The Lists for all these Courts are now closed.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 21, 1866.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 19th of March next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentation shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, March 12, 1866.

THE Queen has been pleased, by Warrant under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, whereof a copy is appended, to institute a New Decoration, to be styled the Albert Medal, to be awarded, in cases where it shall be considered fit, to such persons as shall, after the date of the Warrant, endanger their own lives in saving, or in endeavouring to save, the lives of others from shipwreck or other peril of the sea.

WARRANT INSTITUTING A NEW DECORATION TO BE STYLED THE ALBERT MEDAL.

VICTORIA, R.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c., to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting :

Whereas, We, taking into Our Royal consideration that great loss of life is sustained by reason of shipwrecks and other perils of the sea, and taking also into consideration the many daring and heroic actions performed by mariners and others to prevent such loss, and to save the lives of those who are in danger of perishing by reason of wrecks and perils of the sea; and taking also into consideration the expediency of distinguishing such efforts by some mark of Our Royal favour: Now, for the purpose of attaining an end so desirable as that of rewarding such actions as aforesaid, We have instituted and created, and by these presents, for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, institute and create a new Decoration, which We are desirous should be highly prized and eagerly sought after, and are graciously pleased to make, ordain, and establish the following Rules and Ordinances for the government of the same, which shall from henceforth be inviolably observed and kept:

First.—It is ordained that the distinction shall be styled "The Albert Medal," and shall consist of a gold oval-shaped badge or decoration, enamelled in dark blue, with a monogram composed of the letters V. and A. interlaced, with an anchor erect, in gold, surrounded with a garter, in bronze, inscribed in raised letters of gold "For Gallantry in Saving Life at Sea," and surmounted by a representation of the crown of His Royal Highness the lamented Prince Consort, and suspended from a dark blue riband of five-eighths of an inch in width, with two white longitudinal stripes.

Secondly.—It is ordained that the Medal shall be suspended from the left breast.

Thirdly.—It is ordained that the names of those upon whom We may be pleased to confer the decoration shall be published in the London Gazette, and a Registry thereof kept in the Office of the Board of Trade.

Fourthly.—It is ordained, that any one who, after having received the medal again, performs an act which, if he had not received such medal, would have entitled him to it, such further act shall be recorded by a bar attached to the riband by which the Medal is suspended, and for every such additional act an additional bar may be added.

Fifthly.—It is ordained, that the Medal shall only be awarded to those who, after the date of this Instrument, have, in saving, or endeavouring to save, the lives of others from shipwreck or other peril of the sea, endangered their own lives; and that such award shall be made only on a recommendation to Us by the President of the Board of Trade.

Sixthly.—In order to make such additional provision as shall effectually preserve pure this most honourable distinction; it is ordained that if any person on whom such distinction is conferred be guilty of any crime or disgraceful conduct which, in our judgment, disqualifies him for the said Decoration, his name shall forthwith be erased from the registry of individuals upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred by an especial Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, and his Medal shall be forfeited; and every person to whom the said Medal is given shall, before receiving the same, enter into an engagement to return the same if his name shall be so erased as aforesaid under this regulation. It is hereby further declared that We, Our heirs and successors shall be the sole judges of the circumstance demanding such expulsion; moreover, We shall at all times have power to restore such persons as may at any time have been expelled, to the enjoyment of the Decoration.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the twenty-ninth year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's command,

G. GREY.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS We are happily at Peace with all Sovereigns, Powers, and States:

And whereas hostilities have unhappily commenced between the Government of Spain and the Government of the Republic of Peru:

And whereas, We being at Peace with both the said Governments, have declared Our Royal determination to maintain a strict and impartial neutrality in the contest between the said contending parties:

We, therefore, have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation:

And we do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving subjects to observe a strict neutrality in and during the aforesaid hostilities, and to abstain from violating or contravening either the laws and statutes of the realm in this behalf, or the law of nations in relation thereto, as they will answer to the contrary at their peril.

And whereas, in and by a certain statute made and passed in the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to prevent the enlisting or engagement of His Majesty's subjects to serve in a foreign service, and the fitting out or equipping, in His Majesty's dominions, vessels for warlike purposes, without His Majesty's license," it is, amongst other things, declared and enacted as follows:—

"That if any natural-born subject of His Majesty, His heirs and successors, without the leave or licence of His Majesty, His heirs or successors, for that purpose first had and obtained, under the sign manual of His Majesty, His heirs or successors, or signified by Order in Council, or by proclamation of His Majesty, His heirs or successors, shall take or accept, or shall agree to take or accept, any military commission, or shall otherwise enter into the military service as a commissioned or non-commissioned officer, or shall enlist or enter himself to enlist, or shall agree to enlist, or to enter himself to serve as a soldier, or to be employed, or shall serve in any warlike or military operation, in the service of, or for, or under, or in aid of any foreign prince, state, potentate, colony, province, or part of any province or people, or of any person or persons exercising, or assuming to exercise, the powers of government in or over any foreign country, colony, province, or part of any province or people, either as an officer or soldier, or in any other military capacity; or if any natural-born subject of His Majesty shall, without such leave or licence as aforesaid, accept or agree to take, or accept any commission, warrant, or appointment as an officer, or shall enlist or enter himself, or shall agree to enlist or enter himself, to serve as a sailor or marine, or to be employed, or engaged, or shall serve in and on board any ship or vessel of war, or in and on board any ship or vessel used, or fitted out, or equipped, or intended to be used for any warlike purpose, in the service of, or for, or under, or in aid of any foreign power, prince, state, potentate, colony, province, or part of any province or people, or of any person or persons, exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of government in or over any foreign country, colony, province, or part of any province or people; or if any natural-born subject of His Majesty shall, without such leave and licence as aforesaid, engage, contract, or agree to go, or shall go to any foreign state, country, colony, province, or part of any province, or to any place beyond the seas, with an intent, or in order to enlist or enter himself to serve, or with intent to serve in any warlike or military operation whatever, whether by land or by sea; in the service of, or for, or under, or in aid of any foreign prince, state, potentate, colony, province, or part of any province or people, or in the service of, or for, or under, or in aid of any person or persons, exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of government in or over any foreign country, colony, province, or part of any province or people, either as an officer or a soldier, or in any other military capacity, or as an officer or sailor, or marine, in any such ship or vessel as aforesaid, although no enlisting money, or pay, or reward, shall have been, or shall be in any or either of the cases aforesaid, actually paid to, or received by him, or by any person to or for his use or benefit, or, if any person whatever, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any part of His Majesty's dominions elsewhere, or in any country, colony, settlement, island, or place, belonging to or subject to His Majesty, shall hire, retain, engage, or procure, or shall attempt or endeavour to hire, retain, engage, or procure, any person or persons whatever to enlist, or to enter or engage to enlist, or to serve or to be employed, in any such service or employment as aforesaid, as an officer, soldier, sailor, or marine, either in land or sea service, for, or under, or in aid of, any foreign prince, state, potentate, colony, province, or part of any province or people, or for, or under, or in aid of any person or persons exercising or assuming to exercise any powers of government as aforesaid, or to go, or to agree to go, or embark from any part of His Majesty's dominions, for the purpose, or with the intent to be so enlisted, entered, engaged, or employed as aforesaid, whether any enlisting money, pay, or reward, shall have been, or shall be actually given or received, or not, in any or either of such cases, every person so offending, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon being convicted thereof, upon any information or indictment, shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of them, at the discretion of the Court, before which such offender shall be convicted."

And it is in and by the said Act further enacted:—

"That if any person within any part of the United Kingdom, or in any part of His Majesty's dominions beyond the seas, shall, without the leave and license of His Majesty for that purpose first had and obtained as aforesaid, equip, furnish, fit out, or arm, or attempt or endeavour to equip, furnish, fit out, or arm, or procure to be equipped, furnished, fitted out, or armed, or shall knowingly aid, assist, or be concerned in the equipping, furnishing, fitting out, or arming of any ship or vessel, with intent or in order that such ship or vessel shall be employed in the service of any foreign prince, state, or potentate, or of any foreign colony, province, or part of any province or people, or of any person or persons exercising or assuming to exercise any powers of government in or over any foreign state, colony, province, or part of any province or people, as a transport or store ship, or with intent to cruise or commit hostilities against any prince, state, or potentate, or against the subjects or citizens of any prince, state, or potentate, or against the persons exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of government in any colony, province, or part of any province or country, or against the inhabitants of any foreign colony, province, or part of any province or country, with whom His Majesty shall not then be at war; or shall, within the United Kingdom, or any of His Majesty's dominions, or in any settlement, colony, territory, island, or place belonging or subject to His Majesty, issue or deliver any commission for any ship or vessel, to the intent that such ship or vessel shall be employed as aforesaid, every such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, upon any information or indictment, be punished by fine and imprisonment, or either of them, at the discretion of the Court in which such offender shall be convicted; and every such ship or vessel, with the tackle, apparel, and furniture, together with all the materials, arms, ammunition, and stores, which may belong to, or be on board of any such ship or vessel, shall be forfeited; and it shall be lawful for any officer of His Majesty's customs or excise, or any officer of His Majesty's navy, who is by law empowered to make seizures, for any forfeiture incurred under any of the laws of customs or excise, or the laws of trade and navigation, to seize such ships and vessels aforesaid, and in such places and in such manner in which the officers of His Majesty's customs or excise, and the officers of His Majesty's navy are empowered respectively to make seizures under the laws of customs and excise, or under the laws of trade and navigation; and that every such ship and vessel, with the tackle, apparel, and furniture, together with all the materials, arms, ammunition, and stores which may belong to, or be on board of such ship or vessel, may be prosecuted and condemned, in the like manner and in such Courts as ships or vessels may be prosecuted and condemned, for any breach of the laws made for the protection of the revenues of customs and excise, or of the laws of trade and navigation."

And it is in and by the said Act further enacted:—

"That if any person in any part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any part of His Majesty's dominions beyond the seas, without the leave and licence of His Majesty for that purpose, first had and obtained as aforesaid, shall, by adding to the number of the guns of such vessel, or by changing those on board for other guns, or by the addition of any equipment for war, increase or augment, or procure to be increased or augmented, or shall be knowingly concerned in increasing or augmenting the warlike force of any ship or vessel of war or cruiser, or other armed vessel, which at the time of her arrival in any part of the United Kingdom, or any of His Majesty's dominions, was a ship of war, cruiser, or armed vessel in the service of any foreign prince, state, or potentate, or of any person or persons exercising or assuming to exercise any powers of government in or over any colony, province, or part of any province or people belonging to the subjects of any such prince, state, or potentate, or to the inhabitants of any colony, province, or part of any province or country under the control of any person or persons so exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of government, every such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon being convicted thereof, upon any information or indictment, be punished by fine and imprisonment, or either of them, at the discretion of the Court, before which such offender shall be convicted."

Now, in order that none of Our subjects may unwarily render themselves liable to the penalties imposed by the said Statute, We do hereby strictly command that no person or persons whatsoever do commit any act, matter, or thing whatsoever, contrary to the provisions of the said Statute, upon pain of the several penalties by the said Statute imposed, and of Our high displeasure.

And We do hereby further warn all Our loving subjects, and all persons whatsoever entitled to Our protection, that if any of them shall presume, in contempt of this Our Royal Proclamation, and of Our high displeasure, to do any acts in derogation of their duty, as subjects of a neutral Sovereign, in the said contest, or in violation or contravention of the law of nations in that behalf, as for example and more especially by entering into the military service of either of the said contending parties as commissioned or non-commissioned officers or soldiers; or by serving as officers, sailors, or marines on board any ship or vessel of war or transport, of or in the service of either of the said contending parties, or by serving as officers, sailors, or marines on board any privateer bearing letters of marque of or from either of the said contending parties; or by engaging to go or going to any place beyond the seas, with intent to enlist or engage in any such service; or by procuring or attempting to procure, within Her Majesty's dominions at home or abroad, others to do so; or by fitting out, arming, or equipping any ship or vessel to be employed as a ship of war or privateer or transport, by either of the said contending parties; or by breaking, or endeavouring to break, any blockade lawfully and actually established by or on behalf of either of the said contending parties; or by carrying officers, soldiers, despatches, arms, military stores or materials, or any article or articles considered and deemed to be contraband of war, according to the law or modern usage of nations, for the use or service of either of the said contending parties, all persons so offending will incur and be liable to the several penalties and penal consequences by the said Statute, or by the law of nations, in that behalf imposed or denounced.

And We do hereby declare that all Our subjects, and persons entitled to Our protection, who may misconduct themselves in the premises, will do so at their peril, and of their own wrong, and that they will in no wise obtain any protection from Us against any liabilities or penal consequences, but will, on the contrary, incur Our high displeasure by such misconduct.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this twelfth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and in the twenty-ninth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of March, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 333rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time, to do the following things within its district (that is to say):—

To determine the qualifications to be required from persons applying to be licensed as Pilots, whether in respect of their age, skill, time of service, character, or otherwise.

To make regulations as to the approval and licensing of pilot boats and ships.

To make regulations for the government of the Pilots licensed by them, and for ensuring their good conduct and their constant attendance to and effectual performance of their duty, either at sea or on shore.

To fix the terms and conditions of granting licenses to Pilots and apprentices, and of granting such pilotage certificates thereafter mentioned to Masters and Mates, and to make regulations for punishing any breach of such regulations as aforesaid, committed by such Pilots or apprentices, or by such Masters and Mates, by the withdrawal or suspension of their licenses or certificates, as the case may be, or by the infliction of penalties, to be recoverable summarily before two Justices, so that no such penalty be made to exceed the sum of twenty pounds, and so that every such penalty be capable of reduction at the discretion of the Justices by whom the same is inflicted.

And whereas by the 15th section of the Order set out in the schedule to "The Hartlepool Pilotage Order Confirmation Act, 1864," it is provided that, subject to the approval of the Board of Trade, the Hartlepool Pilotage Commissioners may from time to time increase or diminish the pilotage dues by that section authorized to be taken:

And whereas the Hartlepool Pilotage Commissioners, being the Pilotage Authority for the port of Hartlepool within the meaning of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," have, in exercise of the powers in them vested by the aforesaid Act and the aforesaid Order, made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty, certain bye-laws with respect to the pilotage of the Hartlepool Pilotage District (a copy whereof is set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed):

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said bye-laws are proper and reasonable.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve of and signify Her consent to the said bye-laws of the said Commissioners, with respect to the pilotage of Hartlepool Pilotage District.

Arthur Helps.

Schedule referred to in the above Order.

BYE-LAWS MADE BY THE HARTLEPOOL PILOTAGE COMMISSIONERS.

1.—Every Pilot who shall be ordered to proceed on Her Majesty's service by any order signed by the Clerk of the Hartlepool Pilotage Commissioners (hereinafter called "The Commissioners"), or who shall be so ordered in writing by any officer in Her Majesty's service, shall immediately proceed thereon, and every Pilot who shall fail so to do, or who shall evade the receipt of any such order, or who shall quit or decline such service, shall for the first offence forfeit £5, and for the second and every subsequent offence £10 each.

2.—Every Pilot engaged in the charge of any ship employed by Government in the Transport service, shall observe particularly if unnecessary delay take place on the part of any Master in proceeding towards his destination; and in the event of such delay taking place, the Pilot shall, on his return, report the same to the Clerk of the Commissioners; and upon going on board, the Pilot shall give notice to the Master that he has orders so to do.

