WILLOUGHBY DE ERESBY, G. C.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 1st day of February, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Lord Privy Seal.
Duke of Somerset.
Earl Russell.
Lord Stanley of Alderley.
Sir George Grey, Bart.
Mr. Bruce.
Mr. Göschen.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prevent, until the 1st day of September, 1850, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," and which has since been from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, it is (amongst other things) enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time, to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals; and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act; and that all persons offending against the said Act shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, or such smaller sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council may in any case by such Order direct:

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder has lately appeared, and now prevails, among cattle within that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, which is generally designated as the "cattle plague:"

And whereas it was expedient to take measures for preventing such disorder from extending to that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland; and whereas, for such purpose, Orders were duly made in pursuance of the authority of the said Acts, by the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 25th August and 7th, 13th, and 29th September, and 27th November, 1865; and whereas, by such Orders, the removal to any port or place in that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, from any port or place in that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or lamb, and, with certain exceptions, of the skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any of those animals, was prohibited:

And whereas it has been represented to the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council that a considerable trade is carried on in Ireland by the manufacture of leather from sheep and lamb pelts brought from Great Britain, and that all risk of infection from such pelts is removed by the process of "liming:"

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council do hereby, in exercise of the powers given by the said recited Act, and by the several Acts continuing the same as aforesaid, order as follows:—

That from and after the date of the publication of this Order in the London Gazette, sheep and lamb pelts that have been thoroughly "limed" are hereby excepted from the operation of the said Order of the 29th day of September, 1865, provided such pelts are packed in dry hogsheads (not coopered casks), and that the outsides of the hogsheads are whitewashed before being placed on board ship for conveyance to Ireland.

And the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give such directions herein as may be necessary to insure due obedience to this Order.

Arthur Helps.

THE following Notices have been received by the Clerk of the Council from the Local Authorities appointed under the Orders of the Lords of the Council, relating to the "cattle plague," and are published in the London Gazette in conformity with the requirements of the 18th section of their Lordships' Order of the 23rd November, 1865:—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Montgomeryshire Sessions, 29th January, 1866.

Order as to Hides.

IN pursuance of the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 20th January, 1866, the Justices of the Peace assembled at this Court at Quarter Sessions, with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder designated as the "Cattle Plague," do, in addition to their Order of the 4th instant, prohibiting the removal of cattle from any other part of Great Britain into the said county of Montgomery, by this notice declare that it is expedient upon and after the 3rd day of February next, and until the 1st day of March next, that no raw or untanned hides, or skins, horns, or hoofs, of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf (except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs, as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America), or the offal of any such animals, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter likely to propagate infection, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said county of Montgomery.

Every person offending against this Order will be liable to a penalty of £20.

By the Court,
Harrison, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of the Borough of Carmarthen.

I, THE undersigned, Robert Brodie, Mayor of the said county of the borough, do hereby, in pursuance of the Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, and the 16th day of December, 1865 (subject to the exceptions and conditions in the said Orders contained), order and declare, that with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder generally designated the "Cattle Plague," it is expedient from the date of this Order, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be brought by any railway, or by water, from any part or parts of Great Britain, beyond the jurisdiction of the said county of the borough, and landed in any place within the jurisdiction of the said county of the borough, save and except such of the aforesaid animals as shall be brought in and landed as aforesaid, for the purpose of being slaughtered, and shall be actually slaughtered within twenty-four hours from the time of being so brought in and landed, and this Order shall continue in force until the 1st day of March next.

And notice is hereby given, that any person after this date offending against the said Order and declaration, shall for every such offence be liable to forfeit and pay the sum of £20.

R. Brodie, Mayor.

Guildhall, Carmarthen, 24th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Stamford.

WHEREAS by authority of several Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd November and 16th December, 1865, and 20th January, 1866, and the Orders therein respectively mentioned, I, Octavius Nowlan Simpson, Esquire, Mayor of the borough of Stamford, do give notice and declare that it is expedient that no raw or untanned hide or skin of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, or sheep, be brought within this borough at any time from the date hereof, until the 1st day of March next.

Provided that any person may, but only with the licence of two Justices acting in and for the said borough, bring or send any such hide or skin from any land and premises in his own occupation and beyond this borough, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within this borough.

Every person offending against this Order will be liable to a penalty for every such offence not exceeding twenty pounds.

Given under my hand, in the borough of Stamford, this 27th day of January, 1866.

Octs. N. Simpson, Mayor of the said borough of Stamford.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Burgh of Musselburgh.

I, GEORGE LAURIE, Provost of the Burgh of Musselburgh, by virtue of powers conferred on me by the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council of November 23, 1865, hereby declare that, with a view to prevent the spreading of the cattle plague it is expedient, in terms of the 16th section of said Order, that no living cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, shall, from this date to the 1st day of March next, be admitted to any place within the burgh of Musselburgh for any purpose except immediate slaughter.

I further declare that, for the foresaid reason and for the same period, viz., from this date to the 1st day of March next, it is expedient, in terms of the 18th section of the said Order in Council, that no living cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the burgh of Musselburgh, except the inhabitants' cows returning directly from their ordinary grazing grounds in the immediate vicinity.

(Signed) George Laurie, Provost.

Town Hall, Musselburgh;
27th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Carnarvon.

By virtue and in pursuance of certain Orders by the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, the 16th day of December, 1865, and the 20th day of January, 1866, made in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, we, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Carnarvon, assembled in Quarter Sessions, held at Carnarvon, in and for the said county, on Saturday the 27th day of January, 1866, do now by this notice, order and declare that until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, goat, or swine, or any raw or untanned hides, skins, horns, or hoofs of any such animals, or the offal of any such animals, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter likely to propagate infection, shall be removed or taken from any part or parts of the county of Carnarvon, lying to east of the River Conway, into any other part or parts of the same county, for any purpose or under any conditions whatever.

And further, that until such 1st day of March next, no such animals as aforesaid, or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid shall be removed or taken to any market or fair, within any part of the said county, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

And that no such animals, or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, shall be brought into the said county, or any part thereof, from any place or places whatsoever (except that cattle, sheep, and pigs for immediate slaughter, or hay, straw, and fodder may be brought by road only into the said county from any part of the county of Anglesey, except the parish of Holyhead. And that hay, straw, and fodder may be brought by road only from such parts of Merionethshire as are free from the disease).

Provided always that it shall not be unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals, or any hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, by railway through the said county.

Provided also that it shall not be unlawful for any person to bring or send (with a licence signed by any two Justices acting in and for the said county), any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, from any land or premises in his own occupation, beyond the jurisdiction of the said county, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within the jurisdiction of the said county, during a time to be specified in such licence.

Every person offending against the above Order is liable to a penalty of not exceeding £20.

By the Court,

Poole, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Droitwich.

By authority of Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865, or one of them, made in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, I, the undersigned, Joseph Ashby Fardon, Esquire, Mayor of the borough of Droitwich, do, by this notice, declare as follows:—

First—That, with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," it is expedient, from the day of the date hereof until the 1st day of March next, to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within my jurisdiction as Mayor of the borough of Droitwich, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

Second.—That, until the said 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, shall be brought into any place within my jurisdiction as aforesaid, except for the purpose of being slaughtered; and that every animal brought in under the foregoing exception shall be slaughtered within the limits of the said borough within the space of three days after it shall have been brought within the limits of the said borough; inclusive of the day of bringing in; and shall not be taken out of the said borough alive.

Any person in anywise offending in the premises, will, for every such offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

Provided always, that any animal free from the said disorder may pass through the said borough while in course of removal from one part of the county of Worcester to any other part thereof, by virtue of a licence granted by some Justice of the Peace for the said county, in pursuance of the order of the last Epiphany Quarter Sessions of the said county.

Given under my hand this 16th day of January, 1866.

Joseph Ashby Fardon, Mayor of the borough of Droitwich.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

AMENDED ORDERS.

The Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship of Sutton Coldfield, in the county of Warwick.

1. THE Justices assembled at the Quarter Sessions, held at Sutton Coldfield, by adjournment on the 26th day of January, 1866, hereby declare, that from and after the date hereof until the 1st day of March next, it shall not be lawful to send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf (hereinafter in these Orders called "animal," to any market or fair, exhibition, auction, or sale, in any place within the jurisdiction of the local authority of the Royal Town, Manor and Lordship of Sutton Coldfield aforesaid.)

2. That until the 1st day of March next the introduction of any such animal as aforesaid into any places within the said jurisdiction from parts beyond such jurisdiction be strictly prohibited.

3. That from the date of these Orders until the 1st day of March next, no such animal shall be permitted to go upon or be driven along any highway or turnpike-road within the jurisdiction of the said local authority.

Exceptions and Limitations of this Rule.

1stly. Fat cattle for slaughter under Rule 4.

2ndly. Two Justices of the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship may, at their discretion, grant a licence under their hands to any occupier to make use of any public road which passes through the land in his occupation, so far as may be necessary for his cattle to pass in the day time only from one part of his land to another, or to his cow-house or homestall. Provided that such licence shall not be granted for a longer period than for one month at any one time; and shall be liable to be revoked by the said Justices, or either of them, or by any other Justice of the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship, upon the requisition of the Cattle Plague Inspector for the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship, or upon such other information given to the said Justices or Justice as shall in their or his opinion render it expedient that the said licence shall be revoked in the whole or in part of which revocation the said Justices or Justice shall cause immediate notice to be given to the holder thereof, and also to the police constables of the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship.

3rdly. One Justice of the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship may, at his discretion, grant a licence to any person who shall be the tenant and occupier of two separate farms, both being within the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship, and not more than five miles apart, to remove his cattle from one farm to the other; the licence to specify the number and quality of the animals, and the day on which they are to be removed, and the public road by which they are to travel, the person in charge of the animals to carry the licence with him, and the licence to be valid only for the day named in it. Provided that if the said two farms are not both situated within the Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship aforesaid, the above licence shall be obtained from a Justice of the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship, or of the division out of which the cattle are to be removed; but it shall not be valid unless it be countersigned by some Justice of the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship of the division into which the cattle are intended to be brought.

4thly. One Justice of the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship may, for breeding purposes, grant a licence at his discretion to move any cow, or cow's heifer or heifers along any public road, for a limited distance not to exceed two miles, or thereabouts, to any place where a bull is usually kept, the licence to specify the number of cows or heifers, the time for which it is granted, the public road to be travelled over, and that the cow, or cow's heifer or heifers, is or are the property of the person applying for the licence, and have been in his possession for at least one month last past. The person going with the animals to carry the licence with him.

5thly. Any Justice of the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship, in which any sale of live stock takes place, such as has been authorized by the Orders in Council, may grant a licence at his discretion to any purchaser of cattle thereat, to remove the said cattle from place of sale to such place as the purchaser desires being within the limits of the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship, the licence to state the number and quality of the animals, and the time for which it is granted, and the public roads by which they are to travel. The licence to be carried by the person who has the charge of the animals.

4. One Justice within the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship may, at his discretion, grant a licence to move on a day to be named therein, in the day time only, any fat beast to a place to be specified for slaughter, or to a railway station, upon a declaration (to be retained by the Justice) being made before him by the owner, or by some person authorized by the owner, that the said animal has been in his possession for at least one month last past (is healthy and free from cattle plague, and is intended to be slaughtered at the place named within forty-eight hours from the day of removal, or is intended to be sent by railway out of the jurisdiction of the local authority of the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship, as the case may be), and the condition of the licence shall be, that if the said animal be not slaughtered within the time specified, or be afterwards found alive in any place within the limits of the jurisdiction of the local authority of the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship, the person in whose possession it shall be so found shall be liable to the penalty under the statute not exceeding £20.

5. That all police constables be instructed to keep a strict look out upon all turnpike-roads and highways within the jurisdiction of the local authority of the Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship of Sutton Coldfield, and whenever they discover any such animal being upon or being driven along any public road without any of the aforesaid licences, to give information to some one of the Justices of the said Royal Town, Manor, and Lordship, or their clerk. Every such licence to be produced on demand to any police constable or to any owner or occupier of land adjoining on either side of the public road on which such cattle shall be found.

6. Any wilful infraction of these orders, or any false declaration or misrepresentation made for the purpose of obtaining any of the foregoing licences, or refusal to produce them when lawfully demanded, shall subject the offender to the penalty under the statute not exceeding £20, in addition to any other proceedings to which he may be legally liable.

7. Ordered that these sessions be further adjourned to Friday, the 9th day of February, 1866, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

By order of the Court,

Holbeche and Addenbrooke,
Deputy Stewards and Clerks of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Godmanchester, in the county of Huntingdon.

I, SAMUEL BATES, Esquire, mayor of the said borough of Godmanchester, under and by virtue of the powers given to me by two several Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, made respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865, do hereby order and declare—

Firstly. That it is expedient from this time until the 1st day of March, 1866, absolutely to prevent any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat or swine, being brought from any place in Great Britain, beyond the borough and parish of Godmanchester, into the said borough and parish, except animals fatted for slaughter and that have been bonâ fide in the possession of the owner thereof twenty-eight days prior to sale, and which shall be slaughtered within three days after being brought within the said borough and parish.

