Whitehall, June 4, 1866.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by Robert Montgomery, Lord Belhaven, K.T., Her Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the Queen, which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:—

May it please your Majesty,

THE gracious letter of your Majesty, on the recurrence of the annual meeting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, has been received by us with every feeling of sincere and respectful gratitude.

The assurance of continued countenance and protection, so long received by the General Assembly from your Majesty and your Royal ancestors, is in the highest degree gratifying to us.

Very lively feelings of satisfaction are awakened by the recognition which your Majesty has been pleased to make of that attachment to your Majesty's person and Government which we most strongly feel.

While earnestly desirous to discharge aright the important duties to which we are called, we are gratified by the confidence which your Majesty has condescended to express in the zeal, prudence, and loyalty that may be shown in conducting our deliberations, and by the prayer of your Majesty that our counsels may tend to advance the best interests of the people whose spiritual benefit it is our duty to endeavour to promote.

We are gratified by the re-appointment of Lord Belhaven, Knight of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle, as representative of your Majesty's person in the General Assembly; a nobleman possessing many hereditary and personal claims on our regard, and whose continued and warm attachment to the Church of Scotland has been abundantly evinced by eminent services and liberal support.

The gift of two thousand pounds, for promoting the spiritual benefit of the inhabitants of the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, which your Majesty has been pleased again to renew, we receive with heartfelt gratitude; and it shall be our anxious endeavour to expend it in the way best fitted to promote the important object for which it is bestowed.

That the ever blessed and eternal King, the God and Father of our Lord and Saviour Christ Jesus, may encompass your Majesty with His favour, as with a shield, bestowing every Christian grace, protecting your person, upholding your Government, and securing the stability of your Throne, that He may bless abundantly the Prince and Princess of Wales, and every member of the Royal Family, and that after a long and honoured reign, your Majesty may receive the Crown of Life that fadeth not away, are the sincere prayers of,

May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal, and most obedient subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by John Cook, Moderator.
