Given under my hand this 28th day of September, 1864.

(Signed) G. Grey.
