TUESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1865.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 7th day of August, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain do issue writs for proroguing the Parliament, which was appointed to meet on Tuesday, the fifteenth day of August instant, to Wednesday, the first day of November next; and also for proroguing the convocations of the provinces of Canterbury and York, from Wednesday, the sixteenth day of August instant, to Thursday, the second day of November next.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 7th day of August, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is expedient to alter and amend, so far as relates to the duties on wines, spirits, strong waters, or cordials, admitted for consumption in the garrison, the Schedule A annexed to a certain Order made by Her Majesty Queen Victoria, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, "for regulating the collection of Her Majesty's Revenues in Gibraltar," bearing date at the Court at Windsor, the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and to substitute a schedule with other and increased duties in lieu of that part of the said Schedule A, which relates to the duties on wines, spirits, strong waters, or cordials, admitted for consumption in the garrison; it is, therefore, hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that that part of the Schedule A, annexed to the said recited Order, which relates to the duties on wines, spirits, strong waters, or cordials, admitted for consumption in the garrison, be rescinded and abolished from and after the publication in Gibraltar of this Order, and that thereupon the Schedule annexed to this Order be substituted in lieu thereof; and that all the provisions and enactments of the said recited Order, applicable to the said part of Schedule A, annexed to the said recited Order, shall apply to the Schedule annexed to this Order, as if it were embodied in, and formed part of, the said recited Order:

And the Right Honourable Earl de Grey and Ripon, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Arthur Helps.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 410th Section of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, it is enacted that upon the completion of any new lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the master or owner of any ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof; and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, and by the same means and subject to the same conditions, in, by, and subject to which the light dues authorised to be levied by the said Act are paid and collected: And whereas the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses are erecting and are about to light a new lighthouse on Skerviule Rock, in the Sound of Jura:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in exercise of the powers vested in her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that upon the completion and lighting of the said light there shall be paid in respect of the said light, for every vessel whether British or Foreign, which may pass or derive benefit from such light, the toll of one penny per ton, of the burthen of every such vessel for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom, if on an oversea voyage; and two-sixteenths of a penny per ton for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom, if on a coasting voyage, and that the said tolls in respect to the said lighthouse shall be levied by the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, subject to the gross abatement or discount of sixty per cent., and other regulations and abatements, mentioned in the new consolidated tables of light duties, sanctioned by an Order in Council dated the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate in the parochial chapelry of All Saints, Cockermouth, within the parish of Brigham, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parochial chapelry of All Saints, Cockermouth, and of the parish of Bridekirk, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parochial chapelry and parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parochial chapelry of All Saints, Cockermouth, and of the said parish of Bridekirk, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Honorable and Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, as such Bishop, of the Right Honorable William, Earl of Lonsdale, the patron both of the perpetual curacy of the parochial chapelry of All Saints, Cockermouth aforesaid, and of the vicarage of the parish of Brigham aforesaid, and of Fretcheville Lawson Ballantyne Dykes, of Dovenby Hall, in the said county of Cumberland, Esquire, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Bridekirk (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parochial chapelry of All Saints, Cockermouth, and of the said parish of Bridekirk, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church called Christ Church, as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Christ Church, Cockermouth;' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised jointly by the Honorable and Right Reverend Samuel Waldegrave, Doctor in Divinity, now Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, by the Reverend Edward Auriol, of 35, Mecklenburgh-square, in the county of Middlesex, Clerk, and by the Reverend Herbert Boyne Lavallin Puxley, of Cockermouth, Clerk, their heirs and assigns.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Christ Church, Cockermouth, being:—

"All that portion of the ancient parochial chapelry of All Saints, Cockermouth, in the parish of Brigham, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, which is comprised within so much of the township of Cockermouth as is situate to the west of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the River Cocker, and also all those two detached portions of the same township, which are situate to the north of the River Derwent, and are numbered respectively 17 and 338 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Brigham, and upon the map hereunto annexed; and also all that portion of the parish of Bridekirk, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the hamlet of Goat."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty, King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty, King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate at Pendleton, in the parish of Eccles, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate at Pendleton aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Eccles, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate at Pendleton aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Pendleton.'

