TREATY of Commerce between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Austria ; with the Final Protocol.

Signed at Vienna, December 16, 1865.

[Ratifications exchanged at Vienna, January 4, 1866.]

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the one part; and His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary and Bohemia, &c., on the other part; being equally animated by the desire of regulating and extending the commercial relations between their respective States and Possessions, have resolved to conclude a Treaty for that purpose, and have named for their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say :—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c., the Right Honourable John Arthur Douglas, Baron Bloomfield of Oakhampton and Redwood, a Peer of Ireland, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty;

And His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary and Bohemia, &c., Alexander Count Mensdorff-Pouilly, Grand Cross of the Order of Leopold, with the military decoration, belonging to the Commander's Cross of the same Order, Knight of the Order of Maria Theresa, and Possessor of the Cross of Military Merit, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Lieutenant-General of His Imperial Majesty's Army, Privy Councillor and Chamberlain, Minister of the Imperial House and of Foreign Affairs; and Bernhard, Baron Wüllerstorff-Urbair, Knight of the Order of the Iron Crown of the Second Class, Rear-Admiral in His Imperial Majesty's Navy, Privy Councillor, and Minister for Commerce;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found to be in due and proper form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles :—

ARTICLE I.

During the continuance of the present Treaty, the subjects and commerce of Austria shall enjoy

IHRE Majestät die Königin des Vereinigten Königreiches von Grossbritannien und Irland, u. s. w., auf der einen Seite, und Seine Majestät der Kaiser von Oesterreich, König von Ungarn und Böhmen, u. s. w.; auf der anderen Seite, von dem gleichen Wunsche beseelt, die Handelsbeziehungen zwischen Ihren beiderseitigen Staaten und Besitzungen zu regeln und auszudehnen, haben beschlossen einen Vertrag zu diesem Zwecke einzugehen und zu Ihren Bevollmächtigten ernannt, nämlich :—

Ihre Majestät die Königin des Vereinigten Königreiches von Grossbritannien und Irland, den sehr ehrenwerthen Johann Arthur Douglas, Baron Bloomfield von Oakhampton and Redwood, Pair von Irland, Mitglied Ihrer Britischen Majestät höchst ehrenwerthen geheimen Rathes, Gross-kreuz des höchst ehrenwerthen Bath Ordens, allerhöchst Ihren ausserordentlichen und bevollmächtigten Botschafter bei Seiner Kaiserlich Königlich Apostolischen Majestät;

Und Seine Majestät der Kaiser von Oesterreich, König von Ungarn und Böhmen, den Herrn Alexander Grafen von Mensdorff-Pouilly, Gross-kreuz allerhöchst Ihres Leopoldordens mit der Kriegsdecoration zum Commandeur Kreuze, Ritter des Maria Theresien Ordens und Besitzer des Militär Verdienst Kreuzes, Komthur des höchst-ehrenwerthen Grossbritannischen Bath Ordens, allerhöchst Ihren Feldmarschall Lieutenant, Geheimer Rath und Kämmerer, Minister des Kaiserlichen Hauses und der auswärtigen Angelegenheiten; und den Herrn Bernhard Freiherrn von Wüllerstorff-Urbair, Ritter allerhöchst Ihres Ordens der Eisernen Krone zweiter Classe, allerhöchst Ihren Contre-Admiral, Geheimen Rath und Minister für Handel und Volkswirtschaft;

Welche, nach gegenseitigen Mittheilung ihrer in guten und gehöriger Form befundenen Vollmachten, die nachstehenden Artikel vereinbart und abgeschlossen haben :

ARTIKEL I.

Während der Dauer des gegenwärtigen Vertrages werden die Unterthanen und der Handel within all the dominions and possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, including Her Majesty's Colonies and foreign possessions, the same advantages which have been conceded to French subjects and commerce by the Treaty between Her Majesty and the Emperor of the French, signed at Paris on the 23rd of January, 1860, and to the subjects and commerce of the States of the Zollverein by the Treaty between Her Majesty and His Majesty the King of Prussia, representing the sovereign States and territories united to the Prussian system of customs and contributions, signed at Berlin on the 30th of May, 1865; and further, Austrian subjects and commerce shall be placed in all other respects on the footing of the subjects and commerce of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE II.

From and after the 1st of January, 1867, British subjects and commerce shall, within the dominions of His Imperial and Royal Majesty, be placed in every respect upon the footing of the most-favoured nation, and share in all the advantages and favours which are enjoyed by the commerce and subjects of any third Power.

From this rule are excepted:—

a. Advantages such as those which, for the sole purpose of facilitating frontier traffic, are at present conceded, or may hereafter be conceded, to the States of the German Zollverein, or to other neighbouring States; and also those reductions of, or exemptions from Customs duties which are valid only at certain parts of the frontier, or for the inhabitants of particular localities.

b. Those advantages which belong, or may hereafter be conceded, to the subjects of the German Confederation, in virtue of Federal Treaties and Federal Laws.

c. Those special and ancient privileges which are enjoyed by Turkish subjects, as such, for Turkish commerce in Austria.

ARTICLE III.

The Austrian Customs Tariff (the present system of calculating Customs duties by weight being maintained) shall be so regulated that the duty to be levied upon articles the produce or manufacture of the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, upon their importation into the Austrian States, shall, from the 1st of January, 1867, not exceed 25 per cent. of the value, with the addition of the cost of transport, insurance, and commission necessary for the importation into Austria as far as the Austrian Customs frontier; and for this purpose there shall serve as basis the average value of the articles included under one and the same denomination in each position of the future Austrian Tariff.

From and after the 1st of January, 1870, the maximum of these duties shall not exceed 20 per cent. of the value, with the additions above defined.

The articles of State monopolies (tobacco, salt, gunpowder), and further, the goods comprised in Classes 1 and 7 of the present Austrian Tariff, are excepted from these maxima.

Oesterreichs innerhalb aller Gebiete und Besitzungen einschliesslich den Colonien und auswärtigen Besitzungen Ihrer Britischen Majestät dieselben Vortheile geniessen, welche den Unterthanen und dem Handel Frankreichs durch den zu Paris am 23 Januar, 1860, unterzeichneten Vertrag zwischen Ihrer Majestät und dem Kaiser der Franzosen, den Unterthanen und dem Handel der Zollvereinstaaten durch den in Berlin am 30 Mai, 1865, zwischen Ihrer Majestät und dem Könige von Preussen als Vertreter der dem Preussischen Zoll- und Steuer-systeme beigetretenen souverainen Staaten- und Gebiete zugestanden worden sind; und es werden ferner die Unterthanen und der Handel Oesterreichs in allen übrigen Beziehungen auf gleichen Fuss mit den Unterthanen und dem Handel der meist begünstigten Nationen gesetzt.

ARTIKEL II.

Von und nach dem 1 Januar, 1867, sollen britische Unterthanen und Handel in den Staaten Seiner Kaiserlichen Königlichen Majestät in allen Beziehungen auf den Fuss der meist begünstigten Nation gesetzt werden und sollen denselben alle Vortheile und Begünstigungen zu Theil werden, welche dem Handel und den Unterthanen irgend einer dritten Macht zukommen.

Ausgenommen hievon sind:—

a. Solche Begünstigungen, welche lediglich zur Erleichterung des Grenzverkehrs den Staaten des deutschen Zollvereins oder anderen Nachbarstaaten gegenwärtig zugestanden sind oder künftig zugestanden werden könnten, sowie jene Zollermässigungen oder Zollbefreiungen, welche nur für gewisse Grenzen oder für die Bewohner einzelner Besitztheile Geltung haben.

b. Jene Begünstigungen, welche den Unterthanen der deutschen Bundesstaaten kraft der Bundesverträge und Bundesgesetze zustehen oder künftig eingeräumt werden sollten.

c. Jene besonderen allhergebrachten Begünstigungen welche den türkischen Unterthanen als solche für den türkischen Handel in Oesterreich zukommen.

ARTIKEL III.

Der oesterreichische Zolltarif soll unter aufrechterhaltung seines gegenwärtigen Gewichts-Zoll Systemes mit der Massgabe geregelt werden, dass der von Artikeln der Urproduktion oder der Industrie der Staaten Ihrer britischen Majestät bei deren Einfuhr in die oesterreichischen Staaten zu erhebende Zoll vom 1 Januar, 1867, angefangen 25 procent des Werthes mit Zuschlag der Transports, Versicherungs, und Commissions Spesen, welche die Einfuhr nach Oesterreich bis zur oesterreichischen Zollgrenze erfordert, nicht übersteige, und es soll dabei der durchschnittliche Werth der in jeder Position des künftigen oesterreichischen Tarifes unter einer und derselben Benennung vorkommenden Artikel zur Grundlage genommen werden.

Von und nach dem 1 Januar, 1870, soll das Maximum dieser Zölle 20 procent des Werthes sammt Zuschlag nicht übersteigen.

Ausgenommen von diesen Maximalsätzen sind die Gegenstände der Staats-Monopolen (Tabak, Kochsalz, Schiesspulver), ferner die in den Klassen 1 und 7 des gegenwärtigen oesterreichischen Tarifes enthaltenen Waaren.

ARTICLE IV.

Commissioners from both Governments shall meet not later than the month of March 1866, for the purpose of ascertaining and determining the values and additional charges, and they shall take as the basis of their calculations the average prices at the principal centres of production and commerce of the United Kingdom for the year 1865.

Three years after the duties fixed by Treaty shall have come into operation, each of the Contracting Parties shall have the right to claim a revision of the values.

ARTICLE V.

Those duties of the future Austrian Tariff to come into operation on the 1st of January, 1867, to which England attaches a special interest, shall form the subject of a supplementary Convention to be concluded between the two Contracting Parties.

The articles of State monopoly, as also the goods subject to fiscal duties included in Classes 1 and 7 of the present Tariff, remain also here excepted.

ARTICLE VI.

Internal imposts which are levied in the territory of one party on the production, preparation, or use of any article, whether on account of the State or on account of municipalities and corporations, shall under no pretext affect the productions of the other party in a higher or more onerous degree than the same productions of native origin.

ARTICLE VII.

The Contracting Parties agree that every reduction in their Tariffs of import or export duties, and every privilege, favour, or immunity which either Contracting Party may hereafter grant to the subjects and commerce of a third Power, shall be extended immediately and unconditionally to the other Contracting Party, with a reserve, however, of the exceptions enumerated in Article II, a and b.

ARTICLE VIII.

The subjects of one of the Contracting Parties shall enjoy in the dominions and possessions of the other, equality of treatment with native subjects in regard to charges on loading and unloading, to warehousing, and to the transit trade, as also in regard to bounties, facilities, and drawbacks.

ARTICLE IX.

The subjects of one of the two High Contracting Powers shall, in the dominions of the other, enjoy the same protection as native subjects in regard to the rights of property in trade marks, and other distinctive marks, as well as in patterns and designs for manufactures.

ARTICLE X.

The High Contracting Parties reserve to themselves to determine hereafter, by a special Convention, the means of reciprocally protecting copyright in works of literature and the fine arts within their respective dominions.

ARTIKEL IV.

Zur Ermittlung und Feststellung der Werthe und des Zuschlages sollen längstens im Monate März 1866, Commissarien der beiderseitigen Regierungen zusammentreten und es sollen dabei die Durchschnittspreise der Hauptstapelplätze des vereinigten Königreiches des Jahres 1865, zur Basis dienen.

Jeder der kontrahirenden Theile soll das Recht haben, drei Jahre nachdem die vertragsmässig festgesetzten Zölle in Kraft getreten sein werden, eine Revision der Werthe zu verlangen.

ARTIKEL V.

Diejenigen Zollsätze des Künftigen, am 1 Januar, 1867, in Wirksamkeit tretenden österreichischen Zolltarifes, an welchen England ein besonderes Interesse hat, sollen den Gegenstand einer zwischen den beiden kontrahirenden Theilen abzuschliessenden Nachtrags-Convention bilden.

Die Gegenstände der Staats-monopole, so wie die mit Finanzzöllen belegten Waaren der Classe 1 und 7 des gegenwärtigen Zolltarifes bleiben auch hier ausgenommen.

ARTIKEL VI.

Innere Abgaben, welche in dem einen der kontrahirenden Theile, sei es für Rechnung der Staates oder für Rechnung von Communen und Corporationen auf der Hervorbringung, der Zubereitung oder dem Verbrauche eines Erzeugnisses lasten, dürfen Erzeugnisse des anderen Theiles unter keinem Vorwande höher oder in lästigerer Weise treffen als die gleichnamigen Erzeugnisse des eigenen Landes.

ARTIKEL VII.

