SYDNEY, Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 31, 1866.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold Levees at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 2nd of May, on Saturday, the 12th of May, and on Wednesday, the 6th of June next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at these Levees shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levees, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 31, 1866.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Royal Highness The Princess of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold Drawing Rooms at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 23rd of May, and on Saturday, the 9th of June next, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to Her Royal Highness at these Drawing Rooms shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS TO BE HELD, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY BY HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS OF WALES, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Princess.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Princess.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, except in attendance upon the Ladies of their families.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 2nd day of April, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT.

Earl Russell.
Mr. Secretary Cardwell.
Mr. Bruce.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prevent until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among Sheep, Cattle, and other Animals" (which Act has since been extended and continued in force until the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament), after reciting that "a contagious or infectious disorder known or described as the Sheep Pox or Variola Ovina, now prevails among the sheep in some parts of the United Kingdom, and it is necessary to take measures to prevent such disorder from spreading," it was and is enacted (amongst other things) as follows, namely:—"In case any Sheep or Lambs infected with or labouring under the said Disorder, or any Disorder of the like Nature, be exposed or offered for sale, or be brought or attempted to be brought for the Purpose of being so exposed or offered for Sale, in any Market, Fair, or other open or public Place where other animals are commonly exposed for Sale, then and in any such case it shall be lawful for any Clerk or Inspector or other Officer of such Fair or Market, or for any Constable or Policeman, or for any other Person authorized by the Mayor, or by any Two Justices of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the Place, or for any person authorized or appointed by Her Majesty in Council, to seize the same, and to report such Seizure to the Mayor or any Justice of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the Place; and it shall be lawful for such Mayor or Justice either to restore the same, or to cause the same, together with any Pens, Hurdles, Troughs, Litter, Hay, Straw, or other Articles which he may judge likely to have been infected thereby, to be forthwith destroyed or otherwise disposed of in such manner as he shall deem proper, or as may be directed in manner hereinafter provided; and any Person bringing or attempting to bring any Sheep, Lambs, Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Calves, or other horned Cattle, into any such Market, Fair, or open or public Place as aforesaid, knowing such Sheep, Lambs, or Cattle to be infected with or labouring under either of such Disorders as aforesaid, shall, upon Conviction thereof, forfeit and pay for each and every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds."

And whereas in and by the said Act, it was and is further enacted as follows, that is to say:

"If any Person turn out, keep, or depasture any Sheep or Lambs infected with or labouring under the said disorder, in or upon any Forest, Chase, Wood, Moor, Marsh, Heath, Common, waste Land, open Field, Road Side, or other undivided or uninclosed Land, such person shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds."

And whereas in and by the said Act it was and is further enacted (for the more effectually preventing the spreading of contagious or infectious disease) as follows, that is to say :—

"It shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of Sheep, Cattle, Horses, Swine, or other Animals, or of Meat, Skins, Hides, Horns, Hoofs, or other parts of any Animals, or of Hay, Straw, Fodder, or other articles likely to propagate Infection; and also for the purpose of purifying any Yard, Stable, Outhouse, or other place, or any Waggon, Carts, Carriages, or other vehicles; and also for the purpose of directing how any Animals dying in a diseased state, or any Animals, Parts of Animals, or other Things, seized under the Provisions of this Act, are to be disposed of; and also for the Purpose of causing Notices to be given of the Appearance of any Disorder among Sheep, Cattle, or other Animals, and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the Provisions of this Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and all Provisions for any of the Purposes aforesaid, in any such Order or Orders contained, shall have the like Force and Effect as if the same had been inserted in this Act; and all Persons offending against the same shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, or such smaller Sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council may in any case by such Order direct;"

And whereas a Contagious or Infectious Disorder, known or described as the Sheep Pox, or Variola Ovina, now prevails among the Sheep, in a certain part of the United Kingdom, and it is expedient to take measures for preventing such Disorder from spreading;

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby, in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in them as aforesaid, make and ordain the several Orders and Regulations following; that is to say :—

I.

It shall not be lawful for any person to remove any Sheep or Lambs to or from the parish of Earl's Colne, in the county of Essex, or to drive or conduct any Sheep or Lambs through or by way of such parish.

II.