"And, with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend James Pelham Pitcairn, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Eccles, shall remain such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the performance of the said offices in the church of Saint Thomas, situate at Pendleton as aforesaid, shall be paid by the minister of such church to the said James Pelham Pitcairn.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Pendleton, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Eccles, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the north-east of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said parish from the particular district of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Bolton and Pendleton turnpike-road opposite to the milestone indicating three miles from Manchester; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the said road for a distance of one hundred and forty-five yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to a boundary pillar of iron, inscribed 'P. St. T. D. C., 1865, No. 1,' and placed on the southern side of such road in the middle of the north-eastern end of the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the park belonging to Acresfield House; and extending thence, first south-westward, to the said boundary pillar; and continuing thence, first south-westward, thence south-eastward, and then again south-westward, along the middle of the said park wall or fence, to another boundary pillar of iron, inscribed 'P. St. T. D. C. 1865, No. 2,' and placed at the southern extremity of the same wall or fence on the northern side of the turnpike-road commonly called Eccles Old-road; and extending thence, first southward to the middle of the last-named road, and then eastward along the middle of the same road, for a distance of five hundred and sixty-nine yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of a certain private road leading to the Buile Hill Estate; and extending thence southward to and along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with the public footpath leading past Spring-bank into Sandy-lane; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said public footpath to its junction with the last-named lane; and extending thence southward along the middle of the same lane, for a distance of twenty-seven yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of another public footpath connecting Sandy-lane with Seedley-lane; and continuing thence, still southward, to and along the middle of the last-described footpath, to its junction with the last-named lane; and continuing thence, first southward and then south-eastward, and finally north-eastward, along the middle of the same lane, passing Seedley Print Works and Seedley House, to the junction of such lane with High Field-lane; and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with Hodge-lane; and continuing thence in a direct line, still southward, across Hodge-lane to a boundary pillar of iron, inscribed 'P. St. T. D. C. 1865, No. 3,' and placed on the boundary which divides the said parish of Eccles from the new parish of Christ Church, Salford, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point near the northern fence of the Liverpool and Manchester Line of the London and North-Western Railway."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church, called Christ Church, situate in Down-street, May Fair, in the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, called Christ Church, situate in Down-street, May Fair, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, called Christ Church, situate in Down-street, May Fair, as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, May Fair.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being:

Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Henry Howarth, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, shall remain such rector or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the performance of the said offices in the church, called Christ Church, as aforesaid, shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said Henry Howarth.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, May Fair, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said parish from the parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of Piccadilly, opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Stratton-street; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-named street to its extremity; and extending thence eastward to the wall on the eastern side of such street, which forms the western boundary of the gardens at the rear of Devonshire House; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such wall, to the western end of the passage which leads from Bolton-row to Berkeley-street; and extending thence still north-westward across the said passage to the wall which forms the boundary of Lansdowne House; and extending thence first generally westward and then northward, and then eastward along the middle of the said boundary wall, passing behind the houses in Bolton-row aforesaid, and behind the Lambeth Mews, and behind the houses in Charles-street, and behind the house in Berkeley-square, numbered 53, and so numbered on the map hereunto annexed to the wall which divides the gardens in front of Lansdowne House from the said house in Berkeley-square numbered 53 as aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described boundary wall to the southern corner of Berkeley-square, near the eastern end of Charles-street; and extending thence first westward to the middle of the last-named street, and then south-westward and then westward along the middle of the same street to its junction with Union-street; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street, as far as its intersection by Hill-street; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with South Audley-street; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Tilney-street; and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Dean-street; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Park-lane, at Stanhope Gate; and extending thence westward across the said lane, and through the said Stanhope Gate, to a point in the middle of the road which skirts the eastern side of Hyde Park; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described road, and through the central gate at Hyde Park Corner to the boundary in the middle of the western end of Piccadilly aforesaid, which divides the said parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, from the parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, as first mentioned; and extending thence north-eastward along the said boundary, thereby following the middle of Piccadilly, as far as the point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Stratton-street, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for compensating the Reverend William John Saint Aubyn, Clerk, the Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Stoke Damerel, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, for the loss of certain fees, dues, or other emoluments which has been occasioned by reason of proceedings under the said Act.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us, that the fees, dues, or other emoluments of the said William John Saint Aubyn, as such rector or incumbent as aforesaid, have been diminished by reason of the constitution, under the provisions of the said Act, of the district of Saint Stephen, Devonport, which has since become a new parish under the provisions of the same Act, and that the assignment to the said William John Saint Aubyn of the annual sum hereinafter mentioned would be a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us to the said William John Saint Aubyn, the Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Stoke Damerel aforesaid, so long as he shall remain such rector or incumbent, and no longer, the annual sum of eighteen pounds by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, by way of compensation for the loss of fees, dues, or other emoluments sustained by him by reason of the formation of the district of Saint Stephen, Devonport, which has since become a new parish as before mentioned.