3.—In stormy weather during day time, when Pilots cannot ply at sea in their regular pilot cibles, they shall go off in a steamboat licensed for that purpose by the Pilot Master of the said Commissioners, and shall carry with them a proper boat to be provided by and at the cost of the Pilots, and approved by the Commissioners, for boarding ships or vessels at sea.

4.—When any Pilots decide to go off in the licensed steamboat, a Pilot's flag shall be hoisted on the Pilots' watch-house, and on application being made by any of the Pilots to the Master of the said steamboat to go to sea, he (the Master) shall hoist the Pilot flag at the mast head, and lay at least twenty minutes before starting for sea, except in cases of emergency.

5.—All Pilots shall have an equal right to go off in the licensed steamboat, lots shall be drawn and distributed by the Master of the steamboat to all Pilots on board, the Pilot receiving Lot 1, shall go on board and take charge of the first ship or vessel boarded, and each Pilot shall afterwards take his turn according to the number of his lot, the next four Pilots on turn shall man the boat and put the Pilot on turn on board, and the Pilots remaining on board the said steamboat (if any) when they have returned on shore shall see that the boat be put into her proper berth or some other safe place.

6.—In stormy weather during day-time when the wind ranges from east southward, and when it is not prudent or safe to go to sea with the licensed steamboat, the Pilots shall take their positions inside the Bar as ordered by the Pilot Master, and that when the wind ranges from east northward they shall take positions between the Beacon and the Stone Buoy by the like order, and the Pilot first in position shall take the first ship, and the others shall be entitled to take charge of the following vessels according to their priority in taking positions; all disputes as to position to be concluded by the Pilot Master's decision.

7.—Each pilot cible claiming a turn shall be manned with not less than four hands, not less than two of whom shall be full Pilots and the other Pilots' assistants going regularly in pilot cibles, or (but this only in cases of emergency) an efficient man or men who may not be serving in pilot cibles, the Pilot first on turn shall hoist his pilot flag and run the ship in, and if he fails to board the vessel to which he is entitled, he shall not come in turn until the rest of the cibles laying in position have each boarded one vessel, and every vessel shall count as a turn whether the master thereof elects to employ a Pilot or refuses so to do.

8.—During the winter six months in the year a night watch shall be kept at Hartlepool and West Hartlepool respectively by the Pilots, when the weather is stormy and when in consequence they cannot go off to sea; such night watch to commence on the first day of October and end on the thirty-first day of March in every year. The Pilots shall be divided into four watches, who shall take their turn in watching, according to their numbers, and continue on watch for fourteen successive nights; each watch to be allowed to board four ships each night and to take precedence over the other Pilots, the cibles manned by the watch (after they have secured four ships) shall take their regular turn with the other Pilots as though no watch had been set, each watch to commence when the lighthouse on the Port and Harbour Commissioner's Inner Pier or the green light on the West Hartlepool North Pier, is lighted and end when the said lights are extinguished. The whole of the monies received by the watch shall be equally divided amongst the members thereof, and each watch shall sound the bar once during the spring tides, and report the soundings to the Pilot Master (in order that they may be recorded), and to the other Pilots.

9.—One of the watch shall be appointed Master thereof who is hereby authorised if necessary during his watch to call on other Pilots not on the watch for assistance.

10.—When it is found necessary to man the life boat in night time, the Pilots on watch duty shall have the preference of manning her—in day time, the first twelve Pilots at the life boat station shall have the preference of manning such life boat.

11.—If any Pilot considers that he is able to hold his own at sea, either before or after the watch has been set or the positions taken inside the bar or stone buoy as aforesaid, he shall be at liberty to proceed to sea, but shall not be allowed to board a ship until he be outside the stone buoy.

12.—When any two or more Pilot cibles are making for the same ship, the Pilot nearest the ship shall hail her at a reasonable distance and lower his sail so as to give himself time to board the ship in safety, and the other Pilot or Pilots in his wake shall not interfere or cause him to run any risk when in the act of boarding such ship.

13.—No Pilot shall be allowed to be towed by a steamboat when going off to sea in quest of ships, and shall for every such offence be subject to a penalty of ten pounds.

14.—Such of the Pilots as shall be desirous of joining the Herring Fishery during the season shall be at liberty to do so on their first obtaining the consent of the Commissioners.

15.—Every Pilot when required to pilot any ship or vessel shall, if under engagement to any other ship forthwith make known such engagement and specify the particulars thereof truly and faithfully to the person calling for or requiring such Pilot's service, and in case of any concealment, misrepresentation or falsehood in respect of such alleged previous engagement, the Pilot offending shall be subject to a penalty of ten pounds.

16.—Every Pilot shall in all cases demean himself civilly and respectfully towards all persons who may require his services, and towards all officers in Her Majesty's Navy, and shall maintain strict temperance and sobriety in the exercise of his office, and shall use his utmost care and diligence for the safe conduct of every ship which he shall be entrusted with the charge of, and prevent her doing damage to others.

17.—Every Pilot shall from time to time, and at all times in obedience to the order or summons of the Commissioners, under the hand of the Pilot Master or Clerk of the Commissioners, duly delivered or offered to such Pilot, or left a reasonable time at the usual or last known place of residence of such Pilot, attend the Commissioners, at their Courts, Bye Boards, or Committees, or their Pilot Master, or their Clerk for the time being, to answer any charges brought against such Pilots respectively, or for the performance of any public service, or for any other purpose whatsoever, and in default of such attendance every Pilot so offending shall forfeit, for the first offence, 40s., and for the second and every subsequent offence, £5 each.

18.—Every Pilot to be licensed by the Commissioners, upon his receiving such license, shall pay the sum of two pounds to the said Commissioners, and shall also for the renewing or confirming such license, from time to time, pay to them the sum of one pound.

19.—In addition to the pilotage dues, payable inwards, authorised to be charged by the Commissioners under and by virtue of the Hartlepool Pilotage Order Confirmation Act, 1864, the Commissioners shall, and they are hereby authorised, to charge vessels above 400 tons register, one half-penny per ton on the excess of register tonnage over and above that number of tons.

20.—When any vessel requires to change harbours in the port, the pilotage dues payable in respect thereof, shall be as follows:—From and after the 1st day of April to the 1st day of October in every year, both inclusive, out of Hartlepool docks or harbour, at the rate of 7½d. for every foot of water which each such vessel may draw, and into West Hartlepool docks or harbour at the same rate:—From and after the 1st day of October to the 1st day of April in the following year, both inclusive, out of Hartlepool docks or harbour, at the rate of 9d. for every foot of water which each such vessel may draw, and into West Hartlepool docks or harbour at the same rate. And the above pilotage dues shall be payable by vessels changing from the docks or harbour of West Hartlepool to the docks or harbour of Hartlepool.

21.—In case any Pilot in charge, should by the law of quarantine, or at the request of the master or owner of the vessel, be detained at sea or in dock on board thereof, beyond the time necessary for safely berthing such vessel, he shall be paid by the said master or owner for such detention, over and above his pilotage, at the rate of 7s. 6d. per day, and also have his provisions supplied to him.

22.—The distinguishing characteristics of the Pilot cobsles shall be the letter "H," and numbers painted white on the bows of the said cobsles on a black ground, and that the numbers will be regulated by the dates of the original licenses, and that each Pilot coble, when at sea, shall exhibit a flag upon a staff, such flag to be of two colours, the upper horizontal half white and the lower horizontal half red.

23.—No Pilot shall add to or in any way alter his license, or make or alter any indorsement thereon, nor shall he be privy to any such license or indorsement being altered.

24.—Every Pilot, who shall observe any alteration in the Sands or Channels, or that any of the buoys or beacons placed within the jurisdiction of the Commissioners, are driven away, broken down; or out of place, shall forthwith deliver or send a correct statement thereof in writing to the Clerk of the Commissioners for the time being.

25.—When a vessel touches the ground the Pilot in charge shall immediately report the occurrence in writing to the Clerk of the Commissioners or Pilot Master, and such report shall specify the place and time of its occurrence, the state of the weather, the direction of the wind, the time of tide, and such other particulars as may be likely to prove useful.

26.—When anchors or cables are lost from any vessel, the Pilot in charge shall immediately report the occurrence in writing to the Clerk of the Commissioners or Pilot Master, such report to specify the place and time of its occurrence, the state of the weather, the direction of the wind, time of tide, quantity of cable riding by, and whether the cable was slipped or parted with, and the quantity lost.

27.—Every Pilot shall, whenever he comes to an anchor, carefully observe the settings of the tide and the force of the stream, and if it shall happen that he comes near to a sand, or other object or cause of danger, and there be any other ship or ships in company likely to fall in therewith, such Pilot shall immediately give notice thereof to the captain or principal officer of the ship under his care, that he may make a signal to such other ship or ships to avoid the same:

28.—Every Pilot shall from time to time conform himself strictly to all directions which shall be given to him by the respective Harbour Masters of Hartlepool and West Hartlepool, touching the mooring, unmooring, placing, or removing of any ship or vessel under his charge as long as such ship or vessel shall be lying and situate within the limits of the authority of such Harbour Masters respectively, and every Pilot found guilty of a breach of this bye-law shall for every such offence be subject to a penalty of not exceeding ten pounds.

29.—No person will be licensed to act as a Pilot under the age of 21 years and who cannot read and write, nor until he shall have served a six years apprenticeship in pilot cobsles, and after the expiration of the said apprenticeship performed twelve coasting voyages to (the Pool) London in a square rigged vessel of not less than 154 tons, or a similar number of voyages in a like vessel to any other port not less distant than Hartlepool is from London.

30.—If after the expiration of his said apprenticeship and performance as a seaman, the applicant should on examination by the Commissioners be approved the latter will grant him an acting order for three years to pilot vessels not exceeding 160 tons register into and out of the harbours in the Port of Hartlepool, and any Pilot possessing only an acting order shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, if he take charge as Pilot of any vessel whose tonnage shall exceed 160 tons.

31.—If at the expiration of the said three years and on further examination by the Commissioners, the applicant shall be deemed competent a full Pilot's license will be granted to him by the Commissioners.

32.—Each Pilot shall at the expiration of every month deliver to the Clerk of the Commissioners, a correct account on one of the forms provided for that purpose, of all vessels piloted by him in the said month, and pay the amount due for poundage thereon, to be applied to the purposes of the Pilot Fund, to be established by the Commissioners, under sec. 333 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.

33.—In order to ensure a correct return of their earnings, the Pilots are required to render at the end of each year an abstract account, on one of the forms also provided for that purpose, of their total earnings in each month, and to declare solemnly before a Magistrate to the truth of the returns they have so made, if required so to do by the Commissioners.

34.—In all cases where pecuniary penalties and forfeitures are annexed to the breach of the foregoing bye laws, rules, orders, regulations, and ordinances, the Commissioners may mitigate and reduce the same to one-fourth part at their discretion, and appropriate the same to such purposes as to them may seem best.

35.—Every Pilot who shall offend against any of the foregoing bye laws, rules, orders, regulations, and ordinances, shall for every such offence (whether the same shall subject him to any pecuniary penalty or not, and in addition to such penalty if any) be liable to have his license annulled, and forfeited or suspended at the discretion of the Commissioners.

36.—If any dispute shall arise between any of the Pilots in carrying out the above rules and regulations, the same shall be referred in the first instance to the Pilot Master, who is hereby fully empowered to decide the same: nevertheless, if any Pilot feels himself aggrieved by such decision he is hereby authorised to appeal to the Commissioners through their Clerk.

37.—Besides conforming themselves diligently to the said bye laws, rules, orders, regulations, and ordinances, the Pilots licensed by the Commissioners are required to observe and obey the enactments and provisions relating to such Pilots contained in Part 5 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854 (a copy of which part of such Act has been delivered to each of the said Pilots), and also the provisions of any General Act of Parliament now in force or hereafter to be passed relating to pilotage or pilotage dues.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen, situate at Copley, in the parochial chapelry of Elland, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

“Whereas, at certain extremities of the said parochial chapelry of Elland, of the parochial chapelry of Sowerby Bridge, in the said parish of Halifax, and of the new parish of Salterhebble, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parochial chapelries and new parish respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parochial chapelry of Elland, of the said parochial chapelry of Sowerby Bridge, and of the said new parish of Salterhebble, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry, for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate at Copley aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, as such bishop, and also as the alternate patron, in right of his see, of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Salterhebble, of the Right Honorable John, Earl Russell, the First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of your Majesty as the other alternate patron in right of the crown of the same perpetual curacy, and of the Venerable Charles Musgrave, Archdeacon of Craven, and vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Halifax, and, as such vicar or incumbent, the patron both of the perpetual curacy of the said parochial chapelry of Elland, and also of the perpetual curacy of the parochial chapelry of Sowerby-bridge aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parochial chapelry of Elland; of the said parochial chapelry of Sowerby-bridge, and of the said new parish of Salterhebble, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Stephen, situate at Copley aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Copley,’ and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to; and be exercised by, the said Charles Musgrave, as vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Halifax, and by his successors in the said vicarage for ever.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Copley, being:—

“All those contiguous portions of the parochial chapelry of Elland, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, of the parochial chapelry of Sowerby-bridge, in the same parish, and of the new parish of Salterhebble, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which are comprised within, and are bounded by, an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Salterhebble from the parochial chapelry of Elland aforesaid, at a point in the centre of the bridge called ‘Calder-bridge,’ which carries the Salterhebble, Stainland, and Sowerby-bridge Trust-road over the River Calder; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road, as far as the boundary in the middle of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, which divides the last-named parochial chapelry from the new parish of Saint Thomas, Greetland, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward along the last-described boundary to its junction in Mapledean Clough, with the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Greetland, from the parochial chapelry of Sowerby-bridge aforesaid; and extending thence south-westward along the last-described boundary, as far as the centre of Clough Moor-bridge, opposite to the middle of the southern end of Stormer-hill-lane; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the last-named lane; as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Dyc House-lane; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with Pickwood-lane; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named lane, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of a certain cross road connecting Pickwood-lane with Moor End-lane; and continuing thence, still northward, to and along the middle of the said cross road to its junction with Moor End-lane aforesaid; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with Hollas-lane; and continuing thence, still north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named lane (passing under the line of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway aforesaid), to the point in the centre of the bridge over the River Calder aforesaid, called 'Sterne Bridge,' where the boundary of the said parochial chapelry of Sowerby Bridge meets the boundary which divides the said new parish of Salterhebble from the new parish of King Cross, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence in a direction mainly north-eastward along the last-described boundary (crossing the Salterhebble, Stainland, and Sowerby Trust-road aforesaid), as far as a point in the middle of the footpath leading from Scar Bottom through Long Wood towards Skircoat Green; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said footpath (passing the Copley Arms Public House), to the junction of such footpath with the lane leading from Copley Hall, and called 'Hall-lane;' and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of ninety yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of another lane leading through Bankhouse Wood to the Salterhebble, Stainland, and Sowerby Bridge Trust-road aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-described lane (passing under the line of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway aforesaid); to the junction of such lane with the said Trust-road; and extending thence, first eastward and then south-eastward, along the middle of the same Trust-road as far as the point in the centre of Calder Bridge aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of a certain benefice belonging to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Lincoln, for the patronage of a certain benefice belonging to Edward Heneage, of Hainton Hall, in the county of Lincoln, Esquire.

