LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ORDER DISAPPROVING ADOPTION OF ACT BY ARDSLEY, WEST RIDING OF YORKSHIRE.

WHEREAS a resolution for the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, has been passed by the township of Ardsley, in the parish of Darfield, in the West Riding of the county of York, the said township being a place with a population of less than 3,000 by the last census; and whereas it has not appeared to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, by reason of the special circumstances, it is expedient that the said township should be allowed to adopt the said Act, I do hereby disapprove of such adoption by the township of Ardsley aforesaid.

Given under my hand this 15th day of July, 1865.

(Signed) G. Grey.

Home Office, Whitehall.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 36.)—AUSTRALIA—NORTH-EAST COAST.

Coral Patch in Blackwood Channel.

INFORMATION has been received at the Admiralty, that H.M.S. "Salamander," 20th January, 1865, whilst steering to the south-west through the Blackwood channel, on the route recommended from Raine island towards the Middle banks, struck on an unknown coral patch, with only 7 feet on its shoalest part at low water.

The patch lies about a mile E.S.E. of the eastern part of the Middle banks, or in lat.  $11^{\circ} 47' 10''$  S., long.  $143^{\circ} 41' 35''$  E. It is about 230 yards long, east and west, 110 yards wide, has 10 to 17 fathoms all round it, and 15 to 17 fathoms in the channel, a mile wide, between it and the reef in connection with the eastern sand bank on the Middle banks. From its shoalest spot of 7 feet, the centre of the eastern sand bank on the Middle banks bears W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  N. distant  $2\frac{1}{2}$  miles, and the south extreme of Sir Charles Hardy islands, S.W.,  $14\frac{1}{2}$  miles.

Vessels entering the Great Barrier Reef, by the Raine Island entrance, should as soon as possible after passing north or south of Raine Island, bring its beacon to bear N.E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E., steering S.W.  $\frac{3}{4}$  W. (allowing for tide and a northerly set) for Sir Charles Hardy islands. As soon as the beacon is lost sight of, the vessel will be clear of the shoal patches westward of the 100 fathoms line of soundings, and on the bank. Look out now for Sir Charles Hardy islands, and when they are plainly seen, steer for their south extreme on a S.W.  $\frac{3}{4}$  W. bearing, and when the easternmost sand bank on the Middle banks bears N.W. by W., and the west Ashmore bank (if seen) S.S.W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W., the vessel will be well to the south-west of the Salamander patch, and a course may then be shaped for either the north or Pollard channels.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation  $5^{\circ}$  E. in 1865.]

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
7th July, 1865.

NOTICE OF INTENDED DISTRIBUTION OF NAVAL SALVAGE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, July 13, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and to all persons interested therein, that the distribution of the amount awarded for the salvage services rendered to the "Statelie," by Her Majesty's ship "Hornet," between the 17th and 21st of January, 1864, will commence on Friday, the 21st instant, in the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Agents and other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share of any captor, serving in the above-named ship, are requested to present the same at this office.

Any Officer, Seaman, Marine, or other person, who may desire to receive his share from the Collector of Customs or of Inland Revenue within the United Kingdom, is required to intimate the same by letter to be addressed "On Prize Business, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, London," (enclosing his certificate of service, or an attested copy thereof, excepting in the case of Commissioned Officers),—in which letter his own place of residence is to be precisely stated, as well as the place of the nearest Collector of Customs, or of Inland Revenue, from whom it would be convenient to receive such share of prize money.

The following are the shares due to an individual in the several classes:—

	£	s.	d.
Commander . . . .	135	10	2
Third class . . . .	30	10	8

Statistical and Corn Department, Board of Trade,
July 17, 1865.

A. W. FONBLANQUE,
Comptroller of Corn Returns.

County of Northumberland, 1865.

AT the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, held at Hexham, in and for the said county, on the 28th day of June, in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, before Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace assigned to keep the Peace in the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors, done and committed therein.

Highway Act.

Proposed Dissolution of the Alnwick Highway District.

(Final Order.)

Whereas, in pursuance to the provisions of the Highway Act, 1862, and Highway Act, 1864, notice was given by Frederick John Woodley Collingwood, Ralph Carr, Thomas Anderson, Walter Selby, and Charles Cuthbert Shafto, Esquires, being five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for this county, not less than two of whom are resident in the Highway District as hereinafter proposed to be dissolved, or acting in the Petty Sessional Division in which such district, or some part thereof, is situate, by writing under their hands, requiring the Clerk of the Peace to add to or send with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of the next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked A in the schedule to the said Highway Act, 1862, or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that at this Court a proposal would be made to the Justices then and there assembled, to dissolve the Alnwick Highway District, formed under the Highway Act, 1862, and requiring the Clerk of the Peace to send by post, in a prepaid letter, notices, in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish comprised in the said Alnwick Highway District. And whereas the said Clerk of the Peace added the said notice to that required by law to be given of the holding of these Sessions, and posted in a prepaid letter, the notice referred to by the Act, to all the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish comprised in the said Alnwick Highway District.

