MERRIMAN and PIKE, No. 25, Austin-friars, London, Plaintiffs' Solicitors.

To the above-named Defendant, Timothy Goodman.

In Chancery.—Between Sir Stuart Alexander Donaldson, Plaintiff, and Alphonse Gillot, The Delhi Railway Company, and Joseph Pully the younger, Defendants.

To the above-named Defendant, Alphonse Gillot,

TAKE notice, that the above-named plaintiff, on the 23rd day of June, 1866, issued a subpoena to hear judgment in this cause, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, to Alphonse Gillot, The Delhi Railway Company, and Joseph Pully the younger, greeting: We command you and every of you that you appear before Our Lord High Chancellor on the 23rd day of July next, or whenever thereafter a certain cause now depending in Our High Court of Chancery, wherein Sir Stuart Alexander Donaldson is plaintiff, and Alphonse Gillot, The Delhi Railway Company, and Joseph Pully the younger, are defendants, shall come on the hearing, then and there to receive and abide by such judgment and decree as shall then or thereafter be made and pronounced, upon pain of judgment being pronounced against you by default.—Witness Ourselves at Westminster, the 23rd day of June, in the 30th year of Our reign.

ROMILLY, Master of the Rolls.

The said subpoena was issued by Skilbeck and Griffith, of No. 34, Bedford-row, Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, Solicitors for the plaintiff.

And further take notice, that by an Order made in this cause, dated the 19th day of June, 1866, this Court did order that the plaintiff be at liberty, on or before the 3rd day of July, 1866, to insert in the London Gazette a notice of such subpoena to hear judgment having been issued in this cause, and that publication of such notice in manner aforesaid be, from the time when the insertion thereof in the London Gazette should have been made, deemed good service on you, the defendant Alphonse Gillot.

SKILBECK and GRIFFITH, No. 34, Bedford-row, Plaintiff's Solicitors.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the session holden in the 19th and 20th years of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of a freehold messuage or tenement, situate in Friar-lane, in the parish of Saint Martin the town of Leicester, in the county of Leicester, and in the occupation of Thomas Warburton Benfield, devised by the will of Thomas Barratt, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition in the above-mentioned matter was, on the 23rd day of June, 1866, presented to the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain by Mary Jane Fawcett, of Smeeton Westerby, in the county of Leicester, the Wife of the Reverend Richard Fawcett, of the same place, Clerk in Holy Orders, by Richard Freeman, of Tufnell Park, West, in the county of Middlesex, Esq., her next friend, praying that a contract set forth in the said Petition and dated the 1st June, 1866, for the sale of the said messuage and hereditaments to the said Thomas Warburton Benfield might be carried into effect under the direction of the Court of Chancery, or that the said messuage and hereditaments might be sold under the Order of the Court, and that in either case, Halford Adcock therein named might be directed to convey the same to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, and that the money to be received on the sale of the same might be paid into the Bank to the account of the Accountant-General of this Honourable Court to the credit of the Petitioner in the matter of an Act to facilitate Leases and sales of Settled Estates, 19 and 20 Vic., cap. 120, the proceeds of the sale of the settled estates of Thomas Barratt, deceased, and that the costs and expenses of the petitioners, and of all other parties of and incident to this application, and of and incident to the aforesaid sale, might be taxed as between Solicitor and client, and that the amount of such taxed costs and expenses might be paid out of the monies so to be paid into the Bank as aforesaid, and that the residue of the same monies might be invested in Bank £3 per Cent. Consolidated Annuities, and the dividends thereof paid to the petitioner, Mary Jane Fawcett, during her life, or until the further Order of the Court, to be for her separate use during coverture, without power of anticipation, or that his Lordship would be pleased to make such further or other Order in the premises as to his Lordship should seem meet; and notice is also given, that the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or notice relating to the subject of the
