Admiralty, July 20, 1865.

A DESPATCH, of which the following is a copy, has been received from Captain Bowden, of Her Majesty's ship "Wasp."

Her Majesty's Ship "Wasp," Seychelles, May 26, 1865.

SIR,

IN compliance with Article 31, page 5, of the Slave Trade Instructions, I have the honour to report, that on the night of the 12th May, an Arab dhow was captured by the pinnace and cutter of this ship, under the charge of Lieutenant Charles C. Rising, at a distance of from 8 to 10 miles from the port of Zanzibar, with 283 slaves on board.

She had a large crew of northern Arabs, who made a desperate resistance, but owing to the gallantry displayed by the officers, whose names are in the margin,* and their boats' crews, the vessel was carried, the Arabs taking to the sea, and to a boat they cut from the stern, but leaving 3 dead and 13 prisoners.

I regret to say that John New (coxwain of pinnace), the first to board, was killed, and 3 officers and 8 men wounded.

I cannot speak too highly of the judicious way in which the attack was conducted, and the gallantry displayed by Lieutenant Rising, who has received three very severe wounds.

Lieutenant Theobald received a severe wound at the onset, but notwithstanding boarded, and afterwards remained in charge.

By the prisoners' statement there were 70 Arabs on board at the time of the attack, and by report from the shore 25 are missing of those who took to the sea.

I beg to enclose the officers' reports of their proceedings, and the surgeon's list of casualties.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) W. BOWDEN, Captain.

To the Secretary of the Admiralty, Whitehall, London.

Her Majesty's Ship "Wasp," Seychelles, May 26, 1865.

SIR,

IN obedience to your orders of the 12th May, I proceeded with the pinnace and first

* Cutter.—Charles Compton Rising, Lieutenant; William Wilson, Midshipman; and 11 men.

Pinnace.—Charles Barstow Theobald, Lieutenant; John James Ava Campbell, Midshipman; and 13 men.

cutter, manned and armed, to endeavour to intercept a dhow which was to sail from Zanzibar the same evening.

On leaving the ship I at once sent Lieutenant Charles B. Theobald, in the pinnace, down to Chapney Island, giving him directions to look out for the dhow, and also for me in the cutter. I then went in to where the dhow was at anchor, at sunset, but found that she had sailed. On enquiring on board another small dhow, I heard that she had sailed about half an hour with only part of her slaves on board, and that the rest had gone after her in three large canoes. I immediately proceeded to pick up the pinnace, and having come to the conclusion that she must have anchored somewhere close in shore to receive those slaves, I proceeded, in company with pinnace to search the shore, intending to go down to Cockotoni, if we did not find her in our way, the pinnace being about a mile from the shore, and the cutter about a half a mile.

After proceeding about two miles, I observed a canoe in shore of me, and immediately chased her; as soon as she saw me she made for the shore, and reaching it all the crew ran into the bush. I searched the canoe and found in it several baskets of yams and a copper kettle, and from what the interpreter said I had no doubt she was one of the three canoes. I took her in tow and shoved off, and just as I hoisted the sail, I observed a sail coming round the point, and stood off towards her. As I closed her I saw that it was a large dhow with her sail half hoisted, apparently looking for something. When I was within 200 yards of her she appeared to make me out, and hoisted her sail, at the same time firing at me. I at once chased and commenced firing at her, she returning it, and finding that the cutter was sailing faster than the dhow, I kept about 80 yards astern of her, intending to wait for the pinnace. After chasing her about half a mile I observed the pinnace commence firing on her from some distance ahead, and at once got the oars out. About ten minutes after I saw the pinnace close to the dhow, and almost immediately she boarded her on the port bow. I at once boarded with the cutter on the starboard quarter, and after about ten minutes severe fighting we succeeded in capturing her, many of her crew jumping overboard; and, owing to the darkness, succeeded in cutting the boat away from the stern of the dhow, and escaping in her.

