A T the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 25th day of September, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President. Mr. Secretary Walpole. Mr. Corry.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to prevent, until the first day of Sep-"tember, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, " and to the end of the then session of Parliament, "the spreading of contagious or infectious dis"orders among Sheep, Cattle, and other Animals" (which Act has since been extended and continued in force until the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament), after reciting that "a contagious or infectious disorder, known " or described as the Sheep Pox or Variola Ovina, "now prevails among the sheep in some parts of " the United Kingdom, and it is necessary to take " measures to prevent such disorder from spread-"ing," it was and is enacted (amongst other things) as follows, namely:—"In case any Sheep " or Lambs infected with or labouring under the "said Disorder, or any Disorder of the like "Nature, be exposed or offered for Sale, or be " brought or attempted to be brought for the Pur-" pose of being so exposed or offered for Sale, in "any market, fair, or other open or public Place "where other animals are commonly exposed for "Sale, then and in any such case it shall be lawful " for any Clerk or Inspector or other Officer of "such Fair or Market, or for any Constable or "Peliceman, or for any other person authorized "by the Mayor, or by any Two Justices of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the Place, or for "any person authorized or appointed by Her "Majesty in Council, to seize the same, and to report such Seizure to the Mayor or any "Justice of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the Place; and it shall be lawful for such Mayor or "Justice either to restore the same, or to cause "the same, together with any Pens, Hurdles, "Troughs, Litter, Hay, Straw, or other Articles "which he may judge likely to have been infected thereby, to be forthwith destroyed or otherwise disposed of in such manner as he shall deem proper, or as may be directed in manner hereinafter provided; and any person bringing or attempting to bring any Sheep, Lambs, Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Calves, or other horned Cattle, into any such Market, Fair, or open or public Place as aforesaid, knowing such Sheep, Lambs, or Cattle to be infected with or labouring under either of such Disorders as aforesaid, shall, upon Conviction thereof, forfeit and pay for each and every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds:"

And whereas in and by the said Act, it was and is further enacted as follows, that is to say:—

"If any person turn out, keep, or depasture "any Sheep or Lambs infected with or labouring "under the said disorder, in or upon any Forest, "Chase, Wood, Moor, Marsh, Heath, Common, "waste Land, open Field, Road Side, or other "undivided or uninclosed Land, such person shall, "on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay any Sum "not exceeding Twenty Pounds:"

And whereas in and by the said Act it was and is further enacted (for the more effectually preventing the spreading of contagious or infectious disease) as follows, that is to say:—

" It shall be lawful for the Lords and others of "Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or " more of them, from time to time to make such "Orders and Regulations as to them may seem " necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regu-" lating the removal to or from such parts or places "as they may designate in such Order or Orders, " of Sheep, Cattle, Horses, Swine, or other Ani-" mals, or of Meat, Skins, Hides, Horns, Hoofs, "or other parts of any Animals, or of Hay, "Straw, Fodder, or other articles likely to propa-"gate Infection; and also for the purpose of "purifying any Yard, Stable, Outhouse, or other place, or any Waggons, Carts, Carriages, or other vehicles; and also for the purpose of directing "how any animals dying in a diseased state, "or any Animals, Parts of Animals, or other "Things, seized under the provisions of this Act, " are to be disposed of; and also for the Purpose " of causing Notices to be given of the Appear-" ance of any Disorder among Sheep, Cattle, or "other Animals, and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect

"to the Provisions of this Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and all Provisions for any of the Purposes aforesaid, in any such Order or Orders contained, shall have the like Force and Effect as if the same had been inserted in this Act: and all Persons offending against the same shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, or such smaller Sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council may in any case by such Order direct;"

And whereas a Contagious or Infectious Disorder, known or described as the Sheep Pox or Variola Ovina; now prevails among the Sheep, in a certain part of the United Kingdom, and it is expedient to take measures for preventing such Disorder from spreading;

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby, in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in them as aforesaid, make and ordain the several Orders and Regulations following; that is to say:—

I.

It shall not be lawful for any person to remove any Sheep or Lambs to or from that part of the township of Congleton, in the county of Chester, which lies to the westward of the undermentioned boundary: the London-road, from near the Marsh Toll-gate to its junction with the Sandbach, the Holmes Chapel, and the Radnor Roads, and from thence a line in a north-east direction to its intersection with the River Dane; or to drive or conduct any Sheep or Lambs through or by way of the district thus defined.

II.

