SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of May, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to contagious or

"infectious diseases in cattle and other animals," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time to continue, or to renew, if expired, all or any of the provisions, in the first part of that Act contained, for such time as shall be specified in such Order:

And whereas it is provided in the eleventh section of the said Act, which section is in the first part thereof, that Part I of the said Act shall continue in force until the fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and no longer, unless continued or renewed by Order of Her Majesty in Council:

And whereas it is provided in the twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth sections of the first part of the said Act as follows:—

Slaughter of Diseased Animals.

"12. Every Local Authority shall cause all animals affected with the cattle plague within its district to be slaughtered, and shall, by way of compensation for every animal so slaughtered, pay to the owner thereof such sum not exceeding twenty pounds, and not exceeding one half of the value of the animal immediately before it was affected with the cattle plague, as to such Local Authority may seem fit.

"13. Every Local Authority shall cause every animal that has died of cattle plague, or has been slaughtered in consequence of being affected with cattle plague within its district, to be buried as soon as possible in its skin in some proper place, and to be covered with a sufficient quantity of quicklime or other disinfectant, and with not less than six feet of earth.

"14. Every Local Authority shall, within its district, cause the yard, shed, stable, field, or other premises in which any animal affected with cattle plague has been kept while affected by the disease, or has died or been slaughtered, to be thoroughly cleansed and disinfected, and all hay, straw, litter, dung, or other articles that have been used in or about any such animal to be burnt or otherwise destroyed; and no fresh animal shall be admitted into any yard, shed, stable, field, or other premises in which any animal affected with cattle plague has been kept while affected by the disease, or has died or been slaughtered, until the expiration of thirty days after the cleansing and disinfecting of such premises in pursuance of this Act; and every Local Authority shall direct the disinfecting the clothes of, and the use of due precautions by Inspectors, Cattle Overseers, and others in contact with animals affected by the cattle plague, with a view to prevent the spreading of contagion.

"15. A Local Authority may, if it thinks fit, cause to be slaughtered any animal that has been in the same shed or stable, or in the same herd or flock, or in contact with any animal affected with cattle plague within its district; and the owner of any animal so slaughtered may either dispose of the carcase on his own account, with a licence from some officer appointed in that behalf by a Local Authority, or may require the Local Authority to dispose of the same, in which case such Local Authority shall pay to the owner thereof, by way of compensation, such sum, not exceeding twenty-five pounds, as may equal three-fourths of the value of the animal slaughtered: Provided always, that the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them, may reserve animals (ordered to be slaughtered as aforesaid) for the purpose of experimental treatment.

"16. The Local Authority may require the value of any animal slaughtered under this Act to be ascertained by Officers of the Local Authority or by arbitration, and generally may impose conditions as to evidence of the slaughter and value of the animals slaughtered: Provided that no compensation shall in any case be paid in respect of any animal found affected with cattle plague in a market or on a highway, or in respect of any animal which has been moved or otherwise dealt with in contravention of this Act, or any Order of a Local Authority made in pursuance thereof."

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the provisions of the above recited sections of the first part of the said Act were continued in force beyond the said fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and until the tenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six; and whereas it is considered expedient that the same be further continued:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the power vested in Her by the said Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said recited provisions contained in the twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth sections of the first part of the said Act shall continue in force on and after the said tenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of May, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 333rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, subject to the provisions contained in the fifth part of the said Act, it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by Bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time to do within its district all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section: And whereas the Mersey Docks and Harbour Board, being the Pilotage Authority for the Port of Liverpool, and in the seas and channels leading into and adjacent thereto, according to the meaning of the said recited Act, have submitted for the consent of Her Majesty in Council the several Bye-laws relating to the pilotage of their said district, of which a copy is contained in the schedule hereunto annexed: And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that all the said Bye-laws are proper and reasonable: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve and signify

Her consent to the said Bye-laws, as Bye-laws of the said Mersey Docks and Harbour Board, with respect to the pilotage of their said district.

Arthur Helps.

SCHEDULE.

BYE-LAWS MADE BY THE MERSEY DOCKS AND HARBOUR BOARD, WITH RESPECT TO PILOTS, PILOT BOATS, AND PILOTAGE.

124. The duties of the Superintendent of the Pilotage Department shall be to exercise a supervision and control, under the Board, over all the Master Pilots, Pilots, and Apprentices; to see that full reports of all occurrences affecting the Service be furnished by them; and that the Acts of Parliament and Bye-laws are duly observed by all in their respective stations.

To take charge of the books and correspondence of the Department, including the summoning of all meetings of the Pilotage Committee, as well as of all persons whose attendance may be required by the Committee, and in all respects to be the official organ of the Board in all matters relating to Pilots or Pilotage.

It shall be his especial duty to see that the Pilot Boat Stations are effectively occupied day by day, for which purpose he shall occasionally, as time and circumstances admit, visit the whole of the stations, and shall enter the particulars of such inspection in his journal.

It shall be his duty once in every two years to visit and survey all the Ports and anchorages, lights and lighthouses, buoys, beacons, and sea-marks, a knowledge of which is required from Pilots on passing their examinations, and he shall carefully note and report, for the good of the Service, all changes in the buoys, channels, lights, &c., which may have been made since the date of his last survey, and all further changes which may appear to him desirable in the interests of navigation.

He shall hold a strict and careful survey of every Pilot Boat in the months of October and November of every year, and shall report upon her condition and equipment as required by Bye-law 131.

He shall promptly attend to any complaint made to him by Shipowners, Masters, or others, in reference to Pilots or Pilotage, giving the necessary directions thereon to the Master Pilots, or Pilots, and shall generally do all that lays in his power to maintain and increase the discipline and efficiency of the Pilot Service.

He shall keep a journal of all special occurrences relating to Pilots and Pilotage, such journal to be posted daily, and to be laid before the Committee at every ordinary meeting.

The whole time of the Superintendent shall be devoted to the service of the Board.

The Offices of the Pilotage Department shall be open for public business between the hours of 9 A.M. and 5 P.M., during which time the Superintendent shall be on duty daily (Sundays excepted).

125. Every Pilot Boat shall have a Master, Second Master, and Third Master. The Masters or Owners shall be jointly entitled to take ten apprentices; but they are not to have a greater number than ten in respect of one boat at any time. The Pilots shall be appointed to their respective boats by the Board, so, and in such manner, that each boat may carry an equal number, or as nearly so as is practicable. No Pilot shall be removed from a boat to which he has been appointed by the Board, without three months' notice in writing on the part of the Master or the Pilot; and in every such notice the reasons shall be assigned for the proposed removal. A copy of such notice shall be sent to the Superintendent, and laid before the Committee at their next following meeting. The Pilots shall be boarded in rotation, so that every man shall have a fair proportion of labour, the Master in command always having a discretionary power to set the turn aside in peculiar cases, the circumstances of every such case being duly entered in the log book, and reported to the Committee if so required.