Provided that any person having any such animals upon any land or premises in his own occupation, without the said borough and parish, may, but with the licence only of one of the Justices acting in and for the said borough, bring or send such animals to any other land or premises in his own occupation, within the said borough and parish.

Secondly. That it is also expedient from this time until the 1st day of March, 1866, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, be removed from any part or parts of the said borough and parish, along, upon, or across any highway or public or private road (not being a railroad), to any other part or parts of the said borough or parish without the licence of one of the justices acting in and for the said borough (except such last-mentioned animals fatted for slaughter, and that have been bonâ fide in the possession of the owner thereof twenty-eight days prior to the same being removed for the purpose of being slaughtered, and that shall be slaughtered within three days from such removal).

And I hereby give notice, that after due publication hereof, it will not be lawful for any person to bring or send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat or swine, from any place in Great Britain beyond the said borough and parish into the said borough and parish (except in such cases and subject to the conditions as are before-mentioned).

And I hereby further give notice, that after due publication hereof, it will not be lawful for any person to remove any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, from any part or parts of the said borough and parish, along, upon, or across, any highway or public or private road (not being a railroad), to any other part or parts of the said borough and parish without the licence of one of the Justices acting in and for the said borough (except in such cases and subject to the conditions as are above-mentioned).

And every person committing any offence against the tenor hereof, is liable for any such offence to a penalty not exceeding £20.

Given under my hand, this 23rd day of January, 1866.

Saml. Bates, Mayor.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

2ND NOTICE.

Dorsetshire.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, held by further adjournment at the County Hall, in Dorchester, in and for the county of Dorset, on Saturday, the 27th day of January, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, and in the year of our Lord 1866, before John Floyer, Esq., M.P. (Chairman), Henry Charles Goodden, Esq., and others, Justices of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen, in and for the county aforesaid; and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanours done or perpetrated in the same county:

Whereas by virtue of certain Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865, made and issued in pursuance and under the authority of the Act 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 107, with reference to the disease called the "Cattle Plague," which Act has been continued by subsequent Acts, and lastly by the "Expiring Laws Continuance Act, 1865," the Justices of the Peace for this county in Quarter Sessions assembled, holden by adjournment at the County Hall, Dorchester, in and for the said county, on the 23rd of January instant, did, in pursuance of the said Order in Council of the 16th day of December, 1865, as the local authority thereby constituted, and of all powers vested in them by the said Orders in Council, or either of them, make certain resolutions, orders, and declarations by their Notice published in the two county newspapers called the Dorset County Chronicle and Somersetshire Gazette, and the Sherborne, Dorchester, and Taunton Journal, on the 25th day of January instant, and also in other newspapers circulating in the bordering counties of Devon, Somerset, Wilts and Hants:

Now in pursuance and by virtue of a certain further Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 20th day of January instant, made and issued under the authority of the said Acts hereinbefore mentioned or referred to, and of all other powers in anywise enabling them in this behalf, the Justices of the Peace of this county, now assembled at their adjourned Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, do hereby resolve, order, and declare, by this their Notice to be published in the two county newspapers aforesaid; and also by the same notice to be published in the Western Times, the Western Flying Post, and the Salisbury and Winchester Journal, being newspapers circulating within the counties of Devon, Somerset, Wilts, and Hants, as the counties bordering upon this the said county of Dorset, as follows, that is to say:

1. That with a view to prevent the spreading of the said Disorder, it is expedient that from and after the 1st day of February next, to the 1st day of March next, it shall not be lawful for any person to remove, bring or send any raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America, or the offal of any such animals as aforesaid, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter likely to propagate infection, from any place in Great Britain, beyond the jurisdiction of the local authority of this county, into any place within such jurisdiction.

2. That from and after the said 1st day of February to the 1st day of March next, it shall not be lawful for any person to remove, bring, or send, by railway or otherwise, any raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs, as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America, or the offal of any such animals as last aforesaid, from any parish or place within the jurisdiction of the local authority of this county, to any other parish or place within the same jurisdiction.

Provided that it shall not be unlawful for any person to remove, send, or carry any such raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs, or any offal of any such animals as last aforesaid, from any one part of a farm to any other part of the same farm or lands in the same occupation.

Provided also that it shall be lawful for any person to remove, between one hour before sunrise and one hour after sunset, any raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs of any such animals as aforesaid, as shall have been in the possession for four weeks previously of the owner thereof, or of the person, being a resident within this jurisdiction, from whom they shall have been purchased, and the person in charge of any such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs of any such animals, shall produce a certificate thereof, dated and signed by the owner or vendor, as the case may be, to any inspector, police-constable, or person authorized to require the same; and such certificate shall be countersigned by such stock-owner in the parish as may consent to act as an overseer of cattle, to the effect that there is no Cattle Disease in the parish, and by a Justice of the Peace in the division, to the effect that the removal is made for reasons satisfactory to him; and such certificate shall remain in force for three days, and shall specify the number and kind of hides, skins, horns, or hoofs of animals to which the same shall apply.

3. That in the event of any case of Cattle Plague occurring within the jurisdiction of the local authority of this county, the chief inspector do send immediate notice thereof to the Clerk of the Peace, who, on receipt of such notice, shall cause an advertisement to be inserted in any newspaper or newspapers circulating in this county, to the effect that, from the date thereof, it shall not be lawful for any person to remove any animals hereinbefore lastly specified, or any raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs of any such animals as aforesaid, except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs, as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America, or the offal of any such animals as last aforesaid, from the farm or parish in which such case of Cattle Plague has occurred, or from any conterminous parish (specifying all such parishes by name) to any other place within this jurisdiction.

4. That all existing Orders of the Privy Council, and all Orders of this Court in relation to the Cattle Plague, be printed, and a copy sent to each magistrate of the county, and that large posting and other bills, containing the substance of such Orders of Court be printed for distribution to the county constabulary, parish overseers, and others.

5. And notice is hereby given, that every person offending against the provisions of the said Orders in Council, and of this Order and Notice, will be liable to forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding £20, and that, in compliance with the provisions contained in the said Act, 11th and 12th Vic., cap. 107, one-half of all penalties and forfeitures recovered under the said Act, will be payable to the person who shall sue or proceed for the same.

By the Court,
Efooks, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Oxfordshire.—Adjourned Quarter Sessions, 27th January, 1866.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at Oxford, in and for the county of Oxford, on Monday in the first week next after the 28th day of December in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, before Hugh Hamersley, Esquire, chairman, Charles Edward Thornhill, Esquire, vice-chairman, and others, their fellows, Justices of our said Sovereign Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen within the county aforesaid; and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors within the said county done and committed: And afterwards holden, by adjournment (of which notice was duly published), at the County Hall in Oxford aforesaid, on Saturday, the 27th day of January, 1866, before the said Hugh Hamersley, Esquire, chairman, the said Charles Edward Thornhill, Esquire, vice-chairman, His Grace the Duke of Marlborough, the Right Honourable Joseph Warner Henley, M.P., Sir Henry William Dashwood, baronet, and others their fellows Justices as aforesaid:

Whereas at the said original Quarter Sessions the Court resolved to determine and declare, and did declare as follows,—that is to say; after reciting that by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her present Majesty “to prevent until the 1st day of September, 1860, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle and other animals,” (which Act has since been from time to time continued by subsequent Acts, and lastly by the “Expiring Laws Continuance Act, 1865,”) it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty’s Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time to make such orders and regulations as to them might seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they might designate, of cattle, or other animals, or of skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection, and to make any other Orders or regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said first-mentioned Act; and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such orders or regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained, should have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said first mentioned Act; and that all persons offending should for each and every offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding £20, or such smaller sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty’s Privy Council might in any case direct: And reciting that a contagious or infectious disorder (generally designated the “Cattle Plague”) then prevailed among cattle within that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain: And reciting that with a view to check the spreading of the said disorder, an Order, dated the 23rd of November, 1865, was made (under the authority of the said Act, so continued as aforesaid), by six Lords and others of Her Majesty’s Privy Council, consolidating and amending certain Orders in Council previously made for that purpose: And reciting that by a subsequent Order made at the Council Chamber, Whitehall, on the 16th day of December, 1865, by four Lords and others of the said Council, reciting that it was expedient to alter and amend the said Order of the 23rd of November, 1865,—the said lastly mentioned Lords and others of the said Council did, in exercise of the powers given by the said first mentioned Act (so continued as aforesaid), order that so much of the said Order dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, as defined the "Local Authority" in Great Britain, should be revoked; and that (subject to the powers reserved by the said lastly mentioned Order to the Clerk of her Majesty's Privy Council), the "Local Authority" within every County in England having a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace should be the Justices of the Peace for the said county in Quarter Sessions assembled: And reciting that the said several Orders or regulations recited or referred to were duly, within fourteen days after the issuing thereof respectively, twice published in the London Gazette, and also within fourteen days as aforesaid, twice published in a newspaper circulating in the said county of Oxford: And reciting that by the said Order of the 16th day of December, 1865, it was further ordered that all appointments made, notices given, and other acts done by any "Local Authority" under and by virtue of the said Order of the 23rd of November, 1865, or of any of the Orders thereby revoked, should be valid and effectual until altered, varied, or revoked by the "Local Authority" constituted by the said Order now in recital, and that such "Local Authority" should have and exercise all the powers given by the said Order of the 23rd of November, 1865, to the "Local Authority" therein described: And reciting that by the said lastly mentioned Order, it was, amongst other things, ordered that whenever any "Local Authority" should declare, by notice published in any newspaper circulating within their jurisdiction, and also by notice published in some newspaper or newspapers circulating within the county or counties bordering upon the county within which the jurisdiction of such "Local Authority" is situate, that it is expedient, for a time to be specified in such notice, that animals, as thereinbefore defined, or some specified description thereof, should not, (either absolutely or except under such conditions as such "Local Authority" should think fit to impose with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder), be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within their jurisdiction,—it should not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal or a specified description thereof (except in accordance with such conditions as aforesaid), from any place in Great Britain beyond such jurisdiction into any place within such jurisdiction; and that every person offending against the Order now in recital should, in pursuance of the said Act, for every offence, forfeit any sum, not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she should be convicted might think fit to impose: And reciting that by the said Order of the 16th day of December, 1865, it was further ordered that whenever any "Local Authority" should, by notice published in any newspaper circulating within its jurisdiction, declare it to be expedient, for a time to be specified in such notice, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, should, (except under such conditions as such "Local Authority" should think fit to impose with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder), be removed from any particular part of the jurisdiction of such "Local Authority" to any other part of such jurisdiction, or from any place or places within such jurisdiction (to be specified in such notice), to any other such place or places also to be so specified, or from place to place generally within such jurisdiction, or within any specified part thereof,—then it should not be lawful for any person to remove any such animal in contravention of such notice; and that every person offending against the Order now in recital should, in pursuance of the said Act, for every such offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding £20 which the Justices before whom he or she should be convicted might think fit to impose: And reciting that it was by the said lastly mentioned Order ordered that the same should be in force from the 3rd day of January, 1866, until the 1st day of March then and now next, and no longer, unless continued by some further Order: And reciting that the said county of Oxford hath a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and that the Justices of the Peace for the said county in Quarter Sessions assembled are constituted the "Local Authority" as aforesaid in the said county of Oxford: And reciting that the said Justices (being such "Local Authority"), were satisfied of the existence of the said disorder in the district over which their jurisdiction extended,—such district being the area of the county of Oxford, excepting only the city of Oxford, and the boroughs of Banbury and Chipping Norton; the said Justices in the said original Quarter Sessions assembled on the 3rd day of January, 1866, resolved and determined to declare, and did declare (by notice published in the manner in the said declaration expressed) that it was expedient, for and during one calendar month from the said 6th day of January, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf should be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said county of Oxford (so defined as aforesaid); and further that it was expedient, for and during the said month, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, should be removed from any one farm or place in the said county (defined as aforesaid) to any other farm or place therein:—And whereas by another Order (duly published as aforesaid) made at the Council Chamber, Whitehall, on the 20th day of January, 1866, by eight Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, reciting as in the said former Orders recited, and that it was expedient to alter and amend the said Orders of the 23rd day of November and the 16th day of December respectively,—the said lastly mentioned Lords did order as in the said Order in recital is set forth; and the same came into operation on the 25th day of January instant, and is to be in force until the first day of March next: And whereas the said calendar month will expire on the 6th day of February next: Now therefore the said lastly mentioned Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled by adjournment as aforesaid, (in pursuance of the said recited Orders, some or one of them) have resolved and determined to declare, and do hereby declare [by this notice, to be published on the 3rd day of February, 1866, in newspapers circulating within the counties bordering upon the said county of Oxford as well as in newspapers circulating within the jurisdiction of the said Justices], that it is expedient, that from and after the said 6th day of February until the first day of March next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the county of Oxford (defined as aforesaid); and further that it is expedient, for and during the said lastly mentioned period, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox or calf, shall be removed from any one farm or place in the said county of Oxford (defined as aforesaid) to any other farm or place therein: Also that no raw or untanned hides and skins, nor any horns or hoofs of any animals as defined as aforesaid (except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America), nor any offal of any such animals as aforesaid, nor any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter likely to propagate infection,—shall, for and during the said lastly mentioned period, be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the county of Oxford (defined as aforesaid).