I must leave Lieutenant Theobald to finish this report, as I regret to say I became insensible from loss of blood, and on coming to I found myself in the cutter with several wounded men, on our way to the ship, which we reached at 7.30 A.M., on the 13th.

I have now only to say, that it is my firm conviction we should never have captured her if Lieutenant Theobald had not at once stood across to cut her off on seeing the firing, and then without hesitation boarded. I wish also to bring to your notice the manner in which Mr. W. Wilson, midshipman, John Williams, able seaman and coxswain of the cutter, and Charles Proudley, yeoman of storerooms, behaved—the latter saved my life, when, owing to loss of blood and my sword being broken, I was hardly able to defend myself.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) CHARLES C. RISING,
Lieutenant in charge of Boats.

To Captain W. Bowden,
Her Majesty Ship "Wasp."

Her Majesty's Ship "Wasp."

SIR, Seychelles, May 26, 1865.

AFTER the capture of the dhow, finding Lieutenant Rising severely wounded and insensible, I took charge of the boats.

I sent the cutter, with Lieutenant Rising and the worst of the wounded; back to the ship, with a request for assistance to be sent to me as soon as possible; I then got underway in the dhow, with pinnace in tow, and stood over to the African coast until shortly before daylight, when I wore, and seeing the ship coming towards us, I anchored the dhow close to Chapney Island, and returned on board at 11.30 A.M.

In conclusion, I beg to call your attention to the gallant behaviour of Mr. J. J. A. Campbell, midshipman, and the men under my command.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) CHARLES B. THEOBALD,
Lieutenant.

To Captain Bowden,
Her Majesty's Ship "Wasp."

FINAL ORDER under the Statutes 25 and 26 Vict., chap. 61, and 27 and 28 Vict., chap. 101, confirming Provisional Order made by the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for the county of Leicester, for combining the two townships, tithings, hamlets, or places of Mapplewell and Mapplewell Longdale as one Highway Parish, and uniting the same to the Loughborough Highway District, in the said county.

Leicestershire to Wit.

AT the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the county of Leicester, held in and for the said county, on Monday, the 26th day of June, 1865.

Whereas at a Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the county of Leicester, held on the 3rd day of April last, a Provisional Order was made in the words following, that is to say :—

Leicestershire.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at the Castle of Leicester, in and for the county of Leicester, on Monday, the 3rd day of April, 1865, before Charles William Packe, Esquire, Chairman, Sir Frederick Thomas Fowke, Baronet, and the Reverend Henry James Hoskyns, Clerk, Deputy Chairmen, and others, their Fellows, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen, in the county aforesaid, it is ordered provisionally as follows :—

Whereas Sir Frederick William Heygate, Baronet, Samuel William Clowes, Edward Chatterton Middleton, Henry St. John Halford, and William Unwin Heygate, Esquires, being five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the county of Leicester, three of whom, namely, the said Sir Frederick William Heygate, Samuel William Clowes, and Edward Chatterton Middleton, are respectively acting in the Petty Sessional Division of Loughborough aforesaid, in which the said Loughborough Highway District, or some part thereof, is situate, have, by a writing under their hands, dated the 21st day of February, 1865, required William Freer, Esquire, the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, to add to or send with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the form marked (A) in the Schedule to the Act of the 25th and 26th years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter sixty-one, intituled "An Act for the better management of the Highways in England," that at such Court of General or Quarter Sessions a proposal would be made to the Justices then and there assembled to combine the two townships, tithings, hamlets, or places of Mapplewell and Mapplewell Longdale as one Highway Parish, under the name or title of "Mapplewell and Longdale," and also to constitute and declare that such proposed highway parish shall be united with and form part of the Loughborough Highway District, and did also require the said Clerk of the Peace, to send by post, in a prepaid letter, notices in the form aforesaid to the Churchwardens and Overseers of each and every of the parishes above-mentioned.

