TUESDAY, MAY 28, 1867.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 13, 1867.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen's Court announced for the month of June will be held at Buckingham Palace, on Friday, the 21st of June next, at four o'clock.

The List for this Court is completed.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S COURT AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Queen has been graciously pleased, with regard to this Court, to dispense with the regulation that the Lady or Gentleman purposing to make presentations to Her Majesty must be personally present.

All those Ladies and Gentlemen who receive cards of admission to Buckingham Palace are requested to bring with them two large cards with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty. In the case of presentation the name of the presenter must be inserted on the card.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company at three o'clock.

Full Dress—Ladies with Trains.

BRADFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 13, 1867.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 29th instant, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

N.B.—The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Levee, it being a Collar Day.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at a Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

BRADFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 27, 1867.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Royal Highness The Princess Louis of Hesse (Princess Alice of Great Britain and Ireland) will, by command of The Queen, hold Drawing Rooms at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday, the 15th of June next, and on Thursday, the 27th of June next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to Her Royal Highness at these Drawing Rooms shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS TO BE HELD, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, BY HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS LOUIS OF HESSE (PRINCESS ALICE OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND), AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Princess.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Princess.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, except in attendance upon the Ladies of their families.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

BRADFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

Foreign Office, May 24, 1867.

(General, No. 11.)

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from Her Majesty's Consul-General at Bucharest the translation, as follows, of a communication received by him from the Prefect of Police, regarding the Passport system in Wallachia:—

Bucharest, April 20, 1867 (o.s.)

MONSIEUR LE CONSUL-GENERAL,

THE Minister of the Interior, by his note No. 8211, has communicated to the undersigned the decision which the Council of Ministers took at its sitting of the 14th instant, with respect to the re-establishment of all the former regulations concerning the visa of passports, which had been previously suppressed by a decision of the Council of Ministers on the 22nd March, 1866; and the Minister at the same time orders that measures be taken to execute the formalities connected with passports and patents of protection in the capital, with the only exception that the passports of French subjects will be countersigned without the payment of the tax.

The undersigned having, in consequence, issued orders to the Captains at the gates of the city, and to the Commissaries of Police, has the honour to communicate the above-named decision of the Government to the Honourable Consulate-General, requesting that it may be made known to those under its jurisdiction, in order that they may conform to the regulations.

The Prefect of Police,
(Signed) R. A. ROSSETTI.

Foreign Office, May 27, 1867.

(No. 24, Quarantine).

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from Her Majesty's Ambassador at St. Petersburg intelligence that a fine of twenty-five roubles is imposed by the Russian authorities on British vessels which arrive this spring in Russian ports without being supplied with bills of health certified by a Russian Consul.

Foreign Office, May 20, 1867.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint William Gifford Palgrave, Esq., now Her Majesty's Consul at Soukhoum Kalé, to be Her Majesty's Consul at Trebizonde.

Foreign Office, May 27, 1867.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr. F. A. Plump as Consul at Colombo, in Ceylon, for His Majesty the King of the Netherlands.

Whitehall, May 27, 1867.

The Queen has been pleased to present the Reverend David Williamson to the church and parish of Forgandenny, in the presbytery and county of Perth, vacant by the death of the Reverend James Johnstone.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House, May 23, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the slave and tonnage bounties awarded for two dhows, names unknown, captured on the 15th April and 11th May, 1865, respectively, by Her Majesty's ship "Penguin."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

* * The Index to the London Gazette, for the last six months of the year 1866, is now ready for delivery.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Bapchild, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, one capital sum of four hundred and twenty-five pounds and thirteen shillings, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation and maintenance of the poor clergy, under two subsisting mortgages of the said vicarage of Bapchild, which were effected by two deeds, bearing date respectively the third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and the twenty-first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, for the purpose of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice of Bapchild.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Saint John, Bacup, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and to his successors, incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, having received a benefaction of one hundred pounds sterling, in favour of the perpetual curacy of Saint Anne, Buck's Mills, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, in consideration whereof we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of three pounds six shillings and eight pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of Saint Anne, Buck's Mills, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of three pounds six shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable half-yearly on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the rectory of Saint Nicholas, Hereford, in the county and diocese of Hereford, one capital sum of one thousand and four hundred pounds sterling, such capital sum to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice according to plans and a specification to be approved by us either by discharge of the sum or sums of money which may be or become payable under any mortgage of the said benefice effected with our consent, or in such other manner as we may deem fit, such capital sum of one thousand and four hundred pounds, or the balance thereof, unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Nicholas, Hereford.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, which we have received in favour of the perpetual curacy of Kirkthwaite, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund, to the said perpetual curacy of Kirkthwaite, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, such capital sum to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, either by discharge of the sum or sums of money which may be or become payable under any mortgage of the said benefice effected with our consent, or in such other manner as we may deem fit; such capital sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands, at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Kirkthwaite.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

(L.S.)

Office of the Inspector-General of Imports and Exports, Custom House, London, May 27, 1867.

