AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the subchanter and vicars-choral of the cathedral church of York, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the same Act, and bearing date the ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette on the fifteenth day of the same month, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments then belonging to the said subchanter and vicars-choral became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the greater part of the lands, tithes, and hereditaments aforesaid are demised by beneficial leases for lives or terms of years and produce during the subsistence of such leases only a small annual revenue and on that account and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said subchanter and vicars-choral, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 17th day of May, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 6th and 7th years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it is and shall be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty now hath, or may at any time hereafter have, within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory:

And whereas Her Majesty hath power and jurisdiction in the dominions of Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar:

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the due and effectual exercise of such power and jurisdiction:

1. Now, therefore, in pursuance and by virtue of the said recited Act of Parliament, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that Her Majesty's Consuls appointed to reside in the dominions of the Queen of Madagascar shall have full power and authority to carry into effect, and to enforce by the means and in the manner hereinafter mentioned and provided, the observance of the stipulations of the Treaty of June 27, 1865, or of any regulations appended to that Treaty, or any which may hereafter be made between Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, and the Queen of Madagascar, her heirs and successors; and to make and to enforce, by fine or imprisonment, or both, Rules and Regulations for the observance of the stipulations of any such Treaty, and for the peace, order, and good government of Her Majesty's subjects being within the dominions of the Queen of Madagascar, her heirs and successors.

2. And it is further ordered, that a copy of all such Rules and Regulations made by the said Consul shall forthwith be affixed, and kept affixed and exhibited in some conspicuous place in the public office of the said Consul, and that printed copies of the said Rules and Regulations shall, as soon as possible, be provided by the said Consul, and sold at a price not exceeding one dollar for each copy; and for the purpose of convicting any person offending against the said Rules and Regulations, and for all other purposes of law whatsoever, a printed copy of the said Rules and Regulations certified under the hand of the said Consul to be a true copy thereof, shall be taken as conclusive evidence of such Rules and Regulations and all things therein respectively contained, and no penalty shall be incurred or shall be enforced for the breach of any such Rules and Regulations to be hereafter made, until the same shall have been so affixed and exhibited for one calendar month in the public office of the Consul: Provided always, that any such Rule or Regulation made by Her Majesty's Consul, and to be enforced by a penalty, shall, before the first day on which the same shall be so affixed or exhibited, be transmitted to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for allowance or disallowance; and if any such Rule or Regulation shall be disallowed by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the same shall cease to have effect from the receipt by the Consul of such disallowance; nevertheless, the Consul shall not be liable to be proceeded against in any of Her Majesty's Courts in regard to any act done by him under such Rule or Regulation previously to the receipt of its disallowance by such Consul.

3. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul as aforesaid, upon information or upon the complaint of any person that a British subject has violated any of the stipulations of any Treaty, or of any Regulations appended to any Treaty, between Her Majesty and the Queen of Madagascar, or has disregarded or infringed any of the Rules or Regulations for the observance of the stipulations of any such Treaty affixed and exhibited according to the provisions of the next preceding Article of this Order, to summon before him the accused person and to receive evidence and to examine witnesses on oath, as to the guilt or innocence of such person in regard to the offence laid to his charge, and to award such penalty of fine or imprisonment against any person convicted of an offence against any such Treaty or appended Regulations, or against the said Rules and Regulations, as may be specified therein respectively; and any charge against a British subject for a breach of any such Treaty, or appended Regulations, or for a breach of such Rules and Regulations for the observance of any such Treaty, shall be heard and determined by the Consul without Assessors: Provided always, that in no case shall the penalty to be incurred by a breach of such Rules and Regulations exceed 500 dollars, or three calendar months' imprisonment.

4. And it is further ordered, that any charge against a British subject for a breach of Rules and Regulations other than those relating to the observance of Treaties shall, in like manner, be heard and determined by Her Majesty's Consul; and in all cases in which the penalty shall not exceed 200 dollars, or one calendar month's imprisonment, the Consul shall hear and determine the charge summarily without the aid of Assessors; but where a penalty attached to a breach of the Rules and Regulations other than those relating to the observance of Treaties shall amount to more than 200 dollars, or to imprisonment for more than one calendar month, the Consul, before he shall proceed to hear the charge, shall summon two disinterested British subjects of good repute to sit with him as Assessors, which Assessors, however, shall have no authority to decide on the innocence or guilt of the person charged, or on the amount of fine or imprisonment to be awarded to him on conviction, but it shall rest with the Consul to decide on the guilt or innocence of the person charged, and on the amount of fine or imprisonment to be awarded to him: Provided always, that in no case shall the penalty to be attached to a breach of Rules and Regulations other than those for the observance of Treaties exceed 500 dollars, or three calendar months' imprisonment; and provided further, that in the event of the said Assessors, or either of them, dissenting from the conviction of the party charged, or from the penalty of fine or imprisonment awarded to him by the Consul, the Consul shall take a note of such dissent, with the grounds thereof, and shall require good and sufficient security for the appearance of the person convicted at a future time, in order to undergo his sentence or receive his discharge; and in default of such security being given, it shall be lawful for the Consul to cause the person to be detained in custody until such security is given.

