

the said Petty Sessional Division of Dulverton, in the said county, held at the Court House, in Dulverton, on the 27th day of December, 1865, which division includes the following parishes, namely:—

Brompton Regis.	Hawkrigde.
Brushford.	Skilgate.
Dulverton.	Upton.
Exford.	Winsford.
Exmoor.	Withypool.
Exton.

We, the said Justices present at the said Petty Sessions, do hereby in pursuance of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, declare that with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder called the "Cattle Plague," it is expedient that no animal, that is to say, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, shall be brought or sent to any market or fair holden within, or to any place whatever being within, the said Petty Sessional Division, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, until after the 1st day of March next.

And we do hereby in further pursuance of the said Order, declare that with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, it is expedient that until the 1st day of March next, animals as hereinbefore defined shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain, into any place within the said Division of Dulverton.

And we hereby give notice, that from and after the publication hereof in a newspaper circulating within this Petty Sessional Division, every person who shall bring or send any such animal into any such market, fair, or place, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or who shall receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animal so brought or sent, or who shall bring or send any such animal from any other part of Great Britain, into any place within the said Division of Dulverton, or who shall receive any such animal so brought or sent, will offend against the provisions of the said Order of Council, and be liable to a penalty of £20 for every such offence.

Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send with the license of any two Justices acting in and for the said Division of Dulverton, any such animals from any land or premises in his or her own occupation, and beyond the said division to any other land or premises in his or her own occupation within the said division.

Given under our hands on the day and year aforesaid,

M. Fenwick Bisset,
Jno. Arthur Locke,
Justices of the Peace in Petty Sessions assembled.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Amended Orders.

County of Warwick.

1. THE Justices assembled at the Quarter Sessions held at Warwick, by adjournment, on the 20th day of January, 1866, hereby declare, that from and after the date hereof, until the 1st day of March next, it shall not be lawful to send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf (hereinafter in these Orders called "animal," to any market or fair, exhibition, auction, or sale, in any place within the jurisdiction of the local authority of the county of Warwick.

2. That until the 1st day of March next, the introduction of any such animal as aforesaid into any places and parishes within the said jurisdiction, from parts beyond that jurisdiction, be strictly prohibited.

3. That from the date of these Orders until the 1st day of March next, no such animal shall be permitted to go upon or be driven along any highway or turnpike road within the jurisdiction of the said local authority.

Exceptions and Limitations of this Rule.

1stly. Fat cattle for slaughter under Rule 4.

2ndly. Two Justices of the division may, at their discretion, grant a license under their hands to any occupier to make use of any public road which passes through the land in his occupation, so far as may be necessary for his cattle to pass, in the day-time only, from one part of his land to another, or to his cow-house or homestall; provided that such license shall not be granted for a longer period than for one month at any one time, and shall be liable to be revoked by the said Justices, or either of them, or by any other Justice of the same division, upon the requisition of the Cattle Plague Inspector for the district, or upon such other information given to the said Justices or Justice, as shall in their or his opinion render it expedient that the said license shall be revoked, in the whole or in part; of which revocation the said Justices or Justice shall cause immediate notice to be given to the holder thereof, and also to the police constables of the district.

3rdly. One Justice of the division may, at his discretion, grant a license to any person who shall be the tenant and occupier of two separate farms, both being in the county of Warwick, and not more than five miles apart, to remove his cattle from one farm to the other; the license to specify the number and quality of the animals, and the day on which they are to be removed, and the public road by which they are to travel; the person in charge of the animals to carry the license with him, and the license to be valid only for the day named in it; provided that if the said two farms are situate in different divisions, the above license shall be obtained from a Justice of the division out of which the cattle are to be removed, but it shall not be valid unless it be countersigned by some Justice of the division into which the cattle are intended to be brought.

4thly. One Justice of a division may, for breeding purposes, grant a license, at his discretion, to move any cow or cows, heifer or heifers, along any public road for a limited distance, not to exceed two miles, or thereabout, to any place where a bull is usually kept; the license to specify the number of cows or heifers, the time for which it is granted, the public road to be travelled over, and that the cow or cows, heifer or heifers, is or are the property of the person applying for the license, and have been in his possession for at least one month last past; the person going with the animals to carry the license with him.

5thly. Any Justice of the division in which any sale of live stock takes place, such as has been authorised by the Orders in Council, may, grant a license, at his discretion, to any purchaser of cattle thereat, to remove the said cattle from the place of sale to such place as