No skin, wool, horns, or hoofs of any sheep or lambs shall be moved out of the aforesaid parish without a certificate in writing, signed by some person who may have been authorised by two or more Justices of the said county of Essex to seize sheep or lambs infected with or labouring under the said disorder, under the first section of the said Act, to the effect that such skin, wool, horns, or hoofs, did not belong to any sheep or lambs forming part of a flock affected by the said disorder, or to any sheep or lambs on the farm or premises in which such disorder prevails.

III.

All Sheep and Lambs dying in any of the stages of the said disease, wheresoever such death or deaths shall or may occur, shall forthwith be buried by the person or persons in whose possession such Sheep or Lambs may be at the time of death, with their skins and wool on, in pits of not less than five feet in depth, and the carcasses so buried shall be covered with quicklime.

IV.

All sheds and places whatsoever, and all railway trucks and other vehicles which may or shall have been used or occupied by Sheep or Lambs affected by the said disease, shall forthwith, after having been so used, be thoroughly cleansed with water, and immediately afterwards purified with chloride of lime by the person or persons in possession of such sheds, places, trucks, and vehicles respectively.

V.

Every person in possession of any Sheep or Lambs in or amongst which the said disease shall manifest itself, shall forthwith give notice, in writing, of the fact to the Chief Constable or Superintendent of Police of the county or borough in which such Sheep or Lambs may be.

VI.

And it is further ordered that this Order shall continue in force until revoked.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 5th day of April, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Earl of Clarendon.
Sir George Grey, Bart.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prevent until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," (which Act has since been extended and continued in force until the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament), after reciting that "a contagious or infectious disorder known or described as the Sheep Pox or Variola Ovina, now prevails among the sheep in some parts of the United Kingdom, and it is necessary to take measures to prevent such disorder from spreading," it was and is enacted (amongst other things) as follows, namely :—"In case any Sheep or Lambs infected with or labouring under the said Disorder, or any Disorder of the like Nature, be exposed or offered for Sale, or be brought or attempted to be brought for the Purpose of being so exposed or offered for Sale, in

"any market, fair, or other open or public Place where other animals are commonly exposed for Sale, then and in any such case it shall be lawful for any Clerk or Inspector or other Officer of such Fair or Market, or for any Constable or Policeman, or for any other person authorized by the Mayor, or by any Two Justices of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the Place, or for any person authorized or appointed by Her Majesty in Council, to seize the same, and to report such Seizure to the Mayor or any Justice of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the Place; and it shall be lawful for such Mayor or Justice either to restore the same, or to cause the same, together with any Pens, Hurdles, Troughs, Litter, Hay, Straw, or other Articles which he may judge likely to have been infected thereby, to be forthwith destroyed or otherwise disposed of in such manner as he shall deem proper, or as may be directed in manner hereinafter provided; and any Person bringing or attempting to bring any Sheep, Lambs, Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Calves, or other horned Cattle, into any such Market, Fair, or open or public Place as aforesaid, knowing such Sheep, Lambs, or Cattle to be infected with or labouring under either of such Disorders as aforesaid, shall, upon Conviction thereof, forfeit and pay for each and every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds."

And whereas in and by the said Act, it was and is further enacted as follows, that is to say:

"If any Person turn out, keep, or depasture any Sheep or Lambs infected with or labouring under the said disorder, in or upon any Forest, Chase, Wood, Moor, Marsh, Heath, Common, waste Land, open Field, Road Side, or other undivided or uninclosed Land, such Person shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds."

And whereas in and by the said Act it was and is further enacted (for the more effectually preventing the spreading of contagious or infectious disease) as follows, that is to say:—

"It shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of Sheep, Cattle, Horses, Swine, or other Animals, or of Meat, Skins, Hides, Horns, Hoofs, or other parts of any Animals, or of Hay, Straw, Fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection; and also for the purpose of purifying any Yard, Stable, Outhouse, or other place, or any Waggon, Carts, Carriages, or other vehicles; and also for the purpose of directing how any Animals dying in a diseased state, or any Animals, Parts of Animals, or other Things, seized under the provisions of this Act are to be disposed of: and also for the purpose of causing Notices to be given of the Appearance of any Disorder among Sheep, Cattle, or other Animals, and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and all Provisions for any of the Purposes aforesaid, in any such Order or Orders contained, shall have the like Force and Effect as if the same had been inserted in this Act; and all Persons offending against the same shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay any

"Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, or such smaller Sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council may in any case by such Order direct;"

And whereas a Contagious or Infectious Disorder, known or described as the Sheep Pox, or Variola Ovina, now prevails among the Sheep, in a certain part of the United Kingdom, and it is expedient to take measures for preventing such Disorder from spreading;

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby, in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in them as aforesaid, make and ordain the several Orders and Regulations following; that is to say:—

I.

