WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the Justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales in Quarter Sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division, and that the Justices of the Peace for the county, riding, parts, or division, in Quarter Sessions or some Special Sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and describe the divisions of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the Justices of the Peace for the county of Southampton, in Quarter Sessions assembled, on the fifteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, have presented a petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the northern division of the said county is insufficient, and praying that the parish of Aldershot may be declared a polling place for the northern division of the said county :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, order, and direct, and it is hereby declared, ordered, and directed, that the said parish of Aldershot shall be a polling place for the said northern division of the said county ; and that the Justices of the Peace for the said county, in Quarter Sessions, or some Special Sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act, passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said Act, divide such northern division of the said county into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the parish of Saint Catherine, in the city of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas there is in our hands a certain fund known as "The Gloucester and Bristol Special Churches Fund," which fund is now held by us under the provisions of a certain Order of your Majesty's High Court of Chancery, bearing date the twenty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, whereby it was, amongst other things, ordered that the Lord Bishop for the time being of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, might, at our discretion, and that of the said Lord Bishop, apply any portion of such fund which should remain unappropriated after the expiration of three years from the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the building and endowment or building or endowment of any church or churches within the limits of the said diocese.

"And whereas the said parish of Saint Catherine, in the city of Gloucester, does not possess any church, and endeavours are being used to procure the erection of a church for the same parish by public subscription.

"And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the benefice of the said parish of Saint Catherine, in the city of Gloucester, is now vested in the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Bristol.

"And whereas it has been represented to us that it would facilitate the erection of the said intended church, if the advowson or perpetual patronage of the said benefice of Saint Catherine, in the city of Gloucester, were transferred to the Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Bristol are willing to consent to a transfer of the said advowson accordingly, and in consideration thereof, and conditionally thereupon, it has been proposed to us by the said bishop that a grant of one thousand pounds should be made out of the said fund, towards improving the annual value (which is at present very small) of such benefice.

"And whereas, with our consent, a grant of a capital sum of one thousand pounds, conditional upon the due ratification of this scheme by your Majesty in Council, has accordingly been made to the said benefice out of the said residue of the said fund.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol (testified by his having set his hand and seal to this scheme), and with the consent of the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Bristol (testified by their having affixed their common or corporate seal to this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any other assurance in the law, the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Saint Catherine, in the city of Gloucester, shall be transferred from the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church of Bristol, and from their successors, to the said Charles John, Bishop of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and shall then become and thenceforth be solely and absolutely vested in the said Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and in his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the two several registries of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Gloucester and at Bristol.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Swindon aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Wombourn, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Swindon aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Swindon.'

"And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mark, situate in the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr, and of the said parish of Dewsbury, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mark, situate in the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, of the Right Honourable Edward Geoffrey, Earl of Derby, First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of your Majesty as the patron in right of the Crown of the vicarage of the parish of Dewsbury aforesaid, and of the Reverend Arthur Drummond Wilkins, the vicar or incumbent of the same vicarage, and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr, and of the said parish of Dewsbury, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Mark, situate in the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mark, Dewsbury,’ and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to, and be exercised by, the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order, in respect thereto, as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

the middle of the south-western end of Carlton-street; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the said street (passing Meadow Cottage), to the junction of such street with the Dewsbury and Gomersal turnpike-road; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the said road (crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Dewsbury, from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Batley Carr aforesaid), as far as the intersection of such road, by the line of the London and North-Western Railway; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the said line of railway as far as a point under the centre of the bridge which carries Ashworth-road over such line of railway; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the last-named road, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Vulcan-street; and extending thence, first westward, to and along the middle of the last-named street, and then south-westward along the middle of the same street to the boundary at the junction of such street with Boothroyd-lane, which divides the said parish of Dewsbury from the new parish of Saint Matthew, West Town, Dewsbury, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, north-westward, along the last described boundary following thereby the middle of Boothroyd Lane aforesaid, to the junction of such boundary with the boundary which divides the parish of Dewsbury from the new parish of Saint John, Dewsbury Moor, as aforesaid; and continuing thence in the same direction along the boundary last referred to, still following the middle of Boothroyd-lane, to its junction with a certain occupation road leading past the south-eastern side of Taylor's Cottage, otherwise called Ivy Cottage, as aforesaid; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of such occupation road, to the first described point near the south-eastern corner of such cottage where the said imaginary line commenced.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Archdeaconry of Bath, in the diocese of Bath and Wells, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the same Acts, and bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and duly published in the London Gazette on the first day of May following, all lands, tenements, and other hereditaments then belonging to the said Archdeaconry of Bath, became absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof, as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said Archdeaconry of Bath, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions

AT the Council Chamber, Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Viscount Cranborne.
Sir John Pakington, Bart.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to prevent until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that for the more effectually preventing the spreading of contagious or infectious disease, it should be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time, to make such Orders and Regulations, as to them might seem necessary, for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they might designate in such Order or Orders of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection, and that all provisions for any of the purposes in the said Act, in that behalf mentioned, in any such Order or Orders contained, should have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in that Act, and all persons offending against the same, should, for each and every offence, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding twenty pounds or such smaller sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council might in any case by such Order direct:

And whereas the said Act has been continued by divers subsequent Acts, and is still in force:

And whereas it is deemed expedient to make the Order and Regulation following, for the purpose of prohibiting and regulating the removal in pursuance of the said Act, of hay shipped at, or imported from, any port of Holland, and which has been brought to, or arrived at, any port or place in the United Kingdom:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, in exercise of the powers vested in them in that behalf, do hereby order that all such hay as shall have been shipped at, or imported from, any port of Holland, and which has been brought to or arrived at any port or place in the United Kingdom, shall not be removed out of or from the ship or vessel in which the same shall have been so brought, or shall have so arrived and landed in any port or place of the said United Kingdom, under the pains and penalties in that behalf provided by the said recited Act.

Provided that, notwithstanding anything in this Order contained, it shall be lawful for the Captain or other person in charge of a ship or vessel to land hay which shall have been shipped at or from any port of Holland, and which shall be intended to be consumed in the United Kingdom, by horses only, upon obtaining a licence, under the authority of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, authorizing the landing of the hay which shall so have arrived in such ship or vessel, or of such part of such hay as by the said licence shall be permitted to be landed, and the transmission thereof to such person or persons, or place or places, as in the said licence shall be mentioned in that behalf.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th day of December, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Sir Thomas Fremantle, Bart.

WHEREAS by an Order bearing date the 24th day of March, 1866, duly issued under the authority of an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent, until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or

"infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," and from time to time continued until the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and the end of the then next session of Parliament, by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act of the last session, which Order recited that a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," prevailed amongst cattle in England and Wales, the Lords of the Council made various regulations for preventing the spread of the said cattle plague, and among others, for dealing with infected places:

And whereas it is provided in the said regulations that any Local Authority as to any place within its district should, by their order made at any time after the passing of the said Order of the 24th day of March, and published in manner therein mentioned, declare any place in which disease amongst animals at that time existed, together with such an area including such place, as to such Authority might seem to be required, to be an infected place, from and after a date to be specified in such Order of the Local Authority:

And whereas it was further provided in the said regulations of the said Order of the 24th day of March, that the Authority declaring a place to be infected might, at the expiration of one month after the disappearance of the disease in that place by order published in like manner, declare such place to be free from the disease, and after the publication of such order such place should cease to be an infected place within the meaning of the said Order of the 24th day of March:

And whereas the Justices of the Peace of the county palatine of Chester, in Quarter Sessions assembled, being the Local Authority for that county, did, by an order, bearing date the 13th day of April, 1866, duly made, declare the whole of the said county, excepting only the petty sessional division of Hyde, and the borough of Stockport, to be an infected place, and such order was duly published in the manner prescribed by the above-mentioned Order of the 24th day of March:

And whereas the said disease has ceased in many parts of the said place so declared to be infected, but not in the whole of it; and it is considered that the said Local Authority cannot make an order to declare any parts of the said place only free from disease, so as to give effect therein to the provisions of the said Order of the 24th day of March, applicable to places declared to be free from disease, and it is advisable that the said Order should be altered in this respect, as herein provided:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council do hereby order that, from and after the thirty-first day of December instant, the said Local Authority for the county palatine of Chester may declare the following parts and places of the place so declared to be infected as aforesaid, or any portions thereof, to be free from disease; that is to say:—

The Northwich Hundred and the Prestbury Petty Sessional Division of the Macclesfield Hundred, in the said county.

And thereupon such places shall cease to be infected places within the meaning of the said Order, unless again declared to be infected in manner aforesaid.