126. The Master and Second Master of each pilot-boat (and the Third Master also in case of necessity), shall take command and proceed to sea in her by turns, and the Master remaining on shore shall appoint pilots to outward-bound vessels, and transact the other necessary business of the boat. Every Master shall maintain due subordination, sobriety, and good order, amongst the crew of his boat, both at sea and in port, and shall, whilst in turn for boarding vessels, always use his utmost exertions to approach and board vessels requiring pilots; and every pilot, or other person, serving on board, or belonging to the boats, shall at all times cheerfully submit to and execute all the lawful commands of the Master. The Masters shall on no occasion leave the boats when at sea, except in cases of emergency. They shall keep exact journals of the proceedings of every cruise, which shall contain, in particular, accounts of all vessels boarded or piloted inwards, and the time and place of boarding them; and shall enter in their journals, every two hours, the position of their boats. Whenever the Committee may require it, a copy of the journal of any cruise shall be sent into the office in time to be submitted to the Committee at their next following meeting. The Masters shall instruct their apprentices in the use of charts, and in all other matters, a knowledge of which is by the Bye-law numbered 129, required of apprentices on their applying to be licensed. In the event of a Master being on leave of absence through sickness, or from any other cause, he shall not, during such absence, exercise any authority over the boat, the crew, or the apprentices.

127. Every Pilot shall go on board of and proceed to the stations in the boat to which he belongs, whenever and as often as he may be required by the Masters, and while on service, shall not on any pretence whatever, leave his boat except on duty. Every Pilot when not actually employed, shall attend daily, at such time and place as may be fixed upon and appointed for that purpose by the Master of the boat, to receive such orders and directions as may then and there be given by the said Master; and in case the Owners, Masters, and crew of any boat, shall suffer any loss by reason of the non-attendance or neglect of any Pilot, such loss shall be borne by the Pilot so neglecting or refusing to attend. Every Pilot shall, whenever he is required, assist, as far as he is able, in performing all necessary repairs to the boat, her rigging, sails, and materials; and in case of refusal or neglect, the Master may employ another person in his stead, the expense whereof shall be deducted from his share of the earnings of the said boat. On taking charge of a vessel, he shall exhibit his license to the Officer in command. He shall use his utmost care and diligence to conduct the ships and vessels under his charge without damage or doing injury to others; and shall report to the Committee all accidents which may have happened to such vessel while under his direction, within twenty-four hours after his discharge.

He shall duly keep the lead going when in charge of any ship or vessel while under weigh. He shall not leave his vessel until she is safely anchored in the river, nor then leave her without a written permission from the officer in command, or on being relieved by a qualified pilot by order of the Master of the boat. He shall not lay any vessel aground without a written order from the Owner or Commander. In the case of outward-bound vessels, he shall repair on board in sufficient time before leaving the dock or basin, to ascertain if the vessel he is about to take charge of is ready to proceed to sea, or to anchor in the river.

He shall behave himself with strict sobriety, and with due respect towards the owners, commander, and officers of any vessel under his charge.

He shall always have with him, when on duty, a good watch, a tide-table, a copy of Part 6 of the Mersey Dock Acts Consolidation Act, 1858, and of other Acts, and of so many of these Bye-laws as relate to Pilots, Pilot Boats and Pilotage, his license, and a Pilot flag as described in Bye-law 146.

When received on board a Pilot Boat from an outward-bound ship, or otherwise, he shall submit to the authority and direction of the Master while he remains on board such boat, in all respects as if he were one of her crew.

He shall obey and execute all orders received from the Board, or the Pilotage Committee, or the Superintendent.

Whenever he shall observe any alteration in any of the sand-banks or channels, or that any buoys, beacons, or light vessels have been driven away, broken-down, damaged, or out of place, he shall forthwith deliver or send a correct statement thereof in writing to the Superintendent, for the information of the Marine Surveyor and the Board.

It is expected that reasonable and sufficient food and sleeping accommodation shall be provided for Pilots who may be required to remain in charge of ships and vessels lying at anchor in the river, whether inward or outward bound; and unless such provision be made, the Pilot of any such vessel may leave and come on shore, subject always to his giving the Master of the vessel at least one hour's previous notice of his intention, and to his reporting the case at the Superintendent's Office at the earliest possible moment, in order that the Superintendent may make strict enquiry into the particular circumstances of every case in respect to which any complaint may arise, and no Pilot shall leave a vessel under the authority of this Bye-Law unless he has reasonable ground of complaint and acts with due temper and discretion.

128. Every candidate for apprenticeship will be required to prove to the satisfaction of the Board that he is not less than fifteen nor more than eighteen years of age; that he is able to read and write correctly; and that he has a competent knowledge of arithmetic, before he can be considered eligible for the Pilot Service. He may then (if approved by the Board) after one month's probation, be apprenticed for seven years.

The proposed indentures and satisfactory testimonials, including a surgeon's certificate that the candidate is of sound health, shall in every case be submitted to the Board; and after the indentures have been approved by the Board, and signed by the Masters and Apprentice, they shall not be cancelled by any private agreement, without the permission of the Board; but the Board shall have the power of cancelling any such indentures, either at the request of the parties, or upon any misconduct on the part of the Apprentice, deserving, in the judgment of the Board, of such punishment; and all indentures shall, by express stipulation, therein contained, be made subject to the exercise of this power by the Board.

On the back of every indenture there shall appear a statement of time lost by the Apprentice, and of pecuniary losses which shall have been incurred by the owners of the Boat, by reason of the negligence or want of attention of the said Apprentice, such statement to be initialed by the Masters (or one of them) and the Apprentice, on the respective dates when such losses shall be charged against the said Apprentice.

At the completion of the seven years of apprenticeship, according to the date on the records of the Department, the Master shall appear before the Board with such Apprentice and his indentures, and the Board shall thereupon examine the statement on the back of the indentures, and decide as to the amount of time and money, if any, that shall be made good before his indentures shall be surrendered. The indentures shall also be submitted to the inspection of the Examiners whenever a candidate shall appear before them for examination.

The Masters shall report on the conduct of the Apprentice at the expiration of the first and second year's apprenticeship. If such report shall be satisfactory, at the end of the second year he shall be examined as to the progress he has made in learning the duties of a Pilot, but if it shall appear at the expiration of either the first or second year of apprenticeship, that he has not made reasonable progress, or is unlikely to prove a good and efficient Pilot, the Board may thereupon, if they shall think fit, discharge him from the Service.

At the expiration of the third year of apprenticeship he shall be eligible for examination for a third-class license. After having held a license of the third-class for two years, he may come up for examination for a second-class license, and at the expiration of his apprenticeship (if holding a second-class license) he may be admitted to examination for a full license.

The name of every apprentice shall be entered in the Pilot's Character Book on his first entering the service.

