AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 23rd day of January, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Mr. Corry.
Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart.

WHEREAS Her Majesty, in accordance with the statute in that behalf made, by Her Order in Council at the Court at Windsor, bearing date the 10th day of November last, reciting certain provisions of the statute of the 11th and 12th years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled an Act to prohibit the importation of sheep, cattle or other animals, for preventing the introduction of contagious or infectious disorders, and the existence of the cattle plague amongst cattle, and that certain Orders had been made by Her Majesty in Council, under the said Act, bearing date the 28th day of July, 1856 and the 17th November, 1863, did order that, 1st. On and after the thirteenth day of November then instant, foreign cattle, except cattle intended for immediate slaughter, should be landed only at such places in Great Britain as might have been duly licensed by the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council for the landing of foreign cattle, under such conditions as the Lords of the said Council might think fit to impose :

And, secondly, that if on the arrival of any vessel at any place licensed as aforesaid for the landing of foreign cattle, such cattle should be landed in strict conformity with such regulations as the Commissioners of Customs should, with the sanction of the Lords of the said Council, prescribe for that purpose, and be placed in such sheds, pens, or other receptacles properly prepared for their reception by the consignees or other persons, as should have been licensed by the Lords of the said Council for the reception of cattle, and should be kept therein at the sole expense of the owner or consignee, without being in contact with any other animals whatever, subject to the supervision and control of the said Commissioners, and in accordance with any regulation made by them, for such period, not exceeding in any case twenty-eight days, as might be from time to time prescribed by the Lords of the said Council in respect to the country or place from which any such cattle might be imported, such cattle should not be required to be slaughtered at the place of landing but might be removed at such time, to such place, and upon such conditions as the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, should from time to time direct in any orders or regulations to be made by them under the provisions of the 11th and 12th years of Her Majesty's reign, cap. 107 :

And whereas the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council have licensed the Port of Southampton, in the town and county of Southampton, for the landing of foreign cattle under the provisions of the said Order, and have also licensed certain pens and sheds belonging to the Southampton Dock Company, situated at the said port, for the reception of such cattle, in conformity with the terms of the said Order.

Now, therefore, the Lords of the said Council do hereby order that when foreign cattle are removed from the said pens or sheds or from any other sheds and pens belonging to the said Company and situated at the said port to any market in the Metropolis of London, such cattle shall be removed by railway only, being loaded into the trucks belonging to the Railway Company on the rail leading from the railway to the sheds at the Docks in which the said cattle are kept, and in trucks exclusively appropriated to this particular traffic, and duly and carefully cleansed and purified after each journey.

All other such cattle intended to be removed elsewhere beyond the said town and county of Southampton shall be removed between the hours of six o'clock in the morning and six o'clock in the evening only until the thirty-first day of the month of March next, and thenceforth between sunrise and sunset in every day, with a licence in the form prescribed by the Order of their Lordships, bearing date the 8th day of August last, and therein termed the Store Stock Licence, with this proviso, that a certificate from the Officer of Customs at the said port certifying that the cattle described in the said licence are then healthy and free from the Cattle Plague shall be received in the place of the declaration of the owner, and the certificate to accompany it required by the said order and the licence shall refer to such certificate of the said officer instead of the declaration of the owner.

And farther the said cattle shall be removed to the place mentioned in such licence and to no other place.

This Order shall be construed in all respects, except where there shall be any inconsistency, in conformity with the regulations issued by the Lords of the Council, bearing date the 24th day of March last, and all the provisions therein contained relative to the offences for the contravention thereof, and the penalty for the same, and the powers of the officers employed under it shall apply to this Order.

This Order shall be published by the Local Authority of the town and county of Southampton, in some newspaper circulated therein, and by a copy being affixed in some conspicuous part of the said Docks.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 23rd day of January, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Mr. Corry.
Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart.

WHEREAS Her Majesty, in accordance with the statute in that behalf made, by Her Order in Council, at the Court at Windsor, bearing date the 10th day of November last, ordered that on and after the 13th day of November then instant, foreign cattle, except cattle intended for immediate slaughter, should be landed at such places in Great Britain as might have been duly licensed by the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council for the landing of foreign cattle, and Her Majesty did make further Orders in respect of foreign cattle landed at any place so licensed, and placed in such sheds, pens, or other receptacles properly prepared for their reception by the consignees or other persons as should have been licensed by the Lords of the said Council for the reception of cattle.