And any person offending, in any of the cases aforesaid, will, for every offence, forfeit such sum, not exceeding £20, as the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted may think fit to impose.

By the Court,

John M. Davenport,
Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Northamptonshire, to wit.

WHEREAS the Justices of the said county, in Quarter Sessions assembled on the 3rd day of January instant, did, by a notice published under the authority of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 16th day of December, 1865, and the several Orders therein mentioned, order and declare that it was expedient, from the 10th day of January instant until the 1st day of March next ensuing, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, should be removed from place to place within their jurisdiction, except under such circumstances and conditions as are therein mentioned: And whereas, since the publication of the said notice, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council made and duly published another Order, dated the 20th day of January instant, to come into operation on the 25th day of January instant, whereby the power given to the said Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled, has been extended to all animals as defined by another Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, that is to say, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, and also to all raw and untanned hides and skins, and to all horns and hoofs of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine (hereinafter called animals), except such imported hides, skins, horns, and hoofs, as are specified in the said Order of the 20th day of January instant, and to the offal of the said animals, and also to all dung, hay, straw, fodder, and litter, likely to propagate infection:

Now, the Justices of the said county assembled in Quarter Sessions, held on the 3rd day of January instant, and after several adjournments, ultimately by adjournment on the 25th day of January instant, do, under and by virtue and in exercise of the powers given to them by the said Order of the 20th day of January instant, and the several Orders therein mentioned, order and declare as follows:—

Firstly. That it is expedient that on and after the 1st day of February next until the 1st day of March next, no sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall be removed from place to place within their jurisdiction, except under such conditions and subject to such restrictions as are now in force with reference to the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, by virtue of the said Order made on the 3rd day of January instant.

Secondly. That it is expedient that on and after the said 1st day of February, and until the said 1st day of March, no raw or untanned hide, skin, horn, hoof, or offal of any of the said animals shall be brought from any place in or out of Great Britain beyond their jurisdiction, into any place within their jurisdiction, except hides, skins, horns, or hoofs directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America.

Thirdly. That it is expedient that on and after the said 1st day of February, and until the said 1st day of March, no raw or untanned hide or skin, or any horn or hoof of any of the said animals (except as above excepted), shall be removed from place to place within their jurisdiction, except with the licence of two Justices acting in and for the said county: Provided that previous to the granting of any such licence the owner of any such hide, skin, horn, or hoof, or his agent shall personally appear before the said two Justices, either together or separately, and make a declaration in the form hereunder set out, or to the like effect; and also produce to the said two Justices a certificate by the churchwarden, overseer, waywarden, or guardian of the poor of the parish in which such hide, skin, horn, or hoof, may then be, in the form hereunder set out, or to the like effect. And every such licence shall be returned to the Justice first signing the same not later than four days after the day of the date thereof.

Fourthly. That it is expedient that on and after the said 1st day of February, and until the said 1st day of March, no dung, hay, straw, fodder or litter, shall be removed from any stable, shed, yard, field, or place in which there has been any of the said animals which have been labouring under the disorder called Cattle Plague, or that have been in contact with any such animal so labouring as aforesaid.

Lastly. That it is expedient that on and after the said 1st day of February, until the 1st day of March, no dung or litter be brought by railway to any place within their jurisdiction, except for the purpose of carrying the same through and out of such jurisdiction.

Provided that if any person in charge of any such hide, skin, horn or hoof shall refuse or fail to produce for inspection such licence, on demand of any justice or any constable, or of any officer of the parish or place in which such hide, skin, horn, or hoof shall be at the time of such demand, such licence shall be thereupon null and void, and the person so offending shall be liable to the same penalties to which he would have been liable if the said licence had never been granted.

CATTLE PLAGUE.Notice No. 2.Somerset to wit.*

At the General Quarter Session of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, held at the Shire Hall, at Taunton, in and for the county of Somerset, on Tuesday, the 2nd day of January, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and in the year of our Lord 1866, before Sir William Miles, Baronet, Edward Ayshford Sanford, Esq., Chairman, and others their Companions, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen, in and for the county of Somerset aforesaid, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors, committed in the same county, and continued by adjournment to Saturday the 20th day of the same month of January, at Highbridge, in the parish of Burnham, in and for the said county, and then there holden, before Sir William Miles, Bart., Chairman, Sir Arthur Hallam Elton, Bart., and others their Companions, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned for the purposes aforesaid;

Whereas by virtue of an Act passed in the 11th and 12th years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter 107 (which Act has since been from time to time continued by subsequent Acts, and lastly by the "Expiring Laws' Continuance Act, 1865"), and of Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, respectively dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865,—the Justices of the Peace for this county in Quarter Sessions assembled on the 2nd day of January, 1866, and sitting as a Court of Quarter Sessions on the 3rd day of January, 1866, did, as the local authority constituted by the said Order of the 16th day of December, 1865 (by a notice published on the 6th day of January instant, in a newspaper circulating within the jurisdiction of this county), make certain Orders with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague.

And whereas the said Justices have resolved to alter or vary the Orders so made by the said Justices on the said 3rd day of January:—

Now, therefore, by virtue and in pursuance of the said Acts and Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, the said Justices in Quarter Sessions now assembled, do (by this notice to be published on the 27th day of January instant, in a newspaper circulating within the jurisdiction of this county) declare and order—

1. That, with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, the former notices, given by the late local authorities under and by virtue of the previous Orders of Council, now in force, applying to cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, shall be effectual and valid, except in so far as the same are altered and varied by the notice, orders and provisions hereinafter contained; and that the various appointments of Inspectors by the late local authorities be not revoked.
2. And the said Justices do further by this notice declare, that it is expedient that, from and after the 27th day of January instant, and until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be removed from any parish within the jurisdiction of this county, to any other parish within the same jurisdiction:—

Provided that it shall be lawful for any person to remove any such animal from land in his own occupation, situate in any part of a parish within the jurisdiction of this county, to land in his own occupation in any parish next adjacent thereto, within the jurisdiction of this county; and that if such person desire to remove any such animal to land in his own occupation in a more distant parish, no such removal shall take place except with the license of two Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division into which the said animals are required to be removed, which license shall be in writing, and shall specify the number and kinds of the animals to be removed and the place to which they are to be removed, and shall be delivered to the drover as an authority for the removal of such animals; and such animals shall be removed to the place specified in such license within two days after such license shall have been signed by the said Justices.

Provided that nothing contained in this notice and order shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animal by railway through or out of such jurisdiction, or to send or carry any such animal if brought by sea from any place out of Great Britain into such jurisdiction to the nearest railway station for the purpose of carrying it through or out of such jurisdiction.

Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any person to remove any bull, cow, or heifer, from land in his own occupation situate in any part of a parish within the jurisdiction of this county, to any land in any parish next adjacent thereto, within the jurisdiction of this county, not in his own occupation, for breeding purposes only.

—Provided also, that no animal mentioned in this notice and order be moved along any public road, highway, or occupation road, between the hours of six o'clock in the evening, and six o'clock in the morning.

3. And it is further declared and ordered, that until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be removed from place to place within any parish within the jurisdiction of this county in which the Cattle Plague shall have been certified by a duly appointed Inspector to exist or to have existed within twenty-one days:

Provided that it shall be lawful for any person in the occupation of any land within such parish, during the existence of the Cattle Plague in such parish, certified by the Inspector duly appointed for the district, to remove any such animal from place to place within his occupation where such removal can be made without crossing or passing along any public road, highway, or occupation road, or any land not in his own occupation.

4. And it is further declared and ordered, that until the 1st day of March next, the removal of the animals firstly hereinbefore specified to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the jurisdiction of this county, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, be prohibited.
5. And it is further declared and ordered, that no person shall bring or send any animal firstly hereinbefore specified from any place in Great Britain beyond the jurisdiction of this county, into any place within the jurisdiction of this county.
6. And it is further ordered, that the following persons be and they are hereby appointed Inspectors of cattle for the districts of the following Petty Sessional Divisions:

N.B. The following Order has been issued to the Chief Constable:—

Ordered that the Chief Constable of this county do give instructions to the Police Constables under his control to carry into effect all orders made with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague.

And notice is hereby also given—

That, by an Order of Council, dated the 20th January instant, the powers of the local authority are extended, from the 25th January instant, to all animals defined by the Order of Council of 23rd November, 1865, which comprises sheep, lambs, goats, and swine; and also to all raw or untanned hides and skins; and all horns and hoofs of any animals as defined as aforesaid.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Leicestershire to wit.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the county of Leicester, holden at the Castle of Leicester, on Monday the 1st day of January, 1866, and thence continued by adjournment to Saturday, the 27th day of the same month of January, before the Rev. Henry James Hoskyns, Deputy-Chairman, the Right Honourable Lord Berners, Sir Arthur Grey Hazlerigg, Bart., and others their Fellows Justices.

Pursuant to, and by virtue of several Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, the 16th day of December, 1865, and the 20th day of January, 1866, and of the Statutes and Orders therein mentioned or referred to, the said Justices (being the local authority in and for the said county of Leicester), have at the said adjourned Sessions, held on the said 27th day of January instant, resolved to declare and do hereby declare and give notice, that within the jurisdiction of the said county in Quarter Sessions assembled, that is to say, the whole of the said county of Leicester, except the borough of Leicester, such Orders be made as follows:

1. That from the 27th day of January instant to the 1st day of March next, this Court doth declare that it is expedient, and doth hereby order, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, goat, sheep, lamb or swine, be brought from any part of Great Britain to any place within the said jurisdiction. Provided always, that nothing contained in this clause of this Order shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway through such jurisdiction, and that nothing contained in this clause of this Order shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send with the licence of any two Justices, acting in and for the jurisdiction to which such notice applies, any such animals, from any land or premises in his own occupation and beyond such jurisdiction, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within such jurisdiction.

2. That from the said 27th day of January instant, until the 1st day of March next, this Court doth declare that it is expedient, and doth hereby order, that the restriction as to the removal of cattle contained in the Consolidated Order of Quarter Sessions, made at an adjourned Sessions of the Peace, in and for the said county of Leicester, on the 13th day of January instant, be extended to sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, save that such licence as in the said Order mentioned may be granted, in the case of sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, to any purchaser as well as to the owner of such last-mentioned animals.

3. That from the 27th day of this instant January, until the 1st day of March now next, this Court doth declare it to be expedient, and doth hereby order, that no raw or untanned hides or skins (except sheepskins) and no horns or hoofs of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine (except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs, as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America), nor any offal of any such animal as aforesaid shall be removed from any part of Great Britain into any place within the jurisdiction of the said Justices,—and further, that no hides, skins (except sheepskins), or horns, hoofs, or offal as before mentioned be removed from any one parish within such county to another, save under the licence of one Magistrate to be granted as in the said Consolidated Order is mentioned: save that the place from which such hides, horns, hoofs, and offal are sought to be removed is not to be within one half mile of any place, where there are cattle reputed to be infected with the Cattle Plague.

By the Court,
William Freer, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

North Riding of Yorkshire.

At the Adjourned General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at Northallerton, in and for the North Riding of Yorkshire, on the 26th day of January, 1866:—

Whereas, by certain resolutions of the Justices of this Riding, in General Quarter Sessions assembled, on the 4th day of January instant, it was declared, under the authority of the several Orders of Her Majesty's Privy Council in that behalf, with the view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, should be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said Riding, until the 1st day of March next. And further, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, should be removed from any part of the said Riding to any other part of the said Riding, or from any place or places within the said Riding to any other place or places within the said Riding, or from place to place generally within the said Riding.

Now it is hereby declared and resolved by the Justices of the said Riding in Quarter Sessions assembled, under the authority of the Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 20th day of January instant, and with the view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, that the said last-mentioned declaration and resolution of the said Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled, on the said 4th day of January instant, shall extend, from and after this day until the 1st day of March next, to all sheep, lambs, goats, and swine. And that both the said declarations and resolutions of the said Justices shall also extend to all raw or untanned hides and skins, and all horns and hoofs, of any such animals as hereinbefore mentioned (except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs, as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America), and to the offal of any such animal; and also to all dung or litter likely to propagate infection.

Now therefore, notice is hereby given, that from and after this day until the 1st day of March next, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send into the said Riding from any place in Great Britain beyond the said Riding into any place within the said Riding, or to remove from place to place within the said Riding any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, or any hide, skin, horn, hoof, offal, or other article aforesaid.