129. No person having served in a Liverpool pilot boat, according to the provisions of the preceding Bye-law, shall be licensed to act as a Pilot, until he shall also have passed a creditable examination on the following subjects:—

He must be able to give a correct and seaman-like description of the harbours, docks, and piers of Liverpool, Birkenhead, Garston, Chester, Beaumaris, Holyhead, Isle of Man, Pile of Foudre, and Fleetwood; he must know the course and distance between any two places within the limits prescribed by the Board; the rise and set of the tides; the depth and character of the soundings; the best anchorages and where to stop a tide; the sand-banks, rocks, shoals, and other dangers; the landmarks, buoys, perches, and lights; the variation and deviation of the compass, and the application thereof; he must be able to set off a ship's position on the chart; he must understand the complete management of a vessel; to bring her to anchor, and to keep her clear of her anchor in a tideway; to moor, unmoor, and get under weigh; and how to handle a vessel under any circumstances.

He must further produce certificates of service as assistant pilot and leadsman in vessels under the charge of a first-class pilot, inward and outward, for every cruise of his boat for twelve months; such certificates to be obtained after the second year of apprenticeship. He must also produce a certificate from his Masters as to his conduct and sobriety; and no Pilot shall receive a full license without the production of a satisfactory certificate from his Masters, unless there shall appear to the Board good reasons for deviating from this regulation.

Second and third-class licenses will not be granted between the 25th of September and 25th of March.

130. Second and third-class pilots are limited (except in cases of necessity) to conduct vessels of, but not exceeding, the undermentioned registered tonnage and draught of water, viz.:—

Pilots 2nd class	500 tons	16 feet.
3rd class	250 „	12 „

Any vessel exceeding the given tonnage and draught which may from necessity take on board a Pilot of a class not authorised to conduct her, shall, if possible, exchange him for a duly authorised Pilot, out of any boat she may meet, and such boat shall make the exchange, in order that he may be forwarded to the boat on the first western station to be put on board the first vessel requiring a pilot of the class to which he belongs, and every Pilot shall inform the Master of any vessel he may be put in charge of, of his true position in the service.

131. Every Pilot Boat shall be of the burthen of forty tons or upwards, and shall be painted in uniform colours, viz.:—black bulwarks; yellow sheer streak and gunwale; paint streak, green; black bends; white to copper or water line. She must be kept in good repair, and well found with masts, rigging, sails, anchors, cables, and every other necessary material, including two punts for boarding vessels, a good telescope, two lanterns, a swivel or other small gun, and a supply of rockets and blue lights for making signals; also a sufficient number of life buoys and life belts, and no Pilot or Apprentice shall refuse to wear such life belts whenever the Master shall think it necessary to use them. She shall always have on board an approved chart of the Bay of Liverpool, on which the boundary lines of the several stations hereafter mentioned shall be distinctly marked by the Superintendent; also charts of the latest survey of the River Dee, Beaumaris, Holyhead, Isle of Man, Pile of Foudre, and Fleetwood, for the use of the Pilots and Apprentices. She shall have her number painted on each bow, in white, the figures to be as large as the depth of the black paint will admit of; and the same number shall be painted upon her mainsail, foresail, and staysail, in black figures, four feet long, on the third and fourth cloths from the after leach; and in the case of the mainsail at an equal distance, between the close reef and the gaff. Her name and number, together with the name of the Master, and the port to which she belongs, shall be painted on the stern, in letters and figures one-inch broad and three inches long. Good and sufficient accommodation for the Master and Crew shall be provided on board of every Pilot Boat, at the expense of the owners.

132. Repairs to a Pilot Boat not exceeding fifty pounds in amount may be executed as required at the discretion of the Master. Repairs involving a larger expenditure shall be previously sanctioned by the Surveyors of the Pilots' Insurance Association and the Owners of the Boat: in case of disagreement the matter shall be referred to the Committee, whose decision shall be final.

Whenever it is reported to the Committee that any boat has become inefficient or otherwise unsuitable for the Pilot Service, the Committee shall hear evidence, and determine whether a new boat is or is not necessary, and if they decide in the affirmative, estimates and plans, with the name of the proposed builder, shall be submitted to the Owners for their approval, each of whom shall be entitled to one vote in respect of every sixty-fourth share held by him in the old Boat, and in the event of a majority of the votes being given in favour of the new Boat being built by the proposed builder in accordance with the submitted plans, the new Boat shall be thereupon built under the supervision of the Master, the Superintendent, and such Surveyor as the Owners shall appoint on their behalf.

133. The Pilot Boats shall strictly keep their stations and perform their duties as follows, viz :—

The First Boat shall cruise off Point Lynas, or to the northward and eastward of it, as wind and weather may permit, or circumstances may require; but not further to the westward than the Middle Mouse, or eastward than Priestholm Island, bearing S.S.W. by compass. The duty of the First Boat shall be to offer the services of, and to furnish Pilots to all vessels inward-bound; and for that purpose the Master shall use his best endeavour to speak all such inward-bound vessels as may come within the limits of his station, without respect to their being from a foreign voyage, or otherwise. And if it becomes necessary for this boat to chase any vessel to the northward, or out of the fair-way track, the Second Boat shall remain on such station, and board all vessels wanting Pilots, which vessels shall be exchanged at the end of the cruise. Whenever the wind is blowing strong from the eastward, with a high sea, the first Boat may cruise under the lee of Carnel Head for the purpose of giving ships the earliest opportunity of obtaining Pilots, and of boarding them with greater facility. The Boat on the first Western Station shall twice each day telegraph to Point Lynas (by means of numeral flags) the number of Pilots and licenced Apprentices remaining on board; the first of such signals to be made as soon after daylight as possible, and the latter signal to be made about three or four o'clock in the afternoon, in order that the earliest and latest information on this subject may be forwarded to the Superintendent.

The duty of the Second Boat shall be to be near the first, and to see that the Master of the First Boat does his duty; and also to board and give pilots to any vessel homeward bound, that may not have been boarded by the First Boat; and, in case the Master of the First Boat shall refuse, neglect, or omit to put a pilot on board any such vessel requiring one, the Master of the Second Boat shall furnish such vessel with a pilot, and shall note the circumstance, with all the particulars of time, place, and weather, in his journal; and immediately on his return to Liverpool shall report the same to the Superintendent. And as soon as the First Boat has left her station, the Second Boat shall succeed to it.

The Third Boat shall cruise to the eastward of Point Lynas, but not further eastward than the west-end of the Great Ormshead, bearing S.S.W. by compass, and board any vessels that may pass the First and Second Boats, and when the Second Boat has left her station, this boat shall succeed her.

The Fourth Boat shall cruise as far west as the eastern limit of the Third Boat, and eastward until Talargoch Chimney (on the west end of the Barland) bears S.S.W. by compass, which line of bearing leads about $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles to the westward of the present position of the N.W. Light-ship. The duty of this boat shall be to board and furnish pilots to all vessels requiring them within the limits of her station, whenever the Second and Third Boats may be out of sight or refuse or neglect to board, or whenever such vessels shall have passed the limit of the Third Boat's station; and to see that the Second and Third Boats perform their duty, in like manner as the Second Boat is to look after the First. And when the Third Boat has left her station, this boat shall succeed her.