Die kontrahirenden Mächte kommen überein, dass jede Ermässigung ihres Ein- oder Ausfuhr Zolltarifes sowie jedes Privilegium, jede Begünstigung oder Befreiung, welche einer der vertragsschliessenden Theile den Unterthanen und dem Handel einer dritten Macht zugestehen würde gleichzeitig und unbedingt dem anderen Theile zukommen soll, vorbehaltlich der im Artikel II unter a und b bezeichneten Ausnahmen.

ARTIKEL VIII.

Die Unterthanen des einen der vertragschliessenden Theile, sollen in den Staaten und Besitzungen des anderen gleichmässige Behandlung mit den eingebornen Unterthanen in Beziehung auf Ein- und Ausladungsgebühren, Einlagerung, Transithandel, und ebenso in Beziehung auf Ausfuhr-Prämien Erleichterungen und Rückzölle geniessen.

ARTIKEL IX.

Die Unterthanen der einen der beiden vertragsschliessenden Mächte, sollen in den Gebieten der anderen hinsichtlich des Eigenthumsrechtes an gewerblichen Marken und anderen Bezeichnungen so wie an Mustern und Modellen für Industrie-Erzeugnisse den gleichen Schutz geniessen wie die eigenen Unterthanen.

ARTIKEL X.

Die kontrahirenden Mächte behalten sich vor, nachträglich durch eine besondere Uebereinkunft die Mittel zu bestimmen, um den Autorsrechten an Werken der Literatur und der schönen Künste innerhalb ihrer Gebiete den gegenseitigen Schutz angedeihen zu lassen.

ARTICLE XI.

The present Treaty shall remain in force for the space of ten years, to date from the 1st of January, 1867; and in case neither of the High Contracting Powers shall have notified to the other twelve months before the expiration of the said period of ten years, the intention to put an end to its operation, the Treaty shall continue in force for another year, and so on from year to year, until the expiration of a year counting from the day on which one or other of the High Contracting Parties shall have announced its intention to put an end to it.

The High Contracting Parties reserve to themselves the right to introduce, by common consent, into this Treaty, any modification which is not opposed to its spirit and principles, and the utility of which shall have been shown by experience.

ARTICLE XII.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged in Vienna, in three weeks, or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Vienna, this sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

(L.S.) BLOOMFIELD.

ARTIKEL XI.

Der gegenwärtige Vertrag soll für den Zeitraum von zehn Jahren, vom 1 Januar, 1867, an, in Kraft bleiben, und falls keine der hohen kontrahirenden Mächte zwölf Monate vor Ablauf des besagten Zeitraumes von zehn Jahren der anderen die Absicht kundgegeben haben wird, die Wirksamkeit des Vertrages aufhören zu lassen soll derselbe für ein weiteres Jahr in Kraft bleiben, und sofort vom Jahr zu Jahr bis zum Ablaufe eines Jahres von dem Tage an gerechnet, an welchem die eine oder andere der hohen kontrahirenden Mächte ihre Absicht angekündigt haben wird, denselben aufhören zu lassen.

Die hohen vertragsschliessenden Theile behalten sich das Recht vor durch gemeinschaftliches Uebereinkommen, an diesem Vertrage jede Modification vorzunehmen, welche mit dem Geiste und den Grundsätzen desselben nicht im Widerspruche stehen, und deren Nützlichkeit die Erfahrung dargethan haben wird.

ARTIKEL XII.

Der gegenwärtige Vertrag soll ratifizirt werden und es sollen die Ratifikations-Urkunden binnen drei Wochen oder wenn möglich früher, in Wien, ausgewechselt werden.

Zu Urkund dessen haben die beiderseitigen Bevollmächtigten denselben unterzeichnet und ihre Siegel begedrückt.

So geschehen zu Wien, den sechzehnten December im Jahre des Herrn Eintausend achthundert und fünf und sechszig.

Final Protocol.

UPON proceeding to the signature of the Treaty of Commerce concluded this day between Great Britain and Austria, the Plenipotentiaries of the two Powers made the following Declarations:—

I. The Plenipotentiaries of His Majesty the Emperor of Austria declared that in virtue of Article XIII of the Treaty of Customs and Contributions Union of the 23rd December, 1863, between Austria and Liechtenstein, the Treaty of Commerce concluded this day would apply equally to the Principality of Liechtenstein, and the British Plenipotentiary accepted this declaration.

II. In order to avoid any future doubt as to the intention of Article III, the Plenipotentiaries of the two Powers agreed to the following explanation:

In the construction of a Tariff of specific duties by weight within fixed ad valorem rates, it is necessary to determine what shall be the unit of value to which each specific duty shall be applied.

In adopting the basis of value established by Article III, it is understood that it is not intended to depart from the general principle of the Article, viz., the application of certain maximum ad valorem rates of duty to all articles of British produce and manufacture, but to guard against the necessity of making separate provision for Schluss Protocol.

BEI der Unterzeichnung des am heutigen Tage zwischen Grossbritannien und Oesterreich abgeschlossenen Handelsvertrages haben die beiderseitigen Bevollmächtigten die nachfolgenden Erklärungen niedergelegt:—

I. Die Bevollmächtigten Seiner Majestät des Kaisers von Oesterreich erklärten dass der heute abgeschlossene Handelsvertrag auch für das Fürstenthum Liechtenstein Geltung habe in Uebereinstimmung mit Artikel XIII des am 23ten December, 1863, erneuerten Zoll- und Steuer-Vereins Vertrages zwischen Oesterreich und Liechtenstein; und der Grossbritannische Bevollmächtigte hat diese Erklärung angenommen.

II. Um jedem künftigen Zweifel über die Absicht des Artikels III vorzubeugen haben sich die beiderseitigen Bevollmächtigten über nachstehende Erläuterung geeinigt:

Bei der Aufstellung eines Tarifes von specifischen Gewichts-zöllen innerhalb bestimmter Werthsätze ist es nothwendig die Wertheinheit zu bestimmen auf welche jeder specifische Zoll angewendet werden soll.

Man ist darüber einverstanden dass es bei Annahme der im Artikel III festgesetzten Werthgrundlage nicht beabsichtigt wird von dem allgemeinen Grundsatz des Artikels, nämlich, davon abzuweichen dass alle Artikel der britischen Produktion oder Industrie nur mit Zöllen belegt werden sollen, welche gewissen Maximalsätzen every variety of each article, thereby creating minute and inconvenient subdivisions in the Tariff.

With this view, it becomes necessary to group together those different qualities and descriptions of the same article or of similar articles which, from their approximation in value and general resemblance in character, it is found possible to include under one and the same denomination in one position of the Tariff.

But it is understood that in fixing the denominations in each position of the future Austrian Tariff, they shall be so arranged that the duty affixed to any one position shall not exceed the "maximum" rates fixed by Article III of the Treaty upon the average value of any kind of goods of commercial importance included under any one denomination in such position, unless by common consent it is considered expedient or necessary.

III. With reference to Article IV, the Plenipotentiaries likewise agreed that if it shall be found that the prices of any kinds of goods have been essentially disturbed by exceptional causes during the twelve months of the year 1865, the Commissioners of the two Governments shall endeavour to find such a basis of value as shall be considered to correspond to a fair average value for future years.

In the case of textile manufactures (the prices of which have been seriously deranged during the late war in the United States of America), it is agreed, that if the average prices of the year 1865 be taken as a basis of value, either Contracting Party may claim a revision of such valuation after the 1st of January, 1868.

IV. The British Plenipotentiary then declared that:

Her Britannic Majesty engages to recommend to Parliament the abolition of the duties payable on the importation of wood and timber into the United Kingdom, and also the reduction of the duties payable on wine in bottle to the amount of those payable on wine in wood upon importation into the United Kingdom.

V. The Imperial Austrian Plenipotentiaries on their part declared that:

The duty upon the export of rags from the States and Possessions of His Imperial and Royal Majesty shall, from and after the 1st of July, 1866, be reduced to two florins the Zollcentner; and that:

The duty upon the importation of salted herrings into the States and Possessions of His Imperial and Royal Majesty shall, from the 1st of February, 1866, be reduced to 50 kreutzers per Zollcentner, gross weight.

In witness whereof the Undersigned Plenipotentiaries have drawn up the present Protocol in duplicate form, to which, after it had been duly read, they affixed their signatures.

Vienna, this 16th day of December, 1865.

ihres Werthes entsprechen, sondern es soll die Nothwendigkeit vermieden werden, für alle Verschiedenheiten jedes Artikels besonders vorzusehen und dadurch kleinliche und unzukömmliche Unterabtheilungen des Tarifes hervorzurufen.

Im Hinblick darauf wird es nothwendig solche verschieden en Qualitäten und Bezeichnungen desselben Artikels oder ähnlicher Artikel zusammenzufassen von denen es möglich befunden wird sie vermöge ihres annähernd gleichen Werthes und ihrer allgemeinen Gleichartigkeit unter eine und dieselbe Benennung in eine Position des Tarifes einzubeziehen.

Man ist aber darüber einverstanden dass bei der Feststellung der Benennungen des künftigen oesterreichischen Tarifes diese so eingerichtet sein sollen, dass der in jeder Position ausgesetzte Zoll dem im Artikel III des Vertrages festgesetzten Maximalsatz nach dem durchschnittlichen Werthe jeder für den Handel wichtigen Gattung von Waaren, welche unter einer Benennung in diese Position einbezogen sind, nicht übersteigen soll, nusser es wäre dies durch gemeinschaftliche Uebereinstimmung für zweckmässig oder nützlich erkannt worden.

III. Zu Artikel IV ist man ebenso übereingekommen dass wenn erkannt werden sollte dass die Preise irgend einer Waarengattung durch ausserordentliche Ursachen während der zwölf Monate des Jahres 1865, wesentlich gestört worden sind, die Commissäre der beiden Regierungen trachten sollen einen derartige Werthgrundlage für solche Waarengattungen zu finden wie sie einem billigen Durchschnittswerthe für folgende Jahre als entsprechend angesehen werden kann.

Hinsichtlich der Webe und Wirkwaaren (deren Preise während des letzten Krieges in den vereinigten Staaten von Nordamerika wesentlich geändert worden sind) ist man übereingekommen dass wenn die Mittelpreise des Jahres 1865, als Werthgrundlage angenommen werden jeder der kontrahirenden Theile nach dem 1 Januar, 1868, eine Revision der Bewerthung derselben verlangen kann.

IV. Der königliche grossbritannische Bevollmächtigte erklärte ausserdem:

Ihre britische Majestät verpflichtet sich dem Parlamente die Abschaffung der für die Einfuhr von Werk und Bauholz in das vereinigte Königreich zu zahlenden Zölle, und ebenso die Ermässigung der für Wein in Flaschen zu zahlenden Zölle auf den Betrag der auf Wein in gebünder bei der Einfuhr in das vereinigte Königreich zu entrichtenden Zölle zu empfehlen.

V. Die kaiserlichen oesterreichischen Bevollmächtigten erklärten ihrerseits:

Der Zoll auf die Ausfuhr von Hadern aus den Staaten und Besitzungen Seiner Kaiserlichen Königlichen Majestät soll von und nach den 1 Juli, 1866, auf 2 Gulden per Centner herabgesetzt werden.

Der Zoll auf die Einfuhr von gesalzenen Häuten in die Staaten und Besitzungen Seiner Kaiserlichen Königlichen Majestät wird vom 1ten Februar, 1866, angefangen auf 5 Kreuzer per Centner sporco herabgemindert.

Zu Urkund dessen haben die Unterzeichneten Bevollmächtigten das gegenwärtige Protokoll in doppelten Ausfertigung aufgenommen und dasselbe nach erfolgter Vorlesung vollzogen.

THE following Notices have been received by the Clerk of the Council from the Local Authorities appointed under the Orders of the Lords of the Council, relating to the "cattle plague," and are published in the London Gazette in conformity with the requirements of the 18th section of their Lordships' Order of the 23rd November, 1865:—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

City of Lincoln.

WHEREAS, by authority of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, made in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, I, Richard Hall, Mayor of the city of Lincoln, do by this notice order and declare that, until the 1st day of March next, or such further time as I shall proclaim, no person shall bring any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, or any pigs or swine, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said city, except for the purpose of being slaughtered, and that every such animal shall be slaughtered within forty-eight hours after it shall have been brought within the said city, and no animal of the kind beforementioned shall be taken out of the said city alive.

Every person offending against this Order is liable, in pursuance of the said Acts, for every such offence to forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

Given under my hand this 11th day of December, 1865.

Richard Hall, Mayor of the city of Lincoln.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Isle of Ely.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the Isle of Ely, holden at Wisbech, in and for the said Isle, on Wednesday, the 3rd day of January, 1866.