Provided always that it shall not be unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, and other article as aforesaid by railway through the said Riding, or to send or carry any such animals, or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, if brought by sea, from any place out of Great Britain into the North Riding, to the nearest convenient railway station for the purpose of carrying them through or out of the said Riding, or to bring or send with the licence of any two Justices of the said Riding any such animal, hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, from any land and premises in his own occupation and beyond the said

Riding, to any other land or premises in his own occupation, within the said Riding.

Provided always that two Justices in Petty Sessions assembled may grant (subject to being revoked at any time at the pleasure of any two Justices) licences in writing as follows, viz. :—

1. To any person occupying lands in one part of the said Riding to remove any such animal as aforesaid, between sunrise and sunset, from such lands to any other lands in his own occupation within one mile, for such purposes as shall be proved to the satisfaction of the said Justices to be absolutely necessary, or within the said distance for breeding purposes. But such licence shall specify the number and description of animals as aforesaid to be removed, and the place from which and to which the same shall be removed, and the time during which such licence shall remain in force; but no such licence for the removal of any such animal as aforesaid shall be issued unless such animal shall have been at least forty days in the possession of the applicant, nor shall any such animal as aforesaid be removed from any premises where the said disease exists or has existed within the period of forty days upon any ground or pretext whatever.

2. To any person for the removal of such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other article as aforesaid, to or from such place or places as the said two Justices may think fit; and upon satisfactory proof to them of the absolute necessity thereof, due regard being had to the sanitary state of the place from which the same may be removed, and the route to be traversed, and that sufficient precautions have been taken against infection.

And notice is hereby further given, that every person offending against this notice, will, for every such offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

By the Court,

T. L. Yeoman, Clerk of the Peace.

Northallerton, January 27th, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Devon.—Epiphany Quarter Sessions, 1866.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at the Castle of Exeter, in and for the county of Devon, on Tuesday in the first week next after the 28th day of December, in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, before the Right Honourable William Reginald Earl of Devon, Sir Stafford Henry Northcote, Baronet, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the peace of our said Lady the Queen within the county aforesaid, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors within the said county committed; and from thence continued by several adjournments until this 29th day of January, 1866, and now held before the Justices aforesaid, and others their companions at the Castle of Exeter aforesaid :

The said Justices under and by virtue, and in exercise of the powers given to them by the several Orders of the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, the 16th day of December, 1865, and the 20th day of this month of January, do order and declare as follows :

That all notices given and other acts (other than appointments of Inspectors) done by the Justices acting in and for the several Petty Sessional Divisions of the county of Devon, shall, from and after the 31st day of this month of January, be revoked, except as to any liability which may have been incurred, or any legal proceedings which may have been taken, under or by virtue of any of the said notices or acts; and the said Justices do accordingly revoke the same, except as herein before excepted.

And the said Justices do also further order and declare :—

That all appointments of Inspectors made by the said Justices in Petty Sessions remain and be in force until the 1st day of March next, unless in the mean time they be revoked by order of this Court.

And the said Justices do also order and declare :—

That it is expedient from the said 31st day of this month of January until the 1st day of March next, to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the jurisdiction of this Court, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

And the said Justices do also further order and declare :

That it is expedient from and after the 31st day of this month of January until the 1st day of March next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, be brought from any other part of Great Britain, into any part of the county of Devon subject to the jurisdiction of this Court.

And the said Justices do further order and declare :

That it is expedient that from and after the said 31st day of January until the said 1st day of March, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine be removed from any or either of the infected parishes of Ideford, Buckland Monachorum, and Bishopsteignton into any other of the said parishes, or into any other part of this county within the jurisdiction of this Court, nor from the infected district of Luton in the said parish of Bishopsteignton, comprising the farms and other places respectively in the occupations of Joseph Vooght, James Vooght, John Vooght, William Coombes, Richard Cornish, George Cornish, and William Vooght, into any other part of the said parish of Bishopsteignton, or into any other part of the said county of Devon within the jurisdiction of this Court, nor from any other part of the said county within the jurisdiction of this Court, into any or either of the said parishes, or into the said district, nor from any place or places within any or either of the said parishes or the said district into any other place or places therein :

Provided that notwithstanding the declaration last aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any person to remove any of his own animals lastly hereinbefore mentioned from one part of the land in his occupation within any or either of the parishes or district last aforesaid to any other part or parts of such land within such parishes or district respectively, unless such animals shall in the course of such removal be driven or taken over or along more than 100 feet of any turnpike road, highway, public road or the sides thereof, or any unenclosed land. But no occupier of any of the said infected farms and places in the said district of Luton shall under this proviso be at liberty to drive or take such animals over or along any turnpike road, highway, public road, or the sides thereof, or any unenclosed land.

And the said Justices do further order and declare :

That from and after the said 31st day of January, and until the said 1st day of March next, it is expedient that no raw or untanned hides or skins, or horns, or hoofs, of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, nor the offal of any such animal as last aforesaid, nor dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, be removed from any or either of the said infected parishes of Ideford, Bishopsteignton, and Buckland Monachorum, or from the said infected district of Luton, into any other of the said parishes or into the said district respectively, or into any other part of the said county within the jurisdiction of this Court.

And the said Justices do further order and declare :

That from and after the said 31st day of January until the said 1st day of March next, it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, be removed from any place in the said county within the jurisdiction of this Court, to any other place therein within such jurisdiction, unless the owner thereof shall, previously to such removal, have obtained such one or more of the licenses set forth in the schedule to this Order, as shall be applicable to the case of the cattle to be removed.

Provided that notwithstanding the declaration lastly hereinbefore contained, it shall be lawful for any person without such license, to remove his own cattle from one part of the land in his occupation, within the jurisdiction of this Court, to another part of such land within the same jurisdiction, unless such cattle shall, in the course of such removal, be driven or carried over more than two miles of any turnpike road, highway, public road, or sides thereof, or any unenclosed land.

Provided also that the licenses mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall be applicable only so long as the said place or places of the said county shall not have been proclaimed as infected, by the Court of Quarter Sessions.

And the said Justices do further order and declare :

That from and after the said 31st day of January until the said 1st day of March, it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, be removed from any part of the said county of Devon, within the jurisdiction of this Court, over or along any turnpike road, highway, public road, or sides thereof, or any unenclosed land, to any other part of the said county within such jurisdiction whether under any license or proviso herein contained, mentioned, or referred to, or not, between the hours of six in the evening and six in the morning.

And the said Justices hereby give notice that every person offending against the terms of this order and declaration, will for every offence, be liable to a penalty of £20.

Burgh of Stirling.

I, JOHN MURRIE, Provost of the burgh of Stirling, in virtue of the powers vested in me as local authority under the Orders of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 20th day of January, 1866, do hereby give notice :—

That from and after the 2nd day of February next inclusive, and up to the 1st day of March next, it is expedient that no raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or swine, or the offal of any such animals, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter likely to propagate infection, shall be brought from any place in Great Britain, beyond the jurisdiction of the local authority of the burgh of Stirling, into any place within that jurisdiction, and also that it is expedient that no person should remove any of the aforesaid things from any place within said burgh, affected, or suspected of being affected, with the cattle plague, to any other place within the same, without a written order from the Superintendent of Police of the said burgh, authorizing such removal.

All in terms of the 1st and 2nd sections of the said Order of 20th January, 1866, under the exceptions contained therein.

Jno. Murrie,
Provost.

Stirling, 30th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Derbyshire (to wit).

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the county of Derby, holden at Derby, on Tuesday, the 2nd day of January, 1866, and thence continued by adjournment to Wednesday, the 24th day of the same January, before Thomas William Evans, Esq., M.P., chairman, Robert William Mills Nesfield, Esq., deputy chairman, and others, Justices, &c., appointed to preserve the peace in the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies and trespasses in the said county committed:

Pursuant to, and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, of the 16th day of December, 1865, and of the statutes and orders therein mentioned or referred to, the said Justices (being the local authority in and for the said county of Derby), have at the said adjourned sessions held on the said 24th day of January instant, resolved to declare, and do hereby declare and give notice, that within the jurisdiction of the Justices of the said county, in Quarter Sessions assembled, that is to say, the whole of the said county of Derby, except the borough of Derby, it is expedient:—

1. That from and after the 27th day of January instant, the order of this Court made on the 10th day of January instant, shall be and is hereby revoked, save as to any proceedings which have been or shall at any time be commenced or prosecuted for a breach of the provisions of such order committed on or before the said 27th day of January instant, and save that any license granted under the said order shall have the same effect as if granted under this order. And also,

2. That from the 27th day of January instant, to the 1st day of March next, no cattle of any kind shall be removed from place to place, within the said jurisdiction, between the hours of 6 o'clock P.M. and 6 o'clock A.M.

3. That from the said 27th day of January instant, to the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, goat, lamb, or swine, shall be brought or removed from or to any fair or market, or from or to any place whatever within the said jurisdiction for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

4. That from the said 27th day of January instant to the 1st day of March next, it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, goat, sheep, lamb, or swine, be brought from any part of Great Britain to any place within the said jurisdiction: Provided always, that nothing contained in this clause of this order shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway through such jurisdiction; and that nothing contained in this clause of this order shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send, with the license of any two Justices acting in and for the jurisdiction to which such notice applies, any such animals, from any land or premises in his own occupation, and beyond such jurisdiction, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within such jurisdiction.

5. That from the said 27th day of January instant until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be removed from place to place within the said jurisdiction so as to pass across or along any highway (not being a footway only) except upon the following conditions, viz:—

1. The owner, or in case of sale, the vendor, of any such animal shall fill up and sign (subject to the exception after-mentioned (g)) a separate certificate for each animal to be removed, stating the following particulars:—

(a.) The name of the owner or vendor.

(b.) A description of each animal.

(c.) The place from which and the place to which each such animal is intended to be removed.

(d.) The route by which each such animal is to travel.

(e.) The name of the person to whom each such animal is to be delivered.

(f.) The certificate shall state that the cattle plague does not exist, and has not existed within twenty-eight days in the parish, township, or extra-parochial place from which each such animal is to be removed, and that each such animal is free from disease, and has been continuously during the preceding twenty-eight days, upon the land or farm from which it is intended to be removed, and has not been exposed in any public market or place within the space of twenty-eight days from the date of such certificate.

(g.) Any such certificate may include any number of animals belonging to one person, and desired to be delivered at one time and so delivered to any other person.

2. The certificate shall also be signed by an officiating minister, or by a churchwarden, guardian, or overseer, of the parish, township, or extra-parochial place, or by a policeman stationed within the Petty Sessional Division from or within which any such animal is to be removed.

3. But no such animal so certified shall be allowed to be removed, without being first legibly branded with the owner's brand.

4. One of the persons, not being the owner, shall sign the certificate in the presence of a Justice of the Peace of the Petty Sessional Division from which the animal is to be removed.

5. The said Justice of the Peace on being satisfied of the truth of the certificate, may sign a license for the desired removal of each such animal, either by the route named in such certificate, or by any other route prescribed by such Justice, between the hours of 6 A.M. and 6 P.M., on a day to be named in such license.

6. The license and certificate are to be delivered to the drover of the animal, and shall be produced by him on demand to any person requiring to inspect the same.

7. The license is to be available only for the animals, and for the day therein specified, but may, if circumstances require it, be extended by the same or any other Justice of the division.

8. Any farmer shall, however, be allowed to remove his cattle from one part of land in his own occupation to another part of land in his own occupation, not exceeding three miles from his homestead, under special license given at the Petty Sessions of the District, but expressly subject to revocation at the will of the Petty Sessions of the District.

No clerk to the magistrates shall be allowed to take a greater sum than 6*d.* for any permit order to be made under the present Order of Sessions, and the same shall be paid by the county treasurer.

9. All licenses shall be granted in duplicate, one to be retained at, or within a week sent to, the office of the Clerk of the Petty Sessional Division, and the other to be delivered to the applicant, and shall on demand be produced by him, or by the person removing such animal, to any policeman or other person making the demand.

10. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, any person may, between the hours of 6 A.M. and 6 P.M., remove any cow to and from any place within two miles of his homestead, and within the said jurisdiction, for the purpose of putting such cow to a bull there, under a license signed by a magistrate, officiating minister, churchwarden, guardian, or police constable, dated on the day of such removal, and setting forth the places from and to which, and the purposes for which such animal is removed.

And it is ordered that these Sessions be adjourned to Wednesday, the 7th day of February next, to be then held at the County Hall, in Derby, at 12 o'clock.

(By order) John Barber,
Clerk of the Peace.

Penalty £20.

Every person offending against this notice and order will for every offence forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she is convicted may think fit to impose.

Any person may lay an information before a Justice of the Peace of the county of Derby, against any person committing any offence contrary to the said notice.

The informer is entitled to one-half of the penalty.