"And we further recommend and propose, that payment of the said annual sum of eighteen pounds shall be held to commence as from the twenty-first day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, being the day on which a church, provided for the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Devonport, was consecrated, and from which day the incumbent of the same new parish became empowered to perform in the church thereof various offices which had heretofore been performed at the church of the said parish of Stoke Damerel, and also became entitled to receive and retain for his own benefit the fees accruing therefrom.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 7th day of August, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice, in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year; that the said several payments so recommended to be made by us shall commence and be calculated as from the dates which are set opposite to the names of such benefices respectively, in the fourth column of the same schedule: Provided always, that the grants so recommended to be made by us to the several benefices of Brent Pelham with Furneaux Pelham, Holy Trinity, Hoxton, Shildon, and Weeford with Hints, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or before the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, of certificates under the hands of the Bishops of the respective dioceses, that a curate duly licensed by such Bishop has in each instance been employed within the parish or district during the preceding half year; and provided also, that a portion, amounting to a yearly sum of one hundred and twenty pounds, of the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Saint Matthew, Newbottle, shall be paid only upon the production, as aforesaid, of a like certificate; and provided also, that a further portion of the lastly-mentioned grant, amounting to one hundred pounds, shall cease and determine immediately upon and from the avoidance of the rectory of the parish of Houghton-le-Spring, in the county and diocese of Durham, next ensuing after the date of this scheme; and provided also, that the grant which is hereinbefore recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Saint John, Walworth, shall cease and determine immediately upon and from the avoidance of the rectory of Saint Mary, Newington, in the county of Surrey and diocese of London, next ensuing after the date of this scheme; and provided, lastly, that the grants, payment whereof is so herein recommended to be made by us conditionally upon the employment of assistant curates, shall continue in force so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the respective cures in favour of which the same conditional grants are so recommended and proposed.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the messuages, lands, and premises, tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, and other hereditaments, particularly described in the second and three following schedules hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons hereinafter mentioned, that is to say; that the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Llansaintffraid-yn-Mechan, in the county of Montgomery and diocese of Saint Asaph, formerly belonging to the sinecure rectory of Llansaintffraid-yn-Mechan, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Christ Church, Bwlch-y-Ciban, in the same county and diocese, and that the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy shall be entitled to receive the profits of the tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, so to be annexed by us as aforesaid, as from the seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five; that the lands and hereditaments described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Draycot, in the parishes of Cheddar and Rodney Stoke, in the county of Somerset and diocese of Bath and Wells, which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the eighteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and made between Thomas Gilling, of Cheddar aforesaid, Gentleman, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the said diocese of Bath and Wells, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint Peter, Draycot, aforesaid, and that the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy, shall be entitled to receive the rents and profits of the lands and hereditaments so to be annexed by us as last mentioned, as from the said eighteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, that the lands and hereditaments described in the fourth schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Borden, in the county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury, which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the thirtieth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made between John Coveney, of the Manor-house, Swanscombe, in the said county of Kent, Esquire, of the first part, Mary Tapley, of Number 31, Church-street, Old Kent-road, in the county of Surrey, Widow, of the second part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the said diocese of Canterbury, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Iwade, in the said county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury, and that the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy shall be entitled to receive the rents and profits of the lands and hereditaments so to be annexed by us as last mentioned, as from the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, being the date from which the conveyance to us of the said lands and hereditaments took effect, that the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises, described in the fifth schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Skelmanthorpe, in the township of Cumberworth, in the parish of High Hoyland, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon, which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the seventeenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and made between Charles Wemyss, of Gawthorne, in the West Riding of the said county of York, Land Agent, of the first part, John Spencer Stanhope, of Cannon-hall, in the parish of Gawthorne aforesaid, Esquire, of the second part; and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the said diocese of Ripon, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint Augustine, Scissett, in the same county and diocese, and that the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy shall be entitled to receive the rents and profits of the lands and hereditaments so to be annexed by us as last mentioned, as from the said seventeenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the yearly sum or rent-charge of twenty pounds, arising out of or upon certain lands called Burtholme, situate within the parish of Lanercost, in the county of Cumberland and diocese of Carlisle, which was conveyed to us by a certain deed of appointment, bearing date the twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and duly executed by the Right Honorable George William Frederick, Earl of Carlisle, since deceased, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the said diocese of Carlisle, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Lanercost Abbey, in the said county of Cumberland and diocese of Carlisle, and that the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy shall be entitled to receive the yearly sum or rent-charge so to be annexed by us as last mentioned, as from the said twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

"And we further recommend and propose that the lands and hereditaments numbered 405 upon the tithe commutation map of the township of Bishop Monkton, in the parish of Ripon, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon, comprising four acres and fourteen perches, or thereabouts, now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Bishop Monkton aforesaid, and that the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy shall be entitled to receive the rents and profits of the lands and hereditaments so to be annexed as last-mentioned as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

"And we further recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered to pay out of the common fund aforesaid, on behalf of the benefices specified in the sixth schedule hereunto annexed, such annual sums as may be necessary for discharging the yearly instalments which, in respect of interest and principal monies may, from and after the dates set opposite to the names of the said benefices, respectively, in the fourth column of the same schedule, become from time to time due and owing on account of certain mortgages of the said several benefices which, by certain deeds bearing the respective dates set forth in the fifth column of the same schedule, have been effected under the provisions of the Acts known as 'Gilbert's Acts,' enabling the governors of the bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy, to lend money for the purpose of providing residences for the clergy.

"And we further recommend and propose, that if at any time it shall appear desirable to us that any lands, tithe, or other hereditaments should be substituted for the annual sums hereinbefore-mentioned, or any of them, or any part thereof, nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such substitution, or any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the endowment of the archdeaconry of Stafford, in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas by three several Orders of your Majesty in Council, the first bearing date the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and duly gazetted in the London Gazette of the eleventh day of the same month and year; the second bearing date the eleventh day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and duly gazetted in the London Gazette of the fifteenth day of the same month and year; and the third bearing date the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and duly gazetted in the London Gazette of the fourteenth day of the same month and year; it was provided that, until the next vacancy of a canonry in the cathedral church of Lichfield, there should be paid by us, out of the common fund under our control, to the Archdeacon of Stafford for the time being, the annual sum of one hundred and thirty-two pounds, on the first day of January in every year.