The station of the Fifth Boat shall be to the westward of a line drawn from the Point of Ayr, and the Horse Channel Fairway Beacon, bearing S.W. by S. by compass nearly, but she shall not at any time be at a greater distance from the N.W. Light-ship than five miles. When the boat which is to relieve her shall be at either of the Fairway Beacons, she shall come to meet such relieving boat for the purpose of receiving such of her hands as may have been boarded while she was on the Hoylake Stations, after which she shall take the station of the Fourth Western Boat.

The especial duty of the Sixth Boat shall be to receive Pilots from outward-bound vessels, for which purpose she shall meet such vessels at either of the Fairway Beacons. It shall also be her duty to supply Pilots to all vessels that may be to the eastward of a line drawn from the Point of Ayr and the Bell Beacon of the Horse Channel on the bearing of S.W. by S. by compass nearly, but not to the northward of the Queen's Channel Bell Beacon, except when the First Boat is not within a reasonable distance. The Second Hoylake boat shall not proceed to relieve the First Hoylake boat until she shall have been first relieved by the boat coming from Liverpool for that purpose.

The Seventh Boat shall follow and take the Pilots out of vessels outward-bound; for which purpose one of the Masters, all the apprentices, and as many Pilots belonging to the said boat as shall be required by the Master, shall be on board; and as soon as all the Pilots are taken on board from vessels outward-bound, she is to return with them to Liverpool. This duty shall be performed by the next boat that has the turn for the second Hoylake station.

134. The other Boats shall be kept in constant readiness to perform any extra service that may occur: the last boat upon turn for regular service to have the preference; but none of them shall, without the order of the Superintendent, leave the port, under any pretence whatever, save to assist vessels in distress or other pressing emergency, or for the purpose of surveying the banks for the instruction of the crews and apprentices; and in case any boat shall be absent, save as aforesaid, when required to go upon the regular service of the port, she shall forfeit her turn.

135. All boats are to take their turn or rotation for service in the same order as they arrive from sea, and in case of more boats than one leaving Liverpool, by order of the Superintendent, to proceed to the stations at the same time, it shall be lawful for the first boat upon turn to commence boarding vessels, and furnishing them with pilots, as soon as she has got to the westward of the Hoylake Boat; but it is to be clearly understood that this privilege extends only to boats actually on their passage to the westward stations, and not after they have arrived there, and that in boarding vessels, when more than one boat is in sight, the first boat upon turn is, on all occasions, to take precedence.

136. The Masters and crew of any boat convicted of boarding and piloting any ship or vessel out of her regular turn shall forfeit every advantage gained thereby, in respect of pilotage inwards and outwards, to the Masters and crew of the boat which may be declared by the Committee to be entitled thereto.

137. All Pilot Boats, whilst upon their Stations and in turn for boarding vessels, shall, during daylight, and as a signal offering the services of a Pilot, keep constantly flying at the mast-head a red and white flag of large dimensions, the upper horizontal half of which shall be white, and the lower half red; such flag to be carefully kept clean. The only exception to this rule shall be whenever it may be necessary for the Second Western Boat to hoist a boarding flag and to supply ships with Pilots in consequence of the First Boat being off her station, and in such case the Second Boat shall hoist her number instead of the ordinary pilot flag, in order that she may be correctly reported by the Telegraph-keeper at Point Lynas as the Second Boat on the station.

During the night the Boat on turn for boarding shall exhibit lights in accordance with Article 8 of the Merchant Shipping Amendment Act, 1862.

138. Every Pilot Boat in the Service shall, once in each year, commencing on the first day of April, in such rotations, and at such times as may be fixed by the Committee, having due regard to the interest and convenience of the Service, sail to and make an accurate examination and survey of the following ports and places, namely:—Fleetwood, Lancaster Channel, or River Lune, Pile of Foudre, Whitehaven, Holyhead, Beaumaris, Chester River, and the anchorages round the Isle of Man. Every port shall be visited during one ebb and flow of the day-tide, independently of any stay it may be found necessary to make on the night-tide; and unless there shall be good reason to the contrary, every anchorage, mark, buoy, and danger, shall also be examined by daylight, in order that the survey may be carefully and efficiently performed.

The Superintendent shall give notice in writing to the Master of every Boat ordered on this Survey, at least twenty-four hours before the time appointed for sailing, and shall go on board when the Boat is ready for sea and muster the crew; when one of the Masters, half of the Pilots, and all of the Apprentices are hereby directed and required to be present, and to proceed upon and remain on board during the Survey, unless reasonable cause of absence can be shown to the satisfaction of the Committee; and the Masters and Pilots shall go upon the Survey by turns, so that each individual shall go once in two years. The Master shall keep an exact and accurate journal of their proceedings, which shall contain all such remarks and information as he shall make or obtain relative to the lighthouses, landmarks, buoys, perches, and other sea-marks, as well as all rocks, sandbanks, and other dangers, and the depth of water within the limits of the Survey. He shall obtain a certificate from some principal officer of the revenue at each of the ports above-mentioned, stating that he has visited the port. The journal and certificates shall be delivered to the Superintendent within twenty-four hours of his return to Liverpool. No more time shall be spent on the Survey than is necessary for the purposes above mentioned; nor must any ship or vessel be boarded by or furnished with a Pilot from any Boat whilst on the Survey, except such ship or vessel shall be in distress, in which case the particulars of her situation shall be accurately noted in the journal.

139. Each Master is required, after each arrival of his Boat from sea, to enter in the inward-bound book, in the office, within one hour after such arrival if in the day-time, or if in the night, by nine o'clock in the morning following the arrival of his boat, from what station, the time, and where lying, and shall sign his name to such entry. And the Master on shore shall enter in the outward-bound book the sailing of his boat, the number of the boat and men, the time when, and the place from which she has sailed, and to what station she is bound.

140. In the event of the first boat on turn not proceeding to its destination at the proper time, the Master in charge shall thereupon become liable to the penalty hereinafter mentioned, and the second boat shall proceed to the station; and in case the Master of the second boat shall neglect so to do, he shall thereupon become liable to the like penalty.

141. The boat following boat, or the boat sailing for the second Hoylake station, shall (when required so to do by a written order from the Superintendent), take any hands belonging to the boat next on turn for the fourth Western or first Hoylake station, and also to any other of the Western Boats; and the first Hoylake Boat or fourth Western Boat, shall receive any Pilots so sent, and pass them on to the next Western Boat and so on, until they have joined their own boat: but if she has boarded all her hands and left the station, then the boat bringing them down shall board them on the first vessels wanting Pilots.

142. The boat on the first Western station, when she shall have boarded all her Pilots except two first class or four of the second and third class, shall (in order that she may return to Liverpool) transfer them to the second boat, which boat shall receive and board them on the first vessels requiring Pilots of their class.

143. No Master of a Pilot Boat shall, without the sanction of the Board, carry to sea, or receive on board the boat, or in any other way assist in putting on board any ship or vessel, for the purpose of piloting or conducting her, any person either not duly licensed, or whose licence shall have been suspended or withdrawn by an order of the Board, or which shall not have been renewed.

