Foreign Office, November 5, 1866.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr. Thomas Allcock as Consul at Goderich, Canada West, for the United States of America.

By virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to extend the Act of the twenty-fourth year of King George the Third, chapter twenty-six, for issuing writs during any recess of the House of Commons, whether by prorogation or adjournment;" and of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to further limit and define the time for proceeding to Election during the "Recess."

I do hereby give notice, that it hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament, in the manner required by the said Act, that Sir Hugh MacCalmont Cairns, Knt., late a Member serving in this present Parliament, for the borough of Belfast, hath accepted the office of Lord Justice of the Court of Appeal in Chancery, and has been gazetted thereto in the London Gazette dated the 30th day of October, 1866, and has thereby vacated his seat; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said borough, at the end of six days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand this second day of November, 1866.

JOHN EVELYN DENISON, Speaker.

THE CONTAGIOUS DISEASES ACT, 1866.

In pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, it is hereby certified by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State intrusted with the Seals of the War Department, that the following building, namely, the London Lock Hospital, is useful and efficient as a Hospital for the purposes of the said Act.

Dated this 6th day of November, 1866.

By order of the Secretary of State for War,

Edward Lugard,

Under Secretary of State.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 62).—NORTH SEA.—COAST OF JUTLAND.

Beacon on Fanö Island.

THE Ministry of Marine at Copenhagen has given notice, that both the beacons on the north end of Fanö Island have been taken down, and that a new wooden beacon, 50 feet high, has been erected on the northernmost sand hill of Fanö Island.

The beacon is painted red, its top is 60 feet above the sea, and at a distance appears somewhat like a windmill. It stands in lat. $55^{\circ} 27' 45''$ N., long. $8^{\circ} 22' 2''$ East of Greenwich.

The beacon in one with Jerne church leads to the buoy on Peacock's plan marked Graadyb placed outside the channel, and in the deepest water over the bar to Graa Deep, and on to a large black conical buoy with a staff and ball, on the west tongue of Sören Jessens sand.

The white buoys and marks point out the north side, and the black buoys and marks the south side of the channel, from the Peacock buoy to Fanö roadstead.

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,

10th October, 1866.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Heligoland Bight, No. 1887, and North Sea Pilot, Part 4, p. 213.

(No. 63).—SOUTH AMERICA—WEST COAST.

Fixed and Flashing Light on Castle Niebla Point, Port Valdivia.

THE Minister of Marine of the Republic of Chile has given notice, that on and after the 20th day of August, 1866, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Castle Niebla Point, on the east side within the entrance of Port Valdivia.

The light is a fixed and flashing white light, at an elevation of 121 feet above the mean level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen at a distance of 8 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses.

The tower is 24 feet high, square, and painted white. It stands in lat. $39^{\circ} 52' S.$, long $73^{\circ} 24' 30''$ West of Greenwich.

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
 Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
 18th October, 1866.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Port of Valdivia, No. 1318; South America, West Coast, Sheet 5, No. 1374. Also, South American Pilot, Part 2, p. 236.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 64.)—UNITED STATES—CHESAPEAKE BAY.

Sharp Island Light, Maryland.

THE United States Lighthouse Board has given notice, that the light formerly shewn from the bluff of Sharp Island, Chesapeake Bay, Maryland, has been discontinued; and that on and after the 20th day of October, 1866, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse, recently erected on screw piles in $7\frac{1}{2}$ feet water, mean level of the sea, and bearing N.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. distant one-third of a mile from the old tower.

The new light is a fixed white light, 35 feet above the mean level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen at a distance of 10 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses, of the fifth order.

The iron work of the foundation is painted red, and the superstructure white.

Mariners bound up Chesapeake Bay will now see the light shortly after passing Cove point light, whereas in its former position it could not be seen until abreast of it, owing to the woods on the island.

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
 Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
 22nd October, 1866.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Chesapeake Bay, Upper Part, No. 355 b; and Great Egg Island to Albemarle Sound, No. 266. Also, United States Lights List, No. 226.

Navigation of the Downs.