And whereas the Lords of Her Majesty's said Council have by their licence, bearing even date herewith, duly licensed the port of Southampton, in the town and county of that name, for the landing of foreign cattle.

And whereas the Southampton Dock Company have prepared divers pens and sheds for the purpose of receiving such cattle at the said port upon land adjoining the docks of the said Company at Southampton, and such pens are situated as follows, and are now distinguished by the following numbers and mark:—

1. Two sheds adjoining each other, forming part of an erection, situated near the northern boundary of the Company's "Open Dock," and numbered respectively 4 and 5.
2. A block of buildings, consisting of four sheds, situated near the eastern corner of the said "Open Dock," which sheds are marked respectively 6, 7, 8, and X.
3. A shed, situated near the south side of the Company's "Close Dock," at present marked 11.

And whereas application has been made by Philip Hedger, superintendent of the said docks on behalf of the Directors of the said Company, to the Lords of the Council for a licence for such pens and sheds, in conformity with the said order, and he hath undertaken, on behalf of the said Company, to comply with all the stipulations, provisions, and regulations set forth in the said application.

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby license the pens and sheds hereinbefore described for the reception of foreign cattle under the provisions of the said order, until this licence shall be revoked or otherwise sooner determined.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 23rd day of January, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Mr. Corry.
Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart.

WHEREAS Her Majesty, in accordance with the provisions of the Statute in that behalf made, by Her Order in Council, at the Court at Windsor, bearing date the 10th day of November last, ordered that, on and after the 13th day of November, then instant, foreign cattle, except cattle intended for immediate slaughter, should be landed at such places in Great Britain as might have been duly licensed by the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council for the landing of foreign cattle, under such conditions as the Lords of the Council might think fit to impose. And Her Majesty did further Order, that any licences so granted should be subject to revocation without notice by the Lords of the said Council:

And whereas the port of Southampton, in the town and county of the town of Southampton, is a fit and proper place for the landing of foreign cattle, and the Lords of the Council are satisfied that such cattle may be landed at that port without risk of spreading the Cattle Plague disease in this country:

Now therefore, the Lords of the said Council do hereby license the said port for the landing of foreign cattle within the meaning of the said Order of Her Majesty, until this licence shall be revoked or otherwise determined, upon condition also, that all the regulations from time to time prescribed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs for the landing of cattle at such port, be duly observed.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 25th day of January, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart.
Mr. Waddington.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the 19th day of July, 1825, under the authority of an Act of Parliament of the sixth year of King George the Fourth, chapter seventy-eight, it was, amongst other things, provided, that the medical attendant and superintendent, or his assistant, or any other person duly authorised by an Order in Council, may go on board any vessel under quarantine without such medical attendant or superintendent, or his assistant, being in any way subject to the restraint of quarantine;

And whereas by an Act of Parliament, duly made and passed in the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety, it was, amongst other things, provided, that every vessel having on board any person affected with a dangerous or infectious disorder, should be deemed to be within the provisions of the said Act of the sixth year of King George the Fourth, chapter seventy-eight, although such vessel had not commenced her voyage, or had come from or was bound for some place in the United Kingdom; and the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one), might, by Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, make such rules, orders, and regulations as to them should seem fit, as therein mentioned; and such Orders should be binding and be carried into effect as soon as the same shall have been published, as therein mentioned, or at such other time as shall be fixed by such Orders:

And whereas the vessels called called "La Plata," "Æolus," and "Menelaus" are now under quarantine at the Motherbank, off the Isle of Wight, and it is considered by the said Lords expedient that Doctor Edward Seaton should be permitted to go on board the said vessel without being in any way subject to the restraint of quarantine: Now, therefore, the said Lords have ordered, and do hereby order, that the said Doctor Edward Seaton shall be at liberty to go on board, and he is hereby authorized and permitted to go on board the said vessels now under quarantine as aforesaid, without being in any way subject to the restraint of quarantine. And this Order shall be binding, and have immediate effect from the date thereof, and shall be carried, or permitted to be carried, into execution immediately by all whom it may concern.