144. The earnings of each Pilot Boat, including all compensation and rewards for assisting vessels in distress, shall be divided amongst the Owners and Crew in the following proportions, viz:—

Owners—
For the Boat -	-	-	-	2½ shares
For each licensed Apprentice -	-	-	-	¾ share.
For all unlicensed Apprentices	1½	"
Masters -	-	-	-	1 " each.
Pilots, 1st class -	-	-	-	1 " "
do. 2nd " -	-	-	-	¾ " "
do. 3rd " -	-	-	-	¾ " "

But the Board have power to alter such apportionments from time to time, in such manner as they shall judge most conducive to the interests of the Service.

Every pilot shall deliver all money received by him for pilotage, with an account and vouchers to the Master of the boat to which he belongs, on the day following that on which they are received; or in case of such vouchers and money being received at sea, then they shall be delivered to the said Master as soon as the Pilot returns to port or joins his boat at sea; and all claims for extra days shall be inserted in the certificate for Pilotage, and signed for by the Commander of the vessel.

145. A Surgeon or other medical man appointed by the Board shall examine all Pilots and Apprentices on entering the Service, or any who may report themselves unfit for duty, and no Pilot or licensed Apprentice shall receive any share of the boat's earnings during his absence from duty on the plea of sickness or bodily hurt, unless he shall have obtained the certificate of such medical officer at the commencement of his sickness, and unless the same has been forwarded to the Pilotage Committee through the Master of the Boat; and if any such Pilot or Apprentice shall be disabled from doing his duty, he or the Owners, as the case may be, shall be entitled to two-thirds and no more of the proportion that would be otherwise payable to, or in respect of the said Pilot or licensed Apprentice, of the boat's earnings for the space of three months, provided such sickness or hurt has not been occasioned by drunkenness, gaming, or other vice, the fact to be determined by the Board upon such evidence as may be brought before them.

The medical officer shall also visit and report upon all cases of sickness, at such intervals as the Board may in each case think fit to direct.

146. Every Pilot shall provide himself with a flag three feet long by two feet broad, corresponding in colour and pattern with the distinguishing number of the boat to which he belongs. On taking charge as Pilot of any vessel, he shall cause his flag to be hoisted on board such vessel, at the gaff end, under the ensign, or wherever it may be most conspicuously seen (except on the foremast), particularly by a Pilot Boat in chase; and he shall keep his flag continually flying until he is discharged or relieved by another Pilot. This Bye-law shall apply to all vessels outward or inward bound, at sea or in port, under weigh or at anchor, and under all circumstances, so long as she is in charge of a Pilot.

On perceiving a Pilot Boat in chase by night, the Pilot in charge of the vessel so chased shall cause a light to be hoisted, where it may be best seen by the Pilot Boat; and he shall direct that this light be lowered and re-hoisted every five minutes as a signal that the vessel is provided with a Pilot.

147. Pilots in charge of vessels at anchor in the river or channel shall cause white lights to be constantly exhibited at night, one on the forestay and the other at the gaff end, to be not less than eight feet above the upper top-rail of the bulwarks, so long as at anchor in pilot water.

148. All Pilots shall obey the Bye-laws of the Board; and also all orders and directions that may be given to them by the Water Bailiff, Harbour, Dock, and Pierhead Masters, relative to the docking, towing, transporting, or removing vessels under their charge.

149. The following Rates of Pilotage shall be chargeable in respect of the neighbouring Ports hereinafter mentioned, namely:—

Port of Chester, any part North of Hilbre Island—Liverpool rates.

Port of Chester, any part South of Hilbre Island—Liverpool rates and half as much more.

Lancaster, Fleetwood, or Pile of Foudre—Liverpool rates and half as much more, and travelling expenses.

Beaumaris—Inward-bound—Liverpool rates and half as much more, and travelling expenses.

Outward-bound, foreign, putting into—Liverpool outward rates, half as much more, and travelling expenses.

Outward-bound, coasting, putting into—Liverpool outward coasting rates, half as much more, and travelling expenses.

Garston—Inward-bound—Liverpool rates.

Outward-bound—Liverpool rates.

Whenever a Pilot shall be applied for and sent to Garston to take a vessel to sea, and shall not then be employed, the Owners or Agents of such vessel shall pay a further sum of Five Shillings to such Pilot for every time he may be so applied for and not then employed.

All Pilotage rates are to be charged for every foot of water a vessel may draw, and so in proportion for every half-foot, but no allowance to be made for any draught of water above or under half a foot; and no vessel, whatever may be her draught of water, to pay for less than eight feet. No vessel to be deemed a coasting vessel, so as to be liable to a reduced rate of Pilotage, unless she shall bonâ fide have been employed in the coasting trade for six months, and if trading outwards shall sail from the port of Liverpool on a coasting voyage.

If the Pilot be not discharged and the pilotage paid within two hours after the vessel is brought to anchor, or given into the charge of the Pilots of the place she is bound to, he shall be paid ten shillings and sixpence a-day for every day or part of a day he may be detained afterwards. Having conducted a vessel into any of the above ports, a Pilot shall not join his boat again for the purpose of piloting any other vessel during the cruise on which the Boat was engaged at the time he left her. No Pilot shall make any agreement for, or receive any greater sum of money for pilotage, than is allowed by the Act of Parliament and these Bye-laws.

Steamers or other vessels proceeding on an experimental trip not further than the Bell Beacon or North-West Light-ship, shall be charged full outward and half inward Pilotage.

The rates for docking and transporting shall be as follows, viz.:

From one Dock to another	... £1 0 0
To or from Garston	... 2 0 0

The amount of compensation and travelling expenses to be allowed to Pilots carried beyond limits (which are not provided for in this Bye-law), or for extraordinary services, shall, in every case, be decided by the Board.

150. Any Pilot may, upon receiving written authority from the Superintendent, proceed to any port or place in the United Kingdom, for the purpose of taking charge of, and conducting any ship or vessel to the Port of Liverpool. And no vessel having a Pilot on board, under this regulation, shall be obliged to take another Pilot, or shall be subject to any higher or other rate of pilotage than is established by these Bye-laws or Act of Parliament.

151. The Masters of steam vessels, trading from this port to Ireland or Scotland, requiring Pilots, must apply to the Superintendent, who shall thereupon cause to be appointed Pilots to such vessels out of the crew of the Pilot-Boat having the steam turn (namely, the last but one upon turn for service), which Pilots so appointed shall be at liberty, if required, to proceed and remain in such vessels during the whole of the voyage upon which they shall then respectively sail, and shall pilot them outward and inwards, for which the usual and regular rates shall be paid, together with ten shillings and sixpence per day for every day of the Pilot's absence from Liverpool, including the day of sailing from, and the day of arriving in Liverpool. Every Pilot on his return from such voyage, not finding his own boat in port, shall be carried out in the next boat sailing for the station, and put on board his said boat. But in case she shall have returned to Liverpool before he arrives on the station, he shall then be boarded on the first vessel requiring a Pilot.

