Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 18, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 25th of May next.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 1st day of April, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Duke of Richmond.
Lord Robert Montagu.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," and from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act passed in the session of the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and nineteen, it is (amongst other things) enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time, to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection, and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act:

And whereas the said Act has been amended and explained by an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, to prevent the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals:"

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," has lately appeared and still prevails amongst cattle in some parts of England:

And whereas divers Orders have been made by the Lords of the said Council in relation to the Cattle Plague, which were consolidated and amended by an Order bearing date the 24th day of March, 1866:

And whereas provisions are contained in the said Order of the Privy Council to regulate the movement of cattle on any highway, and such movement without a licence as therein described is prohibited, except for a distance not exceeding five hundred yards, from one part of the same farm to the other:

And whereas the holding of markets for the sale of cattle was prohibited by the said Order until the 1st day of June, 1866, except in the case of a market held with the licence of the Privy Council for the sale of cattle intended for immediate slaughter, which term hath, by an Order of the said Council, been extended from the said 1st day of June until the said Lords of the Council shall otherwise direct:

And whereas there is a market held on premises belonging to the Corporation of Salford, situate in Cross-lane, in Salford, in the county of Lancaster, for the sale of cattle, and the holding thereof has been licensed by the Lords of the said Council, by instrument bearing date the 31st day of May last, for the sale of cattle intended for immediate slaughter, so long as the said above-mentioned Orders shall remain in force, or until the revocation thereof as therein provided, subject to all the conditions, provisions, and regulations in the said first-mentioned Order contained applicable to such market:

And whereas it is provided by the said Order of the 24th day of March, 1866, that in the case of cattle brought to any market other than the Metropolitan Cattle Market, they shall in no case be taken beyond such limits as may be described in the licence of the Privy Council allowing such market, and under such conditions with respect to their movement within such limits as may be imposed by such licence :

And whereas in the said licence for the holding of the above-mentioned market, it is provided that no cattle brought into the said market shall be taken alive beyond the limits of the municipal boundaries of the boroughs of Salford and Manchester, and it is expedient that certain other regulations should be made in this behalf :

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby order, that notwithstanding such provision in the said licence, cattle sold in the said market may, until the first day of August next, if the said licence shall so long continue in force, be moved for a distance extending twelve miles from the said market, but not further, to any slaughter-house, to be there immediately slaughtered under such regulations as the Local Authority for the county of Lancaster shall from time to time make and issue in regard to the movement as well as the places, times, and manner of slaughtering of such cattle :

Provided, that if any cattle shall be moved for a distance exceeding five miles in a direct line from such market, the cattle shall be moved by railway only from the market to their ultimate destination, or to within one mile thereof ; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall allow the cattle to be kept alive for more than four days after exposure in the said market.

This Order, and every regulation made under it, shall be published by the said Local Authority in some newspaper circulating in the borough of Salford, and by a notice affixed in some conspicuous place in the said market.

Every person who shall contravene this Order, or any regulation of the Local Authority made under it, shall be guilty of an offence, and be subject to the like penalty as in the case of a contravention of any regulation in the said Order of the 24th day of March, 1866.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 1st day of April, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.

Duke of Richmond.

Lord Robert Montagu.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent until the "first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then session "of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or "infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and "other animals," and from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act passed in the session of the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and nineteen, it is

(amongst other things) enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection, and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations ; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid, in any such Order or Orders contained, shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act :

And whereas the said Act has been amended and explained by an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Act of the eleventh and "twelfth years of Her present Majesty, chapter "one hundred and seven, to prevent the spreading "of contagious or infectious disorders among "sheep, cattle, and other animals :"

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," has lately appeared and still prevails amongst cattle in some parts of England :

And whereas divers Orders have been made by the Lords of the said Council in relation to the cattle plague, which were consolidated and amended by an Order bearing date the 24th day of March, 1866 :

And whereas provisions are contained in the said Order of the Privy Council to regulate the movement of cattle on any highway, and such movement without a licence as therein described is prohibited, except for a distance not exceeding five hundred yards, from one part of the same farm to the other :

And whereas the holding of markets for the sale of cattle is prohibited by the said Order until the 1st day of June, 1866, except in the case of a market held with the licence of the Privy Council for the sale of cattle intended for immediate slaughter, which term hath, by an Order of the said Council, been extended from the said 1st day of June until the said Lords of the Council shall otherwise direct :

And whereas there is a market held in the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of Northumberland, which is contiguous to the borough of Gateshead, in the county of Durham, for the sale of cattle, and the holding thereof has been licensed by the Lords of the said Council, by instrument bearing date the 31st day of May last, for the sale of cattle intended for immediate slaughter, so long as the said above-mentioned Orders shall remain in force, or until the revocation thereof, as therein provided, subject to all the conditions, provisions, and regulations in the said first-mentioned Order contained applicable to such market :

