Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1866.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 25th day of October, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Mr. Secretary Walpole.
Mr. Corry.
Mr. Cave.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prevent until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among Sheep, Cattle, and other Animals," which Act has by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act of the last session of Parliament, since been extended and continued in force until the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, after reciting that "a contagious or infectious disorder known or described as the Sheep Pox or Variola Ovina, then prevailed among the sheep in some parts of the United Kingdom, and it was necessary to take measures to prevent such disorder from spreading," it was enacted (amongst other things) as follows, that is to say :—

"It shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of Sheep, Cattle, Horses, Swine, or other Animals, or of Meat, Skins, Hides, Horns, Hoofs, or other parts of any Animals, or of Hay, Straw, Fodder, or other articles likely to propagate Infection; and also for the purpose of purifying any Yard, Stable, Outhouse, or other place, or any Waggon, Carts, Carriages, or other vehicles; and also for the purpose of directing how any Animals dying in a diseased state, or any Animals, Parts of Animals, or other Things, seized under the provisions of this Act, are to be disposed of; and also for the Purpose of causing Notices to be given of the Appearance of any Disorder among Sheep, Cattle, or "other Animals, and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the Provisions of this Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and all Provisions for any of the Purposes aforesaid, in any such Order or Orders contained, shall have the like Force and Effect as if the same had been inserted in this Act; and all Persons offending against the same shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, or such smaller Sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council may in any case by such Order direct;"

And whereas a Contagious or Infectious Disorder, known or described as the Sheep Pox or Variola Ovina, now prevails among the Sheep, in a certain part of the United Kingdom hereinafter described, and it is expedient to take measures for preventing such Disorder from spreading;

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby, in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in them as aforesaid, make and ordain the several Orders and Regulations following; that is to say :—

I.

No person shall remove any Sheep or Lambs to or from the farm and premises in the occupation of William Matson, sen., situate to the south of the River Colne, and in the parish of St. Osyth, in the county of Essex, or drive or conduct any Sheep or Lambs through or by way of such parish.

II.

No person shall move the skin, wool, horns, or hoofs of any sheep or lambs out of the aforesaid parish, without a certificate in writing, signed by two Justices of the said county of Essex, upon their own knowledge or upon such information supplied to them as they shall deem sufficient, to the effect that such skin, wool, horns, or hoofs respectively, did not belong to any sheep or lambs forming part of a flock affected by the said disorder, or to any sheep or lambs on the farm or premises in which such disorder prevails within the said parish.

III.

All Sheep and Lambs dying in any of the stages of the said disease, wheresoever such death or deaths shall or may occur, shall forthwith be buried by the person or persons in whose possession such Sheep or Lambs may be at the time of death, with their skins and wool on, in pits of not less than five feet in depth, and the carcasses so buried shall be covered with quicklime.

IV.

All sheds and places whatsoever, and all railway trucks and other vehicles which may or shall have been used or occupied by Sheep or Lambs affected by the said disease, shall forthwith, after having been so used, be thoroughly cleansed with water, and immediately afterwards purified with chloride of lime by the person or persons in possession of such sheds, places, trucks, and vehicles respectively.

V.

Every person in possession of any Sheep or Lambs in or amongst which the said disease shall manifest itself, shall, upon ascertaining the fact, forthwith give notice, in writing, of such fact to the Chief Constable or Superintendent of Police of the division of the county aforesaid comprising the said parish.

VI.

Every person guilty of an offence against this Order, shall for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, and where any such offence is committed with respect to more than four animals a penalty not exceeding five pounds for each animal may be imposed, instead of the penalty of twenty pounds; and where any such offence is committed with reference to any skin, wool, horns, or hoofs, a further penalty, not exceeding one pound, shall be imposed for every half-ton in weight of such skins, wool, horns, or hoofs, after the first ton. Provided that the penalty for one offence shall in no case exceed twenty pounds.

VII.

The Local Authority of the county of Essex, as defined by chapter 2 of the Acts of the last session of Parliament, shall superintend the execution of this Order, and shall cause it to be published in a newspaper circulating in that part of the said county which comprises the parish aforesaid.

