

morton, Wick and Wyre Piddle, all in the said county of Worcester, and that every person offending against the provisions of this notice will, for every offence, be liable to a penalty of £20.

Given under our hands, at the Petty Sessions aforesaid, this 12th day of December, 1865.

*Ed. Eyston,
John Whitaker,
Martin Amphlett,
Henry S. Scobell.*

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Suffolk—Division of Hoarne.

WE the undersigned, being five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Hoxne, in the County of Suffolk, and the Local authority in this behalf, in Petty Sessions assembled, and by virtue and in exercise of the power given to us by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 23rd day of November last, do, by this notice under our hands declare, that it is expedient to prevent the removal of cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, and goats, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within this Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, until the 1st day of February next.

And we do hereby further declare that it is expedient that cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, and goats, shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain whatever, into any place within the said Division, until the said 1st day of February next.

And we do hereby give notice, that after the publication hereof, any person bringing or sending any such animal, or any description thereof, to any market or fair, or to any place within the said Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or receiving, exhibiting, buying, or selling, any such animal so brought or sent; or bringing or sending any such animal, or any description thereof, from any place in Great Britain whatever, into any place within the said Division, will, on conviction of such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

Given under our hands this 14th day of December, 1865.

*James Bedingfeld,
John Hodyson,
W. R. Colbeck,
Frederic French,
B. W. Walker.*

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Worcester—Division of Stourbridge.

WE, the Undersigned Justices of the Peace of the county of Worcester, assembled at Petty Sessions holden at the Public Office in Stourbridge, in the said county, acting in and for the Division of Stourbridge, in the said county, do hereby (by authority of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, made in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned and referred to) declare that it is expedient to prevent the removal of the following animals, viz.: every cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, and calf, from any other part of Great Britain into any place whatsoever within the above-mentioned Division from the date of this our Order until the 1st day of March next, except for the purpose of being slaughtered, within the said Division, within three days from the time of bringing the said animals within the said division, and we declare that it is also expedient that the above-mentioned animals shall be excluded from any market or fair to be holden in the township of Stourbridge, or in any other part of the above-mentioned Division from this date until the said 1st day of March next.

No. 23050.

Given under our hands this 15th day of December, 1863, at Stourbridge, in the said county of Worcester.

*B. Littlewood.
William C. Firmstene.*

Justices of the Peace for the said Division of Stourbridge.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Shropshire—Petty Sessional Division of Ludlow, comprising Lower Munslow and part of Overs and Stottesden.

IN pursuance of the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, we, the undersigned Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Lower Munslow and part of Overs and Stottesden, in the County of Salop, do hereby declare that it is expedient until the 1st day of March next, to prevent the removal of the following animals, namely:—Every cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said Petty Sessional Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale; and it will therefore be unlawful for any person to bring or send any such animal into such market or fair, or to any place within such Division for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy or sell any such animals so brought or sent.

And we do further give notice that it is expedient, from the date of this notice, until the said 1st day of March next, that animals as hereinbefore defined shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said Petty Sessional Division, and that it will not be lawful for any person, previously to the said 1st day of March next, to bring or send any such animal from any other place in Great Britain into any place within the said Petty Sessional Division.

Every person offending herein will, for every offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding £20.

As witness our hands, the 14th day of December, 1865.

*Charles Powell, Chairman.
M. Rouse Boughton.
Chas. Walcot.
Thos. Lloyd Roberts.
James Davies.
Arther Pauloc.*

CATTLE PLAGUE.

West Riding of Yorkshire.—Upper Division of Barkston Ash.

NOTICE is hereby given, that we, the undersigned Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Upper Barkston Ash, do, in pursuance of the power given to us by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, hereby declare, that it is expedient, with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, and do order that the following animals referred to in the said Order, namely, cows,