5. And it is further ordered, that if any person who shall have committed or been charged with any breach of or offence against the Treaty, or any such Rules and Regulations as aforesaid, shall escape or remove from the Consular District within which the fact was committed, and shall be found within another Consular District, it shall be lawful for the Consul within which district such person shall be so found, to proceed against him in the same manner as if the fact had been committed within such district.

6. And it is further ordered, that all suits, disputes, differences, and causes of litigation of a civil nature arising between British subjects within the dominions of the Queen of Madagascar, shall be heard and determined by Her Majesty's Consul, who shall be the sole judge and arbiter thereof respectively; subject nevertheless to an appeal against the decision of the Consul therein to the High Court of the Mauritius, in cases where the sum or matter at issue is of the amount or value of 200 dollars or upwards: Provided always, that the party intending so to appeal against the decision of the said Consul shall, within fifteen days after the determination of the case by the Consul, by himself or his agent, give to the Consul notice in writing of his appeal to the said High Court of the Mauritius; whereupon the Consul shall, as speedily as possible, transmit to the said High Court all the documents which were produced before him in the case, and none other, together with a statement of the evidence taken before him in the case and of the grounds on which his decision was formed, and shall forthwith notify to the several parties the transmission of the said proceedings to the said High Court: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Consul to require from any person so appealing to the said High Court reasonable security, to consist in part of one or two sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Consul, that such person so applying will duly prosecute his appeal, and will abide by the decision to be given therein by the said High Court, and that in case such appeal shall fail, he will answer and satisfy all costs, loss, and damages sustained by the other party by reason of such appeal.

7. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to summon not less than two, and not more than four, disinterested British subjects of good repute to sit with him as Assessors at the hearing of any suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation whatever of a civil nature brought before him for decision; and in case the sum sought to be recovered shall exceed 500 dollars, such suit shall not be heard by the Consul without Assessors, if within a reasonable time such Assessors can be procured: but the Assessors aforesaid shall have no authority to decide on the merits of such suit; but in the event of such Assessors, or any of them, dissenting from the decision of the Consul, the Consul shall enter the fact of such dissent and the grounds thereof in the Minutes of the Proceedings, and in case of appeal shall transmit the same to the High Court of the Mauritius together with the documents relating to the suit.

8. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to enforce his decision in favour of or against a British subject in a civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, by distress and sale, or imprisonment, in like manner as a decision of the High Court of the Mauritius, in a civil suit is enforced within the same.

9. And it is further ordered, that in case of an appeal to the High Court of the Mauritius from the decision of Her Majesty's Consul, it shall be lawful for the said High Court, upon such terms as to costs and otherwise as it shall think proper, to admit any further legal evidence besides that adduced before the Consul, on its being established to the satisfaction of the said High Court, by oath or affidavit, that the party desiring to produce such further evidence was ignorant of the existence of such evidence, or was taken by surprise at the hearing before the Consul, or was unable to produce it before the Consul after due and reasonable diligence and exertion on his part, or where, under the circumstances of the case, it shall appear to the said High Court that further evidence ought to be received.

10. And it is further ordered, that Her Majesty's Consul shall have power in any civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, to examine on oath, or in such form and with such ceremonies as the witness may declare to be binding on his conscience, any witness who may appear before him, and shall have power, on the application of any party in such suit, to issue a compulsory order for the attendance of any person being a British subject who may be competent to give evidence in such suit: and any British subject who shall have been duly served with any such compulsory order, and with a reasonable notice of the day of hearing of such suit, and upon his expenses of appearing as a witness having been paid or tendered to him by the party at whose application he shall have been ordered to attend, shall, on his wilful default to appear as a witness at the hearing of such suit, be punished with a fine not exceeding 100 dollars, or with imprisonment for a period not exceeding thirty days, at the discretion of the said Consul.

