AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 22nd day of June, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Mr. Monsell.
Mr. Bruce.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent until the "first day of September, one thousand eight "hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then "session of Parliament, the spreading of conta- "gious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, "and other animals," and from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act passed in the session of the twenty- eighth and twenty-ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and nineteen, it is (amongst other things) enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time, to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection, and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act:

And whereas the said Act has been amended and explained by an Act passed in the twenty- ninth year of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Act of the eleventh "and twelfth years of Her present Majesty, "chapter one hundred and seven, to prevent the "spreading of contagious or infectious disorders "among sheep, cattle, and other animals:"

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," has lately appeared, and now prevails, amongst cattle in England and Wales:

And whereas divers Orders have been made by the Lords of the said Council in relation to the cattle plague, which were consolidated and amended by an Order bearing date the 24th day of March last:

And whereas provisions are contained in the said Order of the Privy Council to regulate the movement of cattle on any highway, and such movement without a licence as therein described is prohibited, except for a distance not exceeding five hundred yards, from one part of the same farm to the other:

And whereas the holding of markets for the sale of cattle is prohibited by the said Order until the 1st day of June, 1866, except in the case of a market held with the licence of the Privy Council for the sale of cattle intended for immediate slaughter, which term hath, by an Order of the said Council, been extended from the said 1st day of June until the said Lords of the Council shall otherwise direct:

And whereas there is a market held for the borough of Liverpool, at Stanley, in the township of West Derby, in the county of Lancaster, which is known by the name of the Liverpool New Cattle Market, which is also used by the inhabitants of the township of Birkenhead, in the county of Chester, for the sale of cattle, and the holding thereof has been licensed by the Lords of the said Council, by instrument bearing even date herewith, for the sale of cattle, intended for immediate slaughter, imported from Ireland, and landed at the Clarence and Collingwood Docks as therein specified, so long as the said above-men- tioned Orders shall remain in force, or until the revocation thereof as therein provided, subject to all the conditions, provisions, and regulations in the said first-mentioned Order contained applicable to such market:

And whereas it is provided by the said Order of the 24th of March last, that in the case of cattle brought to any market other than the Metropolitan Cattle Market, they shall in no case be taken beyond such limits as may be described in the licence of the Privy Council allowing such market, and shall be subject to such conditions with respect to their movement within such limits as may be imposed by such licence:

And whereas in the said licence for the holding of the above-mentioned market, it is provided that no cattle brought into the said market shall be taken alive beyond the limits of the municipal boundaries of the borough of Liverpool, with special provisions for cattle moved to the said township of Birkenhead, or elsewhere than to the borough of Liverpool, and it is expedient that certain other regulations should be made in this behalf:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby order, that notwithstanding such provisions in the said first-mentioned Order respecting the movement of cattle, cattle sold in the said market may, until the 30th day of September next, if the said licence shall so long continue in force, be moved from the said market to any slaughter-house in the towns of Blackburn, Bolton, Bury, Rochdale, Warrington, and Wigan, in the county of Lancaster, and in the city of Chester, in the county of that name, to be there immediately slaughtered under such regulations as the Local Authorities for the counties of Lancaster and Chester respectively, shall, from time to time, make and issue in regard to the movement as well as the places, times, and manner of slaughtering of such cattle:

Provided, that if any cattle shall be moved for a distance exceeding five miles in a direct line from such market, the cattle shall be moved by railway only from the market to their ultimate destination, or to the nearest slaughter-house within one mile of the station, except in respect of cattle to be moved to Chester, which shall be driven, taken, or conveyed along the shortest route from the said market, across the River Mersey, to one of the landing-places at the Woodside or the Birkenhead Ferry, and from such landing-place through the town of Birkenhead to the railway station, and thence by the railway to Chester: Provided also, that all cattle so removed shall be so marked that the date of their sale can be distinctly ascertained, and shall be slaughtered within the space of four days after exposure in the said market.