It was resolved (pursuant to the powers vested in this Court by two Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, respectively dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865, made in pursuance of several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned), that with the view to prevent the spread of a certain disorder in the said Orders mentioned, which is generally designated the "Cattle Plague," it is expedient that after the publication of this notice, and until the 1st day of March, 1866, no person should remove any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or swine, (except such of the said animals as are intended for slaughter), from any place within the limits of the said Isle, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the limits of the said Isle, for exhibition or sale, and that after the publication of this notice, and until the 1st day of March, 1866, it will not be lawful for any person to remove any such animal (except as aforesaid) from any place within the limits of the said Isle to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said Isle, for exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animal so brought or sent.

That it is expedient from and after the publication of this notice, and until the said 1st day of March, 1866, no such animal as aforesaid (except as aforesaid) should be brought or sent from any other part of Great Britain, into any place within the limits of the said Isle, and therefore that from and after the publication of this notice, and until the 1st day of March, 1866, it will not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal (except as aforesaid) from any place in Great Britain beyond the limits of the said Isle, into any place within the said Isle.

Provided that it shall not be unlawful for any person to bring, send, or carry, any such prohibited animal as aforesaid, by railway, through or out of the said Isle, or for any person (with the license of any two Justices acting in and for the said Isle) to bring, send, or carry, any such prohibited animal from any land or premises in his own occupation, beyond the limits of the said Isle, to any land or premises in his own occupation within the said Isle.

That it is expedient from and after the publication of this notice, and until the 1st day of March, 1866, that no person should remove any such animal as aforesaid from any farm within the said Isle, to any other farm within the said Isle, without the license of two such Justices as aforesaid, and therefore from and after the publication of this notice, and until the 1st day of March, 1866, it will not be lawful for any person to remove any such animal as aforesaid from any farm within the said Isle, to any other farm within the said Isle, without the license of such two Justices as aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given that every person offending therein will be liable to forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted may think fit to impose.

By the Court,

Metcalf, Clerk of the Peace for the Isle of Ely.

3rd January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Cumberland to wit.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at Carlisle, in and for the county of Cumberland, on Tuesday the 2nd, and by adjournment, on Wednesday, the 3rd day of January, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady, Queen Victoria, and in the year of our Lord, 1866, before certain Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen, in the same county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanours, in the same county committed.

In pursuance of the powers vested in the said Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled, by two Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November and the 16th day of December, 1865, this Court doth hereby declare, that it is expedient:

1. That no cattle fairs, markets, or auctions shall be held within the said county of Cumberland, until the 1st day of March next.

2. That no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be brought into the said county from any adjoining county, or from any other part of Great Britain, or into any parish or township within the said county, from any other parish or township within the same, until the said 1st day of March next, except by virtue of some future Order of the said Court.

3. That no sheep, swine, or other animals described in the said Orders of Council, shall be brought or sent to any market or fair, or to any place within the said county, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, until the said 1st day of March next.

By the Court,
Hodgson.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

East Grinstead Petty Sessional Division.

WHEREAS, by authority of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, made in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, we, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Sussex, acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of East Grinstead, in the said county, assembled in Petty Sessions at the Crown Inn, at East Grinstead, in the said division and county, on this 1st day of January, 1866, did resolve and determine, and we do now by this notice declare, that it is expedient that every cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, and swine, shall be excluded from all fairs and markets to be held within the said division from and after the date hereof until the 1st day of March, 1866. And that it shall not be lawful, after the publication of this notice, for any person to bring or send any animal of the description before mentioned into any fair or market to be held within the jurisdiction of the said division of East Grinstead, during the period aforesaid, or to bring or send any such animals of such description as aforesaid to any place within such jurisdiction for the purpose of exhibition, or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animals so brought or sent. And we do hereby further resolve and order that it is expedient that none of such animals as are hereinbefore defined shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the jurisdiction of the Petty Sessional Division of East Grinstead, viz.:—The parishes of Worth, East Grinstead, West Hoathly, Hartfield, and Withyham. And that any person in anywise offending therein will, for every such offence, forfeit a penalty not exceeding £20.

Given under our hands at the Petty Sessions aforesaid.

De La Warr.
Bernard Hale.
Frederick Moor.

CATTLE PLAGUE

Borough of Ashton-under-Lyne.

I, THE undersigned, Mayor of the Borough of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the county of Lancaster, by virtue and in exercise of the powers given to me by an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, do hereby declare as follows:—

That it is expedient to prevent the removal of all cows, heifers, bulls, oxen, calves, sheep, and lambs to any market or fair, or any other place, within the said borough, for the purpose of exhibition or sale from the date hereof until the 1st day of March next.

That it is also expedient (subject to the provisions of the said Order) that from this time until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, ox, calf, sheep, or lamb shall be brought from any place in Great Britain beyond the boundary of the said borough to any place within the said borough, except such as shall be fat and intended for immediate slaughtering and shall be slaughtered within 48 hours after they are so brought into the said borough.

And I hereby give notice, that any person offending against the said Order will be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

Dated this 29th day of December, 1865.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Welchpool.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, I the undersigned, Thomas Jones, Esquire, Mayor of the borough of Welchpool, do hereby declare that it is expedient until the 1st day of March next, to prevent the removal of the following animals, namely, every cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said borough, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, except under the following conditions, namely, that such animals are for immediate slaughter, and that the owner thereof shall, previously to their being brought into the said borough, have obtained from a Justice of the Peace, or a duly appointed inspector of the district from which the animal shall have been brought, a certificate authorising such removal, and stating that the animal is free from disease, and has not been depastured or kept in any parish or Petty Sessional Division in which cattle disease has appeared, within two months then last past, and which certificate shall be produced by the driver of the animals to any police officer requiring the production thereof.

And it is further ordered that all such animals shall be slaughtered within seven days after being brought into such borough, and it will therefore be unlawful for any person to bring or send any such animals into such market or fair, or to any place within such borough, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, and to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animals brought or sent, except in accordance with the above conditions.

And I do further give notice, that it is expedient from the date of this notice until the 1st day of March next, that animals as hereinbefore defined, except in accordance with the foregoing conditions, shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said borough, and that it will not be lawful for any person, previously to the said 1st day of March, to bring or send any such animals from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said borough, except in accordance with the conditions aforesaid.

Every person offending herein will for every offence forfeit a sum not exceeding £20.

As witness my hand this 30th day of December, 1865.

Thomas Jones.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Stewartry of Kirkeudbright.

AT a meeting of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the stewartry of Kirkeudbright, in sessions assembled, at Kirkeudbright, on the 4th day of January, 1866, the Justices, in virtue of the powers contained in an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, declare that it is not expedient and shall not be lawful for any person to remove from any place not within the jurisdiction of the said Justices into any place within their jurisdiction, any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lambs, goats, or swine, provided that nothing contained in this resolution shall be construed to prevent such animals being taken from the burgh of Castle Douglas, straight to the railway station there, for the purpose of being immediately exported beyond the stewardry.

Any person offending against this Order, shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum of money not exceeding £20 sterling, as the Justices may seem fit to impose.

This resolution to continue in force from this date until the 18th of this month inclusive.

By order of the Justices,
(Signed) Ay. S. Keoch,
Clerk of the Peace.

Kirkcudbright, January 4, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Montgomeryshire to wit.

AT the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, held at the Town Hall, in Welshpool, in and for the county of Montgomery, on Thursday, the 4th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1866, before the Right Honourable Edward James, Earl of Powis, Charles Watkin Williams Wynn, Esquire, M.P., and others their associates, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to preserve the Peace in the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors done and committed therein.

In pursuance of the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 16th day of December last, the Justices of the Peace assembled at the said Court of Quarter Sessions, with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder designated as the "Cattle Plague," do hereby revoke, from and after the 10th day of January, 1866, all appointments made, notices given, and other Acts done by any local authority in the county of Montgomery (such local authority not being the local authority of the municipal borough), under and by virtue of the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, or any Order or Orders thereby revoked; and in lieu of such Orders do hereby declare that it is expedient upon and after the said 10th day of January, and until the 1st day of March next, to prevent the removal of every cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, goat, or swine to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said county of Montgomery, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, and that it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal into such market or fair, or to any place within such county for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animals so brought or sent.

And we do by this notice further declare that it is expedient upon and after the said 10th day of January instant, and until the said 1st day of March next, that no such animals as hereinbefore defined shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said county of Montgomery; provided that nothing herein contained shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any animal of the kinds aforesaid by railway through or out of the said county of Montgomery; provided also that nothing herein contained shall make it unlawful for any person to remove any such animal from land in this county to land actually adjoining and in his own occupation in any other county, and held therewith as part of the same farm, or to remove any such animal from land in any other county to land in this county, actually adjoining and in his own occupation as part of the same farm.

Every person offending herein will for every such offence forfeit the sum of £20.

By the Court,
Harrison, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Cornwall. — Middle Division of the Hundred of East.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons in the above division comprising the parishes following, viz. :—

Callington	Pillaton
Calstock	Quethiock
St. Dominick	South-hill
St. Ive	Linkinhorne
St. Mellion	Stokeclimsland
Menheniot

Who shall have in their possession or custody any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, or calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, seized or labouring under the disorder now prevailing and generally designated the "Cattle Plague," are forthwith to give notice thereof, for the Parishes of Callington, St. Ive, Menheniot, Linkinhorne, South-hill, to Mr. Lamb, Veterinary Surgeon, Liskeard; for the Parishes of Pillaton, Quethiock, and St. Mellion, to Mr. Tucker, Veterinary Surgeon, Molenick, St. Germans; for St. Dominick and Calstock, to Mr. Ridgman, Veterinary Surgeon, Tavistock; and for Stokeclimsland, to Mr. Warne Raddall, Veterinary Surgeon, Southpetherwin.

And notice is hereby further given, that we the under-signed Justices of the Peace acting in and for the said division, by virtue and in exercise of the power given us by the Acts of Parliament and Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council issued in reference thereto, do hereby forbid all persons bringing and sending until the 1st day of March next, any animal or animals as aforesaid to any market or fair or to any place within the said division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale. Any person may however exhibit or sell on his own land or premises any such animal or animal's belonging to him, which has or have been on such land or premises for not less than twenty-one days previous to such sale.

And we do hereby declare, that it is expedient until after the said 1st day of March next, that no such animal or animals as aforesaid shall be brought or removed from any part of Great Britain into any place within the said division, and it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal or animals from any place in Great Britain beyond the said division, comprising the parishes aforesaid, until after the said 1st day of March next; but that any person may send or carry any such animal or animals by railway through such division, and with the license of any two Justices acting in and for the said division, may bring or send any such animal or animals from any land or premises in his own occupation and beyond the said division, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within the said division.

Every person offending against this Order, shall for every offence forfeit not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted may think fit to impose.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Leicester.

By virtue of the authority conferred by a certain Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, made in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament therein-mentioned, and of another Order of the said Privy Council, made on the 16th day of December, 1865, and of all other Orders and authorities enabling me in this behalf, I, Thomas William Hodges, Esq., Mayor of the borough of Leicester, with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder designated the "Cattle Plague," do by this notice declare, that it is expedient to prevent the removal after this day, and until the 1st day of March next, of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf (fat or store), to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the borough of Leicester, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

And I do by this notice order and declare, that from and after the publication of this notice, until the said 1st day of March next, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal as aforesaid into any market or fair, or any place whatever within the said borough, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell, any such animal so bought or sent.

And, with the view aforesaid, I do by this notice further declare that it is expedient from and after the day of the publication of this notice, until the said 1st day of March next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the borough of Leicester (unless the same shall be so brought with my permission in writing for the purpose of transit through the said borough), save and except on the following conditions, namely, 1stly, that all animals of the description aforesaid, brought to the said borough, shall be brought in a fat and healthy condition to a slaughter-house within the said borough, for the purpose of immediate slaughter, between the hours of six o'clock in the morning and six o'clock in the evening, and shall be slaughtered at such slaughter-house, within three clear days after reaching the same. 2ndly, that the person on whose account such animals shall have been brought to the said borough, shall on the same day on which any of the said animals shall be brought to such slaughter-house give notice in writing to Sergeant Wright, the Sanitary Inspector of the borough, at his office in Silver-street, Leicester, between the hours of nine o'clock in the morning and seven o'clock in the evening, stating the number and description of such animals so brought, and when and by whom, and to what slaughter-house, and on whose account, and the name and residence of the persons of whom the same shall have been purchased, and that the same are in a fat and healthy condition, and brought for the purpose of immediate slaughter, in order that all, or any of the following persons, namely, Mr. Edward Bailey, Veterinary Surgeon (Inspector of Cattle), the Sanitary Inspector, the Assessor of Meat, and the Police Constables, for the said borough, or any other person authorized by me, may inspect and examine the said animals, or the carcase, or meat thereof, and 3rdly, that all or any of the said persons shall at all times during the period aforesaid have free and unobstructed access to the slaughter-house, or place where any such animals as aforesaid shall have been taken or then be, and all buildings and places where the carcase or meat of such animal may be deposited or then be. And take notice, that during the period aforesaid, it will not be lawful to bring or send any such animals as aforesaid into the said borough, except in accordance with such several conditions.

