Lord Chamberlain's Office, January 30, 1866.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be closed after Friday, the 2nd day of February next, until further notice.

THE following Notices have been received by the Clerk of the Council from the Local Authorities appointed under the Orders of the Lords of the Council, relating to the "cattle plague," and are published in the London Gazette in conformity with the requirements of the 18th section of their Lordships' Order of the 23rd November, 1865 :—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Suffolk to Wit.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden by adjournment at Bury St. Edmunds, in and for the Western Division of the said county of Suffolk, on Friday, the 26th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1866, before Thomas Anderson, Clerk, Chairman, John Henry Heigham, Esquire, Peter Huddleston, Esquire, Benjamin Brydges Hunter Rodwell, Esquire, and others their companions, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the peace within the said county; and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdeeds, in the said county done and committed.

At this Court, held by adjournment for the purpose of considering the Order of the Privy Council, dated 20th day of January instant :—it was resolved and ordered,

That the Order made for the Western Division of the said county on Tuesday, the 9th day of January instant, be confirmed, except as regards Rules two and three of such Order, which will stand as under :

Rule 2. That no cattle be moved from one parish to another, except on adjoining lands, or from the occupation of one person to that of another, except they be in the same parish, without the order of two Justices in Petty Sessions.

Rule 3. That while the cattle plague exists in any parish, and for a period of one calendar month after it has been certified to the Justices at Petty Sessions in which such parish is situate by the inspector of the district, that the parish is free from cattle plague, no live animal shall be moved into, through, or out of such parish. And during such periods, no person shall remove any manure, fodder, hides, skins, or offal out of the said parish, provided always, that the Justices in Petty Sessions may grant orders for the removal of sheep and swine.

By the Court.

Borton, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

At the General Quarter Session of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, holden at Lewes, in and for the county of Sussex, on Monday, the 1st day of January, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and in the year of our Lord 1866, and from thence continued by divers adjournments to and holden at Lewes, in and for the said county, on Tuesday, the 23rd day of the same month of January, before the Right Honorable Henry Thomas, Earl of Chichester, Francis Vernon Harcourt, Esquire, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace in the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other ill deeds done and committed in the county aforesaid.

It is ordered by this Court, holden by adjournment as aforesaid, on the said 23rd day of January, that all Orders made at the General Quarter Session of the Peace, holden at Lewes, in and for the said county, on the said 1st day of January, 1866, or at any adjournment thereof, by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 16th day of December, 1865, and of an Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, be absolutely revoked. And this Court doth further order, by virtue of the said Orders of Her Majesty's Privy Council, as follows :—

I. That all Orders, made in and for the Eastern Division of the county of Sussex, or so much of the said division as is within the jurisdiction of the Justices of the Peace of the said county in Quarter Sessions assembled, by any previous local authority constituted by and under the powers given by the said Order of Her Majesty's Privy