War Office, January 25, 1867.

THE Queen has been pleased, by an instrument under Her Royal Sign Manual, of which the following is a copy, to direct that the decoration of the Victoria Cross may be conferred on persons serving in the Local Forces of the Colony of New Zealand, or who may hereafter be employed in the Local Forces raised, or which may be raised, in the Colonies and their dependencies generally.

VICTORIA, R.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith:

To all to whom these presents shall come, greeting.

WHEREAS, by a Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, and bearing date at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, the twenty-ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the nineteenth year of Our reign, We did constitute and create a new Naval and Military decoration, to be styled and designated the Victoria Cross, which decoration We expressed Our desire should be highly prized and eagerly sought after by the Officers and men of Our Naval and Military Services, and did also make, ordain, and establish the rules and ordinances therein set forth for the government of the same, to be thenceforth inviolably observed and kept.

And whereas, during the progress of the operations which We have undertaken against the Insurgent native tribes in Our Colony of New Zealand, it has happened that persons serving in the Local Forces of Our said Colony have performed deeds of gallantry, in consideration of which they are not, according to the strict provisions of Our said recited Warrant, eligible for this high distinction.

Now know ye, that We, of Our especial grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, have thought fit hereby to signify Our Royal Will and Pleasure that the said decoration may be conferred on such persons aforesaid, who may be qualified to receive the same in accordance with the rules and ordinances made, ordained, and established by Us for the government thereof, by Our said recited Warrant, and We do by these presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, ordain and appoint that it shall be competent for such persons aforesaid to obtain the said decoration, in the manner set forth in the rules and ordinances referred to, or in accordance with such further rules and ordinances as may hereafter be made and promulgated by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, for the government of the said decoration, provided that it be established in any case that the person was serving with Our Troops, under the orders of a General or other Officer, under circumstances which would entitle an Officer or Soldier of Our Army to be recommended for the said decoration, in accordance with the rules and ordinances prescribed in Our said recited Warrant, and provided also that such person shall be recommended for it by such General or other Officer.

And We do further, for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, ordain and appoint that the said decoration may also be conferred, in accordance with the rules and ordinances prescribed in Our said recited Warrant, and subject to the provisions aforesaid, on such persons as may be qualified to receive the same in accordance with the said rules and ordinances, who may hereafter be employed in the Local Forces raised, or which may be raised, in Our Colonies and their dependencies, and who may be called upon to serve in co-operation with Our Troops, in military operations which it may be necessary to undertake for the suppression of rebellion against Our authority, or for repelling invasion by a Foreign enemy.

Given at Our Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, this first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the thirtieth year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament, holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant; and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act made and passed in the Session of Parliament, holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament made and passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 27, for amending the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and for providing for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications.

And whereas it is expedient to alter certain of the rates of postage now payable upon certain newspapers transmitted by the post, and chargeable with postage under the authority of a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 22nd day of September, 1866, and for that purpose to repeal such last-mentioned Warrant.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, respectively, and all and every, or some or one of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order, declare, and direct as follows, that is to say:—

1. On every letter not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to New Zealand or Australia, transmitted by the post from any place in the United Kingdom to New Zealand or Australia, via Panama (the sea conveyance being partly by British, and partly by colonial packet boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and Colonial combined) of sixpence.

2. On every letter not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight transmitted by the post from any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom, to New Zealand or Australia, via Panama (the sea conveyance from the United Kingdom to New Zealand or Australia being partly by British and partly by Colonial packet boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and Colonial combined) of sixpence for the conveyance of every such letter from any port in the United Kingdom to New Zealand or Australia; and for the conveyance of every such letter from the British colony or foreign country from which the same shall be forwarded to the port in the United Kingdom of the arrival of the packet boat or vessel (not being a packet boat) conveying the same, such a further or additional rate of postage as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight posted in any such British colony or foreign country, and transmitted direct from such colony or foreign country to the port in the United Kingdom of the arrival of the packet boat or vessel (not being a packet boat) conveying the same, provided that in all cases where such additional rate includes both inland and sea services there shall be deducted therefrom the sum of one penny, in respect of the inland conveyance under this clause of every such letter sent through the United Kingdom.