Provided always that nothing contained in this notice shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any animals by railway, through the said borough. And I hereby revoke the notice issued by me on the 7th day of December, 1865.

Any person offending against this notice, or the said Order of Council, will for every offence incur a penalty of not exceeding £20.

Dated this 4th day of January, 1866.

J. W. Hodges, Mayor.

Forms of Notices to the Sanitary Inspector may be obtained on application at his office in Silver-street, Leicester, between the hours of nine o'clock in the morning and four o'clock in the afternoon.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Rutland.

Rutland to wit.—At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the county of Rutland, holden at the Castle of Oakham, in and for the said county, on Thursday, the 4th day of January, 1866, before the Rev. J. H. Fludyer, Chairman, the Right Honourable Gilbert John, Baron Aveland, the Honourable H. C. Lowther, the Honourable G. J. Noel, the Honourable W. C. E. Freke, J. M. Wingfield, Esq., G. Finch, Esq., R. Lucas, Esq., J. H. L., Wingfield, Esq., E. N. Conant, Esq., and C. C. J. Orme, Esq., Justices of the Peace for the said county.

By authority of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 16th day of December, 1865, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said county, in the said Quarter Sessions assembled, did order and declare, and notice is hereby given, that, with the view of preventing the Cattle Plague, it is expedient from this day until the 1st day of March next, to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, to any market or fair, or to any place within the county of Rutland, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animal so brought or sent.

That it is expedient that from this day until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, be brought into the said county from any place beyond the said county.

That it is expedient, that from the 8th day of January instant, inclusive, until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be allowed to travel along any highway in the said county without a certificate signed by two Magistrates of the said county, after mature enquiry, except in cases of Farmers removing such cattle from one part of their farm to another, within the said county, in cases of cows going to the bull, and in cases of fat cattle going to the Butcher's to be slaughtered within forty-eight hours, authority being also given to the Police to require the production of such certificate.

That it is expedient, that from the 8th day of January instant, inclusive, until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf be allowed to travel along any highway in the said county, between the hours of six o'clock in the evening and six o'clock in the following morning.

That it is expedient, that from and after this day no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf be, under any circumstances, allowed to be moved along the highways in any parish or place in which the Inspector has certified that the cattle plague exists.

And every person committing any offence against the tenor hereof, is liable, for every such offence, to a penalty of twenty pounds.

By the Court,

Benjn. Adam, Clerk of the Peace.
Oakham, 4th January, 1866.

N.B.—The parish of Wing, in the said county, has been certified by the Inspector to be a place in which the cattle plague exists.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Hornby Petty Sessional Division of the Hundred of Lonsdale, in the County of Lancaster.

Hornby Petty Sessions,
2nd January, 1866.

(Present—Thomas Greene and W. A. F. Saunders, Esquires.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, it is hereby declared, that with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder called the "cattle plague," it is expedient from and after the publication hereof that animals of the following description, namely, cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, shall not be brought or sent to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said Hornby Petty Sessional Division of the Hundred of Lonsdale, for the purpose of exhibition or sale until after the 28th day of February next.

And it is hereby further declared, that with a like view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, it is expedient till the said 28th day of February next, that animals of the before-mentioned description shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any part of the said Petty Sessional Division.

And notice is hereby given, that from and after the publication hereof it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal into any such market or fair, or to any place within the said Division for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy or sell any such animals so brought or sent.

And notice is hereby also given, that after the publication hereof it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any animal of the before mentioned description from any place in Great Britain beyond the said Petty Sessional Division, into any place within such Division for any purpose whatsoever; provided that nothing herein contained shall be held to prohibit any person from exhibiting or selling on his own land or premises any such animal belonging to him which has been on such land or premises for not less than three weeks previous to such sale, or to prohibit any person sending or carrying any such animals by railway through the said Petty Sessional Division, or to prohibit any person bringing or sending, with the license of any two Justices of the Peace acting in and for the said Petty Sessional Division, any such animals from any land or premises in his own occupation and beyond such Petty Sessional Division, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within such Petty Sessional Division.

And notice is hereby further given, that Mr. John Bromley, of Lancaster, Veterinary Surgeon, has (in pursuance of the said Order in Council), been duly appointed Inspector for the purpose of carrying into effect, within the said Division, the rules and regulations made by the said Order; and that every person having in his possession or under his custody any animal labouring under the above disorder, shall forthwith give notice thereof to him.

Every person offending herein, will for every such offence be liable to a penalty of not exceeding twenty pounds.

The Hornby Division of the Hundred of Lonsdale comprises the following townships; namely: Arkholme-with-Cawood, Burrow-with-Burrow, Cantsfield, Claughton, Farleton, Gressingham, Hornby, Ireby, Leck, Melling-with-Wrayton, Roeburndale, Tatham, Tunstal, Wennington, Whittington, and Wray-with-Botton.

Given under my hand at the Petty Sessions aforesaid.

Thos. Greene, Chairman.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Dunheved, otherwise Launceston.

I, THE undersigned George Graham White, Mayor of the borough of Dunheved, otherwise Launceston, in the county of Cornwall, do hereby declare and give notice, that it is expedient, with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, that in the interval between the date of this Order and the 6th day of February next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall, under any circumstances except as mentioned in the proviso firstly hereinafter contained, be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said borough; and I accordingly prohibit the bringing of any such animal into any place within the said borough from any other part of Great Britain during the interval aforesaid.

Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall make it unlawful for any person having fat cattle fed, or having renewed cows with their calves within any of the parishes comprised within the district of the Launceston Union, or in the parishes of Lifton, Dunterton, Kelly, or Bradstone, within the county of Devon, to bring or send such cattle, cows, and calves, within the said borough; but so nevertheless that the Cattle Inspector for the time being of the said borough shall have the right of inspecting any such cattle, cows, and calves, and of exercising any powers that may be vested in him by virtue of any Order in Council.

Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry away such animals by rail through the said borough, or for any person to bring, or send, with the license of any two Justices acting in and for the said borough, any such animals from any land or premises in his own occupation, and beyond the said borough, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within such borough.

Geo. G. White, Mayor.

Launceston, December 15th, 1865

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Liskeard.

I, THE undersigned, Mayor of the Borough of Liskeard, in the county of Cornwall, do hereby give notice and declare that, with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder commonly designated the "Cattle Plague," it is expedient absolutely to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, to any market or fair, or to any place within my jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, until the 1st day of March next.

And I further give notice and declare that, with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, it is expedient that, until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within my jurisdiction, except under the conditions specified below.

By reason of certain Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865, it will not be lawful, from and after the publication hereof until the 1st day of March next, for any person to bring or send any animal, of the description above mentioned, to any market or fair, or to any place within my jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animal so sent. Nor, except under the conditions below specified, to bring or send any such animal from any place in Great Britain beyond my jurisdiction into any place within the same.

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be held to prohibit any person from exhibiting or selling on his own land or premises any such animal as aforesaid belonging to him, which has been on such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previously to such sale.

And provided that nothing herein contained shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animal, as aforesaid, by railway through or out of the said borough of Liskeard, or with the licence of any two Justices acting in and for the said borough, to bring or send any such animal from any land or premises in his own occupation, and beyond the said borough, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within the said borough.

Every person offending against either of the above-mentioned Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or in contravention of anything herein contained, will, on conviction for every such offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

CONDITIONS REFERRED TO ABOVE.

That every person desiring to send any animal of the description above given to any place within the borough, shall cause four clear days' notice previously to the removal of such animal to be delivered to Mr. Lamb, inspector, of his desire so do so, such notice to contain the number and description of the animals to be removed, the object for which such animals are desired to be sent into the borough, also a declaration that such animals are in good health.

That a certificate be also delivered to Mr. Lamb, signed by a clergyman or churchwarden, and a respectable landowner resident in the parish where such animals have been kept, declaring that they have been kept during fourteen days at least before the date of such certificate in the same place, that they are free from disease, and that the cattle plague had not been within the parish, or within five miles of the farm whence such animals are intended to be removed.

That every animal as aforesaid sent into the borough for transmission by railway be trucked and sent on on the same day it is brought into the borough.

That every animal sent for slaughter be slaughtered within forty-eight hours from the time it is sent into the borough; that it be driven straight to the slaughter-house, and there kept till killed.

That notwithstanding anything herein contained, it shall be competent for any magistrate having jurisdiction in the borough, in his discretion, at any time to forbid any cattle being sent into the said borough.

Albert C. L. Glubb, Mayor.

Liskeard, 5th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Essex January Quarter Sessions, 1866.

IN pursuance of the Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865, the Justices of the Peace for the county of Essex, in Quarter Sessions assembled, at Chelmsford, in the said county, on Tuesday, the 2nd day of January, 1866, do hereby declare (with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder now prevailing amongst cattle in Great Britain, called the "Cattle Plague") that it is expedient that from the 5th day of January, 1866, until the 1st day of March, 1866, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox or calf, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain beyond the said county of Essex into such county, so far as the same is within the jurisdiction of the said Justices so assembled as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the said Orders, or either of them. And the said Justices, so assembled as aforesaid, do hereby further declare, so far as the said county is within their said jurisdiction, that it is expedient that no such animal as aforesaid shall be driven or conveyed along any highway within the said county, from any place within such county to any other place within the same county; provided, nevertheless, that it shall not be unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animal by railway through or out of the said county, so far as aforesaid, or to send or carry any such animal if brought by sea from any place out of Great Britain, into such county, so far as aforesaid, to the nearest convenient railway station, for the purpose of carrying it through or out of such county, so far as aforesaid: Provided also that the prohibitions hereinbefore contained shall not extend to prevent any person or persons living within such county as aforesaid, so far as aforesaid, having animals fitted for slaughter, and which have been bonâ fide in the possession of the owner or owners thereof at least twenty-eight days prior to sale, from sending such animals from any part of such county, so far as aforesaid, to the nearest railway station or to any butcher for the purpose of sale and slaughter only, provided a certificate, signed by two Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of the county within which such owner or owners is or are resident, authorising such removal be first had and obtained for that purpose: And provided lastly, that the prohibitions hereinbefore contained shall not extend to the removal of any animal bonâ fide the property of the occupier of any land or premises within the said jurisdiction of the said Justices from one part of such land or premises to another along any highway for any distance not exceeding 300 yards.

And the said Justices so assembled as aforesaid do hereby further declare and give notice that every person offending against this declaration and notice is liable for every such offence to forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

By the Court,
Gibson, Clerk of the Peace.

THE CATTLE PLAGUE.

Lincolnshire, Holland Elloe.

NOTICE is hereby given, that we, the undersigned, being seven of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of the Hundred of Elloe, in the parts of Holland, in the county of Lincoln, have this day by virtue and in exercise of the power vested in us in and by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 23rd day of November, 1865, ordered, and do by this notice declare, that with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder which is generally designated the "Cattle Plague," it is expedient from and after the 22nd day of December instant (up to which day an Order of prohibition is already in force), until the 1st day of March next, 1866, absolutely to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, or goat, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the aforesaid Petty Sessional Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

And that by the said Order of the Privy Council it is ordered that after the publication of such notice it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal into such market or fair, or to any place within such Petty Sessional Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy or sell any such animals so brought or sent.

Provided that nothing contained in this Order shall be held to prohibit any person from exhibiting or selling on his own land or premises any animal belonging to him which has been on such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previous to such sale.

And notice is also hereby given, that we, the said Justices, have ordered, and do by this notice declare, that it is expedient that from and after this day until the 1st day of March next, 1866, any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, or goat, shall not, except under the conditions hereinafter mentioned, be brought from any other part of Great Britain, into any place within the aforesaid Petty Sessional Division.

Which conditions are—1. That the above Order and notice shall not apply to fat animals consigned for immediate slaughter, and brought by railway and taken direct from the railway station to the premises where such animals are to be slaughtered; provided notice of the consignment and intended slaughter of such animals be given by the consignee to the superintendent, or inspector, or sergeant of police, stationed nearest the consignee's residence, before the arrival of such animals at the station of their destination.

And 2. That all such fat animals brought into the said Petty Sessional Division shall be accompanied by a certificate of good health from an inspector of the district from whence such animals come, or in default the person who either brings or sends the animals shall be considered as offending against this condition.

And that by the said Order of the Privy Council it is ordered that whenever such notice as is above be published, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal, except in accordance with such conditions, as aforesaid, from any place in Great Britain beyond the said Petty Sessional Division into any place within such Petty Sessional Division.