11. Every witness, being a British subject, so examined on oath, whether before the Consul or before an officer duly authorized by Her Majesty the Queen of Madagascar to act judicially, who shall in any such examination give wilfully false testimony, may be convicted of and punished for the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

12. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to promote the settlement of any civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, by amicable agreement between the parties: and, with the consent of the several parties, to refer the decision of a suit or contention to one or more Arbitrators, and to take security from the parties that they will be bound by the result of such arbitration; and the award of such Arbitrator or Arbitrators shall be, to all intents and purposes, deemed and taken to be a judgment or sentence of Her Majesty's Consul in such civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, and shall be entered and recorded as such, and shall have the like effect and operation, and shall be enforced accordingly, and shall be final and conclusive to all intents and purposes, and shall not be open to appeal, unless the same shall, within a reasonable time, have been ordered by the Consul to be set aside, on the ground that it is not final, or is defective, or that the Arbitrator or Arbitrators have exceeded their authority, or have been guilty of misconduct in the matter.

13. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to cause to be apprehended and brought before him any British subject who may be charged with having committed any crime or offence within the dominions of the Queen of Madagascar; and such Consul shall thereupon proceed with all convenient speed to inquire of the same, and for such purpose shall have power to examine on oath, or in such form and with such ceremony as the witness shall declare to be binding on his conscience, any witness who may appear before him to prove the charge, and also shall have power to compel any person, being a British subject, who may be competent to give evidence as to the guilt or innocence of the party so charged to appear and give evidence, and to punish the wilful default of any such person to appear and give evidence, after reasonable notice of the day of the hearing of such charge, by fine or imprisonment, in like manner as is provided in Article 10 of this Order, and shall examine every such witness in the presence and hearing of the party accused, and shall afford the party accused all reasonable facility for cross-examining such witness, and shall cause the deposition of every such witness to be reduced to writing, and the same to be read over, and, if necessary, explained to the party accused, together with any other evidence that may have been urged against him during the course of the inquiry, and shall require such accused party to defend himself against the charge brought against him, and, if necessary, advise him of the legal effect of any voluntary confession, and shall take the evidence of any witness whom the accused party may tender to be examined in his defence; and every witness, being a British subject, so examined as aforesaid, who shall upon any such occasion give wilfully false testimony, may be convicted of, and punished for, the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury; and, when the case has been fully inquired into, and the innocence or guilt of the person accused has been established to the satisfaction of the Consul, the Consul, as the case may be, shall either discharge the party accused from custody, if satisfied of his innocence, or proceed to pass sentence on him, if satisfied of his guilt; and it shall be lawful for the Consul, having inquired of, tried, and determined in the manner aforesaid any charge which may be brought before him, to award to the party convicted any amount of punishment not exceeding imprisonment for one calendar month, or a fine of 200 dollars.

14. And it is further ordered, that, if the crime or offence whereof any person, being a British subject, may be accused before Her Majesty's Consul as aforesaid, shall appear to such Consul to be of such a nature as, if proved, would not be adequately punished by the infliction of such punishment as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Consul to summon not less than two, or not more than four, disinterested British subjects of good repute to sit with him as Assessors for inquiring of, trying, and determining the charges against such person; and the Consul, when he shall try any such charge with the assistance of Assessors as aforesaid shall, if he is himself convinced of the guilt of the party accused, have power to award any amount of punishment not exceeding imprisonment for twelve calendar months, or a fine of 1,000 dollars; and the Assessors aforesaid shall have no authority to decide on the innocence or guilt of the party accused, or on the amount of punishment to be awarded to him on conviction; but, in the event of the said Assessors, or any of them, dissenting from the conviction of, or from the amount of punishment awarded to, the accused party, the Assessors or Assessor so dissenting shall be authorized to record in the minutes of the proceedings the grounds on which they or he may so dissent, and the Consul shall forthwith report to the High Court at the Mauritius the fact of such dissent, and of its having been so recorded in the minutes of the proceedings, and shall, as soon as possible, lay before the said Court copies of the whole of the depositions and proceedings, with the dissent of the Assessor or Assessors recorded therein; and it shall be lawful thereupon for the Court, by warrant under seal addressed to the Consul, to confirm, or vary, or remit altogether, as to the Court may seem fit, the sentence and punishment awarded to the party accused, and such Consul shall give immediate effect to the injunction of any such warrant: Provided always, that in any case in which the Assessor or Assessors shall dissent from the conviction of, or from the amount of punishment awarded to, the accused party, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to take good and sufficient bail from the accused party to appear and undergo the punishment awarded to him, provided the same or any portion thereof be confirmed by the Court, which punishment so confirmed shall commence and take effect from the day on which the decision of the Court shall be notified to the party accused.