Every such regulation shall be published by the said Local Authority in some newspaper circulating in the borough of Liverpool, and by a notice affixed in some conspicuous place in the said market.

Every person who shall contravene this Order, or any regulation of the Local Authority made under it, shall be guilty of an offence, and be subject to the like penalty as in the case of a contravention of any regulation in the said Order of the 24th of March last.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 22nd day of June, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Mr. Monsell.
Mr. Bruce.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent, until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep,

"cattle, and other animals," and from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act passed in the session of the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and nineteen, it is (amongst other things) enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection, and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act:

And whereas the said Act has been amended and explained by an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, to prevent the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals:"

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," has lately appeared, and now prevails, amongst cattle in England and Wales:

And whereas divers Orders in pursuance of the said first-recited Act have been made by the Lords of the said Council in relation to the Cattle Plague, which were consolidated and amended by Orders bearing date the 24th day of March and 11th day of April, 1866:

And whereas several counties are at present free from the Cattle Plague, but the said Plague exists to a considerable extent in counties respectively adjoining such counties; and it is expedient that provisions relative to the movement of animals into such counties respectively should be made as hereinafter provided:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby order that from and after the date hereof the Local Authority for the counties of Durham, Caernarvon, Merioneth, Hereford, Worcester, Warwick, Gloucester, Wilts, Hants, Surrey, Sussex, and Devon respectively may from time to time, and with a view to prevent the spreading of the said Cattle Plague, make regulations for the exclusion from such counties respectively of cattle or other animals coming from any other part of Great Britain, or for the admission of such cattle or other animals into the same respectively, subject to such conditions as to such Local Authority may seem expedient:

And such Local Authority may from time to time revoke or alter any such regulations. And no cattle or other animals shall be conveyed, brought, or taken into the said counties respectively contrary to such regulations, anything in the Orders of the 24th of March and 11th of April, 1866, to the contrary notwithstanding, after four days from the publication of such regulations, except as hereinafter provided:

Provided that no such regulation shall interfere with the conveyance of any animals by railway through or out of the county to which it refers.

This Order shall be construed in like manner as the Orders of the 24th March and 11th April, 1866, and all the provisions therein contained shall apply to this Order, so far as the same can be applicable, and the violation of any part of this Order shall be an offence subject to the penalty incurred under the said Orders by the committing of any offence against them or either of them; and the regulations made by each Local Authority under this Order shall be published in some news paper circulating within the county for which such Local Authority acts, and also in some newspaper circulating within the county or counties bordering on the county for which such Local Authority acts.

III.—Special Arrangements relative to the nine groups of the Products of Agriculture and Industry.

Art. 10. The rewards at the disposal of the International Jury for the products of agriculture and industry are regulated as follows:—

Grand prizes and money awards of the total value of 250,000 francs (£10,000).

100 Gold Medals, each of the value of 1000 francs (£40);

1000 Silver Medals;

3000 Bronze Medals;

5000 Honourable Mentions, at the utmost;

All the medals will be of the same pattern.

Art. 11. The grand prizes are intended to reward the merit of inventions, or of improvements which have brought about a great amelioration in the quality of the products, or in the processes of manufacture.

Art. 12. The award of the prizes enumerated in Art. 10 for the nine groups of agriculture and industry will be the result of the successive labours of the juries of classes, the juries of groups, and of a superior council.

Art. 13. The numerical proportion of the French and Foreign members in each of the juries of classes is shown in the annexed Table A.

Art. 14. The meetings of all the juries of classes will commence on the 1st April. At its first meeting the jury will appoint a President, Vice-President, and Secretary; a Reporter must subsequently be elected before the 10th April, 1867.

Art. 15. The juries of classes may appoint associates, or experts, to assist them, selected either from members of the other classes of the International Jury, or from persons who are not jurors: in the latter case the selection of the associate or expert must be approved by the Imperial Commission.

Art. 16. Exhibitors who undertake the functions of jurors are thereby rendered ineligible to compete for the rewards.

