FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1864.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Act of the Session of Parliament of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign (chapter 94), "to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions and to render the same more effectual," hereinafter called The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, it was enacted (among other things) that it was and should be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty then had or might at any time thereafter have within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory:

And whereas Her Majesty has had and now has power and jurisdiction in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, on the ninth day of January, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and the seventeenth day of November, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, to make, by Orders in Council dated on those days respectively, provision for the exercise of Her power and jurisdiction aforesaid:

And whereas it has seemed to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to be expedient at the present time to revise the provisions of the said Orders, and to make further provision for the due exercise of Her Majesty's power and jurisdiction aforesaid, and for the more regular and efficient administration of justice and the better maintenance of order among all classes of Her Majesty's subjects and of persons enjoying Her Majesty's protection resident in or resorting to the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by The Foreign Jurisdiction Act or otherwise in Her vested, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to Order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

I.—PRELIMINARY.

1. This Order shall commence from and after the thirty-first day of December, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

2. The Orders of the ninth day of January, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and the seventeenth day of November, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, are hereby repealed.

This repeal shall not affect the past operation of those Orders, or either of them, or any appointment made or thing done under them or either of them.

3. Pending proceedings shall be regulated by this Order as far as the nature and circumstances of each case admit.

4. In this Order—

the term "the Ottoman dominions" means the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte;

the term "Native Indian subject of Her Majesty" means a native of India (as defined in the Act of Parliament of One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight "for the better Government of India") not being of European descent;

the term "month" means calendar month;

words importing the plural or the singular may be construed as referring to one person or thing, or more than one person or thing, and words importing the masculine as referring to females (as the case may require).

5. The provisions of this Order relating to British subjects apply to all subjects of Her Majesty, whether by birth or by naturalization, and also to all persons enjoying Her Majesty's protection in the Ottoman dominions.

The provisions of this Order relating to foreigners apply to subjects of the Sublime Ottoman Porte and subjects or citizens of any other Power or State (not being enemies of Her Majesty).

II.—GENERAL PROVISIONS RESPECTING HER MAJESTY'S JURISDICTION.

6. All Her Majesty's jurisdiction exercisable in the Ottoman dominions for the judicial hearing and determination of matters in difference between British subjects, or between British subjects and foreigners,—or for the administration or control of the property or persons of British subjects,—or for the repression or punishment of crimes or offences committed by British subjects,—or for the maintenance of order among British subjects,—shall be exercised under and according to the provisions of this Order, and not otherwise.

7. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the civil and criminal jurisdiction aforesaid shall, as far as circumstances admit, be exercised upon the principles of and in conformity with the Common Law, the Rules of Equity, the Statute Law, and other Law, for the time being in force in and for England, and with the powers vested in and pursuant to the course of procedure and practice observed by and before Courts of Justice and Justices of the Peace in England, according to their respective jurisdictions and authorities.

8. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to deprive Her Majesty's Consular Officers of the right to observe and to enforce the observance of any reasonable custom obtaining within the Ottoman dominions or to deprive any person of the benefit thereof, except where this Order contains some express and specific provision incompatible with the observance of such custom.

9. Except as to offences against the Capitulations, Articles of Peace, and Treaties between Her Majesty and the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or against any Rules and Regulation for the observance thereof or for the maintenance of order among British subjects in the Ottoman dominions made by or under the authority of Her Majesty, or against any of the provisions of this Order, or of any Rule made under it,—

No act done by a British subject in the Ottoman dominions or on board a British vessel within those dominions, which would not by a Court of Justice having criminal jurisdiction in England be deemed a crime or offence rendering the person doing such act amenable to punishment in England, shall, in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction under this Order, be deemed a crime or offence rendering the person doing such act amenable to punishment.

III.—CONSTITUTION OF HER MAJESTY'S CONSULAR COURTS.

I.—THE SUPREME CONSULAR COURT AT CONSTANTINOPLE

10. There shall be a Court styled "Her Britannic Majesty's Supreme Consular Court for the Dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte."

11. The Supreme Consular Court shall hold its ordinary sittings at Constantinople; but may, on emergency, sit at any other place within the district of the Consulate-General of Constantinople, and may at any time hold its ordinary sittings at any such place within the Ottoman dominions as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State approves.

12. There shall be one Judge of the Supreme Consular Court.

Her Majesty's Consul-General at Constantinople for the time being shall be the Judge, but he shall be appointed to the office of Judge by Her Majesty by special warrant under Her Royal sign manual.

He shall be, at the time of his appointment, a member of the Bar of England, Scotland, or Ireland, of not less than seven years' standing, or a subject of Her Majesty (by birth or naturalization) who has filled the office of Legal Vice-Consul in the Ottoman dominions or the office of Law Secretary to the Supreme Consular Court.

He may, in case of his absence from the district of the Consulate-General of Constantinople, either in the discharge of his duty, or with permission of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or in case of illness, appoint, by writing under his hand and seal, a fit person to be his Deputy, who shall have all the power and authority of Judge.

During a vacancy in the office of Judge, or on emergency, a fit person, approved by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, may temporarily be and act as Acting Judge, with all the power and authority of Judge.

Notwithstanding anything in this Order, Her Majesty may make an appointment to the office of Judge at any time after the passing of this Order; but any such appointment shall not take effect before the first day of January, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

13. There shall be attached to the Court—

(1.) One Law Secretary:

(2.) So many officers and clerks as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from time to time thinks fit.

One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may from time to time temporarily attach to the Court such persons holding appointments as Consuls or Vice-Consuls as he thinks fit.

14. The Law Secretary shall be appointed by Her Majesty.

He shall hold by special commission from Her Majesty the appointment of Vice-Consul.

He shall act as Registrar of the Court.

He shall discharge such duties in connexion with the conduct of criminal prosecutions as the Judge from time to time directs.

He shall hear and determine in a summary way such criminal charges as may under this Order be properly so heard and determined, and as are specially referred to him by the Judge.

Where a suit or proceeding of a civil nature, originally instituted in the Supreme Consular Court, relates to money, goods or other property, or any civil right or other matter at issue of a less amount or value than one hundred pounds sterling, or is instituted for the recovery of damages of a less amount than one hundred pounds sterling, the Judge may refer such suit or proceeding specially to the Law Secretary to be heard and determined by him; but in all such cases an appeal shall lie as of course to the Judge.

In case of the absence or illness of the Law Secretary, or during a vacancy in the office of Law Secretary, or during the temporary employment of the Law Secretary in any other capacity, the Judge may, by writing under his hand and seal, appoint any fit person approved by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to act temporarily as Law Secretary. The person so appointed shall have all the power and authority of Law Secretary.

Every Consul or Vice-Consul temporarily attached to the Court under Article 13 shall discharge such duties in connexion with the Court as the Judge from time to time, with the approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, directs; and for that purpose shall have the like power and authority as the Law Secretary.

II.—THE PROVINCIAL CONSULAR COURTS.

15. In addition to the Supreme Consular Court, each of Her Majesty's Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls (holding a commission as such from Her Majesty), resident in the Ottoman dominions (with such exceptions as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State at any time thinks fit to make), or any person acting temporarily, with the approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as such a Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul, shall, for and in his own Consular district, hold and form a Court styled "Her Britannic Majesty's Consular Court at [Smyna, or as the case may be],"—hereafter in this Order called a Provincial Consular Court.

IV.—JURIES. ASSESSORS.

16. Every male British subject resident in the Ottoman dominions, being of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, being able to speak and read English, having or earning a gross income at the rate of not less than fifty pounds a year, not having been attainted of treason or felony, or convicted of any crime that is infamous (unless he has obtained a free pardon), and not being under outlawry, shall be qualified to serve on a jury.

17. All persons so qualified shall be liable so to serve, except the following:—

Persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic, Consular, or other civil service in actual employment;

Officers, clerks, keepers of prisons, messengers, and other persons attached to or in the service of any Consular Court;

Officers and others on full pay in Her Majesty's Navy or Army, or in actual employment in the service of any Department connected therewith;

Persons holding appointments in the Civil service, and Commissioned Officers in the Naval or Military service, of the Sublime Ottoman Porte;

Clergymen and ministers in the actual discharge of professional duties;

Advocates and attorneys in actual practice;

Physicians, surgeons, and apothecaries in actual practice; and except persons disabled by mental or bodily infirmity.

18. On or before the fourteenth day of January in every year, each Consular Court shall make out a list of the persons so qualified and liable, resident within its district.

The list shall, on or before the twenty-first day of the same month, be affixed in some conspicuous place in the Court, and shall be there exhibited until the thirty-first day of that month, with a notice annexed that on a day specified, not being sooner than the seventh or later than the fourteenth day of the then next month, the Court will hold a special sitting for the revision of the list.

The Court shall hold such special sitting accordingly, and at such sitting, or at some adjournment thereof (of which public notice shall be given), shall revise the list by striking out the name of any person appearing to be not qualified or not liable to serve, and by inserting the name of any person omitted and appearing to be so qualified and liable, either on the application of the person omitted, or on such notice to him as the Court thinks fit to direct.

The list shall be finally revised and settled not later than the twenty-first day of February in every year, and when settled shall be affixed in some conspicuous place in the Court, and be there exhibited during not less than two months.

