And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed;

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable, upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post.

And whereas by the said Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, and at any time thereafter, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British Postage or Inland Postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any of such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid, and the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage is extended to any increase or reduction or remission of postage.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by an Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office."

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications."

And whereas it is expedient that printed newspapers and packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, and other printed papers, should be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and the several places hereinafter mentioned, and for that purpose that certain rates of postage should be fixed, and certain regulations made, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now, we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers or authority in us for that purpose vested in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare as follows:—

10. For the purposes of this Warrant every printed newspaper transmitted under the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of this Warrant, shall be deemed and considered a packet, and shall be charged and chargeable with a separate and distinct single rate or separate and distinct progressive and additional rates of postage according to the weight thereof, as hereinbefore-mentioned, notwithstanding two or more newspapers shall be enclosed and transmitted in one and the same cover, wrapper, envelope, or bundle, and form only one parcel or bundle of newspapers, and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

11. Every packet transmitted under the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter contained (that is to say):

Every British newspaper which shall be posted in the United Kingdom shall be printed and published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publication, and the same shall be registered by the proprietor or printer thereof at the General Post Office, in London, and shall be posted within fifteen days from the date of its publication, and the title and date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof.

12. Every packet transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant shall be subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter contained (that is to say):

No such packet which in length, or breadth, or depth shall exceed the dimensions of two feet shall be forwarded under the provisions aforesaid.

Every packet transmitted under the authority of this Warrant shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover, or in a cover, or envelope open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no written letter, either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), nor any enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, sent in, or with any such packet, nor in the case of packets transmitted under the authority of the first, second, third, fourth, and seventh clauses of this Warrant, shall there be any writing, figures, or manual marks whatsoever, of any description, upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof, not authorised by this Warrant, nor in the case of packets transmitted under the authority of the fifth, sixth, and eighth clauses of this Warrant, shall there be any written letter or any written communication in the nature of a letter in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof, except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent, but the name or title of any newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, news-vendor, or agent by whom the same is sent, may be printed on the cover thereof, and any other packet, not being a newspaper, may have any matter or thing printed on the cover thereof.

Every packet transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant, and posted in the United Kingdom, shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day, and under all such regulations, as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

13. Upon every packet posted in the United Kingdom for transmission under the authority of this Warrant the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant, unless any such packet be sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post Office in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded post paid and the postage thereof shall be charged in such postage account.

14. Upon every packet posted in Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, for transmission under the authority of the fifth clause of this Warrant, and upon every packet posted in Malta, or in any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), for transmission under the authority of the sixth clause of this Warrant the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted either in money or by being stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant.

15. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained, every such packet shall and may (except in the cases provided for by the clauses next hereinafter contained, and numbered 16, 17, 18, 19, and 20,) be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General be either returned or given up to the sender thereof or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and every such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall, at the option of the Postmaster-General, be either free of postage or be charged with any rate of postage he may think fit, not exceeding the postage to which it would have been liable as a letter, and such postage shall be either paid by the sender or be charged to the person to whom the packet shall be forwarded.

16. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, every such letter or communication or enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to the address on the packet, charged in either case not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also in the case of packets transmitted under the provisions of the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of this Warrant, with a further and additional rate of postage of one penny, and in the case of packets transmitted under the provisions of the fifth, sixth, and seventh clauses of this Warrant, with a further and additional rate of postage of three-pence, and in the case of packets transmitted under the provisions of the eighth clause of this Warrant, with a further and additional rate of postage of fourpence, and the remainder of the packet, if the postage be duly paid when posted, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

17. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, under the authority of the first, second, third, fourth, seventh, and eighth clauses of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom without the postage payable thereon being paid at the time of the same being posted by means of the proper postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto, every such respective packet shall be detained and opened, and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

18. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, under the authority of the fifth and sixth clauses of this Warrant shall be posted in the United Kingdom without having thereon, or affixed thereto, any postage stamp or stamps, or having thereon, or affixed thereto, a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the single rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under this Warrant, every such respective packet shall be detained and opened; and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

19. If any packet, sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, under the authority of the fifth and sixth clauses of this Warrant, shall be posted in Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, or in any British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), without any postage having been paid thereon, either in money or in postage stamps, or with a postage paid thereon, either in money or in postage stamps, less in amount than the single rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under this Warrant, every such respective packet shall be forwarded charged with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter.

20. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, under the authority of the fifth and sixth clauses of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom, having thereon or affixed thereto a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under this Warrant, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage payable thereon, or shall be posted in Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, or in any British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), and the postage paid thereon, either in money or in postage stamps, shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under this Warrant, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage payable thereon, every such respective packet shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid, together with the further and additional rate of postage of three pence.

21. The rates of postage chargeable on printed newspapers, and on packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, and other printed papers, transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates now chargeable by law thereon.

22. In order to prevent any obstacle to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted, or forwarded by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought, in due course of the post, to be forwarded by him.