Provided always that nothing contained in the said last-named Order shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway through such Petty Sessional Division.

And provided also that nothing contained in the same Order shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send with the license of any two Justices acting in and for the said Petty Sessional Division to which the above notice applies any such animals from any land or premises in his own occupation, and beyond such Petty Sessional Division, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within such Petty Sessional Division.

And that every person offending against either of the said Orders shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

THE CATTLE PLAGUE.

Norfolk.

HER Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Norfolk, assembled in Quarter Sessions held at the Castle of Norwich in the Shirehouse there, in and for the said county, on Wednesday the 3rd day of January, 1866, in exercise of the power given to them by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, dated the 16th day of December, 1865, do by this notice intended to be published as by the said Order required, declare that it is expedient that from and after the publication of this notice until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall be brought into any place within the said county from any other part of Great Britain. Provided always, that this notice shall not extend to the case of any such animals as aforesaid, which are and have been for twenty-one days before its publication on farms or occupations which lie partly within the county of Norfolk, and partly within any adjoining county, but that such animals may be moved from time to time from one place to another within the limits of such occupation with the permission of two Justices of the Peace for Norfolk. And further that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall be brought, sent, or removed to any market or fair, or any place within the said county for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

And the said Justices do hereby further declare that it is expedient that from and after the publication of this notice until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox or calf shall, except under the provisions and conditions herein-after specified be removed from any place within the said county of Norfolk to any other place within the said county. Provided that nothing in this notice contained shall prevent any owner of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf from removing the same from any land in his occupation to any other land also in his occupation situate in the same or any adjoining parish. Provided also that nothing in this notice contained shall prevent any owner of any lean or store cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf from removing the same from any place in the said county to any other place within the same county, having first obtained the licence of two Justices acting for the Petty Sessional Division in which the place is situate from which the animals are intended to be removed, the said licence to specify the place from which they are to be removed, and the place to which they are to be removed, the route by which they are to travel, and the time during which the licence shall be valid; and the said licence may be granted on such evidence as may satisfy the same Justices that such animals have been on the farm or land from which they are intended to be removed for twenty-eight days previously, and that no case of cattle plague has existed on such farm or land, or within the distance of one mile therefrom, for two calendar months previously to the granting of such licence, but no foreign cattle imported into the said county shall be allowed to travel over any part of the said county, except to a slaughter-house, within the sea-port or parish where they are landed for the purpose of immediate slaughter, or to the nearest railway station for the purpose of being carried out of the county. Provided also, that nothing in this notice contained shall prevent any owner of any cow or heifer from sending the same to a bull from any place within the county to any other place within the same not being distant more than five miles, having first obtained the licence of one Justice of the Peace acting for the Petty Sessional Division within which such cow or heifer is kept, which licence may be granted upon such evidence as the said Justice shall think satisfactory, that there has been no case of cattle plague on the farm on which the cow or heifer, or bull respectively, has been kept for two calendar months previously to the granting of the licence. Provided also, that nothing in this notice contained shall prevent any fat cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox or calf from being removed from any place within the said county to any other place within the same, subject to the following conditions (that is to say):

That the removal of any such animal as last aforesaid be licensed by one Justice of the Peace acting for the Petty Sessional Division in which the place is situate from which such animal is intended to be removed, which licence may be granted on such evidence as shall satisfy the Justice that no case of cattle plague has occurred on the farm or premises from which such animal is to be removed for twenty-eight days previously to its removal, and shall state the place from which such animal is to be removed, and the place to which it is to be removed, the route by which it is to travel, and the time during which the licence shall be valid, that every such animal shall be conspicuously marked by the person applying for the licence, and shall be slaughtered within seven days after its removal under such licence, or be sent by railway out of the county.

Provided also, that every licence to be granted in pursuance of this notice shall be placed in the hands of the person for the time being in charge of the animal or animals being removed, who shall be bound to produce the same to any police officer or other person requesting to inspect it, and the person applying for the licence shall be responsible for the fulfilment of this condition.

And the said Justices so assembled as aforesaid, do hereby revoke all notices at any time heretofore published by any previous local authority within the said county, except as to any liabilities which may have been incurred, or any legal proceedings which may have been taken under any of the said notices.

Every person offending against this notice, or the said Order in Council, is liable to a penalty of £20, to be recovered summarily before the Justices acting for the Petty Sessional Division within which the offence is committed. Half of the penalty awarded is payable to the informer.

By order of the Court,
Parmeter,

Clerk of the Peace for the said County.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

City of Ripon.

I, BENJAMIN PULLEINE ASCOUGH, Esquire, Mayor of the city of Ripon, being the Local Authority, as defined in the Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council in this behalf, do hereby, by virtue and in pursuance of the said Orders in Council, declare and give notice, that it is expedient, from the day of the date hereof until the 1st day of March next, to prevent the removal of all cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine (with a view to prevent the spreading of the contagious or infectious disorder now prevalent, and generally designated the "Cattle Plague"), to any market or fair, or to any place whatever, within the said city of Ripon, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

And that after the publication hereof, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal as aforesaid into any such market or fair, or to any place within the said city, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell, any such animal so brought or sent.

And further, by virtue and in pursuance of the said Orders in Council, we do hereby also declare and give notice that it is expedient, until the said 1st day of March next, that such animals as aforesaid shall not (with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder), be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said city :

And that, after the publication hereof, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal from any place in Great Britain, beyond the said city, into any place within the said city :

But that nothing contained in this notice shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway through the city ; or for any person to bring or send, with the licence of any two Justices acting in and for the said city, any such animals from any land or premises in his own occupation, and beyond such city, to any other land or premises in his own occupation, within the said city.

Given under my hand this 4th day of January, 1866.

B. P. Ascough, Mayor.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Gloucester to wit.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of Our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at the Shirehall in Gloucester, for the county aforesaid, in the first week after the 28th day December, to wit, on Tuesday, the 2nd day of January, in the year of our Lord 1866, and from thence continued and held by adjournment at the Shirehall, in Gloucester, for the said county, on Thursday, the 4th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1866, before John Curtis Hayward, Esq., James Francillon, Esq. (Chairman), and others their Fellows, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said county then and there assembled :

By virtue of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 16th day of December, 1865, and also of another Order of the said Council dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, respectively, made with a view to prevent the spreading of a contagious or infectious disorder called the Cattle Plague, in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament recited in the said Orders of Council : the said Justices of the Peace for the said county of Gloucester, assembled as aforesaid, being the local authority in and for the same county, constituted by the said Order in Council of the 16th day of December, 1865, do hereby revoke all existing orders and notices published respectively by the Justices acting in the several Petty Sessional Divisions of the said county, as the previous local authorities in such, under certain Orders of the said Privy Council relative to the Cattle Plague, provided that such revocation shall not affect any appointment made, or any notice given, or any act done, or any penalty recoverable under the said orders or notices, or either of them.

And the said Justices of the Peace for the county of Gloucester, as such local authority for the said county, constituted by the said Order in Council of the 16th day of December, 1865, do, by virtue of the said Order, and also of another Order in Council dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, and being satisfied of the existence of the cattle plague in the county of Gloucester, hereby order, resolve, and declare as follows :—

That it is expedient, for the purpose of preventing the cattle plague, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, goat, or swine be brought or sent to any market or fair to be holden within the said county, or to any place whatever within the said county, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, from the 6th day of January instant, the date of the publication hereof in the required newspapers, until the 1st day of March next.

That between the said 6th day of January instant and the 1st day of March next no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine be brought from any other part of Great Britain to any place within this county.

And that, between the dates aforesaid, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be removed from one place to another along any of the public highways of the said county, except under the following conditions :—

1st—That fat cattle sold for slaughtering be branded with a X on the hind quarter, and be killed within three days of the time of removal, such removal to take place only upon the certificate of a Justice of the Peace acting for the Petty Sessional Division from which such cattle come, stating the name and residence of the seller, and the destination of such cattle, with the name of the purchaser, and the fact that the Justice has been satisfied (by the evidence of the Inspector or otherwise) of the healthiness of such cattle, and that they have been in the possession of the seller for at least thirty days previously, and that no case of cattle plague has occurred within two months within five miles of the place from which they come, such certificate to be in force for not more than three days.

2nd—That store cattle may be removed only upon a certificate granted by two Justices at the Petty Sessions of the Division from which such cattle are to be removed, setting forth the name and residence of the owner in whose possession such cattle have been for at least thirty days previous to the granting of such certificate. Also that such store cattle have been shown to the satisfaction of the Justices (upon the evidence of the Inspector, or otherwise) to be then healthy, and that no case of cattle plague has occurred within two months within five miles of the place from which they are to be so removed, with the reasons for the removal of such cattle, their destination, with the name and residence of the party to whom they are sent. Such certificate to be in force for not more than five days.

That every certificate be executed in triplicate, one part thereof to be forthwith transmitted by the Justice or Justices granting the same to the Clerk of the Peace at Gloucester, one to be retained by the seller, and one to be delivered to the purchaser, and be held by the person in charge of the cattle to be by him shown to any one requiring to see the same, and on the arrival of the cattle at their destination to be forthwith transmitted by the purchaser or owner to the officer in charge of the nearest police station. Such certificate to be revocable if improperly obtained, or on other reasonable grounds.

Provided that this Order shall not extend to prevent any occupier of a farm from using a public highway for removing his cattle from one part of his farm to any other part of the same farm.

And notice is hereby given, that from and after the publication of this Order in a newspaper circulating within the county of Gloucester (the jurisdiction of the said local authority), any person offending herein will for every offence forfeit a penalty of not exceeding £20.

By the Court,

J. Curtis Hayward, Chairman.

James Francillon, Chairman of the Second Court.

Geo. Kiddiford, Deputy Clerk of the Peace for the county of Gloucester.

Shirehall, Gloucester,

Notice.

County of Lanark.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Lanark, in Sessions assembled, at Hamilton, on the 22nd day of December, 1865, in exercise and by virtue of the powers conferred by the consolidated and amended Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 23rd November last, 1865, and the statutes therein referred to, resolved, and with a view to prevent the spreading of the contagious or infectious disorder among the cattle of Great Britain, generally designated the "Cattle Plague," do hereby declare that it is expedient for and during the period from the publication of this notice to the 1st day of March, 1866, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or lamb shall be brought from any place in Great Britain, beyond the jurisdiction of the local authority of the county of Lanark, into any place within that jurisdiction; and that after notice shall have been published of this resolution and declaration, in the manner set forth in the said Orders, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or lamb into any place within the jurisdiction of the local authority of the county of Lanark, from any place in Great Britain beyond such jurisdiction, all in terms and within the meaning of the 18th of the aforesaid consolidated and amended Orders, under the exceptions contained in the provisions therein set forth.

And notice is hereby further given, that every person offending against the said Orders and this notice shall, in pursuance of the foresaid statutes, for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

Belhaven, Lieutenant, Chairman of the Meeting.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Denbigh.—Division of Uwchuddulas.

WHEREAS by authority of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, made in pursuance of several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, we, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Denbigh, acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Uwchuddulas, in the said county, do now by this notice declare that it is expedient that until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or swine, shall be removed to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within our jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, except the owner thereof shall previous to removal make oath before one or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, that the animals as hereinbefore defined, for which the licence of removal is required, have been in his or her possession for at least twenty-one days previous to his or her application; and that there have been no animals as hereinbefore defined suffering from the cattle plague on land in his or her occupation at anytime; having made such oath the applicant shall receive license in writing from such Justice or Justices of the Peace to remove the said animals to some place to be named in such license, which license shall have effect for a period of three days, inclusive of the day on which it is issued; we also by this notice, declare that from the date of this Order until the 1st day of March next, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring any such animal, except in accordance with such conditions as aforesaid, from any place in Great Britain beyond our jurisdiction, into any place within our jurisdiction.

Every person offending against the above-named Order is liable to a penalty of not exceeding £20. Given under our hands and seals this 18th day of December, 1865.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Truro.

I, JEREMIAH REYNALDS, Mayor of the said borough, do hereby, by virtue and in exercise of the powers given to me by an Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, declare that all cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, and calves, shall, from the date of the publication hereof until the 28th day of February next, be excluded from all markets and fairs to be held within the said borough; and I do hereby further declare that no such animals or animal shall, within the periods aforesaid, be brought from any other part of Great Britain into the said borough, except such animals as are intended for slaughter within seven days thereafter, and I hereby prohibit the same accordingly; provided always that nothing herein contained shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals or animal by rail through the said borough.

Every person offending against this Order shall for every offence forfeit any sum, not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted may think fit to impose.