15. And in order more effectually to repress crime and offences on the part of British subjects within the dominions of the Queen of Madagascar, it is further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to cause any British subject who shall be found guilty of having openly offended against the laws of Madagascar, or who shall have been twice convicted before him of any crime or offence, and punished for the same, and who, after execution of the sentence of the Consul, shall not be able to find good and sufficient security to the satisfaction of the Consul for his future good behaviour, or who, having been deported under any sentence, shall during such sentence return, to be sent out of the dominions of the Queen of Madagascar; and to this end the Consul shall have power and authority, as soon as may be practicable after execution of the sentence to send any such person to the Mauritius, and in the meantime to detain such party in custody until a suitable opportunity for sending him out of the dominions of the Queen of Madagascar shall present itself; and any persons so to be sent out of the said dominions as aforesaid shall be embarked in custody on board of one of Her Majesty's vessels of war, or, if there shall be no such vessel available for such purpose, then on board any British vessel bound to the Mauritius; and it shall be lawful for the Commander of any of Her Majesty's ships of war, or of any British vessel bound to the Mauritius, to receive any such person as aforesaid under a warrant from the Consul to him addressed, and thereupon to convey such person in custody to the Mauritius as aforesaid, in the same manner as if he were a distressed British subject, unless he shall be willing and able himself to defray the expenses of his passage.

16. And it is further ordered, that in any case in which any British subjects shall be accused before Her Majesty's Consul of the crime of arson, or housebreaking, or cutting and maiming, or stabbing or wounding, or of any assault endangering life, or of wilfully causing any bodily injury dangerous to life, or of wilful or corrupt perjury, or of engaging in or being accessory to the purchase or sale of slaves, or of having slaves illegally in his possession, the proceedings before the Consul shall be carried on with the aid of Assessors convened in the manner aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the Consul, if to him it shall seem fit, to cause any person convicted before him of any of the crimes aforesaid, over and above any fine or imprisonment which may be awarded to such person, to be sent out of the dominions of the Queen of Madagascar for such time as to him shall seem meet, in the manner pointed out in the next preceding Article of this Order, notwithstanding the crime laid to the charge of such person may be the first of which he has been convicted before the Consul.

17. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consuls within the dominions of the Queen of Madagascar, upon information laid before him by one or more credible witnesses that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that any British subject is about to commit a breach of the public peace, to cause such British subject to be brought before him, and to require such British subject to give sufficient security to keep the peace; and in the event of any British subject being convicted of, and punished for, a breach of the peace, to cause such British subject, after he shall have undergone the punishment which may have been awarded to him by the Consul, to find security for his good behaviour; and in the event of any British subject who may be required as aforesaid to give sufficient security to keep the peace, or to find security for his good behaviour, being unable or wilfully omitting to do so, then and in any such case it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to send such British subject out of the dominions of the Queen of Madagascar, in the manner pointed out in Article 15 of this Order.

18. And it is further ordered, that in all cases in which a British subject shall have been sent out of the dominions of the Queen of Madagascar as provided in the three next preceding Articles of this Order, the Consul sending him out shall forthwith report such act of deportation, with the grounds of his decision thereon, to the High Court at the Mauritius.

19. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to cause to be apprehended and brought before him any British subject who may be charged with smuggling or importing into the dominions of the Queen of Madagascar any goods whereon any duty shall be charged or payable to the said Queen, with the intent to evade the payment of such duty, or any goods the importation whereof shall be prohibited; and such Consul shall thereupon proceed with all convenient speed to inquire into the same on oath or solemn affirmation, and to hear the witnesses on both sides, with like powers and in like manner in all respects as is provided by Article 10 of this Order. And it shall be lawful for the Consul, having inquired into and heard the said charge, to determine the same, and if he shall find the party guilty, if the charge against him shall be of importing into the said dominions prohibited goods, then to award him to pay a fine not exceeding treble the value of the said goods at the current price of the day; and if the charge shall be of smuggling or importing goods with intent to evade the payment of duty as aforesaid, then to award him to pay a fine not exceeding treble the amount of duties leviable thereon, and in case of non-payment of any such fine or fines to award him to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding three months, or it shall be lawful for such Consul, without awarding the payment of any fine, to award that such party shall be imprisoned for a period not exceeding six months in such place as he shall appoint: Provided always, that no British subject charged only with importing prohibited goods shall be apprehended, unless and until he shall have one week's notice to appear and answer the charge, and shall have refused, failed, or omitted so to appear.

