

parish of Great Marlow, and also as the alternate patron in right of his see of the rectory of the said parish of Fingest (to which is united for Ecclesiastical purposes the rectory of the parish of Ibstone, in the county and diocese aforesaid), with the consent of Dame Elizabeth Dashwood, of West Wycombe Park, in the same county, widow, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of West Wycombe, and with the consent of the Reverend William Henry Ridley, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Hambleton, and the patron of the same rectory (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and with the consent of the warden and scholars of the House or College of Scholars of Merton in the University of Oxford, the other alternate patrons of the rectory of the parish of Fingest with the parish of Ibstone thereto united as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have affixed their corporate or collegiate seal to this representation) we humbly represent, that it would in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Great Marlow, of the said parish of West Wycombe, of the said parish of Fingest, and of the said parish of Hambleton, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Lane End aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Lane End,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such Consolidated Chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said William Henry Ridley, as rector for the time being of the rectory of the parish of Hambleton as aforesaid, and by his successors in the same rectory for ever.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Lane End, being:—

"All those contiguous portions of the parish of Great Marlow, in the county of Buckingham, and in the diocese of Oxford, of the parish of West Wycombe, in the same county and diocese, of the parish of Fingest in the same county and diocese, and of the parish of Hambleton in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line, commencing at a point upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Marlow from the parish of Hambleton aforesaid, at a point near to Sears's brick-kilns, in the middle of the road leading from Freeth across Moor Common to Lane End, and extending thence first southward, then north-eastward, and then south-eastward along the last described boundary passing Moor Farm, and passing Bismar Pond, and following from thence the southern side of Moor Wood to the southern end of the fence dividing Moor Wood aforesaid from the closes numbered respectively 1081, 1098, and 1099 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Great Marlow, and upon the map hereunto annexed, and extending thence first northward and then north-eastward along the middle of such fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 1099 as aforesaid, from the close numbered

1100 upon the said maps, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last described fence, and along the middle of the fence dividing the close numbered 18 upon the said maps from the cottage and orchard numbered 16 upon the same maps, to the northern extremity of the last described fence on the southern side of the road leading from Lane End to Marlow, near to the milestone indicating three miles to Marlow, and extending thence north-eastward, obliquely across the last described road to a point in the middle of the southern end of a certain footpath leading through Brangwins Shaw and Widdington Park Wood towards West Wycombe, and extending thence in a direction generally northward, to and along the middle of the said footpath (crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Marlow from the parish of West Wycombe aforesaid), as far as a point in the middle of the fence forming the southern boundary of the close in which Park Cottages are situate, and which is numbered 789 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of West Wycombe, and upon the said map hereunto annexed, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said boundary fence to its junction with the fence forming the eastern and northern boundary fence of the same close and cottages, and extending thence first northward and then westward along the middle of the last described boundary fence to a point in the middle of the southern end of the lane which leads from the said cottages towards West Wycombe, and extending thence northward along the middle of the same lane to its junction with Park-lane, and continuing thence still northward across the last-named lane to a point in the middle of the southern end of Great Wood-lane, and continuing thence in the same direction for a distance of twenty chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the fence forming the southern boundary of the farm-house and homestead called Ellis's Farm, in the occupation of Mr. James Smith Hobbs and numbered 430 upon the last-mentioned maps; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the last described boundary fence to its junction with the fence forming the eastern and northern boundary of the said farm-house and homestead, and extending thence first northward and then north-westward along the middle of the last described fence to a point in the middle of Great Wood-lane, aforesaid, opposite to the middle of the western end of the last described fence, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned lane for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to the gate at the entrance of Great Wood opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the footpath which leads along the southern side of the said Wood, and across the road called "Gravelly Nap," and across the enclosed lands on the western side of such road, and through Denhams Wood to Wheeler End Common, and extending thence first north-westward to and along the last-described footpath, and then south-westward along the middle of the same footpath as far as a point on Wheeler End Common aforesaid at the south-eastern corner of the allotment grounds called "Botany," and continuing thence south-westward in a direct line for a distance of ten and a half chains, or thereabouts across the said common to the point in the middle of the road leading from Fingest to Ham and West Wycombe where such road is intersected by the boundary which divides the said parish of West Wycombe from the parish of Fingest aforesaid, and extending thence westward along