FRIDAY, JULY 28, 1865.

Osborne, July 26, 1865.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor of Dublin, accompanied by Mr. Alderman Reynolds, the Town Clerk, the Sword Bearer, and the Mace Bearer, waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was handed to Her Majesty :—

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Dublin, desire, on our own part, and on that of our fellow citizens, to present to your Majesty our warm congratulations on the birth of a second son to their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales.

We hail the auspicious event not only as a means of increasing the domestic happiness of the young Prince's Royal Parents, but as a source of joy to your Majesty, whose maternal love and solicitude for the welfare of the Royal Family have been so pure, so conspicuous, and so enduring.

In thus offering to your Majesty our most respectful and dutiful congratulations we humbly seize upon the opportunity of laying before your Majesty the renewal of our loyal attachment to your Majesty's person and throne.

In conclusion we pray that your Majesty may long continue to occupy the throne of these realms, and to reign, as your Majesty has ever reigned, in the hearts and affections of your Irish subjects.

W. J. Henry, Town Clerk.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :—

"I thank you very sincerely for the Address of congratulation on the birth of the Prince, my grandson, which you have presented to me on the part of the Corporation and Citizens of my ancient City of Dublin.

"I am much gratified by the warm interest which you express in all that concerns the happiness of myself and of my family, and I accept with great satisfaction your renewed assurances of loyal attachment to my person and Throne."

They were all very graciously received, and the Lord Mayor and Mr. Alderman Reynolds had the honour of kissing Her Majesty's hand.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th day of July, 1865.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Sir George Grey, Bart.
Mr. Milner Gibson.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prevent until the 1st day of September, 1850, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals" and which has since been from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, it is (amongst other things) enacted that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other part of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection; and also for the purpose of purifying any yard, stable, outhouse, or other place, or any waggons, carts, carriages, or other vehicles; and also for the purpose of directing how any animals dying in a diseased state, or any animals, parts of animals, or other things seized under the provisions of this Act are to be disposed of; and also for the purpose of causing notices to be given of the appearance of any disorder among sheep, cattle, or other animals, and to make any other orders or regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such orders or regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act; and that all persons offending against the said Act shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, or such smaller sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council may in any case by such Order direct:

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder, of which the nature is at present uncertain, has lately appeared, and now prevails among cattle within the metropolis and in the neighbourhood thereof, and it is expedient to take measures for preventing such disorder from spreading :

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council do hereby, by virtue and in exercise of the powers given by the said recited Act, and by the several Acts continuing the same as aforesaid, order as follows :

1. If at the date of the publication of this Order in the "London Gazette" there shall be any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, or ox labouring under any contagious or infectious disorder in the possession or custody of any cowkeeper, dairyman, or dairywoman, or of any milkman or milkwoman, or vendor or purveyor of milk, or of any dealer in cattle whatsoever within the city of London, or within the limits of the metropolitan police district, or if at any time hereafter, while this present Order shall continue in force and unrevoked, any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, or ox, being in the possession or custody of any such person as aforesaid within the said city of London, or within the metropolitan police district shall be seized or attacked with, or be found labouring or suffering under, any such contagious or infectious disorder, notice of the existence of such disorder, or of the first appearance of such disorder in or among the cattle belonging to or in the custody of any such person as aforesaid, shall immediately thereupon be given by the person in whose possession or custody such diseased animals or animal shall be, to the Clerk of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council in waiting at the office of Her Majesty's Privy Council at Whitehall, in the county of Middlesex; and it shall be lawful for the said Clerk of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and for all such persons as he shall by writing under his hand authorize in that behalf, thereupon, and at all reasonable times thereafter, to inspect and examine all or any such diseased animals or animal, and to report to the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council all such information and particulars as to the nature or character of such disorder as may seem to him expedient for the purpose of enabling proper regulations to be made for preventing or checking the further propagation and increase of such disorder.