20. And it is further ordered, that in cases of common assault it shall be lawful for the Consul before whom the complaint is made, to promote reconciliation between the parties, and to suffer compensation and amends to be made, and the proceedings thereby to be finally stayed.

21. And it is further ordered, that a minute of the proceedings in every case heard and determined before the Consul, in pursuance of this Order, shall be carefully drawn up, and be signed by the Consul, and shall, in cases where the Assessors are present, be open for the inspection of such Assessors and for their signature if they therein shall concur; and every such minute, together with the depositions of the witnesses, shall be preserved in the public office of the said Consul.

22. And whereas it is provided in the eleventh section of the said Act, which section is in the first part thereof, that Part I. of the said Act shall continue in force until the fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and no longer, unless continued or renewed by Order of Her Majesty in Council :

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the three hundred and thirty-third Section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, subject to the provisions contained in the fifth Part of that Act, it shall be lawful for every Pilotage authority by bye-law, made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time, to do all or any of the things therein mentioned within its districts, and amongst other things to make such arrangements with any other Pilotage authority for altering the limits of their respective districts and for extending the powers of such other authority or the privileges of the Pilots licensed by such other authority, or any of them, to all or any port of its own district, or for limiting its own powers, or the privileges of its own Pilots, or any of them, or for sharing the said last mentioned powers and privileges with the said other Authority and the Pilots licensed by it or for delegating or surrendering such powers and privileges, or any of them, to any other Pilotage Authority, either already constituted or to be constituted by agreement between such Authorities and to the Pilots licensed by it as may appear to such Pilotage Authorities to be desirable for the purpose of facilitating navigation or of reducing charges on shipping.

And whereas the Corporation of Trinity House, of Deptford Strond (being a Pilotage Authority within the meaning of the said Act), has, and exercises under the Act eight and nine Victoria, chapter eighty-nine, power to license pilots for the port of Bridgewater and its navigation, which district includes a portion of the British Channel.

portion thereof within the said District of the said Corporation of Trinity House.

And whereas the above-mentioned Pilotage authorities have agreed and proposed that for the purpose of facilitating navigation the limits of the said district, within which the said Corporation of Trinity House has and exercises the power of licensing Pilots for the port of Bridgewater and its navigation should be altered and extended, so as to include within it such parts of the Bristol Channel at present not included within it as lie on the south-east side of and are comprised within an imaginary straight line drawn from Anchor Head, in the county of Somerset, on the east to Watchet, in the same county on the west.

And whereas the above mentioned Pilotage Authorities have, with the view of affecting such proposed alteration and extension of district, made and submitted to Her Majesty, a bye-law, which is set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed; and whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that such bye-law is reasonable and proper.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and all other powers vested in and belonging to Her in that behalf, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve and doth hereby give Her assent to the said bye-law.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight.
the 17th day of May, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the new parish of Saint Peter, situate at Plymouth, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and published in the London Gazette on the fifth day of March, in the same year, the district of Saint Peter, Plymouth, was constituted partly out of the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and partly out of the parish of East

Stonehouse, in the same county and diocese, and such district has since become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act.

“And whereas no specific assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage of and nomination of the minister of the said district, or so soon as the same should become a new parish as aforesaid, of the right of patronage of and nomination of the perpetual curate of such new parish was made by the said Order, and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the said Act.

“And whereas a sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England, by Mary Anne Ochterlony Middleton, of No. 4, Wyndham place, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, Spinster, and Eliza Mary Middleton, of the same place, Spinster, towards the augmentation of the endowment of the said new parish, and for the benefit of the perpetual curate thereof, and we have in respect of the said sum agreed and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May, and the first day of November, in each and every year to the perpetual curate for the time being of the said new parish (being duly licensed thereto), the yearly sum of one hundred pounds.

“And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds was so contributed and paid by the said Mary Anne Ochterlony Middleton and Eliza Mary Middleton as aforesaid, upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient), the whole right of patronage of the said new parish, and of the nomination of the perpetual curate thereto, should be assigned to them the said Mary Anne Ochterlony Middleton and Eliza Mary Middleton, their heirs and assigns, in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Plymouth, and of the nomination of the perpetual curate thereto, shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by the said Mary Anne Ochterlony Middleton and Eliza Mary Middleton, their heirs and assigns, for ever.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of the said district parish of The Holy Trinity, Burton-on-Trent, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas John Gretton, of Bladon House, in the said district parish of The Holy Trinity, Burton-on-Trent, Esquire, has contributed, and paid to our account at the Bank of England, a sum of three thousand pounds sterling, in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being, upon the understanding that we should in respect thereof provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister as aforesaid, when duly licensed, in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the yearly sum of one hundred pounds, and upon the understanding that we should also make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-named Act, to the minister for the time being of the said district, when duly licensed as before mentioned, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have undertaken and agreed to make the said grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said district parish of The Holy Trinity, Burton-on-Trent, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Mark, Winshill.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said John Gretton, and by his heirs and assigns, for ever.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient, firstly, that all that part of the said parish of Middleton, which is described in the first schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and numbered 1, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church, called Christ Church, situate at Ainsworth as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Ainsworth;' and, secondly, that all that other part of the same parish of Middleton, which is described in the second schedule hereunder written, all which lastly-mentioned part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the other map or plan hereunto annexed, and numbered 2, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint James, situate at Ashworth as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James, Ashworth.'