Every such order so to be made by the Local Authority shall be published in the manner described in the said Order of the 24th day of March, in reference to infected places, and a copy thereof shall be forthwith transmitted by the Local Authority to the Privy Council.

This Order shall be published in some newspaper circulating in the county of Chester, and shall be construed in like manner as the said Order of the 24th day of March last; and all the provisions therein contained, so far as they may be applicable, shall apply to this Order.

PRESENT,

WHEREAS by an Order of the Privy Council, bearing date the 4th day of October last, duly made and issued under the authority of the Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to prevent, until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals" (which has been since duly continued by divers subsequent Acts until the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and the end of the then next session of Parliament), reciting certain provisions of the said Act, and the existence of a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," in England and Wales, and that divers Orders had been made by the Privy Council, under the authority of the said Act, and particularly that regulations had been made in respect of the movement of cattle upon highways, and for the prohibition of the holding of markets for the sale of cattle without a licence, and that a market was held on premises belonging to the Corporation of Salford, situate in Cross-lane, in Salford, in the county of Lancaster, for the sale of cattle, which had been licenced by the Lords of the said Council, for the sale of cattle for immediate slaughter, so long as the said Orders should remain in force, or until the revocation thereof, and certain provisions in the said licence contained in regard to the slaughter of cattle brought into the said market, and that the Lords of the said Council had, by a certain Order bearing date the 7th day of June then last past, made certain regulations in regard to the cattle sold in such market, to continue in force until the 30th day of September then next, and further reciting that it was advisable that the said Order of the 7th day of June then last should be renewed and continued as therein provided:

The said Lords of the Council did thereby order that the said recited Order of the 7th day of June last should be renewed and continued in force until the thirty-first day of this present December:

And whereas the said licence is still in force, and it is advisable that the said Order should be continued for a further period:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby order that the said recited Order, bearing date the 7th day of June last, shall continue in force until the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

WHEREAS by an Order, bearing date the 25th day of September last, reciting an Order of the Lords of the Council, bearing date the 7th day of June last, and duly issued under the authority of the Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent, until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," and from time to time continued until the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and the end of the then next session of Parliament, by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act of the last session of Parliament, by which last-mentioned Order, after reciting that a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," had lately appeared and then prevailed among cattle in England and Wales, and various other matters, and amongst them that a market, held in the borough of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, for the sale of cattle, had been licensed by the Lords of the Council, by an instrument bearing date the 31st day of May then last past, for the sale of cattle for immediate slaughter, the Lords of the Council did make certain provisions in regard to the movement of cattle sold in the said market, which were to continue until the 30th day of September then next, if the said licence should so long continue in force:

And further reciting that the said licence still continued in force, and it was advisable that the provisions of the Order of the 7th day of June should be further continued: the Lords of the Council did thereby order, that the provisions of the said Order of the 7th day of June last, which would have determined on the thirtieth day of the month of September last, should be further continued until the thirty-first day of this present December:

And whereas the said licence still continues in force, and it is advisable that the provisions of the said Order of the 7th day of June last should be further continued:

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby order that the provisions of the said Order of the 7th day of June last, which would determine on the 30th day of this present September last, shall be further continued until the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, if the said market at Wolverhampton shall continue to be licensed as aforesaid until that day, or if not, until the revocation or other sooner determination of such licence.

Mr. Waddington.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled "An Act to repeal the several Laws relating to the performance of Quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," it is, amongst other things, enacted as follows :

Section 2. That from and after the 1st day of June, 1825, all vessels coming from or having touched at any place from whence His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council, should have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague, or other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, might be brought, should be and be considered to be liable to quarantine, within the meaning of the said Act and of any Order or Orders which should be made by His Majesty, His heirs and successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council, concerning quarantine and the prevention of infection as therein mentioned; and all such vessels as aforesaid should, upon their arrival at any such port or place, be obliged to perform quarantine, in such place or places, for such time, and in such manner as should from time to time be directed by His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by His or their Order or Orders in Council, notified by proclamation, or published in the London Gazette; and all commanders, masters, or other persons having the charge or command of any such vessels, whether coming from any infected place, or being otherwise liable to quarantine as aforesaid, should be subject to all provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions contained in the said Act, or in any Order or Orders which should be made by His Majesty, His heirs and successors, in Council, as aforesaid, concerning quarantine, and the prevention of infection, and to all the pains, penalties, forfeitures, and punishments contained in the said Act, for any breach or disobedience thereof, or of any Order or Orders of His Majesty in Council, made under the authority thereof.

