Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 18, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 25th of May next.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 6th day of May, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Lord Robert Montagu.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," and from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act passed in the session of the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and nineteen, it is (amongst other things) enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection, and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid, in any such Order or Orders contained, shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act:

And whereas the said Act has been amended and explained by an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, to prevent the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals:"

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," has lately appeared and now prevails amongst cattle in some parts of England:

And whereas divers Orders have been made by the Lords of the said Council in relation to the cattle plague, which were consolidated and amended by an Order bearing date the 24th day of March, 1866:

And whereas provisions are contained in the said Order of the Privy Council to regulate the movement of cattle on any highway, and such movement without a licence as therein described is prohibited, except for a distance not exceeding five hundred yards, from one part of the same farm to the other:

And whereas the holding of markets for the sale of cattle is prohibited by the said Order until the 1st day of June, 1866, except in the case of a market held with the licence of the Privy Council for the sale of cattle intended for immediate slaughter, which term hath, by an Order of the said Council, been extended from the said 1st day of June until the said Lords of the Council shall otherwise direct:

And whereas there is a market held in a place known as Smithfield, in the borough of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, for the sale of cattle, and the holding thereof has been licensed by the Lords of the said Council, by instrument bearing date the 31st day of May, 1866, for the sale of cattle intended for immediate slaughter, so long as the said above-mentioned Orders shall remain in force, or until the revocation of the said licence, as therein provided, subject to all the conditions, provisions, and regulations in the said first-mentioned Order contained applicable to such market:

And whereas it is provided by the said Order of the 24th day of March, 1866, that in the case of cattle brought to any market other than the Metropolitan Cattle Market, they shall in no case be taken beyond such limits as may be described in the licence of the Privy Council allowing such market, and under such conditions with respect to their movement within such limits as may be imposed by such licence :

And whereas in the said licence for the holding of the above-mentioned market, it is provided that no cattle brought into the said market shall be taken alive beyond the limits of the municipal boundaries of the said borough, and further, that no market shall be held for the sale of sheep, lambs, goats, or swine, within the said borough, except for the purpose of slaughter, and all sheep, lambs, goats, or swine, brought into any market within the borough for sale, shall be slaughtered within the municipal boundaries of the said borough within four days after their exposure in the market :

And whereas it is expedient that certain other regulations should be made in this behalf :

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby order, that notwithstanding such provisions in the said licence, and all similar provisions in the said Order, cattle sold in the said market until the thirty-first day of July next, if the said licence shall so long continue in force, may be moved to any slaughter-house in the towns or places of Wolverhampton, Walsall, Handsworth, Smethwick, Willenhall, Darlaston, Wednesbury, West Bromwich, Tipton, Rowley Regis, Great Bridge, Bilston, and Harborne, in the county of Stafford, and to the towns and places of Aston, Warwick, Coventry, and Saltley, all in the county of Warwick, and at all intermediate places in the respective counties of Stafford and Warwick, between any such town or place and the said borough of Birmingham, to be there slaughtered under such regulations as the Local Authorities for the counties of Stafford and Warwick respectively shall from time to time make and issue in regard to the movement as well as the places, times, and manner of slaughtering of such cattle :

Provided that nothing herein contained shall allow the cattle to be kept alive for more than four days after exposure in the said market.

Every such regulation shall be published by the Local Authority making it in some newspaper circulating in the borough of Birmingham, and by a notice affixed in some conspicuous place in the said market.

Notwithstanding the provision in the said licence above recited, and the similar provision in the said Order, swine may be sold at any market or other place within the said borough, whether for immediate slaughter or otherwise, and need not be slaughtered within the municipal boundaries of the said borough within four days after their exposure for sale.

This Order shall be construed in like manner as the said Order, and every person who shall contravene this Order, or any regulation of the Local Authorities made under it, shall be guilty of an offence, and be subject to the like penalty as in the case of a contravention of any regulation in such Order.

And the Lords of the said Council hereby further direct that the Local Authority of the borough of Birmingham shall cause this Order to be published in some newspaper circulating in the said borough.

Edmund Harrison.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 21).—AUSTRALIA—SOUTH COAST.

Light on Point Lonsdale, Port Phillip.

THE Department of Trade and Customs at Melbourne has given notice, that the temporary fixed red and green light on Point Lonsdale was to be discontinued after the 25th day of February, 1867, and that a light of the same character, but of greater power and more extended range, was to be exhibited from the lighthouse near Point Lonsdale Telegraph station.

From seaward the light will appear green between the bearings of about N. by W. and N.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W.; and red between N.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. and W. by S.; in clear weather the light should be seen from a distance of 10 miles.

By referring to the chart it will be seen that the N.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. line passes near the Lonsdale and Lightning rocks, and navigators are therefore cautioned to be on their guard before the colours begin to change, as the blending of the red and green lights will indicate close vicinity to the line which passes from the lighthouse over these dangers.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation 8° 20' E. in 1867.]

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
21st April, 1867.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Port Phillip entrance, No. 1171a; Entrance to Port Phillip, No. 2747; and Bass Strait, No. 1695. Also, Australian Light List, No. 185, and the Australia Directory, Vol. 1, 5th Edition, page 121.