"And whereas a canonry in the said cathedral church of Lichfield has, since the passing of the lastly above-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council, become vacant, and the above-mentioned annual grant has therefore ceased to be payable under the provisions of the said recited Orders; but such canonry has not been annexed to the said archdeaconry of Stafford.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose (with the consent of the Right Reverend John, bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme) that there shall continue to be paid by us, out of the said common fund, to the Venerable Henry Moore, the present archdeacon of Stafford, so long as he shall hold the said archdeaconry, and no longer, and shall duly reside within the said diocese of Lichfield, according to law, or shall obtain license of non-residence, the said annual sum of one hundred and thirty-two pounds, on the first day of January in every year.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said archdeaconry, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"Whereas under and by virtue of various Orders of your Majesty in Council, which have from time to time been published in the London Gazette, the several annual sums or stipends, the amounts of which are specified in the fourth column of the schedule hereunto annexed, have been made payable by us to the incumbents, for the time being, of the several benefices which are specified in the same schedule, subject to the production to us, on or before the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, of certificates, under the hand of the bishops of the respective dioceses, that curates, duly licensed by such bishops respectively, have been employed within the limits of the several cures hereinbefore referred to respectively during the preceeding half year.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that an addition should be made to the amount of each of such annual sums or stipends as herein-after set forth.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, as from the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, to the incumbents for the time being of the several benefices specified in the said schedule, in addition to the sums specified in the fourth column of such schedule, the yearly sums which are set opposite to the names of the said several benefices respectively in the fifth column of the same schedule; and that such additional payments shall be made by us subject to the production to us in each instance of a certificate from the bishop of the diocese to the effect of that hereinbefore mentioned, and subject to all the other conditions, if any, upon which the annual sums or stipends firstly hereinbefore mentioned were respectively voted and made payable by us.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Acts of Parliament.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"Whereas the several benefactions, consisting of cash or of land, tithe rent-charge, or other hereditaments, which are mentioned in the fourth column of the schedule hereunto annexed, have been paid over to us in favour of, or have been otherwise secured to, the several benefices set forth in the first column of the same schedule respectively, upon condition that certain capital sums hereinafter mentioned should be appropriated by us to the said several benefices respectively.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered to appropriate out of the "common fund" created by the herein firstly-mentioned Act, to each of the several benefices specified in the first column of the said Schedule hereunto annexed respectively, the capital sum set against the name of each such benefice in the fifth column of the same schedule, and that such capital sums respectively, or any part or parts thereof, may be paid and applied by us towards the purchase or acquisition, for such livings respectively, or any one or more of them, of any land, tithe, or other hereditaments, which may appear to us to be suitable for annexation to such benefices respectively, or towards defraying the cost of providing suitable parsonage-houses for the same.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"Whereas the several benefices specified in the schedule hereunto annexed do not at present possess houses fit and suitable to be used as the residences of the incumbents of such benefices respectively.

"And whereas certain lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, situate or arising within the limits of the several parishes, are or have been vested in us under and for the purposes of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, and it appears to us to be expedient that some provision should be made for the residence of the incumbents of such benefices, until suitable houses shall have been provided for the permanent use and occupation of the incumbents for the time being of such benefices respectively.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered to pay, out of the common fund created by the firstly-mentioned Act, by half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the said benefices respectively, an annual sum of thirty-five pounds; provided always, that when and so soon as arrangements shall have been made resulting in the erection or provision, to our satisfaction, of a suitable house of residence for any such benefice, the annual payment so recommended by us in the case of such benefice shall absolutely cease and determine; and provided also that the grants hereinbefore recommended to be made by us to the incumbents of the benefices of Halam and Edingley, in the county of Nottingham, shall not be payable as aforesaid after the date of the avoidance of either of the lastly-mentioned benefices which may happen next after the date of this scheme.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said several annual payments hereinbefore recommended to be made by us shall commence and take effect as from the dates which are severally specified and set opposite to the names of the said benefices respectively in the last column of the same schedule.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing to your Majesty in Council any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for adding to and improving the episcopal house of residence in the city of Peterborough, belonging to the Bishop of Peterborough.

"Whereas by a scheme prepared in pursuance of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts, and duly ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventh day of January now last past, which Order was published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of the same month of January, certain alterations and improvements were recommended and proposed to be made in the episcopal house of residence in the city of Peterborough, belonging to the Bishop of Peterborough, and the said Bishop was authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and the said Governors were empowered to lend, by way of mortgage, the sum of two thousand pounds, towards defraying the cost of such alterations and improvements.

