

day of March next, if the said licence shall so long continue in force, be moved to any slaughter house within a district therein described, to be there immediately slaughtered under such regulations as the Local Authority of the several counties in which the places therein-mentioned should be situated respectively should from time to time make and issue in regard to the movement, and the places, times, and manner of the slaughtering of such cattle :

And that if the said Local Authority made regulations in such behalf, cattle might be moved under such regulations from the said market by railway only to the Spon-lane Station of the London and North-Western Railway, or to the West Bromwich Station of the Great Western Railway, and thence respectively to slaughter-houses within the parish of West Bromwich, and there be forthwith slaughtered, or to the Brierley-hill Station of the Great Western Railway, to be forthwith slaughtered, within one mile of such station : And subject to regulations to be made by the said Local Authority, cattle might be slaughtered within the parts of the parishes of Willenhall, Wednesbury, and Sedgley, which were not included in the district above described :

And it was provided that nothing therein contained should allow the cattle to be kept alive for more than four days after exposure in the said market.

And whereas it is expedient to make further regulations in regard to cattle sold in the said market at Wolverhampton.

Now, therefore, the Lords of the said Council do hereby order that from and after the twenty-second day of this present month of February, cattle sold in the said market, in the borough of Wolverhampton, may be moved to slaughter-houses situated within the parliamentary boundaries of the boroughs of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and of Wolverhampton and Walsall, in the county of Stafford ; and in the following towns and places, all in the said last-named county, that is to say, Handsworth, Smethwick, Darlaston, Wednesbury, West Bromwich, Tipton, Rowley Regis, Great Bridge, Harborne, and the parish of Kingswinford, and to the towns and places of Aston, Warwick, Coventry, and Saltley, all in the county of Warwick ; and at all intermediate places, in the respective counties of Stafford and Warwick, between any of the above-named boroughs, towns, and places, and the parliamentary boundaries of the said borough of Wolverhampton, to be there slaughtered under such regulations to be made and issued as aforesaid, and subject to the same provisions as to the time of slaughter aforesaid.

Provided also, that the cattle shall be moved from the said market to the borough of Birmingham by railway only, but may be moved to the town of West Bromwich or to Brierley Hill by road or by railway.

Nothing in the Order of the Lords of the Council bearing date the 22nd day of June, applicable to the counties of Warwick and Worcester, shall prevent the operation of this Order.

This Order shall be published, by the Local Authority of the county of Stafford, in some newspaper circulating in the borough of Wolverhampton, and by a notice affixed in some conspicuous place in the said market ; and every regulation of a Local Authority made under this Order shall be published in like manner.

Every person who shall contravene this Order, or any regulation of the Local Authority made under it, shall be guilty of an offence, and be subject to the like penalty as in the case of a contravention of any regulation in the said Order of the 24th of March last.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of February, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Mr. Corry.

WHEREAS by an Order bearing date the 5th day of May last reciting certain provisions of the Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders amongst sheep, cattle, and other animals," duly continued by subsequent Acts, and that the same had been amended and explained by an Act of the last session of Parliament, and the appearance and prevalence of the Cattle Plague amongst cattle in England and Wales, and that divers Orders had been made by the Lords of the Council which had been consolidated and amended by an Order bearing date the 24th day of March last, and further reciting certain provisions in the said Order, and particularly one prohibiting the holding of markets for the sale of cattle without a licence, and that a market was held for the borough of Liverpool at Stanley, in the township of West Derby, which had been licensed by the Lords of the Council under the said Order for a limited time, and further reciting certain matters relating to the township of Birkenhead, in the county of Chester, the said Lords did make certain provisions to be in force until the 1st of June then next following, or until further Order in that behalf should be sooner made in reference to the movement of cattle from the said market into the said township of Birkenhead :

And whereas by an Order, bearing date the 31st day of May last, the said Order was continued until the said Order of the 24th day of March last, applicable to the sale of cattle in markets, should cease to be in force, or until the Lords of the Council should make other Order in that behalf :

And whereas the said Order of the 24th of March last still continues in force ; but it is expedient that the said Order of the 5th day of May last shall be determined.

Now, therefore, the Lords of the said Council do hereby order, that from and after the twenty-second day of this present February, the said Order of the 5th day of May last shall be determined and be no longer in force, except in respect of any matter or thing commenced under it and not completed, and in respect of any offence committed against it and not yet punished.

And the said Lords do further order that the Local Authority of the borough of Liverpool shall publish this Order by causing the same to