"Whereas the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Lincoln aforesaid, are seized in fee to themselves and their successors of the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the vicarage of the parish of Hainton, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"And whereas the said Edward Heneage is seized to him and his heirs for an estate of inheritance in fee simple of the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the rectory of the parish of East Barkwith, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Lincoln, and the said Edward Heneage, have signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said benefices may be exchanged as hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances of the proposed exchange, and the relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to your Majesty, that after making all proper deductions and allowances the values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Lincoln aforesaid, as the patrons of the vicarage of the parish of Hainton aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their common or capitular seal), and with the consent of the said Edward Heneage, as the patron of the rectory of the parish of East Barkwith aforesaid (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the vicarage of the parish of Hainton aforesaid, shall be transferred from the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Lincoln aforesaid, and from their successors, and shall become and be vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Heneage, his heirs and assigns, for ever; and that in exchange for the same, the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the rectory of the parish of East Barkwith aforesaid, shall upon and from the said lastly-mentioned day be assigned and transferred from the said Edward Heneage, and from his heirs, and shall in like manner become and be vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Lincoln aforesaid, and by their successors, for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“SCHEDULE.

| Name and Quality of Benefice. | County. | Diocese. | Population according to Census of 1861. | Net Income. | Residence. |

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate in such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Blackburn.’

“And, with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

“We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Blackburn, being:—

“All that part of the parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north, partly by the Trinity Chapelry District, Blackburn; sometime part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn, and partly by the chapelry district of Saint Michael and All Angels, Blackburn, also sometime part of the parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn aforesaid; on the east, by the parochial chapelry of Great Harwood, in the county and diocese aforesaid; on the south, partly by the particular district of Oswaldtwistle, in the same county and diocese, and partly by the chapelry district of Saint James, Lower Darwen, sometime part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn; and on the west, partly by the new parish of Christ Church, Blackburn, also sometime part of the parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn aforesaid, and in other part by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn, from the new parish of Christ Church, Blackburn aforesaid, at a point near Smalding Cottage, in the centre of the bridge which spans the Leeds and Liverpool Canal at the eastern end of Lower Audley-street; and extending thence, first north-westward and then north-eastward, along the middle of the said canal, as far as a point distant four chains or thereabouts to the north of the centre of the bridge which carries over such canal the footpath leading from Blackburn to Audley Higher Barn; and extending thence north-westward across the said canal to the boundary on the western bank thereof, which divides the said parish of Saint Mary, Blackburn, from the Trinity Chapelry District, Blackburn aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of March, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty, King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty, King George, the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Allithwaite, in the parish of Cartmel, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Allithwaite aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honorable and Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Cartmel which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Allithwaite, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Allithwaite.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Robert Curteis Hubbersty, the present Incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Cartmel, shall remain such Incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the said performance of offices in the church aforesaid shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said Robert Curteis Hubbersty.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Allithwaite, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Cartmel, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Carlisle, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the shore of Morecambe Bay, at a point on the eastern side of the line of the Ulverston and Lancaster Railway, near to Low House, and opposite to the middle of the south-eastern extremity of Cartlane; and extending thence north-westward across such line of railway, and to and along the middle of Cart-lane aforesaid, as far as the junction of such lane with Wart Barrow-lane; and extending thence first south-westward, then westward, and then southward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with the road leading from Allithwaite to Cartmel; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such road to its junction with Templand-road; and extending thence generally southward along the middle of Templand-road aforesaid, for a distance of twenty-seven chains, or thereabouts, to its junction with a certain footpath leading to the house and premises called Birkby Hall; and extending thence first westward and then generally north-westward along the middle of such footpath to the wall or fence which forms the northern boundary of the said house and premises; and extending thence westward along the said wall or fence to the eastern end of the road which leads from Birkby Hall aforesaid to Green-lane; and extending thence first southward to the middle of such road, and then westward along the middle of the same road to its junction with Green-lane aforesaid; and continuing thence in the same direction across the last-named lane to a point in the middle of the eastern end of the footpath leading to Low Bank side; and extending thence alternately westward and northward along the middle of the last-described footpath (crossing the road which leads from Cark to Cartmel) as far as the boundary which divides the township of Lower Holker, in the said parish of Cartmel, from the township of Lower Allithwaite, in the same parish, in the centre of the bridge which carries the said footpath over the stream called Cark Beck or River Eea; and extending thence, first south-westward along the said township boundary (following thereby the middle of the said stream), and then generally south-eastward along the same township boundary (crossing the line of the Ulverston and Lancaster Railway aforesaid) to the junction of the said boundary with the boundary dividing the said township of Lower Holker from a detached portion of the township of East Broughton, in the parish of Cartmel aforesaid; and extending thence, first southward and then eastward along the last-described boundary to its re-union with the boundary dividing the township of Lower Holker from the township of Lower Allithwaite as aforesaid; and continuing thence generally south-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary (following in part the course of Moor-lane) to the old embankment which divides the township of Lower Allithwaite as aforesaid, from the marsh lands; and extending thence generally south-eastward along the said old embankment to its junction with the new embankment on the shore of Morecambe Bay aforesaid; and extending thence first in a direct line southward to the ordinary high water mark, and then in a direction first generally eastward along the said ordinary high water mark as far as Humphrey Head Point, and then generally northward along the same ordinary high water mark as far as the point on the eastern side of the line of the Ulverston and Lancaster Railway aforesaid, near Low House, and opposite to the middle of the south-eastern extremity of Cart-lane as aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of March, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at Waterfoot, in the parish of Bury, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Bury, of the parish of Rochdale, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the parochial chapelry of Newchurch-in-Rossendale, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes and parochial chapelries respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Bury, of the said parish of Rochdale, and of the said parochial chapelry of Newchurch-in-Rossendale, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate at Waterfoot aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the said parish of Rochdale, of the Right Honorable Edward Geoffrey, Earl of Derby, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Bury, and of the Reverend Robert Nowell Whitaker, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Whalley, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and as such vicar the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said parochial chapelry of Newchurch-in-Rossendale (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Bury, of the said parish of Rochdale, and of the said parochial chapelry of Newchurch-in-Rossendale, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said Church of Saint James, situate at Waterfoot aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint James, Waterfoot,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to, and be exercised jointly by, George Hargreaves, of Newchurch-in-Rossendale aforesaid, Esquire, by Robert Munn the younger, of Thistle Mount, Newchurch-in-Rossendale aforesaid, Esquire, and by Edward Ashworth, of Cowpe, in the said county of Lancaster, Esquire, and their successors, being the trustees in whom the same is now and hereafter to be vested, under and according to the provisions of a certain deed or articles of agreement, bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, made pursuant to the before-mentioned Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and deposited in the registry of the diocese of Manchester, subject always to the proviso or condition contained in the same deed or articles of agreement relative to the exercise, in a certain event, of the patronage of the said church by the rector for the time being of the said parish of Bury.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint James, Waterfoot, being:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the parish of Bury, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, of the parish of Rochdale, in the same county and diocese, and of the parochial chapelry of Newchurch-in-Rossendale, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within, and are bounded by, an imaginary line commencing at the point on the southern bank of the River Irwell, near Myrtle-grove, where the southern boundary of the said parochial chapelry meets the boundary dividing the said parish of Bury from the particular district of Saint Mary Rawtenstall, sometime part of the same parish; and extending thence, south-westward, along the last-described boundary to its junction, near Whitaker Pasture, with the boundary which divides the said parish of Bury from the new parish of Edenfield, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the last-described boundary to its junction, near Hail Storm-hill, with the boundary dividing the said parish of Rochdale from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Norden, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, first north-eastward and then south-eastward, along the last described boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Rochdale from the particular district of Trinity Church, Tunstead, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, north-westward, along the last-described boundary to its junction, on the northern bank of the River Irwell aforesaid, with the boundary dividing the said particular district from the parochial chapelry of Newchurch-in-Rossendale aforesaid; and extending thence, first northward, then eastward, and finally north-westward, along the last-described boundary, as far as a point in the middle of Booth Fold-road; and continuing thence, still north-westward, along the middle of the said road, as far as the centre of Booth Fold Bridge, which carries such road over Whitewell Brook; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the said brook to its junction with the River Irwell aforesaid; and extending thence, westward, across the said river, to a point on the southern bank of the same river on the boundary which divides the said parish of Bury from the parochial chapelry of Newchurch-in-Rossendale aforesaid; and extending thence, in a direction mainly north-westward, along the last-described boundary, as far as the point whence it diverges westward from the said river bank; and continuing thence, first north-westward and then south-westward along the southern bank of the said river to the point where it again meets the last-described boundary; and extending thence, first westward, and then north-westward, along the same boundary, still following the southern bank of the same river, to the point near Myrtle-grove, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of March, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth years of your Majesty, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting the transfer to us and our successors of part of the lands and hereditaments now forming the endowment of the principal and commonalty of vicars of the cathedral church of the Holy Trinity, at Chichester, and for substituting in lieu thereof an annual money payment.

"Whereas it is by the same Act enacted that it shall be lawful, under the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, with the consent, in writing, under the common or corporate seal of any vicars-choral, priest-vicars, senior vicars, custos, and vicars-warden, and vicars or minor canons, who may constitute a corporation aggregate in any cathedral church in England, and of their visitor, for the said vicars-choral, priest-vicars, senior vicars, custos, and vicars-warden, and vicars or minor canons, to transfer to and vest in us, for the purposes of the Acts relating to us, and subject to the provisions thereof and to the conditions which may be specified in any such scheme and Order, all the lands and hereditaments belonging to such corporation, for and in consideration of any annual or other money payment to be made by us to such corporation.

"And whereas the principal and commonalty of vicars of the cathedral church of the Holy Trinity, at Chichester, hereinafter called the said vicars, constitute a corporation aggregate within the meaning of the said hereinbefore-recited Act, of which corporation the Bishop of Chichester for the time being is visitor.

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the said vicars, subject to the approval of this scheme by your Majesty in Council, that they should transfer to us, in consideration of the money payment hereinafter specified, all the lands and hereditaments now belonging to them, with the exception of their residence houses and of certain other houses and premises the ownership of which, by reason of the proximity of the same to the said residence houses, it is expedient for the said vicars to retain, and also exclusive of certain annual payments now made to them by the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church.

"And whereas, with the view of better securing the object contemplated by the exception hereinbefore mentioned, it is expedient that the said vicars and their successors should be restrained from granting beneficial leases, either by way of renewal or otherwise, of any part of the houses and premises so to be excepted, and the said vicars have accordingly agreed to procure the passing of a statute in the accustomed form by their visitor so restraining them and their successors as aforesaid.

"And whereas, in pursuance of the agreement last mentioned, a statute, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of December now last past, has been duly made and passed by the Right Reverend Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, as such visitor as aforesaid, by which statute it is enacted and ordained, with the consent of the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church, and of the said vicars, testified by the affixing to the said statute of the respective seals of the corporations so consenting, that when and as any lease affecting the said houses and premises so agreed to be excepted, or any part thereof, shall, by effluxion of time, become renewable, the same shall not be renewed, but such houses and premises shall, on the expiration of the term, fall into absolute possession of the said vicars, who shall be entitled from thenceforth to the rents and profits thereof; and no new lease shall be granted thereof by way of renewal upon a fine, but in such statute it is provided that the same is not to affect the granting of leases upon rack-rents of the said houses and premises, when fallen into possession, as the said vicars shall then be empowered by law to grant.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said vicars, and of the said Right Reverend Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, as such visitor as aforesaid, testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals, we humbly recommend and propose, that immediately upon the gazetting of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, all lands, houses, and other hereditaments and emoluments now belonging to the said vicars, or to or in which they have, or ought to have, any estate, right, title, or interest, excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage, and excepting also the houses and premises specified in the schedule to this scheme, and excepting also certain annual payments now made to the said vicars by the dean and chapter of Chichester, shall, together with all such estate, right, title, and interest therein (except as aforesaid), be, and be held to be for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred by and from the said vicars to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us and our successors, for the purposes of the Acts relating to us, subject nevertheless to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof, and that we shall upon such gazetting as aforesaid, be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, as from the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four; and that in consideration of and for such transfer, there shall be paid by us to the said vicars and their successors, the sum of three hundred pounds per annum, by equal half-yearly payments, on the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, and that immediately upon such gazetting as aforesaid, payment shall be made by us to the said vicars of the amount, which by virtue of the provisions hereinbefore contained, will then be due, in respect of the period which elapsed between the said twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and the twenty-ninth day of September now last past: Provided always, that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease, of the said lands, houses, and hereditaments, or of any part thereof, was or shall since the said twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, have been or shall be granted or made by the said vicars.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

SCHEDULE.

"All that messuage or building, with its appurtenances, in the church-yard of the cathedral Church of Chichester, known and occupied as the Girls' National School.

"All those twelve several houses or tenements, with their appurtenances, situate on the west side of South-street, in the city of Chichester, and extending from the gateway leading into Canon-lane to the passage at the south-east corner of the said church-yard, including the house known as the Gate-house, adjoining the aforesaid Girls' National School.

"All those four several houses, with their appurtenances, situate in the 'Vicar's Close,' and known and occupied as the residences of the said vicars.

"All that the house and garden, situate on the north side of Canon-lane, and adjacent to the southernmost of the four houses last hereinbefore mentioned, now in the occupation of — Blackman."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

At the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of March, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Tupsley, in the parish of Hampton Bishop, in the county of Hereford, and in the diocese of Hereford.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Tupsley aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Renn Dickson, Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient, that all that part of the said parish of Hampton Bishop, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Tupsley, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Tupsley.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Renn Dickson, Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Tupsley, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Hampton Bishop, in the county of Hereford, and in the diocese of Hereford, which is situate generally to the west and north-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish from the parish of Dinedor, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the River Wye, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'T. St. P. D. C., 1866, No. 1,' and placed on the northern bank of the said river, at the south-western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 309 upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Hampton Bishop, and upon the map hereunto annexed from the close numbered 308 upon the same maps; and extending thence, northward, to the said boundary stone; and continuing thence, still northward, to and along the middle of the said fence, and along the middle of the fence dividing the close numbered 310 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 307 and 306 upon the same maps, to the north-eastern extremity of the last-described fence upon the southern side of the road leading from Eign to Mordiford; and continuing thence, still northward, to a point in the middle of the said road; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the same road for a distance of ten chains and seventy links, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of a certain occupation road leading to the close numbered 345 upon the said maps; and extending thence, northward, to and along the middle of the said occupation road, as far as the gate at the entrance of such close; and extending thence, first westward to, and then northward along, the middle of the fence which divides the same close from the closes numbered respectively 342 and 344 upon the said maps; and continuing generally in the last-mentioned direction along the middle of the fences dividing the closes, numbered respectively 345 as aforesaid, 346, 348, 362, 363, and 364 upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 226, 225, 223, and from the road numbered 219 upon the same maps, to the northern extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 364 from the road numbered 219 as aforesaid, upon the bank of a certain stream which forms the southern and western boundary of Lug Meadow; and extending thence, first northward, to the middle of the said stream, and then westward, and finally north-westward, along the middle of the same stream, to its junction with a certain other stream numbered 220a upon the said maps; and extending thence in a direct line northward, across the last-described stream, and across the road leading from Tupsley to Lugwardine, to a boundary-stone inscribed 'T. St. P. D. C., 1866, No. 2,' and placed on the northern side of the last-described road, at a point opposite to the south-western corner of the close numbered 411 upon the said maps; and continuing thence, in the same direction, to the boundary in the middle of the stream on the northern side of such road which divides the said parish of Hampton Bishop from the parish of Lugwardine, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Hereford.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of March, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Mansergh, in the parish of Kirkby Lonsdale, in the county of Westmorland, and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Mansergh aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Kirkby Lonsdale which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Mansergh, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Mansergh.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Henry Ware, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Kirkby Lonsdale, shall remain such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the performance of the said offices at such church, shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said Henry Ware.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Peter, Mansergh, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Kirkby Lonsdale, in the county of Westmoreland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, which is comprised within, and is co-extensive with, the limits of the township and chapelry of Mansergh."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of March, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation; has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health,

No. 23082.

no new burial ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications; viz.:

RHUDDLAN.—In the old part of the churchyard on the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be enclosed in stone, or brickwork properly cemented, or in concrete; and, in the meantime, no earthen grave to be opened that has been buried in during the preceding fourteen years, and every coffin to be enclosed as above directed; also, burials to be limited to the dead of the ecclesiastical district of Rhuddlan alone.