J. Reynolds, Mayor.

Dated Truro, 14th December, 1865.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Renfrew.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Renfrew, in Sessions assembled, have resolved and declared, and do hereby in virtue of the Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 23rd November last,

Resolve and Declare,

That it is expedient that from the date of this notice until the 1st day of March next, no animals (meaning thereby any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine,) shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said county: provided always, that sheep or lambs may be brought into the said county if they have not been recently in a public market, or have not been conveyed by railway; and provided also, that it shall be lawful to send or carry animals by railway through the said county, and also to bring or send animals from land or premises in a person's own occupation and beyond the said county, to any other land or premises also in such person's own occupation within the said county, if, in this last case, a license be obtained from any two Justices of the said county.

Further,

In virtue of the Order of said Privy Council, of date 16th December last, the said Justices have resolved and declared, and do hereby

Resolve and Declare,

That it is expedient that during the time above specified, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be removed from any place within the said county, to any other place within the said county over any turnpike or statute labour or other public road: provided always, that such animals, on a farm intersected by such roads, may be removed along or across such roads from place to place of such farm.

And notice is further given, that any person contravening the above resolution and declaration, shall thereby act unlawfully, and shall for every offence forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds sterling.

By authority of the said Justices.

Robert Wright, Clerk of the Peace.
Greenock, 4th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Elgin.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Justices of the Peace for the county of Elgin, assembled in sessions at Elgin, on the 22nd day of December current, under the authority of the Order pronounced by the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 23rd November last, relative to the Cattle Plague, unanimously resolved as follows, viz. :—

1st. "The Justices of the Peace for the county of Elgin, in sessions assembled at Elgin, on the 22nd day of December, 1865, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them as the local authority within the said county, by the Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, relative to the cattle plague, do hereby declare :—that it is expedient, for the period from this date to the 1st day of March next, that the animals referred to in the said Order, that is to say, cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine shall, with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, not be brought from any place in Great Britain, either by sea or land, other than from places within the counties of Caithness, Sutherland, Ross, Cromarty, and Nairn, and those parts of the county of Inverness lying to the north and west of the River Spey, to any place within those parts of the county of Elgin or Moray, lying on the north and west of the River Spey; and that such animals, except from the places aforesaid, shall be excluded accordingly. And, second, that it is expedient for the present to suspend all markets for cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine within the county of Elgin, from and after this date until further notice."

Persons offending against the said Order in Council shall, for each offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted may think fit to impose.

James Grant, Clerk of the Peace.

Elgin, 23rd December, 1865.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Elgin.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Justices of the Peace for the county of Elgin, assembled in Sessions at Elgin on the 5th day of January current, under the authority of the Order pronounced by the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 23rd November last, relative to the "Cattle Plague," unanimously resolved as follows, viz. :—"The Justices of the Peace for the county of Elgin, in Sessions assembled at Elgin on the 5th day of January, 1866, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them as the Local Authority within the said county, by the Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, relative to the cattle plague, do hereby, with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, declare—1st. That it is expedient, for the period from this date to the 1st day of March next, that animals as defined by said Order, that animals as defined by said order, that is to say, cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, shall not be brought from those parts of the county of Elgin or Moray lying to the south and east of the River Spey, and from any other place in Great Britain either by sea or land other than from places within the counties of Caithness, Sutherland, Ross, Cromarty, and Nairn, and those parts of the county of Inverness lying to the north and west of the River Spey, to any place within those parts of the county of Elgin or Moray, lying on the north and west of the River Spey, and that such animals, except from the places aforesaid shall be excluded accordingly. 2nd. That it is expedient for the period from this date, to the 1st day of March next, that the said animals, defined as aforesaid, shall not be brought from any place in the county of Elgin or Moray, or from any other part of Great Britain, either by sea or land, excepting from the county of Banff, to any place within that part of the county of Elgin or Moray situated to the east of the River Spey, and to the north of the River Avon: and that the Orders of 1st and 22nd December last are altered and modified so far as differing from, and inconsistent with, this Order.

Persons offending against the said Order in Council shall for each offence forfeit a sum not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted may think fit to impose.

James Grant, Clerk of the Peace.

Elgin, 6th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Nottinghamshire.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at the Shire Hall, in Nottingham, in and for the county of Nottingham, on the 1st day of January, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Queen Victoria, and in the year of our Lord 1866, and adjourned from thence to and holden in pursuance of such adjournment at the Shirehall aforesaid, on Wednesday the 23rd day of January in the same year, before the Right Honourable Edward, Lord Belper, Francis Hall, Henry Sherbrooke, Charles Paget, Robert Holden, James Thomas Edge, Richard Milward, Walter Need, Esquires, The Rev. George Francis Holcombe, and John Lawrence Prior, Clerks, Justices of our said Lady the Queen assigned to keep the Peace in the said county.

The Justices of the Peace for the county of Nottingham in Quarter Sessions assembled the 3rd day of January, 1866, in pursuance of the authority vested in them by an Order of the Privy Council dated the 16th day of December, 1865, and of another Order dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, therein recited, do hereby give notice, declare, and order as follows:—

1st.—That all notices given, and Acts done by any local authority in the county of Nottingham, in pursuance of the said Order of the Privy Council, dated the 23rd November, 1865, or of any Order recited therein, shall, from and after the publication of this notice, be, and the same are hereby revoked, except so far as regards the appointment of any inspector in the said county.

2nd.—That it is expedient to prevent, until the 1st day of March next, the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever in the county of Nottingham for the purpose of exhibition or sale; and the said Justices do therefore hereby give notice that after the publication of this notice it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal, as last aforesaid, into any market or fair, or to any place within the county of Nottingham for the purpose of exhibition or sale; and that it shall not be lawful for any person in the county of Nottingham to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animal, as last aforesaid, so brought or sent.

Provided that any person may exhibit or sell on his own premises any animal belonging to him which has been on such land or premises not less than 21 days previous to such exhibition or sale, but no animal so exhibited or sold, shall be removed from the seller's premises alive, except under a license of two Justices in Petty Sessions assembled.

3rd.—The said Justices further give notice and declare that it is expedient that no such animal as aforesaid shall (except as hereinafter mentioned) be brought from any other part of Great Britain, beyond the county of Nottingham, into any place within the county of Nottingham; and thereupon the said Justices do hereby give further notice that until the said 1st day of March next, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal as aforesaid, from any place in Great Britain, beyond the county of Nottingham, into any place within the county of Nottingham.

Provided, that it shall be lawful for any person to send, or carry any such animal as aforesaid, by railway through the county of Nottingham, and for any person to bring, or send (with the licence of two Justices, acting for the county of Nottingham, in Petty Sessions assembled), any such animal as aforesaid, from any land, or premises in the occupation of such person beyond the county of Nottingham, into any land or premises in the occupation of such person within the county of Nottingham.

4th.—The said Justices do further give notice and declare, that until the first day of March next it shall not be lawful for any person to permit any such animal, as aforesaid, to be upon, or pass along any highway, or public road in the county of Nottingham, for a greater distance than one hundred yards, for any purpose whatever, except with the written licence of two Justices in Petty Sessions assembled, and under such restrictions as in such licence shall be mentioned.

The said Justices do further give notice and declare that it is expedient until the 1st day of March next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be removed from any parish or township in the county of Nottingham to any other parish or township in the county of Nottingham; and thereupon the said Justices do hereby give further notice, that until the 1st day of March next it shall not be lawful for any person (except as hereinafter mentioned), to remove any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, from any parish or township in the county of Nottingham, to any other parish or township in the county of Nottingham.

Provided, that it shall be lawful for any person to send, or carry any such last-mentioned animal by railway through or out of the county of Nottingham, where such person shall have received due licence to convey such cattle to the railway.

Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any person to remove any such animal, as last aforesaid, from any land, or premises in his occupation in any parish or township in the said county of Nottingham, to any other land or premises in his occupation in any other parish or township in the said county of Nottingham, with the written licence of two Justices of the Peace of the said county of Nottingham, in Petty Sessions assembled.

Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any person with the licence of two Justices, in Petty Sessions assembled, to remove any such animal from any parish or township in the said county of Nottingham, to any other parish or township in the said county, for the purpose of slaughter, within twelve hours, and provided that the place of slaughter be within two miles of the place from whence such animal shall be removed.

By the Court,
T. F. A. Burnaby, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Staffordshire.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, holden at Stafford, in and for the said county of Stafford, upon Monday, the 1st day of January, in the year of our Lord 1866, and from thence adjourned day by day until Wednesday, the 3rd day of the said month of January, before the Right Honorable Thomas George, Earl of Lichfield, Chairman, Thomas Fletcher Twemlow, Esquire, and others their fellows, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace in the county aforesaid, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors committed in same county.

Smith Child, Esquire, Sheriff.

WHEREAS by an Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, made in pursuance of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the 11th and 12th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to prevent until the 1st day of September, 1850, and to the end of the then next Session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders amongst sheep, cattle, and other animals," and which Act has since from time to time been continued by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act passed in the session of the 28th and 29th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter 119. It was ordered by section 16 of the said Order in Council, that whenever any local authority as thereinbefore defined declares by notice published in any newspaper circulating within his or their jurisdiction, that it was expedient for a time to be specified in such notice to prevent the removal of animals as therein before defined or some specified description thereof, either absolutely or except under such conditions as such local authority should think fit to impose with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within his or their jurisdiction for the purpose of exhibition or sale, then in such case and after the publication of such notice it should not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal or description thereof, except in accordance with such conditions as aforesaid, into such market or fair, or to any place within such jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell, any such animal so brought or sent.

And by section 18 of the said Order in Council it was further ordered—That whenever any local authority as thereinbefore defined, declared, by notice published in any newspaper circulating within his or their jurisdiction, and also by notice published in some newspaper or newspapers circulating within the county or counties bordering upon the county within which the jurisdiction of such local authority was situate, that it was expedient for a time to be specified in such notice that animals as thereinbefore defined, or some specified description thereof, should not either absolutely, or except under such conditions as such local authority should think fit to impose, with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within his or their jurisdiction, it should not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal, or description thereof, except in accordance with such conditions as aforesaid, from any place within such jurisdiction.

And whereas by section 5 of the said Order in Council, it was further ordered, that the local authority in any Petty Sessional Division in England or Wales (exclusive so far as relates to the jurisdiction of the Inspectors of so much of the said division as lies within the limits of a municipal borough for which an Inspector had been appointed) should be the Justices acting in and for such Petty Sessional Division. And whereas by another Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council dated the 16th day of December, 1865, it was ordered that so much of the said Order dated the 23rd November, 1865, as defined the local authority in Great Britain was thereby revoked. And it was ordered that the local authority in every county, riding, or division of a county or liberty, having a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace in England or Wales, should be the Justices of the Peace for the said county, riding, or division of a county or liberty: in General Quarter Sessions assembled; and it was thereby provided, that no county of a city, or county of a town or borough which is within the provisions of the Municipal Corporation Act should be deemed for the purposes of the said Order part of a county, riding, division or liberty. And by section 5 of the said Order of the 16th December, 1865, it was further ordered that any local authority might from time to time renew, revoke, alter or vary all or any part of any notice published, or to be published by him or them, or any previous local authority within his or their jurisdiction, under the powers given by the reciting or any former Order either absolutely or under such conditions as to such local authority might seem proper by a further notice to be published in the same manner as such notice was required to be published. And whereas the Justices of the several Petty Sessional Divisions of the county of Stafford, in pursuance of the powers given to them by sections 16 and 18 of the said recited Order in Council dated the 23rd November, 1865, and of other previous Orders in Council, have made and published in the manner required by the said Orders in Council divers notices for the prevention of the removal of animals within their several Petty Sessional Divisions, either absolutely or under such conditions as are in such notices respectively declared. And whereas it is expedient to revoke all such notices, except any Order or Orders made by the said Justices in Petty Sessions for the appointment of any Cattle Inspector or Inspectors.

It is hereby ordered and declared by this notice made in pursuance and by virtue of the said Order in Council of the 16th December, 1865,

That all and each and every notice heretofore made and given under and by virtue of any Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council by any Justice or Justices of the Peace acting in and for any Petty Sessional Division of the said county, except any Order or Orders made by such Justices for the appointment of any Inspector or Inspectors of Cattle in the said county shall be and the same and each and every of them are and is hereby absolutely revoked from and after the 5th day of January, 1866.

By the Court,

R W. Hand,
Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Staffordshire.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, holden at Stafford, in and for the said county of Stafford, upon Monday, the 1st day of January, in the year of our Lord 1866, and from thence adjourned day by day until Wednesday, the 3rd day of the said month of January, before the Right Honourable Thomas George Earl of Lichfield, Chairman, Thomas Fletcher Twemlow, Esquire, and others their fellows, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the peace in the county aforesaid, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors committed in the same county.

Smith Child, Esquire, Sheriff.

