

and it is hereby ordered, that burials in the under-mentioned parishes shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz.:

WITTON-CUM-TWAMBROOKS.—Forthwith wholly within the church and within three yards of the school-house; also in the old part of the churchyard, except for the burial of widowers, widows, parents, and children of those already buried therein in now existing vaults or walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately entombed, that is, enclosed by stone or brickwork properly cemented; except also in such earthen graves as can be opened, not less than five feet deep, without exposure of coffins or disturbance of entire bones; and interment to be discontinued, except for the burial of the widowers, widows, parents, and children of those previously buried, in the whole of the churchyard after the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

HARLEDDOWN, KENT.—Forthwith wholly in the church, and also in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves in which each coffin shall be separately entombed, that is, enclosed by brickwork or stonework properly cemented, or with concrete, and except in earthen graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or disturbance of entire bones, no such grave to be less than five feet deep.

CLIFTON-ON-TEME.—Forthwith wholly in the church.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to order such acts to be done by or under the directions of the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do or cause to be done all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish: Provided always, that no such representation shall be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation having been duly given to the churchwardens or other persons having charge of the vaults under

Isleworth Church, has made a representation, stating that he is of opinion that, for the protection of the public health, an Order should be made for the adoption of the measures which are hereinafter set forth;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of the said vaults do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures, viz. :—

That all the coffins beneath Isleworth Church be imbedded in soil mixed with charcoal, and covered with concrete in an air-tight manner.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows; viz.:

In the Parish Churchyard, Hounslow, to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

In the Parish Churchyard, Cannington, to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

And whereas, by an Order in Council bearing date the twenty-third of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the time for the discontinuance of burials in the new part of All Saints Churchyard, Hastings, was postponed, under certain conditions, until the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six; and whereas it seems fit that the said Order be varied;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that interments be discontinued in the new part of All Saints Churchyard, Hastings (except in family vaults in which each coffin shall be separately entombed, and in family graves which can be opened without the
