

the Local Government Act, 1858, the said portions of the hereinbefore recited Act will, from the date of the notice of the adoption thereof, have the force of law within the Stourbridge Improvement Commissioners' District aforesaid.

Given under my hand this 4th day of April, 1867.

(Signed) S. H. Walpole.

Home Office, Whitehall.

TO all to whom these presents shall come, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, send greeting: Whereas it has been made to appear to us that certain tithes, or rent-charges in lieu thereof, arising within the district chapelry of Saint Margaret, Iver Heath, in the county of Buckingham, and in the diocese of Oxford, belong to the Incumbent of the church of such district chapelry: Now, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of "The District Church Tithes Act, 1865," do hereby declare that from and after the time of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, pursuant to the provisions of the same Act, the said church of the district chapelry of Saint Margaret, Iver Heath aforesaid, shall be and be deemed to be a rectory.

In witness whereof, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have hereunto affixed our common seal, this twenty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

TO all to whom these presents shall come, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, send greeting: Whereas it has been made to appear to us that certain tithes, or rent-charges in lieu thereof, arising within the consolidated chapelry of Saint Mary, Quarford, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester belong to the Incumbent of the church of such consolidated chapelry; Now, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of "The District Church Tithes Act, 1865," do hereby declare that from and after the time of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, pursuant to the provisions of the same Act, the said church of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Mary, Quarford aforesaid shall be and be deemed to be a rectory.

TO all to whom these presents shall come, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, send greeting: Whereas it has been made to appear to us that certain lands allotted or awarded in lieu of tithes, and situate within the parish of Smeeton Westerby, in the county of Leicester, and in the diocese of Peterborough, belong to the Incumbent of the church of such parish; Now, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of "The District Church Tithes Act, 1865," do hereby declare that from and after the time of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, pursuant to the provisions of the same Act, the said church of the parish of Smeeton Westerby aforesaid shall be and be deemed to be a rectory.

In witness whereof, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have hereunto affixed our common seal, this twenty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the Rectory of Broad Blunsdon, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and to his successors incumbents of the same benefice, all those two pieces or parcels of land, with their appurtenances, which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us, to have and to hold the said two pieces or parcels of land, with their appurtenances, to the use of the said incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the incumbent for the time being of the same benefice shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said pieces or parcels of land, as from the eighteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-eighth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land, containing two roods and nine perches, situate in the new parish of Broad Blunsdon, in the county of Wilts, which said piece or parcel of land is bounded on the south-east by the road leading from Broad Blunsdon aforesaid to the Bury Town Farms; on the south-west, in part by land belonging to the Rector of Broad Blunsdon, in other part by the piece or parcel of land secondly hereinafter described, and in further part by a cottage and garden belonging to Samuel Hornblow, and in the occupation of Mary Hornblow, Widow; on the north-west by an orchard belonging to Mrs. Sarah Williams, and in the occupation of John Edmonds; and on the north-east by land now or lately belonging to the Churchwardens of Broad Blunsdon aforesaid; and secondly, all that other piece or parcel of land, containing one rood and seven perches (more or less), also situate in the said new parish of Broad Blunsdon, adjoining the last-described piece or parcel of land, and bounded on the south-east, in part by the said road leading from Broad Blunsdon to the Bury Town Farms, and in part by the said cottage and garden belonging to the said Samuel Hornblow; on the south-west by the churchyard of the said new parish; on the north-west by the land belonging to the said Rector of Broad Blunsdon; on the north-east by the said piece or parcel of land first hereinbefore described.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, having received a benefaction of six hundred pounds sterling in favour of the benefice of Allendale, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, in consideration whereof we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice, and to his succes-