And whereas at such first-mentioned Quarter Sessions, the Justices aforesaid having entertained the said proposal, and after due consideration had in the premises, did, by their Provisional Order, dissolve the said Alnwick Highway District.

And whereas the Justices at the last-mentioned Quarter Sessions did appoint the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden at the Court-house, at Hexham, in and for the said county of Northumberland, on Wednesday, the 28th day of June, 1865, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order.

And whereas such Provisional Order has been duly published in the London Gazette, and in two newspapers circulating in the said county, and a copy of such Order has been sent by post, in a prepaid letter, to the churchwardens and overseers of every parish within the said Alnwick Highway District, and there was added to the notice of the said Provisional Order, a notice that the Justices at the said Sessions did thereby appoint these present General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at Hexham, in this county, on Wednesday, the 28th day of June, 1865, for the taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order, by a Final Order.

And whereas the said Clerk of the Peace did send with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of Courts of General Quarter Sessions, a notice in form marked B in the schedule of the said Act (25 and 26 Vic., cap. 61), or as near thereto as circumstances admit, of the appointment so made by the Justices in relation to the confirmation of the said Provisional Order. Now at these Sessions, after fully considering the matter in all its bearings, and hearing all objections thereto, it is ordered that the said Provisional Order be, and the same is hereby, confirmed.

By the Court,

Dickson.

County of Northumberland, 1865.

AT the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, held at Hexham, in and for the said county, on the 28th day of June, in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, before Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, assigned to keep the Peace in the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors, done and committed therein.

Highway Act.

Proposed Dissolution of the Morpeth Highway District.

(Final Order.)

Whereas in pursuance to the provisions of the Highway Act, 1862, and Highway Act, 1864, notice was given by Addison John Baker Cresswell, Edward Collingwood, Thomas James, Thomas Anderson, James Henry Hollis Atkinson, Esquires; the Rev. Edward Chaloner Ogle, Richard Burdon Sanderson, Joseph Young, Esquires; the Rev. Edward Lawson, and John Philip Mitford, Esquire, being ten of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for this county, not less than two of whom are resident in the Highway District as hereinafter proposed to be dissolved, or acting in the Petty Sessional Division in which such district, or some part thereof, is situate, by writing under their hands, requiring the Clerk of the Peace to add to, or send with, the notice required by law to be given of the holding of the next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked A in the schedule to the said Highway Act, 1862, or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that at this Court a proposal would be made to the Justices then and there assembled, to dissolve the Morpeth Highway District, formed under the Highway Act, 1862, and requiring the Clerk of the Peace to send by post, in a prepaid letter, notices in the aforesaid form, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish comprised in the said Morpeth Highway District. And whereas the said Clerk of the Peace added the said notice to that required by law to be given of the holding of these Sessions, and posted, in a prepaid letter, the notice referred to by the Act, to all the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish comprised in the said Morpeth Highway District.

Now at these Sessions, the Justices aforesaid having entertained the said proposal, and after due consideration had in the premises, do hereby, by this their Provisional Order, dissolve the said Morpeth Highway District.

And whereas at such first-mentioned Quarter Sessions, the Justices aforesaid having entertained the said proposal, and after due consideration had in the premises, did, by their Provisional Order, dissolve the said Morpeth Highway District.

And whereas the Justices at the last-mentioned Quarter Sessions did appoint the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be holden at the Court-house, at Hexham, in and for the said county of Northumberland, on Wednesday, the 28th day of June, 1865, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order, by a Final Order.

And whereas such Provisional Order has been duly published in the London Gazette, and in two newspapers circulating in the said county, and a copy of such Order has been sent by post, in a prepaid letter, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish within the said Morpeth Highway District, and there was added to the notice of the said Provisional Order, a notice that the Justices at the said Sessions did thereby appoint these present General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at Hexham, in this county, on Wednesday, the 28th day of June, 1865, for the taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order.