WOODFORD, ESSEX.—Forthwith wholly in the Parish Church and in the churchyard, except in existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal and separately entombed, that is, enclosed by stone or brickwork properly cemented, and except in earthen graves which can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposure of coffins or disturbance of remains.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-third day of April next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said twenty-third day of April.

Arthur Helps.

THE following Notices have been received by the Clerk of the Council from the Local Authorities appointed under the Orders of the Lords of the Council relating to the "Cattle Plague," and are published in the London Gazette in conformity with the requirements of their Lordships' Orders:—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

NOTICE.

THE Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Culross, the Local Authority appointed by "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," at a meeting held on the 1st day of March current, by virtue of the said Act, and of the Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated 23rd February last, and of the several Orders in Council therein mentioned, declared, and hereby declare, it is expedient, with a view to prevent the spreading of the cattle disease, that, from the 3rd day of March current to the 15th day of April next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, swine, hay, straw, litter, or turnips, shall be brought or sent from any county or place in Great Britain, into any place within the said burgh, unless and until the party desirous of bringing within the said burgh, any one of the animals or others above specified, has obtained a license to do so, signed by two of the members of the said Local Authority, and which can only be granted after the party applying for it has made a solemn declaration before one of the Magistrates of the said burgh, that there has been no animal labouring under the cattle disease on the lands or premises from which such animals or others fore-said are to be removed.

And notice is hereby given, that any person contravening this declaration and notice, shall for each offence forfeit any sum not exceeding £20 sterling.

By order,

A. C. Stephen, Town Clerk.

Culross, 1st March, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Derbyshire to wit.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the county of Derby, holden at Derby, on Tuesday, the 2nd day of January, 1866, and thence continued by several adjournments to Tuesday, the 6th day of March, before William Mundy, Esq. (Chairman), Robert William Mills Nesfield, Esq. (Deputy-Chairman), and others, Justices, &c., appointed to preserve the Peace in the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies and trespasses in the said county committed.

1. It is ordered that the orders made by this Court, on the 27th of February last, be, and the same are, hereby revoked.

2. That all the Justices of each Petty Sessional Division in the county of Derby, with the additions hereinafter mentioned to the Committees of the Petty Sessional Divisions of Smalley and Sudbury, be, and they are, appointed Committees for carrying into effect "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," in the same Petty Sessional Divisions.

That Mr. Hancock, of Dale Abbey, Mr. John Stevens, of Dale Abbey, Mr. G. B. Gregory, of Heanor, Mr. F. T. Howitt, of Heanor, Mr. T. Richardson, of Horsley, Mr. John Holbrook, of Horsley, Mr. E. Canner, of Stanley, and Mr. J. Milnes, of West Hallam, be Members of the Committee of the Smalley Petty Sessional Division.

That F. Bradshaw, Esq., of Barton, W. F. Taylor, Esq., of Doveridge, R. Bott, Esq., of Church Broughton, Mr. Smith, of Sedsall, Mr. Hardy, of Somershall, Mr. Salt, of Doveridge, Mr. Yates, of Cubley, Mr. Eaton, of Sutton, Mr. Stretton, of Hatton Fields, and Mr. Potter, of Barton, be Members of the Committee of the Sudbury Petty Sessional Division.

3. That Mr. W. G. Fox, the Chief Constable, be the Chief Inspector for the county.

4. That whenever more than one of the cattle in the same homestead or farm has been affected with the cattle plague, and has died or been slaughtered, the Chief Inspector, and those acting under him, shall, with the consent of the owner, cause to be slaughtered any cattle that have been in the same shed or stable, or in contact with any cattle affected with cattle plague, but to prevent mistake, no apparently healthy animal shall be slaughtered until it has appeared, by a post-mortem examination made by a Veterinary Inspector, that one of the dead animals was affected by the cattle plague.

5. That the Chief Constable be authorized to obtain from the Veterinary College, or other proper sources, the necessary disinfecting materials.

6. That any hides, horns, or hoofs, if they are effectually covered, or if they have been limed for any manufacturing purpose, may, with the license of a Justice of the Peace, be removed from any place out of the jurisdiction of the Justices of the said county to any place within such jurisdiction.

7. That the rules and instructions for the guidance of the Committees, the Veterinary Inspectors, and the Police, as now altered, be adopted.

8. That a special county rate of 1d. in the pound be raised for the purposes of "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866."

9. That these sessions be adjourned to Tuesday, the 13th day of March instant, to be then held at the County-hall, in Derby, at 12 o'clock.

John Barber, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Berkshire.—Adjourned Quarter Sessions.

27th February, 1866.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at Reading, in and for the county of Berks, on Monday, in the first week next after the 28th day of December, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, before Richard Benyon, Esq., M.P., Chairman, George Charles Cherry, Esq., Vice-Chairman, and others their fellows, Justices of our said Sovereign Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace within the county aforesaid, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanours within the said county done and committed; and afterwards holden by several adjournments at the Assize Court in Reading aforesaid, on Friday, the 2nd day of February, on Thursday, the 22nd day of February, and on Tuesday, the 27th day of February, 1866, before the said Richard Benyon, Esq., Chairman, the said George Charles Cherry, Esq., Vice-Chairman, and others their fellows, Justices as aforesaid.

Whereas at the said Original Quarter Sessions, the Court, under and by virtue of the powers vested in them as the local authority in the county of Berks, by Orders made by the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865, or one of them, did make and publish certain resolutions with a view to the prevention of the "Cattle Plague," which ceased to be in force on the 8th of February instant; and whereas at the said Adjourned Sessions held on the 2nd day of February as aforesaid, the said Justices then assembled did, by virtue of the before-mentioned Orders of Council, and of a further Order of the said Council, dated the 20th day of January, 1866, or some or one of such Orders, resolve and declare, in the words following, that is to say:

"With a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder generally designated as the 'Cattle Plague,' it is expedient—

"I. That from the 8th day of February instant until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall be moved to any market or fair, or to any parish or place whatsoever within the jurisdiction of the said Justices, for the purpose of exhibition or sale."

"II. That for the same period no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall be brought from any part of Great Britain beyond the jurisdiction of the said Justices to any place within their jurisdiction."

" III. That for the same period no sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall be removed from either of the parishes of North Hincsey, South Hincsey, Witham, Winkfield, Tilehurst, Clewer, or Bray, being parishes within the said jurisdiction, or from any other parish within such jurisdiction where the cattle plague may prevail, to any place within the jurisdiction of the said Justices; and that for the same period no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be removed from any parish or farm within the jurisdiction of the said Justices, to any other parish or farm within such jurisdiction, and that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall pass over, along, or across any highway or public road from place to place within the jurisdiction of the said Justices, except that every person shall be at liberty to move any cow or heifer requiring to be sent to a bull for the sole purpose of being served (either with or without another cow or heifer as a companion), or to move any bull for the sole purpose of serving any cow or heifer, under license of a Justice of the Peace for the said county, obtained on personal application of the owner, or his bailiff, and upon certificate signed by an Inspector, or two occupiers of farms in the same parish, that there is no case of cattle plague on the farm of the owner of the animal to be moved, or on the farm to which it is proposed to be taken, or within two miles distance of such farms respectively, or of the declared route of the said animal, and that no such case has existed during the preceding six weeks; the license and certificate to be placed in the hands of the driver of such animal, and to be in force for three days, and to be delivered to the Police Constable of the district on ceasing to be in force; provided always that nothing contained in this resolution shall make it unlawful for any person to remove his own cattle from one part of his occupation where the cattle plague does not exist, nor has existed for the preceding period of six weeks, to another part of the same occupation, unless such cattle shall, in the course of such removal, pass more than two hundred yards upon a highway, or upon a road through a different occupation."

" IV. That for the same period, no raw or untanned hides and skins, nor any horns or hoofs of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf (except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America), nor any offal of any such animal as aforesaid, nor any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, shall be brought from any part of Great Britain beyond the jurisdiction of the said Justices into any place within their jurisdiction."

" V. Nothing in these resolutions contained shall affect any proceeding taken, or to be taken, for any infringement of the law put in force by the resolutions of this Court made on the 5th of January last."

And, whereas, by another Order made at the Council Chamber, Whitehall, on the 23rd day of February instant, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council did, in exercise of the powers vested in them, order (amongst other things) that, where any local authority has published notices or made orders within its district, all such notices or orders which might be in force when the said Council Order came into operation, should thereby be continued, until the same shall be altered or revoked by any further Order, or by any local authority, subject to the provisions contained in the Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866, or in any Act which may be thereafter passed.

And whereas it is deemed expedient to vary and alter the 3rd Order made at the Adjourned

Sessions as aforesaid, on the 2nd day of February instant, in manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now, therefore, the said Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled, by adjournment as aforesaid, at Reading, in the county of Berks, on the 27th day of February, 1866, have resolved and determined to withdraw, and do by this Order withdraw, the several parishes of Winkfield, Tilehurst, and Bray, from the 3rd Order made as aforesaid, at the adjourned Sessions on the 2nd day of February instant, so far as regards the prohibition therein contained, to remove sheep, lambs, goats, or swine.

And the said Justices have also resolved and determined that it shall not be lawful for any person to exercise the power reserved in the said 3rd Order to remove his own cattle from one part of his own occupation to another part of his own occupation, if there has been any case of cattle plague within two miles of such occupation for the period of six weeks.

And the said Justices so assembled as aforesaid, do declare that, in all other respects, the said Orders so made on the said 2nd day of February instant, shall continue, pursuant to the said last-mentioned Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, until the same shall be altered or revoked by any further Order of the said Council or of this Court, as the local authority, subject to the provisions contained in "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," and in any Act which may hereafter be passed.

Any person offending against the said Orders, will for every offence forfeit such sum, not exceeding £20, as the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted may think fit to impose.

By the Court,

Geo. B. Morland, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE:

NOTICE.—3rd March, 1866.

Dorsetshire.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, held at Dorchester, in and for the county of Dorset, on Tuesday, the 2nd day of January, in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, and in the year of our Lord, 1866, and duly continued by subsequent adjournments to Saturday, the 24th day of February, in the year aforesaid, and then further continued by adjournment to Saturday, the 3rd day of March, in the same year, at the Town-hall, in Blandford Forum, in the said county, and then and there holden before the Right Honourable Edward Berkeley Lord Portman (Chairman), James John Farquharson, Esquire, William Charles Lambert, Esquire, and others, Justices of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen, in and for the county aforesaid; and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanours done or perpetrated in the same county:—

By virtue and in pursuance of the three several Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, the 16th day of December, 1865, and the 23rd day of February, 1866, made and issued in pursuance and under the authority of the Act 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 107, intituled "An Act to prevent, until the 1st day of September, 1850, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," which Act has been continued by subsequent Acts, and lastly by the "Expiring Laws Continuance Act, 1865," and also by virtue of "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866:"—

The Justices of the Peace for this county, now assembled, on the said 3rd day of March, as the local authority of this county, as defined by the said last-mentioned Act, with a view of checking the spreading of the disorder designated the "Cattle Plague," have resolved, ordered, and declared, and do hereby resolve, order, and declare, by this their notice, to be published on the 8th day of March instant in the two county newspapers, called the Dorset County Chronicle and Somersetshire Gazette, and the Sherborne, Dorchester, and Taunton Journal; and also by the same notice to be published in the Western Times, the Western Flying Post, the Salisbury and Winchester Journal, and the Poole and South-Western Herald, being newspapers circulating within the counties of Devon, Somerset, Wilts, and Hants, and the town and county of the town of Poole, as the counties bordering upon this, the said county of Dorset, as follows; that is to say:—

1. That all orders, appointments, notices, declarations, and other acts done, either by this Court as the local authority of this county, or by any local authority other than this Court, and now within its jurisdiction, shall be, and the same are hereby revoked, as and from the said 8th day of March instant.

Provided that this revocation shall not in anywise affect any proceedings which may have been taken in respect of offences committed against any order, notice, or declaration of any local authority, hereby revoked during the time such order, notice, or declaration remained in force.

2. That the Chief Constable of this county be, and he is hereby appointed Inspector-General for the purpose of carrying into effect within the jurisdiction of the local authority of this county, as defined by "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," as well the provisions therein contained as the rules and regulations made and contained in the said several Orders in Council, and the orders, notices, provisions and declarations of this Court founded thereon.

And that the said Inspector-General be empowered by this Court to engage the services of one or more veterinary surgeon or surgeons, or other duly qualified person or persons, to assist him in the premises when in his opinion the same shall be absolutely necessary, but not otherwise.

3. That the several police superintendents and sergeants for the time being, appointed to act within the several magisterial divisions of this county, be and they are hereby appointed Cattle Inspectors, under the guidance and superintendence of the said Inspector-General, for carrying into effect within their several divisions (such divisions being the districts for which they are severally hereby appointed, and which include the several boroughs within the county), the said last-mentioned Act and the said Orders in Council, as also the orders of this Court, and all other matters and things under the "Cattle Plague" regulations.

Provided always, that on the recommendation of the said Inspector-General, any Cattle Inspector being appointed for a particular district shall have authority to act in the absence or illness of an adjacent Inspector.

And that the several Inspectors do make such reports and returns to the said Inspector-General and others as he may from time to time require, or such as may be called for by any competent authority.

4. That with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, it is expedient that from and after the said 8th day of March, it shall not be lawful for any person to remove, bring or send, by railway or otherwise, any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat or swine, or any raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs of any such animals, except such hides, skins, horns or hoofs as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America, or the offal of any such animals as aforesaid, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, from any part of Great Britain beyond the jurisdiction of the local authority of this county into any place within such jurisdiction.

Provided that it shall not be unlawful for any person to remove any such animals as aforesaid now the property of an owner within this jurisdiction, from a place without to a place within this jurisdiction, the owner of such animals first obtaining a certificate signed by the occupier of the lands on which they have been kept, to the effect that the aforesaid animals are not infected with disease, and have been under his care for twenty-eight days, and that there has been no cattle disease in the same parish during that period, and such certificate shall be also signed by the Inspector of the district from which it is proposed to remove such animals, and by two Justices of the Peace of this county, on their being satisfied of the reason for such removal.