Such list, as settled, shall be brought into use in every year on the first day of March, and shall be used as the Jury List of the Court, for the twelve months then next ensuing.

19. Where, in pursuance of this Order, a jury is required, the Court shall summon so many of the persons comprised in the jury list, not fewer than fifteen, as seem requisite.

Any person failing to attend according to such summons shall be liable to such fine, of not more than ten pounds sterling, as the Court thinks fit to impose.

Any such fine shall not be levied until after the expiration of fourteen days. The proper officer of the Court shall forthwith give to the person fined notice in writing of the imposition of the fine, and require him within six days after receipt of the notice to file an affidavit excusing his non-attendance (if he desires to do so). The Court shall consider the affidavit, and may, if it seems proper, remit the fine.

20. A jury shall consist of five jurors.

21. In civil and in criminal cases the like challenges shall be allowed as in England, with this addition, that in civil cases each party may challenge three jurors peremptorily.

22. A jury shall be required to give an unanimous verdict.

23. Where there is a jury, all the proceedings at the trial shall be conducted in English,—evidence, if given in any other language, being interpreted in the usual way.

24. Where a Provincial Consular Court (not held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul) proceeds, in pursuance of this Order, to hear and determine any case, civil or criminal, with Assessors, the Court shall nominate and summon as Assessors not less than two and not more than four indifferent British subjects of good repute, resident in the district of the Court.

Where, however, by reason of local circumstances, the Court is able to obtain the presence of one fit person only as Assessor, the Court may sit with him alone as Assessor, and where for like reasons it is not able to obtain the presence of any fit person as Assessor, it may sit without an Assessor; but in every such case the Court shall record in the minutes of proceedings its reasons for sitting with one Assessor only, or without an Assessor.

25. An Assessor shall not have voice or vote in the decision of the Court in any case, civil or criminal, but an Assessor dissenting in a civil case from any decision of the Court, or in a criminal case from any decision of the Court or the conviction or the amount of punishment awarded, may record in the minutes of proceedings his dissent and the grounds thereof, and an Assessor dissenting shall be entitled to receive gratis a certified copy of the minutes.

V.—JURISDICTION AND AUTHORITIES OF THE CONSULAR COURTS.

I.—IN GENERAL.

26. All Her Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, exercisable in the Ottoman dominions shall, for and within the district of the Consulate-General of Constantinople, be vested exclusively in the Supreme Consular Court as its ordinary original jurisdiction.

27. All Her Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, exercisable in the Ottoman dominions beyond the district of the Consulate-General of Constantinople, and not under this Order vested exclusively in the Supreme Consular Court, shall, to the extent and in the manner provided by this Order, be vested in the Provincial Consular Courts each for and within its own district.

28. The Supreme Consular Court shall have, in all matters civil and criminal, an original jurisdiction concurrent with the jurisdiction of the several Provincial Consular Courts, such concurrent jurisdiction to be exercised subject and according to the other provisions of this Order.

29. The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may visit, in a magisterial or judicial capacity, any Provincial Consular Court, and there inquire of, or hear and determine, any case, civil or criminal, pending in that Court, or arising within its district, or may appoint the Law Secretary of the Supreme Consular Court to visit in the like capacity and for the like purpose any Provincial Consular Court, or may appoint the resident Legal Vice-Consul of any Provincial Consular Court to visit in the like capacity and for the like purpose any Provincial Consular Court where there is not a resident Legal Vice-Consul.

30. A Provincial Consular Court may, of its own motion, or on the application of any person concerned, report to the Supreme Consular Court the pendency of any case, civil or criminal, which appears to the Provincial Consular Court fit to be heard and determined by the Supreme Consular Court.

The Supreme Consular Court shall thereupon direct in what mode and where the case shall be heard and determined, and the same shall be so heard and determined accordingly.

31. Every Consular Court shall, in the exercise of every part of its respective jurisdiction, be a Court of Record.

32. Each Provincial Consular Court shall execute any writ or order issuing from the Supreme Consular Court, and take security from any person named in any writ or order for his appearance personally or by attorney, and in default of such security being given, or when specially ordered by the Supreme Consular Court so to do, send such person to Constantinople on board one of Her Majesty's vessels of war, or if there is no such vessel available then on board any British or other fit vessel.

The order of the Supreme Consular Court shall be sufficient authority to the commander or master of such vessel of war or other vessel to receive and detain such person, and carry him to and deliver him up at Constantinople according to the order.

33. The several Consular Courts shall be auxiliary to one another in all particulars relative to the administration of justice, civil or criminal.

34. Each Provincial Consular Court shall every six months furnish to the Supreme Consular Court a report of every case, civil and criminal, brought before it, in such form as the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court from time to time directs.

II.—IN CIVIL MATTERS.

Reconciliation and Arbitration.

35. Every Consular Court and its officers shall, as far as there is proper opportunity, promote reconciliation, and encourage and facilitate the settlement in an amicable way, and without recourse to litigation, of matters in difference between persons over whom the Court has jurisdiction.

36. Every Consular Court may promote reconciliation, and encourage and facilitate the settlement in an amicable way of any suit or proceeding pending before it.

37. A Consular Court may, with the consent of the parties, refer to arbitration the final determination of any suit or proceeding pending before it, or of all matters in difference between the parties, on such terms and with such directions as to appointment of an arbitrator and other things as may seem fit, and may, if it thinks fit, take from the parties, or any of them, security to abide by the result of the reference.

In any such case the award shall be final and conclusive.

On the application of any party a decree of the Court may be entered in conformity with the award, and such decree shall not be open to any appeal or re-hearing whatever.

38. Every agreement for reference to arbitration or submission to arbitration by consent between or by British subjects, may, on the application of any party, be made a rule of the Consular Court having jurisdiction in the matter of the reference or submission, which Court shall thereupon have power and authority to enforce the agreement or submission and the award made thereunder, and to control and regulate the proceedings before and after the award in such manner and on such terms as may be just.

General Authority of Courts.

39. The Supreme and every other Consular Court shall be a Court of Law and of Equity: and (subject to the other provisions of this Order) shall have and may exercise all jurisdiction, power, and authority, legal, equitable, or other, which any Consul of Her Majesty by custom has or may exercise in the Ottoman dominions.

Special Authorities of Courts.

40. The Supreme and every other Consular Court shall be a Court of Bankruptcy, and as such shall, as far as circumstances admit, have, each for and within its own district, with respect to British subjects and to their debtors and creditors, being either British subjects or foreigners submitting to the jurisdiction of the Court, all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to the Court of Bankruptcy, and the County Courts in England, or to any other judicial authority having for the time being jurisdiction in Bankruptcy in England.

41. The Supreme Consular Court shall be a Court of Vice-Admiralty, and as such shall, for and within the Ottoman dominions, and for vessels and persons coming within those dominions, have all such jurisdiction as for the time being ordinarily belongs to Courts of Vice-Admiralty in Her Majesty's possessions abroad.

Every Provincial Consular Court held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul shall be a Court of Vice-Admiralty, and as such shall, for its own district, and for vessels and persons coming within that district, have the like jurisdiction.

42. The Supreme Consular Court shall, as far as circumstances admit, have in itself exclusively, for and within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, with respect to British subjects, all such jurisdiction relative to the custody and management of the persons and estates of persons of unsound mind as for the time being belongs to the Lord Chancellor or other person or persons in England intrusted by virtue of Her Majesty's sign manual with the care and commitment of the custody of the persons and estates of persons found by inquisition in England, idiot, lunatic, or of unsound mind.

43. The Supreme Consular Court shall be a Court for Matrimonial Causes, and as such shall, as far as circumstances admit, have in itself exclusively, for and within the Ottoman dominions, with respect to British subjects, all such jurisdiction, except the jurisdiction relative to dissolution or nullity or jactitation of marriage, as for the time being belongs to the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes in England.

44. The Supreme Consular Court shall be a Court of Probate, and as such shall, as far as circumstances admit, have, for and within the Ottoman dominions, with respect to the property of British subjects having at the time of death their fixed places of abode within those dominions, all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England.

A Provincial Consular Court shall, however, also have power to grant probate or administration where there is no contention respecting the right to the grant, and it is proved on oath that the deceased had at the time of his death his fixed place of abode within the jurisdiction of the particular Court.

Probate or administration granted by a Provincial Consular Court shall have effect over all the property of the deceased within the Ottoman dominions, and shall effectually discharge persons dealing with an executor or administrator thereunder, notwithstanding that any defect afterwards appears in the grant. Such a grant shall not be impeachable by reason only that the deceased had not at the time of his death his fixed place of abode within the particular jurisdiction.

45. From the death of a British subject, having at the time of death his fixed place of abode within the Ottoman dominions, intestate, until administration granted, his personal property within those dominions shall be vested in the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court, as the personal property of an intestate in England is vested in the Judge of Her Majesty's Court of Probate there.

46. If any person, other than one of Her Majesty's Consular Officers, takes possession of and in any manner administers any part of the personal property of any person deceased without obtaining probate or administration within three months after the death of the deceased, or within one month after the termination of any suit or dispute respecting probate or administration (if there is any such which is not ended within two months after the death of the deceased), he shall be liable to such penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds sterling as the Court having jurisdiction in the matter of the property of the deceased thinks fit to impose.

Trial with a Jury.