THE Corporation of the Trinity House, London, has given notice, that the following alterations have been made in the positions of the buoys in the Downs; viz:—

The South Brake Buoy has been moved 6 cables to the N.N.E. of its former position, and now lies in 6 fathoms at low water springs, with the Coast Guard flagstaff at Broadstairs in line with the chimneys of the western cottage at the North Foreland lighthouse bearing N. by E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E.; Upper Deal Mill, in line with the time-ball, W.S.W.; Deal Bank buoy, S.W. by W., distant $1\frac{1}{10}$ miles; South Sand Head light vessel, S. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W., 5 miles; Bunt Head buoy (new position) S. by E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E., $1\frac{1}{10}$ miles; Gull light vessel, N.E. by E., $1\frac{1}{10}$ miles; and Middle Brake buoy, N.N.E., $2\frac{1}{10}$ miles.

The Bunt Head Buoy has been moved $1\frac{1}{2}$ cables to the S. by E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E., and now lies in $4\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms, with Upper Deal Mill, its breadth open north of a new chapel at Deal, bearing W. $\frac{1}{4}$ S.; St. Laurence Mill open west of Ramsgate Mill, north; South Sand Head light vessel, S.S.W., distant 4 miles; Deal Bank Buoy, W. $\frac{1}{4}$ N., $1\frac{1}{10}$ miles; South Brake buoy (new position), N. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W., $1\frac{1}{10}$ miles; Gull light vessel, N. by E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E., 2 miles; and N.W. Bunt buoy, N.N.E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E., $1\frac{1}{10}$ miles.

The South Middle Brake Buoy has been discontinued.

Also, that in March, 1867, the following changes will be made in the colour and character of the undermentioned buoys:—

The South Brake Buoy will be coloured red, instead of black, as at present.

The Elbow Buoy will be coloured red and white, instead of Black and white chequered, as at present.

Both these buoys will retain their staffs and balls.

The Longnose buoy will be a conical, instead of a can buoy, as at present.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation $19^{\circ} 50'$ West in 1866.]

Braintree Union.—Parish of Braintree.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish of Braintree, in the county of Essex ;—

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said parish is situate ;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Braintree, in the county of Essex, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons.

And whereas, at a meeting of the vestry of the said parish of Braintree, held at the vestry room, on Thursday, the 30th day of August last, in pursuance of a notice duly given, it was resolved:—

“ That an application, in writing, of the Churchwardens of this parish (the population whereof exceeds two thousand, according to the last preceding census) shall be forthwith made and sent to the Poor Law Board, requesting them to make an Order, under their seal of office, that the whole of the Act of Parliament made and passed in the session holden in the 13th and 14th years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 57, entitled ‘ An Act to prevent the holding of vestry or other meetings in churches, and for regulating the appointment of vestry clerks,’ except so much as relates to the appointment and duties of a vestry clerk, shall be applied to and put in force within the said parish of Braintree.”

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made their application, in writing, to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above resolution.

Now, therefore, we, the Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, hereby order and direct as follows :—

ARTICLE I.—That the whole of the said Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled “ An Act to prevent the holding of vestry or other meetings in churches, and for regulating the appointment of vestry clerks,” except so much as relates to the appointment and duties of a vestry clerk, shall forthwith be applied to and be put in force within the said parish.

ARTICLE II.—That a copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this twenty-ninth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

Gathorne Hardy, President.

H. Fleming, Secretary.

"THE HIGHWAY ACT."

County of Denbigh to Wit.