VIII.

And it is further ordered that this Order shall continue in force until revoked by the Lords of the Privy Council.

Edmund Harrison.

Whitehall, October 24, 1866.

The Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration that upon the decease of Brinsley, fourth Earl of Lanesborough, without issue, which happened on or about the 14th day of June, 1847, the title and dignity of Earl of Lanesborough devolved upon his cousin and heir, George-John Danvers, late Earl of Lanesborough, as the eldest son and heir of Augustus Richard Butler-Danvers, Esquire, commonly called the Honourable Augustus Richard Butler-Danvers (next brother of Robert Herbert, third Earl of Lanesborough, the father of the said Brinsley, fourth Earl of Lanesborough), who was the second son of Brinsley, second Earl of Lanesborough, that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the sister of the said George-John-Danvers, Earl of Lanesborough, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to her in case her said late father had survived his nephew, the said Brinsley, fourth Earl of Lanesborough, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Lanesborough, Her Majesty hath been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Sophia Elizabeth Mary Dumaresq, the widow and relict of Henry Dumaresq, Esquire, Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army, deceased, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if her said late father had survived his nephew Brinsley, fourth Earl of Lanesborough, and had thereby succeeded to the said title and dignity of Earl of Lanesborough:

Her Majesty hath been further pleased to command that the said Royal order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 24, 1866.

The Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration that, upon the decease of George John Danvers, fifth Earl of Lanesborough, without issue, on the 7th day of July last, the title and dignity of Earl of Lanesborough devolved upon his nephew and heir, John Vansittart Danvers, now Earl of Lanesborough, as the eldest son and heir of Charles Augustus Danvers Butler, Esq., commonly called the Honourable Charles Augustus Danvers Butler (the next surviving brother of the said George John Danvers, late Earl of Lanesborough), who was the third but second surviving son of Augustus Richard Butler Danvers, Esq., commonly called the Honourable Augustus Richard Butler Danvers, and grandson of Brinsley, second Earl of Lanesborough, that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brother and sisters of the said John Vansittart Danvers, now Earl of Lanesborough, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their said late father had survived his brother, the said George John Danvers, Earl of Lanesborough, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Lanesborough, Her Majesty hath been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Charles Henry Danvers Butler, Esq., an Ensign in the 9th (East Norfolk) Regiment of Foot, Fanny Georgina, Wife of Loftus Fitz-Wygram, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, Emily Rosa Danvers Butler and Harriet Eliza Danvers Butler, Spinsters, the only brother and sisters of the said John Vansittart Danvers, now Earl of Lanesborough, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same titles, place, pre-eminence, and precedence, as if their said late father had survived his brother, George John Danvers, late Earl of Lanesborough, and had thereby succeeded to the said title and dignity of Earl of Lanesborough:

Her Majesty hath been further pleased to command that the said Royal order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

1,000 tons of the coals to be shipped by the 30th November, 2,000 tons more thereof in the month of December, and the remainder thereof in the month of January next.

One-third of the quantity to be shipped in each of the above-mentioned periods to consist of North of England Coals, and two-thirds of South Wales Coals.

All the coals to be fit for the service of Her Majesty's Steam Ships and Vessels.

A form of the tender and conditions of contract may be seen in the Lobby of the Storekeeper-General's Department, Admiralty, Somerset House.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Coals for Hong Kong," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Admiralty, Somerset House, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR MINERAL BLACK FOR PAINT.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, October 18,
1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 20th November next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Store at Her Majesty's Dock Yard at Chatham, all such quantities of

as shall from time to time be ordered under a contract for six months certain, and further, until the expiration of three months' warning.

The average annual consumption for the last three years may be ascertained, and a sample of the article and a form of the tender and conditions of contract may be seen in the Lobby of the Storekeeper-General's Department, Admiralty, Somerset House.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Mineral Black for Paint," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Admiralty, Somerset House, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £300 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR TOWELLING FOR THE ROYAL NAVY.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, October 22,
1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Monday, the 5th November next, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such quantities of as may from time to time be demanded under a contract for twelve calendar months certain, and further, until the expiration of three calendar months' warning.