47. Where a suit instituted in the Supreme Consular Court, or in a Provincial Consular Court held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul, relates to money goods or other property or any civil right or other matter at issue of the amount or value of fifty pounds sterling or upwards,—or is brought for recovery of damages of the amount of fifty pounds sterling or upwards,—the suit shall, on the demand of either party, be tried with a jury.

In any case (except where, according to the Rules of the Court, the suit is to be heard and determined in a summary way) a suit so instituted may be tried with a jury, if the Court of its own motion or on the application of either party, thinks fit so to order.

One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may, by order under his hand, extend the present provision to any Provincial Consular Court not held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul where it appears to him a sufficient jury list can be obtained.

Trial with Assessors.

48. Where a suit instituted in a Provincial Consular Court not held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul relates to money goods or other property of a less amount or value than three hundred pounds sterling,—or does not relate to or involve, directly or indirectly, a question respecting any civil right or other matter at issue of the amount or value of three hundred pounds sterling or upwards,—or is brought for recovery of damages of a less amount than three hundred pounds sterling,—the Court may hear and determine the case without Assessors.

In all other cases the Court shall hear and determine the case with Assessors.

III.—IN CRIMINAL MATTERS.

49. Every Consular Court shall have authority to cause to be apprehended and brought before it any British subject being within the district of the Court and charged with having committed a crime or offence within the Ottoman dominions, or on board a British vessel within those dominions, and to deal with the accused according to the jurisdiction of the Court and in conformity with the provisions of this Order; or where the crime or offence is triable, and is to be tried, in England, to take the preliminary examination, and to commit the accused for trial, and cause or allow him to be taken to England.

50. Where a person charged with a crime or offence escapes or removes from the Consular district within which the crime or offence was committed and is found within another Consular district, the Consular Court within the district of which he is found may proceed in the case to examination, trial, and punishment, or in a summary way (as the case may require), in the same manner as if the crime or offence had been committed in its own district; or may, on the requisition or with the consent of the Court of the district within which the crime or offence was committed, send him in custody to that Court, or require him to give security for his surrender to that Court, there to answer the charge and be dealt with according to law.

Where any person is to be so sent in custody a warrant shall be issued by the Court within the district of which he is found, and such warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and carry him to and deliver him up to the Court of the district within which the crime or offence was committed, according to the warrant.

51. Where a warrant or order of arrest is issued by a competent authority in Malta for the apprehension of a British subject, a native of Malta, or of any of its dependencies, who is accused of having committed a crime or offence within the jurisdiction of the authority issuing the warrant or order, and who is, or is supposed to be, in the Ottoman dominions, and the warrant or order is produced to a Consular Court, the Court may back the warrant or order, and the same, when so backed, shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom the warrant or order was originally directed, and also to any constable or any other officer of the Court by which it is backed, to apprehend the accused at any place in the Ottoman dominions where the Court by which the warrant or order is backed has jurisdiction, and to carry him to and deliver him up at Malta, according to the warrant or order.

52. Where any person is charged with the commission of a crime or offence the cognizance whereof appertains to a Consular Court in the Ottoman dominions, and it is expedient that the crime or offence be inquired of, tried, determined, and punished within Her Majesty's dominions, the accused may (under The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, section 4,) be sent for trial, as follows, namely,—with respect to Native Indian subjects of Her Majesty, to Bombay, and with respect to other British subjects, to Malta.

The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may, where it appears so expedient, by warrant under his hand and seal and the seal of the Supreme Consular Court, cause the accused to be sent for trial to Bombay or to Malta (as the case may require) accordingly.

Such warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and carry him to and deliver him up at Bombay or at Malta (as the case may be), according to the warrant.

Where any person is to be so sent to Bombay or to Malta, the Consular Court before which he is charged shall take the preliminary examination, and shall bind over such of the proper witnesses as are British subjects in their own recognizances to appear and give evidence on the trial.

53. A Consular Court may promote reconciliation and encourage and facilitate the settlement in an amicable way, of proceedings for assault or any other offence not amounting to felony and being of a private or personal character, on terms of payment of compensation or other terms that may seem reasonable or expedient, and may thereupon order the proceedings to be stayed.

54. All crimes which in England are capital shall be tried by the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court with a jury.

Other crimes and offences above the degree of misdemeanour, tried before the Judge or Law Secretary of the Supreme Consular Court, and not heard and determined in a summary way, shall be tried with a jury.

Any crime or offence tried before the Judge or Law Secretary of the Supreme Consular Court may be tried with a jury where the Judge or Law Secretary so directs.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, such classes of criminal cases within the original jurisdiction (ordinary or concurrent) of the Supreme Consular Court as the Judge, having regard to the law and practice existing in England, from time to time directs, shall be heard and determined in a summary way.

55. The Supreme Consular Court may impose the punishment of imprisonment for any term not exceeding twenty years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding five hundred pounds sterling, or the punishment of a fine alone not exceeding five hundred pounds sterling.

56. Where any person is convicted of murder, the proper officer of the Court, under the direction of the Judge, shall, in open court, require the offender to state if he has anything to say why judgment of death should not be recorded against him. If such offender does not allege anything that would be sufficient in law to prevent such judgment if the offence had been committed and the trial had been had in England, the Court may order such judgment to be entered on record.

Thereupon the proper officer shall enter judgment of death on record against such offender, as if judgment of death had been actually pronounced on him in open court by the Court.

The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court shall forthwith send a report of every such judgment, with a copy of the minutes of proceedings and notes of evidence and any observations he thinks fit to make, to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for his direction as to the punishment to be actually imposed, such actual punishment not to exceed the measure of imprisonment and fine mentioned in Article 55.

57. Where a Provincial Consular Court is held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul, crimes and offences above the degree of misdemeanour, tried before the Court, and not heard and determined in a summary way, shall be tried with a jury.

Any crime or offence may be tried with a jury where the Court so directs.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, such classes of criminal cases as the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court, with the advice and assistance of the resident Legal Vice-Consul, having regard to the law and practice existing in England, from time to time directs, shall be heard and determined in a summary way.

58. A Provincial Consular Court held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul may impose the punishment of imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds sterling, or the punishment of a fine alone not exceeding one hundred pounds sterling.

59. Where the crime or offence with which any person is charged before a Provincial Consular Court, not held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul, is any crime or offence other than assault endangering life, cutting, maiming, arson, or housebreaking, and appears to the Court to be such that, if proved, it would be adequately punished by imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for not more than three months, or by a fine of not more than twenty-five pounds sterling, the Court shall hear and determine the case in a summary way and without Assessors.

In other cases the Court shall hear and determine the case on indictment and with Assessors.

60. A Provincial Consular Court not held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul may impose the punishment of imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve months, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine of fifty pounds sterling, or the punishment of a fine alone not exceeding fifty pounds sterling.

61. Where the crime or offence with which any person is charged before a Provincial Consular Court appears to the Court to be such that, if proved, it would not be adequately punished by such punishment as the Court has power to impose, and the accused is not to be sent for trial to England, Bombay, or Malta, the Court shall reserve the case to be heard and determined by or under the special authority of the Supreme Consular Court.

The Provincial Consular Court shall take the depositions, and forthwith send them, with a minute of other evidence, if any, and a report on the case, to the Supreme Consular Court.

The Supreme Consular Court shall direct in what mode and where the case shall be heard and determined, and the same shall be so heard and determined accordingly.

62. The Supreme and every other Consular Court in imposing punishments shall have regard, as far as circumstances admit, and subject to the other provisions of this Order, to the punishments imposed by the law of England in like cases.

63. A Consular Court may order any person convicted before it of any crime or offence to pay all or any part of the expenses of his trial and imprisonment or other punishment.

Where it appears to the Court that a charge is malicious, or frivolous and vexatious, the Court may order all or any part of the expenses of the prosecution to be paid by the prosecutor.

64. Where the circumstances of the case make it just or expedient, the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may report to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State recommending a mitigation or remission of any punishment awarded by the Supreme or any other Consular Court; and on such recommendation any such punishment may be mitigated or remitted.

But no such recommendation shall be made with respect to any punishment awarded by a Provincial Consular Court, except on the recommendation of that Court, or on the dissent of the Assessors or Assessor, if any, from the conviction or from the amount of punishment awarded.

65. The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may, where it seems expedient, by warrant under his hand and the seal of the Supreme Consular Court, cause any offender convicted before any Consular Court and sentenced to imprisonment, to be sent to and imprisoned at any such place in the Ottoman dominions, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from time to time approves.

Such warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed, to receive and detain the person therein named, and carry him to and deliver him up at such place, according to the warrant.

66. Where any offender convicted before a Consular Court in the Ottoman dominions is sentenced to suffer imprisonment in respect of the crime or offence of which he is convicted, and it is expedient that the sentence be carried into effect within Her Majesty's dominions, the offender may (under The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, section 5,) be sent for imprisonment as follows, namely,—with respect to Native Indian subjects of Her Majesty, to Bombay, and with respect to other British subjects, to Malta.

The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may, where it appears so expedient, by warrant under his hand and seal and the seal of the Supreme Consular Court, cause such offender to be sent to Bombay or to Malta (as the case may require), in order that the sentence passed upon him may be there carried into effect accordingly.

Such warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and carry him to and deliver him up at Bombay or at Malta (as the case may be), according to the warrant.