Any person may demand from the drover of any animal the license and certificate under which the animal is removed.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Lancashire (to wit).

At the General Quarter Session of the Peace, held by adjournment at Salford, in and for the county Palatine of Lancaster, this 30th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1866.

Whereas the Justices of the Peace for the said county of Lancaster, assembled at the Court of General Quarter Session of the Peace, held by adjournment at Salford, in and for the said county, on the 8th day of January instant, did amongst other things declare and order—That it should not be lawful after the 13th day of January then instant, and until the 1st day of March next, for any person to bring or send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf from any part of Great Britain beyond the jurisdiction of the said Justices in the Hundred of Salford, in the said county, into any place within the said jurisdiction, except only as provided by certain Orders in Council therein referred to.

N. 23065.

And whereas it appears to the Justices now here assembled to be expedient that the said order or declaration should be altered and varied so far as it affects the town of Bury, in the said county, in manner following:—

Now, therefore, this Court doth order and declare that, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in the said order, declaration, and notice of the 8th day of January instant, it shall be lawful on and after this 30th day of January instant, and until the 1st day of March next, for any person or persons to remove any fat cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf by railway from any place beyond the jurisdiction of the said Justices, to the Castle-croft railway station, at Bury aforesaid, to be taken from such station direct to some licensed slaughter-house or slaughter-houses within the limits of "The Bury Improvement Act, 1846," situated not further than half-a-mile from such station, there to be slaughtered within the space of 24 hours; provided always, that each such fat cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be certified before leaving such station by some veterinary surgeon or market inspector, to be appointed for that purpose by the Bury Improvement Commissioners, to be free from the disorder called the "Cattle Plague." And this Court doth hereby confirm the said order or declaration of the 8th day of January instant, in every respect in which it is not altered or varied by this Order.

By the Court,

Birchall and Wilson, Deputy Clerks of the Peace.

30th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Banbury.

FURTHER NOTICE.

I, JOHN HARLOCK, Mayor of the borough of Banbury, in pursuance of the Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865; the 16th day of December, 1865; and the 20th day of January, 1866, or of some, or one of such Orders, do hereby declare that it is expedient, and I do hereby order, that no animal or article of the description hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox or calf, raw or untanned hides or skins, or the horns or hoofs, or the offal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat or swine shall, after the publication of this notice, be brought from any part of Great Britain into the borough of Banbury, until after the 1st day of March next.

And I give notice that any person offending herein will, for every offence, be liable to forfeit twenty pounds.

John Harlock, Mayor.

1st February, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Berkshire Epiphany Quarter Sessions, 1866.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her Majesty "to prevent until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then next Session of Parliament the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," (which Act has since been from time to time continued by subsequent Acts, and lastly by the "Expiring Laws Continuance Act, 1865") it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time to make such orders and regulations as to them might seem necessary, for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they might designate, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, and to make any other orders or regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said first mentioned Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such orders or regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid, in any such Order or Orders contained, should have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said first-mentioned Act; and that all persons offending should for each and every offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, or such smaller sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council might in any case direct.

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder (generally designated the "Cattle Plague") now prevails among cattle within that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain.

And whereas with a view to check the spreading of the said disorder, an Order, dated the twenty-third of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, was made (under the authority of the said Act, so continued as aforesaid), by six Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, consolidating and amending certain Orders in Council previously made for that purpose.

And whereas by a subsequent Order made at the Council Chamber, Whitehall, on the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, by four Lords and others of the said Council, reciting that it was expedient to alter and amend the said Order of the twenty-third of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five,—the said lastly mentioned Lords and others of the said Council did, in exercise of the powers given by the said first mentioned Act (so continued as aforesaid) order that so much of the said Order dated the twenty-third day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, as defined the "Local Authority" in Great Britain, should be revoked; and that (subject to the powers reserved by the said lastly mentioned Order to the Clerk of Her Majesty's Privy Council), the "Local Authority" within every county in England having a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace should be the Justices of the Peace for the said county in Quarter Sessions assembled.

And whereas by the said Order of the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, it was further ordered that all appointments made, notices given, and other acts done by any "Local Authority" under and by virtue of the said Order of the twenty-third of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, or of any of the Orders thereby revoked, should be valid and effectual until altered, varied, or revoked by the "Local Authority" constituted by the said Order now in recital, and that such "Local Authority" should have and exercise all the powers given by the said Order of the twenty-third of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, to the "Local Authority" therein described.

And whereas by the said lastly mentioned Order, it was, amongst other things, ordered that whenever any "Local Authority" should declare, by notice published in any newspaper circulating within their jurisdiction, that it is expedient, for a time to be specified in such notice, to prevent the removal of animals thereinbefore defined (that is to say, cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine), or some specified description thereof either absolutely or except under such conditions as such "Local Authority" should think fit to impose, with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder to any market, or fair, or to any place whatever within their jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, it should not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal or description thereof, except in accordance with such conditions as aforesaid, into such market or fair, or to any place within such jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animals so brought or sent, and by the same Order it was further ordered that whenever any "Local Authority" should declare by notice published in any newspaper circulating within their jurisdiction, and also by notice published in some newspaper or newspapers circulating within the county or counties bordering upon the county within which the jurisdiction of such "Local Authority" is situate, that it is expedient, for a time to be specified in such notice, that animals, as thereinbefore defined, or some specified description thereof, should not (either absolutely or except under such conditions as such "Local Authority" should think fit to impose with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder) be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within their jurisdiction, it should not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal or description thereof (except in accordance with such conditions as aforesaid), from any place in Great Britain beyond such jurisdiction into any place within such jurisdiction; and that every person offending against the Order now in recital should, in pursuance of the said Act, for every offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds which the Justices before whom he or she should be convicted might think fit to impose.

And whereas by the said Order of the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, it was further ordered that whenever any "Local Authority" should, by notice published in any newspaper circulating within its jurisdiction, declare it to be expedient, for a time to be specified in such notice, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, should (except under such conditions as such "Local Authority" should think fit to impose, with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder), be removed from any particular part of the jurisdiction of such "Local Authority," to any other part of such jurisdiction, or from any place or places within such jurisdiction (to be specified in such notice), to any other such place or places also to be so specified, or from place to place generally within such jurisdiction, or within any specified part thereof—then it should not be lawful for any person to remove any such animal in contravention of such notice: and that every person offending against the Order now in recital should, in pursuance of the said Act, for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she should be convicted might think fit to impose.

And whereas it is by the said lastly mentioned Order ordered that the same shall be in force from the third day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, until the first day of March then and now next, and no longer, unless continued by some further Order.

And whereas the Justices of the Peace for the said county of Berks in Quarter Sessions assembled (being the "Local Authority" constituted as aforesaid) are satisfied of the existence of the said disorder in the district over which their jurisdiction extends, such district being the area of the county of Berks.

Now therefore the said Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled as aforesaid, and sitting in open court at Reading, in the said county of Berks, on the fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, have resolved and determined to declare, and do hereby declare by this notice—

- I.—That it is expedient that from the 6th day of January instant until the 8th day of February now next ensuing, absolutely to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat or swine, to any market or fair, or to any parish or place whatsoever, within the jurisdiction of the said Justices, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.
- II.—Also that it is expedient that for the same period no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain to any place within the said county of Berks.
- III.—That it is expedient that for the same period no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be removed from any parish or farm in the said county of Berks to any other parish or farm therein; and that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall under any circumstances pass over, along, or across any highway or public road, from place to place, within the said county.

By the Court,
George Bowes Morland,
Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Worcester.

THE Justices assembled at the Quarter Sessions, held at the County Hall, Worcester, in and for the said county, by adjournment, on the 30th day of January, 1866, by virtue of the powers vested in them as the "local authority" in the county of Worcester, by the Orders in Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, the 16th day of December, 1865, and the 20th day of January, 1866, or one of them, do, with the view to prevent the spreading of the disorder generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," declare as follows:

1. That it is expedient that, from the 30th day of January instant until the 1st day of March next, no raw or untanned hides and skins, nor any horns or hoofs, of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine (except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America) nor any offal of any such animals as aforesaid, nor any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter likely to propagate infection, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within such part of the said county over which, by virtue of the said Orders in Council, some or one of them, this Court, as the "local authority" in the said county, has jurisdiction.

2. That it is also expedient that, from the 30th day of January instant until the 1st day of March next, no raw or untanned hides and skins, horns or hoofs of any such animals as aforesaid (except as aforesaid), shall be removed from place to place in the said county and within the jurisdiction of the local authority of the county of Worcester as aforesaid, until the same shall have been effectually disinfected with quicklime. Provided that raw or untanned hides or skins, horns or hoofs, of any such animals as aforesaid may be removed from the city of Worcester, and from the several boroughs within the said county, viz., Bewdley, Droitwich, Dudley, Evesham, and Kidderminster, into any other part of the said county, having been first effectually disinfected as aforesaid.

3. That it is also expedient from the 30th day of January instant until the 1st day of March next, that no sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall, unless with and subject to the conditions contained in a licence of a Justice of the Peace for the said county, to be granted in accordance with the declaration of this Court, dated the 3rd day of January instant, be removed from one place to another within the said county so or in such manner as to pass across or along any public highway, or the sides thereof, except that every person ought to be at liberty at his own discretion to bring or send any such sheep, lamb, goat, or swine across or along any public highway, or the sides thereof, for the sole purpose of removing such animal from land or premises in the said county in his own occupation, to any other land or premises, not being distant more than one mile therefrom, in the said county, and also in his own occupation.

That it is also expedient that, from the 30th day of January instant until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, shall be removed out of the parishes, places, hamlets, or chapelries of Knighton-on-Teme, Newnham, Rochford, Ohad-desley Corbett, Severn Stoke, and Brockamin, or either of them, in the said county, into any parish or place adjoining the said parishes, places, hamlets, or chapelries, or from one farm to another within the said parishes, places, hamlets, or chapelries.

4. The declarations of the Justices of the Peace of the said county in Quarter Sessions assembled in respect of such disease designated as the "Cattle Plague," made on the 3rd and 23rd days of January instant, are to the foregoing extent only hereby altered and varied.

Every person offending against the tenor hereof will for every offence forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted may think fit to impose.

By the Court,
Wm. Nichols Marcy,
Clerk of the Peace for the county of Worcester.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Worcestershire Epiphany Adjourned Quarter Sessions.

23rd January, 1866.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at the County Hall, Worcester, in and for the said county, on Monday, in the first week after the 28th day of December (that is to say), on the 1st day of January, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and in the year of our Lord 1866, before the Right Hon. the Earl of Dudley, Chairman, Thomas Gale Curtler, Esq., Vice-Chairman, and others their associates, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen, in and for the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanours and offences, in the said county committed, and continued by adjournment from time to time to and held on this 23rd day on January, 1866.

By virtue of the powers vested in them, as the "Local Authority" in the county of Worcester, by the Orders in Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865, or one of them, the Justices of the Peace for the said county, in Quarter Sessions assembled, as aforesaid, do, on this 23rd day of January, 1866, declare as follows:—

That with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disease, generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," it is expedient from this 23rd day of January until the 1st day of March next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be removed out of the parishes, places, or chapelries of Knighton-on-Teme and Newnham, in the said county, into any parish or place adjoining the said parishes, places, or chapelries, or from one farm to another within the said parishes, places, or chapelries, and to that extent only the declaration of the Justices of the Peace for the said county, in Quarter Sessions assembled as aforesaid, in respect of such disease designated as the "Cattle Plague," made on the 3rd day of January instant, is hereby altered and varied.

By the Court,
Wm. Nichols Marcy,
Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Worcestershire Epiphany Quarter Sessions, 1866.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at the County Hall, Worcester, in and for the said county, on Monday, in the first week after the 28th day of December (that is to say), on the 1st day of January, and continued from day to day to the 3rd day of January, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and in the year of our Lord 1866, before the Right Hon. the Earl of Dudley, Chairman, Thomas Gale Curtler, Esq., Vice-Chairman, and others their associates, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen, in and for the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanours and offences, in the said county committed.

By virtue of the powers vested in them, as the "Local Authority," in the county of Worcester, by the Orders in Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865, or one of them, the Justices of the Peace for the said county, in Quarter Sessions assembled, as aforesaid, do, on this 3rd day of January, 1866, declare as follows:—

1. That from the 6th day of January instant, all former orders made by Justices in Petty Sessions shall be revoked.

2. That with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," it is expedient, from the 6th day of January instant, until the 1st day of March next, altogether, to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said county, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

3. That with the same view, it is also expedient, that from the 6th day of January instant, until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain, into any place within the said county.

4. That, with the same view, it is expedient, that from the 6th day of January instant, until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall, unless with and subject to the conditions contained in such licence of a Justice of the Peace for the said county as hereafter mentioned, be removed from one place to another within the said county, so, or in such manner as to pass across or along any public highway or the sides thereof, except that every person ought to be at liberty, at his own discretion, to bring or send any such animal across or along any public highway, or the sides thereof, either for the sole purpose of removing such animal from land or premises in the said county in his own occupation to any other land or premises, not being distant more than one mile therefrom in the said county, and also in his own occupation, or such animal being a cow or heifer, requiring to be sent to a bull for the sole purpose of taking her either with or without another like animal as a companion, any distance not exceeding one mile each way, going and returning to and from the bull.