No skin, wool, horns, or hoofs of any Sheep or Lambs shall be moved out of the said district without a certificate in writing, signed by some person who may have been authorised by two or more Justices of the said county of Chester, to seize Sheep or Lambs infected with or labouring under the said disorder, under the first section of the said Act, to the effect that such skin, wool, horns, or hoofs, did not belong to any sheep or lambs forming part of a flock affected by the said disorder, or to any sheep or lambs on the farm or premises in which such disorder prevails.

III.

All Sheep and Lambs dying in any of the stages of the said disease, wheresoever such death or deaths shall or may occur, shall forthwith be buried by the person or persons in whose possession such Sheep or Lambs may be at the time of death, with their skins and wool on, in pits of not less than five feet in depth, and the carcases so buried shall be covered with quicklime.

IV.

All sheds and places whatsoever, and all railway trucks and other vehicles which may or shall have been used or occupied by Sheep or Lambs affected by the said disease, shall forthwith, after having been so used, be thoroughly cleansed with water, and immediately afterwards purified with chloride of lime by the person or persons in possession of such sheds, places, trucks, and vehicles respectively.

 $\mathbf{v}$ .

Every person in possession of any Sheep or Lambs in or amongst which the said disease shall manifest itself, shall forthwith give notice, in writing, of the fact to the Chief Constable or Superintendent of Police of the county or borough in which such Sheep or Lambs may be.

VI.

And it is further ordered that this Order shall continue in force until revoked.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT.

Lord President. Mr. Secretary Walpole. Mr. Corry.

HEREAS by an Order, bearing date the 7th day of June last, duly issued under the authority of the Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent, until the 1st day " of September, 1850, and to the end of the then " session of Parliament, the spreading of conta-" gious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, " and other animals," and from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act of the last session of Parliament, which Order recited that a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated as the "cattle plague," had lately appeared and then prevailed among cattle in England and Wales, and various other matters, and amongst them that a market, held in the borough of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, for the sale of cattle, had been licensed by the Lords of the Council, by an instrument bearing date the 31st day of May then last past, for the sale of cattle for immediate slaughter, the Lords of the Council did make certain provisions in regard to the movement of cattle sold in the said market, which were to continue until the 30th of September then next if the said licence should so long continue in force:

And whereas the said licence still continues in force, and it is advisable that the provisions of the Order of the 7th of June should be further continued:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby order, that the provisions of the said Order of the 7th day of June last, which would determine on the thirtieth day of this present month of September, shall be further continued until the thirty-first day of December next if the said market at Wolverhampton shall continue to be licensed as aforesaid until that day, or if not, until the revocation or other sooner determination of such licence.

Arthur Helps.

T the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 28th day of September, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Mr. Secretary Walpole. Mr. Waddington.

THEREAS by an Order, bearing date the 19th day of June last, duly issued under the authority of the Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent, until the 1st day " of September, 1850, and to the end of the then " session of Parliament, the spreading of conta-" gious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, " and other animals," and from time to time continued until the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, to the end of the then next session of Parliament, by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly, by an Act of the last session of Parliament, which Order recited that a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated as the "cattle plague," had lately appeared and then prevailed among cattle in England and Wales, and various other matters, and amongst them, that a market, held in the borough of Newcastle - upon - Tyne, in the county of Northumberland, for the sale of cattle, had been licensed by the Lords of the Council, by an instrument bearing date the 31st day of . May then last past, for the sale of cattle for immediate slaughter, the Lords of the Council did make certain provisions in regard to the movement of cattle sold in the said market, which were to continue until the 30th day of September then next, if the said licence should so long continue in

And whereas the said licence still continues in force, and it is advisable that the provisions of the Order of the 19th of June should be further continued:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby order, that the provisions of the said Order of the 19th day of June last, which would determine on the thirtieth day of this present month of September, shall be further continued until the thirty-first day of December next, if the said market at Newcastle-upon-Tyne shall continue to be licensed as aforesaid until that day, or if not, until the revocation or other sooner determination of such licence.

9. For the purposes of this Warrant every newspaper transmitted by the post, under the 5th clause of this Warrant, shall be deemed and considered a packet, and shall be charged and chargeable with a separate and distinct single rate or separate and distinct progressive and additional rates of postage according to the weight thereof, the nature of a letter, whether closed or open, or as hereinbefore respectively mentioned, notwithstanding two or more newspapers shall be enclosed and transmitted in one, and the same cover, wrapper, envelope, or bundle, and form only one parcel or bundle of newspapers, and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any such newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

10. Every packet transmitted by the post, under the provisions of the 5th clause of this Warrant, and every packet consisting of printed papers, which shall be transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with, and under, and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions following; that is to say:

Every British newspaper shall be printed and published at intervals not exceeding thirtyone days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publication, and the same shall be registered at the General Post Office in London, and shall be posted within fifteen days from the date of its publication, and the title and date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof;

Every packet shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no written letter, either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), nor any enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any word or communication printed on the contents of any such packet after the publication thereof, nor any writing, figures, or marks upon any such contents, or the cover thereof, not authorised by this Warrant, except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent, but the name or title of any newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, newsvendor, or agent by whom the same is sent may be printed on the cover thereof.