67. The Supreme Consular Court shall, when required by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, send to the Secretary of State a report of the sentence passed by the Judge or Law Secretary of the Court in any case not heard and determined in a summary way, with a copy of the minutes of proceedings and notes of evidence and any observations the Court thinks fit to make.

Every Provincial Consular Court shall forthwith send to the Supreme Consular Court a report of the sentence passed by it in every case not heard and determined in a summary way, with a copy of the minutes of proceedings and notes of evidence and any observations the Court thinks fit to make. The Supreme Consular Court shall, when required by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, transmit the same, with any observations the Court thinks fit to make, to the Secretary of State.

VI.—DEPORTATION OF OFFENDERS.

68. (i.) Where it is shown on oath, to the satisfaction of a Consular Court, that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that any British subject in the Ottoman dominions is about to commit a breach of the public peace,—or that the acts or conduct of any such British subject are or is likely to produce or excite to a breach of the public peace,—the Court may cause him to be brought before it and require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court, to keep the peace, or for his future good behaviour, as the case may require:

(ii.) Where any British subject is convicted of any crime or offence before a Consular Court, or before a Court in the sentence of which one of Her Majesty's Consular Officers concurs, the Consular Court for the district in which he happens to be may require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court for his future good behaviour.

In either of these cases, if the person required to give security fails to do so, the Court may order that he be deported from the Ottoman dominions to such place as the Court directs.

The Court shall not, however, without the consent of the person to be deported, direct the deportation of a Native Indian subject of Her Majesty to any place other than Bombay—or of a native of Malta or of any of its dependencies to any place other than Malta,—or of a native of Gibraltar to any place other than Gibraltar,—or of a native of any part of Her Majesty's dominions other than Malta, its dependencies, or Gibraltar (the person to be deported not being a Native Indian subject of Her Majesty), to any place other than England.

A Provincial Consular Court shall forthwith report to the Supreme Consular Court any order of deportation made by it, and the grounds thereof. The Supreme Consular Court may reverse the order, or may confirm it with or without variation, and in case of confirmation, shall direct it to be carried into effect.

The person to be deported shall be detained in custody until a fit opportunity for his deportation occurs.

He shall, as soon as may be practicable (and in the case of a person convicted, either after execution of the sentence or while it is in course of execution), be embarked in custody under the warrant of the Supreme Consular Court on board one of Her Majesty's vessels of war, or, if there is no such vessel available, then on board any British or other fit vessel bound to the place of deportation.

The warrant of the Court shall be sufficient authority to the commander or master of such vessel of war, or other vessel, to receive and detain the person to be deported and carry him to and deliver him up at the place of deportation, according to the warrant.

69. The Supreme or other Consular Court may order the person to be deported to pay all or any part of the expenses of his deportation. Subject thereto, the expenses of deportation shall be defrayed as the expenses relating to distressed British subjects are defrayed, or in such other manner as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from time to time directs.

70. The Supreme Consular Court shall forthwith report to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State any order of deportation made or confirmed by it and the grounds thereof, and shall also inform Her Majesty's Ambassador, Minister, or Chargé d'Affaires at the Sublime Ottoman Porte of the same.

71. If any person deported returns to the Ottoman dominions without the permission of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State (which permission the Secretary of State may give) he shall be liable on conviction thereof to punishment (in the discretion of the Court before which he is convicted) by imprisonment for not more than one month, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine of not more than ten pounds sterling, or by a fine of not more than twenty pounds sterling alone, and also to be forthwith again deported in manner hereinbefore provided.

VII.—REGISTRATION OF RESIDENTS AND OTHERS.

72. Every British subject (except Native Indian subjects of Her Majesty) resident in the Ottoman dominions,—being of the age of twenty-one years or upwards,—or being married or a widower or widow, though under that age,—shall, in the month of January in every year, register himself or herself in a register to be kept at the Consulate of the Consular district within which he or she resides,—subject to this qualification, that the registration of a man shall be deemed to comprise the registration of his wife (unless she is living apart from him), and that the registration of the head of a family, whether male or female, shall be deemed to comprise the registration of all females being relatives of the head of the family (in whatever degree of relationship) living under the same roof with the head of the family at the time of his or her registration.

Every such British subject not so resident arriving at any place within the Ottoman dominions where a Consular Office is maintained, unless borne on the muster-roll of a British vessel there arriving, shall, within one month after his or her arrival, register himself or herself in a register to be kept at the Consular Office,—but so that no such person shall be required to register himself or herself more than once in any year, reckoned from any first day of January.

Any person failing so to register himself or herself, and not excusing his or her failure to the satisfaction of the Consular Officer, shall not be entitled to be recognized or protected as a British subject in the Ottoman dominions, and shall be liable to a fine of not more than forty shillings for each instance of such failure.

73. Any Native Indian subject of Her Majesty, resident in or resorting to the Ottoman dominions, may, if he or she thinks fit, register himself or herself at the respective times and in the manner aforesaid.

Any Native Indian subject of Her Majesty not so registering himself or herself shall not be entitled to sue in any of Her Majesty's Consular Courts in the Ottoman dominions, or to receive the support or protection of any of Her Majesty's Consular Officers with respect to any suit or proceeding to which he or she is a party in a Court or before a judicial officer of the Sublime Ottoman Porte or in a Court or before a judicial officer in the Ottoman dominions of any state in amity with Her Majesty; nor shall any of Her Majesty's Consular Officers exercise any jurisdiction for the punishment of any crime or offence committed by any Native Indian subject of Her Majesty unless at the date of the commission of the crime or offence he or she was so registered.

74. Every person shall on every such registration of himself or herself pay a fee of five shillings.

75. The Consular Officer shall give to every person so registered a certificate of registration under his hand and Consular seal; and the name of a wife (unless she is living apart from her husband) shall be indorsed on her husband's certificate; and the names and descriptions of females whose registration is comprised in that of the head of the family shall be indorsed on the certificate of the head of the family.

VIII.—DEATHS OF BRITISH SUBJECTS NON-RESIDENT.

76. Where a British subject, not having at the time of death his fixed place of abode in the Ottoman dominions, dies in those dominions, the Consular Court, within whose district he dies, shall, where the circumstances of the case appear to the Court so to require, forthwith on the death of the deceased, or as soon after as may be, take possession of his personal property within the particular jurisdiction, or put it under the seal of the Court, (in either case, if the nature of the property or other circumstances so require, making an inventory), and so keep the property until it can be dealt with according to law.

IX.—OFFENCES AGAINST RELIGION.

77. If any British subject is guilty of publicly deriding, mocking, or insulting any religion established or observed within the Ottoman dominions, or of publicly offering any insult to any religious service, feast, or ceremony established or kept in any part of those dominions, or to any place of worship, tomb, or sanctuary belonging to any such religion, or to the ministers or professors thereof,—or of wilfully committing any act tending to bring any such religion, or its ceremonies, mode of worship, or observances into hatred, ridicule, or contempt, and thereby to provoke a breach of the public peace,—he shall be liable (in the discretion of the Court) to imprisonment for not more than two years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine of not more than one hundred pounds sterling, or to a fine of not more than one hundred pounds sterling alone.

Notwithstanding anything in this Order, every charge against a British subject of having committed any such offence shall be heard and determined in a summary way, and any Provincial Consular Court shall have power to impose the punishment aforesaid.

Her Majesty's Consular Officers shall take such precautionary measures as seem to them proper and expedient for the prevention of such offences.

X.—FOREIGNERS. FOREIGN TRIBUNALS.

78. Where a foreigner desires to institute or take any suit or proceeding of a civil nature against a British subject, or a British subject against a foreigner, the Supreme or other Consular Court, according to its respective jurisdiction, shall entertain the same, and shall hear and determine it, either by the Judge or proper Consular Officer sitting alone, or, if all parties desire, or the Court thinks fit to direct, a trial with a jury, then by such Judge or Officer with a jury, but in all other respects according to the ordinary course of the Court:

Provided that the foreigner first obtains and files in the Court the consent in writing of the competent local authority on behalf of the Sublime Ottoman Porte or that of the Consul of his own nation (as the case may be) to his submitting, and does submit, to the jurisdiction of the Court, and if required, gives security to the satisfaction of the Court, by deposit or otherwise, to pay fees, damages, costs, and expenses, and abide by and perform such decision as may be given by the Supreme or other Consular Court originally or on appeal (as the case may require).

79. Where it is shown to a Consular Court that the attendance of a British subject to give evidence, or for any other purpose connected with the administration of justice, is required in a Court or before a judicial officer of the Sublime Ottoman

Porte, or in a Court or before a judicial officer in the Ottoman dominions of any state in amity with Her Majesty, the Consular Court may, in cases and under circumstances which would require the attendance of such British subject before one of Her Majesty's Consular Courts in the Ottoman dominions, and if it seems to the Consular Court just and expedient so to do, make an order for the attendance of such British subject in such Court or before such judicial officer and for such purpose as aforesaid,—but so that a Provincial Consular Court shall not have power to make an order for such attendance of a British subject at any place beyond the particular jurisdiction of the Court.

Any British subject, duly served with such an order and with reasonable notice of the time and place at which his attendance is required, failing to attend accordingly and not excusing his failure to the satisfaction of the Court making the order, shall be liable to a fine of not more than one hundred pounds sterling, or to imprisonment for not more than one month, in the discretion of the Court.

