Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MAY 24, 1867.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 18, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 25th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 13, 1867.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen's Court announced for the month of June will be held at Buckingham Palace, on Friday, the 21st of June next, at four o'clock.

The List for this Court is completed.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S COURT AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Queen has been graciously pleased, with regard to this Court, to dispense with the regulation that the Lady or Gentleman purposing to make presentations to Her Majesty must be personally present.

All those Ladies and Gentlemen who receive cards of admission to Buckingham Palace are requested to bring with them two large cards with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty. In the case of presentation the name of the presenter must be inserted on the card.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company at three o'clock.

Full Dress—Ladies with Trains.

BRADFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 13, 1867.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 29th instant, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

N.B.—The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Levee, it being a Collar Day.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at a Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

BRADFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION

For Uniting the Provinces of Canada, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, into one Dominion, under the name of CANADA.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed on the twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, in the thirtieth year of Our reign, intituled "An Act for the union of Canada, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, and the Government thereof, and for purposes connected therewith," after divers recitals it is enacted that "it shall be lawful for the Queen, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, to declare, by Proclamation, that on and after a day therein appointed, not being more than six months after the passing of this Act the Provinces of Canada, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, shall form and be One Dominion under the name of Canada, and on and after that day those Three Provinces shall form and be One Dominion under that Name accordingly:" and it is thereby further enacted, that "Such Persons shall be first summoned to the Senate as The Queen by Warrant, under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, thinks fit to approve, and their Names shall be inserted in The Queen's Proclamation of Union:" We, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, have thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do ordain, declare, and command that on and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, the Provinces of Canada, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, shall form and be One Dominion, under the name of Canada.

And We do further ordain and declare that the persons whose names are herein inserted and set forth are the persons of whom We have by Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual thought fit to approve as the persons who shall be first summoned to the Senate of Canada.

Given at Our Court at Windsor Castle, this twenty-second day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and in the thirtieth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 22nd day of May, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Duke of Richmond.
Lord Robert Montagu.

WHEREAS by an Order bearing date the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, duly issued under the authority of an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," and from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act of the last session, which Order recited that a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," prevailed amongst cattle in England and Wales, the Lords of the Council made various regulations for preventing the spread of the said cattle plague, and, among others, for dealing with infected places;

And whereas it is provided in the said Order that the Privy Council as to any place in England may, by Order made at any time after the passing of that Order, and published in manner therein-after mentioned, declare any place in which disease amongst animals at that time exists, together with such an area including such place as to the Lords of the said Council may deem to be required, to be an infected place from and after a date to be specified in such Order.

And whereas the said disease now exists on the premises in the occupation of Edward Thomas Davis, called "The Butchers' Arms Inn," situate in the York-road, in the parish of St. Mary, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, and the Lords of the Council deem it advisable to declare the said place to be an infected place.

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby declare that from and after the twenty-second day of this present May, the said premises in the occupation of Edward Thomas Davis, called "The Butchers' Arms Inn," together with the stables and lairs adjoining thereto, situate in the York-road, in the parish of St. Mary, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, to be an infected place within the operation of the said Order.

And the said Lords do hereby order the Local Authority of the Metropolis to cause this Order to be published in some newspaper circulating in the Metropolis, and also cause a copy thereof to be affixed at some conspicuous place in the Metropolitan Cattle Market, at Islington, in the county of Middlesex.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 22nd day of May, 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Duke of Richmond.
Mr. Gathorne Hardy.

WHEREAS by an Order bearing date the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, duly issued under the authority of an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent until the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," and from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act of the last session, which Order recited that a contagious or infectious disorder, generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," prevailed amongst cattle in England and Wales, the Lords of the Council made various regulations for preventing the spread of the said cattle plague, and, among others, for dealing with infected places;

And whereas it is provided in the said Order that the Privy Council as to any place in England may, by Order made at any time after the passing of that Order, and published in manner therein-after mentioned, declare any place in which disease amongst animals at that time exists, together with such an area including such place as to the Lords of the said Council may deem to be required, to be an infected place from and after a date to be specified in such Order.