It is ordered and declared, by this notice, given in pursuance and by virtue of two Orders of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November and the 16th day of December, 1865, that it is expedient, with a view to prevent the spreading of the contagious and infectious disease generally designated the "Cattle Plague," to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, to any market or fair within the said county of Stafford (except the market held at Stoke-upon-Trent), for the purpose of exhibition or sale, from the 6th day of January, 1866, to the 1st day of March, 1866.

And it is further ordered and declared, by this notice, that from and after the publication of this notice, and for and during the said period from the said 6th day of January to the 1st day of March, 1866, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, into any market or fair within the said county of Stafford (except as aforesaid), for the purpose of exhibition or sale; or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell, any such animal so brought or sent. Provided that nothing in this notice contained shall be held to prohibit any person from exhibiting or selling, on his own land or premises, any animal belonging to him, which has been on such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previous to such sale. And provided also, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, shall be removed from any part of the said county of Stafford to the Stoke-upon-Trent market, except under the conditions by this notice hereinafter imposed and declared, with respect to the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, from place to place within the said county of Stafford; except that it shall not be necessary to obtain a separate certificate and license for each sheep, lamb, or swine, but with the consent of the Justice or Justices of the Peace hereinafter mentioned, any number of such sheep, lambs, or swine, may be included in one certificate and license.

And it is further ordered and declared, that it is expedient, with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disease called the "Cattle Plague," that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be removed from place to place within the said county of Stafford, from the 6th day of January to the 1st day of March, 1866, except under such conditions as are hereinafter imposed; and which conditions are hereby declared to be as follows:—

That the owner of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, who shall wish to remove any such animal from place to place within the said county of Stafford, shall fill up and sign a separate certificate for each such animal he shall desire to remove, with the following particulars:—The name of the parish or place from which each such animal is intended to be removed, the name of the owner of each such animal, and a description of such animal, the place to which it is intended to remove each such animal, the route each such animal is to travel, and the name of the person to whom each such animal is to be delivered; and it shall also be certified therein that the parish or place from which each such animal is to be removed is then free from the cattle disease, and that each such animal is also free from disease, and has not been exposed in any public market or place within the space of forty days from the date of such certificate; and the said certificate when so filled up and signed by the said owner shall also be signed by two Members of a District Committee of the county of Stafford Cattle Insurance Company, or by a duly appointed inspector of the North Staffordshire Cattle Insurance Company, or by two Members of the Board of Guardians of the Union from which it is proposed to remove each such animal (each such Guardian being an owner of not less than three head of horned cattle in the said Union), who shall have personally seen each such animal within twenty-four hours prior to their or his signing the said certificate. And one of such persons, not being the owner, shall sign the said certificate in the presence of a Justice of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of the said county of Stafford in which the place from which it is intended to remove each such animal is situate, who being satisfied of the truth of such certificate shall countersign the same, and indorse thereon a license to remove each such animal to the place and by the route named in such certificate on a day to be named in such license, between the hours of 6 a.m. and 6 p.m. And such certificate, with the license indorsed thereon as aforesaid, shall be delivered by the owner of each such animal to the drover of each such animal, and shall be produced by him on demand to any person requiring to inspect the same. And such certificate shall be valid and available only for the day for which it is granted, and for the removal of the animal described therein to the place described therein, and for no other purpose whatsoever.

Provided also that when any such animal having been removed under the conditions and with such license as aforesaid, shall be sold by public auction for immediate slaughter, each such animal shall be slaughtered at the place of sale.

Provided also that nothing herein contained shall prevent the owner of any cow usually kept at night within any building in any town or place from driving such cow, so long as the said cow shall continue free from disease, to and from her pasturage daily, for the purpose of milking and housing such cow, upon such owner obtaining a certificate from the Cattle Inspector of his district, such certificate to be also signed by a Justice of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of the county of Stafford in which the place where the cow is kept is situated, that such cow is free from disease.

Provided also that nothing herein contained shall prevent any person from driving any such cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, across any highway, from any part of a farm in his own occupation to any other part of the same farm, so long as the animals on his farm are free from disease, and so long as there is no cattle plague in the neighbourhood of such farm. Nor shall anything herein contained prevent any person from bringing or sending any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, from any land or premises in his own occupation, in the county of Stafford, to any other land or premises in his own occupation, in the said county, being part of one and the same holding in each such case, with the license of any two Justices acting in and for the said county.

Provided also that any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, bought in the Wolverhampton Market, or in the Stoke-upon-Trent or Hanley Markets, in the county of Stafford, and coming into the jurisdiction of the county of Stafford, from the Wolverhampton or Hanley Markets, or coming from the Stoke-upon-Trent Market, with a separate certificate for each such animal, signed by the inspector of the market from which each such animal shall come that each such animal is free from disease, and is bought for immediate slaughter, each such animal being also branded with the date of the day of sale, shall be allowed to proceed within the jurisdiction of the county of Stafford, from the said Wolverhampton Market, to any place within the limits of the Parliamentary borough of Wolverhampton, and to either of the following places, Wednesbury, Darlaston, Tipton, and Westbromwich, and from the said Stoke-upon-Trent and Hanley Markets, to any place within the limits of the Parliamentary borough of Stoke-upon-Trent, in each and every case with the license of two Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Divisions of Wolverhampton and Bilston, or Stoke-upon-Trent respectively, such license specifying the place at which each such animal is to be delivered for slaughter, the date of the purchase, the name of the party to whom each such animal is consigned for slaughter. Provided each such animal be slaughtered within five clear days from such day of sale.

Provided also that each such animal shall proceed to its destination by the nearest direct road, and upon arriving at its destination shall be kept in some building or shed, and shall not at any time on such journey, or afterwards, be turned out or exposed in any land or open place.

Provided also that it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said county of Stafford, from time to time to withdraw any license granted by him or them under the powers in this notice contained.

Provided also that the word owner in this notice contained, shall include any bailiff in the actual management of, and residing upon, any farm in the county of Stafford.

And it is further ordered and declared by this notice, that it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or swine, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain (except the boroughs of Wolverhampton and Hanley, under the conditions herebefore provided) into any place within the said county of Stafford (except by railway, and into the town of Stoke-upon-Trent), from the 6th day of January to the 1st day of March, 1866, and that from and after the publication of this notice, and from the said 6th day of January to the said 1st day of March, 1866, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said county of Stafford, except as aforesaid.

Provided also that nothing contained in this notice shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such last named animals by railway, through the jurisdiction of the county of Stafford.

Provided also that no animal whatever shall be removed from place to place within the said county of Stafford, between the hours of six o'clock p.m., and six o'clock a.m.

By the Court,
R. W. Hand, Clerk of the Peace.

PENALTY £20.

Every person offending against the foregoing notice in any particular, shall in pursuance of the said Order in Council, and the Acts therein recited, for every offence, and for each separate animal removed contrary to the conditions imposed by the said notice, forfeit any sum not exceeding £20.

Any person may lay an information, which must be in writing, before a Justice of the Peace of the county of Stafford, against any person committing any offence contrary to the said notice.

The informer is entitled to one-half the penalty.

THE CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Flint.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the county of Flint, assembled in General Quarter Sessions at the County-hall, in Mold, in the said county, on Wednesday, the 3rd day of January, 1866, did order, declare, and direct as follows:—

1. That all notices given by any local authority in the said county, under and by virtue of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, or the Orders thereby revoked, shall be revoked from and after the 6th day of January instant, but that all appointments of Inspectors made by such local authority shall remain valid and effectual.

2. That with a view to prevent the spreading of the contagious or infectious disorder designated the "Cattle Plague," it is expedient from the 6th day of January instant, until the 1st day of March next, to prevent the removal of sheep, lambs, goats, or swine, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said county, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, except under the conditions following; that is to say:—the owner of such animals shall, previous to removal, make a solemn declaration before a Justice of the Peace, that the said animals have been in his or her possession for at least twenty-one days next preceding the day upon which such declaration is made, and that no animals of any description whatever have at any time been suffering from the cattle plague on lands or premises in his or her occupation; and that, thereupon, the said owner shall receive from such Justice a license in writing to remove the said first-mentioned animals to some place to be named in such license, which license shall remain in force for a period of three days, inclusive of the day on which it is issued.

3. That with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall, from the 6th day of January instant, until the 1st day of March next, be removed by driving from place to place along any turnpike-road, highway, or any other road or way not being a private road or way, within the said county of Flint, but subject nevertheless to the provisions of the existing Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, relating to the cattle plague, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865.

4. That this notice shall not affect the borough of Flint.

By order of Court,

A. T. Roberts, Clerk of the Peace.
Mold, January 4, 1866.

N.B. Every person offending against the said Orders is liable to forfeit for every offence a sum not exceeding £20.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Northumberland, 1866.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, held at the Moot Hall, in and for the said county, on the 3rd day of January, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, before Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace assigned to keep the Peace in the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanours done and committed therein.

(Orders in Council, 11 & 12 Vic., cap. 107.)

In pursuance of the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated 16th December, 1865, transferring all the powers contained in the Orders of the said Privy Council of the 23rd November last to the Justices of the Peace for this county, in Quarter Sessions assembled, as the local authority for the purpose of carrying into effect the said Orders in Council, the said Justices at these Quarter Sessions, having weighed and considered the several matters referred to them, made and passed the Resolutions and Orders next hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:

1. Resolved.—That with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, from and after the 5th day of January instant, all appointments made, notices given, and other acts done by any local authority within the county of Northumberland, under and by virtue of the Order in Council of 23rd November last, shall cease to be valid and effectual, except the appointment of Inspectors already made by the Justices in Petty Sessions.

2. And that from and after the said 5th day of January, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any animal as defined by the Order in Council of 23rd November last, from any part of Great Britain into any place within the jurisdiction of this local authority; but this prohibition does not apply to any such animals as are sent by railway through this jurisdiction; nor where any person, with the license of two Justices acting within the limits of this jurisdiction, brings or sends any such animals from any land or premises in his own occupation, and beyond this jurisdiction, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within this jurisdiction.

3. That all markets and fairs for animals as defined by the Order in Council, within this jurisdiction, be prohibited from the 5th of January until the 1st of March.

[N.B. — Newcastle, Morpeth, Berwick, and Tynemouth are not within this jurisdiction.]

4. That the movement of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf from one place to another, within this jurisdiction, be prohibited, except under an Order signed by one Justice of the Petty Sessional Division, in the form (A) hereunto annexed.

5. That no Justices give the aforesaid Order unless he is satisfied that there is due cause for such cattle being removed from one place to another, or for their being taken out of the district, in which case they shall be taken to the nearest railway-station, or to some cattle market out of the jurisdiction.

6. That the person in charge of cattle to be removed from one place to another, within the jurisdiction, shall carry with him the Order for their removal; and that the police, overseers of the poor, and other public officers be strictly charged to require all persons they may find driving cattle along the roads to produce such Order.

By the Court,
Dickson.

CATTLE PLAGUE (A).

I, the undersigned, the owner of the cattle herein referred to, and we, the undersigned, occupiers of land within the Petty Sessional Division of....., in the county of Northumberland, whose rentals are severally £200 a-year, at the least, do hereby declare and certify as follows:

1. That the said owner of the cattle wishes to remove the following animals from his farm of.....to....., viz.:— (Here state the kinds.)

2. That we have personally examined such cattle and the premises in which they have been kept, and that they are healthy and free from cattle plague.

3. That we believe that no cattle plague has existed within 28 days, either in the place in which such cattle has been kept, or within two miles thereof; and that during the whole of which period they have been upon the premises of the said owner.

4. That the following is the route along which the cattle are to pass, no part of which, to the best of our belief, is within two miles of a place infected with the cattle plague. (Here add the route.)

5. And we make this declaration, conscientiously believing the same to be true, by virtue of the statute,

..... Owner of the Cattle.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Hereford.Petty Sessional Division of Wigmore.

WE, the undersigned Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Wigmore, in the county of Hereford, being the local authority acting in execution of an Order in Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, do hereby declare that it is expedient to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, until the 6th day of February, 1866, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within our jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, and we do hereby, therefore, declare, that, after the publication of this notice, it will not be lawful for any person or persons, within the period aforesaid, to bring or send any such animal to such market or fair, or to any place within our jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animal so brought or sent. And we do further declare it is expedient that, until the said 6th day of February, 1866, no animal, as hereinbefore defined, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within our jurisdiction, unless it shall be examined at the homestead from which it is brought, and certified in writing by the Inspector appointed for this division, before any such animal shall be brought into such division, that such animal is free from the Cattle Plague, has been the property of the person from whom it is to be brought at least one month, and has not been brought from or out of any herd, homestead, or neighbourhood where the cattle plague exists. And we do hereby declare that it will not, therefore, be lawful, within the period aforesaid, to bring or send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf from any place in Great Britain beyond our jurisdiction to any place within such jurisdiction, except with the certificate in writing, procured at cost of employer, and on the conditions aforesaid.