"And, with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at each of the churches aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the ministers of the same churches for the time being respectively: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The First SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

of Manchester, which is comprised within, and is co-extensive with, the limits of the township and chapelry of Ainsworth, otherwise called Cockey.

Placuit Universitati Stat. Tit. IV. Sect. i. § 20. abrogare, et hæc quæ sequuntur subrogare.

1. De professore Vineriano.

1. Professorem Vinerianum eligant Vice-Cancellarius, principalis collegii Jesu, professor Juris Civilis regius, professor juris belli et pacis Chicheleianus, historiæ modernæ professor regius, professor philosophiæ moralis ex fundatione Thomæ White. Si forte professor alius in facultate Juris, præter eos qui nunc existunt, inter Universitatem constituetur, hic quoque inter electores adsciscatur. Si contigerit ut principalis collegii Jesu sit Vice-Cancellarius, jus suffragii in electione habeat Vice-Cancellarii deputatus senior. Ille in quem major pars suffragantium consenserint electus a Vice-Cancellario pronuntietur. Professor, tempore admissionis, sit ad minimum Magister Artium aut Baccalaureus in Jure Civili in Universitate Oxoniensi constitutus.

2. Professor quotannis per sex menses in universitate commoretur, inter decimum diem Octobris et primum diem Julii sequentis. Duas lectionum series in duobus discretis terminis legat, (terminis Paschatis et SS. Trinitatis, quod ad hoc statutum attinet, pro uno reputatis,) scilicet per sex septimanas in utroque termino, et bis ad minimum in unaquaque septimana: atque insuper per sex septimanas unius alicujus termini bis ad minimum in unaquaque septimana per unius horæ spatium vacet instruendis auditoribus in iis quæ melius sine ulla solennitate tradi possunt, discipulorum profectum quæstionibus statim enucleandis ad examen revocet, et iis exercitationes, si ipsi ita libuerit, domi in scriptis tractandas proponat.

3. Lectionum materies esto jus Anglicanum ejusque fontes et historia, adhibito etiam inter docendum Jure Civili, quatenus ad eam rem tractandam pertinet.

4. Teneatur insuper professor quotannis in uno termino lectionum seriem in Jure Civili legere, nimirum per sex septimanas semel ad minimum in unaquaque septimana, nisi aliter statuerit academia, de qua re statuendi academice copia esto.

5. Unam porro ad minimum lectionem quotannis publice habeat, ab academicis quibuscunque sine mercede audiendam.

6. Ex auditoribus ne plus exigit mercedis quam ab Universitate permissum fuerit.

7. Si evenierit ut professor ad tempus valetudine impediatur quominus officio suo fungatur, aut si ei necesse fuerit præscripto legendi tempore propter causas urgentes et Vice-Cancellario probatas extra Universitatem morari, ei deputatum idoneum et Vice-Cancellario probatum, qui professoris muneribus durante infirmitate aut absentia fungatur, nominare liceat; id quod exigere poterit Vice-Cancellarius, si sponte professor in hac parte statuto non satisfecerit.

8. Si professor senio, morbo diuturno, incurabili impotentia, aut debilitate vel animi vel corporis fractus, suæ professioni perficiendæ non suffecerit, virum secundum ea quæ in hoc statuto decernuntur idoneum, qui professoris muneribus fungatur, iis quibus professorem ipsum eligendi cura delegata est, rem proponente Vice-Cancellario, nominare liceat. Si quando deputatus nominatus sit, determinet Vice-Cancellarius quantum ex professoris emolumentis deputato persolvendum sit.

9. Si quid statuerit academia de materie, numero aut tempore lectionum, de rationibus docendi, aut de auditoribus examinandis, id observet quicumque tum erit professor. De his rebus statuendi academice copia esto.