5. That from and after the said 8th day of March, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine shall be removed, brought, or sent by railway or otherwise, from any parish or place within the jurisdiction of the local authority of this county to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within such jurisdiction for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

Provided that no person shall be prohibited from exhibiting or selling on his own land or premises any animal belonging to him which has been on such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previous to such sale.

6. That from and after the said 8th day of March, it shall not be lawful for any person to remove, bring, or send, by railway or otherwise, any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, or any raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs of any such animals, except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America, or the offal of any such animals as last aforesaid, from any parish or place within the jurisdiction of the local authority of this county to any other parish or place, along any public road or highway within the same jurisdiction.

Provided that it shall not be unlawful for any person to remove, send, or bring any such animals, or any raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs, or the offal of any such animals as last aforesaid from any one part of a farm to any other part of the same farm or lands in the same occupation,

Provided also that it shall be lawful for any person to remove, between one hour before sunrise and one hour after sunset, any such animals, or any raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs of any such animals as last aforesaid as shall have been in the possession for four weeks previously of the owner thereof, or of the person, being a resident within this jurisdiction, from whom they shall have been purchased, and the person in charge of such animals, or of the hides or skins, horns, or hoofs of any such animals, shall produce a certificate thereof, dated and signed by the owner or vendor, as the case may be, to any Inspector, police constable, or person authorised to require the same; and such certificate shall be countersigned by such stock-owner in the parish as may consent to act as an overseer of cattle, to the effect that there is no cattle disease in the parish, and by a Justice of the Peace in the division, to the effect that the removal is made for reasons satisfactory to him, and such certificate shall remain in force for three days, and shall specify the number and kind of animals, or hides, skins, horns or hoofs of animals to which the same shall apply.

Provided also that in the case of any animals slaughtered in any town within the jurisdiction of the local authority of this county, such certificate shall be signed by the butcher affirming that the hide or skin, horns or hoofs to be removed, is or are the hide or skin, horns or hoofs of such animal as aforesaid.

Provided also that in the case of a calf, it shall be lawful to remove the same on a certificate, stating that it is the produce of a cow which has been in the possession of the owner four weeks previously.

7. That in the event of any case of cattle plague occurring within the jurisdiction of the local authority of this county, the Inspector-General do send immediate notice thereof to the Clerk of the Peace, who, on receipt of such notice, shall cause an advertisement to be inserted in any newspaper or newspapers circulating in this county, to the effect that from the date thereof it shall not be lawful for any person to remove any animal hereinbefore specified, or any raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs of any such animal, except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs as are directly imported from India, Australia, South Africa, or America, or the offal of any such animals as aforesaid, from the farm or parish in which such case of cattle plague has occurred, or from any conterminous parish (specifying all such parishes by name) to any other place within this jurisdiction.

8. That the Order in Council, dated the 23rd day of February, 1866, together with this Order of Court in relation to the cattle plague, be printed, and a copy sent to each magistrate of the county, and that large posting and other bills, containing the substance of such Order of Court, be printed for distribution to the county constabulary, parish overseers, and others.

9. And notice is hereby given, that every person offending against the provisions of the said Orders in Council, and of this Order and notice, will be liable to forfeit, for every such offence, any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, and that in compliance with the provisions contained in the said Act 11 and 12 Vict., cap. 107, one-half of all penalties and forfeitures recovered under the Act will be payable to the person who shall sue or proceed for the same.

By the Court,
Ffooks, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

NOTICE.

Burgh of Rutherglen.

I, DONALD MURRAY, Provost of Rutherglen, and as such Local Authority within the territory of that Burgh, do hereby in exercise and by virtue of the powers conferred by the Consolidated and Amended Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 23rd November last, and the Orders dated 16th December and 20th January last, and the Statutes therein referred to, and with a view to prevent the spreading of the contagious and infectious disorder among the cattle of Great Britain, generally designated the Cattle Plague, declare that it is expedient for, and during the period from the publication of this notice to the 1st day of March, 1866—

1st. That no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, and no raw or untanned hides or skins, and no horns or hoofs, and no offal of any such animals, and no dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the Burgh of Rutherglen; and that after this notice shall have been published, it shall not be lawful for any person during the aforesaid period, to bring or send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, or any raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs or offal of any such animals, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, from any place in Great Britain beyond the Burgh of Rutherglen, into any place within the said Burgh; but excepting always hides, skins, horns, or hoofs, as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America;—all in terms of the first clause of the said Order by the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 20th January last, and under the provisos set forth.

2nd. That during the foresaid period it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, no raw or untanned hides or skins, no horns or hoofs, and no offal of any such animals, and also that no dung, straw, fodder, or litter, be removed from place to place generally within the Burgh of Rutherglen, and that after this notice shall have been published, it shall not be lawful for any person during the aforesaid period to remove from place to place generally within the Burgh of Rutherglen any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, or any raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs, or offal of any such animals, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs, as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America; and providing that it shall not be unlawful for any person to remove any such animals from place to place on the same farm on which they are situated, or across or along any public or parish road, in so far as it intersects the said farm, or to send or carry any such animals, or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, by railway through the Burgh of Rutherglen, or to send or carry any such animals, or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, if brought by sea from any place out of Great Britain, into the Burgh of Rutherglen, to the nearest convenient station, for the purpose of carrying them through the said Burgh.

3rd. That it is expedient that the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or lamb to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the Burgh of Rutherglen, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, shall be prohibited and prevented; and that after publication of this notice it shall not be lawful for any person during the aforesaid period to bring or send any such animal into any such market or fair, or to any place within the said Burgh, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, or buy, or sell any such animal so brought or sent,—all within the meaning of the 16th Clause of the foresaid Consolidated and Amended Orders.

And notice is hereby further given, that every person offending against the foresaid Orders, or any of them, and this notice, shall, in pursuance of the foresaid Acts, for every such offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted may think fit to impose.

(Signed) D. Murray, Provost.
Rutherglen, 8th February, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Lincolnshire, Holland.

At a General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, held by adjournment at Boston, in and for the parts of Holland within the county of Lincoln, on Wednesday, the 7th day of March, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, that now is Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and in the year of our Lord 1866, before the Reverend John Wilson, Clerk, Chairman, the Reverend Edward Moore, Clerk, and others their fellows, the Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen within the parts of Holland aforesaid, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors done and committed within the said parts, in the said county, and one of whom is of the quorum.

It is ordered that all orders heretofore made by the Mayor of Boston, as the Local Authority, under the Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, in pursuance of the Statute 11 and 12 years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter 107, intituled "An Act to prevent until the 1st day of September, 1850, and to the end of the then Session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders amongst sheep, cattle, and other animals," be and the same are hereby revoked, and that the orders now in force made by the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held at Boston, in and for the parts of Holland, on the 7th day of February last, shall from the date hereof, including the day of such date, apply and be in force for the said borough.

N.B.—This order legalizes the entry of sheep into Boston Market, provided they are accompanied with a certificate in the Form A, mentioned by the order of Sessions of the 7th day of February, 1866.

That the orders now in existence for the said parts of Holland be confirmed, so far as they are not inconsistent with the following order:

And it is ordered that from henceforth sheep may be moved from lands to other lands in the same occupation within the Division of Holland, without any certificate whatsoever.

It is ordered that Mr. Charles Smith, of Kirton; Mr. John Drury, of Sibsey; Mr. Henry Cutforth and Mr. John Cutforth, both of Sutterton; Mr. Joseph Mountain, of Boston; Mr. Robert Ward, of Freiston; and Mr. Phillip Bailey, of Donington, be and they are hereby appointed valuers of cattle and other animals, as defined by "the Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," for all parishes or places in the Special Sessional Division of the Hundreds of Kirton and Skirbeck, including the parish of Boston; and that Mr. William Pike, and Mr. Samuel Kingston, both of Spalding; Mr. Edward Cole, of Sutton Saint Mary; Mr. Walter Naylor, of Sutton Saint Mary; Mr. William Metheringham, of Fleet; and Mr. James Harrison, of Pinchbeck, be and they are hereby appointed valuers under the said Statute for all parishes and places in the Special Sessional Division of the Hundred of Elloe.

By Order,

James Atter,
Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Deal.

The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

At a meeting of the Town Council, holden on Friday, the 2nd day of March instant, to consider the provisions of the above Act,

It was unanimously resolved, that his Worship the Mayor (R. M. Reynolds, Esq.), Mr. Alderman Brown, with Councillors Hobday, Ricketts, Elliott, Amess, Nethersole, Solomon, and Wise, be, and they were appointed a Committee, under the said Act, to carry out the same (excepting the power of making a rate).

At a meeting of the said Committee, held on Monday, the 5th instant, it was unanimously resolved and declared, that all notices, rules, and regulations heretofore issued for this borough respecting the cattle plague be, and the same are hereby revoked, annulled, and made void; and that the following orders, rules, and regulations, on and from this day to the 15th day of April next, be strictly enforced.

1st. It is ordered, that the appointment of Mr. John Parker be, and the same is hereby revoked, and that Mr. John Sutton be, and he is hereby appointed Chief Inspector, for the purpose of carrying into effect, in this borough, the rules and regulations hereunder written, and that the superintendent, sergeant, and officers of the police force of this borough be, and they are hereby respectively appointed cattle constables, and that they shall carry into effect the provisions of the said Act, subject, nevertheless, in all respects to the orders and directions of the said Committee.

2nd. It is further ordered, that on and from this day to the 15th day of April next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be brought or removed from any place without the said borough to any place within the said borough.

3rd. It is further ordered, that every person having in his possession or under his custody any animal or animals labouring under the said disease shall forthwith give notice thereof, in writing, to the Chief Inspector for this borough.

4th. It is further ordered, that the Chief Inspector, with the consent of the said Committee, and in accordance with the said Act, shall have power to seize and slaughter, or cause to be seized and slaughtered, and to be buried as he shall direct in any convenient place, any animal labouring under the said disease.

5th. It is further ordered, that every Inspector shall have power to cause to be cleansed and disinfected in any manner which he may think proper any premises in which animals labouring under the said disease have been, or may be, and to cause to be disinfected and, if necessary, destroyed, any fodder, manure, or refuse matter which may be deemed likely to propagate the said disease; and every owner or occupier of such premises shall obey any order given by such Inspector for that purpose.

6th. It is further ordered, that the Chief Inspector shall have power, within his district, to direct that any animal which he suspects to be labouring under the said disease shall be kept separate from animals free from the same; and every person having in his possession or under his custody such animal shall obey any order given by the said Inspector for that purpose.

7th. It is further ordered, that on and from this day to the 15th day of April next, any person may move any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, in his possession, if sound, from any farm or land in his occupation to any other farm or land in his own occupation, or to or from any other place or places within this borough, provided a certificate of the Chief Inspector be first obtained for that purpose, and which certificate shall only be in force for seven days, for which no charge shall be made, and may be revoked at any time when considered by the said Committee or Inspector to be absolutely necessary, and which certificate may be renewed from time to time; and every such animal shall be deemed to be sound which is not affected with the cattle disease, and has not within thirty days been in contact with any animal so affected, and has not within thirty days been in or on any building, yard, or field where any animal so affected had been kept, unless that such building, or yard, or field had been effectually cleansed and disinfected at least thirty days previously to such first mentioned animal being placed in or upon the same.

8th. Every person or persons offending against either of the above orders, rules, or regulations, shall, in pursuance of the said Act, forfeit any sum not exceeding £20 which the Justices before whom he or they may be convicted may think fit to impose.

Dated this 7th day of March, 1866.

(By order of the Committee),

Edward Drew, Town Clerk.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Lincolnshire Holland.

At a General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held by adjournment at Boston, in and for the parts of Holland, in the county of Lincoln, on Wednesday the 28th day of February, 1866, before the Reverend John Wilson, clerk (chairman), the Revs. Basil Beridge and Edw. Leigh Bennett, clerks, Major C. T. J. Moore, Major F. L. Hopkins, J. C. Barker, Esq., the Rev. Edward Moore, clerk, George Prest, Esq. and Adderley Howard, Esq., and the Rev. C. A. Moore, clerk, the Court, in pursuance of an Act intituled, "the Cattle Disease Prevention Act, 1866," do order and declare that the Magistrates acting in the Special Sessional Division of Boston and Spalding shall be Committees for carrying into effect the provisions of the above recited Act, subject to the general rules laid down for their guidance by this Court, with the addition of four ratepayers selected by the local authority for each Committee, viz., for the Boston Special Sessional Division, Mr. Charles Brookes, of Leake, farmer and grazier, Mr. Charles Swain, of Wrangle, farmer and grazier, Mr. John Wright Robinson, of Wyberton, farmer and grazier, and Mr. Robert Grey Chatterton, of Wigtoft, farmer and grazier, together with William Caister, Mayor of Boston; and Mr. John Clark, of Long Sutton, Mr. Francis Higdon, of Holbeach Marsh, Mr. John Crawley, of Moulton, and Mr. Thomas Plowright, junior, of Pinchbeck, farmers and graziers, for the Spalding Special Sessional Division.

That persons now acting as inspectors shall be the inspectors under this Act, and the persons to be appointed as valuers by the local authority for assessing the value of any animal slaughtered in accordance with these orders, shall be considered the officers of the local authority.

That the following regulations are to be strictly observed until the 15th day of April, 1866:—The inspectors acting on behalf of the local authority shall cause all animals affected with the cattle plague to be immediately slaughtered and buried in some proper place in their skins, such skins to be slashed and covered with a sufficient quantity of quicklime or other disinfectant, and with not less than six feet of earth.

The inspectors shall cause every yard, shed, stable, field, or other premises in which any animal affected with the cattle plague has been kept or has died or been slaughtered within 30 days to be thoroughly cleansed or disinfected; and no fresh animal shall be admitted into such yard, shed, stable, field, or other premises, as aforesaid, until the expiration of 30 days after such cleansing or disinfection thereof; and he shall also cause all hay, straw, litter, dung, or other articles that have been used about any infected animal to be burnt or otherwise destroyed. Every inspector or other person in contact with any animal affected with the cattle plague, shall thoroughly disinfect his clothes, and use all other disinfectants with a view to prevent the spreading of contagion.

If any inspector deems it desirable to slaughter any healthy animal that has been in contact with any animal affected with cattle plague, to prevent the further spreading of contagion, he shall immediately report thereon to two members of the Committee (one of whom must be a Magistrate), and act upon their order as to whether the animal shall or shall not be slaughtered; and if the two members of the Committee order such animal to be slaughtered, then the owner thereof may either dispose of the carcass on his own account (upon obtaining a licence from the inspector that it is fit for human food), or may deliver up such carcass, skin, &c., to the inspector or other officer on behalf of the local authority.

And it is further ordered and declared, that the certificates of the inspectors as to the slaughter, and of the valuer as to the value of any slaughtered animal, when sanctioned by two members of the Committee, shall be conclusive evidence of the same, and that no claim for compensation will be allowed by the local authority that is not accompanied by such certificate as aforesaid.

Every local authority shall cause all animals affected with the cattle plague within his district to be slaughtered, and shall by way of compensation for every animal so slaughtered pay to the owner thereof such sum not exceeding £20, and not exceeding one-half of the value of the animal immediately before it was affected with the cattle plague, as to such local authority may seem fit.