152. Any Master of a Pilot Boat sending a Pilot to take charge of vessels beyond his licence limit, except in cases of necessity, shall be fined in the sum of Five Pounds, subject to be reduced by the Board if they should think fit.

153. For every extension of licence the sum of one Guinea shall be paid; and on the renewal of any licence in place of one lost, a fine of Three Guineas shall be levied, subject to be reduced by the Board if they think fit.

154. Pilots in charge of ships or vessels, on being hailed by any Pilot Boat shall on all occasions give a true account of the time when they were boarded, and the number of Pilots left on board the boat to which they belong. And all Masters of Pilot Boats, when on any of the Western stations, are also to give a true account of the number of Pilots they have on board, whenever they are required so to do by the Master of any other Pilot Boat.

155. No Owner, part Owner, or Master of any Pilot Boat, nor any Pilot, or licensed Apprentice, shall, at any time while acting as such, have or hold any share or interest in any Steam Tug Company, or in any Steam Tug, or in any Steam Boat, occasionally used for the purpose of towing vessels.

156. All instances of neglect of duty shall be brought before the Board; and no Master Pilot shall compromise any offence of a Pilot.

157. All complaints of offences against the Acts of Parliament, or the foregoing Bye-laws, or any of them, with respect to Pilots, Pilot Boats, and Pilotage, shall be made in writing, signed, by the party aggrieved, and delivered to the Superintendent of the Pilotage Department, or left at his office as soon as practicable; and thereupon the Superintendent shall summon the party complained of, the party aggrieved, and all such persons as the Committee may desire to examine, to attend the meeting of the Committee, which shall be first held next after the expiration of forty-eight hours from the time of the receipt by him of such complaint.

No. 23115.

or contravening any of the preceding Bye-laws, with respect to Pilots, Pilot Boats, and Pilotage, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of Five Pounds, which fine by the Mersey Docks Ferry Accommodation Act, 1860, the Board are empowered to inflict, provided that the Board shall be at liberty to reduce such fine in any case if they may think fit.

NOTE.—In addition to this penalty, any Pilot acting contrary to the provisions of any of these Bye-laws, is liable under the Act of Parliament, to have his licence recalled or suspended by the Board; and any Owner, or part Owner, offending against any of these Bye-laws, applicable to Pilot Boats, is liable to have the licence of his Boat recalled.

159. The whole of these Bye-laws, numbered from 1 to 159, both inclusive, shall commence and take effect on the 10th day of May, 1866, on which day all Bye-laws made by the Board on the 4th April, 1861, or at any other time, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by "The Mersey Dock Acts Consolidation Act, 1858, and the Mersey Docks (Ferry Accommodation) Act, 1860, shall cease, and as to any further operation thereof, are hereby rescinded. But this repeal is not to interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence previously committed, or any penalty thereby incurred, nor is it to extend to the Bye-laws made by the Board under the 333rd section of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," which are to remain in full force.

NOTE.—By "The Mersey Dock Acts Consolidation Act, 1858," sec. 337, any Justice before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence against these Bye-laws, may mitigate the amount of penalty imposed.

At the Court, at Windsor, the 9th day of May, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate at Oakhill, in the parish of Shepton Mallet, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Shepton Mallet, and of the parish of Ashwick, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the parish of Stoke Lane, otherwise called Stoke Saint Michael, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Shepton Mallet, of the said parish of Ashwick, and of the said parish of Stoke Lane, otherwise called Stoke Saint Michael, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, situate at Oakhill aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Robert John, Baron Auckland, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), with the consent of His Royal Highness Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, Duke of Saxony, Duke of Cornwall and of Rothsay, Earl of Chester, Earl of Carrick, and Earl of Dublin, Baron of Renfrew, Lord of the Isles, and Great Steward of Scotland, as the alternate patron, in right of the Duchy of Cornwall, of the rectory of the parish of Shepton Mallet aforesaid (in testimony whereof the seal of the said Duchy of Cornwall hath been affixed to this representation), with the consent of Thomas Provis Wickham, now residing at Rossmore Lodge, Cliftonville, Brighton, in the county of Sussex, Gentleman, the other alternate patron of the said rectory of the parish of Shepton Mallet aforesaid, with the consent of the Reverend Henry George John Veitch, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Kilmersdon, in the said county of Somerset, and diocese of Bath and Wells, and, as such vicar or incumbent, the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Ashwick, and with the consent of the Reverend Jacob Fussell, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Doulting, in the same county and diocese, and, as such vicar or incumbent, the patron of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Stoke Lane, otherwise called Stoke Saint Michael aforesaid (in testimony whereof they, the said Thomas Provis Wickham, Henry George John Veitch, and Jacob Fussell, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Shepton Mallet, of the said parish of Ashwick, and of the said parish of Stoke Lane, otherwise called Stoke Saint Michael, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints, situate at Oakhill aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Oakhill,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the rector for the time being of the said parish of Shepton Mallet.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Oakhill, being :—

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of May, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices described in the first schedule hereunto annexed the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year; and that the said several payments so recommended to be made by us shall commence and be calculated as from the dates which are set opposite to the names of such benefices respectively in the fourth column of the same schedule: Provided always that the grants so recommended to be made by us to the several benefices of Saint James, Gateshead, Saint Mark, Peterborough, and Wetwang-with-Fimber, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or before the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, of certificates under the hands of the bishops of the respective dioceses that an assistant curate, duly licensed by such bishop, has in each instance been employed within the parish or district during the preceding half year, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum; and provided also that a portion amounting to an annual sum of one hundred and twenty pounds of the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Great Driffeld with Little Driffeld annexed shall be paid only upon the production to us as aforesaid of a like certificate; and provided also that a portion amounting to an annual sum of one hundred and twenty pounds of the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Pickering shall, during the present suspension of the Reverend George Alexander Cockburn, Clerk, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Pickering, be paid only upon the production to us as aforesaid of a like certificate that two assistant curates, duly licensed by the Archbishop of York for the time being, have been employed within the said parish, and that one of such curates is in receipt of a salary of not less than the said sum of one hundred and twenty pounds per annum; and provided furthermore that upon and from the discontinuance or removal of the suspension of the said Reverend George Alexander Cockburn the said lastly mentioned sum of one hundred and twenty pounds per annum shall be paid upon the production to us as aforesaid of a like certificate that one duly licensed curate has been employed within the said parish of Pickering at a salary of not less than that amount; and provided also, that the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Warthill shall cease and determine immediately upon and from the avoidance of the vicarage of Gate Hemlsley, in the county and diocese of York, which may happen next after the date of this scheme; and provided also, that the grant which is hereinbefore recommended to be made by us to the benefice of All Saints, Newington, shall cease and determine immediately upon and from the avoidance of the rectory of Saint Mary, Newington, in the county of Surrey, and diocese of London, next ensuing after the date of this scheme; and provided lastly, that the grants, payment whereof is so herein recommended to be made by us conditionally upon the employment of assistant curates, shall continue in force so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the respective cures in favor of which the same conditional grants are so recommended and proposed