And whereas the said disease now exists on the premises in the occupation of Mark Mills, Cow-keeper, situate in the Roman-road, in the parish of St. Mary, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, and the Lords of the Council deem it advisable to declare the said place to be an infected place.

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council do hereby declare that from and after the twenty-second day of this present May, the said premises in the occupation of Mark Mills, Cowkeeper, situate in the Roman-road, in the parish of St. Mary, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, together with an area bounded on the west by the Roman-road, on the east by Barnsbury-grove, on the north by the North London Railway, and on the south by Olford-road, to be an infected place within the operation of the said Order.

And the said Lords do hereby order the Local Authority of the Metropolis to cause this Order to be published in some newspaper circulating in the Metropolis, and also cause a copy thereof to be affixed at some conspicuous place in the Metropolitan Cattle Market, at Islington, in the county of Middlesex.

Edmund Harrison.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY THE PARISH OF WARMINSTER, IN THE COUNTY OF WILTS.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted by the parish of Warminster, in the county of Wilts, on the 5th day of April, 1867, and notice of such adoption has been duly given, in writing, to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act: and whereas it has now been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been duly advertised, and that copies of such notice have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such parish to which notices are usually affixed, and the period for appeal against the resolution for the adoption of the said Act has now expired, and no such appeal has been made:

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly adopted within the said parish of Warminster, in the county of Wilts, and that in accordance with the provisions thereof, the said Act will, at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the aforesaid resolution, have the force of law within such parish of Warminster.

Given under my hand this 22nd day of May, 1867.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 29.)—ENGLAND—EAST COAST.

Alteration in the Low Light at Spurn Point.

THE Corporation of the Trinity House, London, has given notice, that from the 1st day of September, 1867, the following alteration will take place in the Low light at Spurn point, entrance of the Humber river :—

The light will be coloured red, visible from seaward between the bearings N.W. by N. (cutting 2 cables N.E. of the Sand Hayle buoy), round Northerly to S.E. by E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E, on which latter bearing it will cut one cable North of Grimsby pier.

Alteration in the Low Light at Orfordness.

Also, that from the 1st day of September, 1867, the following alteration will take place in the Low Light of Orfordness:—

The light will be coloured red on the following bearings visible from seaward, S.W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  W., (on which bearing it will extend 2 cables eastward of the Sizewell bank buoy), into the land; and from E. by N.  $\frac{3}{4}$  N. into the land.

SOUTH COAST.

Anchorage Light at Dungeness.

Also, that the red light marking the anchorage ground to the westward of Dungeness is now shown from a window below the lantern.

Mariners will, therefore, observe that the red light is separate and distinct from the electric light, which will show white in that direction as formerly.

The red light marking the anchorage ground to the eastward remains the same as before.

Harbour Lights at Weymouth.

The Harbour Master of the Port of Weymouth has given notice, that the light at the entrance of Weymouth having been totally destroyed in a gale on the 5th day of January last, a buoy now marks the site where it stood, and the following lights are substituted:—

Two red lights are exhibited at the north part of the town, bearing from each other N.N.W. and S.S.E.

These lights in a line bearing N.N.W. will lead vessels in the direction of the harbour, clear of the Mixen; care being taken not to open the higher light to the left, or westward, of the lower.

Vessels should proceed with these red lights in one, until two green lights, placed on the North Pier, are brought in a line, bearing W.  $\frac{3}{4}$  S., which is the leading mark in, until within 50 or 60 yards of the East light, then keep mid-channel up the harbour.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation 21° Westerly in 1867.]

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.

CONTRACTS FOR GROCERIES FOR ARMY SERVICE. (DUTY PAID.)

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, May 22,
1867.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 4th June next, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:-

Coffee (Roasted), 7,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Coffee (Green or Raw), 27,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tea (Congou), in half chests, 15,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Sugar, 138,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

Each tender for sugar must specify the mark and landing number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each import mark) must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different marks or several imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same mark or average quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

Samples of the other articles (not less than 2 lbs. of each), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, where the conditions of the contracts may also be seen.