XI.—APPEAL TO SUPREME CONSULAR COURT.

I.—IN CIVIL CASES.

80. Where any decision of a Provincial Consular Court, sitting with or without Assessors, is given in a civil case in respect of a sum or matter at issue of the amount or value of fifty pounds sterling or upwards,—or determines, directly or indirectly, any claim or question respecting property or any civil right of the amount or value of fifty pounds sterling or upwards,—any party aggrieved by the decision may apply to the Provincial Consular Court for leave to appeal to the Supreme Consular Court, and shall be entitled to leave on the terms prescribed by the Rules made under this Order and subject to any restrictions and exceptions therein contained.

In any other case the Provincial Consular Court may, if it seems just and expedient, give leave to appeal on like terms.

In any case the Supreme Consular Court may give leave to appeal on such terms as seem just.

II.—IN CRIMINAL CASES.

81. Where any person is convicted otherwise than in a summary way of a crime or offence, the Court or Consular Officer before whom he is tried may reserve for the consideration of the Supreme Consular Court any question of law arising on the trial.

The Court or Officer shall then state a special case setting out the question reserved, with the facts and circumstances on which it arose, and shall send the case to the Supreme Consular Court.

82. Where any person is convicted in a summary way of a crime or offence, and is dissatisfied with the conviction as being erroneous in point of law, the Court or Consular Officer before whom he is tried shall, on his application, (unless the application appears merely frivolous, in which case the Court or Officer may refuse the application,) state a special case setting out the facts and the grounds of the conviction for the opinion of the Supreme Consular Court, and send it to that Court.

83. Where a special case is stated, the Court or Consular Officer shall, as seems fit, either postpone judgment on the conviction, or respite execution of the judgment, and either commit the person convicted to prison, or take proper security for him to appear and receive judgment or to render himself in execution (as the case may require) at an appointed time and place.

84. The Supreme Consular Court shall hear and finally determine the matter, and thereupon shall reverse, affirm, or amend any judgment given at the trial,—or set aside such judgment, and order an entry to be made in the minutes of proceedings that in the judgment of the Supreme Consular Court the person ought not to have been convicted,—or arrest the judgment,—or order judgment to be given at a subsequent sitting of the Court or Officer by whom the case is stated,—or make such other order as justice requires,—and shall also give all necessary and proper consequential directions.

85. The judgment of the Supreme Consular Court shall be delivered in open court after the public hearing of any argument offered on behalf of the prosecution or of the person convicted.

86. Before delivering judgment, the Supreme Consular Court may, if necessary, cause the special case to be amended by the Court or Consular Officer by whom it was stated.

XII.—APPEAL TO HER MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

87. Where any decision of the Supreme Consular Court is given in a civil case in respect of a sum or matter at issue of the amount or value of five hundred pounds sterling or upwards,—or determines directly or indirectly any claim or question respecting property or any civil right of the amount or value of five hundred pounds sterling or upwards,—any party aggrieved by the decision may, within fifteen days after the same is given, apply by motion to the Supreme Consular Court for leave to appeal to Her Majesty in Council.

If leave to appeal is applied for by a party adjudged to pay money or perform a duty, the Supreme Consular Court shall direct either that the decision appealed from be carried into execution, or that the execution thereof be suspended, pending the appeal, as the Court considers to be in accordance with substantial justice.

If the Court directs the decision to be carried into execution, the party in whose favour it is given shall, before the execution of it, give security to the satisfaction of the Court for the due performance of such order as Her Majesty in Council may think fit to make.

If the Court directs the execution of the decision to be suspended pending an appeal, the party against whom the decision is given shall, before any order for suspension of execution, give security to the satisfaction of the Court for the due performance of such order as Her Majesty in Council may think fit to make.

In all cases security shall also be given by the appellant to the satisfaction of the Court to an amount not exceeding five hundred pounds sterling for the prosecution of the appeal, and for payment of all such costs as may be awarded to any respondent by Her Majesty in Council, or by the Lords of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council.

If the last-mentioned security is given within one month from the filing of the motion-paper for leave to appeal, then, and not otherwise, the Supreme Consular Court shall give leave to appeal, and the appellant shall be at liberty to prefer and prosecute his appeal to Her Majesty in Council according to the rules for the time being in force respecting appeals to Her Majesty in Council from Her Colonies, or such other rules as Her Majesty in Council from time to time thinks fit to make concerning appeals from the Supreme Consular Court.

In any case other than the cases hereinbefore described, the Supreme Consular Court if it considers it just or expedient to do so, may give leave to appeal on the terms and in the manner aforesaid.

88. This Order shall not affect the right of Her Majesty at any time, on the humble petition of a party aggrieved by a decision of the Supreme Consular Court, to admit his appeal thereon on such terms and in such manner as Her Majesty in Council may think fit, and to deal with the decision appealed from in such manner as may be just.

XIII.—RULES.

89. The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may, notwithstanding anything herein contained, at any time after the passing of this Order, and from time to time, frame Rules for the effectual execution of this Order, and for the observance of the Capitulations, Articles of Peace, and Treaties between Her Majesty and the Sublime Ottoman Porte, and for the maintenance of order among British subjects in the Ottoman dominions, and may thereby impose reasonable penalties; and also Rules for the regulation of procedure and pleading, forms of writs, and other proceedings, expenses of witnesses and prosecutions, costs and fees, in civil and criminal cases, in the Supreme Consular Court, and other Consular Courts, and the regulation of appeals to the Supreme Consular Court from the other Consular Courts.

The Rules affecting the conduct of civil suits shall be so framed as to secure, as far as may be, that cases shall be decided on their merits according to substantial justice without excessive regard to technicalities of pleading or procedure and without unnecessary delay.

No Rules shall take effect unless and until approved by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

The Rules made under the Order of the 9th day of January, 1863, shall remain in force until Rules made under the present Order take effect; and references to the Order of the 9th day of January, 1863, in the Rules made thereunder shall be construed as referring to the corresponding provisions of the present Order.

90. A copy of the Rules for the time being in force shall be exhibited in some conspicuous place in each Consular Court and Consulate in the Ottoman dominions. Printed copies shall be provided and sold at such reasonable price as the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court from time to time directs.

No penalty shall be enforced in any Court for the breach of any Rule, until the Rule has been so exhibited in the Court for one month.

91. For the purpose of convicting any person committing a breach of any Rule, and for all other purposes of law, a printed copy of the Rule, purporting to be certified under the hand of the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court and the seal of the Court or under the hand and Consular seal of one of Her Majesty's Consular Officers, shall be taken as conclusive evidence of the same, and no proof of the handwriting or seal purporting to certify the same shall be required.

XIV.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

92. In every case, civil or criminal, heard in a Consular Court, proper minutes of the proceedings shall be drawn up, and shall be signed by the Judge or Consular Officer before whom the proceedings are taken, and sealed with the seal of the Court, and shall, where Assessors are present, be open for their inspection and for their signature, if concurred in by them.

The minutes, with depositions of witnesses and notes of evidence taken at the trial by the Judge or Consular Officer, shall be preserved in the public office of the Court.

93. In a civil case, a Consular Court may order such costs, or costs, charges, and expenses, as to the Court seem reasonable, to be paid by any party to the proceeding, or out of any fund to which the proceeding relates.

94. A Consular Court, either of its own motion, or, in civil cases, on the application of any party to any suit or proceeding or reference, may summon as a witness any British subject in the Ottoman dominions,—but so that a Provincial Consular Court shall have power so to summon British subjects in its own district only.

Any British subject, duly served with such a summons and with reasonable notice of the time and place at which his attendance is required, failing to attend accordingly, and not excusing his failure to the satisfaction of the Court, shall, over and above any other liability to which he may be subject, be liable to a fine of not more than one hundred pounds sterling, or to imprisonment for not more than one month in the discretion of the Court.

95. In civil cases a Consular Court may, where the circumstances appear to justify it, order that the expenses of a witness, on his appearing to give evidence, shall be defrayed by the parties, or any of them.

96. Any person appearing before a Consular Court to give evidence in any case, civil or criminal, may be examined or give evidence on oath, in the form or with the ceremony that he declares to be binding on his conscience.

97. Any British subject wilfully giving false evidence in any suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, or on any reference, shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury.

98. All costs and all charges and expenses of witnesses, prosecutions, punishments, and deportations, and other charges and expenses, and all fees, fines, forfeitures, and pecuniary penalties payable under this Order, may be levied by distress and seizure, and sale of ships, goods, and lands; and no bill of sale, or mortgage, or transfer of property, made with a view to security in regard to crimes or offences committed, or to be committed, shall be of any avail to defeat the provisions of this Order.

99. All fees, fines, forfeitures, and pecuniary penalties levied under this Order shall be carried to the public account, and be applied in diminution of the public expenditure on account of Her Majesty's Consular service in the Ottoman dominions.

100. A copy of this Order shall be exhibited in each Consular Court and Consulate in the Ottoman dominions. Printed copies shall be provided and sold at such reasonable price as the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court directs.

101. Any suit or proceeding shall not be commenced in a Consular Court against any person for anything done or omitted under this Order, or any Rule made under it, unless notice in writing is given by the intending plaintiff or prosecutor to the intended defendant one month at least before the commencement of the suit or proceeding, nor unless it is commenced within three months next after the act or omission complained of, or in case of a continuation of damage within three months next after the doing of such damage has ceased.