It shall not be lawful for any person to remove any Sheep or Lambs to or from the parish of Great Yeldham, in the county of Essex, or to drive or conduct any Sheep or Lambs through or by way of such parish.

II.

No skin, wool, horns, or hoofs of any sheep or lambs shall be moved out of the aforesaid parish without a certificate in writing, signed by some person who may have been authorised by two or more Justices of the said county of Essex, to seize sheep or lambs infected with or labouring under the said disorder, under the first section of the said Act, to the effect that such skin, wool, horns, or hoofs, did not belong to any sheep or lambs forming part of a flock affected by the said disorder, or to any sheep or lambs on the farm or premises in which such disorder prevails.

III.

All Sheep and Lambs dying in any of the stages of the said disease, wheresoever such death or deaths shall or may occur, shall forthwith be buried by the person or persons in whose possession such Sheep or Lambs may be at the time of death, with their skins and wool on, in pits of not less than five feet in depth, and the carcases so buried shall be covered with quicklime.

IV.

All sheds and places whatsoever, and all railway trucks and other vehicles which may or shall have been used or occupied by Sheep or Lambs affected by the said disease, shall forthwith, after having been so used, be thoroughly cleansed with water, and immediately afterwards purified with chloride of lime by the person or persons in possession of such sheds, places, trucks, and vehicles respectively.

V.

Every person in possession of any Sheep or Lambs in or amongst which the said disease shall manifest itself, shall forthwith give notice, in writing, of the fact to the Chief Constable or Superintendent of Police of the county or borough in which such Sheep or Lambs may be.

VI.

And it is further ordered that this Order shall continue in force until revoked.

Arthur Helps.

THE following Notices have been received by the Clerk of the Council from the Local Authorities appointed under the Orders of the Lords of the Council relating to the "Cattle Plague," and are published in the London Gazette in conformity with the requirements of their Lordships' Orders :—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Salop adjourned Sessions, 31st March, 1866.

It was resolved,—

That in lieu and instead of rules numbered 8 and 13, as framed and adopted on the 24th instant, the following amended rules be approved and adopted, namely :—

8. That in case of change of tenancy, an incoming tenant may, with the licence of a Justice, bring animals from any premises then or then late in his occupation, in the counties of Radnor or Montgomery, or in the franchise of Wenlock, or in either of the boroughs of Bridgnorth, Ludlow, Oswestry, or Shrewsbury, into lands in his occupation in an uninfected district, of the county of Salop, during fourteen days from the 25th March instant, such animals having been in the possession of the party removing for thirty days immediately preceding, provided that they do not pass through an infected district.

13. In order to allow for the breeding of stock within infected districts, any animal if sound, may between 6 a.m. and 7 p.m. be moved with a breeding licence on any public highway, for any distance not exceeding four miles, provided there has not been any case of cattle plague within thirty days and within two miles of the farm, house, or homestead, or yard, or building, from or to which such animal is to be removed; and provided that all such places which have been affected with cattle disease, further back than the period of thirty days, shall have been effectually disinfected, prior to any such moving.

By the Court,
Loadale, Clerk of the Peace for the county of Salop.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Renfrew.

NOTICE is hereby given, by the County Board, being the local authority under "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1856," for the county of Renfrew, that the existing resolutions and Orders of the Board are continued, and remain in full force within the said county, subject to the modification contained in the following resolution, adopted by the board at its meeting held on 31st March, 1866, viz. :—

That from and after the date of the publication of this notice, it shall not be unlawful to remove any animal (meaning thereby any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine), from any place within the county of Renfrew to any other place therein, provided that the animal is free of disease, and that the cattle plague does not exist, and has not existed at the farm or place from which the animal is to be removed, or within one mile thereof, for at least thirty days preceding the date of removal; and, where the disease has existed, that the place has been disinfected for said period; and further, that the animal when removed shall be accompanied by a declaration signed by the owner, and a certificate signed by two members of the District Committee, to that effect; which declaration and certificate the owner shall be bound immediately to deliver to the Cattle Constable of the district; and provided also, that the animal shall be removed within forty-eight hours after the date of the certificate; but nothing herein contained shall authorise the bringing of any animal as aforesaid, excepting sheep, into the county of Renfrew from any burgh therein, or from any other county or place.

