TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-six, for the regulation of the duties of postage, powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage, or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-five, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act of Parliament made and passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-seven, for amending the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and for providing for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications.

And whereas a Convention hath been lately made and concluded between the General Post Office of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the General Post Office of the Kingdom of Denmark for the purpose of regulating the communications by post between the United Kingdom and the Kingdom of Denmark; and it is expedient for the better carrying out of the same, that certain regulations should be made in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now, we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament respectively, and all and every (or some of one of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order, declare, and direct as follows, that is to say, in and to the effect that

1. On every letter, not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Denmark, and transmitted by the post from any part of the United Kingdom to any place in Denmark, the said respective letters being conveyed in a closed mail, via Belgium and Germany, there shall be charged and taken and paid, at a uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of four pence, if such respective letters be prepaid; and if such respective letters be not prepaid at a uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of six pence.

2. On every letter, not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Sweden or Norway, or posted in Sweden or Norway, addressed to the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom, and any place in Sweden or Norway, the said respective letters being conveyed via Denmark, Belgium, and Germany, shall be charged, taken, and paid, at a uniform rate of British postage of one penny, if such respective letters be prepaid, and if such respective letters be not prepaid, an uniform rate of British postage of two pence.

3. On every letter not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight, posted in Denmark, Sweden, or Norway, addressed to any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or any foreign country, or posted in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or any foreign country, addressed to Denmark, Sweden, or Norway, transmitted by the post between Denmark, Sweden, or Norway, and any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or any foreign country, via Belgium and Germany, through the United Kingdom, otherwise than in closed mail, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for such transmission thereof through the United Kingdom, an uniform rate of British postage of one penny, if such respective letters be prepaid, and if such respective letters be not prepaid, an uniform rate of British postage of two pence; and also for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom, of the departure or arrival of the packet or vessel (not being a packet boat) conveying the same, and the colony or foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, such a further or additional rate of British postage as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted or delivered at the port, in the United Kingdom, of the departure or arrival of the packet or vessel (not being a packet boat) conveying the same, and transmitted direct between such port and any such colony or foreign country. Provided that in all cases where such additional rate includes both inland and sea services there shall be deducted therefrom the sum of one penny in respect of the inland conveyance under this clause of every such letter sent through the United Kingdom.

4. On every letter so transmitted as is hereinbefore in this Warrant respectively mentioned, if exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage according to the scale of weight and number of rates hereinafter mentioned; that is to say

On every such letter so transmitted, exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage;

On every such letter so transmitted, exceeding one ounce and not exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce in weight, three rates of postage;

On every such letter so transmitted, exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage;

On every such letter so transmitted, exceeding two ounces and the half of another ounce and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage;

And for every half of an ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of three ounces there shall be charged, taken, and paid, one additional rate of postage, and in charging any additional rate of postage every fractional part of such additional half of an ounce shall be charged as an additional half of an ounce in weight, and each progressive additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the same rate which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight.

5. If any letter transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant shall be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Denmark, and the postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto shall represent a less amount than the rate of postage for which the same would be liable under or by virtue of this Warrant, every such letter shall be charged with postage as an unpaid letter, and the amount of such postage paid thereon, or stamp or stamps affixed thereto, shall be allowed and deducted in charging such postage thereon.

6. Nothing herein contained shall be construed in anywise to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions or privileges granted by the said Act, or to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the privileges which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service are now by law entitled to, of sending and receiving by the post letters not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions made and in force for the time being in respect of the same.

7. Registered letters may be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant upon the payment of such additional charges or rates of postage, or otherwise as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct or appoint in that behalf, provided that all rates of postage and additional charges, or rates from time to time payable thereupon, shall be prepaid, and that no payment shall be made thereupon on the delivery of any such registered letters.

8. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Denmark, Sweden, or Norway, and transmitted by the post from any part of the United Kingdom to any place in Denmark, Sweden, or Norway, the said respective packets being conveyed via Belgium and Germany, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of three pence; and every such packet shall be transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained relating thereto.

10. All packets transmitted respectively under the authority of the 8th and 9th clauses of this Warrant hereinbefore respectively contained, shall, if exceeding the weight of four ounces respectively, be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

11. As to all packets consisting of printed British newspapers, or of other printed papers, wherebefore in the 8th, 9th, and 10th clauses of this Warrant authorized to be sent by the post, the postage thereof shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto; which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet, near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereupon under or by virtue of this Warrant (unless any such packet be sent from any Department or Office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty which shall have a postage account with the General Post-Office in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded postpaid, and the postage thereof shall be charged, as such postage account); and if any such packet shall be posted without any postage having been paid thereon, every such packet shall, and may be detained and opened, and shall be returned or given up to the sender thereof, and, on being so returned or given up, shall, at the option of the Postmaster-General, be either free of postage or be charged with any rate of postage, as may think fit, not exceeding the postage to which it would have been liable as an unpaid letter. 14. All packets transmitted by the post under the 13th clause of this Warrant shall, if exceeding the weight of two ounces respectively, be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—