And whereas it is provided by the said Order of the 24th day of March, 1866, that in the case of cattle brought to any market other than the Metropolitan Cattle Market, they shall in no case be taken beyond such limits as may be described in the licence of the Privy Council allowing such market, and under such conditions with respect to their movement within such limits as may be imposed by such licence :

And whereas in the said licence for the holding of the above-mentioned market, it is provided that no cattle brought into the said market shall be taken alive beyond the district comprised within the outer municipal boundaries of the said two boroughs, and it is expedient that certain other regulations should be made in this behalf :

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby order, that notwithstanding such provision in the said licence, cattle other than such as may be brought by sea from any place out of the United Kingdom into the port of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, sold in the said market, may, until the first day of August next, if the said licence shall continue so long in force, be moved to any slaughter-house in the boroughs of Sunderland and South Shields, or in the town of Jarrow, in the said county of Durham, or in the town of North Shields, in the county of Northumberland, but not further, to be there immediately slaughtered under such regulations as the Local Authorities for the respective counties of Durham and Northumberland shall, from time to time, make and issue in regard to the movement, as well as the times, places, and manner of the slaughtering of such cattle :

Provided that the cattle shall be moved by railway only from Newcastle-upon-Tyne to Sunderland, North or South Shields, Tynemouth, or Jarrow, as the case may be ; and provided that nothing herein contained shall allow the cattle to be kept alive for more than four days after exposure in the said market.

This Order shall be published by the Local Authority of the county of Northumberland, and every regulation made by the Local Authorities respectively under it, shall also be published in some newspaper circulating in the said borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and by a notice affixed in some conspicuous place in the said market.

Every person who shall contravene this Order, or any regulation of the Local Authorities made under it, shall be guilty of an offence, and be subject to the like penalty as in the case of a contravention of any regulation in the said Order of the 24th day of March, 1866.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 1st day of April, 1867.

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," has lately appeared and still prevails amongst cattle, in some parts of England.

And whereas divers Orders have been made by the Lords of the said Council in relation to the cattle plague, which were consolidated and amended by an Order bearing date the 24th day of March, 1866 :

And whereas provisions are contained in the said Order of the Privy Council to regulate the movement of cattle on any highway, and such movement without a licence as therein described is prohibited, except for a distance not exceeding five hundred yards, from one part of the same farm to the other :

And whereas the holding of markets for the sale of cattle is prohibited by the said Order until the 1st day of June, 1866, except in the case of a market held with the licence of the Privy Council for the sale of cattle intended for immediate slaughter, which term hath, by an Order of the said Council, been extended from the said 1st day of June until the said Lords of the Council shall otherwise direct :

And whereas there is a market held in the borough of Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, for the sale of cattle, and the holding thereof has been licensed by the Lords of the said Council, by instrument bearing date the 31st day of May last, for the sale of cattle intended for immediate slaughter, so long as the said above-mentioned Orders shall remain in force, or until the revocation thereof, as therein provided, subject to all the conditions, provisions, and regulations in the said first-mentioned Order contained applicable to such market :

And whereas it is provided by the said Order of the 24th day of March, 1866, that in the case of cattle brought to any market other than the Metropolitan Cattle Market, they shall in no case be taken beyond such limits as may be described in the licence of the Privy Council allowing such market, and under such conditions with respect to their movement within such limits as may be imposed by such licence :

And whereas in the said licence for the holding of the above-mentioned market, it is provided that no cattle brought into the said market shall be taken alive beyond the limits of the municipal boundaries of the borough of Wolverhampton, and it is expedient that certain other regulations should be made in this behalf :

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby order, that notwithstanding such provision in the said licence, cattle sold in the said market may, until the first day of August next, if the said market shall continue to be licensed until that day, or if not, until the revocation or other sooner determination of the licence, be moved to slaughter-houses situated within the parliamentary boundaries of the boroughs of Wolverhampton, Coventry, and Warwick, in the county of Warwick, of Dudley, in the county of Worcester, and of Wolverhampton and Walsall, in the county of Stafford, and in the following parishes, towns, and places, all in the said last-named county, that is to say: the parishes of Kingwinford and Sedgley, and the towns and places of Handsworth, Smethwick, Darlaston, Wednesbury, West Bromwich, Tipton, Rowley Regis, Great Bridge, and Harborne, and to the towns and places of Aston and Saltley, in the county of Warwick, and at all intermediate places in the respective counties of Stafford and Warwick, between any of the above-named boroughs, parishes, towns, and places, and the parliamentary boundary of the said borough of Wolverhampton, to be there slaughtered under such regulations as the Local Authorities of the several counties in which these places shall be situated respectively, shall, from time to time, make and issue in regard to the movement, and the places, times, and manner of the slaughtering of such cattle :

Provided also, that the cattle shall be moved from the said market to the boroughs of Birmingham, Coventry, and Warwick, and to Aston and Saltley by railway only :

Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall allow the cattle to be kept alive for more than four days after exposure in the said market.