3. All such respective letters so transmitted as is mentioned in the first and second clauses of this Warrant, if exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight, shall be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):—

On every letter so transmitted, if exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two rates of postage.

And on every letter so transmitted, if exceeding one ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

And on every letter so transmitted, if exceeding two ounces and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every letter so transmitted, if exceeding three ounces and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every additional ounce in weight of any letter so transmitted as aforesaid, above the weight of four ounces, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two additional rates of postage, and every fractional part of such additional ounce in weight, above the weight of four ounces, shall be charged as an additional ounce in weight, and each progressive and additional rate, chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight.

4. On every letter not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight transmitted by colonial packet boat from Panama to New Zealand, or Australia (without such letters having previously passed through the United Kingdom), there shall be charged and taken (in addition to any other rates of postage chargeable and payable thereupon), a colonial packet rate of postage of sixpence.

5. And on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in the fourth clause of this Warrant, exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage as follows, that is to say:—

On every such letter exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce in weight, three rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

And for every half of an ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of two ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage, and in charging any additional rate of postage, every fractional part of such additional half of an ounce shall be charged as an additional half of an ounce in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight.

6. On every letter transmitted by the post under the provisions of the 1st and 4th clauses of this Warrant, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such letter near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant.

7. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to New Zealand or Australia (except Tasmania), without any postage having been paid thereon in the mode hereinbefore required, or with a postage paid thereon in the mode hereinbefore required which shall be less in amount than the single rate of postage to which such letter, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight, would be liable under this Warrant, every such letter shall be detained and opened, and shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof.

8. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to New Zealand or Australia (except Tasmania) with a postage paid thereon in the mode hereinbefore required, which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which the same would be liable under or by virtue of this Warrant, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable on any such letter, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight, every such letter shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon and the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with the further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

9. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Tasmania without any postage having been paid thereon in the mode hereinbefore required, or with a postage paid thereon in the mode hereinbefore required, which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which the same would be liable under or by virtue of this Warrant; or if any letter shall be sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of the fourth clause of this Warrant, without the postage payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant, being fully prepaid in the mode hereinbefore required, every such respective letter shall be detained and opened, and shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof.

10. Nothing herein contained shall in anywise annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions or privileges granted by or under the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, or by or under any other Acts of Parliament relating to the Post Office, or any of the privileges which officers, seamen, and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service are by law entitled to of sending and receiving letters by the post, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

11. On every printed British newspaper posted in the United Kingdom addressed to New Zealand or Australia, and transmitted by the post from any place in the United Kingdom to New Zealand or Australia, via Panama (the sea conveyance being partly by British and partly by colonial packet-boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and colonial combined) of fourpence: and on every printed colonial or foreign newspaper transmitted by the post from any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country through the United Kingdom to New Zealand or Australia via Panama (the sea conveyance from the United Kingdom to New Zealand or Australia being partly by British and partly by colonial packet-boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and colonial combined) of fourpence for the conveyance of every such newspaper from any port in the United Kingdom to New Zealand or Australia; and for the conveyance of every such last-mentioned newspaper from the British colony or foreign country from which the same shall be forwarded to the port in the United Kingdom of the arrival of the packet-boat or vessel (not being a packet-boat) conveying the same, such a further or additional rate of postage as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on such newspapers posted in any such British colony or foreign country, and transmitted direct from such colony or foreign country to the port in the United Kingdom of the arrival of the packet-boat or vessel (not being a packet-boat) conveying the same.

12. On every packet consisting of a printed newspaper not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by colonial packet boat from Panama to New Zealand, or Australia (without having previously passed through the United Kingdom), there shall be charged and taken (in addition to all other rates of postage chargeable and payable thereupon) a colonial rate of postage of twopence.

13. On every packet consisting of printed papers other than newspapers, or consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize of no intrinsic value, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by colonial packet boat from Panama to New Zealand or Australia (without having previously passed through the United Kingdom), there shall be charged and taken (in addition to all other rates of postage chargeable and payable thereupon) a colonial rate of postage of threepence.
