

104. And George Gaze, of Villiers-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in tills and the means of securing and checking money taken by servants."

106. And George Henry Daw, of Threadneedle-street, in the city of London, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in breech loading fire arms."

As set forth in their respective petitions, all recorded in the said office on the 12th day of January, 1865.

112. And Antoine Joseph Sax, trading under the firm of Adolphe Sax, of Paris, France, Musical Instrument Maker, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "impregnating air for hygienic or therapeutic purposes with the vapours or emanations arising from tar creosote or other suitable liquid antiseptic or antiputrid substances or disseminating in the air for the said purposes suitable pulverized substances."

114. And John Weeks, of Baker-street, in the county of Middlesex, Manufacturer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in umbrellas and other like articles."

115. And Wilson Ager, of the city of New York, in the United States of America, but at present residing at the European Coffee House, in the city of London, Engineer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for cleaning and decorticating grain."

As set forth in their respective petitions, all recorded in the said office on the 13th day of January, 1865.

118. And Alfred Paul and Edwin Paul, both of No. 60, Thomaston-street, Everton, Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, have given the like notice in respect of the invention of "a new or improved hydraulic steering apparatus and rudder break."

129. And Felix Clovis Fourgeau, Builder, of 2, Rue Sainte Appoline, Paris (Empire of France), has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in the construction of roofs or coverings of buildings."

As set forth in their respective petitions, both recorded in the said office on the 14th day of January, 1865.

131. And Walter Edwin, 7A, New Cavendish-street, Portland-place, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improved machinery for working all stage scenery in theatres."

132. And Henry James Rogers and Jonathan Mather Scholfield, both of No. 2, Serle-street, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, have given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improved means of closing the mouths of bottles or other vessels."

134. And John Marshall, of New Cross, in the county of Kent, Civil and Mechanical Engineer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in presses for the expression of fluids from substances containing the same."

137. And Joseph Betteley, of Liverpool, Naval Architect, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in ship building."

139. And James Simeon Edge the elder, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Gun Maker, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in breech loading fire arms."

As set forth in their respective petitions, all recorded in the said office on the 16th day of January, 1865.

143. And John Robinson, of Rochdale, in the county of Lancaster, Engineer, and John Smith, of the same place, Engineer, have given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for planing and moulding, or otherwise shaping wood."

144. And Charles Tiot Judkins, of No. 22, Ludgate-street, in the city of London, Sewing Machine Manufacturer, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in sewing machines."

As set forth in their respective petitions, both recorded in the said office on the 17th day of January, 1865.

151. And John William Gregg, of 18, Upper Sackville-street, in the city of Dublin, Lamp Manufacturer and Gas Fitter, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in street and other lamps and lanterns."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 18th day of January, 1865.

163. And George Francis Bradbury, of Rhodes Bank Foundry, Oldham, in the county of Lancaster, Machine Maker, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in certain sewing machine shuttles, and in the mode of, and tools for, manufacturing the same."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 19th day of January, 1865.

199. And Thomas Brown, of Piccadilly, in the county of Middlesex, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in folding chairs and other seats."

202. And Benjamin King, of the Hall, Rushmere, Ipswich, in the county of Suffolk, Agriculturist, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of manure."

As set forth in their respective petitions, both recorded in the said office on the 23rd day of January, 1865.

230. And Charles Falck, of No. 19, Union-street, Clarendon-square, in the county of Middlesex, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in apparatus called ice safes."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 26th day of January, 1865.

253. And William Clark, of 53, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Engineer and Patent Agent, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in breech loading fire arms and cartridges."—A communication to him from abroad by Charles Claude Etienne Minié, retired Major and Colonel, Director of the Arms Manufactory to His Highness the Viceroy of Egypt, of 29, Boulevard St. Martin, Paris.

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 28th day of January, 1865.

263. And François Alexandre Laurent and John Casthelaz, both of Rue St. Croix de la Bretonnerie, Paris, in the Empire of France, Manufacturers, have given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of benzoic acid."

As set forth in their petition, recorded in the said office on the 30th day of January, 1865.