WHEREAS at a Court of Quarter Sessions held on the 18th day of October, 1866, a Provisional Order was made in the words following; that is to say:—Whereas Whitehall Dod, Esq., Philip Henry Chambers, Esq., Hugh Robert Hughes, Esq., Meilir Owen, Esq., The Reverend David Roberts, Clerk, and John Price, Esq., six Justices of the Peace for the county of Denbigh (of whom two being resident within the district hereinafter named), having by writing under their hands, dated the 4th day of July, 1866, required the Clerk of the Peace for this county to send with the notice required by law to be given of the holding of Courts of General or Quarter Sessions, a notice, in the form marked A in the schedule to the Act for the better management of Highways in England (25 and 26 Victoria, chapter 61) or as near thereto as circumstances would admit, that at the Court therein mentioned a proposal would be made to the Justices to dissolve a certain Highway District, comprising the several parishes and townships following, namely:—the parishes of Llansannan, Llanrhaidr-yn-Cinmerch, Nantglyn, Llanefydd, Henllan, Llandyrnog, and Llangwyfen, the township of Aberwheeler, in the parish of Bodfari, the township of Penbedw, in the parish of Nannersli, and the townships of Cefn, Mariadog, and Wigfair, in the parish of Saint Asaph; all which said parishes and townships are wholly in the county of Denbigh, and having required the said Clerk of the Peace to send by post, in a prepaid letter, notices in the aforesaid form to the churchwardens or overseers of the above-named parishes and townships. And whereas such requisition having been complied with, and such proposal submitted and entertained by this Court, we, the Justices assembled at this Court of Quarter Sessions, being the Court of Quarter Sessions mentioned in the said notice, do by this our Provisional Order dissolve the said Highway District known by the name of "The Denbigh District;" and we further order that the confirmation of this Provisional Order will be considered at the next Quarter Sessions to be held for this county.

Notice is hereby given, that the confirmation of the said Provisional Order by a Final Order will be taken into consideration by the Justices at the Court of Quarter Sessions to be held on the 3rd day of January, 1867.

Joseph Peers, Clerk of the Peace for the county of Denbigh.
Ruthin, 23rd October, 1866.

In Parliament—Session 1867.

Barnsley Gas Company.

(Extension of limits of Supply to the whole of the Township of Barnsley, and to other parts of Silkstone, and to parts of Darfield, Darton, and Roystone Parishes; Additional Capital and Borrowing Powers; New Works and Additional Lands in Monk Bretton and the before-named places; Power to Dispose of Existing Works and Site thereof; further Powers and Amendment of Act.)

APPPLICATION is intended to be made to Parliament next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to amend the Barnsley Gas Act, 1852, and to confer further powers on the Barnsley Gas Company (hereinafter called "the Company"), and especially to effect the objects, or some of the objects following, viz.:—To extend the Company's powers for the supply of Gas, and for all other purposes, to the whole of the township of Barnsley, in the parish of Silkstone, and to the townships of Dodworth and Stainbrough, in the said parish of Silkstone, and to the several townships of Barugh and Darton, in Darton parish, Roystone, Carlton, and Monk Bretton, in Roystone parish, Ardsley and Worsbrough, in Darfield parish, and to so much of the township of Notton, in Roystone parish as is on the south side of Shawlane and Lee-lane, and lies between the township of Darton and the township of Roystone (all which townships are in the West Riding of the county of York), and to include the same within the limits and powers of the Barnsley Gas Act, 1852, and of the intended Bill, and to empower the Company to exercise therein the powers of the said Act and Bill, and of "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847."

To empower the Company, for the purposes of the said Act and Bill to apply their corporate funds and revenue, and to raise more money by creating new shares and stock and by borrowing, and to create debenture stock, and (if deemed expedient), to give a preferential interest or dividend to the now existing or authorized capital of the Company, and to divide for financial purposes their undertaking, capital, and revenue, and to make other provisions relating to the internal affairs and arrangements of the Company.

To authorize the Company to manufacture or provide and sell or let meters, fittings, and apparatus, and other articles and things, and to acquire, hold, and use patent rights or licences, in relation to the manufacture and distribution of Gas, and the utilisation of residual products, and to do all other things which they deem expedient for the purposes of their business.

To make further and other provisions with reference to the supply of gas by the Company, and the terms, mode, and conditions of supply, and the rights, and liabilities of consumers, and to impose further penalties for frauds upon the Company, or injury to their property, and to give them further powers for recovering rents and other moneys, and for removing pipes, meters, and fittings.