For every healthy animal slaughtered in accordance with these orders, because it has been in contact with an animal affected with cattle plague, and for the carcass of which the salvage has been received by the local authority, the owner thereof shall receive a sum not exceeding £25, as may equal three-fourths of the declared and certified value of the animal so slaughtered.

Persons having cattle taken ill must immediately give notice thereof to an inspector and valuer, appointed by the local authority, or they may forfeit a claim to compensation.

No claim for compensation will be allowed for any animal found affected with cattle plague in any market or on a highway, or which has been moved or otherwise dealt with contrary to the order of the local authority.

And it is further ordered and declared, that all cattle brought by sea from any place whatsoever into any town or place within the parts of Holland shall be marked by clipping the hair off the end of the tail, and no such cattle shall be removed alive from such town or place except by sea.

No cattle shall be moved on any railway within the parts of Holland before the 25th day of March, 1866.

And it is further ordered, that from and after the 1st day of March, 1866, the orders now in force within the said parts shall continue in force until they are altered or revoked by the Lords of the Council or by the local authority.

That the Committees record their proceedings in writing, and report such proceedings to the Clerk of the Peace one full week before each quarter sessions, to be laid before the said sessions.

Ordered, that a separate rate of three-pence in the pound, to be called the "Cattle Plague Rate," be forthwith assessed and levied upon the whole of the parts of Holland, including the parish of Boston, in the said parts, to be paid to Messrs. Garfit and Bonner, the county treasurers, at or before the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said parts, for the purpose of providing for the expenses and compensations to be incurred and paid under the provisions of the said Act, and that the treasurers do keep a separate account of the said rate.

By the Court,

James Atter,

Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Huntingdonshire to wit.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden by adjournment at the Shire-hall, Huntingdon, in and for the said county, on Tuesday, the 27th day of February, 1866, before George Rust, Philip Tillard, Esquires, the Rev. P. P. Rooper, the Rev. A. F. Stopford, and others, their Fellows, Justices:—

Whereas the Justices of the Peace for this county, in Quarter Sessions assembled, on the 7th day of February, 1866, did, as the local authority, constituted by the Order in Council of the 16th day of December, 1865, make certain orders with a view to prevent the spreading of the cattle plague, which said orders were to be in force until the 1st day of March next.

And whereas in and by an Order of the Privy Council, bearing date the 23rd day of February instant, all notices or orders issued by any local authority, and then in force, are thereby continued until the same should be altered or revoked by any further order, or by any local authority and so far as they are not inconsistent with any provisions contained in the "Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," or in any Act which may hereafter be passed.

And whereas the Justices of the Peace now assembled, have resolved that it is expedient that the orders of sessions of the said 7th of February instant, should be modified and varied in manner hereinafter mentioned; and do hereby, as the Local Authority now duly constituted, declare and order as follows, that is to say:—

That in the fifth order the words "and except sheep, hay, and straw," be and they are hereby omitted therefrom. That the second proviso be and is hereby revoked, and it is ordered that the following provisoes be and are hereby substituted:

1st. By licence of a justice first obtained, any person may move, during a time to be named in such license, not exceeding seven days any cattle, being his own property, for any distance not exceeding 200 yards; and sheep, being also his own property, for one mile along any highway or public road, for the purpose of removing the same from one part to another part of his occupation, where such parts respectively adjoin the said highway or public road, upon proof to the satisfaction of such Justice that such removal is to be solely from lands to lands in the same occupation; and that for twenty-eight days previous to such removal, no case of cattle plague had existed on the land or premises from or to which such removal is desired.

2nd. That sheep and swine may be moved along any high road of this county, from any one place to another, by licence obtained from one Justice of the county; provided that satisfactory proof be given to the Justice, that the sheep or swine are free from disease, and that the cattle plague has not existed within half a mile of the place from which they are to be removed, for twenty-eight days previous to the date of the licence, and that none exists within a quarter of a mile of the road by which they are to be moved, which roads are to be stated in such licence.

3rd. That by licence first obtained from a Justice, hay, straw, fodder, manure, or litter, may be moved from any farm or premises, it being proved to the satisfaction of such Justice, that no case of cattle plague has existed on the farm yard or premises from which it is proposed to remove the same for a period of 28 days previously.

4th. That by licence first obtained from any Justice, hides, skins, hoofs, and horns of cattle, may be moved, if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of such Justice that they were those of healthy cattle, and that no case of cattle disease had existed on the premises on which they had been, or from which such removal is desired, for a period of 28 days previously.

By order of the Court.

Maule, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Caithness.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the county of Caithness, in Quarter Sessions assembled, at Wick, upon the 5th day of March, 1866, in exercise and by virtue of the powers conferred upon them as the Local Authority in said county, by the Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, resolved and do hereby declare, with a view to prevent the spreading of the cattle plague, that it is expedient, until this notice shall be revoked, that no sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, bones, or other parts of any animals, or hay, straw, fodder, or other articles, likely to propagate infection, be brought or sent from any other part of Great Britain into any place within their jurisdiction; it being, however, provided and declared, that such prohibition shall not apply to dissolved bones, nor to the importation or introduction of any of the aforesaid animals from the neighbouring county of Sutherland, so long as that county is exempt from the said disorder. And the Local Authority foresaid resolved and hereby further declare, that the Chief Constable of the said county of Caithness shall have power and he is hereby authorised to destroy all articles introduced or imported into the county in contravention of the Orders in Council and the foregoing notice.

And notice is hereby further given, that every person offending against the foregoing resolution and notice, and the Orders in Council founded on, shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

(Signed) Geo. Dingwall Fordyce,
Wick, 6th March, 1866. Chairman.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Berwickshire.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the local authority for the county of Berwick, under "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," in accordance with the powers given to them by the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, of date 23rd day of February, 1866, the orders of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Berwick, of the 8th of December, 1855, and of the 11th and 27th January, 1866, be, and the same are, hereby altered to the following extent, viz. :—

1. That, in addition to the order presently in force in regard to the removal of cattle for immediate slaughter, and of cows going to bull, it shall be lawful, on a declaration by the owner of any cattle, and a licence signed by one Justice of the Peace in the same terms as those now applicable to the removal of cattle for the above purposes, to remove any bull, cow, ox, heifer, or calf generally from place to place in the county of Berwick, excepting to, from, or through the following farms and places, viz. :—

Blackburn-in-the-Mire, Crossrig, Edington-mains, Foulden West-mains, Village of Hutton, Hillton, Langrigg, Middlestots, New Ladykirk, Byselaw, Swinton Greenriggs, Village of Swinton, Whitsome Hill, Whitsome East Newton, Whitsome West Newton, Whitsome Laws, Whitsome South Laws, and Whitsome Laws Cottage.

2. That it shall be lawful to bring sheep, lambs, goats, or swine, into the county of Berwick from any other part of Great Britain, provided that previous to bringing any of the said animals into the said county, the owner thereof, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised by him and competent to do so, shall make before the local authority for the county of Berwick such a declaration, or produce such evidence, as shall satisfy the said local authority that the said animals may be brought into the county of Berwick without risk of bringing contagion with them, and shall apply for, and obtain from, the said local authority, if it see fit to grant the same, a licence in duplicate, authorising him to bring the said animals, one or more, into the said county.

Every person offending against these orders shall, in terms of the said Order of Council and relative Acts of Parliament, for every such offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, to be recovered as therein directed.

By order of the Local Authority,
Hugh Hume Campbell,
Chairman of Local Authority.

County-buildings, Dunse,

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Bute.

THE County Board being the local authority for the county of Bute, under "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," by virtue of the power thereby conferred, and in accordance with the provisions of the Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 23rd November, and 16th December, 1865, and 20th January, and 6th and 23rd February, 1866, do hereby declare that, with the view to prevent the spreading of the cattle plague, it is expedient that, from the date hereof and until this order be revoked, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, and no untanned hides or skins, and no horns or hoofs of any such animals (except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, and America), and no dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, and no artificial manure (other than guano, superphosphate of lime, and dissolved bones) shall be brought from any other place into the county of Bute.

The local authority hereby enjoin the Constabulary within the county to carry out the provisions of this Order.

Any person offending against this Order incurs a penalty not exceeding £20 for each offence, and where such offence is committed, with respect to more than four animals, a penalty not exceeding £5 for each animal.

By order of the Board,
Chas. Duncan, Chairman.
Rothesay, 9th March, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

City of Rochester.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

6th day of March, 1866.

I, JOHN BOUCHER, Esq., Mayor of the city of Rochester, in the county of Kent, do hereby order, that the order made by me on the 18th day of January, 1866, shall continue and be in force up to the 14th day of April next, subject, however, to the following relaxations and fresh orders.— Now, therefore,

It is ordered, that from and after the date hereof to the 14th day of April next, any person may move any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, in his possession, if sound, from any farm or land in his occupation across any highway, or along any highway, for a distance not exceeding 200 yards along the same, to any other farm or land in his own occupation; and every such animal shall be deemed to be sound which is not affected with the cattle plague, and has not within thirty days been in contact with any animal so affected, and has not within thirty days been in or on any building or yard or field where any animal so affected had been kept, unless that building or yard had been effectually cleansed and disinfected at least thirty days previously to such first-mentioned animal being placed in or on the same.

It is further ordered, that in order to allow for the breeding of stock, a cow or heifer, if sound, as defined in the last previous order, may be moved with a breeding license on any public highway for any distance not exceeding three miles to and from any place where a bull is kept; that such license be granted by any Justice of the Peace for the city of Rochester, and that such license be in force for a period not exceeding three days from the date thereof.

It is further ordered, that from and after the date hereof, to the 14th day of April next, the order and notice given by me on the 18th day of January last, which forbids any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf being brought or removed from any place without the said city to any place within the said city, or being on or passing over, along, or across any highway or public road within the said city, shall not be deemed to prohibit the occupier of any field or enclosed land from allowing any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, depasturing in such field or enclosed land and in the possession of such occupier from being on or passing along or across any footpath or bridleway in such field or enclosed land.

It is further ordered, that from the date hereof to the 14th day of April next, no dung, offal, horns, bones, raw or untanned hides or skins of any sheep, cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, horse, swine, or of any other animal (except as by the Orders in Council excepted) shall be unloaded within the said city from any barge, boat or other vessel, or from any railway truck or cart, waggon or other vehicle, or be sent or brought into the said city in any way from the Metropolis as defined in "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," or from any other place in which the cattle plague is existing or has existed within six months previously.

And it is lastly hereby ordered that notice be publicly given of the aforesaid orders.

John Boucher, Mayor.

Notice is hereby further given, that by the Act, it is provided that every local authority shall cause all animals affected with the cattle plague within its district to be slaughtered; and by way of compensation pay to the owner thereof such sum not exceeding £20, and not exceeding one-half of the value of the animal immediately before it was affected with the plague, as to such local authority may seem fit, and shall cause every animal that has died of the plague, or has been so slaughtered, to be buried as soon as possible in its skin, and to be covered with a sufficient quantity of quicklime or other disinfectant, and with not less than six feet of earth; but no compensation shall be paid in respect of any animal found affected with cattle plague in a market or on a highway, or in respect of any animal which has been moved or otherwise dealt with in contravention of the Act or any order of the local authority.

The Act further provides that "Every local authority shall, within its district, cause the yard, shed, stable, field, or other premises in which any animal affected with cattle plague has been kept while affected by the disease, or has died or been slaughtered, to be thoroughly cleansed and disinfected; and all hay, straw, litter, dung, or other articles that have been used in or about any such animal, to be burnt or otherwise destroyed; and no fresh animal shall be admitted into any yard, shed, stable, field, or other premises in which any animal affected with cattle plague has been kept while affected by the disease, or has died or been slaughtered, until the expiration of thirty days after the cleansing and disinfecting of such premises in pursuance of this Act; and every local authority shall direct the disinfecting the clothes of, and the use of due precautions by, inspectors, cattle overseers, and others in contact with animals affected by the cattle plague, with a view to prevent the spreading of contagion."

Any person contravening the provisions of the Act, or any order of the local authority, is subject to a penalty of twenty pounds.

The following Inspectors have been appointed for the county:—John Donaldson, Veterinary Surgeon, Paisley; John Howat, jun., Veterinary Surgeon, Pollokshaws; Charles Robinson, Veterinary Surgeon, Greenock.

The Chief Constable, Superintendents, and Sergeants of the County Police have been appointed Cattle Constables, with orders to report all cases of cattle plague, or contravention of the rules and orders of the local authority.

Farmers and other stockholders will receive copies of the rules by applying to the District Committees, or to the police, or the subscriber.

By order,
Ja. Caldwell, Clerk to the County Board or Local Authority.
Paisley, 5th March, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Renfrew.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the County Board or Local Authority for the County of Renfrew, under "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," has resolved and declared, and hereby, in virtue of the Provisions of the said Act, and of the relative Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, resolves and declares,—

First,—That it is expedient that from the date of the publication of this notice, no animal (meaning thereby any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine) shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said County of Renfrew; provided always, that sheep or lambs may be brought into the said county if they have not been recently in a public market, or have not been conveyed by railway; and also, that it shall be lawful to bring or send animals from land or premises in a person's own occupation, and beyond the said county, to any other land or premises also in such person's own occupation, within the said county, if, in this last case, a license be obtained from any two Justices of the said county.

Second,—That no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be removed from any place within the said county to any other place within the said county, over any turnpike or statute labour or other public road; provided always, that such animals, on a farm intersected by such roads, may be removed along or across such roads, from place to place of such farm; and also, that it shall be lawful for any person to move any cow or heifer, under a breeding license obtained from the Committee of the district, along any public highway within the county, for a distance of not more than two miles, to any bull, licensed by any district committee for breeding purposes, or to move any bull so licensed along any public highway within the county, for a distance of not more than two miles, to any cow or heifer; provided always, that every such license shall specify the route to be taken and the name of the driver or other person who is to have charge of the animal to which the license relates, and that the cow, heifer, and bull, are free from cattle plague, and have not, within thirty days preceding the date of certificate, been in contact with any animal affected with the said disease.

Third,—That it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs, of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf (except such as are directly imported from India, Australia, South Africa, or America); or any offal of any such animals, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, from any other parts of Great Britain into any place within the said County of Renfrew.

Fourth,—That it shall not be lawful for any person to remove any such hides, skins, offal, or dung, from any place within the said County of Renfrew to any other place within the same, or to remove any hay, straw, fodder, or litter from any place within the said County of Renfrew, in which the cattle plague has existed, or may at the time exist, to any other place within or beyond the said county. But it shall not be unlawful for any persons to send or carry the articles above specified through the said county by railway, or to bring or send the said articles from any land and premises in a person's own occupation and beyond the said county, to any other lands or premises also in his own occupation within the said county, during such time as may be fixed in the license of any two Justices acting in and for the County of Renfrew.

Fifth,—It shall not be unlawful to remove the sweepings of streets, or the cleanings of ash-pits and privies, under the control of the Police Commissioners; or to remove manure from one part of a farm to another part of the same farm. Further, it shall not be unlawful for any person to remove from any place within the County of Renfrew, and burghs therein, to any other place within the said county, horse or cow dung, provided that it is accompanied by a certificate from the seller and purchaser and two Justices of the Peace resident near the place from where the dung has been removed, that it is from premises in which the cattle plague does not exist, and never has existed, and is the produce of cattle that have not been affected with the cattle plague; and also, that it shall not be unlawful to bring from any other county, or burgh therein, to any place within the said County of Renfrew, horse dung, provided the same is accompanied by a certificate from the seller and purchaser, and two Justices of the Peace, or Magistrates, resident near the place from which such dung has been removed, that it contains no admixture of cow dung, and that it is from premises in which the cattle plague does not exist, and never has existed.

