And whereas plans and sections, describing (amongst others) the line and levels of the herein-

before particularly described new turnpike road, and the lands, which will or may be taken for the purposes thereof, with a book of reference thereto, have been deposited, and notices for which have been given in accordance with, and as required by, the Standing Orders of both Houses of Parliament.

And whereas it is proposed and intended to seek power to alter or vary the said new line of road as delineated on the said plan and section, so far as the same is or will be in part within the parish of Berrynarbor aforesaid, on certain of the lands, in the said parish, belonging to Arthur Davie Bassett, of Watermouth, in the said county of Devon, and now in the possession or occupation of the said Arthur Davie Bassett himself, and of John Hancock the elder, and Thomas Gammon, respectively his tenants, and on a certain road or highway, in the said parish of Berrynarbor, in the possession or occupation or under the control of the Ilfracombe Highway Board on behalf of the public.

Notice is therefore hereby given, that the promoters of the said Bill intend to apply for leave to alter and vary and to make the said new road and works as contemplated by the said Bill, so far as the same may be constructed on the said lands of the said Arthur Davie Bassett, and on the said road or highway situate as aforesaid, according to the plan and section showing such alteration, and which plan and section, together with a book of reference thereto containing the names of the owner or reputed owner and occupiers of the lands to be affected, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, is or will be immediately deposited for public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Devon, at his office, at the Castle at Exeter, and being at least one month previously to the introduction of the said Bill for making such work into the House of Lords, and that a copy of the said plan and section showing such alteration and book of reference thereto as aforesaid, and a copy of this notice as aforesaid will also be similarly deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Berrynarbor, at his residence.