10. Ne alia quapiam professione eodem tempore fungatur professor, nisi in id consenserit academia.

11. Professore pendatur quotannis totum quod supererit de proventibus Vinerianis, solutis prius scholarum stipendiis. Pendatur etiam professori quotannis (quoniam principalis et socii collegii Jesu in hoc consenserint) summa CCL librarum, academice et proventibus prædicti collegii persolvenda. Augeantur etiam professoris emolumenta ad DC librarum summam et cista academica, nisi ei aliunde ea summa, (præter feoda legitima) annuatim accreverit.

12. Professor si insigniter negligens in officio suo, vel notabiliter insufficiens fuerit, vel si pravis moribus academiam dedecoraverit, vel si statutis ad ipsum spectantibus morem gerere recusaverit, Vice-Cancellario rem proponente, prius conventus, auditus (si ipsi libuerit), et convictus, admoneatur, vel etiam, si aliter malo occurri non possit, a munere suo moveatur per Vice-Cancellarium et delegatos appellationum in Congregatione aut majorem partem eorum.

2. De scholaribus.

1. Tres sint scholares Vineriani. Horum unusquisque percipiat quotannis octoginta libras, et post triennium absolutum beneficio suo cedat.

2. Si quis scholaris, quacunque de causa, beneficio suo cesserit ante absolutum triennium, stipendii ejus quod supererit insequenti anno, vel insequentibus annis, professori pendatur, ad summam annuam DC librarum adimplendam, ne cista academica plus æquo prægravetur.

3. Eligatur quotannis in termino S. Hilarii, die a Vice-Cancellario constituenda, unus scholaris et non plures, post examinationem habitam eo consilio ut qui dignissimus sit cæteris præferatur. Candidatus unusquisque, venia prius a præfecto collegii vel aulæ suæ, vel ab ejus deputato, impetrata, nomen suum apud examinatores profiteatur, triduo ad minimum ante examinationem habendam. Electores sunt Vice-Cancellarius, professores quotquot erunt in facultate Juris, necnon examinatores publici in schola jurisprudentiæ et historiæ modernæ. Hi singulis annis, termino S. Michaelis si commode fieri poterit, tres examinatores, quorum unum saltem e suo ipsorum numero esse volumus, nominent. Materies examinationis sit Jus Civile, jus belli ac pacis, jus naturæ ac gentium, ac speciatim jus Angliæ et publicum et privatum.

4. Scholaris ne eligatur nisi qui duos ad minimum annos a tempore matriculationis suæ compleverit, necdum sex annos ab eodem tempore excesserit. Quilibet præterea scholaris, si nondum advocatus in jure Anglicano renuntiatus fuerit, Vice-Cancellarium quotannis certum faciat se nomen registro hospitii alicujus jurisconsultorum Londinensium inscriptum habere, vel saltem se legum Angliæ studio bona fide incumbere.

5. De forma, tempore, et materie examinationis, de examineribus, de conditionibus scholarium, liberum esto academice aliter statuere si profuturum esse ei videbitur.

6. Si quis e scholarium numero pravis moribus academiam dedecoraverit, vel statutis ad ipsum spectantibus morem gerere recusaverit, beneficio suo privetur per Vice-Cancellarium et delegatos appellationum in Congregatione, vel majorem partem eorum.

7. Scholaribus qui nunc sunt sua jura prorsus reserventur; commodis quoque hujus statuti gaudere iis liberum esto, exceptis modo commodis quæ ad summam stipendii pertinent. Scholarium trium de quibus supra provisum est eligatur primus in termino S. Hilarii A.D. 1868, secundus vero A.D. 1869, tertius paritur A.D. 1870.

3. De lectore eligendo si prælector qui nunc est professoris munera non susceperit, et de lectoris muneribus ac emolumentis.