Notice is further hereby given, that any person contravening the above resolutions and declarations, or either of them, shall thereby act unlawfully; and shall, for every offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds sterling.

By authority of the County Board or Local Authority for the County of Renfrew,

J. A. Caldwell,

Clerk to the Board.

Paisley, 5th March, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

Borough of Hythe, in Kent.

At a meeting of the Council of this borough, holden on the 28th of February last, in pursuance of "the Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866,"

It was resolved, That the whole of the Council be appointed a Committee under the said Act, and that John Taylor and Thomas Bayden, Esquires, be appointed in conjunction with and as members of the said Committee.

And at a subsequent meeting of the Council of this borough, held on Friday, the 9th of March instant, the following orders were made:—

1st. It is ordered that on and after the 12th day of March instant to the 15th day of April next, any person may move any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf in his possession, if sound, from any shed or pasture in his occupation, and in the Borough of Hythe or the Liberties thereof, across any highway, or along any highway for a distance not exceeding half-a-mile along the same; and every such animal shall be deemed to be sound which is not affected with the cattle plague, and has not within thirty days been in contact with any animal so affected, and has not within thirty days been in or on any building or yard or field where any animal so affected had been kept, unless that building or yard had been effectually cleansed and disaffected at least thirty days previously to such first-mentioned animal being placed in or on the same.

2nd. It is further ordered that in order to allow for the breeding of stock, a cow or heifer, if sound, as defined in the last previous order, may be moved with a breeding licence on any public highway for any distance not exceeding three miles to and from any place where a bull is kept; such licence to be granted by any Justice of the Peace being a member of the Committee appointed for this borough, pursuant to "the Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," and that such licence be in force for a period not exceeding three days from the date thereof.

3rd. It is further ordered that on and from the 12th day of March instant to the 15th day of April next, the order and notice of Thomas Denne, Esq., the Mayor of this borough, of the 17th day of January last, which forbids any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, from being on or passing along or across any highway or public road, shall not be deemed to prohibit the occupier of any field or enclosed field from allowing any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, depasturing in such field or enclosed land, and in the possession of such occupier, from being on or passing along or across any footway or bridleway in such field or enclosed land.

4th. It is further ordered that any of the aforesaid orders numbered 1, 2, and 3 respectively, embodying relaxations of the order of the Mayor of the 17th of January last, is to cease to have any effect in this borough on publication in the Kentish Express Newspaper, of a notice of the Committee that it has deemed it expedient that such order ought to cease to be in force in consequence of any outbreak or threatened outbreak of the cattle plague within its jurisdiction.

5th. It is ordered that on and from the 12th day of March instant to the 15th day of April next, no dung, offal, horns, bones, raw or untanned hides or skins of any sheep, cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, horse, swine, or of any other animal (except as by the Orders in Council excepted), shall be unloaded within this borough from any barge, boat, or other vessel, or from any railway truck, or cart, waggon or other vehicle, or be sent or brought into the said borough in any way from the Metropolis, as defined in "the Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," or from any other place in which the cattle plague is existing, or has existed within six months previously.

6th. It is ordered that notice of the aforesaid orders be published in the Kentish Express.

7th. It is ordered that the Inspector appointed for this borough be paid according to the scale of allowances made under the Orders in Council.

N.B.—Should any cow or heifer be required to be moved with a breeding licence from this borough into the county, a further licence will be required from a member of the Committee appointed for the Elham Division of the county.

By order of the Council,
Edwd. Watts,
Town Clerk.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Buckinghamshire.

Adjourned Quarter Sessions, 1st. February, 1866.

Bucks (to wit).

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at Aylesbury, in and for the county of Buckingham, on Monday in the first week next after the 28th day of December (to wit) the 1st day of January, and thence continued and afterwards holden by adjournment on the 4th day of January, and thence continued by further adjournment, and afterwards holden on the 1st day of February, in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and in the year of our Lord 1866, before the Most Noble Richard Plantagenet Campbell, Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, John Hale, Esquire, the Rev. James Booth, Doctor of Laws, and others, their Fellows, Keepers of the Peace and Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to preserve the Peace in the county aforesaid; and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors done and committed in the said county, and so forth.

Whereas, the Justices of the Peace for the said county of Buckingham in Quarter Sessions assembled, and sitting in open Court on the said 4th day of January as aforesaid, in pursuance of the powers in them vested as the "Local Authority" by virtue of two several Orders made by the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865, resolved and determined to declare, and did declare by notice published on the 6th day of January, 1866, in newspapers circulating within the counties bordering upon the said county of Buckingham, as well as in newspapers circulating within the jurisdiction of the same Justices, that it was expedient from and after the 6th day of January, 1866, until the 1st day of March, 1866, absolutely to prevent the removal of any one of the animals as in the said Order of the 23rd day of November, 1865, defined, namely, any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within their said jurisdiction (to wit), the area of the said county of Buckingham (except the municipal boroughs of Buckingham and Chepping Wycombe), for the purpose of exhibition or sale. And also, that it was further expedient from and after the said 6th day of January until the said 1st day of March, 1866, that animals as lastly hereinbefore defined, should not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within our said jurisdiction. And also, that it was further expedient from and after the 10th day of January, 1866, until the 1st day of March, 1866, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, should be removed from any one farm or place within their said jurisdiction to any other farm or place therein. And whereas, by another Order made at the Council Chamber, Whitehall, on the 20th day of January, 1866, by eight Lords and others of the said Council, reciting that it was expedient to alter and amend the said Orders of the 23rd day of November and the 16th day of December respectively, the said lastly-mentioned Order did order as in the said Order now in recital is set forth; and the same came into operation on the 25th day of January instant, and is to be in force until the 1st day of March next. And whereas the said lastly recited Order was duly within fourteen days after the issuing thereof, published in the London Gazette, and also within fourteen days, as aforesaid, twice published in a newspaper circulating in the said county of Buckingham. And whereas the said Justices (being such "Local Authority," as aforesaid), are satisfied of the existence of the disorder, in the said Orders in Council designated "The Cattle Plague," in the district over which their jurisdiction extends, such district being the area of the county of Buckingham aforesaid (excepting as aforesaid). Now, therefore, the said Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled and sitting in open Court on the said 1st day of February, as aforesaid, have resolved and determined to declare, and do hereby declare by this notice, to be published on the 3rd day of February, 1866, in newspapers circulating as well within the jurisdiction of the same Justices as also within the counties bordering upon the said county of Buckingham, that it is expedient on and after the 4th day of February, 1866, until the 1st day of March, 1866, that no animals, as in the said Order of the 23rd day of November, 1865, defined, namely, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, shall be removed from any one farm or place in the said county of Buckingham (defined as aforesaid) to any other farm or place therein, except upon the conditions hereinafter specified, namely:—

1. That two Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division, in which the parish may be situate, into which it may be proposed to remove or bring any of the animals in this condition specified, may (if they think fit) grant a licence to the owner of any sheep, lambs, goats, or swine, to remove them from premises in his own occupation to other premises also in his own occupation.
2. Provided that such licence shall not be granted in any case if the said disorder called the "Cattle Plague" shall at any time since the 26th day of August, 1865, have appeared or existed either in the parish or place from which it may be proposed to remove any or such animals as last aforesaid, or in any parish or place adjoining thereto, or in any parish or place through which it may be proposed to move such animals, or in the parish or place into which it may be proposed to bring any of such animals.

And further, that it is expedient for and during the said lastly-mentioned period that no raw or untanned hides or skins, nor any horns or hoofs of any animals as defined as aforesaid (except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America), nor any offal of any such animals, as defined as aforesaid, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the county of Buckingham, and that no such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, or offal shall be removed from any parish, place, or premises within the county of Buckingham (as defined as aforesaid), except upon the condition following, namely:—

That two Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the division in which the parish, place, or premises may be situate, from which it may be proposed to move such raw or untanned hides or skins, horns, hoofs, or offal as aforesaid, may (if they think fit), upon the certificate of an Inspector for that division as to the propriety thereof, grant a licence, for a time to be specified therein, for the removal of such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, or offal as aforesaid from such parish, place, or premises.

And also, that it is expedient, during the period aforesaid, that no dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, shall be brought from any place in Great Britain, beyond the county of Buckingham, into any place within the said county (as defined as aforesaid); and also, that it is expedient that no dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, shall be removed from any farm, place, or premises in the same county to any other farm, place, or premises therein; and, lastly, the said Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled as aforesaid (being such "Local Authority") do hereby revoke all the notices given by any "Local Authority" under or by virtue of the said Order of the 23rd day of November, 1865, other than the notices given by the "Local Authority" constituted by the said Order of the 16th day of December, 1865, but nothing hereinbefore contained shall vary or revoke any appointment of Inspector heretofore made by any "Local Authority."

By the Court,
Acton Tindal, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

The Parts of Kesteven, in the County of Lincoln.
(26th FEBRUARY, 1866).

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, held at Bourn, in and for the said parts and county, on Monday, the 1st day of January, in the year of our Lord 1866, before the Right Hon. Sir John Trollope, Bart., William Parker, Esq., and others, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, and afterwards continued and held, by adjournment, at divers places within and for the said parts, and finally held by adjournment, at New Sleaford, within and for the said parts, on Monday, the 26th day of February, 1866, before Anthony Willson, Esq., William Earle Welby, Esquire, and others, Justices as aforesaid:—

This Court having had under its consideration the several Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council concerning the prevailing disorder, commonly designated the "Cattle Plague," and especially the Orders dated the 20th day of January, and the 23rd day of February, 1866, and this Court being desirous to give full effect to the said Orders with the view to check the further spreading of the said disorder:—

It is resolved, ordered, and declared,

1. Kesteven Orders, from March 2, 1866.

First: That all Orders made and other Acts done by any Local Authority within the said parts, under and by virtue of Orders of the Privy Council, shall be and they are hereby revoked, as and from the 2nd day of March next, inclusive, except as to any penalties incurred or the appointment of any inspector or inspectors made, under any of the said Orders.

2. Concerning Markets and Fairs.

And it is further resolved and ordered, and by this published notice declared,

Secondly: That it is expedient, from the said 2nd day of March next, to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or swine, whether fat or store, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the parts of Kesteven aforesaid, for the purpose of exhibition or sale;

Provided that nothing contained in this resolution shall be held to prohibit any person from exhibiting or selling on his own land or premises any animal belonging to him which has been on such land or premises for not less than fourteen days previous to such sale.

3. Cattle brought from beyond the Jurisdiction.

And it is further resolved and ordered, and by this published notice declared,

Thirdly: That it is expedient, from the said 2nd day of March next that no such animal as before enumerated, nor any raw or untanned hides, or skins, nor any horns or hoofs of any animals as aforesaid, not previously disinfected, nor any offal of such animals, nor any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, or from any infected locality, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place whatever within the parts of Kesteven aforesaid;

Provided that nothing contained in this resolution shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send, with the license of any two Justices acting in and for the parts of Kesteven aforesaid, any sheep from any lands whether in his own occupation or not, beyond the parts of Kesteven to any lands within the said parts, or to bring or send with such license as aforesaid any other animal as aforesaid, or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, as aforesaid, from any lands or premises in his own occupation and beyond the parts of Kesteven, to any other lands or premises in his own occupation within the said parts.

4. Removal of Cattle, &c., within the Jurisdiction.

And it is further resolved and ordered, and by this published notice declared,

Fourthly: That it is expedient, from the said 2nd day of March next that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, or swine, nor any raw or untanned hides or skins, nor horns or hoofs of any animals as aforesaid, or the offal of any such animals, nor any dung, hay, straw, fodder or litter, likely to propagate infection, or from any infected locality, shall be removed from any lands in the said parts of Kesteven in the occupation of any person or persons, to any other lands in the same parts, in the occupation of the same person or persons, or from place to place generally, within the said parts of Kesteven.

5. Adjoining Parishes.

Provided that it shall be lawful for any owner or owners to move any such animals as last aforesaid, being in a healthy state, or any hides or skins or horns, or hoofs of any healthy animals, or the offal thereof, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter not likely to propagate infection, from lands or premises in his or their own occupation within the parts of Kesteven aforesaid, to other lands or premises also in his or their own occupation and usually and bonâ fide occupied as part of the same farm, all the same lands being in the same or adjoining parishes; the distance to be travelled not to exceed two miles.

6. More distant Lands.

Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any person to remove any such animals as aforesaid from parishes or places within the parts of Kesteven aforesaid, or any hides, or skins, or horns, or hoofs, previously disinfected, or offal, or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, not likely to propagate infection, to other parishes or places within the same parts, on condition that prior to the removal, in case of live animals, a certificate in the Form A, hereto annexed, shall be obtained, signed by the clergyman of the parish, or a Magistrate residing within five miles of the place from which it is desired to effect the removal; and that a license of removal, consequent on the aforesaid certificate, and in the Form B, hereto annexed, be obtained, signed by the clergyman of the parish, or a Magistrate residing within five miles of the place to which it is desired to cause the removal; such certificate and license to be available only under the restrictions therewith specified; and both of them to be obtained and signed before the removal be commenced, and in the case of hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, a license shall be obtained, signed by a Magistrate in the Form C, hereto annexed.

7. Immediate slaughter by Butchers.

Provided also that with respect to cattle purchased by butchers for immediate slaughter on their own premises, the butcher purchasing such cattle shall obtain a certificate from the vendor that the cattle so sold is in a healthy state, and that he has not had any case of cattle plague upon his premises within two calendar months; and the said butcher shall also give a certificate, engaging to slaughter the said cattle within twenty-four hours of its arrival on his premises (the same not exceeding a distance of ten miles from the vendor's yard), such certificates to be in the Form D hereto annexed, and to be delivered by the butcher forthwith, to the nearest resident policeman. A duplicate copy of the certificates to be handed to the driver of the cattle, and to be produced by him to the police when demanded.

8. Breeding purposes.

Provided also that nothing contained in the foregoing resolutions or any or either of them, shall render it unlawful to take any cow or sow in a healthy state, to any bull or boar; within a distance of three miles; but the owner of the animal removed shall be bound to produce, within forty-eight hours, if demanded by the police, a certificate signed by the owner of the bull or boar, that the animal removed was so bonâ fide taken, and that his permission to bring the same, had been previously obtained.

9. Highways.

And it is further resolved and ordered,

Fifthly: That in no case shall any removal of animals, or of hides, dung, or other things as aforesaid, be permitted upon or along any public highway, between the hours of seven o'clock p.m., and five o'clock a.m.

By the Court,

Henry Peake,

Deputy Clerk of the Peace.

N.B.—Any act contravening any of these orders will subject the offender to a fine of £20; one half to go to the informer.

For forms of removal please to apply to the police, to the Magistrates' Clerks, or Clerk of the Peace.

Public Notice.

City and Borough of Canterbury.

At a special meeting of the Council, held at the Guildhall, on Thursday, the 8th day of March, in the year of our Lord 1866, in pursuance of "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866."

