

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1866.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 10th day of October, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Mr. Secretary Walpole.
Mr. Corry.

WHEREAS by an Order, bearing date the 10th day of August last, reciting certain provisions of the statute of the session held in the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter 107, and that a contagious or infectious disorder, known or described as the Sheep Pox, or Variola Ovina, then prevailed among the sheep, in a certain part of the United Kingdom, and it was expedient to take measures for preventing such disorder from spreading; the Lords of the Council did make certain Orders and Regulations respecting the removal of sheep or lambs to and from the parishes of Great Oakley and Beaumont, in the county of Essex, and respecting other matters relating to such sheep and lambs:

And whereas this Order was to continue in force until revoked, and it is no longer necessary that it should continue in force:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby, from and after the eleventh day of this present October, revoke the Order above mentioned and described.

Edmund Harrison.

In the Court of Bankruptcy, London.

In the Matter of William Farrar, of Hoxton, in the county of Middlesex, Stone Merchant, a Bankrupt.

NOTICE is hereby given, that at the First Meeting of Creditors held under this Bankruptcy on the 3rd day of October, 1866, at the Court of Bankruptcy, London, the bankrupt made a proposal that he should continue to carry on his business under the supervision and control of the Creditors' Assignee, that day chosen and appointed, with a view to the gradual liquidation of his debts, and should for that purpose have power, at the expense of his estate, from time to time to purchase new stock in trade and trade materials or chattels, and hire and employ workmen, and pay all necessary or proper outgoings in respect of the said business (including a reasonable allowance to himself for his services); and that, subject as aforesaid, the said estate should be wound up and administered by the said Assignee, out of Bankruptcy, in like manner, as far as possible, as if the same had remained in Bankruptcy; and, it appearing to the major part in value of the creditors present at the said meeting that the said proposal ought to be accepted, it was resolved that no further proceedings should be taken in Bankruptcy in this matter, whereupon the said meeting was adjourned until the 24th day of October instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, in order that notice of such resolution might be given to the creditors.—Dated this 12th day of October, 1866.
