the purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act; and that all persons offending against the same shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, or such smaller sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council may in any case by such Order direct:

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder now prevails among the cattle of Great Britain, which is generally designated the "cattle plague," and may be recognized by the following symptoms:—

And whereas it was ordered by the Lords of the Council on the 22nd of September, 1865, as follows:—

(Clause 19)

(Grant of new term in and powers to alter and improve existing and make and maintain new portions of roads and to abandon existing roads; Repeal and Amendment of Act; Alteration and reduction or increase of Tolls; New provisions for application of Revenue and for reduction and discharge of Debt; Maintenance of roads; and other purposes).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal, alter, amend, extend, or enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the 5th and 6th years of the reign of His Majesty King William the 4th, chapter 105, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing certain roads leading to and from Bodmin, and other roads therein-mentioned, in the county of Cornwall, and for making and maintaining certain new roads communicating therewith;" and to grant a new and further term in the said roads, and to grant to the trustees of the said trust full powers for the maintenance, alteration, improvement, and repair of the said existing roads, or some of them, or some parts thereof, and for the maintenance of existing and the erection and maintenance of future toll gates, side bars, and stop gates on or by the sides of, or near to, or in connexion with the said roads, or any of them, and for all other purposes necessary for such maintenance, alteration, improvement, and repair, and for the management of the said trust.

And it is intended by the said Bill to confer upon the said trustees full powers for altering and improving the existing road from Bodmin to Wadebridge, called the Wadebridge-road, and for that purpose to make and maintain as turnpike the two new portions of road following (that is to say):—1st, a new piece of road of the length of two furlongs and five chains, or thereabouts, commencing out of the said existing Wadebridge-road at or near Dunmeer Bridge on the said road, in the parish of Bodmin, and terminating by a junction with the said existing road at or near a point thereon about one furlong and six chains, measured along the said existing road from Dunmeer Bridge aforesaid, and at the west corner of a close called Lane-park, in the parish of Bodmin, and numbered 2596 on the Tithe apportionment Map of the said parish, the whole of which said new portion of road will pass or be made in and through the said parish of Bodmin, in the county of Cornwall.

2nd. A new piece of road of the length of three furlongs and two chains or thereabouts, commencing out of the said existing Wadebridge-road, at a point thereon about three miles four furlongs and six chains, measured along the said road from the commencement thereof in Bodmin, and at or near the southern end of a certain wood or close of land in the parish of Eglosayle, in the county of Cornwall, adjoining the said road, and called Great Wood, and numbered 1059 on the Tithe apportionment Map of the said parish of Eglosayle, in the county of Cornwall, and terminating by a junction with the said existing Wadebridge-road at a point thereon about three miles seven furlongs and five chains, measured along the said road from the commencement thereof in Bodmin aforesaid, and at or near a certain wood adjoining the said road in the said parish of Eglosayle, called Trevegan Wood, and numbered 1571 on the said Tithe apportionment Map of the said parish of Eglosayle, the whole of which said last-mentioned portion of new road will pass, or be made in and through the said parish of Eglosayle, in the said county of Cornwall, and all the lands, houses, and other property required for the said portions of new road and incident thereto, are situate in the said parishes of Bodmin and Eglosayle, in the county of Cornwall, or one of them.

And it is intended by the said Bill to authorize the said Trustees to make and maintain in connexion with the said new portions of road all such communications, works, and conveniences as may be necessary, or the said Trustees may think expedient.

And it is intended by the said Bill to abandon and relinquish such parts of the said existing Wadebridge-road as will be rendered unnecessary by the formation of the said new portions of road, and to exempt the portions of road so relinquished from the control and management of the said Trustees.

And it is intended by the said Bill to apply for powers for all or some of the following objects and purposes (that is to say):—

To deviate from the lines of the said new portions of road, and to cross, alter, break up, stop up, raise or lower, either temporarily or permanently, any roads, highways, footpaths, streams, canals, railways, and other works in the before-mentioned parishes, which may be interfered with by the said new portions of road.

To purchase, compulsorily or otherwise, any lands or houses in the said before-mentioned parishes which may be required for the purposes of the said new portions of road, or connected therewith, and to repeal, vary, and extinguish any and all rights, or privileges, or exemptions, connected with the said lands or houses, or with any roads or highways to be crossed or interfered with by the said new portions of road, or with the said portions of existing road to be abandoned, or with the lands adjoining the same respectively.

To enable any tenants for life, or other persons having limited interests, or under any incapacity, to sell lands and houses required for the purposes of the said portions of new road, and to make any such sales binding upon all persons having any present, future, or contingent or other interests in the said lands or houses.

To levy and collect tolls, rates, and duties for the use of the said existing roads, and also for the said new portions of road, as parts of the Wadebridge Road, and to continue, alter, vary, reduce, or increase the existing tolls authorized to be taken by the said Act on all or any of the roads thereby authorized, or to take other tolls in lieu thereof, and new tolls in addition thereto, and to continue, alter, vary, or extinguish existing exemptions from payment of tolls on the said roads, or any of them, and other rights and privileges, and to confer other exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, alter, and extinguish other rights, privileges, and exemptions.

To raise money by subscription and by borrowing money on the credit of the tolls of the said trust, or by both or either of these means, for the formation of the said new portions of road, and for the other improvements of the existing roads, and to alter or vary the application of the tolls and revenue to be levied and collected upon the said existing roads and new portions of road, and to alter or vary the existing provisions relative to the payment of the principal and interest of the debts due and owing on the credit of the said tolls and revenue, and to pay off, compound, or make other arrangements with respect to the existing mortgages, debts, and charges on the said roads, and the tolls levied thereon, and to provide for continuing or altering the present or future rate of interest to be payable in respect of such mortgages and debts, and the proportions of tolls to be applied in payment of the charges and liabilities to be made payable under such Act, and in the maintenance and repair of the said roads and otherwise, and to make provision with respect to any unclaimed debts or interest, and with respect to the liquidation or extinguishment of any charges and liabilities on the said existing roads, and with respect to the ordering, arranging, and confirming the securities of creditors upon the tolls authorised to be levied and collected upon the said existing roads, and generally to make such other provision for the future conduct and management of the said roads, and as to the number and situation of the toll-gates, side-bars, and stop-gates now existing or hereafter to be set up and maintained on the said roads, or by the sides of, near to, or in connexion therewith, and the revenue thereof as Parliament shall deem proper or necessary.

On or before the 30th day of November, 1865, duplicate plans and sections of the said new portions of road, and of the lands to be purchased compulsorily for the purposes of the said Bill, together with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cornwall, at his office in Bodmin, in the said county; and on or before the said 30th day of November, a copy of so much of such plans and sections and book of reference as relates to each parish and extra-parochial place in which the portions of new road, or either of them, are proposed to be made, together with a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette will, in the case of a parish, be deposited with the parish clerk of such parish, at his place of abode, and, in the case of an extra-parochial place, with the parish clerk of some parish immediately adjoining such extra-parochial place, at his place of abode.

Printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 23rd day of December next.
