

buried by the person or persons in whose possession such Sheep or Lambs may be at the time of death, with their skins and wool on, in pits of not less than five feet in depth, and the carcasses so buried shall be covered with quicklime.

IV.

All sheds and places whatsoever, and all railway trucks and other vehicles which may or shall have been used or occupied by Sheep or Lambs affected by the said disease, shall forthwith, after having been so used, be thoroughly cleansed with water, and immediately afterwards purified with chloride of lime by the person or persons in possession of such sheds, places, trucks, and vehicles respectively.

V.

Every person in possession of any Sheep or Lambs in or amongst which the said disease shall manifest itself, shall, upon ascertaining the fact, forthwith give notice, in writing, of such fact to the Chief Constable or Superintendent of Police of the division of the county aforesaid comprising the said parish.

VI.

Every person guilty of an offence against this Order, shall for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, and where any such offence is committed with respect to more than four animals a penalty not exceeding five pounds for each animal may be imposed, instead of the penalty of twenty pounds; and where any such offence is committed with reference to any skin, wool, horns, or hoofs, a further penalty, not exceeding one pound, shall be imposed for every half-ton in weight of such skins, wool, horns, or hoofs, after the first ton. Provided that the penalty for one offence shall in no case exceed twenty pounds.

VII.

The Local Authority of the county of Essex, as defined by chapter 2 of the Acts of the last session of Parliament, shall superintend the execution of this Order, and shall cause it to be published in a newspaper circulating in that part of the said county which comprises the parish aforesaid.

VIII.

And it is further ordered that this Order shall continue in force until revoked by the Lords of the Privy Council.

Edmund Harrison.

The Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration that upon the decease of Brinsley, fourth Earl of Lanesborough, without issue, which happened on or about the 14th day of June, 1847, the title and dignity of Earl of Lanesborough devolved upon his cousin and heir, George-John Danvers, late Earl of Lanesborough, as the eldest son and heir of Augustus Richard Butler-Danvers, Esquire, commonly called the Honourable Augustus Richard Butler-Danvers (next brother of Robert Herbert, third Earl of Lanesborough, the father of the said Brinsley, fourth Earl of Lanesborough), who was the second son of Brinsley, second Earl of Lanesborough, that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the sister of the said George-John-Danvers, Earl of Lanesborough, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to her in case her said late father had survived his nephew, the said Brinsley, fourth Earl of Lanesborough, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Lanesborough, Her Majesty hath been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Sophia Elizabeth Mary Dumaresq, the widow and relict of Henry Dumaresq, Esquire, Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army, deceased, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if her said late father had survived his nephew Brinsley, fourth Earl of Lanesborough, and had thereby succeeded to the said title and dignity of Earl of Lanesborough:

Her Majesty hath been further pleased to command that the said Royal order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 24, 1866.

The Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration that, upon the decease of George John Danvers, fifth Earl of Lanesborough, without issue, on the 7th day of July last, the title and dignity of Earl of Lanesborough devolved upon his nephew and heir, John Vansittart Danvers, now Earl of Lanesborough, as the eldest son and heir of Charles Augustus Danvers Butler, Esq., commonly called the Honourable Charles Augustus Danvers Butler (the next surviving brother of the said George John Danvers, late Earl of Lanesborough), who was the third but second surviving son of Augustus Richard Butler Danvers, Esq., commonly called the Honourable Augustus Richard Butler Danvers, and grandson of Brinsley, second Earl of Lanesborough, that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brother and sisters of the said John Vansittart Danvers, now Earl of Lanesborough, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their said late father had survived his brother, the said George John Danvers, Earl of Lanesborough, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Lanesborough, Her Majesty hath been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Charles Henry Danvers Butler, Esq., an Ensign in the 9th (East Norfolk) Regiment of Foot, Fanny Georgina, Wife of Loftus Fitz-Wygram, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, Emily Rosa Danvers Butler and Harriet Eliza Danvers Butler, Spinsters, the only brother and sisters of the said John Vansittart Danvers, now Earl of Lanesborough, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same titles, place, pre-eminence, and precedence, as if their said late father had survived his brother, George John Danvers, late Earl of Lanesborough, and had thereby succeeded to the said title and dignity of Earl of Lanesborough:

Her Majesty hath been further pleased to command that the said Royal order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Crown Office, October 24, 1866.

MEMBER returned to serve in the present PARLIAMENT.

County of Tipperary.

The Honourable Captain Charles White, of Woodland Clonsilla, in the county of Dublin, in the room of John Blake Dillon, Esq., deceased.