"And we further recommend and propose that the messuages, lands, and premises, tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, and other hereditaments, particularly described in the second and three following schedules hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—that the lands and hereditaments, described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, and therein numbered I, situate within the parish of Beckingham, in the county of Nottingham, and diocese of Lincoln, formerly belonging to the chapter of the Collegiate Church of Southwell, and now vested in us, and also the annual money payments or tithe-rents, described in the same schedule, and therein numbered II, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Beckingham, which said money payments or tithe-rents formerly belonged to the prebend of Beckingham, in the said Collegiate Church, and are now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Beckingham, and that the vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage shall be entitled to receive the net profits of the lands, annual money payments or tithe-rents and other hereditaments so recommended to be annexed by us as last-mentioned, as from the tenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four; that the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, situate in Sussex-road, Notting Hill, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London, which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the twenty-ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and made between William Honywood, of Chilton Lodge, in the county of Berks, Esquire, William Harrison, of Saint Helen's-place, in the city of London, Esquire, and Henry Cobb, of Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the said county of Middlesex, Esquire, of the first part, Charles Henry Blake, of Stanley-crescent, Notting Hill aforesaid, Esquire, of the second part, Benjamin Greene Lake, of Lincoln's-nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation for altering the boundaries of the district chapelry of Bishop Monkton, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and published in the London Gazette on the twelfth day of June, in the same year, certain portions of the parish of Ripon, in the county and diocese aforesaid, were assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Bishop Monkton, in the same parish, and such district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Bishop Monkton.'

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said district chapelry of Bishop Monkton should be altered as hereinafter mentioned and described.

"And whereas the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Ripon (heretofore the collegiate church of the said parish of Ripon), nominate from time to time to the bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, for his licence, the minor canons of the said cathedral church as curates to perform parochial duties in and over that portion of the said parish of Ripon which has not been formally assigned to, or does not otherwise belong by law, to the several consecrated churches and chapels situate within the said parish of Ripon.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of Ripon, the bishop of the said diocese (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church of Ripon, the reputed patrons of the said parish of Ripon, and also the patrons of the said district chapelry of Bishop Monkton (in testimony whereof they have affixed their common or capitular seal to this representation), and with the consents of the Reverend Joseph Jameson, and of the Reverend Robert Poole, the minor canons of the said cathedral church, and as such minor canons performing parochial duties within the portion of the said parish of Ripon lastly hereinbefore mentioned, and with the consent of the Reverend Frederick John Poole, the incumbent of the said district chapelry of Bishop Monkton (testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that the boundaries of the said district chapelry of Bishop Monkton, should be altered and extended so as to include within the limits of such district chapelry all that part of the said parish of Ripon which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green; and that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette, of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation, and without any other assurance in the law, the said part of the parish of Ripon aforesaid, so to be included within the limits of the said district chapelry of Bishop Monkton, should become, and be, and form part of, such district chapelry.

"And we humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be added to the District Chapelry of Bishop Monkton, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Ripon, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, which is comprised within so much of the township of Whitcliffe-with-Littlethorpe as is bounded on the south by the district chapelry of Bishop Monkton, sometime part of the said parish of Ripon, on the west by the township of Aismunderby-with-Bondgate, in the same parish; on the east by an imaginary line extending along the middle of the Ripon Canal, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the north by an imaginary line, commencing on the boundary which divides the said township of Whitcliffe-with-Littlethorpe from the said township of Aismunderby-with-Bondgate, at a boundary stone inscribed 'B. M. D. C., 1866. No. 1,' and placed on the eastern side of the road leading from Bishop Monkton to Ripon, at the western end of the fence dividing the plantation numbered 17 upon the tithe commutation map of the said township of Whitcliffe-with-Littlethorpe, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the plantation numbered 25A on the same maps; and extending thence, north-eastward, to and along the middle of the said fence and along the middle of the fence dividing the closes numbered respectively 16 and 19 upon the said maps from the close numbered 25 upon the same maps to the junction of the last-described fence with the fence forming the western boundary of the line of the North-Eastern Railway; and continuing thence, still north-eastward, and in a direct line across the said line of railway to the middle of the south-western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 20 upon the said maps from the close numbered 24 upon the same maps; and continuing thence, in the same direction, along the middle of the last-described fence, to its junction with the fence dividing the closes numbered respectively 20 as aforesaid and 22 upon the said maps from the close numbered 23 upon the same maps; and extending thence, first south-eastward and then north-eastward, along the middle of the last-described fence, to a boundary-stone inscribed 'B. And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

"And whereas the persons who subscribed to effect the purchase of the messuages or tenements hereinbefore referred to, did so upon the understanding that we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, should out of our common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act, pay to the minister for the time being of the said district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, the annual sum of fifty pounds by equal half-yearly payments, at the times and in the manner hereinafter stated, and upon the further understanding that, such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient, the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereto, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said district rectory of Christ Church, in Saint Marylebone, which is described in the second schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Cyprian, Marylebone.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said several pieces or parcels of land, together with the messuages or tenements thereon, which were granted, released, and conveyed to us by the hereinbefore mentioned indenture of the ninth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, subject to the leases thereof hereinbefore mentioned, together with the rents or reservations payable under or in respect of such leases, also granted, released, and conveyed unto us, and all our estate and interest therein respectively shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, become and be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the minister of the district so recommended to be constituted, so soon as one shall be appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly named Act, and in his successors ministers of the same district for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered to pay out of our said common fund, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May, or the first day of November, the amount then next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be vested in, and shall and may from time to time for and during the term of

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Putson Minor, in the cathedral church of Hereford, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the thirtieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, by the decease of the Reverend Hugh Hammer Morgan, prebendary of Putson Minor, all the hereditaments and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except any rights of patronage), became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions, applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the hereditaments and endowments aforesaid consist only of the manor of Putson Minor, and of the houses and tenements thereto belonging, which houses and tenements are held for estates of inheritance by copy of Court Roll, at small annual quit-rents, and are therefore inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said hereditaments and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the same, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said hereditaments and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend of Putson Minor, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Hereford.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us out of the common fund in the said Act mentioned, to the Archdeacon of Gloucester for the time being (provided that he shall duly reside in accordance with the provisions of the same Act, or shall have obtained licence of non residence), the annual sum of sixty-three pounds on the first day of January in every year, and that a proportionate part of the first such payment, calculated from the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, up to the first day of January last, shall be made immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and that every payment shall be made only on production to us of a certificate under the hand of the bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol for the time being, that the Archdeacon claiming the same has duly resided within the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, according to the provisions of the said Act, or has been legally exempt from such residence.