Exhibitors appointed by the jury of a class as associates or experts are also excluded from the competition, as regards the products of the class on which they are asked to advise.

The Imperial Commission, however, reserves the right to authorise certain exceptions to the rules laid down in the preceding paragraphs.

Art. 17. The Foreign Commissions are requested to appoint to each jury of a class delegates, whose duty it will be to furnish all necessary information to the jury respecting the exhibitors from their respective countries. The place of residence of these delegates must be communicated to the Imperial Commission before the 20th March, 1867.

The same functions as respects the French section, will be performed for each jury of a class by the corresponding Committee of Selection.

Art. 18. From the 1st to the 14th April, each jury of a class of Groups 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 10, will examine the products, and without making any distinction of nationality will classify the exhibitors who appear deserving of reward.

The jury of a class will then draw up a list of the exhibitors who, under the rule in Art. 16 are excluded from competition, and will suggest such exceptions as may seem desirable.

Finally, the jury will classify, without distinguishing their nationality, the co-operators, foremen, and workmen, whom it considers worthy of notice, either for services rendered to agriculture or industry, or for having taken a part in the production of remarkable objects in the Exhibition.

The classified lists, signed by the members who have taken a part in this work, are to be delivered by the Reporter at the office of the General Commissioner, on the 14th April, 1867, at latest.

The class juries for Classes 52 and 95, will only be required to furnish the information necessary to determine the number of awards which it may be proper to adjudge to these classes; and to nominate the associates, who will assist them in the unremitting examination which the nature of the objects exhibited requires.

Should the above-mentioned lists not have been furnished by a jury of a class by the 14th April, the Imperial Commission will direct its own officers to prepare them.

Art. 19. From the 1st to the 14th April, the juries of classes for Groups 7, 8, and 9, are to draw up the list of associates whose assistance they desire in the examination of the products during the time the Exhibition will remain open, and will furnish the information required, in order to fix the number of rewards.

Art. 20. The Presidents and Reporters of the juries of classes will be the members of the juries of groups; in the event of the absence of the Presidents, the Vice-Presidents will take their place.

In addition to these members, a President and two Vice-Presidents will be appointed for each jury of a group.

The distribution of Presidents and Vice-Presidents for the juries of groups amongst the various countries is fixed by the accompanying Table B (columns b and c).

In accordance with Art. 3, the French Presidents and Vice-Presidents will be appointed by the Imperial Commission; the foreign Presidents and Vice-Presidents will be nominated by the respective foreign Commissions. The Secretary of each jury of a group will be appointed by the Imperial Commission.

Art. 21. From the 15th to the 28th April, the juries of groups for groups 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 10, will examine all claims that come within their province, settle the classified lists drawn up by the juries of classes, and mark opposite to each name the award which they propose to make.

With respect to Classes 52 and 95, the jury of the group will only fix the number of rewards.

In the deliberations which concern each successive class the Class Jury will be associated with the jury of the group. The members thus associated are entitled to give their votes.

The preliminary labours of the juries of groups should be completed, and the result sent in to the office of the General Commissioner, on the 28th April, at latest. If the work be not finished by that day, the Imperial Commission will be compelled to take the matter into their own hands.

Art. 22. From the 15th to the 28th of April, the juries of groups for groups 7, 8, and 9, will settle the lists of associates drawn up by the juries of classes, and send in to the office of the General Commissioner suggestions relative to the number of rewards which it may be desirable to assign to each class.

Art. 23. The Superior Council of the jury will be composed of the Presidents and Vice-Presidents of the juries of groups.

This Council will be presided over by one of the Vice-Presidents of the Imperial Commission.

The Secretary and Assistant Secretary of the Imperial Commission will act as Secretaries.

Art. 24. From the 29th April to the 5th May the Superior Council will apportion the whole number of rewards amongst the various groups.

