In the Matter of Estates settled by the Will of the late Robert Westley Hall Dare, Esq., deceased, and of which his son Francis Marmaduke Hall Dare is tenant for life, in possession, namely, Ilford Lodge, and about 21 acres of land in the parish of Great Ilford, in the county of Essex, Castle Rising Farm, and about 140a. 2r. 14r. of land, in the said parish and county; an allotment, containing about 19a. 1r. 11r. at Colliers'-row, in the parish of Dagenham, in the same county; and an allotment containing 4a. 2r. 20r., at Chigwell-row, in the parish of Barking, in the same county; and in the Matter of the Act of Parliament passed in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of the Queen (chapter 120), intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates," and of the Acts of Parliament to amend and extend the provisions of the said Act.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition in the above matters was, on the 12th day of April, 1865, presented to the Lord Chancellor, by Francis Marmaduke Hall Dare, of Ilford Lodge, in the county of Essex, Esq.,

Henry Hall Dare, of Hanover-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esq., and Robert Westley Hall Dare, the elder, Esq., and Robert Westley Hall Dare the younger, Esq., both of Thoydon Bois, in the county of Essex, in England, and of Newtownbary, in the county of Wexford, in Ireland, praying that the above described property, and all others, if any, the lands and hereditaments subject to the limitations in the said petition stated under the will of Robert Westley Hall Dare, the testator in the said petition mentioned, may be sold by and under the direction of the Court of Chancery, and for this purpose that all necessary and proper directions may be given, and that the purchase money may be paid into Court to the credit of these matters, and that some proper person may be appointed and directed to execute the conveyances to the respective purchasers of the land sold, and for payment of costs out of the purchase moneys, and for the investment of the balance; and notice is hereby also given that the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court or notice relating to the subject of the said petition, at the office of their Solicitors, Messrs. Bothamley and Freeman, situate at No. 39, Coleman-street, in the city of London.—Dated this 13th day of June, 1865.

BOTHAMLEY and FREEMAN, Solicitors for the Petitioners.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session holden in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of an Act of the 21st and 22nd years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and extend the Settled Estates Act of 1856;" and in the Matter of an Act of the 27th and 28th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to further amend the Settled Estates Act of 1856;" and in the Matter of a freehold mansion house, lands, and hereditaments, containing 128a. 3r. 5r., statute measure, or thereabouts, commonly known as the Plaistow Lodge Estate, and situate in the parish of Bromley, in the county of Kent, and now in the occupation of the petitioner Walter Boyd, devised by the will of Walter Boyd, Esq., deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition in the above-mentioned matter was, on the 8th day of June, 1865, presented to the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls, by Walter Boyd, of Plaistow Lodge, in the parish of Bromley, in the county of Kent, Esquire, a Major in the Army, praying that a lease to James Thompson Mackenzie of the said mansion-house, lands, and hereditaments mentioned in the title of the said Petition, on the terms embodied in the draft-lease in the Petition mentioned, or on such terms as the said Court might approve, might be approved of and authorized by the said Court; and that the petitioner might be authorized and appointed to execute such lease; and that a further power to grant leases of the said mansion-house, lands, and hereditaments for any term not exceeding twenty-one years in possession, and not in reversion or remainder, might vest in the petitioner during his life; and that it might not be necessary that any future leases to be granted as aforesaid should be submitted to or be settled by the said Court, or that his Honor would make such other Order in the premises as to his Honour should seem meet. And notice is also hereby given, the petitioner may be served with any Order of the Court, or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the office of his Solicitors, Messrs. Domville, Lawrence, and Graham, situate at No. 6, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 15th day of June, 1865.
