

and available only for the day for which it is granted, and for the removal of the animal described therein, to the place described therein, and for no other purpose whatsoever.

5. With the consent of the said Justices any number of sheep, lambs, or swine may be included in one certificate and license.

6. When any such animal having been removed under the conditions and with such license as aforesaid, shall be sold by public auction for immediate slaughter, each such animal shall be slaughtered, at the place of sale.

7. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the owner of any cow usually kept at night within any building in any town or place, from driving such cow, so long as the said cow shall continue free from disease, to and from her pasturage daily, for the purpose of milking and housing such cow, upon such owner obtaining a license from two Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of the county of Stafford, in which the place where the cow is kept is situated, that such cow is free from disease.

8. Nothing herein contained shall prevent any person from driving any such cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or swine, from any part of a farm in his own occupation to any other part of the same farm, so long as the animals on his farm or land are free from disease, and so long as there is no cattle plague in the neighbourhood of such farm or land, upon his obtaining the license of any two Justices acting in and for the said county.

9. Any Justice of the Peace for the county of Stafford may grant a license to move any cow or heifer, which has been in the possession of the owner for one month at least prior to the date of such license, to the bull, such license to specify the name of the owner of the cow, or heifer, the place from which the cow or heifer is removed, and the place to which the cow or heifer is to go; and also to state that the Justice of the Peace granting the license is satisfied that no cattle plague exists either at the place where the cow or heifer is to be removed from, or where the cow or heifer is to be removed to, the bull, such license to be in force for seven days.

10. Any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or swine, bought in the Wolverhampton market, or in the Stoke-upon-Trent or Hanley markets, in the county of Stafford, and coming into the jurisdiction of the county of Stafford, from the Wolverhampton or Hanley markets, or coming from the Stoke-upon-Trent market, with a separate certificate for each such animal, signed by the Inspector of the market from which each such animal shall come, that each such animal is free from disease, and is bought for immediate slaughter, each such animal being also branded with the date of the day of sale, shall be allowed to proceed within the jurisdiction of the county of Stafford, from the said Wolverhampton market, to any place within the limits of the parliamentary borough of Wolverhampton, and to either of the following places, Wednesbury, Darlaston, Tipton, and Westbromwich, and from the said Stoke-upon-Trent and Hanley markets to any place within the limits of the parliamentary borough of Stoke-upon-Trent, in each and every case with the license of two Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Petty Sessional Divisions of Wolverhampton and Bilston, or Stoke-upon-Trent respectively, such license specifying the place at which each such animal is to be delivered for slaughter, the date of the purchase, and the name of the party to whom each such animal is consigned for slaughter. Provided each such animal be slaughtered within five clear days from such day of sale.

11. Each such animal shall proceed to its destination by the nearest direct road; and on arriving at its destination shall be kept in some building or shed, and shall not at any time on such journey or afterwards be turned out or exposed in any land or open place.

Removal from another county or jurisdiction into the county of Stafford.

12. And it is further ordered and declared by this notice, that it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or swine, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain (except the boroughs of Wolverhampton and Hanley, under the conditions hereinbefore provided) into any place within the said county of Stafford (except by railway into the town of Stoke-upon-Trent) from the 8th day of February to the 1st day of March, 1866, and that from and after the publication of this notice, and from the said 8th day of February to the said 1st day of March, 1866, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said county of Stafford, except as aforesaid.

13. Nothing in the orders and notices of Quarter Sessions of the 3rd day of January, 1866, or in these present orders or notices contained, shall make it unlawful for the London and North Western Railway Company to remove any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, to and from their cattle station at Wednesfield Heath, to and from the borough of Wolverhampton.

14. Nothing contained in this notice shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such last named animals by railway, through the jurisdiction of the county of Stafford.

15. No animal whatever shall be removed from place to place within the said county of Stafford between the hours of six o'clock, p.m., and six o'clock, a.m.

Hides, Skins, Manure, Hay, Straw, &c.

16. And it is further ordered that no raw or untanned hides, nor any skins, hoofs, horns, or offal, of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or swine—and also that no dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the county of Stafford.

17. And it is further ordered that no raw or untanned hides, nor any skins, hoofs, horns, or offal, of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, or swine—and also that no dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, shall be removed from place to place within the said county of Stafford, without the license of two Justices of the Peace of the said county.

18. It shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said county of Stafford from time to time to withdraw any license granted by him or them under the powers in this notice contained.

19. The word owner, in this notice contained, shall include any bailiff in the actual management of and residing upon any farm in the county of Stafford.

20. It is ordered, that the several orders relative to the disease called the "Cattle Plague," made at the Court of Quarter Sessions, held in