If it should appear desirable to increase the number of medals, the Council may request the Imperial Commission to deduct for that purpose 50,000 frs. (£2,000), at the most, from the sum set apart for grand prizes and money awards.

The labours of the Superior Council must be completed on 5th May at latest.

Art. 25. A report upon the exhibition of the products of agriculture and industry will be published under the direction and superintendence of a committee, the members of which will be appointed by the Imperial Commission upon the nomination of the Superior Council.

Art. 26. From the 6th to the 12th May the juries of groups specified in Art. 21 will apportion the rewards determined by the Superior Council amongst the classes of their respective groups.

The results of this work are to be sent in to the office of the General Commissioner, on the 14th May at latest.

Art. 27. During the whole time that the Exhibition remains open, the Imperial Commission will appoint fortnightly temporary associates, whose duty it will be to assist the juries of classes in the examination of the products, processes, or implements in classes 67 to 88, sent to the Exhibition for competition during the corresponding fortnight.

These associates will be selected from the lists settled, as stated in Art. 22.

On the second day of each fortnight, the temporary Committee, composed of jurors and associates, will classify the exhibitors, co-operators, and workmen whom it may consider deserving of reward, into four categories, under the heads of first prizes, second prizes, third prizes, honourable mentions, of partial competition. This list may be made public at once.

Art. 28. From the 15th to the 20th October the juries of groups for groups 7, 8, and 9, taking as a basis the return of the prizes and honourable mentions awarded by the temporary Committees, in accordance with the preceding Article, will draw up for each class a complete list of exhibitors, co-operators, and workmen, and will adjudge the rewards which have been placed at their disposal by the Superior Council.

The certificate will contain a statement of the prizes and honourable mentions which the various temporary Committees may have awarded during the exhibition to the prize-holders.

Art. 29. The juries of classes for classes 52 and 95 will submit to the Imperial Commission, on the 20th October at latest, proposals relative to the rewards reserved for them by the jury of the group.

The Imperial Commission will come to an immediate decision relative to the rewards proposed.

IV.—Special arrangements respecting a new Order of Reward.

Art. 30. A distinct order of reward is instituted in favour of the persons, establishments, or localities which, by a special organization, or special institutions, have developed a spirit of harmony among all those co-operating in the same work, and have provided for the material, moral, and intellectual well-being of the workmen.

These rewards consist of ten prizes, of the total value of 100,000 francs (£4000), and twenty Honourable Mentions;

One grand prize of £100,000 francs may, in addition, be awarded to the person, establishment, or locality, distinguished under this head by a very exceptional superiority.

Art. 31. A special jury will judge of the merit specified for this order of reward, and will determine the amount of the prizes and the form in which they will be awarded.

One of the Vice-Presidents of the Imperial Commission will act as President of this jury.

The total number of members, including the President, is fixed at twenty-five.

The number of members which the different countries will contribute to this jury is shewn in the accompanying Table (column e).

The Secretary of the Imperial Commission will act as its Secretary.

Art. 32. In the event of members not being nominated before the 1st December, 1866, in conformity with Art. 3, the Imperial Commission will select the foreign jurors from amongst the persons accredited to them by the various governments.

Art. 33. The number of members of the jury who must be present to form a quorum, is fixed at 18. The prizes and honourable mentions will be awarded according to the majority of votes. The grand prize can only be awarded by a majority of two-thirds.

Art. 34. Applications and documents describing and pointing out for the new order of reward, a person, an establishment, or a locality, must be transmitted before the 1st December, 1866, to the Councillor of State, General Commissioner.

Art. 35. The first session of the jury will be held on the 1st December, 1866, in order that they may lay down the regulations for the guidance of applicants, and commence their investigations.

Art. 36. In a second and last session, from the 15th April to the 14th May, 1867, the jury will come to a final decision on the apportionment of the prizes, and on the persons, establishments, or localities to which they are to be awarded. These prizes will be distributed at the same time as the other rewards, namely, on the 1st July, 1867.