1. Prælectori qui nunc est copia detur eligendi intra certum tempus—nimirum intra trimestre spatium ex quo hoc statutum regia auctoritate comprobatum fuerit—utrum legibus ac conditionibus hujus statuti sese subjicere velit, necne. Si intra tempus prædictum Vice-Cancellarium scriptis certiore fecerit se paratum esse professoris munera prædicta suscipere, subinde ei emolumentis prædictis fruendi jus esto: sin aliter, jura sua ac munera hodierna ei reserventur et immutata maneant; summam CC librarum, et non amplius, iisdem quibus hodie conditionibus, annuatim percipiat. Quam cito commode poterit postquam prælectoris qui nunc est vacaverit locus eligatur professor Vinerianus secundum leges hujus statuti. Interea, donec vacaverit professoris locus, eligatur identidem, ab iisdem quibus professorem eligendi officium hoc statuto delatum est, (adscito quoque prælectore Vineriano) lector Vinerianus, qui locum suum in triennium obtineat. Lector, tempore electionis suæ, sit ad minimum Magister Artium vel Baccalaureus in Jure Civili intra hanc Universitatem constitutus. Auditoribus instruendis det operam per sex septimanas in unoquoque término (terminis Paschatis et SS. Trinitatis pro uno reputatis), et bis ad minimum in unaquaque septimana discretis diebus. Lektionum octodecim ad minimum materias esto jus Anglicanum, ejusque fontes et historia; octodecim vero ad minimum Jus Civile, nisi aliter statuerit academia. Lectori pendatur quotannis totum quod supererit proventuum Vinerianorum, soluta prius prælectori qui nunc est summa prædicta CC librarum, solutis etiam scholarium stipendiis. Pendatur quoque ei annuatim summa prædicta CCL librarum ex proventibus collegii Jesu persolvenda.

2. Amoveri (si opus fuerit) lectorem volumus propter easdem causas propter quas professorem amoveri jussimus, et eodem modo.

3. Quicquid e proventibus collegii Jesu Universitati persolutum aut persolvendum fuerit priusquam sive professor qui nunc est munera hujus statuti susceperit seu lector Vinerianus electus fuerit, seponatur, et redditus annui inter emolumenta supradicta professoris Vineriani numerentur; donec erit professor qui virtute hujus statuti emolumenta supradicta percipiat, redditus annui lectori in incrementum stipendii pendantur.

De statuto hoc rogando, re mature perpensa, consensit concilium hebdomadale die quarto mensis Martii. Promulgatum est idem statutum in domo Congregationis die decimo tertio ejusdem mensis Martii, et in eadem domo die undevicesimo ejusdem mensis Martii probatum; tandem in Convocatione publicatum et confirmatum die vicesimo septimo ejusdem mensis Martii anno Domini MDCCCLXVII.

MEMORANDUM.

Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to accept the resignation of the Commission held by Lieutenant James Winslow Tighe in the Hampshire Artillery Militia. Dated 22nd April, 1867.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post; and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein mentioned.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas it is expedient to authorize the transmission of certain packets by the post between the United Kingdom and the Republic of Venezuela, and for that purpose to fix certain rates of postage, and make certain regulations, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now, we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, and every of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows ; that is to say :

1. All packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize of no intrinsic value posted in any part of the United Kingdom, addressed to the Republic of Venezuela, or posted in the Republic of Venezuela, addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and the Republic of Venezuela, direct, or via the Island of St. Thomas (the sea conveyance between the United Kingdom and the Republic of Venezuela, or Island of St. Thomas, being by British packet boat), subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say) :

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid a uniform single rate of postage of three pence ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding eight ounces and not exceeding twelve ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid three rates of postage ;

And on every such packet, if exceeding twelve ounces and not exceeding sixteen ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid four rates of postage ;

And for every additional four ounces in weight of any such packet above the weight of sixteen ounces, there shall be charged, taken, and paid one additional rate of postage, and in charging any additional rate of postage every fractional part of such additional four ounces shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

2. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter contained (that is to say) :

3. No such packet which shall exceed two feet in length or one foot in breadth or depth, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, unless under the special authority of the Postmaster-General.

4. No pattern or sample, being of any intrinsic value, or being an article or thing of a saleable nature, or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

5. There shall be no enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet.

6. There shall be no writing in or upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and numbers and prices.

7. All such packets shall be sent in covers open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination : Nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen or other material ; but bags so closed that they cannot be readily opened, even although they be transparent, shall not be used for that purpose.

8. Every packet transmitted by the post under this Warrant, and posted in the United Kingdom, shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

9. The postage of all such packets as aforesaid, posted in the United Kingdom, shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet, near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant.

10. If any packet transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, be sent by the post otherwise than in conformity with the conditions and regulations established by or under the authority of this Warrant, the same shall and may be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or be given up to the sender thereof ; and every such respective packet, on being so returned or given up, shall be chargeable with any rates of postage the Postmaster-General may think fit, not exceeding the rates that would be chargeable on such packet as an unpaid letter.

11. In order to prevent any obstacle to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, whenever it may be necessary so to do, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post to be forwarded by him.

12. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise, whether any packet, or any pattern or sample contained therein, transmitted under or by virtue of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive upon all parties.

13. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96.

14. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, revoke, or modify any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time may appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

15. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, the fifteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred sixty-seven.