2. Every person offending against this Order, and omitting to give such notice or to permit such inspection and examination as aforesaid, shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

Edmund Harrison.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-six, for the regulation of the duties of postage, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new and other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid; and it is provided that the power thereby given should extend to any increase or reduction or remission of postage.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-five, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act of Parliament made and passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-seven, for amending the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and for providing for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain Warrant in writing under their hands, bearing date at Whitehall Treasury Chambers, the 24th day of September, 1857, did make certain regulations for the transmission by the post of letters, newspapers, and other printed papers between the United Kingdom and Belgium, pursuant to a certain convention then lately before made and concluded between the Post Offices of the said two countries, and a certain other convention having been lately made and concluded between the Post Offices of the said United Kingdom and Belgium, it is expedient, for the better carrying out of the same, to repeal, revoke, and annul the said recited Treasury Warrant of the 24th day of September, 1857, and to make other regulations in lieu thereof, in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament respectively, and all and every or some or one of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided) order, declare, and direct as follows; that is to say:—

1. The said recited Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the said 24th day of September, 1857, shall be, and the same is, hereby repealed, revoked, and annulled; and the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage therein mentioned and set forth, shall wholly cease and determine on the day on which this present Warrant shall come into operation.

2. On every letter not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Belgium, or posted in Belgium addressed to the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any place in Belgium, the said respective letters being conveyed between the United Kingdom and Belgium direct by packet boat or private ship, there shall be charged and taken and paid an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of three pence, and on every such letter, when conveyed or sent in closed mails, viâ France, there shall be charged and taken and paid an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of four pence.

3. On every letter, not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Switzerland or the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg viâ Belgium, and conveyed otherwise than in a closed mail, there shall be charged and taken and paid an uniform rate of British postage of two pence.

4. On every letter, not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between Belgium, or any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country viâ Belgium, and any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country through the United Kingdom conveyed direct by packet boat or private ship between the United Kingdom and Belgium, or sent in closed mails, viâ France, there shall be charged and taken and paid an uniform rate of British postage of two pence for the conveyance of every such letter between Belgium and any part of the United Kingdom, and also such a further or additional rate of British postage for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and the colony or foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and transmitted direct between such port and any such colony or foreign country, provided that in all cases where such additional rate includes both inland and sea services there shall be deducted therefrom the sum of one penny in respect of the inland conveyance under this clause of every such letter sent through the United Kingdom.

5. On every letter so transmitted as is hereinbefore in this Warrant respectively mentioned, if exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage according to the scale of weight and number of rates hereinafter-mentioned, that is to say:—

On every such letter so transmitted, exceeding one half of an ounce in weight and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage;

On every such letter so transmitted, exceeding one ounce and not exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce in weight, three rates of postage;

On every such letter so transmitted, exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage;

On every such letter so transmitted, exceeding two ounces and not exceeding two ounces and the half of another ounce in weight, five rates of postage;

On every such letter so transmitted, exceeding two ounces and the half of another ounce and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage;

And for every half of an ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of three ounces there shall be charged, taken, and paid one additional rate of postage, and in charging any additional rate of postage every fractional part of such additional half of an ounce shall be charged as an additional half of an ounce in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight.

6. On every letter transmitted by the post under the authority of the second clause of this Warrant, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by being stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such letter, near the address, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant.

7. If any letter transmitted by the post under the authority of the second clause of this Warrant shall be posted without the postage payable thereon being duly and properly paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by being stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto, as hereinbefore directed, every such letter shall be charged with the postage to which it would have been liable, under the provisions of this Warrant, if the postage had been fully paid thereon when posted, together with the further and additional rate of postage of three pence.

8. If any letter transmitted by the post under the authority of the second clause of this Warrant shall be posted, having thereon or affixed thereto a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which the same would be liable under or by virtue of this Warrant, every such letter shall be charged with postage as an unpaid letter, and the amount of such stamp or stamps affixed thereto shall be allowed and deducted in charging such postage thereon.

9. Nothing herein contained shall be construed in anywise to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions or privileges granted by the said first hereinbefore-recited Act, or to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the privileges which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's Service are now by law entitled to, of sending and receiving by the post letters not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions made and in force for the time being in respect of the same.

10. Letters marked "urgent" may be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant upon the payment when posted of the rates of postage payable on registered letters, and also upon the payment of such additional charge or rates of postage for the delivery thereof at the time of such delivery as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct or appoint in that behalf.

11. All packets consisting of printed newspapers, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Belgium and transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any place in Belgium, may be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained relating thereto, and there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for the transmission of every such packet, an uniform rate of postage of one penny, if the conveyance between the United Kingdom and Belgium be direct by packet boat or private ship, and of two pence if such packets be sent in closed mails viâ France.