EDW. BERNARD,
Inspector-General.

In the Matter of Letters Patent granted to Moses Poole, of the Avenue-road, Regent's Park, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "Improvements in Surface Condensers and in Evaporators and Heaters for Steam Engines" (being a communication to him from abroad), bearing date the 18th day of November, 1853, No. 2682.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Thomas Davison, of No. 248, Bath-street, in the city of Glasgow, North Britain, Engineer, to whom the above-named letters patent have been assigned, intends to apply by petition to Her Majesty in Council, praying Her Majesty to grant a prolongation of the term of the above-named letters patent; and notice is hereby further given, that on the 26th day of June, 1867, or on such subsequent day as the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council, shall appoint for that purpose, an application will be made to the said committee for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of the said petition; and any person desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said petition must enter a caveat to that effect in the Privy Council Office, on or before the said 26th day of June, 1867.—Dated this 18th day of May, 1867.

Bristow Hunt, No. 1, Serle-street,
Lincoln's-inn, London, Solicitor for the Petitioner.

In the Matter of Letters Patent granted to James Leetch, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Gunmaker, for the invention of "an improved method of constructing Breech-loading Fire-arms," bearing date the 23rd day of September, 1853 (No. 2197).

NOTICE is hereby given, that the above-named James Leetch intends to apply by petition to Her Majesty in Council for a prolongation of the term of the above Letters Patent; and notice is hereby further given, that the said James Leetch intends to apply by counsel to the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council on the 3rd day of July now next, or if the said Judicial Committee shall not sit on that day at the then next sitting of the said Judicial Committee for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of his said petition; and that on or before the said 3rd day of July next, notice must be given of any opposition intended to be made to the said petition, and any person intending to oppose the said application must lodge a caveat to that effect at the Privy Council Office on or before that day.—Dated this 27th day of May, 1867.

CONTRACT FOR ASH GOODS.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, May 12,
1867.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 11th June next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards, with

ASH GOODS,

Consisting of Capstan Bars, Handspikes, Woolders, Hoops for Masts and Windsails and Hanks.

The average annual expenditure for the last three years may be ascertained, and patterns of the articles, and a form of the tender and conditions of contract may be seen in the Lobby of the Storekeeper-General's Department, Admiralty, Somerset House.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an Agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Ash Goods," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Admiralty, Somerset House, accompanied by a letter signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £400 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR GROCERIES FOR ARMY SERVICE. (DUTY PAID.)

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, May 22,
1867.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 4th June next, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:—

Coffee (Roasted), 7,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.
Coffee (Green or Raw), 27,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tea (Congou), in half chests, 15,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Sugar, 138,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

Each tender for sugar must specify the mark and landing number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each import mark) must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different marks or several imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same mark or average quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

Samples of the other articles (not less than 2 lbs. of each), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, where the conditions of the contracts may also be seen.

All the articles are to be delivered duty paid, and the tenders are to be made at a rate per lb. for the tea, and at rates per 100 lbs. for the other articles, all the prices inclusive of duty.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

In the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Wolverhampton.

In the Matter of James Paddey, of Calf Heath-lane, near the Four Ashes, in the parish of Brewood, in the county of Stafford, Farmer, a Bankrupt.

WHEREAS at the first meeting of creditors of the said James Paddey, held at the County Court, at Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, on the 16th day of May, 1867, it was resolved by the major part in value of the creditors then present or represented, that no further proceedings be taken in Bankruptcy, and that the meeting should be adjourned until the 30th day of May, 1867, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said Court, in order that notice of the said resolution might be given to the creditors, and that such further proceedings be taken as are provided for by the 110th section of "The Bankruptcy Act, 1861." Notice is hereby given by the Creditors' Assignees of the said bankrupt, in pursuance of the 110th section of "The Bankruptcy Act, 1861," that a meeting will be held at the County Court of Staffordshire, holden at Wolverhampton, on the 30th day of May, 1867, at twelve o'clock at noon, when a resolution will be submitted to the creditors:—"That the proceedings in Bankruptcy be suspended; and that the estate and effects of the said bankrupt shall be wound up and administered by Edwin Paddey, the Creditors' Assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, in like manner as if the same remained in Bankruptcy, so far as the difference in the mode of administration will admit; and that the said Assignee shall have and exercise, at his own discretion, and without any further or other authority than by the said Resolution, all such powers as he but for the said resolution would possess, or might, by order or leave of the Court or consent of Creditors, exercise. And that the debts, if any under ten pounds, as well as all other estate of the bankrupt shall vest in the said Creditors' Assignee, and shall be sued for, received, and administered by the said Creditors' Assignee," or such other resolution or resolutions, as to the manner of winding up and administering the said estate, and suspending the said proceedings in Bankruptcy, as a majority in number representing three-fourths in value of the Creditors then present shall resolve.—Wolverhampton, May 23, 1867.

THOMAS WALKER, Solicitor, Darlington-street, Solicitor to the Assignee.