TOWELLING

(for the use of the Royal Navy),

A pattern of the towelling may be seen in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, between the hours of ten and two o'clock, where also the conditions of the contract may be seen.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty reserve to themselves an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Towelling for the Royal Navy," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £200 for the due performance of the contract.

ERRATUM.—In the London Gazette of Tuesday, October 23rd, 1866, a misprint is made in advertisement No. 20,101, wherein James Forrest, one of the debtors named in the advertisement, is called James Forrest.

In Bankruptcy.—Statutory Notice of Judgment Debtor Summons.

To George Cruft, of No. 2, Park-crescent-terrace, Brighton, Sussex, Builder,

TAKE notice, that a judgment debtor summons, dated the 4th day of October instant, was issued by Messrs. Lott and Rogers, of No. 43, Bow-lane, in the city of London, Attorneys for the plaintiffs hereinafter named, and is under seal of Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, in London, requiring you personally to be and appear before the Commissioner in attendance in chambers at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, on the 15th day of October instant, at eleven o'clock, to be examined respecting your ability to satisfy a debt of £67 Os. 2d., claimed of you by John Powis and Jabus Stanley James, of No. 26, Watling-street, in the city of London, Merchants and Ironmongers, upon and by virtue of a judgment of the Court of the Exchequer of Pleas, for the said sum of £67 Os. 2d., recovered by the said John Powis and Jabus Stanley James against you on the 21st day of April last, of which said sum the sum of £63 Os. 2d., exclusive of costs, is sworn to be due from you to the said John Powis and Jabus Stanley James, and the sum of £4 for taxed costs, making together the said sum of £67 Os. 2d., and for the discovery of property applicable in that behalf. And whereas it has been proved to the satisfaction of the said Court of Bankruptcy that you have been keeping out of the way, to avoid service of the said summons, and that service thereof cannot be effected; this notice is given by order of the same Court, and in pursuance of "The Bankruptcy Act, 1861," and you are hereby required personally to be and appear before the Commissioner in attendance at chambers, at the same Court, at Basinghall-street, in the city of London, on the 12th day of November next, at eleven o'clock, to be examined respecting your ability to satisfy the said debt, and for the discovery of property applicable in that behalf; and you are hereby informed, that if, after service of the said summons, or notice thereof by this advertisement, you do not pay the said debt and costs, or secure or compound for the same to the satisfaction of the creditors, then, on your appearance to this notice, or if you should not appear, having no lawful impediment allowed by the Court, and in either case without the presentation of a Petition for adjudication, or other proceeding, the Court may adjudge you bankrupt.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

THIS is to give notice, that a Meeting of the Creditors of Pierce Anthony Rogan, late of No. 24, Duncanterrace, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, Clerk in Her Majesty's Customs, London, formerly of No. 19, Bedford street, in the town and county of the town of Southampton, Clerk in Her Majesty's Customs, at Southampton, by whom a Petition for adjudication was filed in the Court of Bankruptcy, London, on the 6th day of August, 1866, will be held at the said Court of Bankruptcy, Basinghall-street, in the city of London, on the 7th day of November, 1866, at two o'clock in the afternoon precisely, before James Rigg Brougham, Esq., a Registrar of the said Court, for the purpose of considering a proposal to be made by the bankrupt that the estate be wound up under a deed of arrangement, composition, or otherwise, under the 185th section of "The Bankruptcy Act, 1861."

The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of the said Statute, a Meeting of the Creditors of Naunton Julian, of Freehold-road, California, Ipswich, in the county of Suffolk, Horse Dealer and Dealer, a bankrupt, will be held on Wednesday, the 7th day of November next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of the Registrar of the County Court of Suffolk, holden at Ipswich, situate in Silent-street, in Ipswich aforesaid, for the purpose of enabling three-fourths in number and value of the creditors present or represented at such meeting to resolve that the estate of the said bankrupt ought to be wound up under a deed of arrangement, composition, or otherwise, and that an application be made to the Court to stay proceedings in the bankruptcy for such period as the Court shall think fit.—Dated this 24th day of October, 1866.