1st. It is ordered, that pursuant to "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," the whole Council be, and they are hereby appointed a Committee under the said Act for the whole of the said borough as defined in the said Act, and that all the powers allowed by such Act, be conferred upon such Committee, with power to add to their number any person duly qualified and not members of the Council, whom they may think fit.

No. 23082.

2nd. It is further ordered, that William Henry Crowhurst, Veterinary Surgeon, be, and he is hereby appointed Inspector, under the provisions of the said Act, 1866, and be paid according to the scale of allowances made under the Order of the Privy Council.

By the Court,

R. W. Flint, Town Clerk.

Further Notice.

At a meeting of the Committee appointed for the said borough under the said "Cattle Diseases Prevention Act," held at the Guildhall, on Thursday, the 8th day of March, 1866, Peter Marten, Esq., Mayor, in the chair.

1st. It is ordered, that on and from the 10th day of March instant, until otherwise ordered, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, sheep, goat, or swine, shall be removed to any market or fair, within the borough, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

2nd. It is further ordered, that from the 10th day of March instant, until otherwise ordered, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be brought or removed from any place without the said borough, nor be in, nor pass over, along, or across any street, highway, or public road, within the borough (except under the restriction hereafter allowed).

3rd. It is further ordered, that on and after the 10th day of March instant, to the 15th day of April next, any person may move any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, in his possession, if sound, from any farm or land in his occupation, across any highway, or along any highway, for a distance not exceeding 200 yards along the same, to any other farm or land in his own occupation; and every such animal shall be deemed to be sound which is not affected with the cattle plague, and has not within thirty days been in contact with any animal so affected, and has not within thirty days been in, or on any building, or yard, or field, where any animal so affected has been kept, unless that building or yard has been effectually cleansed, and disinfected at least thirty days previously to such first-mentioned animal being placed in or on the same.

4th. It is further ordered, that in order to allow for the breeding of stock, a cow or heifer, if sound, as defined in the last previous order, may be moved with a breeding licence, on any public highway for any distance not exceeding three miles to and from any place where a bull is kept, or a bull, if sound, may be moved with such licence and restrictions, to any place where several cows or heifers belonging to the same owner, may be kept for breeding purposes: provided that such licence be granted by either the Mayor, Alderman Collard, and Councillor Henry Cooper, to be called a Sub-Committee, and that such licence be in force for a period not exceeding three days from the date thereof; provided also, that every owner of a bull to be used for breeding purposes, shall, before he allows it to be so used, procure of the Inspector a certificate of the healthy state of the animal, such certificate to be renewed every fortnight.

5th. It is further ordered, that the order and notice which forbids any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox or calf, from being on, or passing along, or across any highway, or public road, shall not be deemed to prohibit the occupier of any field or enclosed land from allowing any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, depasturing in such field or enclosed land and in the possession of such occupier from being on, or passing along, or across, any footpath or bridleway in such field or enclosed land.

6th. It is further ordered that any of the aforesaid orders, numbered 3, 4, and 5 respectively, embodying relaxations of the 1st order of this Committee, is to cease to have any effect in the borough on publication in some newspaper circulating in such borough of a notice of the Committee, that it has deemed it expedient that such order ought to cease to be in force, in consequence of any outbreak of the cattle plague within its jurisdiction.

7th. It is ordered that on and from the 10th day of March next to the 15th day of April next, no dung, offal, horns, bones, raw or untanned hides or skins of any sheep, cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, horse, swine, or of any other animal (except as by the Orders in Council excepted), shall be unloaded from any railway truck, or cart, waggon, or other vehicle, or be sent or brought into the said borough in any way from the metropolis, as defined in "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," or from any other place, in which the cattle plague is existing, or has existed within six months previously.

8th. It is ordered that no animal shall be slaughtered, without the authority in writing of one of the three members of the Sub-Committee; and that on the application of the Inspector for the authority, he shall report his opinion in writing to such member, of the value of the animal to be slaughtered; and in the event of the said report appearing to the said member unsatisfactory, he shall require such further evidence of value as he may think proper.

9th. It is ordered that with reference to section 15, of "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," no animal shall be slaughtered, unless by an order in writing of three members of the Committee for the borough.

10th. It is ordered that when any animal shall appear to the Inspector to be affected with the cattle plague, he shall forthwith report thereon in writing to the Committee, and state in his report his opinion of the value of the animal so affected.

Peter Marten, Chairman.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
March 13, 1866.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Vienna, stating that an Agricultural Exhibition will be held at Vienna in the month of May next.

The Exhibition will be of an international character, as regards agricultural machinery and implements for agricultural and forest purposes, in which irrigation machinery and hunting and shooting weapons will be included.

Goods intended for the Exhibition are to be sent to the Chief Custom-house at Vienna, where the amount of duty to which they are liable in case of sale in Austria will be assessed; the duty will not, however, be exacted in case the goods are re-exported.

Various Austrian railways will reduce considerably their charge for the conveyance of such goods to and from the Exhibition.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 10.)—WEST INDIES.

Bank near the vicinity of St. Esprit Reef.

THE following information has been received at the Admiralty, through the Commander-in-Chief on the North American and West Indian Station, relative to a bank of soundings passed over by H.M. Ships Wolverine and Buzzard, in January, 1866, in the vicinity of the doubtful St. Esprit reef, eastward of the island of Martinique.

Extract from a letter by Captain Hume, H.M.S. Wolverine, to Vice-Admiral Sir James Hope, G.C.B. dated the 25th January, 1866:—

"Last evening, being in the vicinity of St. Esprit Reef, struck soundings in 55 fathoms rock; reduced the speed and sounded every half hour, over very irregular bottom, from 44 to 83 fathoms, losing the soundings at 4^h 30^m A.M., having run an estimated distance of 10 or 12 miles."

On the Buzzard's track chart, over a distance of about 10 miles in a N.W. and S.E. direction, the depths marked are from 44 to 84 fathoms; the north-west part of the bank is placed in about lat. 14° 44' N., long. 59° 59' W., and the south-east end in 14° 37' N., long. 59° 53' W.

As this bank has been discovered near the assigned position of the St. Esprit reef, mariners should approach this locality with caution.

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
19th March, 1866.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—West Indies, Sheet 1, No. 392 a; North Atlantic Ocean, No. 2059; and North Atlantic Ocean, Western part, No. 2061.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to renew the list of persons to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners appointed to act in the division of Marylebone, in the county of Middlesex, as Commissioners for the general purposes of the Acts of Parliament for granting to Her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices: Now we, two of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in that behalf, do hereby convene a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners, for the county aforesaid, being respectively qualified to act as such Commissioners, to be holden at the Court-house, Marylebone-lane, on Tuesday, the 3rd day of April, 1866, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing fit and proper persons to be Commissioners to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax Acts for the division of Marylebone aforesaid.

A. Montgomery.

Alex. Duff Gordon.

Inland Revenue, Somerset House,
London, March 10, 1866.

ARMY PRIZE MONEY.

*Royal Hospital, Chelsea,
March 1866.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Prize Rolls for the undermentioned Corps, on account of the following Captures, have been received at this Hospital; containing the names of those whose shares have been remitted to the Commissioner of this Hospital by the Government of India; and that distribution of such shares will be made at my Office, on the 12th instant, and will be continued on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays during the hours from eleven to two o'clock.

Capture of Ihar in November 1858, Second Distribution. Regiments entitled, 14th Hussars, 86th Foot.

Capture of Peguin 1852-3. Regiments entitled, 18th, 51st, and 30th Foot.

Capture of Nurgond in June, 1858, Second Distribution. Roll received for 7th Field Battery, 8th Company, 14th Battalion, Royal Artillery.

Directions.

All claimants must state the Regimental Number borne by the Soldier.

In all personal applications at Chelsea Hospital by discharged Soldiers, they must produce their Parchment Certificate of Service and Regimental Account Book, or Parchment Certificate of Pension.

Pensioners residing in the country should apply through the Staff Officer of Pensioners for the District in which they respectively reside.

Claimants to the Shares of Deceased Soldiers, and all Claimants, Officers or Soldiers, residing beyond 5 miles from Chelsea Hospital, must apply by letter, addressed to "The Secretary of Chelsea Hospital;" when the necessary Forms will be sent.

Soldiers still serving must apply through the Officer commanding the Regiment or Depôt.

Observe—The claims preferred are so numerous, that it is found impossible to examine them, except after some delay. They will be investigated as early as possible in the order of date in which they are received, and an answer will be sent without the necessity of again applying on the subject.

A great portion of the delay is occasioned by the unnecessary renewal of the several applications.

George Hutt,

Secretary to the Commissioners.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Wesleyan Chapel, situated at Aldridge, in the parish of Aldridge, in the county of Stafford, in the district of Walsall, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 10th day of March, 1866, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 12th day of March, 1866.

Rayner Blount Lewis, Superintendent Registrar.

In the Matter of the Companies Act, 1862, and of the Joint Stock Discount Company (Limited).

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition for the winding up of the above-named Company by the Court of Chancery was, on the 10th day of March, 1866, presented to the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, by Thomas Fielden, Daniel Campbell, and William Cunliffe Pickersgill, all of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Merchants and Copartners of the said Company; and that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Master of the Rolls, on the 24th day of March, 1866; and any creditor or contributory of the said Company desirous to oppose the making of an Order for the winding up of the said Company, under the above Act, should appear at the time of hearing by himself or his counsel for that purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or contributory of the said Company requiring the same, by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.—Dated this 12th day of March, 1866.

In the Matter of an Act made and passed in the Session of Parliament, holden in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to facilitate the Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of another Act of Parliament, made and passed in the 27th and 28th years of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled "An Act to further amend the Settled Estates Act, 1856;" and in the Matter of certain Mines and Minerals under, and of certain wayleaves and other easements over, certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, containing together 134A. 1a. 6p. or thereabouts, all situate in the parish of Chesterfield and townships of Hasland and Walton, in the county of Derby; and in the Matter of the Mines and Minerals, under a certain other piece of land, containing 8A. 2a. 16p. or thereabouts, situate in the said township of Hasland, and all which said hereditaments and premises are subject to certain trusts now subsisting and capable of taking effect declared by the Will and first Codicil of Anthony Lax Maynard, deceased, late of Chesterfield aforesaid, in the aforesaid county of Derby, and of Harlsey Hall, in the county of York, dated respectively the 30th August, 1817, and the 12th January, 1818.

NOTICE is hereby given, that under the authority and by virtue of the above-mentioned Acts of Parliament, a Petition intituled in the above-mentioned matters was, on the 27th day of February, 1866, presented unto the Right Honorable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain by Edmund Gilling Maynard, of Chesterfield aforesaid, in the said county of Derby, Esquire, and Ann Maynard his wife, Edmund Anthony Jefferson Maynard, his only son and infant, by Bernard Lucas, of Whitecotes, near Chesterfield aforesaid, Esquire, his guardian, and Thomas Burton Maynard, of Holmwood, near Ryde, in the Isle of Wight, Esquire, and Anthony Edmund (and not Edward as advertised in the London Gazette of the 9th instant) Maynard, of the same, his eldest son, Esquire, the said Edmund Gilling Maynard being the person for the time being entitled to the possession or enjoyment of the rents and profits of the said property, praying that an Order may be made appointing Bernard Lucas and George Crompton or such other persons as his Lordship should think fit as trustees to exercise the powers of leasing the mines and minerals under, and wayleaves over the said settled hereditaments above mentioned, in the said parishes of Chesterfield, Walton, and Brampton, and containing 134A. 1R. 6P. and 8A. 2R. 16P. or thereabouts respectively, and that general powers of granting such leases may be vested on the said Bernard Lucas and George Crompton, or such other persons as the Court should think fit to appoint trustee or trustees for the purposes aforesaid in conformity with the said Acts and subject to the provisions and restrictions therein contained, such powers to be exercised with the consent of the tenant for life for the time being in the possession of the said estates who has attained the age of twenty-one years, or if there should be no such tenant for life, then without such consent, and that any person interested in the said settled hereditaments, or the trustees or trustee for the time being, may be at liberty from time to time to apply in Chambers for the appointment of a new trustee or trustees as there shall be occasion, and that the rents and royalties reserved and made payable in and by such leases may be applied and disposed of as therein mentioned. That all costs and expenses incurred or to be incurred by the said petitioners, and of the trustees so to be appointed as hereinbefore mentioned, of and incident to the said application, may be taxed as between Solicitor and client, and be paid by the said trustees out of the first funds that may hereafter be in their hands arising from the said rents and royalties. And notice is also hereby given, that such Petition will in due course be heard before his Honor the Vice Chancellor, Sir William Page Wood, and that the office of Messrs. Thomas White and Sons, Solicitors, of No. 11, Bedford-row, in the county of Middlesex, is the place where the said petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court or any notice relating to the subject of the said Petition.

THOS. WHITE and SONS.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session holden in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session holden in the 21st and 22nd years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to Amend and Extend the Settled Estates Act of 1856;" and in the matter of a copyhold of customary messuage or tenement devised by the will of Charles Venner, deceased, situate on the west side of, and being numbered four in Great Garden-street, in the parish of St. Mary, Whitechapel, in the county of Middlesex, together with the warehouses, workshops, manufactory, lofts, or sheds in the yard or rear of the said messuage, and a smaller messuage or tenement on the north side of and adjoining the said first-mentioned messuage, with the appurtenances, now or late in the occupation of the tenants, executors, administrators, or assigns of Ann Maria Glascock, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition in the above-mentioned matters was, on the 2nd day of March, 1866, presented to the Right Hon. the Master of the Rolls, by Robert Dawson Crawford, of No. 3, Hereford-street, Park-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, Frank Wallen Crawford, of Trinity College, Dublin, in Ireland, Esquire, and George Pelsant Dawson, of Yaldhurst House, Lymington, in the county of Southampton, Esquire, praying that, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts of Parliament, certain articles of agreement in the said petition fully set out and therein stated to bear date the 31st day of January, 1866, and made between the said George Pelsant Dawson and Robert Dawson Crawford, of the one part, and Charles Stanley Osborne, of No. 36, Finchley-road, in the county of Middlesex, Brassfounder, of the other part, might be confirmed, and that upon the said Charles Stanley Osborne procuring the execution of a proper surrender of a certain indenture of lease of the 17th day of October, 1850, being the now existing lease of the said messuages and premises, and obtaining from the Lord of the Manor of Stebbanheath, otherwise Stepney, a license to make such demise, a fresh lease of the said premises might be authorised to be granted to the said Charles Stanley Osborne, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for the term of 50 years, to commence and be computed as from the 25th day of December, 1865, and upon the terms and under and subject to the stipulations, covenants, agreements, provisoes, matters, and things in the said agreement of the 31st day of January, 1866, in that behalf mentioned, such lease to be in all respects in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts of Parliament in that behalf contained; and that notice of the order to be made thereon might be endorsed on the probate of the said testator's will, or that his Lordship would make such further or other order in the premises as should seem meet and the circumstances of the case might require. And notice is hereby also given, that the petitioner may be served with any order of the Court, or of the Judge in chambers, or notice relating to the subject of the said petition, at the office of their Solicitors, Messrs. Ravenscroft and Hills, situate at No. 30, Great James-street, Bedford-row, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 7th day of March, 1866.
