TO all to whom these presents shall come, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, send greeting: Whereas partly in consideration of certain tithes, or rent-charges in lieu thereof, arising within the particular district of the Holy Trinity, Chesterfield, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield, having come into the possession of us, the said Commissioners, an annuity has been granted by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the church of such particular district; Now, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of "The District Church Tithes Act, 1865," do hereby declare that from and after the time of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, pursuant to the provisions of the same Act, the said church of the particular district of the Holy Trinity, Chesterfield aforesaid, shall be and be deemed to be a rectory.

In witness whereof, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have hereunto affixed our common seal, this seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

TO all to whom these presents shall come, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, send greeting: Whereas it has been made to appear to us that certain tithes, or rent-charges in lieu thereof, arising within the parish or parochial chapelry of Loose, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, belong to the Incumbent of the church of such parish or parochial chapelry; Now, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of "The District Church Tithes Act, 1865," do hereby declare that from and after the time of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, pursuant to the provisions of the same Act, the said church of the parish or parochial chapelry of Loose aforesaid shall be and be deemed to be a vicarage.

In witness whereof, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have hereunto affixed our common seal, this fourteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

TO all to whom these presents shall come, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, send greeting: Whereas it has been made to appear to us that certain tithes, or rent-charges in lieu thereof, arising within the parish of Tarrington, in the county of Hereford, and in the diocese of Hereford, belong to the Incumbent of the church of such parish: Now, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of "The District Church Tithes Act, 1865," do hereby declare that from and after the time of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, pursuant to the provisions of the same Act, the said church of the parish of Tarrington aforesaid, shall be and be deemed to be a rectory.

In witness whereof, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have hereunto affixed our common seal, this seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Independent Chapel, situated at Green Mount, in Tottington, in the parish of Bury, in the county of Lancaster, in the district of Bury, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 25th day of March, 1867, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 26th day of March, 1867.
Wm. Harper, Superintendent Registrar.