"And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Francis, Bishop of Peterborough, that the said episcopal house of residence at Peterborough aforesaid requires certain further alterations and improvements to be made therein, in order to render it suitable and convenient, and it has been proposed to us by the said Bishop, and it appears to us to be expedient, that towards defraying the cost of effecting such further alterations and improvements, a sum of one thousand eight hundred pounds, being, together with the sum of two thousand pounds lastly hereinbefore mentioned, a sum not exceeding two years' income of the see, should be provided by borrowing the same by way of mortgage upon the security of all or any part of the endowments of or belonging to the bishoprick.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Francis, Bishop of Peterborough, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorised to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend, under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts, the sum of one thousand eight hundred pounds, and as a security for the same that the said Bishop do mortgage all or any part of the endowments now belonging or which hereafter may belong to his said see to the said Governors by deed for the term of thirty-five years, or until the said sum of one thousand eight hundred pounds with the interest for the same, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in manner following, that is to say, from and after the expiration of the first year of the said term computed from the day of the date of the mortgage in which year no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, the said Bishop, or his successors, shall yearly and every year pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one thirtieth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall at the end of the first and each succeeding year pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid; and if, and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors their successors and assigns, to recover the same, and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof, by distress and sale, in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale; and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said Francis, Bishop of Peterborough, as every succeeding Bishop of the said see, until the principal money, and interest, costs, and charges, shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of one thousand eight hundred pounds shall be paid to us, and that the receipt of our joint treasurers, for the time being, endorsed on the said mortgage deed, shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said governors and their successors for the same who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum of one thousand eight hundred pounds, the whole, or any part or parts thereof, shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said further alterations and improvements in the episcopal house of residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Peterborough.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Kentish Town, some time part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and out of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock-hill, also some time part of the said parish of Saint Pancras.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parishes of Kentish Town and of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock-hill, hereinafter-mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Pancras have become vested in us, under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all that portion of the said new parish of Kentish Town, and also all that portion of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock-hill, which are respectively mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette, of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Andrew, Haverstock-hill.'

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed, according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that, instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister of the said district, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister and his successors, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Andrew, Haverstock-hill, being:—

"All that portion of the new parish of Kentish Town, some time part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides such new parish from the parish of Hampstead, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the fence forming the northern boundary of the line of the Hampstead and North London Junction Railway; and extending thence, eastward, along the middle of such fence for a distance of three hundred and six yards, or thereabouts, to a point on the boundary which divides the said new parish of Kentish Town from the district of Saint Martin, Kentish Town, also some time part of the said parish of Saint Pancras, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'K.T. St. M.D., 1864, No. 5,' and placed on the southern side of the said line of railway. And also all that portion of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock-hill, also some time part of the said parish of Saint Pancras, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such new parish from the new parish of Saint Saviour, South Hampstead, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Hampstead-road, opposite to the middle of the western end of the Prince of Wales's-road; and extending thence, eastward, to and along the middle of the last-named road, as far as a point on the boundary opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Weedington-road, which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock-hill, from the district of Saint Martin, Kentish Town aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the new parish of Kentish Town, and of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock-hill, respectively, out of which said new parishes it is proposed that the district recommended in the said scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and the patrons of both the said new parishes and the incumbent of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock-hill, have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the incumbent of the said new parish of Kentish Town has offered or made certain observations or objections upon or to the said scheme, which observations or objections have, together with such scheme, been laid before Her Majesty in Council.

And whereas, notwithstanding the said observations or objections, the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight the 7th day of August, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district, for spiritual purposes, out of the parish of Saint James, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and out of the new parish of Saint Luke, Westminster, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Saint

James, Westminster, and of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Westminster, which are herein-after mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship) should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas a sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to our account at the Bank of England by certain persons in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being, and we have in respect thereof agreed with the said persons so contributing the said sum of three thousand pounds as aforesaid, and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister as aforesaid, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, and to his successors, the yearly sum of one hundred pounds.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we should pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-named Act to the minister for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when such minister shall have been duly licensed as before mentioned, the annual sum of fifty pounds, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all those portions of the said parish of Saint James, Westminster, and of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Westminster, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint John the Baptist, Great Marlborough-street.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered to pay, out of the common fund before referred to, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of fifty pounds in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November, and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the license of such minister as aforesaid, and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the rector or incumbent for the time being of the rectory of the said parish of Saint James, Westminster.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint John the Baptist, Great Marlborough-street, being:—