And the said Lords do further order that, notwithstanding any provision in the said licence or in any previous Order to the contrary, swine may be sold at any market or other place within the said borough of Wolverhampton, whether for immediate slaughter or otherwise, and need not be slaughtered within the municipal boundaries of the said borough within four days after exposure for sale.

This Order shall be published by the Local Authority of the county of Stafford, and every regulation made by the Local Authorities respectively under it, shall also be published in some newspaper circulating in the borough of Wolverhampton, and by a notice affixed in some conspicuous place in the said market :

Every person who shall contravene this Order, or any regulation of the Local Authorities made under it, shall be guilty of an offence, and be subject to the like penalty as in the case of a contravention of any regulation in the said Order of the 24th day of March, 1866.

24 & 25 VICT., cap. 109, sec. 18.

28 & 29 VICT., cap. 121, sec. 24.

WHEREAS application has been made to me, the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the Board of Conservators for the Exe Salmon Fishery District, situate partly in the counties of Devon and Somerset, and partly in the city of Exeter, to vary the close time for taking salmon in that district :

I do hereby, by virtue of the provisions of the Acts 24 and 25 Vict., cap. 109, and 28 and 29 Vict., cap. 121, by this Order under my hand, vary the time during which it is prohibited to take salmon in the said district, and do order that the close time for taking salmon in that district shall be extended from the 1st day of February to the 1st day of March.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, the 28th day of March, 1867.

(Signed) S. H. Walpole.

PUBLIC HOUSE CLOSING ACT, 1864.

(27 and 28 Vict., cap. 64).

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY KEIGHLEY, W. R. YORKSHIRE.

WHEREAS the Local Board of Health for the district of Keighley, in the West Riding of the county of York, acting under the provisions of the Local Government Act, 1858, adopted, on the 26th day of March, 1867, the Public House Closing Act, 1864, within that district, and notice of such adoption has been duly given in writing to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by the said last hereinbefore-recited Act :

Now, therefore, I do hereby give notice, that such Act has been duly adopted within the limits of the district of the said Local Board of Health of Keighley, and that, in accordance with the provisions of the said Public House Closing Act, 1864, that Act will have the force of law within the said district, from and after the expiration of one month from the date of the passing of the resolution adopting the said Act in such district.

Given under my hand this 1st day of April, 1867.

(Signed) S. H. Walpole.

Home Office, Whitehall.

[Act No. 3 of 1866—1867.]

CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

ANALYSIS.

Preamble.

1. Act 18 of 1865 continued.
2. Provisions of Act to apply to Sheep.
3. Certain Cattle exempted.

ACT to continue, with Amendment, until the 31st of December, 1867, the Provisions of the Act No. 18 of 1865, intituled "An Act to prevent the introduction into this Colony of Malignant Diseases affecting Horned Cattle."

WHEREAS it appears, by intelligence received, that the malignant disease referred to in the Act No. 18 of 1865, intituled "An Act to prevent the introduction into this Colony of Malignant Diseases affecting Horned Cattle," is still prevalent to some extent in Great Britain, and elsewhere in Europe; and, further, that certain malignant diseases affecting sheep, and liable to spread contagion among sheep, are also there prevalent: Be it therefore enacted, by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:

I. That the provisions of the said recited Act be continued in force, and the same are hereby continued in force, until the thirty-first day of December, 1867.

II. That the several sections of the said Act shall, from and after the thirty-first day of December, 1866, be read as if after the words "horned cattle," wherever the same occur in the same sections respectively, the words "or sheep" were inserted.

III. That, notwithstanding the provisions of the said Act, or of this Act, the cattle now on Robben Island, which were brought thither after the passing of the said Act, may, nevertheless, be imported into this Colony, or into any part thereof.

Given at Government House, Cape Town, this 8th day of January, 1867.

By command of his Excellency the Governor,
R. SOUTHEY, Colonial Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Jubilee, situate at Pell-street, Swansea, in the county of Glamorgan, in the district of Swansea, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 18th day of March, 1867, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 19th day of March, 1867.
G. B. Haynes, Superintendent Registrar.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of May v. May, and with the approbation of the Judge to whose Court this cause is attached, in one lot, by Mr. John Hooper, at the Globe Hotel, Exeter, on Thursday, the 16th day of May, 1867, at three o'clock precisely:—

A freehold messuage and tenement, called Greenhill, situate in or near the village of Lowley, in the parish of Doddicombsleigh, in the county of Devon, with the several fields and closes of land thereunto belonging, containing 36A. 3R. 21P., or thereabouts. The estate adjoins the lands of Sir Lawrence Palk, M.P., and the lands of the trustees of the late Sub-dean Stephens and others, and is in the occupation of Mr. William May, who quits the estate at Michaelmas, 1867. The main walls of a new farm-house have been built and covered in; but the house is not completed.