To authorize the Company to purchase the land hereinafter described, and to erect or make and maintain thereon works for the manufacture and stowage of gas, with all requisite buildings and conveniences, and which land is situate in the township of Monk Bretton, in the parish of Roystone, in the West Riding of the county of York, and contains about five acres, and now or late belonging to Lord Wharnccliffe, and occupied by Mr. George Russell, or his under tenant, Mr. George Toothill, and is bounded south-eastward by lands in Monk Bretton aforesaid belonging to Lord Halifax and Thomas Wyatt Gunning, Esquire; north-westward, by the Sheffield and Wakefield turnpike road, at or near the old mill toll bar, in the said township of Monk Bretton; north-eastward, by the public highway leading from Barnsley to Monk Bretton aforesaid, and land belonging to the South Yorkshire Railway and River Dun Company; and southward, by the River Dearne, dividing the said township of Monk Bretton from the said township of Barnsley (except such part of the surface thereof as is now used by the said South Yorkshire Railway and River Dun Company, for their line passing over the same, and which railway separates the north-eastern part of the said land from the south-western part thereof).

To authorize the Company to acquire, hold, and use, for the purposes of their undertaking, additional lands in any of the before-named parishes and townships.

To authorize the Company to sell, let, or dispose of all or any part of any lands, works, property and effects now or hereafter belonging to them.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges inconsistent with the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

On or before the 22nd day of December next, printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this first day of November, 1866.

Wolverhampton New Waterworks Company.

(Repeal of certain clauses in the Wolverhampton New Waterworks Act, 1855, and in the Wolverhampton New Waterworks Act, 1861; Power to sell, lease, or amalgamate with any Company or Corporation; Power to sanction agreement with the South Staffordshire Waterworks Company, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application will be made by the Wolverhampton New Waterworks Company in the next session of Parliament, for an Act to repeal so much of the Wolverhampton New Waterworks Act, 1855, and Wolverhampton New Waterworks Act, 1861, as obliges or compels the said Company to sell and transfer, and to vest in the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough of Wolverhampton (commonly called the Corporation), for the public behoof the rights, powers, and property of the said Company if thereunto required by the said Corporation, and authorises the said Corporation to purchase and accept such transfer, on such terms and conditions as are mentioned and referred to in the said Wolverhampton New Waterworks Act, 1855.

Also to authorise and empower the said Wolverhampton New Waterworks Company if they shall think it expedient to sell absolutely or to lease for a term of years, to the said Wolverhampton Corporation, the said undertaking, called the Wolverhampton New Waterworks Company, or any part thereof, for the public behoof, with the rights, powers, and property of the said Company, and to authorise the said Corporation to purchase or lease for such term of years for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as the Corporation and the Company shall mutually agree upon.

Also to sanction and confirm certain agreements between the said Wolverhampton New Waterworks Company and South Staffordshire Waterworks Company, for delivering a certain quantity of water and for defining the supply by the said South Staffordshire Waterworks Company, within certain boundaries marked on the ordnance map annexed to the said agreements or one of them.

Also to authorise and empower the said Wolverhampton New Waterworks Company, if they shall think expedient, to sell or lease to, or to amalgamate their said undertaking, or any part thereof, with the said South Staffordshire Waterworks Company, absolutely, or for such term or terms of years, and for such considerations and on such terms and conditions as they shall mutually agree upon.

Also to authorise and empower the said Wolverhampton New Waterworks Company to sell, lease to, or amalgamate with any other Company, or Corporation, or person, or persons, their said undertaking, or any part thereof, absolutely, or for a term, or terms of years, and for such considerations as they shall mutually agree upon. And also for all powers and authorities necessary for carrying into effect all, or any of the purposes above mentioned. And notice is hereby given, that printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 29th day of October, 1866.

Thomas Bolton, Solicitor for the Bill.

N.B. The contractors are to supply good, fat, well-fed Ox Beef, as NO HEIFER MEAT will be admitted.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty reserve to themselves an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

Particular attention is called to the revised conditions of the Sheerness contract, which is to include supplies to all ships and vessels between Chatham and the Great Nore, both inclusive; also the Naval Barracks at Sheerness.

Parties tendering for Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Sheerness, are to specify in their tenders a rate per 100 lbs. for live oxen, delivered in the usual manner; and also a rate per 100 lbs. for fresh ox beef, delivered in the carcase, should the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty think proper to demand the beef to be delivered in the carcase, instead of live oxen, during any period of the contract; and no attention will be paid to any offers not so made.

Separate tenders must be made for each port, and at a rate per 100 lbs., and no attention will be paid to any offers not so made. Contractors, in claiming payment for supplies of beef, are to make out their invoices in pounds at per 100 lbs.