And whereas at a Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, held at the Castle of Leicester, in Leicester, in the said county, on the 3rd day of April, 1865, a proposal was submitted to the said Court by the said Justices to combine the said two townships, tithings, hamlets, or places of Mapplewell and Mapplewell Longdale as one highway parish, under the name or title of "Mapplewell and Longdale," and also to constitute and declare that such proposed highway parish shall be united with and form part of the Loughborough Highway District.

And whereas the said Court have heard the said proposal and entertained the same, and have considered the premises, and it has been shown to the said Court that the notices aforesaid were duly sent to the Churchwardens and Overseers of each of the parishes mentioned.

Now, therefore, the said Court, in pursuance of the powers vested in the Court in and by the said Highway Acts, do, by this Provisional Order, direct that the said district, called the Loughborough Highway District, shall be altered by the addition thereto of the said two townships, tithings, hamlets, or places of Mapplewell and Mapplewell Longdale, being both respectively highway parishes within the meaning of the said Highway Acts, and do combine them as one highway parish, under the name or title of "Mapplewell and Longdale," and do declare that no separate Waywarden shall be elected for such townships, tithings, hamlets, or places, and that the same shall be subject to the same liabilities in respect of all the highways within it, which have been heretofore maintained by such townships, tithings, hamlets, or places separately, and that the same shall be united to and form part of the said Loughborough Highway District.

It is further ordered by the said Court, that the number of Waywardens which such combined townships, tithings, hamlets, or places of "Mapplewell and Longdale" shall elect shall be one.

It is further ordered by the said Court, that the inhabitants of the aforesaid combined highway parish shall, at a meeting, to be held on Monday, the 3rd day of July next, at the message or farm house now in the occupation of Hackney, at Mapplewell aforesaid, at twelve o'clock at noon, proceed to the election of a Waywarden, for the said combined highway parish, for the then remainder of the current year. And that the inhabitants of the said combined highway parish shall, at a meeting to be held at the same time and place, upon the 25th day of March in every succeeding year (but if that day should happen to be a Sunday or Good Friday, then at the same hour on the next day), proceed to the election of a Waywarden for the said combined highway parish for the year then ensuing.

Lastly, it is ordered that the confirmation of this Provisional Order by a Final Order shall be taken into consideration by the Justices at a Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be held at the Castle of Leicester aforesaid, in and for the said county, on the 26th day of June, 1865.

And whereas proof has been afforded to the satisfaction of this Court that the notices required by the said Acts of Parliament of the making of the said Provisional Order, and of the appointment made by the said Justices in relation to the confirmation thereof, have been duly given and published by the Clerk of the Peace for the said county.

Now, therefore, the Justices assembled at this present Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace (being the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace duly appointed for this purpose) in pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in them, under and by virtue of the said Acts of Parliament, having considered the premises, do, by this Final Order, confirm the said hereinbefore recited Provisional Order of the 3rd day of April, 1865, without variation.

By the Court,

Leicestershire.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at the Castle of Leicester, in and for the county of Leicester, on Monday, the 3rd day of April, 1865, before Charles William Packe, Esquire, Chairman, Sir Frederick Thomas Fowke, Baronet, and the Reverend Henry James Hoskyns, Clerk, Deputy Chairman, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen, in the county aforesaid, it is ordered provisionally as follows:—

And whereas the said Court have heard the said proposal and entertained the same, and have considered the premises, and it has been shown to the said Court that notices thereof were duly sent to the Churchwardens and Overseers of each of the parishes mentioned.

Now, therefore, the said Court, in pursuance of the powers vested in the Court in and by the said Highway Acts, or one of them, do, by this Provisional Order, direct that the said district, called the Leicester Highway District, shall be altered by the addition thereto of the said parishes of Newfound Pool, Freaks Ground, Quenby, Leicester Forest East (otherwise Leicester Forest), and Leicester Forest West, being all respectively highway parishes within the meaning of the said Highway Acts, and that the same shall be united to and form part of the said Leicester Highway District.