"All those portions of the parish of Saint James, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and of the new parish of Saint Luke, Westminster, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish from the new parish of All Saints, in Saint Marylebone, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of Oxford-street opposite to the middle of the north-western end of Poland-street; and extending thence, south-eastward, to and along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Broad-street; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of New-street; and extending thence, south-eastward, to and along the middle of the last-named street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the wall which forms the southern boundary of the stables and premises now in the occupation of Samuel Groves, Carman, and which are numbered 21, and are also similarly numbered upon the map hereunto annexed; and extending thence, south-westward, to and along the middle of the said boundary wall as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of William and Mary-yard; and extending thence, south-eastward, to and along the middle of the said yard to its junction with Little Pulteney-street; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, to the boundary in the middle of the last-named street which divides the said new parish of Saint Luke, Westminster, from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Peter, Great Windmill-street, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, south-westward, along the last-described boundary, following thereby the middle of Little Pulteney-street, to the junction of such boundary with the boundary dividing the said consolidated chapelry from the parish of Saint James, Westminster aforesaid; and continuing thence, still south-westward, along the last-described boundary, following thereby the middle of Brewer-street, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Bridle-street; and extending thence, north-westward, to and along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Silver-street; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last-named street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Marshall-street; and extending thence, north-westward, to and along the middle of the last-named street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of South-row; and extending thence, south-westward, to and along the middle of the said row as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of West-street; and extending thence, north-westward, to and along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Tyler's-court; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the said court to its junction with Carnaby-street; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Great Marlborough-street; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the last-named street, and along the middle of Argyll-place, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Argyll-street; and extending thence, north-westward, to and along the middle of the last-named street, to the junction of such street with Oxford-street aforesaid; and continuing thence, still north-westward, to a point on the boundary in the middle of the last-named street which divides the said parish of Saint James, Westminster, from the district rectory of All Souls, in Saint Marylebone, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the last-described boundary, following thereby the middle of Oxford-street aforesaid to the junction of such boundary with the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint James, Westminster, from the new parish of All Saints, in Saint Marylebone aforesaid; and continuing thence, in the same direction, along the last-described boundary, still following the middle of Oxford-street, to the junction of such boundary with the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Luke, Westminster, from the new parish of All Saints, in Saint Marylebone, as first described; and continuing thence, still north-eastward, along the boundary last referred to, still following the middle of Oxford-street, as far as the first-described point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of Poland-street, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the parish and new parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and the said incumbents and patrons have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

The Right Honourable Sir William Erle, Knt., Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, has appointed George Francis Eland, of No. 4, Trafalgar-square, Westminster, Gentleman, to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance, in and for the city and liberties of Westminster, also in and for the city of London, and the county of Middlesex.

The Right Honourable Sir William Erle, Knt., Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, has also appointed Tom John Pitts Tucker, of Barnstaple, in the county of Devon, Gentleman, to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance, in and for the county of Devon.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

WERNETH, IN THE COUNTY OF CHESTER.

WHEREAS a Resolution for the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, was, on the 24th day of November last, passed by the Township of Werneth, in the county of Chester; and notice thereof, in writing, was given to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act, and appeal has been duly made to me against the validity of the vote for the adoption of the said Act; and inquiry has been directed into the matters therein alleged, and report made to me thereon:

"Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as aforesaid, do hereby make order, with respect to the matters in question on such appeal, as follows, namely:—that the said vote for the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, passed by the said Township of Werneth, in the county of Chester, on the 24th day of November last, was invalid.

Given under my hand this 5th day of August, 1865.

(Signed) G. Grey.

Home Office, Whitehall.

NOTICE OF INTENDED DISTRIBUTION OF NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House, August 3, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and to all persons interested therein, that the distribution of the tonnage bounty of a slave dhow, name unknown, captured on the 15th April, 1864, by the "Penguin," tender to Her Majesty's ship "Narcissus," will commence on Tuesday, the 15th instant, in the Prize Branch of the Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House."

Agents and other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share of any captor, serving in the above-named ship, are requested to present the same at this office.

Any Officer, Seaman, Marine, or other person, who may desire to receive his share from the Collector of Customs or of Inland Revenue within the United Kingdom, is required to intimate the same by letter to be addressed "On Prize Business, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, London," (enclosing his certificate of service or an attested copy thereof, excepting in the case of Commissioned Officers),—in which letter his own place of residence is to be precisely stated, as well as the place of the nearest Collector of Customs, or of Inland Revenue, from whom it would be convenient to receive such share of prize money.

The following are the shares due to an individual in the several classes:—

NOTICE is hereby given, that the amalgamation of the undertaking of the Hereford, Hay, and Brecon Railway Company with the united undertaking of the Brecon and Merthyr Tydfil Junction Railway Company has been settled, and will take effect on and from the 25th day of August instant.—Dated this 2nd day of August, 1865.

By order,
Wm. Roberts, Secretary.

County of Northumberland, 1865.

AT the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, held at Hexham, in and for the said county, on the 28th day of June, in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland,

Queen, Defender of the Faith, before Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace assigned to keep the Peace in the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors, done and committed therein.

Highway Act.

Proposed Alteration in the Hexham Highway District.

(Final Order.)

Whereas in pursuance to the provisions of the Highway Act, 1862, and Highway Act, 1864, notice was given by John Blenkinsopp Coulson, Gustavus Hamilton Coulson, William Gibson, Esquires, and the Rev. Dixon Brown and John Mason Mason, Clerks, being five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for this county, not less than two of whom are resident in the Highway District, as thereafter proposed, or acting in the Petty Sessional Division, in which such district, or some part thereof, is situate, by writing under their hands, requiring the Clerk of the Peace to add to or send with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of the next Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice in the Form marked A in the Schedule to the Highway Act, 1862, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit, that at this Court a proposal would be made to the Justices then and there assembled, to alter the Hexham Highway District formed under the Highway Act, 1862, by the subtracting therefrom of certain parishes or places thereafter mentioned, and to form a new Highway District, by the union of the said parishes or places now forming part of the existing Hexham Highway District; that is to say:—