11. If any packet mentioned or referred to in the 10th clause of this Warrant be sent, or be tendered or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, otherwise than in conformity with the conditions and regulations established by or under such 10th clause, the same shall and may be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall (except in the case provided for in the clause next hereinafter contained), be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom the same shall be. addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and any such packet on being so; returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be charge-able with any rates of postage the Postmaster-General may think fit not exceeding the rates that would be chargeable on such packet as a letter.

12. If any packet mentioned or referred to in the 10th clause of this Warrant sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter, or any written communication in any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, every such letter or communication or enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or forwarded to the address on the packet, charged in either case with the full rates of postage as a letter, and the remainder of the packet may (subject to the provisions of the 16th clause of this Warrant), be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

13. Every packet consisting of patterns, or samples of merchandise, which shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter contained; that is to say:—

No pattern or sample being of any intrinsic value, or being an article or thing of a saleable nature, or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant;

There shall be no enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant sent in or with any such packet;

There shall be no writing or printing upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, or contained therein, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, and a manufacturer's or trade mark, and number and price of the pattern or sample; and every such manufacturer's or trade mark, number and price, shall be written or printed on labels attached to such patterns or samples, or to the bags or boxes containing the same, and not on loose pieces of paper or other material;

All such packets shall be sent in covers open at the ends so as to be easy of examination; nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in boxes or in bags of linen, or other material, which shall be fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened, but closed bags, if transparent, may be used for this purpose.

14. If any packet consisting of patterns, or samples of merchandise, sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained relating thereto, every such packet shall (except in the case next hereinafter otherwise provided for), be chargeable and shall be treated in all respects as a letter.

15. If any packet consisting of patterns, or samples of merchandise, sent or tendered or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, every such enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or forwarded to the address on the packet charged in either case with the full rates of postage as a letter, and the remainder of the packet may (subject to the provisions of the 16th clause of this Warrant), be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

16. As to all packets posted in the United Kingdom, under the 5th, 6th, and 7th clauses of this

Warrant, the postage thereof shall, in every case, be prepaid at the time of the same being posted, not in money but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall, in every case, be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant (unless any such packet be sent from any department or office, in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall have a postage account with the General Post Office in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded post paid, and the postage thereof shall be charged in such postage account), and if any such packet shall be posted without any postage having been paid thereon as hereinbefore required, or shall be posted with a postage paid thereon as hereinbefore required, which shall be less in amount than the rate or rates of postage payable thereon, under and by virtue of this Warrant, every such respective packet shall and may be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and every such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with any rate or amount of postage which the Postmaster-General shall think proper, not exceeding the rate or amount of postage to which such packet would have been liable as a letter, nor less than the rate of postage which such packet would have been chargeable with if the postage thereof had been properly paid when posted.

17. No packet shall be transmitted by the postunder the provisions of this Warrant, which shall exceed two feet in length, or one foot in breadth or depth, unless under the special authority of the Postmaster-General.

18. Every packet transmitted by the post under this Warrant shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day, and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

19. In order to prevent any obstacle to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be dispatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the dispatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post to be forwarded by him.

20. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter, arise, whether any packet, or anything contained therein, transmitted under or by virtue of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive on all parties.

21. The term "British newspaper" used in this Warrant shall be construed to mean a newspaper printed in the United Kingdom, whether it bear a newspaper stamp or not; the term "printed papers" used in this Warrant shall, for the purposes of this Warrant, be construed to mean and include any number of separate books or other publications, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, parchment, or vellum, and the books or other publications, prints, or maps may be either printed, written, or plain, or any mixture of the three, and all legitimate binding, mounting, or , the parish of Saint Mary, Islington, in the county covering of a book, publication, print, or map, or of a portion thereof, whether such binding, mounting, or covering be loose or attached, as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise), in the case of books, and whatsoever is necessary for the safe transmission of literary or artistic matter or usually appertains thereto, but shall not mean, comprise, or include any photographs, drawings, prints, or other contents which may be obviously of an obscene character, and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said recited Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96.

22. The rates of postage fixed by this present Warrant on the letters and newspapers transmitted as herein respectively mentioned, shall be in lieu of any rates now chargeable by law thereon.

23. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, or conditions in lieu thereof, and may from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

24. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.