The plaintiff in any such suit shall not succeed if tender of sufficient amends is made by the defendant before the commencement thereof; and if no tender is made, the defendant may, by leave of the Court, at any time pay into Court such sum of money as he thinks fit, whereupon such proceeding and order shall be had and made in and by the Court as may be had and made on the payment of money into Court in an ordinary suit.

XV.—JOINT JURISDICTION.

102. In any case in the decision of which, under the Capitulations, Articles of Peace, and Treaties with the Sublime Ottoman Porte, any of Her Majesty's Consuls may or ought to concur, the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court or a Consular Officer exercising jurisdiction under this Order shall exclusively act on the part and on behalf of Her Majesty.

And the Right Honourable the Earl Russell, and the Right Honourable Edward Cardwell, and the Right Honourable Sir Charles Wood, three of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Act of the Session of Parliament of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's Reign (Chapter 94), "To remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," it was enacted (among other things), that it was and should be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty then had, or might at any time thereafter have, within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power and jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory:

And whereas Her Majesty has had, and now has, power and jurisdiction in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte; and by an Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, Her Majesty was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to make provision for the exercise of such last-mentioned power and jurisdiction:

And whereas by another Order in Council, bearing date the sixth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, was pleased to order, that all Rules, Orders, and Regulations, so made, and to be made, as therein mentioned, by a certain Commission established under the 15th and 16th Articles of the General Treaty of Peace signed at Paris on the thirtieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, should be binding and in force, and should have the force and effect of law, upon and against all British subjects and other persons subject to the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's

Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consular Agents, within the dominions of the Ottoman Porte:

And whereas by another Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, was further pleased to Order, that all Rules, Orders, and Regulations concerning the navigation of the River Danube, or concerning the conduct and government of masters, seamen, or others, navigating the same, or concerning the imposition, levying, or payment of tolls or duties to be taken or levied in respect of the navigation of the said river, or concerning the imposition and enforcing of penalties for the breach of such Rules, Orders, and Regulations, respectively, or any of them, which had been at any time theretofore made and promulgated by the said Commission, should, from and after the date of that Order (except so far as the same might have been already duly confirmed by the said Order of the sixth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, so as to make the same binding from the date thereof), be binding and in full force, and should have the force and effect of law, upon and against all British subjects, and other persons subject to the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consular Agents, within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte:

And whereas, by both such two last-mentioned Orders in Council, Her Majesty was further pleased to direct that, for the purpose of enforcing and carrying the same into effect, Her Majesty's Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consular Agents, exercising jurisdiction over British subjects within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, should have, possess, and enjoy all and every the power, jurisdiction, authorities, rights, privileges, and immunities, which, in and by the said Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, were or was vested in, or belonged to, or were or was exercisable by, the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court of Constantinople, within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte: and that all the clauses, articles, and provisions of the said Order in Council of the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, so far as the same respectively were then in force and unrepealed, and so far as the same, or any of them, were applicable to such Rules, Orders, and Regulations as aforesaid, should apply and extend to the said Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consular Agents of Her Majesty, and to all acts, matters, and things whatsoever done by, to, or in respect of them the said Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consular Agents, respectively, under or by virtue of the said respective Orders of the sixth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and the twenty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two:

And whereas, since the dates of the said two last-mentioned Orders, the said Order in Council of the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, has been repealed; and the exercise of jurisdiction by Her Majesty's Consular Courts and Judges in the dominions of the Ottoman Porte is now regulated by another Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing even date with these presents.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the above recited Act of Parliament, and in execution of the powers thereby vested in Her Majesty in Council, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to Order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, as follows :

From and after the date of this present Order, the said two several Orders in Council, of the sixth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and the twenty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, shall respectively be read and take effect, and be enforced and carried into execution by the Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consular Agents of Her Majesty, in the dominions of the Ottoman Porte, in such and the same manner, in all respects, as if the said two several Orders, and all the provisions therein contained, were herein expressly repeated and re-enacted, with the substitution only of a reference to the said Order in Council bearing even date herewith (whereby the exercise of the said Consular jurisdiction is now regulated) instead of the said repealed Order of the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in all parts and places of the said two several Orders respectively in which the said Order of the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, is in any way mentioned or referred to.

And the Right Honorable the Earl Russell, the Right Honorable Edward Cardwell, and the Right Honorable Sir Charles Wood, three of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament, holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Law respecting the Office of County Coroner," it is (amongst other things) enacted, that when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the Justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purpose of that Act, it shall be lawful for the said Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition shall be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof shall be given to the coroner or coroners of such county, as thereafter provided; and (after providing that notice be given of any such resolution to such coroner or coroners, and for the further proceedings of the said justices at the adjourned meeting to be held for the purpose of taking such petition into consideration) it is thereby further enacted that such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, shall be certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the Justices present when such petition shall be agreed to; and that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she shall think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition, and also any petition which may be presented to Her Majesty by any coroner of the same county concerning such proposed division, or whenever it shall seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a writ de coronatore eligendo, for the purpose of authorising the election of an additional coroner above the number of those who have been theretofore customarily elected in such county, to order that such county shall be divided into such and so many districts, for the purpose of that Act as to Her Majesty with the advice aforesaid shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within each district the court for the election of coroner for such district shall be holden as thereafter provided, and every such Order shall be published in the London Gazette;

And whereas it has been represented unto Her Majesty by the petition of the Justices of the Peace for the county of Radnor, in General Quarter Sessions assembled, that the petitioners deem it advisable that the said county should be divided into two districts for the purpose of electing coroners, in accordance with the said recited Act, and that the said districts, as described in a statement annexed to the said petition (being the two districts hereinafter respectively described), shall be called respectively the Eastern and Western Districts; And it is by the same petition prayed that Her Majesty will be graciously pleased to order that the said county be so divided;

And whereas the said petition, with a description of the said two proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the said petition is founded, has been duly certified to Her Majesty, under the hands and seals of more than two of the Justices present when such petition was agreed to, such certificate bearing date the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration (and no petition having been presented to Her Majesty by any coroner of the same county concerning the said proposed division), is graciously pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the rules and practice observed for the purpose of preventing collisions at sea, which were formerly adopted by maritime nations, have proved insufficient to satisfy the requirements of modern navigation, and whereas various alterations in such rules and practice have from time to time been made by different nations, but the rules so altered have been found to be in some cases inconsistent with each other, and in other cases to have the force of municipal law only; and whereas certain regulations for the purpose aforesaid have been sanctioned by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," and are contained in the Table C, in the schedule to that Act; and whereas for the purpose of correcting certain clerical errors the said regulations have, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, been modified by an Order in Council, bearing date the ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and the said regulations, so modified, are appended to the said Order under the title of regulations for preventing collisions at sea; and whereas it is provided by the same Act, that, whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the Government of any foreign country is willing that the regulations for preventing collisions, contained in Table, C. in the schedule to the said Act, or such other regulations for preventing collisions as are for the time being in force under the said Act, should apply to the ships of such country when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction, Her Majesty may by Order in Council direct that such regulations shall apply to the ships of the said foreign country, whether within British jurisdiction or not: And it is further provided by the said Act, that whenever an Order in Council has been issued, applying any regulation made by or in pursuance of the said Act to the ships of any foreign country, such ships shall, in all cases arising in any British Court, be deemed to be subject to such regulation, and shall for the purpose of such regulation be treated as if they were British ships: And whereas it was made to appear to Her Majesty that, the Government of the United States of America was willing that the said regulations for preventing collisions at sea appended to the said Order, should apply to ships belonging to the United States of America, when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction: And Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, did, by Order in Council dated the twenty-seventh of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, direct that the said regulations for preventing collisions at sea, appended to the said Order in Council, bearing date the ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and to this Order should, from the first day of September then next, apply to ships belonging to the United States of America, whether within British jurisdiction or not:

And whereas the said Government of the United States of America have expressed a desire that the said regulations should be made to apply to ships navigating the Inland Waters of North America, and that they should apply to ships of the United States navigating such waters when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction:

And whereas by an Act passed by the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, assented to on the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and intituled "An Act to amend the Law respecting the Navigation of Canadian Waters," after reciting that it would tend to the greater security of life and property in vessels navigating Canadian waters, that the same rules of navigation and the same precautions for avoiding collisions and other accidents as were then adopted in the United Kingdom, and in other countries should also be adopted in Canada, it was enacted that on and after the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, the rules contained therein with respect to lights, fog signals, steaming and sailing, should apply to all the rivers, lakes, and other navigable waters whatsoever within the province of Canada, or within the jurisdiction of the Legislature thereof:

And whereas the said rules so referred to are the same as the regulations appended to the said Order in Council, bearing date the ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, except that they are not intituled regulations for preventing collisions at sea; and whereas the same are also appended to this Order:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that the said regulations appended to this Order shall apply to ships belonging to the United States of America when navigating the Inland Waters of North America, whether within British jurisdiction or not.

Whenever, as in the case of small vessels during bad weather, the green and red lights cannot be fixed, these lights shall be kept on deck, on their respective sides of the vessel, ready for instant exhibition; and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side.

Lanterns to be painted outside.

To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, the lanterns containing them shall each be painted outside with the colour of the light they respectively contain, and shall be provided with suitable screens.

sufficient time to prevent collision, so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side.