12. All packets consisting of printed papers other than newspapers not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Belgium, and transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any place in Belgium, may be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions, hereinafter mentioned and contained relating thereto, and there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for the transmission of every such packet, an uniform rate of postage of three pence if the conveyance between the United Kingdom and Belgium be direct by packet boat or private ship, and of four pence if the packets be sent in closed mails viâ France.

13. All packets consisting of printed newspapers, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom and transmitted by the post, addressed to any foreign country viâ Belgium, or posted in any foreign country and transmitted by the post viâ Belgium addressed to the United Kingdom, whether conveyed between the United Kingdom and Belgium direct by packet boat or private ship, or sent in closed mails viâ France (newspapers forwarded in the closed mails between the United Kingdom and Prussia, or Holland excepted), may be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained relating thereto, and there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for the transmission of every such packet, an uniform British rate of postage of one penny.

14. All packets transmitted respectively under the 11th, 12th, and 13th Clauses of this Warrant, hereinbefore respectively contained, shall, if exceeding the weight of four ounces respectively, be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

On every such packet so transmitted, if exceeding four ounces in weight, and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, two rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one half of a pound and not exceeding one pound in weight, four rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, six rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and one half of another pound, and not exceeding two pounds in weight, eight rates of postage;

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two additional rates of postage;

And in charging any additional rate of postage every fractional part of such additional half of a pound shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

15. As to all packets consisting of printed newspapers or other printed papers hereinbefore in the 11th, 12th, and 13th clauses of this Warrant, authorised to be sent by the post, which shall be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Belgium, or posted in the United Kingdom addressed to any foreign country, viâ Belgium, the postage thereof shall in every case be paid, not in money, but by being stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto on the same being posted, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet, near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereupon under or by virtue of this Warrant, unless any such packet be sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall have a postage account with the General Post Office in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded post-paid, and the postage thereof shall be charged in such postage account. And as to every such packet posted in Belgium, addressed to the United Kingdom, it is intended that the postage thereof shall in every case be duly and properly paid at the time of the same being posted. And if the postage of any such packet posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Belgium, or posted in the United Kingdom addressed to any foreign country viâ Belgium, shall not be duly and properly paid when posted, every such packet shall and may be detained and opened, and shall be returned or given up to the sender thereof; and on being so returned or given up shall, at the option of the Postmaster-General, be either free of postage or be charged with any rate he may think fit, not exceeding the postage to which it would have been liable as an unpaid letter, and such postage shall be paid by the sender; but if any such packet posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Belgium or any foreign country viâ Belgium, or posted in Belgium, addressed to the United Kingdom, shall have thereon or affixed thereto a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under or by virtue of this Warrant, every such last-mentioned packet shall be forwarded charged with double the amount of the difference between the value of such stamp or stamps so being thereon or affixed thereto and the postage to which it would have been liable under the provisions of this Warrant if the postage had been fully paid in stamps when posted.

16. All packets consisting of printed newspapers or other printed papers, posted in Belgium,

18. All packets transmitted under the 17th clause of this Warrant shall, if exceeding the weight of two ounces respectively, be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

On every such packet so transmitted, if exceeding two ounces in weight and not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, four rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one half of a pound and not exceeding one pound in weight, eight rates of postage;

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of one pound, there shall be charged, taken, and paid four additional rates of postage. And in charging any additional rate of postage, every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding two ounces in weight.

19. For the purposes of this Warrant, every printed newspaper transmitted by the post under the 11th and 13th clauses of this Warrant, shall be deemed and considered a packet, and shall be charged and chargeable with a separate and distinct single rate, or separate and distinct progressive and additional rates of postage, according to the weight thereof, as hereinbefore respectively mentioned, notwithstanding two or more newspapers shall be enclosed and transmitted in one and the same cover, wrapper, envelope, or bundle, and form only one parcel or bundle of newspapers; and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

20. Every printed newspaper, or other printed paper and packet of printed newspapers or other printed papers, which shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with, and under and subject to, the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions following; that is to say:—

33. No packet consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, in respect of which the several orders, directions, regulations, restrictions, and conditions, hereinbefore in the several clauses of this Warrant, respectively contained relating to the same, shall not be complied with in all respects except only such packets as are in the last preceding clause mentioned and referred to.

34. In order to prevent any obstacle to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post to be forwarded by him.

36. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said recited Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, cap. ninety-six.
