs, in a Carriage) till he came to Guildhall, where there was an Entertainment prepared, that shewed the Graceness or the Respect of those who made it, by the Variety and Quantity of the Provisions, and the good Order they were served up in. Amongst other Tables in the Hall, there was one furnished for the Foreign Ministers, who were also invited, at which were present the Pope's Nuncio, and the French Ambassador; the Whole was Conducted very much to His Majesties Satisfaction, which He was pleased then to declare. This day the Aldermen and Two Sheriffs, with the Common Serjeant, waited on His Majesty, to return Thanks for the great Honour they had received, and to beg His Majesty to excuse whatever had been amiss, or unworthy of Him; whom His Majesty received very Graciously, and, as a Mark of His Acceptance of their Entertainment, He was Graciously pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon Two of the Aldermen then present, viz. John Barden, and William Ashurst Esquires.

Whereas there are certain ancient Fees of Homage due, and of Right ought to be paid, to His Majesties Servants upon His Majesties first Entrance, after His Accession to the Crown, into any County, City, Town Corporate, Cathedral or Collegiate Church, within the Kingdom of England, to be paid by them respectively: And whereas several of them have paid, and some neglect to pay the same, These are therefore to give Notice, That His Majesty is pleased to depute Sir Thomas Duppa Knight, His Majesties Gentleman Officer of the Black Rod, to receive the said Fees for the Benefit of such of His Majesties Servants to whom the same are due; and that if the Fees are not paid accordingly, they will be prosecuted for the same.

Advertisements.

The History of the most Renowned Don Quixote of Mancha: And his Trusty Squire Sancho Pancha. Now made English according to the Humour of our Modern Language. And Adorned with several Copper Plates. By J. P. Sold at the Golden Dragon in West Smithfield, next the Crown Tavern, and most Bookellers.

THE Creditors of Mr. Thomas Price and Samuel Price late of London Goldsmiths are desired to meet on Saturday next, being the 5th of November, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Globe Tavern in Fleet-Street.

Robert Smith, a tall Man, 1000 Years old, with Pockholes in his Face, cropped brown Hair, aged about 24. Christ pher Stark a thick set Fellow, middle Stature, black lank Hair, round Visaged, aged about 18; Dejected, the 23d Instant, from Capt. Thomas Doyce's Company, in the Right Honourable the Earl of Litchfield's Regiment of Foot now in Southwark. Whoever gives Notice of both, or either of the said Persons, at the sign of King Henry the Eighth, or the Talbot in Southwark, shall receive two Guineas Reward.

Richard Nicholson, a middle sized Man, aged about 26. Light yellowish coloured Hair, a scar from his Nose to the left side of his Cheek; went away from his Quarters at Reading Berks, from Capt. George Hallings's Troop. Whoever can Apprehend the said Person, and give Notice to Mr. Throckton in Durhams-yard, shall have a Guinea Reward.

THE Annual Warwickshire Feast will be kept this year the 24th day of November, at Merchant Taylors Hill. Tickets may be had at Mr. Worley's at the Bull Head in Clare Market at Mr. Parker's at the Globe in Fleet Street; and at Mr. Alders at the Blue Boar in White-chappel.

Lost out of V. llers-Street in Yourks Buildings, the 29th Instant, a little Liver & blue white Birch, with long Ears, and a little Liver Spot in the Forehead. Whoever brings her to Mr. Robert Norr's House in Villers-Street shall be well rewarded.

Went away from Mr. Barret in Wapping, Sail maker, the 25th Instant, a Black Negro about 5 Foot 10 Inches high, having a Sea Coat lined with white Boys, and a close bodied Cloth Coat underneath, speaks pretty good English. Whoever gives Notice of him to Mr. Barrat's aforesaid, or to Vernon's Coffee-house in Bartholomew-Lane, shall be paid their Charges and well rewarded besides.

Lost in a Hackney Coach at New-Town-Gate on Thursday last, a Book Containing an Account of Writs, made out by an Attorney of the Kings-Bench-Court. Whoever shall bring the same to Mr. Samuel Crouch Bookseller at the end of Pope's-Head-Alley in Cornhill, shall have 10 s. Reward.

Taken the 20th Instant from Mr. Whithorn of Foxcot near Frogmill in Gloucestershire, a black Gelding Colt, above 14 hands, above 3 years old, a long Tail, shod round, intervening behind. Whoever gives Notice of him to the Owner aforesaid, or to Mr. Chiffwell at the Rose and Crown in St. Paul's Church yard; shall have 10 s. reward and Charges.

Lost from Shrewsbury, the 7th Instant, a light dun Mare, about 14 hands, all her paces, a black Tail and Mane, half brown, a black list down her back, a mark like a Feather on her right side, a small black streak on one Shoulder. Whoever gives Notice of her to Mr. Heylyn in Moors yard in Old Fish-Street, London, or to Mr. Atkins Tanner in Shrewsbury, shall have a Guinea.