When at Anchor.

Fishing vessels and open boats when at anchor, or attached to their nets and stationary, shall exhibit a bright white light.

Flare-up Lights.

Fishing vessels and open boats shall, however, not be prevented from using a flare-up in addition, if considered expedient.

Art. 12. When two sailing ships are crossing so as to involve risk of collision, then, if they have the wind on different sides, the ship with the wind on the port side shall keep out of the way of the ship with the wind on the starboard side; except in the case in which the ship with the wind on the port side is close hauled and the other ship free, in which case the latter ship shall keep out of the way; but if they have the wind on the same side, or if one of them has the wind aft, the vessel which is to windward shall keep out of the way of the ship which is to leeward.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the parish of Seaham, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and within the new parish of Christ Church, New Seaham, heretofore part of the said parish of Seaham.

"1. Whereas the Most Honorable Frances Anne, Marchioness of Londonderry, is patron of the vicarage of the parish of Seaham aforesaid, and is also patron of the incumbency of the said new parish of Christ Church, New Seaham.

"2. And whereas the endowments of the said vicarage of Seaham comprise and consist of the lands, tithe commutation rents charge, minerals, and hereditaments, the particulars whereof are more fully set forth in the schedule hereunder written, and are (so far as the same are capable of such delineation) delineated upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, the said lands, so far as they are described in the first part of the same schedule, being thereon coloured round with blue, the said lands, so far as they are described in the second part of the same schedule, being thereon coloured round with red, and the lands mentioned and referred to in the fourth part of the same schedule being thereon coloured round with yellow.

"3. And whereas the minerals which exist under the hereditaments respectively described in the first and fourth parts of the schedule hereunder written have not heretofore nor have any of them been letten or worked, but the same minerals or some of them are intended to be letten and worked as soon as conveniently may be, under the provisions of 'The Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts,' or one of them.

"4. And whereas the said Frances Anne Marchioness of Londonderry, and the Reverend Angus Bethune, clerk, the present vicar of the vicarage of the parish of Seaham aforesaid, are respectively desirous, and have expressed to us their desire, that the income and endowments of the said vicarage of Seaham should be apportioned between the vicar for the time being of the same vicarage, and the incumbent for the time being of the said new parish of Christ Church, New Seaham, in manner and according to the proportions hereinafter mentioned; and it appears to us to be expedient that such apportionment should be made and carried into effect accordingly.

"5. Now, therefore, with the consents of the said Frances Anne, Marchioness of Londonderry, as such patron as aforesaid, and of the said Angus Bethune, as such vicar as aforesaid, testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme, and with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Lord Bishop of Durham, the bishop of the diocese wherein the said parish and new parish are respectively situate, also testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that when and as soon as a lease or leases shall have been granted under the said "Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts" or either of them, or otherwise, of the said minerals under the said lands respectively described in the first and fourth parts of the schedule hereunder written, or of any part or portion of such minerals respectively, then and upon every such lease being so granted, and whether such lease shall include the said minerals under the said lands described in the first part of the schedule hereunder written, or some part thereof only, or the said minerals under the said lands described in the fourth part of the same schedule, or some part thereof only, or the whole of both the said firstly and the said secondly mentioned minerals, or part or parts of the same, the incumbent for the time being of the new parish of Christ Church, New Seaham, (who is herein after throughout this Scheme referred to as "the said incumbent,") and his assigns, shall be considered as absolutely entitled to four equal seventh parts of all the rents, royalties, and other (if any other) profits to be reserved by or to become payable under or by virtue of every such lease to the lessor or lessors, or to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and to the annual interest, dividends, and proceeds to arise from the investments of such four equal seventh parts of such rents, royalties, and other (if any other) profits, subject nevertheless to any claim which we may have thereon under or by virtue of any of the provisions contained in the said "Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts" or either of them.

"6. And with such consents as aforesaid we further recommend and propose, with respect to the said lands and hereditaments which are described in the second part of the schedule hereunder written, that four equal seventh parts in value of the net annual proceeds to be received or to become due and payable to the vicar for the time being of the said vicarage of Seaham, or his assigns, in respect of the same lands and hereditaments, shall be paid over by the said vicar for the time being or his assigns to the said incumbent and his assigns by equal half-yearly payments upon the twelfth day of May and the twenty-third day of November in each and every year, and so that each of such payments shall be made in respect of the net annual proceeds which may have been received or have become due in respect of the same lands and hereditaments for a period of six calendar months, the first of such half-yearly payments to be made upon the twelfth day of May or the twenty-third day of November which shall next happen after the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme.

"7. Provided always, and with such consents as aforesaid, we further recommend and propose that if at any time hereafter the vicar for the time being of the said vicarage or his assigns shall retain in his or their own hands for occupation or otherwise the whole or any portion of the said lands and hereditaments whereof the annual proceeds are proposed to be apportioned as lastly hereinbefore is mentioned, then and in every such case the said vicar for the time being of the said vicarage or his assigns shall, so long as any of the said lands and hereditaments are so retained by him or them, pay over to the said incumbent and his assigns, at the times and in manner aforesaid, four equal seventh parts of the estimated annual value for leasing purposes of the lands and hereditaments which shall be so retained as aforesaid.

"8. And with such consents as aforesaid, we further recommend and propose, that four equal seventh parts of the net amount of the tithe commutation rents charge of the said parish of Seaham (amounting together in gross to the sum of four hundred and twenty-eight pounds, as set forth and described in the third part of the schedule hereunder written,) which are payable to the said Angus Bethune as such vicar as aforesaid upon all the lands in the said parish, including the lands and hereditaments described in the second part of the schedule hereunder written, shall, as and when the said rents charge shall be received by the said vicar and his successors, vicars of the said vicarage, be forthwith paid to the said incumbent.

"9. And with such consents as aforesaid, we further recommend and propose, with respect to the said minerals under the said hereditaments described in the first part of the schedule hereunder written, and the said minerals under the said hereditaments described in the fourth part of the same schedule, and the lease or leases thereof, and to the said lands and hereditaments described in the second part of the same schedule, and the lease or leases thereof, if any, and to the said tithe rents charge, that the said incumbent and his assigns shall be empowered, either by himself or themselves, or by his or their agents, at all reasonable times, to inspect and examine all books, deeds, accounts, and writings whatsoever in any-wise relating to the said minerals, or lands, or tithe rents charge, or the letting thereof respectively, which may be in the possession of or which may or can be obtained or made accessible by the vicar for the time being of the said vicarage of Seaham, or his assigns or agents, such inspection or examination being in every case had and made for the purpose of gaining information as to the accuracy and sufficiency of the payments then or theretofore made, in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme, by or on behalf of the vicar of the said vicarage of Seaham or his assigns, to or on behalf of the then or then last incumbent of the said new parish of Christ Church, New Seaham, or his assigns, or as to the due performance of the covenants contained in any existing lease of the said minerals and lands, or any of them respectively, or generally as to the condition of the endowments then belonging to the said vicarage of Seaham, so far as the same are affected by the provisions of this Scheme. And further, that the said incumbent and his assigns shall, as against the vicar for the time being of the said vicarage of Seaham and his assigns, and the estates and revenues of the same vicarage, have and be entitled to exercise all such and the like powers of entry, distress, and other remedies for compelling payment of the proportionate annual sums hereinbefore proposed to be secured to him in respect as well of the said lands and hereditaments described in the second part of the same schedule as of the said tithe rents charge, as landlords are by law entitled to have and exercise in respect of rent reserved upon a lease and in arrear.

"10. Provided always, and with such consents as aforesaid, we further recommend and propose, that the vicar for the time being of the said vicarage of Seaham, or the person or persons entitled as aforesaid to receive the hereinbefore-mentioned monies, or any of them, shall not, under the provisions of this Scheme, be accountable in any one year to the said incumbent or his assigns for a greater amount than four equal seventh parts of so much of the said hereinbefore mentioned monies as shall have been actually received by him or them in that year, so that any such deficiency of receipts be a bonâ fide deficiency, and be duly accounted for and explained to the said incumbent or his assigns, and so that if the monies so deficient in any one year be recovered in any subsequent year four equal seventh parts of the monies so recovered shall thereupon be paid over to the said incumbent or other the party or parties for the time being entitled to receive the same.

"11. And with such consents as aforesaid, we further recommend and propose, that if at any time hereafter the said hereinbefore mentioned minerals, or the said lands and hereditaments described in the second part of the schedule hereunder written, or any of them, or any part of the same minerals and lands respectively, shall be sold or exchanged by or in anywise absolutely transferred from the vicar for the time being of the said vicarage of Seaham, then and in every such case the money, land, or other equivalent to be received upon such sale, exchange, or transference, shall (so far as the same lawfully can or may) be held to be subject to and to be charged and chargeable with all the payments and liabilities, to or for the benefit of the said incumbent and his assigns, with which, under the provisions of this Scheme, the said minerals, lands, and hereditaments so sold, exchanged, or transferred were charged and chargeable at the date of such sale, exchange, or transference as aforesaid.