Provided that the aforesaid licence shall be in writing and signed by the Justice on the day of the date thereof, in duplicate, one of which duplicates shall be given to the applicant, and the other shall be forthwith delivered or sent by post, or otherwise, by such Justice to the office of the Clerk of the Peace, at Worcester, and such licence shall be according to the subjoined form and subject to the conditions therein specified, and to such other conditions not inconsistent therewith, as the Justice granting the licence shall think fit to impose.

Provided also that in the construction of this and the two preceding declarations, the municipal boroughs of Dudley, Kidderminster, Bewdley, Droitwich, and Evesham, or any of them, are not to be deemed to be parts of the said county.

Every person offending against the tenor hereof will, for every offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted may think fit to impose.

By the Court,
Wm. Nichols Marcy,
Clerk of the Peace for the county of Worcester.

(FORM OF LICENCE.)

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Licence of Removal.

I, _____ of _____, one of the Justices of the Peace for the county of Worcester, do hereby authorise A. B., of _____, in the county of _____, to remove or cause to be removed from _____, in the said county, to _____, in the said county, the animals hereunder specified, viz:—

No.	cows.	No.	bullocks.
"	heifers.	"	oxen.
"	bulls.	"	calves.

But this licence is subject to the following conditions:—

1. No animal is to be removed under this licence except before the hour of sunset this day, or between the hours of sunrise and sunset tomorrow at the latest.

2. No animal is to be removed under this licence which has not been continuously on the land or premises from which it is proposed to be removed for twenty-one days at least immediately preceding such removal, and which shall not have been during the whole of that time entirely free from the said disorder.

3. This licence shall be kept continuously in the possession of the person having charge of any animal removed under the same during the removal, and shall on demand be produced by such person for inspection to any Justice of the Peace, police officer, or other constable, or to any owner or occupier of the land adjoining to the highway across or along which such animal may be passing.

[Here insert the further conditions (if any) imposed by the Justice granting the licence.]

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Burgh of Musselburgh.

I GEORGE LAURIE, Provost of the Burgh of Musselburgh, as the local authority, in virtue of the several Orders of Her Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, issued with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, do hereby revoke or alter those portions of my notice of the 27th of January current, which relate to the prohibition of admission of cattle, &c., into the burgh, and to exceptions from such prohibition; and I now declare that it is expedient that from this date to the 1st of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall be admitted to any place within the burgh of Musselburgh, excepting such of the aforesaid animals as are fat, and shall be sent or brought in for the purpose of being immediately slaughtered, and as shall be accompanied also, with a certificate, by a duly qualified inspector, that they are entirely free from the Cattle Plague; and I declare it to be expedient to exclude from the said burgh all animals of the kinds above mentioned from any farm or place where the said Cattle Plague has manifested itself, and from any place immediately adjoining thereto.

And I further declare that no raw or untanned hides or skins, horns or hoofs of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine (except such hides, skins, horns or hoofs as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa or America), and no offal of any such animal as aforesaid, and no dung, hay, straw, fodder or litter likely to propagate infection, shall, from this date to the 1st day of March next, be brought or sent from any place in Great Britain beyond the burgh of Musselburgh, into any place within the said burgh, excepting in regard to dung, hay, straw, fodder, and litter, such of these substances as shall be accompanied with a written order from the Superintendent or Inspector of Police of the burgh.

Every person offending against the said orders shall forfeit a sum not exceeding £20 sterling.

(Signed) George Laurie, Provost.

Townhall, Musselburgh, 30 January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Lancashire to wit.

At the General Quarter Session of the Peace, held by adjournment at Kirkdale, in and for the county palatine of Lancaster, the 29th day of January, 1866.

The Justices of the Peace for the said county assembled at this present Court of General Quarter Session of the Peace, they the said Justices being the local authority in this behalf, do hereby declare that it is expedient with the view to prevent the spreading of the disorder called the Cattle Plague within the jurisdiction of the said Justices for this purpose in the hundred of West Derby, in the said county, to give the notices and make the declarations and orders hereinafter specified:—Therefore the said Justices by the authority of certain Orders made by the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, the 16th day of December, 1865, and the 20th day of January, 1866, and of all other powers and authorities enabling them in this behalf do hereby order and declare:—

1.—That all orders or declarations heretofore made and notices given by any local authority within the said jurisdiction in the said hundred, under the powers given by any or either of the said Orders of the Privy Council, or any other Orders of the Privy Council relating to the disorder aforesaid, shall from and after the 1st day of February next be revoked and repealed, but such revocation and repeal shall in nowise affect any appointment made or penalty recoverable under the said notices, orders, and declarations, any or either of them.

2.—That the orders and declarations hereinafter made shall extend to all parts of the hundred of West Derby within the jurisdiction of the said Justices, under the Orders in Council, any or either of them, and shall take effect and be in force for a certain time, that is to say, from and after the said 1st day of February next until the 1st day of March next.

3.—That in the notices, orders, and declarations hereinafter made the word animal shall mean any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or lamb; and the word jurisdiction shall mean the jurisdiction of the said Justices under and by virtue of the said Orders in Council any or either of them within the said hundred of West Derby.

4.—And with the view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, the Justices aforesaid do hereby give notice, declare, and order as follows, that is to say, that no person shall, except as in the said Orders in Council is excepted, and provided and subject thereto, bring or send any animal as aforesaid, or any raw or untanned hides, skins, horns, hoofs, or offal of any such animal as aforesaid, or any dung or litter likely to propagate infection, from any part of Great Britain beyond the said jurisdiction into any place within the said jurisdiction.

5.—That no person shall bring or send any such animal as aforesaid, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said jurisdiction for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

6.—That any person may sell any such animal as aforesaid belonging to him, or which he may be entrusted to sell, but no person shall, except as in the said Orders in Council is excepted, and subject thereto, remove such animal as aforesaid from any land or premises within the said jurisdiction unless such animal shall have been on such land or premises fourteen days at least before such removal, and unless such animal be certified by some veterinary surgeon, or by some competent person or persons already appointed or to be hereafter appointed for that purpose by the Justices within the same hundred in Petty Sessions assembled, to be free from the said disorder, and to be on premises free from the said disorder or any suspicion thereof.

7.—That except as is provided in the said Orders in Council no person shall remove or convey any dung or litter likely to propagate infection from any place within the said jurisdiction, or carry or convey any such articles as last aforesaid on or along any turnpike road or public highway within the said jurisdiction.

8.—That except as in the said Orders in Council any or either of them is excepted and subject thereto, no person shall remove any raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns, hoofs or offal of any such animal as aforesaid, from any place within the said jurisdiction to any place within the same jurisdiction, except the same hides, skins, horns, hoofs and offal shall have been duly certified by some veterinary surgeon or competent person as aforesaid, to be free from the said disorder or any suspicion thereof.

9.—That except as in the said Orders in Council any or either of them is excepted and subject thereto, no person shall or may remove or convey any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs or offal of any such animal as aforesaid on or along any turnpike road or public highway within the said jurisdiction without the licence in writing of a Justice of the Peace in and for the said county; and except as aforesaid no person shall or may carry, drive or convey any such animal as aforesaid on or along any turnpike road or public highway as aforesaid, without a licence in writing of a Justice of the Peace in and for the said county: Provided that this Order shall not apply to any such animal as aforesaid which shall be removed from one part of any farm to another part of the same farm for feeding or husbandry purposes only, nor shall it apply to any female animal as aforesaid which shall or may be taken to the male animal for breeding purposes, if such male and female animal as aforesaid respectively shall be certified by some veterinary surgeon or competent person as aforesaid to be free from the said disorder, and to be on premises free from all suspicion of the said disorder. But no person shall or may remove, drive or convey any animal as aforesaid, or any hides, skins, horns, hoofs or offal as aforesaid in and along any such turnpike road or public highway as aforesaid between the hours of six o'clock in the evening and six o'clock in the following morning.

10.—That every such certificate of any veterinary surgeon or of any competent person or persons as aforesaid, and every licence of any such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, shall only be in force and of any validity for the space of four days after the granting of such certificate; and such certificate and such licence, whenever required, shall state the place to which such animal or other article as aforesaid is required to be removed, and shall accompany the animal, or the hides, skins and other articles aforesaid, so removed, and a duplicate of such certificate shall in every case be delivered or sent by post forthwith to the superintendent of police for the police district in which the land and premises from which such removal shall take place are and may be situate; but such certificate shall authorize the removal of any such animal as aforesaid only whilst such animal shall continue free from disorder.

Provided lastly, that notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in these orders or declarations contained, it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons to carry, drive or convey any such animal or animals as aforesaid along the turnpike road leading from the borough of Liverpool to the Liverpool cattle-market at Stanley, or by the railway from the said borough to the said market, direct to such market and back again into the said borough: Provided that every such animal as aforesaid before leaving the said borough be certified by some veterinary surgeon or other duly qualified Cattle Plague Inspector to be free from the disorder called the Cattle Plague; and such certificate shall accompany every animal so carried, driven or conveyed as last aforesaid, and shall be produced by the person driving or otherwise removing any such animal as aforesaid whenever required: and provided also that every such animal as aforesaid be kept on the said road or railway, and be not permitted to be taken or driven along the said road further than to the said market, or into any field, yard, or other place on either side of such road or railway.

11.—Every person offending against these orders, declarations and notices, or any of them, will be liable for each offence to a penalty not exceeding £20.

Suffolk to wit.—Eastern Division.

Amended Order in lieu of any previous Order or Orders.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden by adjournment at Ipswich, in and for the Eastern Division of the said county of Suffolk, on Tuesday the 30th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1866, before Charles Austin, Esquire, Chairman, Colonel Anstruther, Frederic Snowden Corrance, Esquire, Copinger Hill, Clerk, and others their companions, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace within the said county; and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdeeds, in the said county done and committed.

At this Court Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Suffolk assembled at the above-named Sessions, in exercise of the power given to them by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, dated the 20th day of January, 1866, do by this notice, intended to be published as by the said Order required, declare that the following order be made, videlicet:

Cattle Plague Resolutions for the Eastern Division of the county of Suffolk.

1st. That subject to the provisions of the Order in Council, no stock be permitted to enter the Eastern Division of the county without the order of two Justices at Petty Sessions within the Petty Sessional Division to which they are imported.

2nd. That in any Petty Sessional Division in which the Justices acting in any Petty Sessions therein, shall certify that no cattle plague has appeared for one calendar month then last past, and which Division shall by notice published in one or more of the county papers, be declared free from cattle plague, stock shall be allowed to circulate, but that no stock be brought into or sent out of such Division without the order of two Justices as aforesaid, and further, that any two Justices acting in Petty Sessions may at any time declare the Division in which they act to be infected.

3rd. That in any Petty Sessional Division which has not been certified as free from cattle plague as aforesaid, no stock be permitted to be removed upon a public road without the order of two Justices at Petty Sessions.

4th. That all fairs, markets, and repository sales for the sale of stock be prohibited.

5th. That stock be permitted under the order of two Justices at Petty Sessions to be taken to any place for immediate slaughter (that is to say not exceeding three days), but that no stock be allowed to return alive. And further, that no restriction in this rule shall be held to apply to any Petty Sessional Division which shall have been certified under the second rule.

6th. That no stock be permitted to enter any Petty Sessional Division from any other Division within the Eastern Division of the county, without the order of two Justices acting at Petty Sessions within the Division from which such stock is sent.

7th. That no hides, skins, horns, hoofs, or offal be brought into or removed within any infected Petty Sessional Division, without the order of two Justices at Petty Sessions for such Division.

8th. That no stock shall under any circumstances be driven upon any highway, or public road, between the hours of six o'clock in the evening and six o'clock in the morning.

9th. That every person driving any stock along any highway or public road, shall, if required to do so, show his licence.

10th. That for the purposes of breeding, cows and swine may be sent off the premises of the owner to a bull or boar, provided that before so sending, the owner of the animals so sent, shall procure from a Justice of the Peace, or a guardian, or churchwarden of his parish, a certificate stating that the animals on the sender's premises are free from disease.

11th. That the word stock include cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat or swine.

12th. That these resolutions be in force until the 1st day of March.

13th. That the mayors of boroughs be invited to co-operate and maintain uniformity of action throughout the county.

And it is further ordered, that the licence for removal of any stock within the said Eastern Division of the said county shall, when the Justices granting the licence shall think necessary, specify the description and number of stock to which such licence refers, the term for which it is valid, from where and to where stock are to be removed, the name of the sender and to whom consigned.