Section 3. That it should be lawful for His Majesty, His heirs and successors, by His or their Order in Council, or for the Lords or others of His or their Privy Council, or any two or more of them, by their Order from time to time, as often as they should see reason to apprehend that the yellow fever or other highly infectious distemper prevails on the Continent of America, or in the West Indies, to require that every vessel coming from or having touched at any port or place on the Continent of America or in the West Indies, should come to an anchor at certain places to be appointed from time to time by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs (who were thereby authorised to make such appointment), for the purpose of having the state of health of the crew of such vessel ascertained before such vessel should be permitted to enter the port whereto she should be bound, or any other port of the United Kingdom; but that such vessel should not be deemed liable to quarantine unless it should be afterwards specially ordered under that restraint.

Section 6. That it should be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, to make such Order as they should see necessary and expedient upon any unforeseen emergency, or in any particular case or cases, with respect to any vessel arriving and having any infectious disease or distemper on board, or on board of which any infectious disease or distemper might have appeared in the course of the voyage, or arriving under any other alarming or suspicious circumstances as to infection, although such vessels should not have come from any place from which His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, might have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague or any such infectious disease or distemper might be brought, and also with respect to the persons, goods, wares, and merchandise, and other articles as therein mentioned on board the same, and likewise to make such Orders as they should see fit, for shortening the time of quarantine to be performed by particular vessels or particular persons, goods, wares, merchandise, or any other articles, or for absolutely or conditionally releasing them, or any of them from quarantine; and all such Orders so made by the Lords or others of the Privy Council, or any two or more of them as aforesaid, should be as good, valid, and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as well with the respect to the commander, master, or other person having the charge of any vessel, and all other persons on board the same, as with respect to any other persons having any intercourse or communication with them, and to the penalties, forfeitures, and punishments to which they might respectively become liable, as any Order or Orders made by His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council, concerning quarantine, notified by proclamation or published in the London Gazette.

And whereas, by "The Sanitary Act, 1866," it is (amongst other things) enacted as follows :—

Section 52. That every vessel having on board any person affected with a dangerous or infectious disorder should be deemed to be within the provisions of the Act of the sixth year of King George the Fourth, chapter seventy-eight, although such vessel had not commenced her voyage, or had come from or was bound for some place in the United Kingdom; and the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one), might, by Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, make such Rules, Orders, and Regulations as to them should seem fit, and every such Order should be certified under the hand of the Clerk in Ordinary of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and should be published in the London Gazette, and such publication should be conclusive evidence of such Order to all intents and purposes.

And whereas one of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company's vessels, called the "Shannon," has lately arrived, from the West Indies, in the Southampton Water, in the county of Hants, and has been directed to proceed to, and remain under quarantine at, the Motherbank, off the Isle of Wight, and during and in the course of her voyage from the West Indies, the Yellow Fever, being a dangerous and infectious disease, appeared on board the said vessel, and the said vessel arrived under suspicious circumstances :

New, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, in exercise of the powers vested in them in that behalf, do hereby order,—

1. That all persons now on board the "Shannon" shall be removed to the ship called the "Parana," in the Southampton Water, unless ordered to remain on board the "Shannon" by the Medical Superintendent of Quarantine, at Southampton.

2. That the said vessel, called the "Shannon," shall remain and continue at the Motherbank aforesaid, until the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them shall make further Order.

3. Provided that all persons on board the "Parana" continue in good health, and that no new matter shall have come to the knowledge of the Commissioners of Customs in objection thereto, the persons so removed on board the "Parana" shall be kept and detained on board that ship, in the Southampton Water, under a quarantine of observation for twenty-four hours after such removal, and the "Parana," and all such persons as aforesaid, shall, at the expiration of that period, be discharged from any further restraint on account of quarantine, together with such of their clothing, bedding, and personal baggage, as the Medical Superintendent of Quarantine, at Southampton, shall certify to have been properly aired, washed, or fumigated.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

the light is well made out from the deck, when in standing in it may be brought to bear N.E. by E., this will lead outside all known dangers while to the south of Umlazi River (9½ miles from the lighthouse); but when to the northward of the Umlazi River, the light must be brought to bear more to the northward, keeping a long mile from the land. When the light bears W.S.W., haul in to the northward for the anchorage, anchoring in 8½ to 10 fathoms water, with the light bearing S.W. or S.W. ½ S., distant one mile