23. The term "British Newspaper," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean newspapers printed in the United Kingdom, whether they bear a newspaper stamp or not; and the terms "Books, Publications, or Works of Literature or Art," used in this Warrant, shall, for the purposes of this Warrant, mean and comprise all such articles as in their general character are either literary, or consist of printed, written, engraved, or lithographed matter (although not strictly literary), including books (whether printed, written, or plain), publications or compilations (whether in print or in manuscript), almanacks, printed or lithographed letters, and such artistic productions as prints, maps (whether on paper, or canvas, or cloth, and whether printed or written), and photographs, when not on glass or in frames containing glass, and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum, (whether printed, lithographed, written upon, or plain, or any mixture of the four), together with any binding, mounting, or covering, of or upon or belonging to any such article or production, or any portion thereof, or of or belonging to any paper, parchment, or vellum, and including also any cases or rollers of prints or maps, bookmarkers (whether of paper or otherwise), pencils, pens, or other things usually appertaining to any such article or production, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission, which shall be sent in the same packet with any such article or production to which they or it shall belong. And all letters, notices, and other communications (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed, and partly written, which, if wholly written, would not be considered letters or communications in the nature of letters: provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the sending by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, of any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would be considered a letter or communication in the nature of a letter, nor of any packet consisting of or containing any photographs, drawings, prints, or other contents which may be obviously of an obscene character, nor of any packet comprising prints or printed matter, unless such prints or printed matter shall consist only of prints or printed matter on paper, parchment, or vellum; and the term "printed papers," used in this Warrant, shall mean and include books (stitched or bound), pamphlets, parliamentary proceedings, proceedings of the colonial legislatures, periodical works, prices current, commercial lists, courses of exchange, sheets of music, prints, or printed or engraved maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of every kind, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and whether printed, engraved, or lithographed; and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

24. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise, whether any article, matter, or thing, transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted, within the intent and meaning of this Warrant, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

25. So much of a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 20th day of December, 1856, and so much of the Schedule F thereto, as relates to or affects British newspapers posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Malta or Egypt, transmitted by the closed mail via Marseilles, and as relates to or affects foreign and colonial newspapers posted in Malta or Egypt, addressed to the United Kingdom, transmitted by the closed mail via Marseilles, shall be, and the same is, hereby repealed.

26. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, or the hands of any two of them, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

27. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Chipping Barnet, in the county of Hertford, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons.

And whereas, at a meeting of the Vestry of the said parish, held in the Vestry Room of the Parish Church, on Thursday, the 6th day of October, 1864, in pursuance of notice duly given, it was resolved unanimously—

“That, as the population of this parish exceeds two thousand, there is a necessity of having a competent person to discharge the several duties appertaining to the office of Vestry Clerk; and that therefore the Poor Law Board be requested by the Churchwardens, in writing, to issue an Order, under their Seal of Office, directing that the Act passed on the 5th August, 1850 (13 and 14 Vict., c. 57), entitled ‘An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the appointment of Vestry Clerks,’ shall be applied to and put in force within this parish, as regards the appointment of a Vestry Clerk.”

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made their application, in writing, to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above resolution,

Now, therefore, we, the Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, hereby order and direct as follows:

ARTICLE I.—That so much of the said Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled “An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the appointment of Vestry Clerks,” as relates to the appointment of a Vestry Clerk shall forthwith be applied to, and be put in force within the said parish of Chipping Barnet.

ARTICLE II.—That the Vestry Clerk for the time being, appointed under the authority of the Statutes in that behalf and this Order, shall perform the following duties :

- No. 1.—To give notice of, and attend all Vestry and other Meetings, and enter the minutes thereof.
- No. 2.—To keep the accounts of all Charity Moneys which the Churchwardens and Overseers are authorized or are accustomed to receive and distribute.
- No. 3.—To make out, when required, all Poor and other rates, and to make all subsequent entries in the Rate Books, and to give the notices thereof required by law.
- No. 4.—To make all returns required of the Churchwardens or of the Overseers by law or proper authority.
- No. 5.—To keep the Vestry Books and the Parish Deeds and Documents, and the Rate Books and Accounts which are closed, and to give copies of and extracts from the same to any person entitled thereto, such person paying for the same at the rate of fourpence for every seventy-two words or figures; and to permit any person or persons rated to the Relief of the Poor of the said parish, at all reasonable-times, to inspect the same or any of them, on pain of dismissal for neglecting to give such copies or permit such inspection.

ARTICLE III.—That an annual salary of twenty pounds shall be paid to such Vestry Clerk by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said parish.

ARTICLE IV. — That the salary of such Vestry Clerk shall be payable up to the day on which he ceases to hold such office, and no longer, and shall be paid by quarterly payments at the several quarters ending at the usual Feast Days in the year, namely, Lady Day, Midsummer Day, Michaelmas Day, and Christmas Day, with a proportionate sum to be paid to his executors or administrators, in case he shall die while holding such office.

ARTICLE V.—That a copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this fifteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

And the said Bill further provides that section 169 of "The Bankrupt and Insolvent (Ireland) Act, 1857," shall not apply to the Company, but that the Company shall be determined, but without prejudice to any of the provisions of the said Act, for winding up a Bankrupt Joint Stock Company; and also contains a provision saving the rights of the Assignees, and all further provisions necessary for carrying into full effect the said object so proposed by the said Act.

And notice is hereby further given, that on the 6th day of March instant printed copies of the said Bill were deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.