And the said Justices so assembled as aforesaid, do hereby revoke all notices at any time heretofore published by order of this Court, or by any previous local authority within the said Eastern Division of the said county, except as to any liabilities which may have been incurred, or any legal proceedings which may have been taken under any of the said notices.

Every person offending against this notice or the said Order in Council, is liable to a penalty of £20, to be recovered summarily before the Justices acting for the Petty Sessional Division within which the offence is committed.

By Order of the Court,

Borton,

Clerk of the Peace for the county of Suffolk.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

City and Borough of Bath, in the County of Somerset.

I, THE undersigned George Moger, Esquire, Mayor of the said city and borough, by virtue of the powers vested in me as the local authority therein, do hereby and in pursuance of the several Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November and the 16th day of December, both now last past, revoke the notice given by me, dated the 13th day of December last, provided nevertheless that nothing in this notice contained shall affect any breaches of the said notice of the said 13th day of December last, or any proceedings in respect of such breaches; and in lieu of such revoked notice, I do hereby in further pursuance of the said Orders, and subject to the exceptions and conditions therein contained, declare that (with a view to prevent the spreading of the cattle plague), all cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, and calves, shall, from the date of the publication hereof until the 1st day of March next, be excluded from all markets and fairs to be holden within the said city and borough; and I do hereby further declare that, with the view aforesaid, no such animals or animal shall within the period aforesaid be brought from any other part of Great Britain into the said city and borough (unless the same shall be so brought with my permission, in writing, for the purpose of transit through the said city and borough), save and except on the following conditions, viz., that all animals of the description aforesaid brought to the said city and borough, shall be brought in a fat and healthy condition to a slaughter-house, within the said city and borough, for the purpose of slaughter, and shall be slaughtered at such slaughter-house within two clear days after reaching the same. And take notice that during the period aforesaid it will not be lawful to bring or send any such animals as aforesaid into the said city and borough, except in accordance with the preceding conditions. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any animals by railway through the said city and borough.

Every person offending against this Order shall for every offence forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted may think fit to impose.

George Moger, Mayor of Bath.

Dated this 24th day of January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Denbigh.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Justices of the Peace for the said county, in Quarter Sessions (held by adjournment) assembled at Ruthin on the 29th day of January, 1866, did make the following declaration and order:—

"In pursuance of an Order of Her Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 20th day of January, 1866, it is further declared and ordered in addition to the declaration and order of this Court, made on the 4th instant with respect to cattle, that with the view to check the spreading of the disorder generally designated the 'Cattle Plague,' it is expedient that from the time of the publication of a notice hereof, by the Clerk of the Peace for this county, in any newspaper circulating within the county of Denbigh, until the 1st day of March next, no raw or untanned hides, skins, horns, hoofs, nor offal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or goat, nor any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, shall be brought into, or be removed from place to place along any highway within the jurisdiction of this Court, in the county of Denbigh, except, previous to removal, a license of removal shall be obtained from a Justice of this county, upon proving, by a declaration made by the owner, or a competent witness, that no animals have been suffering from the cattle plague on the land or premises in the occupation of the said owner, such license to have effect for a period of six days.

"And it is further declared and ordered, that it is expedient that from the time of the publication of a notice hereof, as aforesaid, until the 1st day of March next, no sheep, lamb, or swine, shall be brought into the county of Denbigh, or be removed from place to place along any highway within the said county, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, except, previous to removal, a license of removal shall be obtained from a Justice of this county, upon proving by a declaration made by the owner or a competent witness, that the animal has been in the possession of such owner for at least twenty-one days previous to such application, and that no animals have been suffering from the cattle plague on land or premises in the occupation of the owner of such animal; such license to have effect for a period of three days, inclusive of the day on which it is issued."

By the Court,
Joseph Piers,
Clerk of the Peace.

NOTE.—The order of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the 4th January, 1866, still prevents the removal of any cattle, and by the Order of the Privy Council of 20th January, 1866, the power of sending animals out of the county by railway is repealed.

Every person offending against the foregoing declaration, is liable to a penalty not exceeding £20 for each offence.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Glamorganshire.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, held by adjournment at the town of Cardiff, in and for the said county, on Saturday, the 27th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1866, before Richard Bassett, John Stuart Corbett, Esquires, and others, their associates, Her Majesty's Justices assigned to keep the peace in the said county; and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other offences done and committed in the said county.

This Court having taken into consideration an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 20th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1866, for the prevention of the disease called the "Cattle Plague," and with a view to the check of the said disease:—

Doth hereby order that from and after the date hereof, until the 1st day of March next, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send into this county any raw or untanned hides and skins, or any horns, hoofs, or offal of any bull, bullock, ox, cow, heifer, or calf, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter which shall have been brought with, or used for, the purposes of any such animal, and be likely to propagate infection (except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America), save and except that it be lawful for any two Justices of this county, by license under their hands, to permit any persons to remove any such animals, hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, and other articles, from any land and premises in his own occupation and beyond the jurisdiction of this Court, to any other land and premises, within such jurisdiction during a time to be specified in such license; and also except that it shall be lawful to send or carry any such animals, hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, and other articles, through this county by railway, the same having been first brought to the nearest railway station to their port of discharge within this county.

Every person offending against these orders shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices, before whom he shall be convicted of such offence, may think fit to impose.

By the Court,
Thos. Dalton, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE NOTICE.

Cumberland to wit.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden by adjournment at Carlisle, in and for the county of Cumberland, on Saturday, the 27th day of January, in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Queen Victoria, and in the year of our Lord 1866, before certain Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the peace of our said Lady the Queen, in the same county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanours in the same county committed.

A report was read from Mr. Bell, Inspector for Cumberland Ward, stating that he had examined the cattle of Mr. Slater, at Bassenthwaite, and that he had found no symptoms of rinderpest among them.

1.—Resolved, that all orders and provisoes made by this Court under the two Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, and the 16th day of December, 1865, touching the removal of animals as described in the said Orders, be revoked, and that the said Orders of Council, and also another Order in Council, dated the 20th day of January, 1866, be put in force throughout this county to their fullest extent, and that no such animals shall be removed, nor any hides, skins, horns, hoofs, or offal of such animals, nor any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, shall be brought or sent from any farm or place in the said county to any other farm or place, or from place to place generally within the same, until the 1st day of March next, except as herein-after provided for.

Provided, that farm sales and removal of animals on changing tenants may still take place under the following rules and regulations, until Wednesday, the 7th day of February next, and no longer:—

Regulations for Removal of Cattle at Farm Sales and on change of Tenants.

In case of farm sales or change of tenants, a certificate for the removal of cattle, signed by two Justices acting in petty sessions, shall be sufficient authority for the removal of any cattle so sold or moved, and shall exempt the parties moving such cattle from any penalty under the Orders of Council, provided the rules and regulations hereinafter mentioned be complied with. The fee to the Magistrates' Clerk for such certificate not to exceed 1s. in each case.

Provided always, and this Court doth further order, that at all farm sales and change of tenants, a superintendent inspector or sergeant of police shall, on the production of the last mentioned certificate, grant a pass to each purchaser or other person, specifying the number and description of cattle to be removed under its authority, and the route it is proposed they should travel from place to place (no part of such route being within two miles of any place where the cattle plague may then exist), and also specifying that such cattle are perfectly healthy, and have been in possession of their owner for three weeks previous to their removal, and that the cattle plague has not been within two miles of the place where such cattle have been kept for two months preceding such removal, provided that such pass shall only remain in force for 48 hours.

Provided also, that every person driving cattle along any highway or road shall, if required, produce his pass, licence, or certificate, authorizing the removal of such cattle, to any person demanding the same, and on refusal so to do, or on deviating from the route specified in such pass, licence, or certificate, the same shall be null and void, and the person so offending shall be liable to the same penalties as he would have been liable to in case the said pass, licence, or certificate had not been granted. Provided also, that the chief constable be, and he is hereby empowered, to draw out and enforce such regulations at farm sales as may, in his opinion, be expedient to prevent the cattle plague from being communicated to cattle by persons attending such sales.

Provided always, and this Court doth further order, that no cattle moved under the preceding orders regulating farm sales by auction shall be allowed to enter the wards of Eskdale (including Longtown Division), Leath, Allerdale-above-Derwent, or Derwent Division, from any other part of the county. And that no animals as described in the said Orders of Council shall, under any pass, licence, order, or certificate whatever, be removed from one parish or township in the said county to another parish or township in the same, between the hours of 6 p.m. and 6 a.m., until the 1st of March next.

Exceptions as to Sheep.

Provided also, that under the certificate of two Justices acting in Petty Sessions, in their usual place of transacting business, sheep may be moved from place to place in the said county for the purpose of being put on turnips or other keep.

Exceptions as to Watering Cattle and other Animals.

Provided that in cases where there is not sufficient water upon a farm, cattle or other animals may, under a certificate of two Justices acting in Petty Sessions as aforesaid, be driven to and from the nearest convenient watering place; and such certificate shall remain in force until revoked by the like authority of Justices acting as aforesaid.

Auction Marts.

2.—Resolved, that a representation be made to the Mayor of Carlisle, urging upon him the necessity of closing the auction mart for cattle and other animals in the city during the prevalence of the Cattle Plague.

Voluntary Assessment.

3.—Resolved, that for the purpose of suppressing the Cattle Plague in Cumberland, it is expedient that a voluntary assessment or rate of 3d. in the pound—two-thirds to be payable by the owner, and one-third by the occupier—be forthwith levied throughout the county, and be collected by the overseers of the poor, in the ensuing week, and by them paid to the treasurers of their respective Unions. And that it be a recommendation that a Cumberland Cattle Plague Association, with branch associations in all the wards of the county, and committees in every parish of the wards, be formed for the purpose of administering the rate, and carrying out the object thereof.

In pursuance of the preceeding resolutions, this Court doth order and declare, that from and after six o'clock on Wednesday evening, the 31st day of January instant:—

4.—Every person having in his possession or under his custody any animal labouring under the said disorder shall forthwith give notice thereof to the inspector of the district within which such animal may be, and shall obey any order given by such inspector for the purpose of disinfecting any premises in which the same may have been or may be, and any order for the disinfection or destruction of any fodder, manure, or refuse matter which the said inspector may deem likely to propagate the said disorder.

5.—That every person having in his possession or under his custody any animal labouring under the said disorder shall keep such animal separate from all other animals, and no person shall send or bring to any fair or market, or expose for sale, or send or carry by railway, or by any ship or vessel coastwise, or place upon, or drive along any highway or the sides thereof any such animal.

6.—That no person having in his possession or under his custody any animal labouring under the said disorder, or which has been in the same shed or stable or in the same herd or flock, or in contact with any animal labouring under the said disorder, shall remove such animal alive from his land or premises.

7.—That no person shall place or keep any animal labouring under the said disorder in any common or unenclosed land, or in any field or pasture where, in the judgment of the inspector, such animal may be likely to propagate the said disorder.

8.—That every person having any animal labouring under the said disorder in his possession or under his custody shall obey any direction given by the inspector for the purpose of keeping such animal separate from animals free from the said disorder; and in case of disobedience of such directions, then and in such case, and such case only, shall such inspector have power to cause such animal to be seized and slaughtered.

9.—That all animals having died of the said disorder, or having been slaughtered on account thereof, shall be buried as soon as practicable in any convenient place, with their skins, and with a sufficient quantity of quick-lime or other disinfectant, and shall be covered with at least five feet of earth.

10.—That it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any animal to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said county for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animal so brought or sent, provided that nothing hereinbefore contained shall be held to prohibit any person from exhibiting or selling on his own land or premises any animal belonging to him which has been on such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previous to such sale.

11.—That it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any animal as described in the said order from any place in Great Britain beyond the said county, into any place within the said county (except sheep as hereinbefore provided for), provided always that nothing contained in this clause of this order shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway through such county, or if brought by sea from any place out of Great Britain into the said county to the nearest convenient railway station, for the purpose of carrying it through or out of such jurisdiction, and provided also that nothing contained in this clause of this order shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send, with the licence of any two Justices acting in and for the said county, any such animals from any land or premises in his own occupation, and beyond the said county to any other land or premises in his own occupation within the said county.

12.—That it shall not be lawful for any person to remove any animals as defined by the said Orders in Council, or to bring or send any hides, skins, horns, hoofs, or offal, except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs, as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa or America, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, from any place in Great Britain beyond the said county into any place within the said county, or from any farm or place within the said county to any other farm or place, or from place to place generally within the said county: provided always, that nothing contained in this clause of this order shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals, or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, by railway, through the said county, or to send or carry any such animals, or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, if brought by sea from any place out of Great Britain into the said county, to the nearest convenient railway station for the purpose of carrying them through or out of the said county: and provided also that nothing contained in this clause of this order shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send with the licence of any two Justices acting in and for the said county, any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, from any land and premises in his own occupation, and beyond the said county, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within the said county, during a time to be specified in such licence.

13.—In this order the word "animal" shall mean any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, goat, or swine; and the word "inspector" shall include any inspector appointed by the said Court.