And whereas the said Clerk of the Peace did send with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of Courts of General Quarter Sessions, a notice in the form marked B in the schedule of the said Act (25 and 26 Vic., cap. 61), or as near thereto as circumstances admit, of the appointment so made by the Justices in relation to the confirmation of the said Provisional Order. And whereas, in the said Provisional Order, no date was stated on and from which the said Morpeth Highway District should be dissolved. And whereas, for the better adjustment of matters of account arising between parishes or parts of the said Highway District, it is desirable that the said Highway District should not be dissolved before the 1st day of August next. Now at this Court of Quarter Sessions (being the Court of Quarter Sessions so appointed as aforesaid, for the taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order), the Justices assembled, after fully considering the matter in all its bearings, and hearing all objections thereto, do make this further and Final Order confirming the said Provisional Order with the following variation, that is to say:

—The said Justices do hereby order that the said Morpeth Highway District be dissolved on and from the 1st day of August next.

By the Court,

Dickson.

County of Northumberland, 1865.

AT the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, held at Hexham, in and for the said county, on the 28th day of June, in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, before Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace assigned to keep the Peace in the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors, done and committed therein.

Highway Act.

Proposed Alteration in the Hexham Highway District.

(Final Order.)

Whereas in pursuance to the provisions of the Highway Act, 1862, and Highway Act, 1864, notice was given by John Blenkinsopp Coulson, Gustavus Hamilton Coulson, William Gibson, Esquires, and the Rev. Dixon Brown and John Mason Mason, Clerks, being five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for this county, not less than two of whom are resident in the Highway District, as thereafter proposed, or acting in the Petty Sessional Division, in which such district, or some part thereof, is situate, by writing under their hands, requiring the Clerk of the Peace to add to or send with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of the next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the Form marked A in the Schedule to the Highway Act, 1862, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit, that at this Court a proposal would be made to the Justices then and there assembled, to alter the Hexham Highway District formed under the Highway Act, 1862, by the subtracting therefrom of certain parishes or places thereafter mentioned, and to form a new Highway District, by the union of the said parishes or places now forming part of the existing Hexham Highway District; that is to say:—

Bellister,
Blenkinsopp,
Coanwood,
Featherstone,
Haltwhistle,
Hartleyburn,
Henshaw,
Melkridge,
Plenmeller,
Ridley,

Thorngraston,
Thirlwall,
Wall Town,
Wydon,
Kirkhaugh,
High Quarter,
Low Quarter,
Asholme,
Lambley,
Whitfield,

and requiring the Clerk of the Peace to send by post, in a prepaid letter, notices, in the aforesaid form to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice. And whereas the said Clerk of the Peace added the said notice to that required by law to be given of the holding of these sessions, and posted, in a prepaid letter, the notice referred to by the Act to all the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish comprised in the said Hexham Highway District. And whereas at such first-mentioned Quarter Sessions, the Justices aforesaid, having entertained the said proposal, and after due consideration had in the premises, did, by their Provisional Order, alter the said Hexham Highway District, by the subtraction therefrom of the said parishes and places hereinbefore mentioned and set forth, and to form a new Highway District by the union of the said parishes and places now forming part of the existing Hexham Highway District, for the more convenient management of highways; and that the said proposed new Highway District be called the Haltwhistle Highway District. And whereas the Justices at the last-mentioned Quarter Sessions did appoint the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden at the Court-house, at Hexham, in and for the said county of Northumberland, on Wednesday, the 28th day of June, 1865, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order. And whereas such Provisional Order has been duly published in the London Gazette, and in two newspapers circulating in the said county, and a copy of such Order has been sent by post, in a prepaid letter, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish within the said Hexham Highway District, and there was added to the notice of the said Provisional Order a notice that the Justices of the said Sessions did thereby appoint these present General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at Hexham, in this county, on Wednesday, the 28th day of June, 1865, for the taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order, by a Final Order. And whereas the said Clerk of the Peace did send with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of Courts of General Quarter Sessions, a notice in form marked B in the schedule of the said Act (25 and 26 Vic., cap. 61), or as near thereto as circumstances admit of, the appointment so made by the Justices in relation to the confirmation of the said Provisional Order. And whereas, in the said Provisional Order no date was stated on and from which the said Hexham Highway District should be altered. And whereas, for the better adjustment of matters of account arising between parishes or parts of the said Highway District, it is desirable that the said Highway District should not be altered before the 31st day of December next. Now at this Court of Quarter Sessions (being the Court of Quarter Sessions so appointed as aforesaid for the taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order), the Justices assembled, after fully considering the matter in all its bearings, and hearing all objections thereto, do make this Further and Final Order confirming the said Provisional Order, with the following variation, that is to say—The said Justices do hereby Order that the said Hexham Highway District be altered in manner aforesaid on and from the 31st day of December next.

By the Court,

Dickson.