Notice is hereby further given, that any person contravening the above resolution, shall thereby act unlawfully, and shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds sterling.

By order of the County Board or Local Authority.

Ja. Caldwell, Clerk to the Board.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 14.)—IRELAND—SOUTH-WEST COAST.

Flashing Light on Calf Rock.

THE Corporation of the port of Dublin has given notice, that on and after the 30th day of June, 1866, a light will be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on the Calf rock, near the west end of Dursey island at the north side of entrance to Bantry bay, south-west coast of Ireland.

The light will be a flashing white light, showing a flash every fifteen seconds, at an elevation of 141 feet above the mean level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 17 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses, of the first order.

The tower is circular, 102 feet high from base to vane, painted red with a broad white central belt, and stands in lat. 51° 34' 10" N., long. 10° 14' 50" West of Greenwich.

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.

24th March, 1866.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts :—English Channel, No. 1598; Sheet 3, No. 2675; Ireland, West coast, No. 1824*b*; Sheet 11, No. 2424; Kenmare river, No. 2495; and River Thames to Mediterranean, No. 1. Also, British Islands Lights List, No. 451.

Leicester Union.—Parish of Saint Margaret.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish of Saint Margaret, in the county of Leicester;—

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said parish is situate;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Saint Margaret, in the county of Leicester, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons.

And whereas, at a meeting of the select vestry of the said parish of Saint Margaret, held at the Vestry Room, Humberstone-gate, on Thursday, the 15th day of February last, in pursuance of a notice duly given, it was resolved,—

“That the Poor Law Board be requested to
“issue an order under their seal of office,
“directing that the Act passed on the 5th
“August, 1850 (13 and 14 Vict., c. 57),
“entitled ‘An Act to prevent the holding
“of vestry or other meetings in churches,
“and for regulating the appointment of “‘vestry clerks,’ shall be applied to and “put in force within this parish, as re-

"gards that portion of the said Act only
"which relates to the providing of accom-
"modation for holding vestry meetings."

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made their application in writing to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above resolution.

Now, therefore, we, the Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, hereby order and direct as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—That so much of the said Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to prevent the holding of vestry or other meetings in churches, and for regulating the appointment of vestry clerks," as relates to the providing of a room or suitable building for the purpose of holding vestry meetings for the transaction of any business of, or relating to, the said parish of Saint Margaret, shall forthwith be applied to, and be put in force within, the said parish.

ARTICLE II.—That a copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this twenty-second day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

North Aylesford Union.—Parish of Northfleet.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish of Northfleet, in the County of Kent;

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the Division or Divisions in which the said Parish is situate;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Northfleet, in the county of Kent, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons.

And whereas, at a meeting of the Vestry, held at the Vestry Room of the church of the said parish, after public notice in that behalf, on Thursday, the 1st day of March instant, it was resolved:—

"That the Poor Law Board be requested to
"issue an Order under their seal of office,
"directing that the Act passed on the 5th
"day of August, 1850 (13 and 14 Vict.,
"c. 57), entitled 'An Act to prevent the "holding of vestry or other meetings in
"churches, and for regulating the appoint-
"ment of vestry clerks,' shall be applied
"and put in force within this parish, as "regards that portion of it only which
"relates to the appointment of a vestry
"clerk."

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made their application in writing to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above resolution.

Now, therefore, we, the Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, hereby order and direct as follows; that is to say:—

ARTICLE I.—That so much of the said Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty as relates to the appointment of a vestry clerk shall forthwith be applied to and be put in force within the said parish of Northfleet.

ARTICLE II.—That the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said parish shall, until the Poor Law Board shall otherwise direct, pay to the officer for the time being appointed to the said office of vestry clerk for the said parish, under the authority of the Statutes in such behalf and this Order, for the performance of the duties of such office, a salary of thirty pounds per annum.

ARTICLE III.—That the salary of such vestry clerk shall be payable up to the day on which he ceases to hold such office, and no longer, and shall be paid by quarterly payments at the several quarters ending at the usual Feast Days in the year, namely, Lady Day, Midsummer Day, Michaelmas Day, and Christmas Day, with a proportionate sum to be paid to his executors or administrators, in case he shall die while holding such office.

ARTICLE IV.—That a copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this twenty-fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.