Bellister,	Thorngraston,
Blenkinsopp,	Thirlwall,
Coanwood,	Wall Town,
Featherstone,	Wydou,
Haltwhistle,	Kirkhaugh,
Hartleyburn,	High Quarter,
Henshaw,	Low Quarter,
Melkridge,	Asholme,
Plenneller,	Lambley,
Ridley,	Whitfield,

and requiring the Clerk of the Peace to send by post, in a prepaid letter, notices, in the aforesaid form to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish mentioned in the said notice. And whereas the said Clerk of the Peace added the said notice to that required by law to be given of the holding of these sessions, and posted, in a prepaid letter, the notice referred to by the Act to all the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish comprised in the said Hexham Highway District. And whereas at such first-mentioned Quarter Sessions, the Justices aforesaid, having entertained the said proposal, and after due consideration had in the premises, did, by their Provisional Order, alter the said Hexham Highway District, by the subtraction therefrom of the said parishes and places hereinbefore mentioned and set forth, and to form a new Highway District by the union of the said parishes and places now forming part of the existing Hexham Highway District, for the more convenient management of highways; and that the said proposed new Highway District be called the Haltwhistle Highway District. And whereas the Justices at the last-mentioned Quarter Sessions did appoint the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden at the Court-house, at Hexham, in and for the said county of Northumberland, on Wednesday, the 28th day of June, 1865, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order. And whereas such Provisional Order has been duly published in the London Gazette, and in two newspapers circulating in the said county, and a copy of such Order has been sent by post, in a prepaid letter, to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish within the said Hexham Highway District, and there was added to the notice of the said Provisional Order a notice that the Justices of the said Sessions did thereby appoint these present General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at Hexham, in this county, on Wednesday, the 28th day of June, 1865, for the taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order, by a Final Order. And whereas the said Clerk of the Peace did send with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of Courts of General Quarter Sessions, a notice in form marked B in the schedule of the said Act (25 and 26 Vic., cap. 61), or as near thereto as circumstances admit of, the appointment so made by the Justices in relation to the confirmation of the said Provisional Order. And whereas, in the said Provisional Order no date was stated on and from which the said Hexham Highway District should be altered. And whereas, for the better adjustment of matters of account arising between parishes or parts of the said Highway District, it is desirable that the said Highway District should not be altered before the 31st day of December next. Now at this Court of Quarter Sessions (being the Court of Quarter Sessions so appointed as aforesaid for the taking into consideration the confirmation of the said Provisional Order), the Justices assembled, after fully considering the matter in all its bearings, and hearing all objections thereto, do make this Further and Final Order confirming the said Provisional Order, with the following variation, that is to say—The said Justices do hereby Order that the said Hexham Highway District be altered in manner aforesaid on and from the 31st day of December next. And, lastly, it is ordered, that the first meeting of the Highway Board for the said Haltwhistle District shall be held at the Board Room, in Haltwhistle, in the said district, on the 11th day of January next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

By the Court,
Dickson.

CONTRACT FOR RUM.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, August 7,
1865.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Friday, the 25th instant, at twelve of the clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles, viz:—

50,000 gallons of Rum; to be delivered within three weeks from date of contract.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the rum.

All the casks (except such as may be required for Her Majesty's Service) are to be taken away from the said Stores by and at the expense of the party whose tender is accepted.

Parties tendering are to state a price per proof gallon for the rum, the casks being removed, and also a price per proof gallon for the rum in the event of the casks being retained for Her Majesty's Service.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The rum to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Payment for the rum will be made for the proof gallons to one-tenth of a gallon, the liquid contents being ascertained to the half gallon.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contract, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Rum," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

CONTRACTS FOR PEPPER, RAISINS, SUGAR, AND TEA.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, August 7,
1865.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Wednesday, the 23rd instant, at twelve o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Pepper, 10,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Raisins, 50,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Sugar, 500,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tea, 100,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per lb.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Separate tenders are to be made for each article.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The articles to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the pepper (not less than 2 lbs.), and of the raisins (not less than 3 lbs.), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for sugar must specify the mark and landing number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each import mark) must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different marks or several imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same mark or average quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

Each tender for tea must specify the import mark and number of each parcel, the ship in which imported, the dock or warehouse where lying, and must be accompanied by an average sample (not less than two pounds) of each parcel. Tenders failing in any of these conditions will not be entertained.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tenders will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantities and rates; and contractors in claiming payment for articles supplied are to make out their invoices in accordance therewith, both as to quantities and rates.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset House.

