and by the several Acts continuing the same as aforesaid, order as follows:—

1. That in this Order the word "cattle" shall be interpreted to mean any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf.

2. That after the date of the publication of this Order in the London Gazette, it shall not be lawful for any person to remove any cattle from any port or place within that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, to any port or place within that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland.

And the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give such directions herein as may be necessary to ensure due obedience to this Order.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 26th day of August, 1865.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Sir George Grey, Bart.
Mr. Secretary Cardwell.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prevent until the 1st day of September, 1850, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," and which has since been from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, it is (amongst other things) enacted that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time, to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other part of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection; and also for the purpose of purifying any yard, stable, outhouse, or other place, or any waggons, carts, carriages, or other vehicles; and also for the purpose of directing how any animals dying in a diseased state, or any animals, parts of animals, or other things seized under the provisions of this Act, are to be disposed of; and also for the purpose of causing notices to be given of the appearance of any disorder among sheep, cattle, or other animals, and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act; and that all persons offending against the said Act shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, or such smaller sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council may in any case by such Order direct:

And whereas several Orders, dated respectively 24th July, and 11th and 18th August, 1865, have been made under the authority of the said Acts by the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, with a view to check the spreading of the cattle disease described in the two last-mentioned Orders.

And whereas it is expedient to vary the said Orders:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council do hereby, by virtue of, and in exercise of the powers given by, the said Acts, order as follows:—

I. That this Order shall extend to all parts of Great Britain:

II. That in this Order the word "animal" shall be interpreted to mean any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf:

III. That whenever the Mayor or other principal officer of any Corporation, or the Justices acting in and for the petty sessional division of any county, or district in the nature of a county, within England or Wales, and the Provost or other principal magistrate of any burgh or town, or the Justices of any county within Scotland, shall have reason to apprehend the approach of the said disease to the district over which his or their jurisdiction extends, it shall be lawful for such Mayor or other principal officer, and for such Justices in England or Wales, and for such Provost or other principal officer, and for such Justices in Scotland, if he or they shall think fit, from time to time to appoint one or more Veterinary Surgeon or Surgeons, or other person or persons duly qualified, to be an Inspector or Inspectors, for the purpose of carrying into effect within the district for which he or they shall have been appointed, the rules and regulations made by the said recited Orders and by this Order. And the same authority may from time to time revoke such appointment.

IV. The powers of every Inspector, appointed under any of the said recited Orders or this Order, shall extend to any fair or market held within his district, and to every other place within such district, in which animals, as defined in this Order, may be found.

V. Every such Inspector shall have power within his district to order and direct that any animal which he suspects to be labouring under such disease shall be kept separate and apart from every other animal which appears to be free from such disease. And every person having the charge of any animals shall obey every such order or direction given by any such Inspector.

VI. Every such Inspector shall have power within his district to seize and slaughter, or cause to be slaughtered, and to cause to be buried in any convenient place, any animal labouring under such disease.

VII. Every such Inspector shall have power within his district to cause to be disinfected, or, if necessary, destroyed, any fodder or manure which he deems likely to propagate the said disease; and every person within such district, upon whose premises any such fodder or manure shall be found, shall obey any order or direction given by such Inspector for that purpose.

VIII. That it shall not be lawful to send or bring to any fair or market, or to send or carry by any railway, or by any ship or vessel coastwise, or to place upon, or to drive along, any highway or the sides thereof, any animal labouring under such disease.

IX. Every person offending against this Order shall for every such offence forfeit any sum, not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 27, for amending the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and for providing for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications.

And whereas it is expedient that the rates of postage now payable on certain newspapers should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said recited Acts, and every of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order, direct, and declare as follows:

1. On every packet consisting of a printed British, colonial, or foreign newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in either of the Danish colonies in the West Indies, or in Mexico, Curaçoa, Costa Rica, Porto Rico, Martinique, or Guadaloupe, addressed to the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post from such respective places to the United Kingdom, either direct or via St. Thomas, by British packet boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable thereon, a rate of British postage of one penny; and if exceeding the weight of four ounces, but not exceeding the weight of eight ounces, a rate of British postage of two pence; and for every additional four ounces in weight of any such newspaper above the weight of eight ounces, an additional rate of one penny shall be charged; and any fractional part of such additional four ounces shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight.

2. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter contained, that is to say:

There shall be no word or communication printed on any newspaper after the publication thereof, or upon any cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon any such newspaper, or upon any cover thereof other than and except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent, but the name or title of such newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, news-vendor or agent, by whom the same is sent may be printed on the cover thereof;

There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper;

No packet which in length shall exceed two feet, or in width or depth one foot, shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant;

Every packet shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides.

3. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, by the post under this Warrant shall in length exceed two feet, or in width or depth one foot, or if any such packet, or the cover or envelope thereof, shall not be open at the ends or sides, or if any such packet shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the terms, conditions, and regulations hereinbefore in the second clause of this Warrant contained, every such respective packet shall be chargeable and shall be treated in all respects as a letter.

4. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty.

5. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

6. This Warrant shall come into operation on the second day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

HYDROGRAPHIC NOTICE.

(No. 17.)—AUSTRALIA—CORAL SEA.

Kelso Bank.

THE following description of a bank of shallow soundings in the Coral Sea, by Robert Black, Commander of the ship "Kelso," has been reported in the Shipping and Mercantile Gazette, of the 8th August, 1865.

"On the morning of April 20th, 1865, on looking over the side at daybreak, observed the water discoloured, but could see the bottom quite plain. Took several casts of the lead, getting bottom from 25 to 13 fathoms, fine coral sand with red specks, small shells, and seaweed, a strong N.E. swell at the time. Could see no broken water from the deck. At 8 a.m. ship clear of the shoal, heading N.N.W., wind N.E.; going from 3 to 4 knots. At noon the ship's position, lat. 23° 54' S.; long. 159° 20' East.; by observations I place the North end of the shoal in lat. 24° 12' S.; long. 159° 27' E. We sailed over it in a N.N.W. direction for two hours, the bottom was distinctly seen the greater part of the time, with large stones covered with seaweed."

As the Kelso bank lies in a frequented track between the Australian colonies and China, the mariner's attention is called to the necessity of a vigilant look-out when in its neighbourhood; as from the general nature of the coral banks of this region shoaler water may exist. To the southward of the Kelso bank, in lat. 25° 15' S., and long. 159° 18' E., H.M.S. "Hyacinth," in 1835, obtained several soundings of from 32 to 40 fathoms, coral and sand; these shoal casts received at the time the name of the Capel bank:—There may be other ridges between these two banks.

The recent surveys of Capt. Denham in the coral sea prove that very deep water exists in the immediate neighbourhood of the Capel and Kelso banks. At 8 miles westward of the position assigned to the latter, that officer tried for bottom with 1025 fathoms of line without success.

HYDROGRAPHIC NOTICE.

(No. 1.)—SOUTH AMERICA—MAGALLAN STRAIT.

THE following information furnished by Commander Paul Shirley, of the United States Gun vessel "Suwanee," has been received from Commodore Harvey, of H.M.S. "Leander," Senior Officer, in the South Pacific.

The Diamond Rock, reported to have been discovered in 1862 by the French gun-boat "Diamond," lying two miles S.S.E. of Cape Tamar, and marked doubtful on the Admiralty Chart, was seen by the "Suwanee," and its existence thus confirmed.

Rock near Cape Charles.

In the month of May a rock was seen in Smyth channel, near Cape Charles, lat. 50° 48' 30" S. It had no kelp on it, and was not awash, but the ripple from the paddles caused the water to break. To avoid this rock keep well on the eastern shore after passing Cape Charles till the opening of the Quia narrows.

Capt. G. M. Bradbury, of the American steam ship "Colerado," 3,700 tons confirms the existence of this rock, which is probably about a foot under water.

Rocks South of Eden Harbour.

The group of rocks south of Eden Harbour, mentioned in the South American Pilot, and marked in the Admiralty Chart as two, consists of four rocks, and they lie considerably farther from the western shore than placed in the charts. The "Suwanee" passed close to and between these rocks and the western shore at night, when steering for Eden Harbour. Commander Shirley considers them very dangerous, as they are just far enough from the western shore to make it possible that a vessel steering for Eden Harbour would go very near them.

The "Colerado," although making Eden Harbour in daylight, and without reason for hugging the western shore, which she did, passed inside these rocks, not being aware of the danger until it was passed.

English Narrows.

Commander Shirley considers that the best route through the English narrows, Smyth channel, is to the eastward of the island, in lat. 48° 59' S., where eight fathoms is marked in the plan. The passage to the westward entails a sharp turn, which would be inconvenient if not dangerous to a long ship.
