St. James's Palace, December 17, 1864.

The Queen has been pleased, on the nomination of the Right Honourable Lord Foley, to appoint Henry Jobling Wallack, Esq., late Captain in the 77th Regiment, one of Her Majesty's Honourable Corps of Gentlemen-at-Arms, vice Markland Barnard, Esq., resigned.

St. James's Palace, December 17, 1864.

The Queen has been pleased, on the nomination of the Right Honourable Lord Foley, to appoint Lieutenant-Colonel John Henry Lowndes, late of the 6th Regiment of Foot, one of Her Majesty's Honourable Corps of Gentlemen-at-Arms, vice Charles J. Sawyer, Esq., resigned.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, December 19, 1864.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be open to the public on and after Thursday, the 22nd instant, under the usual regulations.

Whitehall, December 10, 1864.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Patrick Robertson, of Glenmoidart, in the county of Inverness, Esquire, Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army, and Major of Her Majesty's 25th (The King's own Borderers) Regiment of Foot, and Knight of the Fifth Class of the Imperial Order of the Legion of Honour, second son of Patrick Robertson, Esquire, one of the Senators of the College of Justice in Scotland, deceased, by Mary, his Wife, youngest daughter of the Reverend Thomas Ross, Minister of the parish of Kilmonivaig, in the said county of Inverness, and sister of Hugh Ross, late of Glenmoidart aforesaid, Esquire, a Lieutenant-General in Her Majesty's Indian Military Forces, both deceased, Her Royal license and authority that he may, in compliance with a condition in a certain disposition and deed of entail made by his maternal uncle, the said Lieutenant-General Hugh Ross, take, use, and bear the surname of Ross, in addition to and after that of Robertson, and the designation of "Glenmoidart," and also bear the arms of Ross, and that such surnames and arms may in like manner be taken, borne, and used by his issue; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the College of Arms; otherwise Her Majesty's said license and permission to be void and of none effect:

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's said College of Arms.

WHEREAS it appears to me, the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the use of Locomotives unless restricted as hereinafter mentioned on or along the turnpike roads and other highways within the Petty Sessional Division of Lower Agbrigg, in the West Riding of the county of York, is dangerous and inconvenient to the public:

I do hereby, by virtue of the provisions of The Locomotive Act, 1861," by this Order under my hand, prohibit the use of any kind of Locomotive whatever propelled by steam or any other than animal power on the above roads except between the hours of twelve o'clock at night and six o'clock in the morning.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 19th day of December, 1864.

(Signed) G. GREY.