COOPER C. BROOKE, Solicitor to the said Executors.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act passed in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intitled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of a Freehold Farm and Lands at White Lea, in the parish of Batley, in the county of York, containing 22 acres, or thereabouts, devised by the Will of Ann Hudswell, and in the occupation of Abram Thompson.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition in the above-mentioned matters was, on the 8th day of May, 1865, presented to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, by the Reverend William Hudswell, of Leeds, in the county of York; Independent Minister, William Kettlewell, of Leeds aforesaid, Linen Draper, Thomas Baines, of Cottingham, in the parish of Bingley, in the said county of York, Worsted Manufacturer, and Eliza, his Wife; Joseph Myers, of Bradford, in the said county of York, Cashier, and Julia, his Wife, Kaberry Baines, of Cottingham aforesaid, Worsted Manufacturer, Movinda Baines, of the same place, Spinster, and Percy Baines, an infant, by John Clarke, of Hunslet, in the parish of Leeds, in the county of York, Engineer, his guardian, Peter Kettlewell, of Leeds aforesaid, Commission Agent, and Ann, his Wife, Frederick Kettlewell, of Leeds aforesaid, Merchant, and Emily Kettlewell, of the same place, Spinster, Ellen Crossley, of Llandudno, in the county of Carnarvon, Widow, and Emeline Crossley, Herbert Crossley, Caroline Crossley, Frederick

Fielding Crossley, and Stanley Crossley, respectively infants, by the said John Clarke, their guardian, praying that a certain agreement, dated the 19th day of May, 1864, particularly mentioned and set forth in the said Petition, and being an agreement for a lease of the coal lying and being under the said freehold farm and land, or some part thereof, might be carried into effect; and that it might be ordered that power to grant such lease, in conformity with the said Act, might be vested in the Petitioners William Hudswell and William Kettlewell; that three fourth parts, or such other parts as the Court might think proper, of the whole rents or payments to be reserved on the said lease might be set aside by the petitioners William Hudswell and William Kettlewell, or other the trustees or trustee for the time being of the will of the said Ann Hudswell; and that the same might be from time to time invested by such trustees or trustee in the purchase of Bank £3 per cent. Annuities, in their or his names or name; and that one equal third part of the interest during the respective lives of the petitioners Eliza Baines, Ann Kettlewell, and Ellen Crossley, to accrue due on the Bank annuities so to be purchased, be paid to each of the last-named petitioners, on her separate receipt; that the costs and expenses of the petitioners of and incident to that application (except so far as such costs and expenses might be provided for by the said agreement) might be taxed by the proper Taxing Officer of this Court, and that the amount thereof, when so taxed, be raised and paid by the said trustees out of any funds that were then or might thereafter be in their hands, subject to the trusts of the said will; or that his Lordship would be pleased to make such further or other Order in the premises as to his Lordship should seem meet. And notice is hereby also given, that the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the office of their Solicitors, Messrs. Hensman and Nicholson, situate at No. 25, College-hill, Cannon-street West, in the city of London.—Dated this 5th day of August, 1865.

HENSMAN and NICHOLSON, Solicitors for the Petitioners.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the 19th and 20 years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of the trusts of the will of Francis John Stephens, deceased, with respect to one equal fourth part of two acres and a half of freehold land, situate in West Field, in the parish of Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, and with respect to one equal fourth part of a copyhold messuage and gardens, and of a piece of meadow-land, containing four acres, and of five customary messuages or cottages and gardens, respectively held of the Manor of Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, and situate in the parish of Ealing aforesaid.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition in the above-mentioned matters was, on the 19th day of July, 1865, presented to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, by Elizabeth Stephens, of Boulogne, in the Empire of France, Widow, and Francis George Stephens, an infant under the age of 21 years, by Charles Henry Howell, of No. 3, Lancaster-place, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Architect and Surveyor, his special guardian appointed for the purposes of the said Petition, praying, that a sale might be authorized and directed of the said petitioners' said one equal fourth part or share of the aforesaid freehold, copyhold, and customary hereditaments devised by the will of the said Francis John Stephens, and that for the purposes of such sale the petitioner Elizabeth Stephens might be directed to concur with the persons entitled to the other three equal fourth parts, or shares, of the said freehold, copyhold, and customary hereditaments, in a sale of the said freehold, copyhold, and customary hereditaments, as a whole or in lots, by public auction, and to execute the deed or deeds of conveyance and assurance of the said hereditaments to the purchaser or respective purchasers thereof, on such sale being effected, so as to pass the said one equal fourth part, or share; and that one equal fourth part of the moneys to arise by such sale might be paid into the Bank, with the privity of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, to the account of the Accountant-General of the said Court, exparte the said petitioners in the matter of the said Act; and that the costs and expenses of the petitioners and all other necessary and proper parties of and incident to the application, and of and incident to the aforesaid sale, might be taxed as between Solicitor and client, and that the amount of such costs and expenses, when taxed, might be paid out of the money so to be paid into the Bank as aforesaid; and that the residue of the said money might be laid out in the purchase of Bank £3 per Cent. Annuities, and that the dividends to accrue thereon might be paid to the petitioner Elizabeth Stephens during her life, or until the further Order of the Court; and that for the several purposes aforesaid all proper directions might be given, or that his Lordship would be pleased to make such further or other Order in the premises as to his Lordship might seem meet. And notice is hereby also given, that the said petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the office of their Solicitors, Messrs. Lawrie and Keen, situate at Nos. 2 and 3, Deans'-court, Doctors'-commons, London.—Dated this 5th day of August, 1865.
