Re SAMUEL FRISCOTT, Deceased, Intestate. Pursuant to the Statute made and passed in the Session of Parliament held in the 22nd and 23rd years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to further amend the Law of Property and to relieve Trustees."

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons having any claims or demands upon or against the estate of Samuel Friscott, late of the Royal William Victualling Yard, Plymouth, Storekeeper there, who died intestate on the 15th day of March, 1866, and letters of administration of whose estate and effects have since been duly granted to Joseph Blake Friscott, of Plymouth aforesaid, Gentleman, are hereby required to send full particulars thereof to us, the undersigned, on behalf of the said administrator on or before the 6th day of August next, at the expiration of which time the said administrator will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased amongst the parties entitled thereto, having regard to the claims of which the said administrator shall then have had notice; and that he will not be liable for the assets, or any part thereof; so distributed to any person or persons of whose claims or demands he shall not then have had notice.—Dated this 6th day of July, 1866.

PRIDHAM, WOOLLCOMBE, and PRIDHAM, Athenæum-lane, Plymouth, Solicitors to the above-named Administrator.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Will of Thomas Potts; and in the Matter of the following Acts, "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estate" (19 and 20 Victoria, cap. 120), "An Act to amend and extend the Settled Estates Act, 1856" (21 and 22 Victoria, cap. 77), "An Act to further amend the Settled Estates Act of 1856" (27 and 28 Victoria, cap. 45); and in the Matter of seven unoccupied plots of Building Land, situate near the Rosemary Branch, Southampton-street, in the parish of Camberwell; in the county of Surrey, and lying between two new roads recently laid out there; all which said seven plots of land were purchased by the said Thomas Potts, at a sale of the same, together with many other like plots, by auction, on the 18th August, 1864; and formed part of his residuary estate.

NOTICE is hereby given; that a Petition in the above-mentioned matters was, on the 25th day of June, 1866, presented to the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, by Mary Ann Potts, of Leipsic-road, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, Widow, and Thomas Potts, late of Glengall-grove, Old Kent-road, but now of Thurlow-place, Lower Norwood, in the county of Surrey, Gentleman, praying that general powers of granting building-leases of the said building-land and hereditaments mentioned in the title of the said Petition, and herein also mentioned, in conformity with the said Acts, and subject to the provisions and restrictions therein contained, might be vested in the petitioner Thomas Potts, or other the trustees or trustee for the time being of the said will; or that his Lordship would make such further or other Order in the premises as to his Lordship should seem meet. And notice is also given, that the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the offices of their Solicitors, Messrs. Mackenzie, Treherne, and Trinder, at No. 77, Gresham House, Old Broad-street, in the city of London.—Dated this 5th day of July, 1866.

MACKENZIE, TREHERNE, and TRINDER, No. 77, Gresham House, Old Broad-street, London, Solicitors for the said Petitioners.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session holden in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of eleven Cottages, situate in Flatgate, in Howden, in the county of York, devised by the Will of William Thompson, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition in the above matters was, on the 30th day of June, 1866, presented to the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, by Joseph Thompson, of Spaldington, in the county of York, Farmer, Francis John Maw, of Thorp, in Howden, in the county of York, Farmer, Mary Jane Thompson, of Spaldington, in the county of York, Spinster, Annie Thompson, of Spaldington, in the said county of York, Spinster, and William George Thompson, of Goole, in the said county of York, Chemist's Apprentice, the last two-mentioned parties, both infants under the age of twenty-one years, by the said Francis John Maw, their guardian and next friend, James Meek, of Middlethorpe Hall, near the city of York, Esq., and David Hill, of the said city of York, Esq., for the purpose of obtaining from the High Court of Chancery authority to sell the said eleven cottages hereinbefore mentioned or referred to; and that the said Joseph Thompson and Francis John Maw might be directed to convey the same unto the purchaser or purchasers thereof; and that the monies to be