14.—This order, unless previously revoked, shall be in force until the 1st day of March next, and no longer, unless continued by some further order.

15.—Every person offending against this order or any provision thereof shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

By the Court,
Hodgson.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Cornwall: Epiphany Quarter Sessions, 1866.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, held at Bodmin, in and for the said county, on Tuesday, the 2nd day of January, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, and in the year of our Lord 1866, before Sir Colman Rashleigh, Baronet, Sir Charles Brune Graves Sawle, Baronet, John Jope Rogers, Esquire, and others their companions, Justices of our said Sovereign Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the peace in and for the said county; and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors committed within the said county; and from thence continued by several adjournments until this 27th day of January, 1866, before the Justices aforesaid, and others their companions as aforesaid, and now held at the Shire Hall, in the town of Bodmin, in the said county:

By virtue of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 16th day of December, 1865, and also of another Order of the said Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, and also of another Order of the said Council, dated the 20th day of January, 1866, respectively made with a view to prevent the spreading of a contagious or infectious disorder, called the "Cattle Plague," in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament recited in the said Orders of Council, the said Justices of the Peace for the said county of Cornwall, assembled as aforesaid, and sitting in open court, this 27th day of January, 1866, being satisfied of the existence of the said disorder in the county of Cornwall, do hereby, as the local authority in and for the same county constituted by the said Order of Council of the 16th day of December, 1865, order, resolve, and declare:—

1st. That all orders and notices heretofore issued, whether by the Justices of the Peace in Quarter Sessions assembled, or by the Justices of the several Petty Sessional Divisions in this county, as the local authority thereof, be revoked on and from the 1st day of February next, except as to any liability incurred, or any legal proceedings taken under any of the said previous orders or notices, and except as hereinafter provided.

2nd. It is further ordered, resolved and declared, that the chief constable of this county be appointed chief supervisor, for the purpose of carrying into effect the rules and regulations made by the Orders of the Lords of the Privy Council of the 23rd day of November, and the 16th day of December last, and the 20th day of January instant, and the notices and orders given by this Court within its jurisdiction; that the superintendents, inspectors, and sergeants, under the command of the chief constable, be appointed supervisors for the respective divisions to which they are for the time being attached; and that all inspectors of cattle already appointed by any such local authority as aforesaid, be and are hereby re-appointed inspectors of cattle for the respective divisions in which they were inspectors of cattle immediately before the 1st day of February next, except so far as such appointments have been rescinded or altered by the Order of this Court this day made in that behalf.

3rd. It is further ordered, resolved, and declared, that on and from the said 1st day of February next until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, swine, raw or untanned hides and skins, horns, or hoofs of any animals defined in the said Orders of Council, or any of them (except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America), and that no offal of such animals, and no dung, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, shall be brought into any place within the said county from any other part of Great Britain: Provided that it shall not be unlawful for any person to send or carry such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, by railway, through the jurisdiction of this Court: Provided also, that it shall not be unlawful for any person to bring or send, with the licence of any two Justices acting in and for the jurisdiction to which this notice applies, any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, from any land and premises in his own occupation and beyond such jurisdiction, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within such jurisdiction, during a time to be specified in such licence.

4th. It is further ordered, resolved, and declared, that on and from the said 1st day of February next until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall be brought, sent, or removed to any market or fair, or to any place whatever in the said county, for the purpose of exhibition or sale; and that it will be unlawful to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animals so brought or sent.

5th. It is further ordered, resolved, and declared, that on and from the said 1st day of February next until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, and no raw or untanned hides and skins, horns, or hoofs, except as aforesaid, and no offal of any such animals as aforesaid, and no dung, straw, fodder, or litter likely to propagate infection shall be removed from place to place within the said county, except as follows:—

That fat cattle, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine sold for slaughtering, be marked with the letter X in the hind quarter cut in the hair or wool, or in case of swine, painted on the hind quarter, and be killed within five days of the date of the certificate; and the removal of the animal is to take place only upon the certificate of two Justices of the Peace acting for the Petty Sessional Division from or within which any such animal shall be removed, stating the name and residence of the seller, the destination of the animal, the name of the purchaser, and the fact that the Justices have been satisfied by the evidence of the inspector, or otherwise, of the healthiness of such animal, and that it has been in the possession of the seller for at least thirty days previously, and that no case of Cattle Plague has occurred within two months within three miles of the place from which the animal shall come; which certificate shall be in force for not more than five days. The horns, hides, and hoofs of any such cattle, whether slaughtered on a farm or otherwise, may be removed on being subjected to some disinfecting process before removal.

Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall make it unlawful to send or carry any such animals, hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, by railway, through the said county, or to send or carry any such animals, hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, if brought by sea from any place out of Great Britain into the said county, to the nearest convenient railway station, for the purpose of carrying the same through or out of the said county.

On the certificate of one magistrate any cow or heifer may be driven to a bull, or any sow to a boar, any distance not exceeding two miles each way in going to and returning from the bull or boar; such certificate to state the place to which the animal is to be driven, and to be countersigned by the owner of the bull or boar, and sent by him to the clerk of the magistrates of the division.

Every certificate on sale of cattle or other animals is to be executed in duplicate, one part whereof is to be retained by the seller, and one to be delivered to the purchaser, and be held by the person in charge of the animal, to be shewn to any one requiring to see the same; and upon the arrival of the animal at its destination, the certificate shall be delivered to the officer in charge of the nearest police station.

Every such certificate shall be revocable if improperly obtained, or on other reasonable grounds.

This Order is not to extend to prevent any occupier of a farm not infected with cattle disease from using a public highway for removing his cattle from one part of his farm to any other part of the same farm, or from removing sheep or lambs from any land not infected in his occupation to any other lands not infected in his occupation.

6th. It is further ordered, resolved, and declared that on and from the said 1st day of February next until the said 1st day of March next, it shall not be lawful to remove any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, within the said county, except between the hours of seven in the morning and five in the evening.

7th. And the said Justices hereby give notice, that every person offending against the terms of this declaration and notice will for every offence be liable to a penalty of £20.

By the Court,

Stokes, Clerk of the Peace.

The several supervisors and inspectors are requested to forward to the Clerk of the Peace the names of the different farms and places where the "Cattle Plague" has appeared, with the dates of the last cases, for the information of the magistrates.

Forms of the certificates may be obtained from the clerks of the several Petty Sessional Divisions, from the supervisors, and from the Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Saffron Walden.

By virtue and under the authority of two several Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November and the 16th day of December last, notice is hereby given that from Monday, the 29th day of January instant, it is expedient, and I do hereby declare, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall, until the 1st day of March, 1866, be brought or sent to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said borough, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

And notice is hereby further given, and I do hereby declare that it is expedient from the said 29th day of January instant, until the said 1st day of March next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf be brought or sent from any other part of Great Britain into this borough. Provided always that the prohibitions hereinbefore contained shall not extend to prevent any person or persons having animals fatted for slaughter, and which have been bonâ fide in the possession of the owner or owners thereof at least twenty-eight days prior to sale, from sending any such animals to the said market or any sale-yard therein, or to any butcher, for the purpose of sale and slaughter only, provided a certificate signed by two Justices of the Peace of the said borough authorising the removal be first obtained for that purpose. And provided also that such prohibitions as aforesaid shall not extend to the removal of any animal bonâ fide the property of the occupier of any land or premises within the said borough from one part of such land or premises to another along any highway for any distance not exceeding 800 yards.

And notice is hereby further given, that every fat animal brought or sent into the said market or into any sale-yard within the precincts of the said borough for sale to be slaughtered for food, must be positively sold before it can be allowed to leave the said market or sale-yard, and shall be marked by clipping the hair off the end of the tail, and the Clerk of the said market or his assistants shall cause such mark to be duly made, and no person shall buy or sell, or cause to be bought or sold, any such fat animal in the said market or sale-yard, except for immediate slaughtering, and every person buying any such animal shall slaughter or cause the same to be slaughtered in all cases within seven days of such purchase, and shall sign and deliver to the Clerk of the Market or his assistants an undertaking to so slaughter the same before such animal shall be allowed to leave the said market or sale-yard, and when slaughtered shall return a certificate thereof to the Clerk of the Justices of the said borough.

And notice is hereby also given, that every person offending in any of the above particulars after the publication of this Notice will be liable for every such offence to forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

Dated this 27th day of January, 1866.

*Shropshire Sessions, 27th January, 1866.
Drayton and Ford Petty Sessional Divisions.*
REVOCATION OF NOTICES AND NEW ORDERS.

By virtue of the powers vested in them by divers Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, the Justices of the Peace assembled at this Court of Quarter Sessions, do hereby make the following resolutions and orders:—

1. That the declaration and notice made and signed by her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the Drayton Petty Sessional Division of the said county of Salop, on the 16th day of December last, and also the declaration and notice made and signed by Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the Ford Petty Sessional Division of the said county of Salop, on the 9th day of December last, pursuant to an Order in Council, dated the 28th day of November last, with a view to prevent the spreading of the cattle plague, be respectively revoked upon the 31st day of January instant.

2. That in lieu of such revoked declarations and notices, on and after the 1st day of February next, and until the 1st day of March next, the following animals, namely, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, shall be removed to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within either of the said petty sessional divisions of Drayton or Ford, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

3. That on and after the said 1st day of February next, and until the said 1st day of March next, animals as hereinbefore defined shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within either of the said petty sessional divisions of Drayton or Ford.

By the Court,

Lordale, Clerk of the Peace for the county of Salop.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Aberdeen.

THE Justices of the Peace for the county of Aberdeen, in sessions assembled within the Court-house of Aberdeen, this 26th day of January, 1866, considering that it is expedient, and by virtue of the powers contained in the Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, of date 20th day of January, 1866, do hereby give notice and declare that it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send into the county of Aberdeen any hide, skin, horn, hoof, offal, dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter likely to propagate infection from any place in Great Britain, except from the counties of Banff, Moray, Nairn, Inverness, Cromarty, Ross, Caithness, and Shetland, or Orkney Isles, and that for the period from the date of this Order to the 1st March next.

Every person offending against the above notice and declaration is liable in a penalty not exceeding £20 sterling.

Published by order of the Justices,

James Augs. Sinclair, Clerk of the Peace of Aberdeenshire.

Shropshire Sessions, 27th January, 1866.

ORDER AS TO HIDES, &c.

In pursuance of the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 20th January, 1866, the Justices of the Peace assembled at this Court of Quarter Sessions, with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder designated as the Cattle Plague, do, in addition to their Order of the 6th instant, prohibiting the removal of cattle in the said county, except to lands adjoining, and in the same occupation, by this notice declare that it is expedient that upon and after the 1st day of February next, and until the 1st day of March next, no raw or untanned hides or skins, horns or hoofs of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf (except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs, as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America), or the offal of any such animals, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder or litter, likely to propagate infection, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain, into any place within the said county of Salop, or removed from any place whatever within the said county of Salop, to any other place within such jurisdiction: provided always, that nothing contained in this Order shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send, with the licence of any two Justices acting for the said county, any such hides, skins, horns, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, from any lands and premises in his own occupation, and beyond the jurisdiction aforesaid, to any other lands or premises in his own occupation, within the said jurisdiction, during the term hereinbefore mentioned.

By the Court,

Loxdale,

Clerk of the Peace for the county of Salop.

CONTRACT FOR PORT WINE.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, January 17,
1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Monday, the 5th February next, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Port Wine, 1,000 gallons (to be tendered for at a rate per gallon); to be delivered within three weeks from date of contract.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the article.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The wine to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the wine (in pints) from each cask, must be produced by the parties tendering, and not samples only for each import mark.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantity and rate; and contractors in claiming payment are to make out their invoices in accordance therewith.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contract, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Port Wine," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

CONTRACT FOR LOCKS AND LOCK FURNITURE.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, January 26,
1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 20th February next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Store at Her Majesty's Dock Yards, all such quantities of as shall from time to time be ordered under a contract for twelve months certain, and further, until the expiration of three months' warning.

The average annual expenditure for the last three years may be ascertained, patterns of the articles may be seen, and a form of tender, including a schedule of the articles, and conditions of contract, may be obtained on application at this Department.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an Agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Locks, &c.," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Admiralty, Somerset House, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £1,000 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR COALS FOR CHINA.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, January 30, 1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 20th February next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Store or on board Her Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Hong Kong,

2,000 TONS OF SOUTH WALES COALS,

Fit for the Service of Her Majesty's Steam Ships and Vessels; and that 500 tons thereof shall be delivered at either Amoy, Chefoo, or Fow Chow, if ordered by the Commander-in-Chief or Senior Naval Officer at Hong Kong.

A form of the tender and conditions of contract may be seen in the Lobby of the Storekeeper-General's Department, Admiralty, Somerset House.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Coals for China," and must also be delivered at the Storekeeper-General's Department, Admiralty, Somerset House, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value for the due performance of the contract.
