AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th day of July, 1865.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Sir George Grey, Bart.
Mr. Milner Gibson.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prevent until the 1st day of September, 1850, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals" and which has since been from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, it is (amongst other things) enacted that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other part of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection; and also for the purpose of purifying any yard, stable, outhouse, or other place, or any waggons, carts, carriages, or other vehicles; and also for the purpose of directing how any animals dying in a diseased state, or any animals, parts of animals, or other things seized under the provisions of this Act are to be disposed of; and also for the purpose of causing notices to be given of the appearance of any disorder among sheep, cattle, or other animals, and to make any other orders or regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such orders or regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act; and that all persons offending against the said Act shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, or such smaller sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council may in any case by such Order direct:

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder, of which the nature is at present uncertain, has lately appeared, and now prevails among cattle within the metropolis and in the neighbourhood thereof, and it is expedient to take measures for preventing such disorder from spreading:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council do hereby, by virtue and in exercise of the powers given by the said recited Act, and by the several Acts continuing the same as aforesaid, order as follows:

1. If at the date of the publication of this Order in the "London Gazette" there shall be any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, or ox labouring under any contagious or infectious disorder in the possession or custody of any cowkeeper, dairyman, or dairywoman, or of any milkman or milkwoman, or vender or purveyor of milk, or of any dealer in cattle whatsoever within the city of London, or within the limits of the metropolitan police district, or if at any time hereafter, while this present Order shall continue in force and unrevoked, any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, or ox, being in the possession or custody of any such person as aforesaid within the said city of London, or within the metropolitan police district shall be seized or attacked with, or be found labouring or suffering under, any such contagious or infectious disorder, notice of the existence of such disorder, or of the first appearance of such disorder in or among the cattle belonging to or in the custody of any such person as aforesaid, shall immediately thereupon be given by the person in whose possession or custody such diseased animals or animal shall be, to the Clerk of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council in waiting at the office of Her Majesty's Privy Council at Whitehall, in the county of Middlesex; and it shall be lawful for the said Clerk of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and for all such persons as he shall by writing under his hand authorize in that behalf, thereupon, and at all reasonable times thereafter, to inspect and examine all or any such diseased animals or animal, and to report to the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council all such information and particulars as to the nature or character of such disorder as may seem to him expedient for the purpose of enabling proper regulations to be made for preventing or checking the further propagation and increase of such disorder.

2. Every person offending against this Order, and omitting to give such notice or to permit such inspection and examination as aforesaid, shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

ART. 2.

Besides the goods exempted by this tariff from paying import duty, the following also may be imported without paying custom duties:—

- 1°. All the goods imported for the use or for account of the Government.
- 2°. a. All the produces of the Netherlands East India possessions, where custom duties are levied; as to cotton goods, tobacco, and cigars, these must be followed by a certificate of export.
- b.* All the produces of other Netherlands East India possessions, and of the inland states of the Eastern Archipelago which are in friendly relations with the Netherlands Government; Gambier excepted only on Java and Madura, besides woven cotton goods, tobacco, and cigars.

The prohibitory stipulations relating to the import of some articles have, nevertheless, effect on these goods.

- 3°. All the goods of which duty is paid at one of the Netherlands India Custom Boards.

When, however, a higher duty must be paid at the second place of import, then the goods can not enter before the difference is paid.

- 4°. Clothes and linen goods of passengers, likewise used furniture and luggage (regalen) imported by them.

ART. 3.

An Export duty shall be paid on the Articles, as specified in the following list, when they are exported from the Countries named in Art. 1.

Articles.	Value.	Duties when exported to the Netherlands.	Elsewhere.
Birds' Nests	Value	6 per cent.	6 per cent.
Coffee	"	6 per cent.	9 per cent.
Hides	"	2 per cent.	2 per cent.
Indigo, not prepared for the inland market	N. pd.	f 0,10	f 0,15
Sugar	Value	free	3 per cent.
Tin	100 N. pd.	f 3,50	f 5
Tobacco, not prepared for the inland market	100 N. pd.	f 1	f 1

ART. 4.

When goods, which are subjected to a differential custom duty, are exported to the Netherlands, then the payment of the higher duties shall be warranted according to the stipulations of the Governor-General.

The lowest duty shall not be applied than when it shall be proved that those goods, within the term fixed by the Governor-General, are landed, uncurtailed, in one of the Dutch harbours, out of the same ship in which they have been laden.

Nevertheless the Governor-General has the competence to exempt from paying the higher duty, when he will have the conviction that the merchandises totally or partly are lost in consequence of a disaster at sea; or that it was strictly necessary that these goods should be laden in another ship.

The Governor-General has also the competence to exempt from paying the high duty on that part of a cargo which is landed in one of the Dutch harbours, when it has been necessary, in consequence of a disaster at sea, to sell the other part of the merchandises in a foreign harbour.

ART. 5.

No. export duty is to be paid on :—

1°. The goods exported for the use or account of the Government.

2°. The goods of which the duty is paid at one of the Netherlands Indies custom boards.

When a higher duty is owed at the second place of export, then the goods cannot be cleared before the difference is paid.

ART. 6.

The rule about the import and export duties, besides the particular stipulations, for Moeara-Kompeh, in the Empire of Djambi, fixed by resolution of the Governor-General of the Netherlands Indies, dated April the 23rd, 1847 (Ind. off. Journal, No. 19), shall continue to have effect.

Save our approbation, the Governor-General is competent to levy, in name of the Government of the Netherlands Indies, customs duties in those parts of the Netherlands Indies not indicated in Art. 10, where yet no duties were levied; provided that this shall take place after a not-differential Tariff.

ART. 7.

On the import and export duties no additional cents are to be paid.

ART. 8.

The dock duties (Entrepôt gelden); those for loading from the one ship into another, besides those for weighing (waaggeld) are abolished.

The Governor-General fixes the tariffs of payment for warehousing, watching the goods, and all those services really rendered.

ART. 9.

On the transit no duties will be levied.

ART. 10.

On behalf of the Government no import or export duties will be levied in the Residency Riow, its subjections on the east coast of Sumatra, not including the Government of Celebes and Subjections, the Government of the Moluccas, and the Residencies Menado and Timor. The application of this stipulation in the western, southern, and eastern sections of Borneo, we have reserved.

ART. 11.

The necessary measures shall be taken by our Government, or by the Governor-General, to maintain the execution of this law, and to prevent that the duties should be evaded.

About the certificates of origin, or those indicating the place of manufacturing, rules shall be fixed, which will take effect on the same date as this law.

ART. 12.

The present law shall have effect from the 1st January, 1866, till the 1st January, 1872.
