

Income Tax Acts for the Divisions of Spelthorne and Uxbridge aforesaid.

Henry Roberts.
Alex. Duff Gordon.

Inland Revenue, Somerset House,
London, March 5, 1866.

Amersham Union.—Parish of Chesham.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish of Chesham, in the county of Buckingham;—

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said parish is situate;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Chesham, in the county of Buckingham, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons.

And whereas, at a meeting of the vestry of the said parish, held in the vestry room in the parish church, on Thursday, the 6th day of July last, in pursuance of notice duly given, it was resolved unanimously—

“That application shall be made to the Commissioners for administering the laws relating to the poor in England to make an order under their seal of office, that the Act passed on the 5th of August, 1850 (the 13th and 14th Victoria, chapter 57), intituled ‘An Act to prevent the holding of vestry or other meetings in churches, and for regulating the appointment of vestry clerks,’ shall be applied to and be put in force within this parish of Chesham, as regards that portion only of the said Act which relates to the appointment of a vestry clerk; and that the said Commissioners be requested to assign to the said vestry clerk (notwithstanding a collector of poor rates for the said parish of Chesham may be appointed), in addition to the duties which will devolve upon him in pursuance of sec. 7 of the 13th and 14th Vic., c. 57, the duty of making out all the poor rates of this parish, and the procuring the same to be allowed, and giving the notices thereof required by law; and that for the duties to be performed by such vestry clerk, it is the opinion of this vestry that he be paid a salary of thirty pounds a year.”

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made their application in writing to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above resolution,

Now, therefore, we, the Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, hereby order and direct as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—That so much of the said Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled “An Act to prevent the holding of vestry or other meetings in churches, and for regulating the appointment of vestry clerks,” as relates to the appointment of a vestry clerk, shall forthwith be applied to, and be put in force within, the said parish of Chesham.

ARTICLE II.—That the vestry clerk for the time being, appointed under the authority of the statutes in that behalf and this order, shall perform the following duties, in addition to those set forth in the said Act:—

To make out the poor rate for the said parish as and when the same shall become requisite; to procure the same to be allowed; and to give notices thereof as required by law.

ARTICLE III.—That an annual salary of thirty pounds shall be paid to such vestry clerk by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said parish.

ARTICLE IV.—That the salary of such vestry clerk shall be payable up to the day on which he ceases to hold such office, and no longer, and shall be paid by quarterly payments at the several quarters ending at the usual feast days in the year, namely, Michaelmas-day, Christmas-day, Lady-day, and Midsummer-day, with a proportionate sum to be paid to his executors or administrators, in case he shall die while holding such office.

ARTICLE V.—That a copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

C. P. Villiers, President.

H. Fleming, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Caersalem, situate at Barmouth, in the parish of Llanaber, in the county of Merioneth, in the district of Dolgelley, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 1st day of March, 1866, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85, being substituted for the building known as Capel yr Hendre, at Barmouth, now disused.

Witness my hand this 3rd day of March, 1866.

Griffith Williams, Superintendent Registrar.

In the Matter of the Companies Act, 1862, and in the Matter of the West Bank Iron Company (Limited).

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition for the winding up of the above-named Company by the Court of Chancery, was, on the 1st day of March, 1866, presented to the Master of the Rolls by Joseph Ralston Beck, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, one of the Registered Public Officers of the North and South Wales Bank, being as such public officer a creditor of the said Company; and that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Master of the Rolls, on the 17th day of March, 1866; and any creditor or contributory of the said Company desirous to oppose the making of an Order for the winding up of the said Company, under the above Act, should appear at the time of hearing, by himself or his counsel for that purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or contributory of the said Company requiring the same, by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.—Dated this 2nd day of March, 1866.