The cattle for Falmouth to be slaughtered on the spot, and the cattle for Portland to be slaughtered not farther from that port than Weymouth; the Contractors for Portland and Dartmouth are also to deliver the meat on board Her Majesty's ships and vessels.

The Contractor for Portland and Weymouth is to reside at Weymouth.

The Contractor for any of the other places is to reside on the spot, or to have an agent resident there.

Conditions of the contracts may be seen in the Lobby of the Department of the Controller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, W.C.; or by applying to the Superintendents of the Victualling Establishments at Deptford, Gosport, and Plymouth; the Superintendents of Her Majesty's Dock Yards at Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerness, and Pembroke; the Agent for the Victualling at Haulbowline; the Officers conducting the Packet Service at Dover, Liverpool, and Southampton; the Secretary to the Postmaster-General, Dublin; to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Belfast, Berwick, Cowes, Dartmouth, Falmouth, Galway, Greenock, Harwich, Hull, Jersey and Guernsey, Londonderry (for Lough Foyle), Newhaven, Penzance, Ramsgate, Scilly, Shields, Swanage, Westport, Wexford, Weymouth, and Yarmouth; and to the Postmasters at each of the other places.

Forms of tender may also be obtained on application at the Lobby of the Department above mentioned, or to the proper officer at either of the above places.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an Agent appointed by him, should attend at this office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of the Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £1,500 for the due performance of each of the contracts for Sheerness, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Queenstown and Kinsale; and in the sum of £300 for each of the other Contracts.

The Contractors to pay half the amount of the Stamps on their contracts and bonds.

contracts, which may be seen at the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, or by applying to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Dover; or to the Collectors of Customs at Hull, Newhaven, Scilly, Swansea, Shields, Penzance, Belfast, Galway, Londonderry (for Lough Foyle); or to the Postmaster at each of the other places.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an agent appointed by him, should attend at this office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, and signed by two responsible persons engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £100 for each of the contracts.

The contractors to pay half the amount of the stamps on their contracts and bonds.

CONTRACTS FOR OATS, RAISINS, AND PORT WINE.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, October 31,
1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Monday, the 12th November next, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz. :—

Oats, 2,500 imperial bushels (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Raisins, 50,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Port Wine, 1,500 gallons (to be tendered for at a rate per gallon); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Separate tenders are to be made for each article.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

The raisins and wine to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the oats (not less than 2 quarts), and of the raisins (not less than 3 lbs.), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Samples of the wine (in pints) from each cask, must be produced by the parties tendering, and not samples only for each import mark.

No oats tendered are to be of less weight than 42 lbs. per bushel.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tenders will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantities and rates; and contractors in claiming payment for articles supplied are to make out their invoices in accordance therewith, both as to quantities and rates, excepting those for oats the invoices for which are to be in pounds, at per 100 lbs.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contract, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

50,000 gallons of Rum; to be delivered within three weeks from date of contract.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the rum.

All the casks, except such as may be required for Her Majesty's Service, are to be taken away from the said Stores by and at the expense of the party whose tender is accepted.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

The rum to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Payment for the rum will be made for the proof gallons to one-tenth of a gallon, the liquid contents being ascertained to the half gallon.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark; and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contract, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Rum," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Shotley Bridge Iron Company (Limited).

SPECIAL Resolution of the Shotley Bridge Iron Company (Limited), passed at a General Meeting, held at the King's Head Hotel, in Darlington, in the county of Durham, on Monday, October 8, 1866, and confirmed at a General Meeting of the Company, held at the same place, October 24, 1866:—

Resolved—

1. "That the Company be forthwith wound up voluntarily in accordance with the provisions for the voluntary winding up of Companies contained in the Companies Act, 1862.

2. "That Mr. Edward Robson Whitwell, of Shotley Bridge, in the county of Durham, Iron Manufacturer, be appointed the Liquidator of the Company, for the purpose of winding up the affairs, and distributing the assets of the Company.