All the articles are to be delivered duty paid, and the tenders are to be made at a rate per lb.

for the tea, and at rates per 100 lbs. for the other articles, all the prices inclusive of duty.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

contain 3½ la. 20p. The glebe land, containing 33a. 0r. 26p., is let at a yearly rent of £60. The rent charge in lieu of tithes is commuted at £703 la. 9d., including the rent-charge, £13 la. 9d., on the glebe. The church is within a short distance from the rectory. The population is under 250, and the incumbent is in his sixty-first year. There are only twenty-one payers of tithe rent-charge; and the area of the parish is about 2607 acres.

Also, the manor of Bowers Gifford, extending over the whole parish.

Lot 2. A small freehold estate, having a double frontage to the high-road leading from Barking to Rainham, and about one mile from the Rainham station on the Tilbury and Southend Railway, and in close proximity to the new Docks at Dagenham Reach, and comprising a Beer-shop called the Angles Retreat, two closes of arable land, and nine cottage tenements; the whole containing 2a. 2a. 1½p., in the occupation of Mehebel Bone and her under-tenants.

Lot 3. The reversion, on the death of the Rev. Julian Robinson, aged forty-nine years, of a desirable stone-fronted and brick-built residence, called Chandos Villa, situated in the Thurlstone-road, immediately opposite to the grounds of Cheltenham College, and adjoining the property of Sir Thomas Phillips, Bart. (late Lord Northwick's), and now in the occupation of Edward Walter Vyvyan, Esq., at a yearly rent of £85.

Lot 4. Leasehold ground-rents, amounting to £38 per annum, secured on nine dwelling-houses, being Nos. 25 to 33, inclusive, in Pickering-place, Bayswater; let to respectable tenants, and producing a rental amounting to about £290 a-year.

Also, the leasehold rack-rents, amounting to about £125 a-year, arising from Nos. 34 to 57, Pickering-place. The whole of the above property is held by the vendors under one lease, of which 38½ years are unexpired at Midsummer next, at a reserved rent of £1 10s.

Lot 5. A leasehold ground-rent of £32 a-year, arising out of eight houses, being Nos. 79, 81, 83, 85, 87, 89, 91, and 93, situate on the east side of the northernmost end of Milton-street, Dorset-square, and now let to respectable tenants, at rents amounting to £320 a-year. The property is held by the vendors for 81 years, less 10 days, from Lady-day, 1828, at a peppercorn rent, and is underlet to Mr. Thomas Claxton for 6½ years, less 20 days, from 29th September, 1843, of which 42 years are unexpired.

Particulars may be had of Mr. Nathaniel Overbury, Solicitor, No. 7, Great James-street, Bedford-row; of Messrs. Bridges, Sawtell, Haywood, and Ram, Solicitors, No. 23, Red Lion-square; of Messrs. Pemberton, Meynell, and Pemberton, Solicitors, No. 20, Whitehall-place; of Messrs. Driver and Co., Surveyors, Land Agents, and Auctioneers, No. 4, Whitehall, London; and at the Mart, Tokenhouse-yard.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Reeves v. Gladding, and with the approbation of the Vice-Chancellor Malins.

MESSRS. EDWIN FOX and BOUSFIELD, the persons appointed by the said Judge, will sell by auction, at the Auction Mart, Tokenhouse-yard, in the city of London, on Friday, the 12th day of June, 1867, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely:—

An eligible freehold property, situate and being in Hoxton-street, Hoxton, Elizabeth-street, Hackney-road, Princes-street, Spitalfields, in the county of Middlesex, and Bermondsey-street, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, consisting of valuable freehold dwelling-houses and a shop; the property respectively in the county of Middlesex being let on leases; and the property in Bermondsey-street let to a yearly tenant; the whole producing in the aggregate £128 per annum. The property will be offered in four lots.

Particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) on application to John Rae, Esq., Solicitor, No. 9, Mincing-lane, E.C.; of O. W. Lloyd, Esq., Solicitor, No. 31, St. Swithins lane, E.O.; of W.