Done and discussed by the Imperial Commission, the 7th June, 1866.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, Parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post; and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein mentioned.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas it is expedient that certain regulations should be made for the transmission of certain packets by the post, in the manner herein-after mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament and each of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows, that is to say :—

1. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize, posted in any part of the United Kingdom, addressed to the Kingdom of the Netherlands, may be transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to the Kingdom of the Netherlands, via Belgium, subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say :—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform single rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of four pence ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces, and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding eight ounces, and not exceeding twelve ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid three rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding twelve ounces, and not exceeding sixteen ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid four rates of postage ;

And for every additional four ounces in weight of any such packet above the weight of sixteen ounces there shall be charged, taken, and paid one additional rate of postage, and in charging any additional rate of postage every fractional part of such additional four ounces in weight shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with, under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

2. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize posted in any of Her Majesty's colonies, addressed to the Kingdom of the Netherlands, may be transmitted by the post from any of Her Majesty's colonies to the Kingdom of the Netherlands, through the United Kingdom and via Belgium, subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say) :

On every such packet if not exceeding two ounces in weight there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform single rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of two pence ;

And on every such packet if exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken and paid, four rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one half of a pound and not exceeding one pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken and paid, eight rates of postage ;

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of one pound, there shall be charged, taken and paid four additional rates of postage ; and in charging any additional rates of postage every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding two ounces in weight.

3. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations and conditions hereinafter contained (that is to say) :—

4. No such packet which in length shall exceed two feet (British), or in breadth or depth one foot (British), shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, unless under the special authority of the Postmaster-General.

5. There shall be no enclosure sealed, or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant sent in or with any such packet.

6. There shall be no writing upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, except the name and address of the person for whom it is intended, the name and address of the sender thereof, a trade mark and number and price of the pattern or sample contained therein ; nor shall there be any writing in any such packet, except the name and address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and number and price of the pattern or sample contained therein, which shall in all such last-mentioned cases be written or printed on labels attached to such patterns or samples, or to the bags or boxes containing the same, and not on loose pieces of paper or other material.

7. All such packets shall be sent in covers open at the ends so as to be easy of examination : Nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open cover, may be enclosed in boxes or in bags of linen, paper, or other material fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened ; but closed bags, if transparent, may be used for this purpose.

8. Every packet transmitted by the post under this Warrant, and posted in the United Kingdom, shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

9. The postage of all such packets as aforesaid posted in the United Kingdom shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant. And the postage of all such packets as aforesaid which are not posted in the United Kingdom shall also be paid at the time of the same being posted either in money or by means of postage stamps.

10. If any packet authorised to be transmitted by the post under the first clause of this Warrant shall be posted with a postage paid thereon, in the mode hereinbefore required, less in amount than the postage payable thereon under this Warrant, every such packet shall be charged with double the amount of the deficient postage.

11. If any packet sent or tendered or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the conditions and regulations established by or under the authority of this Warrant (except only as in the last preceding clause mentioned), the same shall and may be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom the same shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and any such packet, on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall, at the option of the Postmaster-General, either be free of postage or be charged with any rate of postage he may think fit, not exceeding the rate that would be chargeable on such packet as a letter.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain Warrant, in writing, under their hands, bearing date at Whitehall Treasury Chambers, the 28th day of November, 1844, did declare, consent, and direct (amongst other things), that no packet should be forwarded, conveyed, or delivered by the post within the United Kingdom containing any razor, scissors, knife, fork, or other sharp or pointed instrument, or any article, matter, or thing whatsoever, which might by pressure or otherwise be rendered injurious either to the officers of the Post Office, or to the contents of the mail bags.

12. Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby declare and direct that, notwithstanding the said recited Warrant of the 28th day of November, 1844, any packet posted for transmission by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, containing any razor, scissors, knife, fork, or other sharp or pointed instrument, keys, watch machinery, metal, metal tubing, or ore, or such like, shall and may be so transmitted, subject to the several rates of postage, and to the several orders, directions, regulations, and restrictions herein mentioned and contained: Provided that every such razor, scissors, knife, fork, or other sharp or pointed instrument, keys, watch machinery, metal, metal tubing, or ore, or such like, so contained in any packet, be securely packed and guarded. And every such packet shall not only conform in every respect to the several orders, directions, regulations, and restrictions herein contained, but the same shall also furnish sufficient protection against injury to the officers of the Post Office and to the contents of the mail bags: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the transmission by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, of any packet containing any explosive or other dangerous material or substance.

13. And we do further order and direct, that if any packet sent or tendered or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the authority of the twelfth clause of this Warrant, shall be posted or transmitted by the post without being securely packed and guarded, and without furnishing sufficient protection against injury to the officers of the Post Office, and to the contents of the mail bags, as in such twelfth clause of this Warrant provided (of which the Postmaster-General shall be the sole judge), every such respective packet shall and may be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed; and every such packet, on being so returned or given up, shall be chargeable with any rate or amount of postage the Postmaster-General shall think fit, not exceeding the letter rates of postage.

14. In order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought, in due course of the post, to be forwarded by him.

15. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise, whether any packet or any pattern or sample contained therein, transmitted under or by virtue of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive on all parties.

16. The term "weight," used in this Warrant, shall mean British weight; and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, cap. 96.

17. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, revoke, or modify any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time may appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

18. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the twenty-first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

In the Matter of Two Shares of the late Shadwell Water Works.

WHEREAS, under the direction of his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Torin Kindersley, a notice was inserted in the London Gazette of the 11th day of December, 1863, and the 15th day of March, 1864, and in the Times newspaper of the 12th, 19th, and 26th days of December, 1863, and the 16th, 22nd, and 29th days of March, 1864, and in certain other papers, by which all persons claiming to be entitled to the sum of £7726 16s. 10d. Bank £3 per Cent. Annuities, £6382 5s. 3d. Bank Stock, and £21601 17s. 10d. New £3 per Cent. Annuities, therein mentioned, and which Bank Annuities and Stock represented the amount paid into the Court of Chancery in respect of two unclaimed shares in the above Company, were directed to prove their claims and make out their title in respect of the said two unclaimed shares, at the chambers of the said Vice-Chancellor, on the day therein mentioned and since past. And whereas no person has yet established a claim to the said unclaimed shares. And whereas it appears from certain papers or memoranda which have been produced in chambers, that the persons named in the first column hereunder written were, in or about the year 1683, the owners of the thirty-six shares into which the said Shadwell Waterworks were then divided, and those appearing in the second column are supposed to have been owners of the said thirty-six shares some time between November, 1694, and 1700. And whereas in the year 1800 the Shadwell Waterworks Company sold the said Waterworks and premises to the London Dock Company for the sum of £50,000, or thereabouts, thirty-four parts of which sum were afterwards divided among thirty-four of the then shareholders of the Company, and the names of the shareholders among whom the said money was divided and the number of shares held by each shareholder are set out in the first of the said advertisements. And whereas the representatives of the holders of the said thirty-four shares claim to have the money representing the said two unclaimed shares (and hereinbefore referred to) distributed rateably among themselves in the event of no person establishing a claim by the time hereinafter named in respect of the said two unclaimed shares. Now, this is to give notice, that in pursuance of an Order made in this matter, dated the 20th day of June, 1862, and of the directions of the said Vice-Chancellor, given on the 9th day of June instant, all persons now claiming to be entitled to the said two unclaimed shares in the said Shadwell Waterworks, or in the said several sums of Bank Annuities and Stock representing such two shares, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 26th day of July next, to come in and prove their claims and make out their title at the chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Torin Kindersley, No. 3, Stone-buildings, Lincoln's-inn, Middlesex. Monday, the 30th day of July, at twelve at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated the 21st day of June, 1866.