"And we further recommend and propose, that if a vacancy shall occur in the said Archdeaconry on any other day than the first day of January, the grant hereby recommended to be made payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the Archdeacon making the vacancy or his representatives, and the Archdeacon succeeding to the said Archdeaconry.

and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications; viz.:

WITTON-CUM-TWAMBROOKS.—Forthwith wholly within the church and within three yards of the school-house; also in the old part of the churchyard, except for the burial of widowers, widows, parents, and children of those already buried therein in now existing vaults or walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately entombed, that is, enclosed by stone or brickwork properly cemented; except also in such earthen graves as can be opened, not less than five feet deep, without exposure of coffins or disturbance of entire bones; and interment to be discontinued, except for the burial of the widowers, widows, parents, and children of those previously buried, in the whole of the churchyard after the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

HARLESDOWN, KENT.—Forthwith wholly in the church, and also in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves in which each coffin shall be separately entombed, that is, enclosed by brickwork or stonework properly cemented, or with concrete, and except in earthen graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or disturbance of entire bones, no such grave to be less than five feet deep.

CLIFTON-ON-TEME.—Forthwith wholly in the church.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-third day of June next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of; or on some conspicuous places within; the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said twenty-third day of June next.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of May, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in

Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas an Order in Council has been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard and burial-ground hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard and burial-ground be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard and burial-ground be postponed as follows; viz.:

In St. John's Churchyard, and the New Connection Burial-ground, Dukinfield, to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the twenty-fourth of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, it was directed that burials should be wholly discontinued from and after the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the burial-ground of the Independent Chapel, Stalybridge, which Order has since been varied; and whereas it is deemed expedient that the said Order be further varied: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that such Order be modified so as to permit the continuance of interments in the burial-ground of the Independent Chapel, Stalybridge, until the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, for the members of the families of those already buried therein; no coffin to be buried in any grave less than four feet deep, or placed within a foot of any other coffin, unless it be enclosed by concrete not less than six inches thick, or embedded in charcoal, and enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Whereas it has been reported to Us, that the number of Recruits required to be annually raised for Our Army is now greatly larger than the number formerly required to be annually raised, and that it is consequently desirable to revise the existing arrangements for the recruiting of Our Army, and to inquire how far that recruiting and the general organization of Our Army has been affected beneficially or otherwise by the Act 10 and 11 Victoria, cap. 37, intituled "An Act for limiting the time of service in the Army."

And for the better discovery of the truth in the premises, We do, by these presents, give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power and authority to make such inquiry as aforesaid, either in London or at the Recruiting Depôts, or other places of the United Kingdom, as to your judgments may seem best, and in the manner which you may deem most expedient, and to call before you, or any three or more of you, such persons as you shall judge necessary, by whom you may be the better informed of the

And We do further, by these presents, give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power and authority, to cause all persons to bring and produce before you, or any three or more of you, all and singular records, books, papers, and other writings, touching the premises, which shall be in the custody of any of them.

And We further will and command, and by these presents ordain, that this, Our Commission, shall continue in full force and virtue, and that Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, shall and may, from time to time, proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein mentioned, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And We do hereby command all and singular the Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, Officers, Ministers, and all other Our loving subjects whomsoever, as well within liberties as without, to be assistant to you, and each of you, in the execution of these presents.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, and in respect of letters, newspapers, Parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post.

And whereas by an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office," it is enacted that, in order to prevent packets of an unwieldy bulk or an inconvenient size being transmitted by the post, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, at any time or times thereafter, by Warrant under their hands, to fix the maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post, and from time to time to repeal or revoke such maximum weight, wholly or in part, and declare any other maximum weight in lieu thereof, and that all letters shall be forwarded, conveyed, and delivered by the post in conformity with any such Warrant, and also in conformity with and under and subject to all such orders, conditions, limitations, regulations, and restrictions as to the form, size, or dimensions thereof, whether in proportion to the weight or otherwise, as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from time to time direct.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have, by two certain Warrants under their hands, bearing date respectively the 17th day of March, 1865, and the 27th day of December, 1865, fixed and limited the dimensions of letters and packets transmissible by the post, and it is expedient to make such other regulation with regard to certain of such letters and packets as is hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now we, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said before mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant under our hands, order and direct as follows :—

1. That notwithstanding anything in the said recited or referred to Warrants, or in any other Warrant or Warrants of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury now in force, respectively contained to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster-General for the time being from time to time and at any time hereafter to authorise and allow to be forwarded and transmitted by the post any letters or packets of any description whatever, exceeding two feet in length or one foot in breadth or depth, which he in his discretion shall think fit, provided that the several other regulations, conditions, and restrictions for the time being in force and applicable to such letters and packets shall be in all respects observed and fulfilled.

2. That the term "by the post" used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as the like term used in the said recited Acts.

3. That this Warrant shall come into operation on the fourteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

4. That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by Warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other regulations in lieu thereof.

N.B. The contractors are to supply good, fat, well-fed Ox Beef, as NO HEIFER MEAT will be admitted.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty reserve to themselves an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the Sheerness contract, which is to include supplies to all ships and vessels between Chatham and the Great Nore, both inclusive; also the Naval Barracks at Sheerness.

Parties tendering for Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Sheerness, are to specify in their tenders a rate per 100 lbs. for live oxen, delivered in the usual manner; and also a rate per 100 lbs. for fresh or beef, delivered in the carcass, should the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty think proper to demand the beef to be delivered in the carcass, instead of live oxen, during any period of the contract; and no attention will be paid to any offers not so made.

Separate tenders must be made for each port, and at a rate per 100 lbs., and no attention will be paid to any offers not so made. Contractors, in claiming payment for supplies of beef, are to make out their invoices in pounds at per 100 lbs.

The cattle for Falmouth to be slaughtered on the spot, and the cattle for Portland to be slaughtered not further from that port than Weymouth; the Contractors for Portland and Dartmouth are also to deliver the meat on board Her Majesty's ships and vessels.

The Contractor for Portland and Weymouth is to reside at Weymouth.

The Contractor for any of the other places is to reside on the spot, or to have an agent resident there.

Conditions of the contracts may be seen in the Lobby of the Department of the Controller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, W.C.; or by applying to the Superintendents of the Victualling Establishments at Deptford, Gosport, and Plymouth; the Superintendents of Her Majesty's Dock Yards at Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerness, and Pembroke; the Agent for the Victualling at Haulbowline; the Officers conducting the Packet Service at Dover, Liverpool, and Southampton; the Secretary to the Postmaster-General, Dublin; to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Berwick, Cowes, Dartmouth, Falmouth, Harwich, Hull, Jersey and Guernsey, Newhaven, Penzance, Ramsgate, Weymouth, Yarmouth, Greenock, Galway, Londonderry (for Lough Foyle), Waterford, Westport; and to the Postmasters at each of the other places.

Forms of tender may also be obtained on application at the Lobby of the Department above mentioned, or to the proper officer at either of the above places.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an Agent appointed by him, should attend at this office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the Department of the Contrôller of the Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £1,500 for the due performance of each of the contracts of Sheerness, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Queenstown and Kinsale; and in the sum of £300 for each of the other Contracts.