And we do further give notice, that Mr. John Jones, of Leintwardine, Veterinary-Surgeon, has been appointed Inspector for the division of Wigmore, and every person who may hereafter have in his possession, or under his custody, within our jurisdiction, any animal labouring under the cattle plague, must forthwith give notice thereof to the said Inspector.

And notice is hereby also given, that any person offending against the said Orders will be liable to a penalty of £20.

Given under our hands, at the Petty Sessions aforesaid, this 19th day of December, 1865.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to renew the list of persons to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners appointed to act in the division of Louth, Esk, and Ludborough, in the county of Lincoln, as Commissioners for the general purposes of the Acts of Parliament for granting to Her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices: Now we, two of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in that behalf, do hereby convene a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners, for the county aforesaid, being respectively qualified to act as such Commissioners, to be holden at the Sessions-house, in Louth, on Wednesday, the 17th day of January, 1866, at half-past eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing fit and proper persons to be Commissioners to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax Acts for the division of Louth, Esk, and Ludborough aforesaid.

Alfred Montgomery.

Inland Revenue, Somerset House,
London, January 8, 1866.

Greenwich Union.—Parish of Saint Nicholas, Deptford.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish of Saint Nicholas,
Deptford, in the county of Kent;—

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said parish is situate;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Saint Nicholas, Deptford, in the county of Kent, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons:—

And whereas, at a meeting held at the vestry hall in the said parish, after public notice in that behalf, on Thursday, the 2nd day of November last, it was (among other things) resolved,—

“That the Poor Law Board be requested to issue an order under their seal of office, directing that the Act passed on the 5th
August, 1850 (13 & 14 Vict. c. 57), entitled ‘An Act to prevent the holding of vestry or other meetings in churches, and for regulating the appointment of vestry clerks,’ shall be applied to and put in force within this parish, as regards that portion of it only which relates to the appointment of a vestry clerk.”

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made their application in writing to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above resolution,

Now, therefore, we, the Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, hereby order and direct as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—That so much of the aforesaid Act as relates to the appointment of a vestry clerk shall forthwith be applied to, and be put in force within the said parish of Saint Nicholas, Deptford.

ARTICLE II.—That an annual salary of one hundred pounds shall be paid to the vestry clerk for the time being, appointed under the authority of the statutes in such behalf and this Order, by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said parish, and be charged upon the poor-rate thereof.

ARTICLE III.—That the salary of such vestry clerk shall be payable up to the day on which he ceases to hold such office, and no longer, and shall be paid by quarterly payments at the several quarters ending at the usual feast days in the year, namely, Christmas-day, Michaelmas-day, Midsummer-day, and Lady-day, with a proportionate sum to be paid to his executors or administrators in case he shall die while holding such office.

And whereas there is a Collector of the poor-rates in the said parish, duly appointed under the Act passed in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, relating to the relief and employment of the poor of the said parish, but it is nevertheless expedient that the poor-rate for the said parish should be made out by the vestry clerk, and that additional duties should be assigned to such vestry clerk.

Now, therefore, we hereby direct,

ARTICLE IV.—That the said vestry clerk shall, in addition to the duties set forth in the said first-mentioned Act, perform the following duty, that is to say,—

Make out the poor-rate and all the poor-rate receipt books of the said parish, and examine and, where necessary, stamp the same.

ARTICLE V.—And we hereby order and direct, that a copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this thirteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

C. P. Villiers, President.

Enfield, Secretary.

Cardiff Union.—Parish of Saint Mary, Cardiff

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Saint Mary, Cardiff, in the county of Glamorgan;—

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said parish is situate;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Saint Mary, Cardiff, in the county of Glamorgan, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons.

And whereas, at a meeting of the Vestry of the said parish, held in the Vestry-room, Saint Mary's Church, Cardiff, after public notice in that behalf, on Thursday, the second day of November last, it was resolved—

“That the Churchwardens be authorized to “ make application to the Poor Law Board
“ to issue an Order, putting in force the 13
“ and 14 Vict., cap. 57, intituled ‘An Act to “ prevent the holding of Vestry or other “ Meetings in Churches, and for regulating
“ the appointment of Vestry Clerks,’ in this “ parish.”

And whereas at a subsequent Vestry meeting, held in the said Saint Mary's Church, Cardiff, on Thursday, the fourteenth day of December instant, it was resolved—

“That such portion of the Act 13 and 14 Vict.,
“ cap. 57, as refers to the holding of Vestries “ or other meetings in churches, be not put “ in force; and such part only as refers to “ the appointment of Vestry Clerk in such “ Act be enforced.”

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said
parish have made their application, in writing, to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above resolutions.

And whereas there is a Collector of Poor Rates in the said parish, duly appointed under an Order of the Poor Law Board in that behalf, but it is nevertheless expedient that the Poor Rate for the said parish should be made out by the Vestry Clerk.

Now, therefore, we, the said Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, hereby order and direct:—

ARTICLE I.—That so much of the said Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty as relates to the appointment of a Vestry Clerk only shall forthwith be applied to, and be put in force within the said parish of Saint Mary, Cardiff.

And at the request of the said Churchwardens, we hereby prescribe and direct, that the said Vestry Clerk shall perform the following duties, in addition to those set forth in the said Act:—

To make out the Poor Rate, and procure the same to be allowed, and to retain the custody thereof.

To prepare the Demand Notes and fill up the Rate Receipt Check Book, and to see that the counterfoils of the receipts detached therefrom by the Collector correspond with the entries in the Collecting and Deposit Book.

To assist the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor in performing all the duties imposed on them by the Union Assessment Act, 1862, and the amending Act, including the preparing of all substitutional and supplemental Valuation Lists, and to attend upon the Assessment Committee on all occasions when the attendance of the Overseers of the Poor is required.

To note all changes that may from time to time occur in the occupation, ownership, and value of assessable property, and all additions thereto; and, where necessary, to prepare supplemental Valuation Lists, so as to give effect to such changes.

To take care that all payments (subject to the directions of the Overseers of the Poor) due from the parish upon orders of the Guardians or Town Council, and all other lawful payments, are duly and punctually made; and also to perform all such other duties as the Poor Law Board, from time to time, at the request of the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor, or otherwise, shall prescribe and direct to be performed by such Vestry Clerk.

ARTICLE II.—That an annual salary of one hundred and eighty pounds shall be paid to the Vestry Clerk for the time being, appointed under the authority of the Statutes in such behalf and this Order, by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said parish.

ARTICLE III.—That the salary of such Vestry Clerk shall be payable up to the day on which he ceases to hold such office, and no longer, and shall be paid by quarterly payments at the several quarters ending at Lady Day, Midsummer Day, Michaelmas Day, and Christmas Day, with a proportionate sum to be paid to his executors or administrators in case he shall die while holding such office.

ARTICLE IV.—That every person appointed to the office of Vestry Clerk in the said parish shall give to the Guardians of the Poor of the Cardiff Union, in the counties of Glamorgan and Monmouth, a bond, in the penal sum of five hundred pounds, in the names of himself and two sufficient sureties, conditioned for the due and faithful performance of the duties of the office; and every such officer shall give immediate notice to the said Guardians of the death, insolvency, or bankruptcy of either of such sureties, and shall, when required by the said Guardians, produce a certificate, signed by two householders, that his sureties are alive and believed by them to be solvent, and shall supply a fresh surety in the place of any such surety who may die or become bankrupt or insolvent:—

Provided that the Guardians may, if they think fit, take the security of any Society or Company expressly authorized by Statute to guarantee or secure the faithful discharge of the duties of any Poor Law Officer.

ARTICLE V.—That the Auditor of the District comprising the said Cardiff Union shall, in the statement required by the General Order of the Poor Law Commissioners, dated the seventeenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to be transmitted to the Poor Law Board of the securities of the officers of the said Union, include the name of the Vestry Clerk for the said parish of Saint Mary, Cardiff, for the time being, appointed under the authority aforesaid, together with the particulars in the said General Order required, and shall report thereon to the Board of Guardians of the said Union, in like manner as therein set forth with reference to the securities of other officers.

ARTICLE VI.—That a copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this thirtieth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

CONTRACT FOR BISCUIT BAGGING FOR THE ROYAL NAVY.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, December 23, 1865.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 11th January next, at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such quantities of

BISCUIT BAGGING,

(for the use of the Royal Navy).

as may from time to time be demanded under a contract for twelve months certain, and further, until the expiration of three months warning.

A pattern of the biscuit bagging may be seen in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, where the conditions of contract may also be seen.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after noon on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract; as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Biscuit Bagging," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £500 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR COALS FOR THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, January 3, 1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 16th instant, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Store at Her Majesty's Naval Yard at Simon's Bay, Cape of Good Hope,

3,500 TONS OF COALS,

One-half of the Coals to be shipped in one month, and the remainder thereof in two months, from the date of contract.

One-third of the quantity to be shipped in each of the above months to consist of North of England Coals, and two-thirds of South Wales Coals.

All the Coals to be fit for the service of Her Majesty's Steamships and Vessels.

A form of the tender and conditions of contract may be seen in the Lobby of the Storekeeper-General's Department, Admiralty, Somerset House.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an Agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Coals for the Cape of Good Hope," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Admiralty, Somerset House, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR OATS, PEPPER, AND TEA.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, December 30, 1865.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday, the 11th January, 1866, at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Oats, 2,500 imperial bushels (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract; and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Pepper, 10,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tea, 100,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per lb.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Separate tenders are to be made for each article.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

The pepper and tea to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the oats (not less than 2 quarts), and of the pepper (not less than 2 lbs.), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for tea must specify the import mark and number of each parcel, the ship in which imported, the dock or warehouse where lying, and must be accompanied by an average sample (not less than two pounds) of each parcel. Tenders failing in any of these conditions will not be entertained.

No oats tendered to be of less weight than 42 lbs. per bushel.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tenders will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantities and rates, and contractors in claiming payment for articles supplied are to make out their invoices in accordance therewith, both as to quantities and rates, excepting those for oats, which are to be in pounds at per 100 lbs.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after noon on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

CONTRACT FOR RUM.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, December 30, 1865.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday, the 11th January, 1866, at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, 50,000 gallons of Rum; to be delivered within three weeks from date of contract.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the rum.

All the casks (except such as may be required for Her Majesty's Service) are to be taken away from the said Stores by and at the expense of the party whose tender is accepted.

Parties tendering are to state a price per proof gallon for the rum, the casks being removed, and also a price per proof gallon for the rum in the event of the casks being retained for Her Majesty's Service.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The rum to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Payment for the rum will be made for the proof gallons to one-tenth of a gallon, the liquid contents being ascertained to the half gallon.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contract, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after noon on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Rum," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

In the Matter of a Deed of Assignment, dated 3rd March, 1865, and made between James Forster Shedlock, late of the Regent Music Hall, Rogent-street, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, Licensed Victualler, and then of No. 33, Stock Orchard-crescent, Holloway, in the said county of Middlesex, out of business, of the one part, and Frederick King, of No. 9, Bessboro'-gardens, Pimlico, in the said county of Middlesex, Builder, of the other part, and which indenture was duly registered under the Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

FREDERICK KING, the trustee of the said deed, hereby gives notice that it is his intention after the 1st day of February, 1866, to declare a Dividend on all debts due from the said James Forster Shedlock, which have either already been proved or which may before the said 1st day of February next, be proved by affidavit or declaration of debt, in the form prescribed by the "Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849," and the "Bankruptcy Act, 1861;" and he further gives notice, that all such proofs are to be sent to the undersigned, Messrs. Mackeson and Goldring, No. 59, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London, Solicitors for and on behalf of the said trustee; and that all persons who do not on or before such 1st day of February next, so make proof of their debts, will be excluded from the benefit of the said Dividend, and all claims heretofore made not then proved will be disallowed.—Dated this 8th day of January, 1866.

MACKESON and GOLDRING.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

In the Matter of a Deed of Arrangement and Release, between Walter Hempstock and Luke Walmley Bateman, both of the borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, Grocers and Tea Dealers, trading under the firm of W. Hempstock and Co., and their creditors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors under the above deed, will be held on Wednesday, the 24th day of January, 1866, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at our offices, No. 2, Quay-street-chambers, Kingston-upon-Hull, when and where the trustees will submit their accounts to the creditors, and at such meeting will declare a Second and Final Dividend, and for the time and place for the payment of the same. All debts and claims not already admitted by the trustees must be proved at or before the meeting, as in case of bankruptcy, or the same will not rank on the estate for the purposes of dividend.—Dated this 6th day of January, 1866.
