And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of July, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint George, situate at Bickley, in the parish of Bromley, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint George, situate at Bickley aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Bromley, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned, as a district chapelry, to the said church of Saint George, situate at Bickley aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint George, Bickley.’

“And, with the like consent of the said Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

“We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Saint George, Bickley, being:—

“All that part of the parish of Bromley, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, wherein the present incumbent of such parish possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north-east and east by the parish of Chislehurst, in the said county and diocese; on the south, and in part on the west, by the new parish of The Holy Trinity, Bromley, in the same county and diocese; and on the other sides thereof, that is to say, in part on the west and on the north-west by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said new parish from the parish of Bromley aforesaid, at a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed ‘B. St. G. D. C., 1866, No. 1,’ and placed on the northern side of the western entrance of the new road which leads through Bickley Park to Chislehurst, at which said point