3. "That the said Liquidator be authorized to sell and dispose of the estate, works, colliery, and stock in trade of the Company to the Consett Iron Company (Limited), at or for the price or sum of £55,000, to be payable by such instalments at such dates, and in such manner, and to bear interest after such rate, and from such date as the said Liquidator and the said Consett Iron Company (Limited), respectively, shall mutually agree upon.

4. "That the said Liquidator shall do, enter into, and execute all such acts, contracts, arrangements, deeds, matters, and things whatsoever as shall, in his judgment, be necessary or expedient for effectuating such sale and disposition, and for distributing the assets of the Company in pursuance of the Companies Act, 1862."

Isaac Wilson, Chairman.

In the Matter of the voluntary winding up of the Syston Gas Light and Coke Company (Limited).

NOTICE is hereby given, that at an Extraordinary General Meeting of Members of the Syston Gas Light and Coke Company (Limited), held at the Company's Office, at Syston, in the county of Leicester, on Wednesday, the 10th day of October last, in pursuance of the provisions of the Companies Act, 1862, the following Special Resolution was passed, viz:—

"That the Syston Gas Light and Coke Company (Limited), be wound up voluntarily, and that Henry Cleaver Woodcock, of Rearsby, in the county of Leicester, Esq.; George Harrison, of Leicester, Esq.; and John Chadwick Robinson, of Syston, in the county of Leicester, Surgeon, be, and they are hereby appointed Liquidators for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the Company, and distributing the property."

And that at a subsequent General Meeting of the Members of the Syston Gas Light and Coke Company (Limited), held at the Company's Office, at Syston, on Wednesday, the 24th day of October last, in pursuance of the provisions of the Companies Act, 1862, the above Resolution was confirmed by a majority of such Members for the time being, entitled to vote according to the regulations of the said Company.—Dated this 31st day of October, 1866.

Henry C. Woodcock, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the said Company.

In the Matter of the Companies Act, 1862, and of the Quebrada Land, Railway, and Mining Company (Limited).

NOTICE is hereby given, that the following special resolutions were passed at the Special General Meeting of the above-named Company, held at the London Tavern, Bishopsgate-street, in the city of London, on the 11th day of October, 1866, and confirmed at a Special General Meeting of the said Company, held at the same place, on the 30th day of October, 1866; that is to say:

1st. "That the Company be wound up voluntarily.

2nd. "That Gilbert Robins, of No. 17A, Sizelane, Bucklersbury, in the city of London, William Salmon, of Bury St. Edmunds, in the county of Suffolk, and Lieutenant-Colonel Alexander Strange, of No. 41, Brompton-crescent, in the county of Middlesex, be appointed liquidators for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the Company, and distributing the property.

3rd. "It having been stated to this meeting that it is intended to form a new Company, to be called The New Quebrada Company (Limited), with a nominal capital of three hundred and sixty thousand pounds, in seventy-two thousand shares of five pounds each, and that it is proposed to transfer to such new Company the whole of the business and property of this Company, after selling such portion, if any, of the assets of the Company as may be necessary for the purpose of satisfying dissentient members, in consideration of the new Company assuming all the liabilities of this Company, and pay the sum of one hundred and seventy thousand pounds by means of a credit of three pounds six shillings and eight pence on fifty-one thousand shares in the new Company, which are to be allotted to or for the benefit of this Company, and that the balance of one pound thirteen shillings and fourpence on each of the said fifty-one thousand shares is to be payable as follows:—three shillings and fourpence on and after the exchange of certificates, two shillings on or after the 1st January, 1867, and the remaining one pound and eight shillings in calls of not more than four shillings each, at intervals of not less than three months; resolved, that the proposed transfer be, and the same is, hereby approved, and that an authority be, and the same is, hereby conferred on the Liquidators of this Company to accept in compensation for such transfer fifty-one thousand shares in the intended new Company, each credited with three pounds six shillings and eight pence as paid up thereon, for the purpose of distribution amongst the members of this Company.

4th. "That the purchase-money for the shares of any dissentient members, payable to them under the 161st section of the Companies Act, 1862, be raised by the Liquidators by a sale of the shares in the new Company which would have been distributable to such dissentient members in case they had not dissented; and in case of these proving insufficient, then by a sale of some portion of the assets of this Company."

Osborne Stock, Chairman.