"12. And with such consents as aforesaid we further recommend and propose, that if any vacancy in the incumbency of the said new parish of Christ Church, New Seaham, shall at any time happen upon some day other than the said twelfth day of May or the twenty-third day of November, then and in every such case the whole of the monies which under the provisions of this Scheme shall upon the first of the said two days which shall next happen after such vacancy be due from the vicar for the time being of the said parish of Seaham or his assigns to the said incumbent or his assigns, shall, having regard to the day of the date of such vacancy, be duly apportioned between or amongst and shall belong in proportionate parts to the person by whom such vacancy in the incumbency of the said new parish was created, his executors, administrators, or assigns, and the person succeeding on such vacancy to the incumbency of the said new parish.

"13. And with such consents as aforesaid we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure or measures relating to the matters referred to in this Scheme, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Oakamoor, in the parish of Cheadle, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Cheadle, of the parish of Alton, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the parish of Kingsley, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population, which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parishes of Cheadle, Alton, and Kingsley, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Oakamoor aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, of the Right Honourable Henry John Chetwynd, Earl of Shrewsbury and Earl Talbot, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Alton, and of James Beech, of Brandon Lodge, Coventry, in the county of Warwick, Esquire, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Kingsley (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation); and with the consent of the master, fellows, and scholars of the college of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, within the town and university of Cambridge, the patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Cheadle (in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their common or corporate seal), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parishes of Cheadle, Alton, and Kingsley, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Oakamoor aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Oakamoor.'

"And we further represent that it has been proposed, with the like consents of the said Henry John Chetwynd, Earl of Shrewsbury and Earl Talbot, and of the said James Beech, and of the said master, fellows, and scholars of the college aforesaid (testified as aforesaid), and it would in our opinion be expedient that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Oakamoor should belong to and be exercised by the rector or incumbent for the time being of the rectory of the said parish of Cheadle.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Oakamoor being:—

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property, formerly belonging to the prebend of Caddington Major, in the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, London, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, by the decease of the Very Reverend Thomas Gaisford, Doctor in Divinity, Dean of the Cathedral Church of Christ, in Oxford, Prebendary of Caddington Major, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except any rights of patronage), became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas some portions of the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid are subject to beneficial leases, and produce during the subsistence of such leases only small annual revenues, and partly on that account, and partly on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such part or parts thereof, as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorised and empowered, by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend of Caddington Major, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and enquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

At the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled an Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues, and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled an Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme relating to the maintenance of the fabric of the Cathedral Church at Ripon.

"Whereas by the firstly recited Act it was enacted that as soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying a scheme to be prepared by us, such annual sums should be determined upon to be paid, and should accordingly be paid by us, as after due inquiry and calculation should give to the dean of every cathedral and collegiate church in England an average annual income of one thousand pounds, and to the respective canons of every cathedral church in England an average annual income of five hundred pounds, and with regard to the cathedral church of Ripon, as should also enable the chapter thereof to provide for the efficient performance of all the duties of the said church, and for the maintenance of the fabric thereof.

"And whereas by the secondly recited Act it was enacted, that notwithstanding such last recited provision it should be lawful to carry such purposes, or any of them, into effect, by any mode of payment, contribution, augmentation, or endowment, which might be deemed fit, as well as by the modes in such Act specified, and that the scale of payments might be by the like authority, from time to time, in any case, revised, and, if need be, varied, so as to preserve, as nearly as might be, the intended average annual incomes respectively, but not so as to affect any dean or canon in possession at the time of making any such variation.

"And whereas, by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the twenty-fifth day of February following, we were authorized to pay, at the times therein mentioned, to the treasurer of the said cathedral church of Ripon, an annual sum of three thousand and three hundred pounds, or, under certain circumstances therein set forth, a certain proportionate part thereof to be applied in the manner therein mentioned towards providing for the efficient performance of the services and the maintenance of the fabric of the said cathedral church, and the augmentation of the annual incomes of the dean and the canons thereof.

"And whereas, by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and duly published in the London Gazette of the tenth day of December following, it was provided that the annual income of every dean of the said cathedral church of Ripon appointed after the date of the passing of the same Order, should be one thousand pounds, and no more, and the income of every canon of the said cathedral church, appointed after the same date, five hundred pounds, and no more; and certain arrangements for providing and securing such incomes were made by the same Order; but without affecting the share of the cathedral revenues, which it was contemplated by the said first recited Order would be applicable exclusively to providing for the performance of the services and to maintaining the fabric of the said cathedral church.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the fabric of the said Cathedral Church at Ripon is in need of extensive repairs, and it has been estimated by our architect that irrespectively of the annual outlay which is provided for by the proportionate part of the capitular revenues, so as aforesaid, appropriated for that purpose, the cost of executing such repairs as are absolutely required at the present time for the due sustentation of the fabric will amount to ten thousand pounds.

"And whereas considerable sums of money over and above the proportion of the capitular funds applicable for that purpose have been expended on the reparation of the said Cathedral Church, and it is in contemplation to expend a considerable further amount in effecting certain desirable improvements of the same fabric.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be expended by us in effecting such repairs as may be necessary for the due sustentation of the said Cathedral Church of Ripon, any sum not exceeding ten thousand pounds, provided always, that the works, the cost of which shall be defrayed out of such sum shall be such as we may consider necessary or desirable for the sustentation of the fabric of the said Cathedral Church and shall be executed to our satisfaction.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Bishoprick of Lincoln, and now vested in us.

"Whereas the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lincoln, succeeded to the See of Lincoln on an avoidance which happened before the passing of the above-mentioned Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, and was in receipt of the amount named as the income of the Bishop of Lincoln, by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and duly published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of September, in the same year, videlicet, five thousand pounds per annum, and no more.

"And whereas the said bishop signified his willingness to accept an endowment for his see in lands and hereditaments in lieu of such income, and thereupon, in pursuance of the said last-mentioned Act, and under the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council dated the fourth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the sixth day of the same month, with the approbation of the said John Bishop of Lincoln, an arrangement was made for assigning the lands tenements and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule to the said Order, together with the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes arising thereout or charged thereupon, and the benefit of the perpetual land-tax (if any) charged upon the same premises as the endowment for the see of the said bishop, and the same lands, tenements, and hereditaments became, by virtue of such Order, vested in the said bishop as from the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

"And whereas immediately from and after the day on which the said Order was published in the London Gazette, all the lands, hereditaments, and emoluments theretofore belonging to the said See of Lincoln (except such portions thereof as were by the said Order so assigned as aforesaid, as part of the endowment of the said bishoprick, and except all rights of patronage or presentation) became, by force of the said last-mentioned Act, absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, hereditaments, and emoluments so vested in us as aforesaid consist, to a considerable extent, of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues; and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by the last-mentioned Act power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, hereditaments, and emoluments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the same, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and, accordingly, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time, to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, hereditaments, and emoluments theretofore belonging to the said bishoprick of Lincoln, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

At the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1864.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard and burial-ground hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard and burial-ground be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard and burial-ground be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the burial-ground attached to the Wesleyan-chapel, HORBURY, in the parish of Wakefield, from the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, provided that burials be conducted therein in accordance with the conditions contained in the Order in Council of the twenty-first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, relating to the said burial-ground.

In the churchyard of ELLESMERE, from the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, to the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

And whereas, by an Order in Council, bearing date twenty-ninth of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, it was directed that burials should be discontinued, with certain exceptions, from the time specified in such Order, in the churchyard of Holywell, in the county of Flint; and whereas it seems fit that the said Order be varied;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order that burials be discontinued in the parish churchyard of Holywell, in the county of Flint, except in now existing vaults and brick graves which can be opened without the disturbance of soil that has been buried in, and in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately entombed in an air-tight manner; and except in earthen graves for the burial of the widowers, widows, parents, and unmarried children of those already buried in the churchyard; no grave to be less than five feet deep, and no coffin to be exposed or remains disturbed.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or Inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office," further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and power is also given to the Postmaster-General (amongst other things) to collect and receive the foreign and colonial postage, charged or chargeable on any letters sent by the post, and also with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to require the postage, British, colonial, or foreign, of any letters sent by the post to be prepaid, either in money or in stamps, as he might think fit, on the same being put into the Post Office.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by a certain Warrant, under their hands, bearing date the 17th day of March, 1863, fixed, made, and established certain rates of British postage, payable on the transmission by the post of (amongst others) letters between the United Kingdom and Saint Thomas and Saint Croix.

And whereas it is expedient to make regulations for the prepayment of the rates of postage payable on the letters hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this present Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided) order and direct as follows, that is to say:—

1. On every letter posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the Danish Colonies in the West Indies, or posted in the Danish Colonies in the West Indies addressed to the United Kingdom, and conveyed by British packet boat, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted.

2. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the Danish Colonies in the West Indies, or shall be posted in the Danish Colonies in the West Indies addressed to the United Kingdom for conveyance by British packet boat without the postage payable thereon being paid at the time of the same being posted, every such letter shall be charged with the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been fully paid thereon when posted, together with the further and additional rate of postage of one shilling.

3. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the Danish Colonies in the West Indies, or shall be posted in the Danish Colonies in the West Indies addressed to the United Kingdom, for conveyance by British packet boat, and the postage paid thereon shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable, under or by virtue of the regulations in force relating thereto, every such letter shall be charged with the amount of the difference between the postage paid thereon, and the postage to which it would have been liable, if the full amount of postage had been paid when posted, together with the further and additional rate of postage of one shilling.

4. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

5. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the orders, directions, or regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other orders, directions, or regulations in lieu thereof.

6. This Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of January, 1865.
